GAME 2

GREEN BAY (AP) — Trent Dilfer won for the first time in nine trips to Lambeau Field, guiding Cleveland over the mistake-prone Packers 26-24 for new coach Romeo Crennel's first win. Dilfer threw an 80-yard touchdown pass to Braylon Edwards and a game-icing 62-yarder to Steve Heiden with 1:50 remaining.

Dilfer, who lost six times as a starter at Green Bay, completed 21 of 32 passes for 336 yards — the second-highest total of his career — and three touchdowns. His 62-yarder to Heiden, who slipped a tackle by safety Mark Roman, made it 26-17, too much for the Packers to overcome even behind Brett Favre. After retiring his number in a moving halftime ceremony, the Packers wanted desperately to honor Reggie White with a win. So did Dilfer, who like so many others, counted himself a friend of the "Minister of Defense," who died unexpectedly last year at age 43.

"I guarantee you, he and my son were watching the game together today," said Dilfer, who lost his 5-year-old son, Trevin, to a rare infection in 2003.

Favre broke John Elway's single-stadium NFL touchdown record of 180 with a 4-yard toss to Tony Fisher with 4 seconds left, but Brodney Pool recovered the onside kick for Cleveland (1-1).

The Browns were backed up and facing a crucial third down after Favre, who also joined Dan Marino and Elway in the 50,000-yard passing club, pulled the Packers to 19-17 with a 19-yard TD to Robert Ferguson with 3:40 remaining.

With the crowd chanting "Reg-gie! Reg-gie!" in honor of the late White, whose number was retired at halftime, Dilfer calmly hit running back Reuben Droughns for a 12-yard gain on third-and-5. Then, following the 2-minute warning, he found Heiden over the middle to put the game out of reach. The Packers (0-2) looked at first like they wouldn't miss Jason Walker, their star receiver who went down with a season-ending knee injury the previous week. They went ahead 7-0 on their first possession when Donald Driver caught a short pass over the middle and raced past Ray Mickens and Chris Crocker for a 42-yard score. But the Browns answered with their own TD drive and Phil Dawson added field goals of 21 and 39 yards to give the Browns a 13-7 halftime lead. His first field goal followed the first of Favre's two interceptions.

The Packers came out of the locker room early to watch White's No. 92 unveiled beneath the north end zone alongside those of Don Hutson, Tony Canadeo, Bart Starr and Ray Nitschke. White's widow, Sara, spoke to the crowd, and highlights were shown of White sacking quarterback after quarterback and holding the Lombardi Trophy aloft after the Packers' Super Bowl win following the 1996 season.

Jecolia White, White's 17-year-old daughter, sang the national anthem. ... Favre's 20-yard run was his longest since 1999.

GREEN BAY (AP) — Carnell "Cadillac" Williams helped the Buccaneers snap a 13-game road losing streak to Green Bay with a 17-16 win. He broke Alan Ameche's NFL record for most yards in his first three NFL games by rushing for 158. The Buccaneers (3-0) also got two touchdown receptions from Joey Galloway and two interceptions from safety Will Allen in winning at Lambeau Field for the first time since Sept 10, 1989.

Ryan Longwell missed an extra point for the first time in 157 attempts, and that was the difference as the Packers fell to 0-3 for the first time since Brett Favre was a sophomore at Southern Miss in 1988.

The most important of Williams' 37 carries came after Allen, subbing for an injured Dexter Jackson (hamstring), picked off Favre for the second time with 5 minutes remaining. He grabbed the ball and returned it to the 31 after Juran Bolden tipped it away from receiver Robert Ferguson at the Tampa Bay 5-yard line. The Buccaneers ran out the clock when Williams rushed six times for 46 yards.

Long-snapper Rob Davis took the blame for the mixed extra point because of his off-target snap, but Favre pointed the finger squarely at himself. "Yeah, if we make that extra point maybe we go into overtime," Favre said. "But if I make that last throw? I mean that's what Brett Favre is all about. I feel I can be the difference-maker in good times and in bad. I feel like I let this team down."

Trailing 17-13 late in the third quarter, the Packers should have gotten the ball on a fumble by Brian Griese at the Tampa Bay 14, but the whistle blew and Tampa Bay maintained possession on the officiating miscue. Then, the Packers were going in for the go-ahead touchdown when Shelton Quarles got his hand on a pass to Ferguson near the goal line on third down. Green Bay had to settle for Longwell's 32-yard field goal with 7:18 remaining that made it 17-16. Finally, they got the ball at the 50 with just under 6 minutes left, but three plays later, Allen had his second interception, and Williams went to work icing the win.

The Buccaneers led 17-13 at halftime behind touchdown passes of 5 and 10 yards by Galloway, the first of which followed a fumble by Packers fullback William Henderson on Green Bay's opening drive.

The Packers answered with a 37-yard touchdown from Favre to Ferguson on fourth-and-5. But Davis' snap was high and Longwell missed the extra point, leaving the Packers down 7-6. It was his first miss of an extra point after 156 straight conversions, a team record and the fourth-longest active streak in the NFL. Longwell, who also missed a 42-yard field goal in the third quarter, did set a franchise record with a field goal in his 15th straight game. TE Bubba Franks (knee) missed the first game of his six-year career, snapping a streak of 88 straight games played.
