VOL. IX; NO. 26 GREEN BAY, JAN. 31, 2008 2007 SEASON REVIEW

MAGICAL SEASON COMES TO BITTER END

The most memorable Packers season in a decade came to a sudden and deflating end in overtime of the NFC Championship Game.

- On a bitterly cold Sunday night in what became the highest-rated non-Super Bowl telecast since the Seinfeld finale in 1998, the New York Giants ended Green Bay's season on a 47-yard field goal.
- Still, it was a season which exceeded nearly all expectations for the league's youngest club. Nearly every preseason prognosticator picked Green Bay to finish around the .500 mark.
- Instead, the Packers matched a franchise record with 13 regular-season wins, many of which came in electrifying fashion, and captured the 18th division title in franchise history.
- Earning a first-round bye for the first time since 1997, the Packers defeated the Seahawks in the Divisional round in what will surely go down as one of the most memorable games in Lambeau Field history.
- Head Coach Mike McCarthy, 2007 Motorola NFL Coach of the Year, became the first Packers coach since Vince Lombardi to lead his team to a championship game in his second season.
- Just two seasons removed from a 4-12 record, the resurgence came from strong play in all three phases. McCarthy, the offense's play-caller, engineered the NFL's No. 2-ranked unit, which put up one of the most productive seasons in Packers history. Not to be overlooked was the defense, which ranked 11th in the league at season's end, and a special teams unit that produced four touchdowns.

PERHAPS HIS BEST?

The NFL's only three-time MVP, quarterback Brett Favre may have completed the finest season of his career at age 38. Favre became just the fourth NFL player to be named Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year and also took home 2007 FedEx Air Player of the Year honors.

- It was a monumental year for Favre, who broke some of the league's most hallowed records.
- At the N.Y. Giants in Week 2, Favre recorded his 149th career win, surpassing John Elway as the winningest quarterback in league history. Favre now has 160 career wins.
- In Week 4 at Minnesota, he surpassed Dan Marino as the NFL's all-time leader in touchdown passes with his 421st TD. He now has 442.
- In Week 15 at St. Louis, again he surpassed Marino as the all-time leader in passing yards. He has 61,655 career passing yards.
- Once again, Favre started all 16 games at quarterback for the Packers, bringing his career total to 253 consecutive regular-season starts. That streak ranks second in NFL history.
- But it wasn't all about breaking records for Favre in 2007. In leading the Packers to the division title and the NFC's No. 2 seed, he turned in one of the finest statistical seasons of his 17-year NFL career. A look at where some of his 2007 numbers rank over his brilliant career:

Category	2007 Total	Rank
Wins	13	1T
Completion percentage	66.5%	1
300-yard passing games	7	1T
Passing yards	4,155	3
Passer rating	95.7	3
Interceptions	15	3T
Completions	356	4

PLENTY OF REASONS FOR OPTIMISM IN 2008

Headed by a strong football operations led by McCarthy and general manager Ted Thompson, the Packers enter 2008 with plenty of momentum.

- Winners of 17 of their last 20 regular-season games, the Packers will return many of their core players next season.
- McCarthy said a timetable for Favre's decision will be much like last year, in which the quarterback announced his decision to return one month after the season concluded.
- 21 of 22 starters are under contract for 2008, highlighted by a number of young contributors. 16 starters have yet to reach the age of 30.
- The Packers currently hold six selections in April's NFL Draft. NFL compensatory selections will be awarded in March.
- "There has been so much positive about how the year went along, but everybody to a man is disappointed the way it ended," McCarthy said in his final press conference. "So we have a lot of positive energy, a lot of positive experiences to tap into as we move forward, and I would anticipate come March that we'll pick up and have a better offseason than last year."
- The Packers' offseason workout program begins March 17. Mini-camps and OTAs will begin later in the spring.

MIKE McCARTHY END-OF-SEASON EXCERPTS

Jan. 23, 2008

▶ (After watching the film, is there anything you would or could have done differently from a strategic standpoint on Sunday?) Well, personally, I haven't watched the film. I know the coaches have graded the film. We talked about it as a staff. Strategically, I mean, off the top of my head, I would say no. I think anytime you go into a game-plan, you look to put your players in position to be successful. Based on the way the Giants played us, I don't think anything they did was a complete surprise. It was more about execution.

▶ (Is that unusual for you not to watch the tape three days later?) It's unusual but it normally happens at the season-ending ...You have your exit interviews, I start meeting with the coordinators today. So we haven't had time to sit down and do it. I'm not looking forward to it.

▶ (Has any of the pain subsided?) Well, it's a disappointing loss. There's no question about that for everybody involved, for our fans, the Green Bay Packers organization, and for our football team. It was an opportunity that we had earned, to be in that game, and to have the game at home, and to have a number of opportunities in the game made available for us to win the game and we did not take advantage of it. It's a tough loss, it's a loss we need to learn from and I've had a chance to look back at the game, I look at the Giants game, I look at the Seattle game and I look at the Dallas game. I think those will be three particular contests coming out of last year that I think our football team can learn from as far as the environment we played in, the path that each game created and how you respond to the adversity and the opportunities within those games. Those are lessons we need to learn from and apply to our future.

▶ (Can you be more specific on the execution shortcomings?) Fundamentals. You can go through the game. You talk about run defense being a primary focus in the football game, it was not our best day against the run. We felt matchups were favorable with our perimeter against our perimeter on offense. We did not take advantage of the opportunities that we had. We did not run the ball very well. So just a lot of the basic, fundamental aspects of football that we work on every single day. When the ball's on the ground, you jump on the football. The things that frustrate me, people want to talk about penalties and what they've done, I don't have control of how the Giants would play. I don't have control on how penalties are applied in the game, both to you and against you. But the thing we do control is the way we practice every day and how we play. And when you don't execute at the level that you're capable of executing with the things that you practice every day, that's what is disappointing.

▶ (Did you not feel you could attack the middle of their defense? Were they playing to take away the slants?) Offensively, just going back through the call sheet, our biggest problem on offense was first of all the production in normal down and distance, and then the inability to convert third downs. We can question all we want about the game-plan, but when you play 49 plays and you're an up-tempo offense, there's something wrong. Do you run enough keeps, do you attack the middle of the field? I mean, to me, that's all open for conversation. But the fact that the time of possession, when the other team had 30 more punches available to them just based on number of plays compared to your plays, there's obviously a lot of things that the play-caller didn't get to that he would have like to have done. But to start the game, wanted to move the quarterback, get the ball on the perimeter if they did pressure us, which they did, and we didn't take advantage of the one-on-ones when that did happen.

▶ (You always run the risk of those bad-weather days up here in the playoffs. Is there anything you need to do to become a better extreme-weather team?) Well, that's a hard environment to create from a practice environment. But I thought our players handled the weather much better than the first time in Chicago. I have a point of reference to point from a coaching standpoint, but as far as practicing outside, there's other factors involved with why we don't go outside. But I'm comfortable with the way we practiced, if that's what your question is.

▶ (Can you put your finger on why the focus and fundamentals were not there?) First of all, you have to give credit to the New York Giants. They played very well and I don't want to take away anything away from their victory and what they've accomplished on the road, and I'm in charge of the Green Bay Packers and it starts with me, the responsibility. We did not play our best football in a time when we needed to play our best football. That's something our whole offseason will be based on. There are a lot of positives throughout the season that we'll move forward from and if we need to change anything with our structure, our practice structure, anything involved, I think we've shown in the last two years we've been here we're not afraid to change if it's going to make our football team better.

▶ (Do you have a wish list of upgradeable positions?) I'm not there yet. I'll spend the rest of the week, I'm actually meeting with the coordinators, I probably won't have a chance to meet with the assistant coaches until I get back from the Pro Bowl. But that's an ongoing process. Ted left for the Senior Bowl on Tuesday, so we had some preliminary talks just about personnel, but I'm not really ready to answer that question.

▶ (Did you get any sense of where Brett's head is at going back to Mississippi?) I had a chance to talk to Brett yesterday for quite some time. He was actually heading back, him and his family except for Deanna were headed back to Mississippi today, and we really ... as far as how to handle the decision, very similar to last year. Take a couple weeks, take the emotion out of everything that's going on positive and negative and make the best decision that's in the best interest of him and his family. We talked about all the reasons why to come back and some of the reasons why he wouldn't come back. We ran through that gauntlet. He's always been very open and forthcoming with how he feels about every situation. I told him I'd call him or he'd call me in the next seven or 10 days. That's really how we did it the last two years. We'll talk probably every seven to 10 days.

▶ (Do you get the feeling there's unfinished business, doesn't want his final pass to be an interception?) We covered all that and then more.

▶ (A year ago, you were ending on a high note. What's it going to be like this year getting guys back on the horse?) Well, I'll say this, for as tough as the loss has been, 99 percent of the conversations I've had with the players and coaches has been extremely positive. This group of players was a fun group to coach, it was a fun run we were on. We won a lot of football games, won a lot of them in big fashion, won some tight ones, too. But just the culture that's been created. I feel very good about the program, the direction of our program that is in place. So do the players. They feel they're treated extremely well, the communication and all the key elements of being successful are in place.

▶ (Now that you have an established running back, do you think you're going to be a different team, focused more on the running game?) I agree with you. It goes back to our first conversation that I've ever had at this podium, talking about offensive football and what the team needs to look like. I think the game against the Giants is a perfect illustration. You need to run the football in January to win in Green Bay, Wisconsin. And it's not actually the run average, it's the attempts. Now, third down was a big part of the failure in this particular game against the Giants. But the running game, there's so many things that come off of that. The keeps, the attitude, the wear and tear of a four-quarter game. So that is a focus of ours. The identity of our football team will always be built around our offensive and defensive line, and we need to improve the run-blocking. That will be a primary focus of ours in the offseason.

▶ (To be a better running team, do you need a different body type on the offensive line?) I like the body type of our offensive line. The positive is they're all young. They're all going to get stronger, they're going to get bigger, they're going to be smarter, their fundamentals are going to improve. We have so much in front of us. I'm extremely pleased with our ability to pass protect. I'll take our group over anybody in the league as far as what we ask them to do in pass protection, and the performance level of our pass protection. Our pass protection was clearly better this year than last year, and on top of that, the stress of what we put our players in this year was 10-fold what we asked them to do last year. So that part of it, they've done a great job of. But we need to pick up the run-game performance, and having Ryan Grant is a big part of that. Having a full offseason to develop and play the upcoming season the way you want to play, as opposed to going through growing pains like we went from last year's offseason program when we didn't really know who the runner was going to be, and offensive linemen fighting for jobs, so now we have a lot of competition there. I think just the maturation of our players and being in year three will help us.

▶ (What will it be like next year with a target on your back with the expectations raised?) Our challenge to improve on 13-3 is much bigger than the challenge that we encountered this year in my opinion. Because a lot of people outside of our locker room really didn't think we would be that good. We were a team that improved week to week and grew up as the season went forward. So with the fact that our schedule seems to be on paper tougher, I'm a big believer that it's not really who you play it's when you play them. But also the fact that, I don't know how many noon games we had this year, but we had a lot of noon games, there was a lot of regularity to our scheduling. We were able to stay in a teaching progression, which I prefer, because I think that helps you as a teacher. There's a lot of continuity and consistency there. That now has a potential of being broken up a bunch with Sunday Night Football and Monday Night Football, I would think we'd be a bigger candidate for those types of games. So those are all new challenges that our football team has not seen yet, the majority of our football team. So those are things we'll try to prepare for, and talk about and continue to educate. But we have a whole different set of challenges, alongside what you said about the target being on your back.

▶ (How has this team handled successes?) I think you'd have to say we handled it very well. The games that you can really draw from are the three I've stated earlier, the Dallas, the Seattle and the Giants. And I know two of those were losses. But it's what happened in those games and how you respond to that. I thought in periods of the Dallas game we responded very well in certain phases of our game. Seattle, the whole team responded nothing like I've been a part of in all my years. And the Giants, we kind of responded in spurts. We had a number of opportunities in that game that we didn't take advantage of, but really at the end of the game, you look at the big plays. And if I recall, I think the big plays in the game were 11 for us and 11 for them. So at that point, for however long they had the ball, and I know they had more first downs, but we made enough big plays in that game for it to be tied at the end of the game, and in overtime they made the big play and we didn't. Those are all things you can learn from.

▶ (Last year's NFC title game was the Saints and Bears, and neither team made the playoffs this year. Do you feel this team is set up for more sustained success?) I don't look at trying to predict records and so forth, and really to answer your question, it's a conversation I had with Joe Philbin today when we were talking about the offensive coaching staff. I think what we've done as a program is we have a lot of consistency built within our program. I'm talking about the coaching staff is really the conversation that made this come to light. And also the way our players practice, I think for the most part we were fairly consistent in the way we played throughout the course of the year. I thought our curve went upwards, which is what you were looking for. So I think there's a lot of consistent aspects of where we are as a football team. I think our organization gives us an incredible advantage in that area, because all the resources are here. That's what I focus on is staying consistent and improving. And I think if we continue to do that, we'll be back in the mix.

▶ (What was your final message to the team as they left?) First of all, to say thank you. I appreciate the way they go about their business. You feel like the head coach gets up there every year and says this is the best bunch of guys I ever coached. But they are a great bunch. They were a lot of fun to work with. It's a group of players you could really push, day in and day out. I really liked that about them. You couldn't push them hard enough, and they'd bite back, which I always like in a player, and that's important, to have that type of relationship with your players. We talked a little bit about the game, briefly just went over the schedule from now until training camp, just to give them an idea of some dates. And we talked about what we created, the culture we've created, and how they're a big part of the positive morale of our organization and all the positive things they accomplished this year, and what we have to move on to the future with.

▶ (Do you anticipate anyone on the coaching staff leaving or any additions?) Actually, Eric Lewis, our defensive quality control, has accepted a job with the University of Louisville. He will coach the secondary there. As far as the coaching staff, that's really what we've been doing the last two days, and I will continue to do that until the end of this week and probably have an opportunity to meet with each coach when we get back from the Pro Bowl.

▶ (What do you expect from the young group of skill guys next year - Grant, Wynn, Jones, Jackson?) Just the first thing is I look at that group, and I think Edgar does a great job with the running backs. I look for them to be more consistent, have the opportunity to go through an offseason and develop and be a year better. I thought we made tremendous progress and I actually had a meeting with the first- and second-year players after the team meeting and talked about how the progress of the younger players made from last year to this year and the impact that it played on our success this year as a football team and expect the same from this new rookie class. So I really told them the importance of our younger players in our system, and definitely the running back group is a big part of that. I look for them to be here, spend the extra time starting in March. We're actually going to start our first- and second-year players earlier, we're going to start those guys on March 17th, and bring the rest of the veterans back on March 31st.

▶ (Are you going to argue to bring Corey Williams back?) We're trying to sign all of our free agents, and I'm hopeful to have Corey back. I thought Corey had a heck of a year. I thought he handled his situation very well. I thought he was professional. And I'm hopeful that we can get that worked out for Corey. It'd be great to have him back.

▶ (Do you want Rob Davis back next year?) Talked to Rob a little bit yesterday. I will meet with him after the Pro Bowl. But we're definitely open to having Rob back another year.

▶ (Are you going to have Mike Eayrs look statistically at what happens to teams coming off successful seasons and the pitfalls of trying to sustain it?) That's a good point. Mike's on top of every angle as far as statistics. He does a great job with case studies, so that's something that will be part of our offseason program/self-scout. He does case studies on temperature, how it affects teams playing, so that'll be something we look at.

▶ (Do you know of any surgeries that will be needed for players?) No I don't. We haven't set the plan for offseason surgeries.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

HARLAN'S TENURE COMES TO A CLOSE

The end of the 2007 season also brought about the end of Bob Harlan's tenure as the leader of the Green Bay Packers franchise.

▶A popular figure beloved by Packers fans, his legacy as one of the greatest leaders in franchise history is firmly in place. The franchise has enjoyed tremendous success both on and off the field under his watch and seems positioned to succeed well into the future.

▶Former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue, echoing the sentiments of those around the NFL, said of Harlan's tenure, "Bob's legacy is that he and his board and his team executives and coaches not only have maintained, preserved and savored the Packer tradition, but they've enhanced it. And they've done it with class. They've done it with a focus on the game and a focus on the fans. And when I think about Bob and what his legacy is, obviously there's some really tangible pieces of legacy — the stadium and the performance on the field are probably the two most tangible things."

▶2007 marked Harlan's 37th year with the Packers, his 19th season as its principal executive.

▶Under Harlan's leadership, the Packers finished with only one losing season over his last 16 years (1992-2007).

▶Off the field, the crowning achievement of Harlan's tenure — the $295 million redevelopment of historic Lambeau Field — was ushered in at the beginning of the '03 campaign and now stands as the chief component for assuring the team's financial survival for the next three decades.

▶Harlan originally joined the club as assistant general manager on June 1, 1971.

▶He was named corporate general manager in 1975, corporate assistant to the president in 1981 and executive vice president of administration on Feb. 16, 1988.

▶Harlan was elected the ninth president and chief executive officer of the Green Bay Packers, Inc., on June 5, 1989.

▶His legacy was honored even before the end of his tenure, as he was inducted into the Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame, July 17, 2004.

▶Under his guidance, the franchise posted a .500-or-better season 13 straight years (1992-2004) for the first time since 1934-47.

▶The Packers own the NFL's best record since 1993, the dawn of free agency and the salary cap, a period many observers predicted would send Green Bay into a downward spiral.

▶Harlan got his start in sports in 1960 at Marquette University as sports information director, working with legendary basketball coach Al McGuire during the 1964-65 season.

▶In addition to the Super Bowl ring from the Packers' 1996 championship, he possesses a 1967 World Series ring, earned while he worked for the St. Louis Cardinals.

▶He hired Ron Wolf as General Manager in 1991, initiating an on-field renaissance that has seen the Packers achieve 11 playoff berths, seven division championships, four NFC Championship Games and back-to-back Super Bowl appearances, including a 35-21 victory over New England in Super Bowl XXXI, returning the Lombardi Trophy to Green Bay for the first time in 29 years.

▶He presided over a historic move – the '94 decision to leave Milwaukee, ending a 62-year stay, and play all home games in Green Bay.

▶He launched the fourth stock sale in the team's history in 1997, a mechanism which produced more than $20 million in "new money" and in excess of 100,000 new shareholders.

▶Also, he authorized construction of the Don Hutson Center, the team's "state of the art" indoor practice facility.

THOMPSON REWARDED WITH CONTRACT EXTENSION

Executive Vice President, General Manager and Director of Football Operations Ted Thompson was signed to a new, five-year contract which runs through the 2012 season.

▶Thompson, who recently finished his third season as the leader of the team's football operations, has built the Packers into one of the NFL's strongest young teams.

▶A strong and keen evaluator of talent, Thompson has strengthened the team's foundation by creating a solid mix of veteran leadership to surround a young, talented core.

▶Of the 53 active roster players for the playoffs, 40 had been acquired by Thompson. Eight starters, including specialists, have been drafted by Thompson over the past three seasons (2005-07).

▶Thompson has proven equally adept at figuring which types of players fit best into the team's makeup, whether it be through trades or free agency. Ryan Grant, Ryan Pickett, Tracy White and Charles Woodson have all thrived in Green Bay.

▶Equally important has been the personnel staff's ability to uncover the hidden gems, players that go undrafted or are 'street' free agents. Atari Bigby and Donald Lee enjoyed career seasons in '07, while Jason Hunter and Tramon Williams were key members of the special teams and defensive units.

▶"We are very pleased with the way Ted Thompson has led the football operations of this organization," Harlan said. "He is doing exactly what we anticipated when we hired him. He crafted his trade under Ron Wolf, built a strong football team in Seattle and has built a team here in Green Bay that is back in the playoffs. He has a great system of building the team through the draft and has the Packers positioned very well for the future."

▶"This is a great organization and I am deeply humbled and appreciative," said Thompson. "This is truly a team effort. Green Bay is a special place and I am honored to work with such a great group of people."

RESTORING THE LAMBEAU ADVANTAGE

Lambeau Field has always been known as one of the tougher NFL venues to play in, particularly during the harsh Wisconsin winter.

▶Head Coach Mike McCarthy had stated that one of his primary goals for the 2007 season was to reclaim the mystique of playing at Lambeau Field. Mission accomplished.

▶The Packers finished 7-1 at Lambeau in 2007, a marked improvement from their 3-5 record in '06.

▶It was the Packers' best home record since the 2002 season, when they won all eight games at Lambeau Field.

▶Green Bay heads into the 2008 season winners of 9 of its last 10 home games, a streak that dates back to '06.

▶Since Brett Favre took over as quarterback early in the 1992 season, no team has enjoyed more success at home. A look at the top home W-L records since the '92 season:

Team	W-L Record	Pct.
Green Bay Packers	97-31-0	.758
Denver Broncos	95-33-0	.742
Pittsburgh Steelers	92-35-1	.723
Kansas City Chiefs	92-36-0	.719
Minnesota Vikings	86-42-0	.672

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

AN ALL-PRO SINCE MIDSEASON

While it struggled to get production out of its run game through the first half of the season, Green Bay seemed to uncover a gem in first-year running back Ryan Grant.

- ▶Grant assumed running back duties in the second quarter against Denver in Week 8 and responded with his first 100-yard performance.
- ▶A powerful runner with the requisite open-field speed, Grant totaled five 100-yard performances on the season.
- ▶He had 11 rushes of 20 yards or more in the regular season. No running back in the NFL averaged more 20-yard-plus runs per-carry than Grant (every 17.1 attempts). Minnesota's Adrian Peterson, ranked No. 2, had one every 18.3 carries.
- ▶Acquired in a trade with the New York Giants, Grant arrived in Green Bay just before Week 1 and made an early mark with his play on the special teams coverage units.
- ▶Grant earned his first career start in Week 9 at Kansas City and started every game thereafter. A dual threat out of the backfield, the Notre Dame product also caught 30 passes.
- ▶A look at the top regular-season rushers in the NFL since Week 8:

Running back	Rush Yards since Week 8
LaDainian Tomlinson, SD	947
Ryan Grant, GB	929
Jamal Lewis, CLE	922
Clinton Portis, WAS	856
Fred Taylor, JAX	850

- ▶Including playoffs, Grant rushed for 1,159 yards and 11 touchdowns in the final 12 games of the season. He carries into 2008 a streak of six consecutive regular-season games with a rushing TD, which ties the second-longest streak in Packers history. Terdell Middleton had a rushing touchdown in six straight games in 1978, and Paul Hornung scored in seven consecutive games in 1960.
- ▶His sudden rise to stardom was never more evident than his first career playoff game. After two fumbles early in the first quarter, Grant responded by establishing Packers postseason records with 201 rushing yards and three rushing scores.

WHERE THE '07 OFFENSE RANKS

In addition to tying the franchise record with 13 wins, the 2007 Packers ranked high in a number of league rankings and club record lists.

- ▶Finishing as the league's No. 2-ranked offense, Green Bay accomplished its highest league ranking since 1983, when the unit also finished No. 2. It is the second consecutive top-10 finish for McCarthy's unit, and the 11th top-10 finish in quarterback Brett Favre's 16-season tenure.
- ▶The NFL's fourth-highest scoring offense put up 435 points in 2007, third on the Packers' all-time single-season list.
- ▶The 2007 total of 5,931 net yards (1,597 rushing, 4,334 passing) ranks third in club annals.
- ▶Its net yards passing (4,334 yards) also ranks third in team history.
- ▶Along with Favre, quarterbacks Aaron Rodgers and Craig Nall combined for 383 completions (tied for first) while compiling a 66.3 completion percentage, the highest in Packers history.

NOBODY'S BETTER AFTER THE CATCH

The league's No. 2-ranked passing offense was bolstered by its receivers' ability to run after the catch.

- ▶Led by wide receivers Donald Driver, Greg Jennings, James Jones and tight end Donald Lee, Green Bay led the league in yards after the catch. The Packers amassed a league-best 2,294 yards after the catch, 51.4% of their total passing yards. The NFL average in 2007 was 1,596 yards.
- ▶The only other teams to surpass 2,000 yards after the catch were New Orleans (2,112) and New England (2,052).
- ▶The big-play ability of the Packers offense shouldn't come as a total surprise. Green Bay finished second in yards after the catch, behind New Orleans, in 2006.

MAKING HIS POINT

Rookie kicker Mason Crosby led all NFL players with 141 points.

- ▶He becomes only the seventh rookie in NFL history to lead the league in scoring and the first since Kevin Butler in 1985. The last Packers player to lead the league in points was Chester Marcol (94, 1974).
- ▶Crosby surpassed Ryan Longwell's franchise record for points in a season by a kicker (131 in 2000).
- ▶He finished just shy of the NFL record for points in a season by a rookie kicker, established by Butler (144 points) in '85.

BIG PLAYS HIGHLIGHT '07 NUMBERS

Whether it was a long strike from Favre to one of his receivers or a long scamper from running back Ryan Grant, big plays served as the catalyst to Green Bay's high-powered offense.

- ▶The Packers finished the season with 67 plays of 20 yards or more, second only to Dallas (68). Fifteen of those big plays came on the ground, and 52 came through the air.
- ▶The offense had a number of memorable long touchdowns on the ground and through the air. Favre connected on eight touchdown passes of 40 yards or longer this season. Never in Favre's career has he hit for so many long touchdowns in one season.
- ▶On the receiving end of six of the eight long touchdowns was the second-year pro Jennings, who connected on two such scoring plays as a rookie last season. Three this season have been quite memorable, providing the go-ahead touchdown in the fourth quarter or overtime against San Diego, at Denver and at Kansas City.
- ▶"I think Brett and the receiver group have done an excellent job in the three- and five-step drops," McCarthy said about the team's success with the long ball. "With that we've been given some opportunities to go vertical, go deep, whether it's inside or outside."
- ▶The last Favre-to-Jennings connection, a 44-yarder in St. Louis, was the quarterback's 59th career touchdown pass of 40 yards or more. A look at Favre's most productive seasons with the big play:

Season	TD Passes 40+ Yards

Favre's 90-yard touchdown pass to Driver in the NFC Championship Game was the fourth-longest pass play in a postseason game in NFL history. A look at the longest passing plays in postseason history:

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

WHERE THE '07 DEFENSE RANKS

Green Bay's defense finished just yards away from being a top-10 unit and finished the season at No. 11.

- ▶Perhaps more telling is where it finished in scoring defense – No. 6. It surrendered just 291 points.
- ▶It was a top-10 unit in two very important categories: third-down defense (No. 3) and red-zone defense (No. 8).
- ▶Quarterbacks had a hard time against the Packers defense, completing just 55.2% of their passes. Only Pittsburgh (54.5%) held opponents to a lower completion percentage.

"SPECIAL" TEAMS MUCH IMPROVED

Having always been a key ingredient to the success of the Packers, Green Bay's special teams unit has seen a remarkable improvement this season.

- ▶An area of emphasis all offseason, the unit got things going early in Week 1 by accounting for all 16 points. Against Oakland in Week 14, it accounted for two more TDs, bringing its 2007 total to four.
- ▶In Rick Gosselin's annual Dallas Morning News rankings, which objectively grades teams by their rankings in 22 kicking-game categories, Green Bay finished seventh both in 1996 and 1997. The Packers reached the Super Bowl both seasons.
- ▶More recently, the Packers ranked eighth in 2003 and ninth in 2004. Both years they made the playoffs.
- ▶In 2005 and '06, Green Bay ranked last in the NFL in Gosselin's rankings. Neither year resulted in a postseason appearance.
- ▶The coverage units were drastically better in 2007. The Packers ranked fourth in the league in opponent punt return average and seventh in opponent kickoff return average.
- ▶Another sign of the coverage units' improvement: their ability to take the ball away. They had just one forced fumble in 2006, but totaled three forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries this season.
- ▶Their own return game was much improved from last season as well, having scored on multiple returns (two punts) for the first time since 1998. Ranked 24th in punt return average last season, the unit ranked seventh thanks to Will Blackmon, Tramon Williams and Charles Woodson. Their kick return game, ranked 31st last year, has been bolstered by the addition of Koren Robinson, who exploded in St. Louis for 130 yards on three returns. It ranked 23rd.

THE POINT OF NO RETURN

The Green Bay Packers allowed just two touchdowns on any type of return – fumble, interception, punt or kickoff – this season, second fewest in the NFL behind Seattle (1). Both scores came in Week 16 at Chicago.

- ▶Conversely, the Packers were 5-0 when either their defense or special teams scored a touchdown. Special teams scored in three victories (Phi., Car., Oak.), while the defense scored twice (Was., K.C.).

LOOKOUT, QUARTERBACKS

A defense that tallied 36 sacks was highlighted by one of the top sack duos.

- ▶Defensive end Aaron Kampman, NFC Defensive Player of the Month for October, posted 12 sacks, tied for 11th in the NFL. Fellow end Kabeer Gbaja-Biamila tallied 9½ sacks, tied for 17th.
- ▶31½ of those sacks came courtesy of the defensive line. Defensive tackle Corey Williams accounted for seven of the sacks, tying his career high established last season.

STATISTICAL ODDITIES FROM 2007

Stats and facts one can find upon a closer look at the league statistics:

- ▶Lambeau Field set a single-season home attendance record in its 50th anniversary season as 566,443 Packers fans made their way through the turnstiles. That bested the previous high, 565,749, set last season.
- ▶Including road games, the Packers played in front of 1,120,775 NFL fans this season, breaking the record of 1,112,569 established in 2004.
- ▶The Packers enter 2008 with a takeaway in 23 of their last 24 games.
- ▶The Packers were one of two teams not to attempt a two-point conversion all season. In fact, they have never attempted a two-point conversion in the Mike McCarthy era.
- ▶Green Bay allowed just 19 sacks on the season, tied for third in the NFL. Favre was sacked only 15 times this season, which is the second lowest total of his career (12 in 2004). The 19 sacks ties for the second fewest allowed in a 16-game season (14 in '04; 19 in '03)
- ▶Want efficiency? You don't need to look further than Packers wideout Ruvell Martin. Fifteen of his 16 receptions on the year went for first downs. His percentage of first downs per reception (93.75%) led all NFL players with at least 10 catches.

TOPS THROUGH TWO

Honored by the NFL Alumni and Motorola as the 2007 NFL Coach of the Year, McCarthy keeps piling up victories.

- ▶With 21 regular-season wins, McCarthy ties Mike Sherman for the most wins by a Packers coach in his first two years.
- ▶McCarthy captured the NFC North crown in his second campaign, something Sherman did not accomplish until his third season. Mike Holmgren won his first division title in Green Bay in his fourth season.
- ▶In his second season with the Packers in 1960, Vince Lombardi captured the Western Conference title before losing to Philadelphia, 17-13, in the NFL Championship.
- ▶A look at the most successful coaches in Packers history through their first two seasons in Green Bay:

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

DECEMBER IS TIME TO REMEMBER

The importance of the NFL's final month cannot be understated. Whether it involves clinching division crowns, jockeying for playoff positioning or building momentum for next season, every game in December matters.

- ▶For the Packers, December has always proved successful. They finished the month with a 3-1 mark this season, with their only blemish coming in Chicago in gusting winds and sub-zero wind chills.
- ▶Since 1997, they own the league's best mark in games played in the final month (including regular-season games played in January) at 38-13-0. New England's 36-13-0 mark ranks second in the NFL during that time.
- ▶Head Coach Mike McCarthy certainly has continued the tradition of December success. He is 7-2 in the month since coming to Green Bay.

SECRET TO SUCCESS? GET AHEAD AND STAY THERE

Favre has given a lot of credit for his performance to the Packers' ability to play with the lead. Playing ahead, he says, means he does not have to take as many shots downfield or get points in a hurry.

- ▶The statistics back up Favre's claims. In 16 regular-season games, the Packers led their opponents for 535 minutes and 51 seconds. They trailed in just 188 minutes and 12 seconds of play.
- ▶They trailed for the majority of the game in two of their losses. At Dallas, they were behind for 48:15, and trailed at Chicago for 46:55. The only other game in which they spent more time trailing was the win over San Diego (19:54 in lead; 32:13 trailing).

SIMPLY THE BEST

The Packers own more NFL championships (12) than any other franchise, but it's not all about past glory for the Green and Gold.

- ▶Talk of unrestricted free agency in the early '90s led many to believe small-town Green Bay would be the first franchise to fold.
- ▶Since the advent of free agency in 1993, the Packers own the best W-L record in the NFL. They have captured seven division titles in that time.
- ▶The Packers have won 10 or more game in nine seasons since 1993.
- ▶A look at the most successful teams in the free-agency era shows eight of the last 11 Super Bowl champions, beginning with Green Bay's '96 title:

Team	W-L Record	Pct.
Green Bay Packers	152-88-0	.633

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

From the opening kickoff against the Philadelphia Eagles to their first home NFC Championship Game since 1996, the Packers hosted a season-long celebration commemorating the 50th anniversary of Lambeau Field. The crown jewel of the National Football League remains the most historic stadium in football.

- ▶Not surprisingly, Lambeau Field remained a tough place to score a ticket, selling out each of its 10 dates on the year. The NFC title game marked the 269th consecutive sellout at Lambeau Field (253 regular season, 16 playoffs).
- ▶Dedicated as City Stadium Sept. 29, 1957, with a 21-17 victory over the archrival Chicago Bears, the team renamed the facility Lambeau Field in 1965 following the death of E.L. 'Curly' Lambeau, the Packers' founder and first coach. It is the NFL's longest-tenured facility.
- ▶To mark the occasion, an anniversary logo was created and was featured on the team's home uniforms, Gameday program, the media guide and the Packers Yearbook.
- ▶Lambeau Field also featured the special logo in the north end zone. Both end zones were painted to reflect the way they were in Lambeau Field's first season in 1957.
- ▶Renowned 3-D pop artist Charles Fazzino was commissioned by the Packers to create an art piece celebrating the 50th anniversary. Fazzino, the official artist of the Super Bowl and Major League Baseball's All-Star Game, spent nine months on the project. The piece is available in a limited edition 3-D format, as well as on T-shirts, helmets and assorted items in the Packers Pro Shop.
- ▶Packers ticket holders enjoyed images of Lambeau Field through the years on their tickets as well.

PACKERS VS. GIANTS - L, 23-20 OT

NFC TITLE SLIPS AWAY

How long this one will sting, no one will know. The Packers saw their remarkable season come to an all-too-abrupt end as Lawrence Tynes' 47-yard field goal 2 minutes and 35 seconds into overtime gave the New York Giants a 23-20 upset and the NFC Championship at a frigid Lambeau Field.

▶The Packers seemingly had everything going their way. They had put together a superb 13-3 regular season and had earned the right to host the conference title game with perhaps their best performance of the season a week prior against Seattle, coupled with the Giants knocking off top-seeded Dallas.

▶But New York apparently wasn't done surprising the football world as a No. 5 seed. The Giants became the second team in three years (Pittsburgh, 2005) to win three consecutive road playoff games to advance to the Super Bowl, this one coming in the Green Bay cold topped only by the Ice Bowl, with minus-1 temperatures and minus-23 wind chills at kickoff.

▶With the score tied at 20, Tynes missed a 43-yard field goal wide left with 6:49 left in the fourth quarter. Then the Giants drove into position again in the final two minutes, only to have a high snap lead to another shank by Tynes, from 36 yards on the final play of regulation to send the game to overtime.

▶But it turned out the Packers were only delaying defeat. They even won the coin toss to start the overtime, but symptomatic of an offense that was struggling mightily down the stretch, with back-to-back three-and-outs with the score tied late, the Packers never even gave themselves a chance to win.

▶Brett Favre was intercepted by Corey Webster when he underthrew an out route to Donald Driver on the second snap of overtime, and the Giants needed to drive just 5 yards to set up a third try for Tynes. This time he was true, stunning the record crowd of 72,740 at Lambeau.

▶The game-changing play by Webster was a big-time atonement for an early mistake. With the Giants leading 6-0, Webster was beaten badly off the jam at the line of scrimmage by Driver, who hauled in Favre's pass in stride and outran Webster and safety Gibril Wilson to the end zone for a 90-yard touchdown, the longest play from scrimmage in a postseason game in franchise history.

▶Driver (5 catches, 141 yards) hauled in another 20-yard pass to set up a field goal before halftime, but that 10-6 advantage quickly vanished.

▶Two third-down penalties on the first Giants' drive of the second half - an illegal contact on Al Harris that negated his own interception, and a roughing-the-passer call on Nick Collins after a pass had been batted down at the line - gave New York life, not only on that possession but seemingly the rest of the game.

▶A 1-yard TD run by Brandon Jacobs (21 carries, 67 yards) gave the Giants the lead back. The Packers answered with their own touchdown, helped by Tramon Williams' 49-yard kickoff return and a crucial New York penalty, as cornerback Sam Madison was called for unnecessary roughness after a third-down stop. Favre (19-of-35, 236 yards, 2 TD, 2 INT, 70.7 rating) found Donald Lee from 12 yards out for another score and a 17-13 edge, but the Giants came right back again.

▶Hitting throws to Plaxico Burress (11 catches, 151 yards) and Amani Toomer (4 catches, 42 yards), Eli Manning moved the Giants in position again. Rookie Ahmad Bradshaw (16 carries, 63 yards) ran it in from 4 yards out, and New York never trailed again. Manning, whose cold-weather abilities were questioned coming into the game, was a mistake-free 21-of-40 for 251 yards (72.3 rating).

▶The Packers had one last shot to regain the lead but didn't take advantage of a huge break. Early in the fourth quarter, Favre spun away from pressure and threw an ill-advised pass into coverage that was picked off by R.W. McQuarters. Ryan Grant stripped the ball from McQuarters on the return, and it flew right into the bread-basket of Mark Tauscher at the New York 19-yard line.

▶But the Packers stalled, settling for a game-tying field goal with 11:46 left in the fourth, and never gained another first down. Grant, one week after setting a franchise playoff rushing record with 201 yards, had just 29 on 13 carries, and 20 of those yards came on two plays on the same drive. The Packers were just 1-for-10 on third downs and as a result were dominated in time of possession, 40:01 to 22:34.

▶It took a while, with the two Tynes misses and the Packers getting yet another chance in overtime, but the home team never seized the moment.

DRIVER'S BIG PLAY CAN'T SPARK OFFENSE

Favre's dramatic 90-yard touchdown pass to Driver early in the second quarter was not only the longest play from scrimmage in Green Bay postseason history. It was also, unfortunately, more than one-third of the Packers' total offense in this NFC Championship.

▶It was Driver's first TD since Week 3, and it also gave Favre his 18th consecutive postseason game with a TD pass, extending his own league record.

▶With a non-existent running game and an inability to convert on third downs, the Packers amassed just 264 yards of total offense.

▶The Packers weren't able to break anybody else free all night, especially Ryan Grant. Ten of Grant's 13 carries went for 2 yards or less, and facing third-and-long much of the game, the Packers converted just 1-of-10 on third down.

▶"Getting first downs is how you get in a rhythm," Tauscher said. "We weren't able to get in any semblance of a rhythm. It was pretty choppy the whole day, and we weren't able to sustain anything."

KEY FUMBLE GOES THE OTHER WAY

Not that the Packers weren't given their chances with Lawrence Tynes' two missed field goals in the fourth quarter. But before the second miss, the Packers had a prime opportunity for a game-changing turnover.

▶R.W. McQuarters was returning Jon Ryan's punt when Tracy White knocked the ball loose near midfield. Green Bay's Jarrett Bush initially had a chance to scoop it up, but couldn't. Then Brady Poppinga had a chance to fall on the ball, but it squirted away, eventually recovered by New York's Domenik Hixon at the Green Bay 48.

▶The play was eerily similar to the first win of the season against Philadelphia, in which the Packers recovered a muffed punt near the end of the fourth quarter. Crosby nailed a 42-yard field goal to win the game.

▶"I'm sure there are a number of plays you can look back at them and say if we could have done this or done that, you would have been in a different situation," Poppinga said. "So goes those games. Six points in our favor, we're here and nobody's talking about those. That's how the NFL operates. It's a game of inches, it's a game of one team making one more play when it counts, and they did that."

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

WHEN FAVRE HITS THE CENTURY MARK

Quarterback Brett Favre, the league's only three-time MVP (1995-97) who turned 38 in October, turned in a season that almost defied description.

- His Week 17 performance against the Lions was his 10th game of the season with a passer rating over 100.0. All 10 have come in victory and mark a single-season career high for the quarterback. His previous career high was nine games with a passer rating of 100.0 or better, established in the 1995 season.
- Favre compiled a passer rating over 100.0 for five consecutive weeks (Weeks 8-12), tying his own career high and marking the first time he's accomplished the feat in a single season. He had three games with a passer rating over 100.0 in Weeks 2-4 earlier this season.
- It marked the fifth and sixth time in his career that Favre has recorded at least three straight games with a passer rating over 100.0. He did it twice in 1995 (Nov. 12 – Dec. 3, 4 games; Dec. 16 – Jan. 6, 4 games) and twice again in 1996 (Sept. 1 – Sept. 15, 3 games; Dec. 22 – Sept. 1, 1997, 5 games). Favre was voted the league's MVP in both seasons.
- The last time he accomplished five consecutive games with a passer rating over 100.0 was during the team's Super Bowl XXXI run. The streak began with the final regular-season game against Minnesota (Dec. 22, 1996) and culminated in the first regular-season game the following season (vs. Chicago, Sept. 1). It included three playoff victories, most notably a 35-21 victory over New England in the Super Bowl.
- Elias Sports Bureau never intended for the passer rating to reflect efficiency on a game-by-game basis, but rather to measure the effectiveness of a quarterback over an entire season, or an entire career.
- Nonetheless, in games when Favre compiles at least a 100.0 rating, the Packers are 83-7 (.922).
- The Packers are a perfect 45-0 (1.000) at Lambeau Field when Favre hits the century mark. The team is 38-7 (.844) on the road when Favre eclipses the mark.

PACKERS AMONG NFL'S BEST AWAY FROM LAMBEAU

Green Bay enjoyed remarkable success on the road, having won eight of its last 10 contests. Its seven-game road winning streak, which was snapped at Dallas, was something the franchise had not accomplished since Vince Lombardi's final two seasons (1966-67) in Green and Gold.

- The seven-game road winning streak was the third-longest mark in franchise history. The Packers have won eight consecutive road games twice (1941-42 and 1966-67), the best mark in their history.
- One of the most impressive accomplishments of Head Coach Mike McCarthy's first year as head coach was the way his club performed on the road. The Packers finished 5-3 away from home in 2006, recording the most road wins in franchise history for a coach in his first season.
- McCarthy and the Packers did one better in 2007, finishing their regular-season road record at 6-2.
- A look at the top road teams in the NFL since 2006:

Team	Road Record	Pct.
New England	15-1	.937
Dallas	12-4	.750
N.Y. Giants	12-4	----

IN THE NFL'S 'BLACK AND BLUE' DIVISION

Under McCarthy, the Packers have been extremely successful in the NFC North and clinched the club's first division crown since 2004.

- McCarthy is 9-3 in NFC North games since taking over in Green Bay in 2006. All three division losses have been to the Chicago Bears.
- Last season, the Packers finished tied for the NFL's best division record at 5-1, losing only to Chicago in the season opener. No other head coach in team annals had a better division mark in his rookie season than McCarthy.

TURNOVERS THE NAME OF THE GAME

With its turnover margin at plus-four, Green Bay won 13 regular-season games thanks in large part to its ability to turn turnovers into points. On defense, the Packers have been able to clamp down after turnovers, not allowing opponents to capitalize on scoring opportunities.

- Green Bay scored 96 points off 28 turnovers. On the other side of the ball, the defense allowed 65 points off 24 turnovers.
- The Packers won the turnover battle in nine of their 13 wins this season. They came out even in their wins at Minnesota, at Kansas City and at Detroit. They were minus in that category in their only losses, twice against Chicago (minus-four and minus-two) and at Dallas (minus-one), but were able to defeat the Rams despite losing the turnover battle (minus-one).
- Green Bay did not have a giveaway in the victory over Carolina in Week 11, a feat the club accomplished against Minnesota, Denver and San Diego this season.
- Over a longer stretch, the team has won 30 of 31 games playing turnover-free football, since a loss at Dallas, Nov. 18, 1996. Green Bay's only loss in such games during that stretch was a 23-20 defeat at Minnesota, Oct. 23, 2005.
- Including playoffs, the Packers have won 33 of their last 34 games without a giveaway.

PROTECTION, TACKLE DUO AS STEADY AS THEY COME

Facing some of the league's top-ranked pass rushers, Green Bay leaned heavily on its stellar pass protection. Earlier in the season, Favre had a streak of 152 consecutive passes without a sack, one short of his career high established in 2004.

- Behind Favre's top-notch protection are two stalwart tackles in Chad Clifton and Mark Tauscher. Both Clifton (111 career starts) and Tauscher (107) were inserted into the starting lineup as rookies in 2000.
- Favre's blind-side shield, Clifton has started 79 of 80 games since returning from a pelvic injury that ended his 2002 season after a blind-side hit from Warren Sapp. Only a bout with the flu at Miami (Oct. 22, 2006) could snap the streak.
- Tauscher started 14 games as a rookie in 2000, earning his first start at right tackle in Week 3, a position he has yet to relinquish. He saw his own consecutive starts streak come to an end as well in 2006 (57 games) because of a groin injury.
- The duo has provided a steady influence to their younger teammates along the line. Already this season, five different players have seen extensive time along the interior of the offensive line (Daryn Colledge, Junius Coston, Tony Moll, Jason Spitz and Scott Wells).
- Elite pass blockers that rarely receive the credit they deserve, Clifton and Tauscher have anchored an offensive line that allowed just 19 sacks on the season, tied for third best in the league.
- The 2007 results shouldn't come as a total surprise. A look at the clubs who have given up the fewest regular-season sacks since Clifton and Tauscher became fixtures in the starting lineup in 2000:

Team	Sacks Allowed Since Week 7, 2000
Indianapolis Colts	159
Green Bay Packers	169
San Diego Chargers	215
Denver Broncos	229
New England Patriots	236
Tennessee Titans	236

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

HEADING TO HONOLULU

Represented by two selections on each side of the ball, Green Bay Packers quarterback Brett Favre, wide receiver Donald Driver, defensive end Aaron Kampman and cornerback Al Harris were named Pro Bowl selections by the National Football League. Favre (ankle) withdrew due to injury.

- Originally named a first alternate, tackle Chad Clifton was selected to play to replace Seahawks tackle Walter Jones. Other first alternates included linebacker Nick Barnett and cornerback Charles Woodson.
- For Favre, this marks the ninth Pro Bowl selection of his career and first since 2003. The leading Pro Bowl vote-getter broke some of the league's most hallowed records this season.
- Driver earns a trip to his second consecutive and third career Pro Bowl. He tied a team record with 1,000 receiving yards in a fifth overall season, joining Sterling Sharpe and Pro Football Hall of Famer James Lofton as one of three Packers to achieve the feat.
- Kampman, in his sixth season out of Iowa, returns to Hawaii for the second consecutive year. The defensive end had his streak of consecutive starts (73) snapped in Week 17 and finished with 12 sacks.
- Harris is making his first trip to the Pro Bowl. In his 10th NFL season and fifth with Green Bay, he totaled 37 tackles, two interceptions and nine pass deflections.
- Other alternates include safety Nick Collins, tight end Bubba Franks, running back Ryan Grant, linebacker A.J. Hawk, wide receiver Greg Jennings, tight end Donald Lee and center Scott Wells.

MORE STATISTICAL ODDITIES FROM 2007 SEASON

- 0: Touchdown passes Favre threw to running backs this season. All 28 of his TDs went to receivers and tight ends for the first time in his career. In two other seasons, Favre had just one TD pass to a back, in 1998 (William Henderson) and 1993 (Edgar Bennett). Fittingly, he threw one to Brandon Jackson in the Divisional Playoffs.
- 1: Games Mason Crosby did not attempt a field goal. His only game without a three-point try was at Chicago (Dec. 23). The only other game he didn't make at least one field goal was at the N.Y. Giants (0-for-1).
- 2: Green Bay touchdowns called back on penalties. A 23-yard TD pass to James Jones vs. Washington was nullified by a holding penalty, and Atari Bigby's 70-yard interception return for a score vs. Oakland was wiped out by an unnecessary roughness call for a block on the QB.
- 3: Victories in domes this season. The Packers won at Minnesota's Metrodome, Detroit's Ford Field, and St. Louis' Edward Jones Dome. That brings Head Coach Mike McCarthy's dome record over two seasons to 5-0, improving the team's mark to 21-24 since 1992, Favre's first season here. The Packers can even that record at .500 next year if they can win again in Minneapolis, Detroit, and New Orleans.
- 4: Games Favre attempted at least 40 passes this season without throwing an interception. Favre attempted 45 passes in back-to-back games vs. San Diego and at Minnesota (Sept. 30) without a pick. He then attempted 46 vs. Minnesota (Nov. 11) and 41 at Detroit (Nov. 22), also without an interception. Favre has now done that 13 times in his career, and the 46 this season was a career-high for a single game and tied the franchise mark also held by Don Majkowski (at Detroit, Sept. 30, 1990).
- 5: Fair-catches called by Packers punt returners, all by Woodson. Last season, Green Bay had just three (two by Woodson), giving the unit eight fair-catches while returning 101 punts over the past two seasons (7.3%). By contrast, in the three previous years combined, the Packers called 63 fair-catches while returning just 113 punts (35.8%).
- 6: Number of starts by the season-opening offensive line of Chad Clifton, Daryn Colledge, Scott Wells, Jason Spitz and Mark Tauscher. After the season opener, this group went seven games before it was together again, starting four straight from Weeks 9 through 12, and then another four-game gap before starting the regular-season finale.
- 7: TD drives the Packers surrendered that were 80 yards or longer. By contrast, the offense produced 12 TD drives of 80 yards or more.
- 8: Times the opponent failed to score after reaching the red zone. The Packers thwarted eight red zone possessions by their opponents by getting five turnovers, two turnovers on downs, and one missed field goal. The Packers had just five empty red zone possessions.
- 9: Number of times the Packers won the time-of-possession battle, an indication of how misleading this statistic can be. The Packers actually won the time-of-possession in one of their losses (vs. Chicago, Oct. 7, 30 minutes, 30 seconds) and lost it in five of their wins. Green Bay's biggest time-of-possession advantage was vs. Minnesota (Nov. 11), 40:40 to 19:20 in a 34-0 win. The largest discrepancy the other way was at St. Louis, 23:36 to 36:24 in a 33-14 win.
- 10: Scores the Packers posted on their opening drive of the second half. Green Bay had five TDs and five FGs on its opening second-half possessions, including a streak of four straight touchdowns from Weeks 10-13. The Packers had just five scores (four TDs, one FG) on game-opening drives, for a total of 15 scores and 81 points in those situations. The opponents had nearly as many scores (13) but not nearly as many points (55), posting eight scores (three TD, five FG) to open the second half and five (one TD, four FG) to open the game.
- 11: Number of 100-yard performances by running backs and receivers on the season, led by Ryan Grant's five top rushing outings of 104 yards at Denver, 119 vs. Minnesota (Nov. 11), 101 at Detroit (Nov. 22), 156 vs. Oakland, and 100 at Chicago (Dec. 23). With two apiece were receivers Donald Driver, who had 126 yards vs. San Diego and 147 at Detroit (Nov. 22), and Greg Jennings with 141 at Denver and 100 vs. Oakland). Adding one each were receiver James Jones, with 107 yards at Denver, and running back Brandon Jackson, with 113 vs. Detroit (Dec. 30).
- 12: TD catches by Jennings, the highest by a Packers player in three years and accomplished in just 13 games. Jennings missed the first two games of the season with a hamstring injury and then sat out the regular-season finale as a precaution with an ankle injury. He had a pair of two-TD games and found the end zone in 10 of the 13 games in which he played. Javon Walker also had 12 TD receptions in 2004 for Green Bay, and those are the only double-digit TD seasons by Packers wide receivers since Antonio Freeman posted 14 in 1998.
- 13: If you count the 11:30 a.m. CT start on Thanksgiving Day, the number of "noon" kickoffs for the Packers this season. The Packers went 12-1 in those games and were 1-2 in prime time. Interestingly, the Packers did not play a late afternoon game all season, but did so in the Divisional playoffs on Jan. 12.
- 14: Number of coaches' replay challenges called in Green Bay's games, by both teams combined. McCarthy was 4-for-9 in getting calls overturned, the most notable being a 36-yard pass by Kansas City initially ruled complete, but replays showed the receiver stepped out of bounds; and an Oakland fumble on a punt return that was at first ruled down by contact, but replay reversed it, and the fumble was recovered by the Packers for a touchdown. Opposing coaches were 0-for-5 on challenges, and there were four booth reviews, all upholding the call on the field.
- 15: Number of Ruvell Martin's receptions, out of 16, that resulted in a first down (or a TD). Martin's only catch that did not pick up a first down came vs. Minnesota (Nov. 11), a 7-yard catch on first-and-10 during a two-minute drive at the end of the first half. That was the game Martin posted season-highs in catches (four), yards (57) and TDs (two).
- 16: Games the Green Bay defense held opponents to less than 50 percent conversions on third downs. Not once this season did the Packers allow the other team to reach 50 percent in a game. Three teams – Philadelphia (8-for-18), San Diego (5-for-11) and Dallas (4-for-9) came within one conversion of hitting or beating 50 percent. For the season, the Packers allowed opponents to convert just 69 of 209 third downs, for 33 percent, third-best in the NFL.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

'FAB 5' A NIGHTMARE MATCHUP

At home against Minnesota in Week 10, Green Bay unveiled its 'Big 5' formation with receivers Donald Driver, Greg Jennings, James Jones, Ruvell Martin and Koren Robinson all split out wide.

▶ Highlighted by each receiver's ability to run after the catch and their quarterback's quick release, the formation aimed to take advantage of whichever favorable matchup the defense may present. The formation wasn't dependent upon a certain down or distance, as McCarthy utilized it in nearly every possible situation.

▶ The offense also displayed a variation of the formation, with tight end Donald Lee split wide and Favre again with an empty backfield.

▶ "It's mismatches versus time (to throw) is what we're playing against," Favre said when asked about the formation. "If I was a defensive coordinator, I don't know who you stop or who you go in saying, OK, this is what we (have to prepare for) ... And for us that's a good thing. We have enough diversity to present its own set of problems."

▶ "It's important because our game is about match-ups," McCarthy said. "To me that's one of the most important aspects of game-planning. When you get to this point in the season you're looking at the injuries and different packages. Being able to take advantage of that is even more important. I think it's more evident when you watch the way that defenses react to four wide receivers or five wide receivers. There's a lot of respect and cautiousness in the way defenses approach it. I'm sure there will be a time when people challenge us (with) those particular sets, but it's definitely a weapon for us."

FAVRE AS PRECISE AS EVER

Quarterback Brett Favre surpassed some of the NFL's greatest milestones this season, but not lost on the rest of the league is just how well he played in his 17th season.

▶ For the first time in his career, Favre threw for 300 yards-or-more in three consecutive games (Weeks 3-5). What's more, he's did it twice this season, completing three straight 300-yard games in Weeks 8-10.

▶ The 1,042 passing yards Favre had in Weeks 8-10 are the most passing yards over a three-game stretch in his 17-year career.

▶ Under Mike McCarthy, his position coach in 1999, Favre cut down dramatically on his interceptions. With 15 on the season, he recorded his lowest total since 2001, when he had 15 as well.

▶ Much of the Packers' offensive success can be traced to Favre's precision passing. Between a second-quarter interception against the Giants (Week 2) and a third-quarter interception against the Bears (Week 5), Favre had attempted 142 consecutive passes without an interception – the third-longest streak of his career. During the interception-free streak, he threw nine touchdown passes.

▶ Favre completed another long interception-free streak of 139 passes, beginning with an interception just before the half in Kansas City (Week 9) and ending in the first quarter at Dallas (Week 13). He threw eight TD passes over the course of this latest streak.

No. Attempts	Date Began - Ended
163	12/10/1995 - 9/15/1996
148	12/16/2001 - 9/15/2002
142	9/16/2007 - 10/7/2007
139	11/4/2007 - 11/29/2007
126	12/14/1997 - 9/20/1998
125	11/12/1995 - 12/3/1995

WOODSON AGAIN AMONG THE GAME'S ELITE

Cornerback Charles Woodson, who has seen a resurgence to his Pro Bowl level since arriving in Green Bay, had another standout season for the Packers. While battling through a toe injury, the 10-year pro had four interceptions and two defensive touchdowns on the season.

▶ When he signed as a free agent prior to the '06 season, many around the league thought Woodson's days as an elite corner were over. Already, his three defensive touchdowns in Green and Gold surpass his total (two) in eight seasons as a Raider. What's more, the former Heisman Trophy winner has 12 interceptions in 30 games with Green Bay. He had 17 interceptions in 106 games with Oakland.

▶ Despite the fact he is a four-time Pro Bowler, Woodson won just the first Defensive Player of the Week honor of his career for his performance in Week 6 against Washington. He picked off a Jason Campbell pass and also returned a fumble 57 yards for the go-ahead touchdown.

▶ Historically, Woodson is only the fourth Packers player since 1940 with a fumble recovery for a TD and an interception in the same game. The other three Green Bay Packers to do that were Charley Brock (10/4/1942, at CHI), Tom Brown (11/17/1968, vs. NO) and Ahmad Carroll (11/29/2004, vs. StL).

JONES STEPS UP IN ROOKIE SEASON

Rookie wideout James Jones, a virtual unknown when he was drafted by the Packers in the third round of the 2007 NFL Draft, made an immediate impact in his debut season with the Packers.

▶ Much like Greg Jennings a year ago, Jones shined through spring minicamps and training camp, as coaches and players alike praised his ability to catch the ball away from his body.

▶ Favre could not help but compare the San Jose State product to another physical receiver he had worked with – Sterling Sharpe.

▶ Jones burst onto the scene in the preseason, tying for the league lead in receptions (21) and finishing third in yardage (233).

▶ He finished third among NFL rookies in receptions and receiving yards.

▶ A look at where his totals rank among Packers rookie receiving records:

Most Receptions, Rookie, Season

55	Sterling Sharpe, 1988	47	James Jones, 2007
53	Billy Howton, 1952	46	James Lofton, 1978
48	Gerry Ellis, 1980 (RB)	45	Greg Jennings, 2006

Most Receiving Yards, Rookie, Season

1,231	Billy Howton, 1952	676	James Jones, 2007
818	James Lofton, 1978	632	Greg Jennings, 2006
791	Sterling Sharpe, 1988	614	Max McGee, 1954

PLAYOFF CAPTAINS

The Packers were one of a few teams this season to have alternating game captains but elected playoff captains for the postseason.

▶ Representing the offense were Favre and Driver. It marked Favre's 11th postseason appearance, while Driver played in the postseason for the fifth time.

▶ For the defense, Kampman and Nick Barnett served as captains. This was Kampman's fourth trip to the postseason and Barnett's third.

▶ Special teams elected Rob Davis and Tracy White. Davis, the team's long-snapper and oldest player, made his seventh postseason appearance. White made his first.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

TOUGHEST ROAD VENUES? NO PROBLEM

Earlier this season, the league's youngest club proved its ability in hostile environments, even coming off short rest.

▶In the span of six days, the Packers went into two of the NFL's most hostile stadiums – Denver's INVESCO Field and Kansas City's Arrowhead Stadium – and came away with victories. Entering play this season, Kansas City (No. 1) and Denver (No. 2) owned the league's best home records since 1990. Green Bay, with its Lambeau Field advantage, owned the fourth-best winning percentage in that period.

▶What's more, Green Bay faced a rested Kansas City club coming off a bye week, while the Packers had an abbreviated week thanks to the Monday night showdown in Denver.

▶"I think our players realize, young and old, that (K.C.) was a tough game going into and a tough place to play," McCarthy said following the victory over the Chiefs. "This group works hard, stays focused. I tell them every day: smart, tough, fundamentally sound. They're in tune with that. That's the way we grade them every day. You make smart decisions, you play tough and you're fundamentally sound. We try to keep it as simple as possible."

▶The Packers completed a sweep of the AFC West and have now won six straight and nine of their last 11 against the division, dating back to a 1996 victory over Denver.

442 TD PASSES AND COUNTING...

After a moment now etched in NFL history, Brett Favre stands alone atop the all-time touchdown passes list.

▶James Jones became the 43rd different Packers player on the receiving end of a Favre touchdown pass. The start of the record, touchdown pass No. 1, began with Sterling Sharpe's grab in the fourth quarter against the Bengals on Sept. 20, 1992.

▶Favre's two fourth-quarter touchdown throws in that game not only sealed the come-from-behind, 24-23 victory, but also earned him the start the following week, a job he hasn't relinquished since.

▶In a three-touchdown performance at New England on Oct. 13, 2002, Favre became just the fourth NFL player to throw for 300 touchdowns. On his final TD pass of the day, a 2-yard toss to tight end Bubba Franks, Favre surpassed John Elway to move into third place on the all-time list.

▶He moved into second place on the list in one of the most memorable performances of his career – and in the history of Monday Night Football – when he threw four touchdown passes in the first half against Oakland just one day after the sudden death of his father, Irvin. Favre's second touchdown pass of the night, a 23-yard strike to Javon Walker, pushed him past Fran Tarkenton on the league's all-time list with 343 career TD passes.

▶A first-quarter strike to Greg Jennings made NFL history at Minnesota in Week 4. The game was stopped briefly, and a videotaped message from Dan Marino was played on the Metrodome's scoreboard.

▶A closer look at the record:

Quarterback	Team	TD Passes
Brett Favre	Atlanta, Green Bay	442
Dan Marino	Miami	420
Fran Tarkenton	Minnesota, NY Giants	342
Peyton Manning	Indianapolis	306
John Elway	Denver	300
Warren Moon	Hou., Minn., Sea., K.C.	291

A CHRONOLOGY OF THE RECORD

Eight players – all members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame – have held the NFL career touchdown pass record throughout the history of the league. Thanks to research provided by Elias Sports Bureau, the one-time record holders were:

▶Benny Friedman had 66 career TD passes and held the record from 1930 until 1943.

▶Arnie Herber, a former Green Bay signal caller, reached 66 touchdown passes in 1940 and shared the record with Friedman until 1943.

▶Sammy Baugh passed Friedman and Herber in 1943 and threw 187 career touchdowns. He held the record until 1962.

▶Bobby Layne tied Baugh in 1961 and passed him during the 1962 season. Layne finished with 196 touchdown passes and held the record until 1963.

▶Y.A. Tittle passed Layne in 1963 and finished his career with 212 touchdown passes. Tittle held the record until 1966.

▶Johnny Unitas passed Tittle in 1966 and ended his playing days with 290 TD passes. He held the record until 1975.

▶Fran Tarkenton surpassed Unitas in 1975 and became the first NFL player with 300 career TD passes. He finished with 342 touchdown passes and held the record until 1995.

▶Dan Marino passed Tarkenton on Nov. 26, 1995, at Indianapolis with a second-quarter touchdown pass and finished his career with 420 touchdown passes. He held the record until surpassed by Brett Favre in 2007.

PACKERS ONCE AGAIN LEAGUE'S YOUNGEST TEAM

Green Bay had the distinction of being the NFL's youngest team for the second straight season.

▶Since taking over general manager duties in 2005, Ted Thompson has vowed to rebuild the team's foundation. Of the 53 active roster players at the end of the season, 40 have been acquired by Thompson.

▶Each team's average age is based upon its opening-day roster. A look at the five youngest teams in 2007:

Team	Average Age
Green Bay	26 years, 89 days
Indianapolis	26 years, 91 days
N.Y. Giants	26 years, 190 days
Dallas	26 years, 197 days
Carolina	26 years, 252 days

- Statistics provided by Elias Sports Bureau

McCARTHY NOW A HALL-OF-FAMER

Though the bye week is meant for rest for players and coaches alike, Head Coach Mike McCarthy did take a detour to Baldwin City, Kan.

▶There on Oct. 20, McCarthy was inducted into Baker University's Athletic Hall of Fame, where he was an all-conference tight end and senior captain in 1986. That season, the team made a run all the way to the NAIA title game.

▶McCarthy became the 103rd member of Baker's Hall of Fame, which was founded in 1977. Baker, the oldest university in Kansas, is celebrating its 150th anniversary in 2007-08.

▶McCarthy has been taking home some hardware for his performance with the Packers as well. Twice he was honored as Motorola NFL Coach of the Week honors and won the 2007 Motorola NFL Coach of the Year award.

FAVRE'S MOST IMPRESSIVE STAT?

Not to be overlooked as he broke nearly every career passing record is just how durable Favre has been since being inserted into the starting lineup. Despite playing one of the most susceptible positions in the game, Favre has answered the bell time after time for the Packers.

- ▶64 QBs started a game in 2007, the most ever in one NFL season (note: 87 started in the 1987 season due to replacement players).
- ▶According to Elias Sports Bureau, 212 other quarterbacks have started an NFL game since Favre launched his starting streak on Sept. 27, 1992. 10 new quarterbacks made their first career start this season.
- ▶He has played in 255 straight games (277 including playoffs) and his 253 starts in a row (275 including playoffs) is the NFL record for QBs.
- ▶Consecutive start No. 250 looked to be in doubt during the Dallas game, as Favre left in the second quarter with elbow and shoulder injuries. However, Favre earned the start against Oakland, the seventh time in his career he started a game after being unable to finish the previous one. He has appeared on the injury report exactly 50 times during the streak.
- ▶Only Minnesota's Jim Marshall (270, 1961-79) has been documented to have started more regular-season games in consecutive fashion.

MILESTONES COME ON THE ROAD FOR FAVRE

Brett Favre achieved yet another of the league's most coveted milestones away from Lambeau Field in a Green Bay road victory. Taking a look back at some of Favre's milestone touchdown passes throughout his career, all have a common theme – they came in road victories.

- ▶Only touchdown pass No. 100 came in front of the home crowd at Lambeau Field, though it still came in a winning effort.
- ▶Touchdown pass No. 301 pushed Favre ahead of John Elway (300) to third on the league's all-time touchdown passes list.
- ▶No. 343 – coming in one of the most memorable performances of his career and in the history of Monday Night Football – placed Favre No. 2 on the all-time list, surpassing Fran Tarkenton.

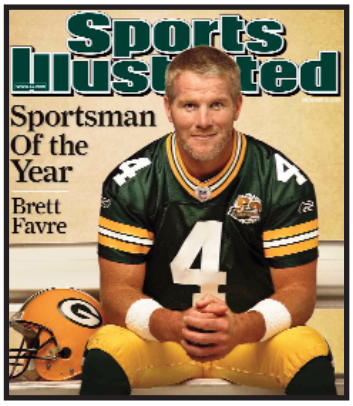
FAVRE NAMED 2007 SPORTS ILLUSTRATED SPORTSMAN OF THE YEAR



The accolades began to pour in for the NFL's winningest quarterback in early December. Favre was chosen as the 2007 Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year on Dec. 3.

- ▶The issue, dated Dec. 10, quickly sold out around the country. Also, Favre received the Sportsman of the Year award, a sterling silver trophy crafted by Tiffany & Co..
- ▶It was just the beginning for Favre, who led all NFL players in Pro Bowl voting. The league's only three-time MVP finished as the runner-up to Tom Brady in the MVP voting in 2007 and also took home FedEx Air Player of the Year honors.
- ▶Favre was the fourth NFL player to be named Sportsman: Terry Bradshaw (1979, with Willie Stargell), Joe Montana (1990) and Tom Brady (2005) were the others. Favre was the first Green Bay Packer to earn the honor.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

LOTS OF YOUTH IN THE BACKFIELD

Green Bay became the first NFL team to open the regular season with two rookie starters in the backfield since 1996. That season, both St. Louis (Derrick Harris and Lawrence Phillips) and Miami (Stanley Pritchett and Abdul-Karim al-Jabbar) used an all-rookie backfield on opening day.

- ▶Rookie running back Brandon Jackson, a second-round pick from Nebraska, became the first rookie to start at running back on opening day for the Packers since John Brockington in 1971.
- ▶Fullback Korey Hall was the first Packers rookie to start on opening day at fullback since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.
- ▶It's not like they got a whole lot older in the backfield since opening day. Second-year pro John Kuhn got a start at fullback in Week 17 when Hall went down with a hip injury, and since Jackson started the first three games of the season, two other running backs got the starting nod: rookie DeShawn Wynn (four games) and first-year player Ryan Grant (seven games).

NO ONE WINS MORE THAN NO. 4

In what was a record-breaking year for Favre, certainly one of the most meaningful accomplishments, both from a team and individual standpoint, came early. With his 149th win in Week 2, Favre surpassed John Elway on the all-time quarterback wins list. After the third 13-win season of his career, Favre now has 160 career wins.

- ▶Simply put, Favre was spectacular in the record-breaking victory over the New York Giants. He completed 29-of-38 passes for 286 yards and three touchdowns and earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors.
- ▶"We gave him the game ball after the game," McCarthy said after the win. "The 'all-time' in anything in this league is such a monumental achievement. 149 victories - I think that speaks for itself. When you go out and win over that long of a period of time, I think that's the ultimate compliment a quarterback can have. To me, if you asked me what is the biggest record that he will achieve, I think he just accomplished it."

QUITE THE DEBUT FOR CROSBY

According to Elias Sports Bureau, rookie kicker Mason Crosby on Sept. 9 became the first player in NFL history to kick a 50-plus yard field goal and a game-winning field goal in the final minute of his first NFL game.

- ▶What a whirlwind couple of days it had been for Crosby. First, he found out on Sept. 1 that he had won the kicking job after what had been perhaps the most intense training camp battle against incumbent Dave Rayner. Two days later, he celebrated his 23rd birthday, and just days after was lining up for his professional debut against the Eagles.
- ▶Crosby was 3-for-3 on field goals in his NFL debut. He hit a 53-yarder, one yard shy of the team record, in the first quarter, a 37-yarder in the third quarter, and a 42-yarder with 2 seconds left to break a 13-all tie and give the Packers the three-point win. He was later awarded NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for his efforts.

'KGB' GIVES BACK WITH EACH SACK

Defensive end Kabeer Gbaja-Biamila, who earlier this season surpassed Hall of Famer Reggie White on the franchise's all-time career sack list, saw a return to form this season with 9½ sacks.

- ▶Head Coach Mike McCarthy made a drastic move with Gbaja-Biamila in the final four games of 2006, replacing him in the starting lineup with end Cullen Jenkins and bringing in Gbaja-Biamila on passing downs.
- ▶The move paid off for the Packers and 'KGB'. The eighth-year pro, who only registered six sacks in 2006, was back among the league leaders in 2007.
- ▶This season, many more were cheering on 'KGB' with each sack for what it will mean towards the greater Green Bay community.
- ▶More than $11,000 went to Freedom House, a Green Bay homeless shelter, with each KGB sack. The pledge for each sack came from Gbaja-Biamila, teammates Ryan Pickett and Bubba Franks, and local donors.

PACKERS SEEM TO MAKE HISTORY ON MONDAY NIGHT

In Denver, Green Bay won its first overtime game on the road since Dec. 12, 1983, at Tampa Bay, also a game on Monday Night Football. Jan Stenerud's 23-yard field goal sealed the 12-9 Packers win in Howard Cosell's final broadcast.

- ▶Also in the game, James Jones and Greg Jennings became the first Packers' duo to record 100 yards receiving each since Donald Driver and Javon Walker on Oct. 11, 2004 vs. Tennessee, also a game on MNF.
- ▶Favre's 82-yard strike to Jennings tied for the second-longest TD pass to end an overtime in NFL history. The longest was the 99-yard play from Philadelphia's Ron Jaworski to Mike Quick on Nov. 10, 1985, vs. Atlanta. New England's Tom Brady connected with Troy Brown on an 82-yard pass play to beat Miami on Oct. 19, 2003.
- ▶Jones' 79-yard touchdown catch in the first quarter was the team's longest touchdown reception by a Packers rookie since Max McGee's 82-yard reception in the 1954 season.

CLOSING IN ON MARINO...AGAIN

Favre threw for three touchdowns in Week 12, the 63rd game of his career with at least three TD passes.

- ▶With the effort, Favre surpassed Dan Marino's (62) NFL record.
- ▶He is also chasing Marino in 300-yard passing games. Favre had seven this season, tying his own record of seven established in 1995.
- ▶A list of the quarterbacks with the most 300-yard passing games:

Quarterback	Years	300-yd. games
Dan Marino	1983-99	63
Brett Favre	1991-2007	55
Dan Fouts	1973-87	51
Warren Moon	1984-2000	49

McCARTHY TOPS THROUGH 25

Notching his 16th victory in his 25th game since taking over head coaching duties at the offices on Lombardi Avenue, McCarthy won more games through his first 25 than any coach in franchise history.

- ▶Vince Lombardi and Mike Sherman had previously topped the list, as both went 15-10 to open their coaching careers in Green Bay. Mike Holmgren went 14-11 through his first 25.
- ▶According to Elias, McCarthy tied Joe Gibbs for the best career start of any active head coach over 25 games.
- ▶"My focus is on winning the world's championship," McCarthy said when asked about the accomplishment. "That will always be the focus regardless of how many games it takes to get there through the regular season and so forth. Because when you win championships, everything else takes care of itself."

2008 OPPONENTS SET

Green Bay's opponents for the 2008 season as released by the NFL.

- ▶NFL Kickoff 2008 Weekend will begin on Thursday night, Sept. 4, and the regular season will conclude on Dec. 28.
- ▶The Packers will play their usual home-and-away series against their three division rivals.
- ▶Within their conference, the Packers will play the NFC South, hosting Atlanta and Carolina while traveling to New Orleans and Tampa Bay.
- ▶Green Bay will be matched up with the AFC South, hosting Houston and Indianapolis and making trips to Jacksonville and Tennessee.
- ▶By virtue of their first-place finish, the Packers will take on the two other NFC division winners: Dallas (home) and Seattle (away).

MARK H. MURPHY NAMED GREEN BAY PACKERS PRESIDENT AND CEO

MURPHY ELECTED TO SUCCEED HARLAN

Mark H. Murphy, possessor of extensive experience in professional football and sports administration, has been elected as the Green Bay Packers' President and CEO, the organization announced Dec. 3.

▶The Packers Board of Directors approved Murphy as the franchise's 10th Chief Executive Officer in a unanimous vote at Lambeau Field. Packers Chairman of the Board Bob Harlan will continue to lead the organization through the 2007 football campaign, including any postseason games. Prior to that, the transition formally will begin Jan. 1, 2008, with Murphy assuming the title of President and CEO-elect.

▶"The Green Bay Packers are very pleased to name Mark Murphy as our President and CEO," Harlan said. "He has an excellent background and record of success in the business of athletics, and through his NFL playing career brings a great understanding of our game to his position. He'll be an outstanding leader for our franchise and a great addition to our community. We're delighted to have Mark join us."

▶"I am honored to have been selected and very appreciative of this tremendous opportunity," Murphy said. "The Packers are one of the great franchises in all of professional sports, with a rich history and incredible fan support. These are successful times for the Packers. On the field they're performing well, and off the field, they're in great shape, too. I look forward to being a part of that continued success."

▶Murphy, who holds a law degree and an M.B.A in finance, brings a unique and highly qualified background to his role as head of one of the NFL's flagship franchises, first drawing from a deep understanding and appreciation of the game that comes from an eight-year playing career with the Washington Redskins. Later, he served a combined 16 years as director of athletics at Colgate University and Northwestern University, as well as positions as an assistant executive director of the NFL Players Association and a trial attorney with the U.S. Department of Justice.

▶In addition to his playing career and work with the NFL Players Association, Murphy has maintained his ties to the NFL through his work on the Commissioner's Player Advisory Committee (1994-2002) as well as the NFL Youth Football Committee (2002-present).

▶"Mark brings an important blend of experiences to the job, so many of which touch on issues that we will be dealing with in the future," said NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell. "Based on eight seasons with the Redskins, Mark has a deep respect for the history of the league, its players and coaches. He understands the impact of a franchise on its community and the importance of players and coaches meshing with their local fan bases."

▶The 52-year-old Murphy joins the Packers after four and a half years as director of athletics at Northwestern University. At the Big Ten Conference university, Murphy oversaw a 19-sport program with a $40-million budget and 160 full-time employees. The school enjoyed eight individual national championships and three NCAA team titles. Additionally, the university won nine conference team championships and 34 individual Big Ten titles. A total of 49 Wildcats have earned first-team All-America distinction. On the football field, the Wildcats have participated in two bowl games during Murphy's tenure after playing in just four previous such contests in the program's history. In 2006-07, Northwestern finished 30th in the U.S. Sports Academy Directors' Cup standings with a school-best 626.5 points. The Wildcats have ranked among the top 30 in the standings for the past three seasons and last year finished sixth among Big Ten schools for the third straight year after previously not placing higher than ninth.

▶The school's athletic success under Murphy was achieved while its student-athletes continued to excel off the field. The most recent NCAA Graduation Success Rate (GSR) data released in October 2007 reported Northwestern's rate at 98 percent, tying it with Notre Dame and Navy for tops in the nation.

▶Prior to his tenure at Northwestern, Murphy served as director of athletics at Colgate University in Hamilton, N.Y. (1992-2003), the school from which he graduated in 1977. During his 11 years at the helm, the university experienced a renaissance of its football program, going from 0-11 in 1995 to three consecutive appearances in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. In 2003, the year after Murphy's departure to Northwestern, the team made it to the championship game; the achievement of that squad - a non-scholarship program - remains one of Murphy's proudest moments.

▶A former All-Pro safety for the Washington Redskins, Murphy enjoyed an eight-year (1977-84) career after originally signing with the team as a non-drafted free agent in 1977. He was a co-captain from 1980-84, a period that included two Super Bowl teams (1982-83). He enjoyed his finest season in 1983, leading the NFL with nine interceptions and earning consensus All-Pro honors as well as a trip to the Pro Bowl. Murphy was named as one of the Redskins' "70 Greatest Players" and also is a member of the club's "50th Anniversary Team."

▶During his days as a Redskin, Murphy earned an M.B.A. in finance from American University in Washington, D.C., attending classes full-time in the offseason and evening classes in-season. Upon completion of his playing career in 1985 he joined the NFL Players Association as assistant executive director. While with the NFLPA, Murphy served on the bargaining team, developed the agent certification system and strengthened the PA's degree completion and career counseling programs.

▶While with the NFLPA, he started work on a law degree from Georgetown University and ultimately finished his studies full-time after leaving the Players Association. Upon receiving his law degree in 1988, he worked for a year at a Washington law firm before becoming a trial attorney with the U.S. Department of Justice in 1989.

▶During a four-year career with the Department of Justice, he primarily represented government agencies in trials. Then, in 1992, his alma mater called and he returned to the sports realm.

▶Born July 13, 1955, in Fulton, N.Y., Murphy was a three-sport star (football, baseball and basketball) at Clarence Central High School in the Buffalo-area community of Williamsville, and was named the best all-around athlete in western New York during his senior year. His baseball talents drew attention from Major League scouts. In 2002, he was inducted into the Greater Buffalo Sports Hall of Fame in recognition of his achievements both on and off the field.

▶Murphy and his wife, Laurie, who also is a Colgate graduate, have been involved in the communities in which they've lived. Over the years the couple has donated their time to numerous organizations, including local schools, the United Methodist Church in Hamilton, N.Y., and the First Congregational Church of Evanston, Ill. While at Colgate University, Murphy formed the Hamilton Youth Basketball League and served as its commissioner. Heavily involved in the community while with the Redskins, Murphy was named the team's "Miller Man of the Year" in 1984 in honor of his work off the field.

▶The couple has four children: Katie, 24, a graduate of Harvard who played basketball for the Crimson; Emily, 22, a senior at Middlebury (Vt.) College; Brian, 18, a freshman at Amherst (Mass.) College; and Anna, 17.

INDIVIDUAL NOTES & STREAKS

56 NICK BARNETT

▶Tallied over 130 tackles for the fifth consecutive season.
▶Led the Packers in tackles for the fourth time in his five seasons. Ties Brian Noble (4) and Bernardo Harris (4) for the franchise lead for most seasons leading the team in tackles (stat began in 1975).
▶His 3½ sacks on the season were a career high.

20 ATARI BIGBY

▶His 121 tackles were the most by any Packers defensive back since safety Mark Murphy recorded 128 tackles in 1990.
▶Led the team in interceptions (five) and passes defensed (13) and tied for the lead with three forced fumbles.

2 MASON CROSBY

▶With 141 points, became the seventh rookie in NFL history to lead the league in scoring and first since Kevin Butler in 1985.
▶Surpassed Ryan Longwell's franchise record of points in a season by a kicker (131, 2000) and placed third behind Paul Hornung (176, 1960; 146, 1961) on the team's single-season scoring list.
▶Established a franchise record for points in a season by a rookie and joined Chester Marcol (1972), Chris Jacke (1989) and Longwell (1997) as the only kickers in Packers history to score more than 100 points as a rookie.

60 ROB DAVIS

▶With 84 games played at Lambeau, needs another 10 to surpass No. 2 William Henderson (93) on the stadium's all-time games played list.
▶Having played in 167 consecutive games in a Packers uniform, stands at No. 3 on the team's all-time list.
▶Tied with No. 7 Ed West on the team's all-time list of overall games played (167 games).

80 DONALD DRIVER

▶Became the third player in team annals to reach 500 career receptions, joining Sterling Sharpe (595) and James Lofton (530). Driver has 503.
▶Has a reception in 95 consecutive games, the franchise's second-longest streak behind Sharpe's 103 (1988-94).
▶Tied a franchise record with 1,000 receiving yards in a fifth overall season. Lofton and Sharpe also have five 1,000-yard campaigns.
▶This season became one of four players in team annals to produce as many as six seasons with 50 receptions, joining Lofton and Sharpe (both seven) and Antonio Freeman (six).
▶Also became only the second Packers player with four 80-catch seasons, joining Sharpe (four).
▶Became only the seventh player in Packers history to reach 6,000 career yards, joining James Lofton (9,656), Sterling Sharpe (8,134), Don Hutson (7,991), Boyd Dowler (6,918), Antonio Freeman (6,651) and Max McGee (6,346). Driver (6,977) stands at No. 4 in team history.
▶Became Lambeau Field's all-time leader in receptions, surpassing Antonio Freeman (213) in Week 3. Driver now has 240 receptions at Lambeau Field.
▶Stands 54 Lambeau Field receiving yards from surpassing No. 2 James Lofton (3,330) and 201 from becoming the stadium's all-time leader ahead of Antonio Freeman (3,477). Driver (3,277) is No. 3.
▶His 36 career TD receptions from Brett Favre stands at No. 3 on the team's list of touchdown combinations. The duo needs six more TDs to surpass the No. 2 combination of Favre and Sterling Sharpe (41).
▶Needs one 100-yard receiving game to match No. 5 Boyd Dowler (19), two to reach No. 4 Antonio Freeman (20) and six to equal No. 3 Don Hutson (24) on the team's all-time list. Driver has 18 career 100-yard receiving games.
▶Needs two TD receptions to become only the eighth player in franchise annals to reach 40 career, joining Don Hutson (99), Sterling Sharpe (65), Antonio Freeman (57), Max McGee (50), James Lofton (49), Billy Howton (43) and Boyd Dowler (40). Driver has 38.

4 BRETT FAVRE

▶Has played in 255 straight games (277 including playoffs) and started 253 in a row (275 including playoffs), the NFL's record among quarterbacks and the second-longest recorded streak in NFL history. Only Minnesota's Jim Marshall (270, 1961-79) has been documented to have started more games in consecutive fashion.
▶Surpassed Dan Marino's NFL record of 420 touchdown passes against Minnesota in Week 4. Favre now has 442 career TD passes.
▶Surpassed Marino's NFL record for attempts (8,358) against Minnesota. Favre has 8,758.
▶Surpassed Marino's record of 61,361 career passing yards. Favre has 61,655 career yards.
▶Surpassed John Elway's NFL record for wins by a quarterback (148) with his 149th victory against the Giants in Week 2. Favre has 160 career wins.
▶Threw his 200th TD pass at Lambeau Field in Week 10 to extend the league's single-stadium record. He now has 209.
▶Needs 106 passing yards at Lambeau Field to surpass John Elway (27,889 at Mile High Stadium) for the single-stadium record. Favre has 27,784.
▶Threw for three touchdowns in Week 12, the 63rd game of his career with at least three TD passes, surpassing Dan Marino's (62) NFL record.
▶Established a new team record against Detroit in Week 12 by completing 20 consecutive passes.
▶Has 40 career game-winning comebacks (fourth-quarter deficit or tie), including four this season.
▶Has 55 career 300-yard passing games, including seven this season, tying his own record of seven 300-yard passing games in 1995.
▶Extended two of his own NFL records with at least 3,000 passing yards for a 16th consecutive season and 16th overall season.
▶Surpassed the 4,000 yards passing mark for the fifth time in his career.

Favre also:

▶By playing a 16th season in a Packers uniform, surpassed Ray Nitschke (1958-72) and tied Bart Starr (1956-71) for most in Packers history.
▶Surpassed 30,000 road passing yards at Denver. Favre has an NFL record 31,462 road passing yards.
▶Needs 4 scoring drives for 1,000.

88 BUBBA FRANKS

▶Stands tied with No. 10 Robert Brooks (32) on the team's all-time touchdown receptions list.
▶Needs six starts for 100 career. Franks has 94.

Two years after he co-founded the Packers with Curly Lambeau, George Calhoun began writing a piece called* The Dope Sheet*, which served as the official press release and game program from 1921-24.

INDIVIDUAL NOTES & STREAKS

▶Surpassed 250 career catches against Chicago in Week 5. Franks has 256 career receptions.
▶Needs 3 games to surpass No. 3 Rich McGeorge (116) and 6 to surpass No. 2 Paul Coffman (119) on the team's all-time tight ends list. Franks is No. 4 with 114.
▶Needs 22 receiving yards to surpass No. 4 Ed West (2,321), 71 to surpass No. 3 Rich McGeorge (2,370) and 295 to surpass No. 2 Ron Kramer (2,594) on the team's all-time tight ends list. Franks has 2,300 career receiving yards.

94 KABEER GBAJA-BIAMILA

▶On Green Bay's all-time sacks list, surpassed Reggie White's career record (68½) in Week 4 at Minnesota. Gbaja-Biamila now has 74.

25 RYAN GRANT

▶Carries a streak of six consecutive games with a rushing TD into 2008, which ties the second-longest streak in Packers history. Terdell Middleton had a rushing touchdown in six straight games in 1978, and Paul Hornung scored in seven consecutive games in 1960.

31 AL HARRIS

▶Has played in 170 straight games (160 regular season, 10 playoffs), a streak that began in Philadelphia in 1998. Since coming to Green Bay in 2003, has started all 83 games (80 regular season, 3 playoffs).
▶Has 100 career starts.
▶Needs to return one interception for a touchdown to tie No. 5 Charley Brock, Doug Hart and Ken Ellis (all with three) on Green Bay's all-time career list. With a second TD on an interception, would match No. 4 Johnny (Blood) McNally, who returned four. Harris has two.

85 GREG JENNINGS

▶His streak of five consecutive games with a touchdown catch (Weeks 11-15) was the longest streak since Antonio Freeman's five-game streak in 1998-99.
▶Surpassed 1,000 career receiving yards on the 82-yard, game-winning touchdown catch vs. Denver in Week 8. Jennings has 1,552.
▶His 12 touchdown receptions were the most by a Packers player since Javon Walker had 12 TD catches in 2004.
▶His average of 17.4 yards per catch ranked fourth in the NFL.

89 JAMES JONES

▶His 47 catches rank third on the team's list of receptions by a rookie.
▶His yardage total (676) ranks fourth on the team's all-time rookies list.
▶Among NFL rookies in 2007, Jones' receptions total and yardage ranked third.

74 AARON KAMPMAN

▶Became just the fifth player to record 40 sacks in a Packers uniform.
▶Tallied over 90 tackles for the third consecutive season.
▶His 27½ sacks over the past two seasons rank second in the NFL behind Shawne Merriman (29½).
▶Had his consecutive starts streak (73) stopped as he was held out of the season finale vs. Detroit.

86 DONALD LEE

▶Set career highs in receptions (48), receiving yards (575) and touchdown receptions (6).

12 AARON RODGERS

▶Could become the first quarterback other than Brett Favre to start a Packers game since Don Majkowski, Sept. 20, 1992.

9 JON RYAN

▶Needs 6 punts to reach 150 and qualify for the Packers' all-time lead in gross punting average. Ryan averaged 44.5 yards on 84 punts in his first Packers season, 2006, and 44.4 yards on 60 punts this season. The franchise leader is Craig Hentrich, who averaged 42.8 yards on 289 punts from 1994-97.

65 MARK TAUSCHER

▶Started his 100th career game in Week 10. He has played in 109 career games, including 107 starts.

21 CHARLES WOODSON

▶Needs one interception for 30 career.
▶Needs to return one interception for a touchdown to tie No. 5 Brock, Hart and Ellis (all with three) on Green Bay's all-time career list. With a second TD on an interception, would match No. 4 Johnny (Blood) McNally, who returned four. Woodson has two.
▶With three defensive touchdowns as a member of the Packers (two interceptions, one fumble return), needs one defensive score to tie No. 5 Johnny (Blood) McNally, Charley Brock and Keith McKenzie on the team's all-time list.

LOOKING AHEAD TO 2008

MORE ON 2008 OPPONENTS

The '08 schedule includes six playoff teams from last season. Two will come to Lambeau Field (Indianapolis and Dallas), while the Packers will face four on the road (Jacksonville, Tampa Bay, Tennessee and Seattle).

▶ The Houston Texans will make their franchise debut at Lambeau Field.

▶ Speaking of Lambeau Field, the Falcons return to the historic stadium for the first time since the 2002 Wild Card game. It was the first home post-season loss in franchise history.

NOTE: The final two games on each schedule pair the Packers with the club from that division that finished in the same standing as Green Bay the previous year. In 2008, those clubs are Dallas (at home) from the NFC East and Seattle (on the road) from the NFC West. In 2007, those clubs were Carolina (at home) from the NFC South and St. Louis (on the road) from the NFC West. In 2006, those clubs were New Orleans (at home) from the NFC South and Philadelphia (on the road) from the NFC East. In 2005, those clubs were Seattle (at home) from the NFC West and Philadelphia (on the road) from the NFC East. In 2004, those clubs were St. Louis (at home) from the NFC West and Carolina (on the road) from the NFC South.

2008 NFL OFFSEASON CALENDAR

Feb. 7	First day clubs can designate Franchise or Transition players.
Feb. 10	AFC-NFC Pro Bowl at Honolulu, Hawaii
Feb. 11	Waiver system begins for 2008. Waivers will expire on the business day of the new League Year. Players with at least four previous pension-credited seasons that a club desires to terminate are not subject to the waiver system until after the trading deadline.
Feb. 20-26	Combine Timing and Testing at RCA Dome; Indianapolis, Ind.
Feb. 21	Deadline at 3 p.m. CST for clubs to designate Franchise and Transition Players.
Feb. 28	Expiration date of all player contracts due to expire in 2008.
Feb. 28	Deadline for exercising options for 2008 on all players who have option clauses in their 2007 contracts.
Feb. 28	Deadline for submission of Qualifying Offers by clubs to their Restricted Free Agents whose contracts have expired and to whom they desire to retain a Right of First Refusal/Compensation.
Feb. 28	Deadline for clubs to submit offer of minimum salary to retain exclusive negotiating rights to their players whose contracts have expired and who have fewer than three seasons of free agency credit.
Feb. 29	Free Agency period begins.
Feb. 29	Trading period begins for 2008 after expiration of all 2007 contracts.
March 1	After this date, employer clubs are no longer obligated to grant permission to another club to discuss a position as a Head Coach with an assistant coach who is under contract for the succeeding season or seasons. However, such permission may be voluntarily granted.
March 7-8	Packers Fan Fest, Lambeau Field Atrium.
March 17	First day clubs may conduct offseason workouts or mini-camps (Packers offseason workout program begins).
March 30-April 3	NFL Annual Meeting; Palm Beach, Fla.
April 18	Deadline for signing of Offer Sheets by Restricted Free Agents.
April 25	Deadline for Old Club to exercise Right of First Refusal to Restricted Free Agents.
April 26-27	72nd Annual NFL Draft; New York, N.Y.
May 2-4	Packers Rookie Orientation
May 16	Except for a three-day mini-camp held within 15 days of the draft, this is the first day that 2008 draft-eligible players are permitted to participate in mini-camps, practices or meetings. If final examinations at a player's school conclude after this date, the player is prohibited from participating in any activities until after the player's final day of examinations. If the player has left or leaves school, he is prohibited from participating in any club activities until after the final day of examinations at his school.
June 2	Deadline for Old Club to send tender to its unsigned Restricted Free Agents or to extend Qualifying Offer, whichever is greater, in order to retain rights.
June 2	Deadline for Old Club to send tender to its unsigned Unrestricted Free Agents to retain rights if player is not signed by another club by July 22.
June 2	Any unamortized signing bonus amounts will be included in the succeeding year's Team Salary for any players removed from the team's roster other than by trade.
June 16	Deadline for club to withdraw Qualifying Offer to Restricted Free Agents and still retain exclusive negotiating rights by substituting tender of one-year contract at 110 percent of previous year's Paragraph 5 salary (with all other terms carried forward unchanged).
June 17-19	Packers mandatory mini-camp (rookies and veterans)
June 29-July 2	Rookie Symposium; Palm Beach Gardens, Fla.

LOOKING AHEAD TO 2008

2008 FREE AGENTS

There are two main categories in free agency: restricted (RFA) and unrestricted (UFA). To become an RFA, a player must complete three accrued seasons. To become a UFA, a player must complete four.

- Accrued season (AS): Six-plus regular-season games on club's active/inactive, reserve-injured or physically unable to perform lists.
- Signing Periods: RFA — late February-mid April; UFA — late February to the first day of first NFL training camp (or July 22, whichever is later).
- RFAs must receive qualifying offers (salary level predetermined by collective bargaining agreement) from old club. If RFA signs offer sheet from new club, old club can match it and retain him. If old club opts not to match offer, it may receive draft-choice compensation, depending on amount of qualifying offer. If no offer sheet executed, RFA's rights revert to his old club in April.
- UFAs are free to sign anywhere. If old club extends tender offer (110 percent of previous year's salary) by June 1, team regains rights when UFA signing period ends. If no tender offered by June 1, UFA may sign with any club at any time.
- Exclusive Rights Free Agents are players with two or fewer years of experience. Their rights belong to their previous club provided they are made a minimum qualifying offer.

2008 NFL DRAFT CHANGES

The NFL announced a number of changes to take place during the 2008 NFL Draft in order to streamline the process.

- Only Rounds 1-2 will take place on Saturday (April 26), the first day of the draft. Previously, the first three rounds of the draft were conducted on Saturday.
- The time allocated for each club to make its selection in Rounds 1-2 also has been changed. Instead of 15 minutes for each pick in Round 1, clubs will now be allowed 10 minutes. In Round 2, the selection time has been shortened to seven minutes from 10 minutes.
- The draft also will begin later on Saturday -- at 2:00 PM CST rather than at 11:00 AM. Round 3 will be moved to Sunday and remain at five minutes per selection. Rounds 3-7 will be conducted on Sunday, with each selection allocated at five minutes. The draft on Sunday now will begin at 9:00 AM CST, rather than 10:00 AM CST.

— Subject to coin flip

Draft-order ties are resolved by the cumulative record of each team's opponents. The team with the weaker opponents receives drafting priority. Within a tied segment, non-playoff clubs are given priority over playoff clubs. Priority of playoff clubs within a tied segment will be based on their advancement in the playoffs, but they will not drop out of their tied segment unless they participate in the Super Bowl.
