11TH GAME

GREEN BAY (4-6) at SEATTLE (6-4)

Monday, Nov. 27 • Qwest Field • 7:30 p.m. CST/5:30 p.m. PST

THIS WEEK'S NOTABLE STORYLINES:

- ▶ The Packers play their first-ever game — preseason, regular season or playoffs — at Seattle's Qwest Field, notoriously one of the league's loudest venues.
- ▶ While Seattle rested many of its starters in last season's finale at Lambeau Field, the Packers have still won three consecutive games over the Seahawks, and four of their last five meetings.
- ▶ The Packers are 3-1 against Mike Holmgren since the former Packers coach left for Seattle before the 1999 season.
- ▶ The Packers haven't made the 1,640-mile flight to Seattle since 1996. That year, when Holmgren guided the Packers to victory in Super Bowl XXXI, the Packers beat the Seahawks, 31-10, at the now demolished Kingdome.
- ▶ Green Bay on Jan. 1 ended Seattle's 11-game winning streak. Previously, the longest streak Green Bay had ever halted was a 10-game run by the Lions, at Detroit on Nov. 25, 1934, a 3-0 final. Lambeau Field's longest streak ever stopped was Denver's nine-game run in 1996.
- ▶ For the second time in three years (also 2004), the Packers have an extra day of preparation during Thanksgiving week, not facing Seattle until Monday.
- ▶ The matchup is only the second prime-time meeting with Seattle (also 1999 in Green Bay, also on MNF).

NATIONAL TELEVISION: Monday Night Football, the most successful series in sports television history, moves to ESPN under an eight-year agreement starting this season.

- ▶ The new broadcast crew, anchored by play-by-play man Mike Tirico, includes analysts Joe Theismann and Tony Kornheiser, sideline reporters Suzy Kolber and Michele Tafoya, producer Jay Rothman and director Chip Dean in the truck.
- ▶ The contest also will air as a simulcast locally on WBAY (Ch. 2) in Green Bay and WISN (Ch. 12) in Milwaukee.
- ▶ ESPN Deportes, with Alvaro Martin, Raul Allegre and John Sutcliffe, will broadcast in Spanish.
- ▶ ESPN International will air the contest in three languages to over 180 countries.

PACKERS RADIO: Milwaukee's WTMJ (620 AM), airing Green Bay games since 1929, heads up the 57-station Packers Radio Network, with versatile Wayne Larrivee (play-by-play) and two-time Packers Pro Bowler Larry McCarren (color). Spanning six states, the 57-station network covers 47 markets throughout the upper Midwest.

- ▶ The broadcast also is available to NFL Field Pass subscribers on packers.com and NFL.com.
- ▶ Those with SIRIUS Satellite Radio can listen to live play-by-play as part of the network's NFL Sunday Drive. The Green Bay broadcast is available on Channel 125.

NATIONAL RADIO: Westwood One Radio Sports will air the game across the country, with Marv Albert (play-by-play), Boomer Esiason (color) and John Dockery (side-line). Jim Gray hosts pregame and halftime shows.

NFL FÚTBOL AMERICANO ON UNIVISION RADIO: Univision will call the game in Spanish from its studios, with Rafael Hernandez Brito, Clemson Smith Muñiz, Alfredo Béjar and Luís Omar Tapia.

BOUMAN SIGNED: The Packers Tuesday signed quarterback Todd Bouman and placed quarterback Aaron Rodgers on injured reserve. Executive Vice President, General Manager and Director of Football Operations Ted Thompson made the announcement.

- ▶ Bouman, a 6-foot-2, 226-pound veteran in his ninth NFL season out of St. Cloud State, played the previous three years with New Orleans, where he worked from 2003-04 with Packers Head Coach Mike McCarthy, then the Saints' offensive coordinator.
- ▶ Acquired by New Orleans in a 2003 trade with Minnesota, Bouman spent his first five years with the Vikings, who originally signed him as a non-drafted free agent in 1997.
- ▶ An experienced signal-caller, Bouman has played in 42 NFL games with six starts, and has completed 129 of 230 passes (56.1 percent) for 1,683 yards, with 11 touchdowns and 11 interceptions, a 75.3 passer rating. His last name is pronounced BAU-man.
- ▶ Rodgers, the team's first-round draft choice in 2005, broke his foot during the second half of Sunday's contest vs. New England, in relief of an injured Brett Favre and finished the game.

THIS WEEK — at SEATTLE SEAHAWKS

FAVRE OK, RODGERS OUT FOR SEASON: Head Coach Mike McCarthy relayed good news and bad news with regard to the Packers' quarterbacks on Monday.

► Brett Favre appears to be OK after suffering an elbow injury in the second quarter Sunday that sidelined him for the rest of the game. But backup quarterback Aaron Rodgers is out for the season with a broken foot.

► McCarthy said during his news conference on Monday that Favre was getting the strength back in his hand and wasn't concerned about the injury, which occurred when he was sacked late in the second quarter and his elbow hit the ground. Favre couldn't return to the game because the shot to the elbow nerve took away the strength in his hand needed to hold and throw the ball properly.

► Favre will be evaluated further on Wednesday, but at this point it doesn't appear his NFL record streak of 231 consecutive starts at quarterback (251 including playoffs) is in jeopardy.

► "They (the doctors) think he's going to be fine," McCarthy said. "He's not very worried about it, which to them is a clear indication because he's been through this, and they trust his judgment based on their history with him."

► But unfortunately for Rodgers, his first extended action in 2006 turned out to be his last this season.

► Rodgers came into Sunday's game late in the second quarter in relief of Favre and finished the contest. He completed four of 12 passes for 32 yards. He also rushed for 11 yards, was sacked three times.

► Rodgers said he doesn't even know what play he hurt his foot on, other than to say it was on the first or second series of the third quarter. He had his ankle re-taped on the sidelines after a series but essentially played the entire fourth quarter on a broken foot.

► "I didn't want to come out of the game," Rodgers said when he addressed reporters on Monday standing on crutches at his locker. "I knew it was bothering me, but I still felt like I could make some plays out there, and I wanted the opportunity to do so."

► The news he was out for the season was a tough blow for Rodgers, and he said that's why he didn't speak to the media after Sunday's game. He had just gotten the X-ray results and was processing the bad news.

► Still, the effort he gave on Sunday, even though the results weren't to his liking, paint a strong picture of what type of quarterback the Packers should have when Favre retires.

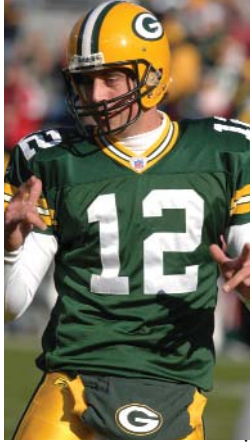

► "I hope that it shows my teammates how much I care about them, and how I'll put the team in front of my personal health," Rodgers said. "I just hope it shows them what kind of guy they're getting in the future, a guy who will be able to play through pain and continue to try and lead the team."

► Rodgers was the Packers' first-round draft choice in 2005, and he played extensively in just one game last year. At Baltimore on Dec. 19, Rodgers completed eight of 15 passes for 65 yards with one interception.

► He has patiently waited his turn behind Favre but now will have to wait until the off-season to continue any work on the field.

► Rodgers said he will have surgery probably this week, and he expects the doctors to put a screw of some sort in his foot, much like they did when rookie cornerback Will Blackmon broke his foot last spring. He said he hopes to be off the crutches in six weeks and able to move around on his own again in January, putting him in good shape to be fully recovered by the time McCarthy's "quarterback school" rolls around in March.

► Rodgers said he will continue to go to all the quarterback meetings and film study sessions the rest of this season. He just won't be able to take the field during practice, which will be the hardest part for him.

► "I'm pretty bummed," he said. "I love going through a week of practice and preparation, working with the scout team. I'm daily trying to work on things to get better. Mentally I don't think it's sunk in yet, that I won't be able to do the things I used to do."

► "It's definitely going to make me a better person I think and give me a greater love for the game, because it's been taken away."

EMOTIONS NEED TO REMAIN EVEN-KEELED: The Packers have had their share of ups and downs, just like any NFL team this season.

► To go from discussing Wild Card playoff possibilities to getting shut out 35-0 at home is almost as extreme as those ups and downs can get, but Head Coach Mike McCarthy isn't going to let his players ride that emotional roller coaster.

► "We're not getting on it," McCarthy said.

► Staying emotionally somewhere near the middle will be needed this week to focus on preparing for Monday night's game at Seattle. As much as the team was hoping a win and 5-5 record would get them seriously into the NFC playoff picture, the players can't feel as though all is now lost after a humbling defeat that leaves them 4-6.

► "I'm disappointed and we need to learn from it," McCarthy said. "No one ever wants to go through this, especially this late in the season, but this is something that we can learn from, this is something that we can build off of, and I think anytime you encounter situations like that, a lot of good things will come out of it."

► The Packers certainly have shown their resiliency this season, coming back from a 1-4 start to get within a game of .500 two times.

► McCarthy said the team was deservedly upbeat after last week's big win over Minnesota at the Metrodome, and if that led to a possible emotional letdown against New England, he said they have to make sure that doesn't happen again. He also said he will be preaching accountability to his team this week, much like he's holding himself accountable for Sunday's disappointment.

► "I hope we weren't fat and happy because we were 4-5 last week," McCarthy said. "We felt pretty good about ourselves coming out of that win, and rightfully so. That was a big game. To win up there in that environment, that's a tough place to play."

► "But this league is one week at a time. This past week was New England and we did not take care of business, and that starts with me. I need to do a better job."

OTHER INJURIES — Linebacker Nick Barnett broke his hand in the fourth quarter on Sunday. McCarthy said the training staff will look into wrapping Barnett's hand so he can play with what's often referred to as a "club."

► Defensive tackle Cullen Jenkins aggravated the ankle injury that has been bothering him off and on the past several weeks. Tight end David Martin has quadriceps and rib injuries, linebacker Ben Taylor hurt his hamstring, and cornerback Charles Woodson injured his shoulder.

► The severity of the injuries would be known in the next day or so and the players' chances of playing Monday night at Seattle will be outlined on the injury report, which is released on Wednesday.

► McCarthy said he's also hoping to learn more about tackle Mark Tauscher's groin injury this week.

ALMOST CLINCHED — With six games left in the season, the Chicago Bears at 9-1 are just one win away from clinching no worse than a tie for first place in the NFC North. The Packers and Vikings are in second place at 4-6.

► One more win by the Bears plus a loss or tie by the Packers and a loss or tie by the Vikings and the division will be clinched outright.

MONDAY NOTES

THE DOPE ON THIS WEEK'S OPPONENT:

Packers vs. Seattle Seahawks:

All-time regular season: 6-4

All-time, postseason: 1-0

All-time, in Seattle: 1-1 (both at Kingdome)

Streaks: The Packers have won the last three meetings and four of the last five

Last meeting, regular season: Jan. 1, 2006, Lambeau Field; Packers won 23-17

Last meeting, regular season, Seattle: Sept. 29, 1996, Kingdome; Packers won, 31-10

Postseason meeting: Jan. 4, 2004, Lambeau Field; Packers won, 33-27 in OT (2003 NFC Wild Card playoff)

COACHES CAPSULES

Mike McCarthy: 4-6-0, .400, first NFL season

Mike Holmgren: 155-99-0, .610, 15th NFL season, eighth with Seattle

Head to Head: (first meeting)

vs. Opponent: McCarthy 0-0 vs. Seahawks; Holmgren 1-3 vs. Packers

MIKE McCARTHY...Is in his first year as the Packers' 14th head coach.

- ▶ Was named Packers head coach on Jan. 12, 2006, his first head coaching job after 13 years as an NFL assistant — all under head coaches with defensive backgrounds.
- ▶ One of those previous 13 years was with the Packers, as quarterbacks coach in 1999.
- ▶ Spent the past six seasons as an offensive coordinator for the New Orleans Saints (2000-04) and San Francisco 49ers (2005).
- ▶ Had not been a head coach at any level, having begun his coaching career as a college assistant at Fort Hays State (1987-88) and the University of Pittsburgh (1989-92) before breaking into the NFL as a quality control assistant with the Chiefs in 1993.

MIKE HOLMGREN...Is in his eighth year as the Seahawks' sixth head coach.

- ▶ Last season, led Seattle to a franchise-best 13-3 record and first-ever Super Bowl appearance.
- ▶ In his first season in Seattle (1999), guided the Seahawks to their first postseason appearance since 1988.
- ▶ Joined the Seahawks after seven-year tenure as head coach in Green Bay (1992-98), during which he led the Packers to three straight NFC Championship games, two Super Bowl appearances and one Super Bowl victory (XXXI).
- ▶ Previously had served first as quarterbacks coach and then as offensive coordinator in San Francisco (1986-91).
- ▶ All told, including his time as an assistant, his NFL teams have posted double-digit win totals 12 times, made 15 postseason appearances, appeared in five Super Bowls, and won three of them.

THE SEAHAWKS-PACKERS SERIES: These teams have met just 11 times, including their 2003 playoff, since Seattle entered the National Football League in 1976.

- ▶ This marks just the third time the teams have met in Seattle.
- ▶ Other than the fact that they simply haven't played very often, which has changed with Seattle's shift to the NFC in 2002, most differences stop there...Much of the Seahawks' front office, their coaching staff and even their starting quarterback either inaugurated their NFL careers or built their reputations with a stop at 1265 Lombardi Avenue.
- ▶ The movement west, beginning with Mike Holmgren in 1999, has reversed itself in some respects, as Packers GM Ted Thompson and personnel men John Dorsey and John Schneider have returned to Green Bay after stops in Seattle.
- ▶ The teams met just eight times from 1976-2002, but including this game, they will have played four games over a four-year stretch from 2003-06.

NOTABLE CONNECTIONS...On April 15, 2000, Ahman Green was traded by Seattle with a fifth-round selection (WR/KR Joey Jamison) in the 2000 draft to Green Bay for CB Fred Vinson and a sixth-round choice (DT Tim Watson) in the '00 draft...Packers GM Ted Thompson spent five seasons (2000-04) as the Seahawks' vice president of football operations...Mike Reinfeldt, the Seahawks' vice president of football administration, served eight seasons (1991-98) as an instrumental member of Bob Harlan's Packers administration, helping among other things to bring Ron Wolf to Green Bay...Seahawks offensive coordinator Gil Haskell (1992-97) and special projects/defense coach Ray Rhodes (1992-93, 1999), coached previously in Green Bay; Rhodes (1999) was the 12th head coach in Packers history, succeeding Holmgren, who coached the Packers from 1992-98...Seahawks assistants Nolan Cromwell (1992-98), Jim Lind (1992-98), John Marshall (1980-82) and Gary Reynolds (1996-98) also coached in Green Bay...Ron Wolf selected Matt Hasselbeck in the sixth round of the 1998 draft; the quarterback spent his first three seasons in Green Bay, including his rookie campaign on the Packers' practice squad...Packers S Marquand Manuel played two seasons (2004-05) in Seattle and was a defensive starter in Super Bowl XL...Seattle vice president Lance Lopes worked in the Packers' front office from 1993-2000...Seahawks head athletic trainer Sam Ramsden worked six seasons in the Packers training room...Packers scouting director John Dorsey (1999) and personnel analyst to general manager John Schneider (2000) spent time in the Seahawks' front office.

INDIVIDUALLY VS. SEATTLE...Prior to this season, Noah Herron's career highs of 23 carries for 61 yards came last year against Seattle (Jan. 1, 2006)...In his only regular-season game against his former team, Ahman Green rushed 27 times for 118 yards and two TDs (Oct. 5, 2003)...Brett Favre is 3-1 in his career against Seattle. His 122.9 passer rating on Oct. 5, 2003, was his highest that season until the Monday night game at Oakland after the passing of his father (154.9)...Al Harris returned a Matt Hasselbeck INT 52 yards for a TD in the only NFL postseason game ended by a sudden-death defensive score, Jan. 4, 2004.

LAST MEETING: Jan. 1, 2006, Lambeau Field; Packers won, 23-17.

- ▶ With the No. 1 seed for the NFC playoffs wrapped up, Seattle played its starters long enough for Shaun Alexander to set the NFL record for touchdowns in a season (28) and to surpass the Giants' Tiki Barber for the NFL rushing crown...Alexander rushed for 73 yards in the first half but lost his only fumble of the season just before leaving the game.
- ▶ Brett Favre threw for 259 yards and a TD, a 9-yard strike to Antonio Chatman to put the Packers up 20-14 late in the third quarter.
- ▶ Noah Herron rushed for 61 yards, including an 11-yard TD run, while Donald Driver had six catches for 118 yards to set single-season career highs with 86 catches for 1,221 yards.
- ▶ Seattle had its 11-game winning streak snapped but did not lose again until Super Bowl XL.

LAST MEETING, SEATTLE: Sept. 29, 1996, Kingdome; Packers won, 31-10.

- ▶ Favre threw four TD passes — two to Antonio Freeman and one each to Dorsey Levens and Keith Jackson — as the Mike Holmgren and the Packers bounced back from the first loss during their eventual Super Bowl championship season to improve to 4-1.
- ▶ Favre finished 20 of 34 for 209 yards, with Freeman making seven grabs for 108 yards.
- ▶ The Packers' defense picked off Rick Mirer four times and capitalized on five overall takeaways.

ANOTHER FAVRE STADIUM: After Brett Favre makes his debut in Seattle's Qwest Field Monday, he will have played regular-season games in 42 venues. Including the Kingdome, 16 of those stadiums are either no longer standing or no longer in use by NFL teams.

GAME NOTES

FAMILIAR WITH UNFAMILIAR TERRITORY: The Packers play their first game at a new stadium — or a stadium new to them — Monday. ▶ Green Bay has won six of its last nine regular-season games playing for the first time in unfamiliar stadiums (wins at FedEx Field and Reliant Stadium in 2004, renovated Soldier Field in 2003, Ford Field, Memorial Stadium in Champaign and Gillette Stadium in 2002). The only three losses in the stretch were in 2004, their regular-season debut at Philadelphia's Lincoln Financial Field, and 2005 losses at Cincinnati's Paul Brown Stadium and Baltimore's M&T Bank Stadium. ▶ Over a longer regular-season stretch, the Packers have won nine of their last 14 (wins at Jacksonville in 1995, St. Louis in 1996 and Carolina in 1997, losses at Tampa Bay in 1998, Tennessee in 2001 and Philadelphia in 2004) in unfamiliar territory.

TOP ALL-AROUND BACKS: Monday's contest features two of the most productive NFL running backs during this decade, Seattle's Shaun Alexander and the Packers' Ahman Green. Since the Packers obtained Green from Seattle in a trade before the 2000 season, he ranks sixth among NFL rushers with 7,747 yards.

Most rushing yards, 2000-06

Tiki Barber	8,850
LaDainian Tomlinson	8,398
Edgerrin James	8,353
Shaun Alexander	8,041
Ahman Green	7,747
Curtis Martin	7,551
Corey Dillon	7,480
Jamal Lewis	7,338
Fred Taylor	7,187
Priest Holmes	6,521

Most total yards from scrimmage, 2000-06

Tiki Barber	12,623
LaDainian Tomlinson	11,241
Edgerrin James	10,795
Ahman Green	10,255
Torry Holt	9,496
Shaun Alexander	9,452
Curtis Martin	9,366
Priest Holmes	9,102
Marvin Harrison	9,019
Fred Taylor	8,862

THE FAVRE REPLACEMENTS: Sunday marked just the sixth time during Brett Favre's 231-game regular-season starting streak he could not finish due to injury. Ironically, each of the last two games have resulted in season-ending injuries for his respective replacements, Doug Pederson and Rodgers:

Quarterback(s)	Date	Opp	Res
Mark Brunell	Oct. 20, 1994	at Min	L, 10-13 (ot)
Ty Detmer & T.J. Rubley	Nov. 5, 1995	at Min	L, 24-27
Matt Hasselbeck	Nov. 12, 2000	at TB	L, 15-20
Doug Pederson	Oct. 20, 2002	vs. Was	W, 30-9
Doug Pederson & Craig Nall	Oct. 3, 2004	vs. NYG	L, 7-14
Aaron Rodgers	Nov. 19, 2006	vs. NE	L, 0-35

OUTSIDE ON THE ROAD: While the Packers have played remarkably better in domed stadiums compared to their indoors trend during the Mike Holmgren era, the team has struggled outdoors on the road.

▶ The last time the Packers were able to defeat a team with a winning record outside on the road was Dec. 15, 2002, when Green Bay knocked off the 9-4 49ers in San Francisco, 20-14.

LONGEST OPPONENT WINNING STREAKS SNAPPED: Green Bay on Jan. 1 at Lambeau Field ended Seattle's 11-game winning streak. Previously, the longest streak Green Bay had ever halted was a 10-game run by the Lions, at Detroit on Nov. 25, 1934, a 3-0 final. Lambeau Field's longest streak ever stopped was Denver's nine-game run in 1996.

AGAINST FORMER COACHES: Brett Favre knocked off his former position coach Andy Reid in their first head-to-head meeting in 2000, but the Packers haven't been able to beat him again, including 2006. In recent history, Reid is the black sheep among former Packers coaches in terms of winning percentage against Green Bay. A closer look at those coaches and their records (1997-2006):

Head Coach, Team	W	L	Pct	in Green Bay
*Andy Reid, Phi	5	1	.833	TE/offensive line asst., 1992-96; QB coach, 1997-98

AGAINST SUPER BOWL FINALISTS: Brett Favre and the Packers are 6-1 against teams that played in the Super Bowl the previous season. They've won five of their last six on the road. The list:

Oct. 14, 2001	Baltimore Ravens	.....W, 31-23
Jan. 6, 2002	at New York Giants	.....W, 34-25
Oct. 13, 2002	at New England Patriots	.....W, 28-10
Nov. 16, 2003	at Tampa Bay Buccaneers	.....W, 20-13
Dec. 22, 2003	at Oakland Raiders	.....W, 41-7
Sept. 13, 2004	at Carolina Panthers	.....W, 24-14
Nov. 27, 2005	at Philadelphia Eagles	.....L, 14-19

JET LAG: If any NFL team has an advantage in traveling, it's the centrally located Green Bay Packers. Many times, for instance, bus rides from Soldier Field to O'Hare International Airport take longer than flight time from Chicago to Green Bay.

- ▶ But in 2006, the schedule makers weren't kind to the Packers.
- ▶ The Packers logged 3,500 air miles on their round-trip from Green Bay to San Diego to open the preseason.
- ▶ Following the game, the team's Northwest Airlines DC-10 charter returned to Green Bay with the sun already up, shortly after 6 a.m. CDT.
- ▶ Each 1,750-mile flight was two hours longer than any plane ride the team took in 2005.
- ▶ It was the start of a challenging quartet. The Packers in 2006 are embarking on their four longest flights since their memorable win at Oakland on Monday night, Dec. 22, 2003.
- ▶ Green Bay's longest road trips, 2004-06:

Miles	Destination	Opponent	Year
1,830	San Francisco	San Francisco 49ers	2006
1,750	San Diego	San Diego Chargers	2006
1,640	Seattle	Seattle Seahawks	2006
1,360	Miami	Miami Dolphins	2006
1,100	Houston	Houston Texans	2004
1,030	Jacksonville	Jacksonville Jaguars	2004
775	Atlanta	Atlanta Falcons	2005
745	Charlotte	Carolina Panthers	2005
745	Charlotte	Carolina Panthers	2004

AL HARRIS: Has an INT in each of his last two games vs. Seattle, Jan. 1, 2006 (Seneca Wallace) and Jan. 4, 2004, when he returned a Matt Hasselbeck INT 52 yards for a TD in the only NFL postseason game ended by a sudden-death defensive score.

Chinks in Favre's armor

This week, for the 15th time during his ironman games-played streak, Brett Favre is expected to play in reported pain. He is 9-5 career in his first start since sustaining a serious injury. A case-by-case look at Favre's (known) stretches of playing through injury:

Injury	Sustained	First game back	Result
First-degree separation, left shoulder Led Packers to comeback win over Eagles, with injury	vs. Phi.; Nov. 15, 1992	at Chi.; Nov. 22, 1992	W
Deep thigh bruise Limping, threw game-winning TD on play after injury vs. TB; next week, set career highs in completions and passing yards	vs. TB; Nov. 28, 1993	at Chi.; Dec. 5, 1993	L
Severely bruised left hip Career-high 58 yards rushing, TD, at Chicago in cold rain	at Min.; Oct. 20, 1994	at Chi.; Oct. 31, 1994	W
Severely sprained left ankle Missed most of second half at Min.; didn't practice all week, rebounded vs. Bears for then-highest career passer rating (147.2)	at Min.; Nov. 5, 1995	vs. Chi.; Nov. 12, 1995	W
Wind knocked out (twice) Packers called timeout; Favre coughed up blood on sideline, returned to lead team to division-clinching win vs. Steelers	vs. Pit.; Dec. 24, 1995	vs. Atl.; Dec. 31, 1995	W
Sprained thumb, right hand Aggravated several times early in season; played most of year with injury	vs. Den.; Aug. 23, 1999	vs. Oak.; Sept. 12, 1999	W
Tendinitis, right elbow Missed final three preseason games; battled much of season	(training camp)	vs. NYJ.; Sept. 3, 2000	L
Left mid-foot sprain Warren Sapp sack; 23-of-36, 301 yards, 2 TDs, vs. Indianapolis	at TB; Nov. 12, 2000	vs. Ind.; Nov. 19, 2000	W
Sprained lateral collateral ligament, left knee LaVar Arrington sack; wore brace most of remaining games	vs. Was.; Oct. 20, 2002	vs. Mia.; Nov. 4, 2002	W
Broken thumb, right hand Throws three touchdowns, 18-of-28 passing, in critical win at Minnesota; leads NFL with 32 TD passes, 19 after injury	at StL.; Oct. 19, 2003	at Min.; Nov. 2, 2003	W
Softball-sized bruise, left hamstring Hobbling in pocket, nearly pulls off comeback at Indianapolis, throwing for 360 yards and four TDs; late fumble seals fate	at Ind.; Sept. 26, 2004	vs. NYG; Oct. 3, 2004	L
Concussion After concussion, re-enters Giants game without medical clearance to throw a TD pass, but doesn't return in 14-7 loss	vs. NYG; Oct. 3, 2004	vs. Ten; Oct. 11, 2004	L
Sprained right hand Had up-and-down game at Washington, but still helped team to important wins over Cowboys and Redskins	vs. Dal.; Oct. 24, 2004	at Was.; Oct. 31, 2004	W
Ankle Has ankle stepped on in final preseason game, seems unaffected following week in regular-season opener	at Ten; Sept. 1, 2005	at Det.; Sept. 11, 2005	L
Bruised nerve in throwing elbow	vs. NE; Nov. 19, 2006	at Sea; Nov. 27, 2006

CONNECTIONS BEGIN WITH THOMPSON: The low-profile architect of Seattle's draft board since joining the club in January 2000, Thompson finally got an opportunity to run a team when the Packers brought him back to Green Bay in 2005 and made him Executive Vice President, General Manager and Director of Football Operations.

- ▶ Players taken by Seattle off Thompson's draft boards accounted for 51.7 percent of the Seahawks' starts in 2004, when the 9-7 club captured the NFC West championship.
- ▶ Upon returning to Green Bay in 2005, 30 of the 47 players he selected in Seattle had started at least one Seahawks game, and only three of those 47 did not make Seattle's 53-man roster.
- ▶ Seven of those Seattle players have earned all-rookie, All-Pro or Pro Bowl honors, and one — RB Shaun Alexander — earned the league's MVP in 2005.

DAY-AFTER-GAME TRANSCRIPT

FROM THE HEAD COACH: Mike McCarthy's press conference transcript, Monday, Nov. 20, 2006:

- ▶ (What is the status of both of your quarterbacks?) We'll start with Aaron (Rodgers). Aaron has a broken foot which will require surgery. He'll be out for the season. Brett's elbow I think is going to be fine. He's been in for treatment for both the elbow and the groin, and we'll reevaluate him Wednesday. He doesn't seem very concerned about it.
- ▶ (Does he have the strength back?) He's got the strength pretty much back, but it's not all the way back. He's got 48 hours. We'll know more Wednesday as far as whether he'll practice or not. I really don't have a classification for him yet.
- ▶ (Is there pain there or was it just numb?) What I noticed was weakness. That was the whole discussion from the time of the injury, through half-time and into the third quarter was that the strength wasn't there, the feeling in the hand. As far as the pain, I'm not sure about the pain.
- ▶ (Did Bruschi's hit cause the injury?) It looked more like it (his elbow) hit the ground than anything. I didn't sit there and study it, but my thought was that his elbow hit the ground rather than the helmet, which we originally thought.
- ▶ (Anything with the nerves that the doctors are concerned about?) No. I just got done with the doctors, and what I just told you was what they told me. He took a shot on the elbow and didn't get into the specifics of the nerve and everything. They think he is going to be fine. He's not very worried about it, which to them is a clear indication because he's been through this, and they trust his judgment based on their history with him.
- ▶ (Do you have to sign a third quarterback this week?) Correct. Yes, we are working on that now. We're trying to get some prospects in here tonight and be knocking that out in the next 24 hours.
- ▶ (Looking for a young guy or veteran, second QB or third string?) We're looking at both scenarios - a potential veteran or a potential practice squad (player). We're looking at every scenario out there now.

- ▶ (When did Rodgers hurt his foot?) I'm not 100 percent sure. In talking to him last night, I don't think he's real sure either. After watching the film, I think it was on the scramble. That'd be my best guess. You can't really tell. You can see he starts limping after that point in the game. Based on the way his body was and the torque he put on his foot, that would be my guess. I'm not sure. I haven't seen Aaron today, so when we watch film today with the quarterbacks, I'm sure we'll figure it out. It was a scramble on their sideline - not sure about which down it was.
- ▶ (Played with it the rest of the way?) He played the whole fourth quarter with it, yeah. It affected his footwork and some things later. He got it taped right about that point and played the whole fourth quarter with it.
- ▶ (When will he have surgery?) We haven't scheduled it yet, but sooner rather than later.
- ▶ (Will he be ready to begin work with the regular offseason injury?) Yeah, but until he has the operation, that's all. Until they get in there and see exactly what it is, we haven't even discussed it yet.
- ▶ (Is it like Blackmon's broken foot?) It's similar to Will's.
- ▶ (Could have lost both quarterbacks - Where are you emotionally?) Injuries, I say it over and over again and with the quarterback situation, it maybe changes the flight of your vision for your football team as you move forward, but I can't control injuries. As far as when we talk about them, I feel bad for the individual. As far as the football team, that's part of our season. Everyone has them, and everyone experiences it as some point with the quarterback. We've been blessed here in Green Bay with Brett's situation. We just plow forward and make sure we ask the players to do the things they're capable of doing regardless of who the quarterback is. If that means playing with Ingle Martin, then we'll play with Ingle Martin. No excuses - I'm not going to sit here and make excuses. Everybody gets paid, it's a great game, tough business, but everyone has a responsibility. We'll just move forward.
- ▶ (Was Favre just off or did his injuries bother him?) We haven't watched the film together yet. He has not communicated that to me, but that's something I'll know more of when we get in there at 1 o'clock. I haven't talked to him about the specifics about each play. We'll go through it like we normally do.
- ▶ (Have you ever seen him that inaccurate?) Ball accuracy was an issue. I don't recall the passing game being so poor, and that goes back to the preparation. I'm just disappointed clearly in our offensive performance, really the team performance as a whole, but in the offense the primary focus was the passing game. We need to get that fixed. We've been pretty good. I don't know what our ranking is in the league, but we're up there. That was supposed to be the strength of our game planning, the strength of our attack yesterday, and it wasn't.
- ▶ (Like to see Rodgers remain active in meetings and around the team?) Absolutely, I mean he's a young quarterback. Every time he's in that room, watching film, a part of that conversation, taking in the practice reps, I mean that position is such an education and the process of going through it. Especially with a veteran quarterback like Brett Favre, it'd be foolish for him not to expose himself (to it). The plan is to keep him involved. On a personal level, you feel terrible for him because he's a guy that's been here since March 20. He's been here everyday going through the quarterback school, was getting ready to be potentially the starter for our football team, and then he finally gets an opportunity to play and that happens to him. You feel bad for him on a personal level, but professionally, he still has an opportunity to grow as a quarterback, so that will be the plan with him.

► (How much does this hinder his development?) I mean it's a setback. The ultimate point of development for him right now is that he needs to play. If he misses the opportunity to play again, then that's an opportunity wasted. We'll move on. He's young, and it's something that won't be career threatening or anything like that. It's just a setback for him personally.

► (Do you force feed Ingle Martin some practice reps now?) Well, you have to balance that. Our starter is a veteran, someone who has had more practice reps than anyone in the league. He still needs his reps during the week, and Ingle's will go up. We'll do all the individual things that we can with extra meeting time with Tom (Clements) and post-practice drills, things like that. We'll do as much as we can.

► (Do you want to sign someone who has been in a camp or looking at someone who has been away from the game for a year or two?) Well, we're going to look at all of our options. I don't have criteria as far as where they are. We're not going to resurrect I don't think, but we're looking at all of our options.

► (Have you seen development out of Martin since training camp?) Yeah, I think so. Particularly in the opponent squad, he's getting the ball out quicker; the game is slowing down for him. That's normal. You see that in young quarterbacks. The speed of the game is always usually too much for them at first. He's doing a better job with his limited opportunities. Aaron still took reps with the opponent (squad), but he's improving.

► (Other injuries?) Let me go down the list here. We have Aaron Rodgers with the foot, we talked about him. Nick Barnett has a hand fracture. We're going to try to play him with a club. Ahman will go through his normal rehab on Wednesday. Cullen Jenkins, he has an ankle, we're going to test him today. It's the same ankle, just bothering him a little more than prior to the week. David Martin has a number of things, he's got the quad and the ribs, so we're looking at him today with some tests. Mark Tauscher is the same. We'll learn more about him. Ben Taylor has a hamstring. We're going to test him also today. And Charles Woodson has a shoulder, and we'll test him today.

► (How did Barnett break his hand?) Right near the end of the game. I'm trying to remember what the play was. It was on a run play right there at the end of the game.

► (Jags said after the game he was going to watch film. Is that something you normally do right after the game?) I don't usually watch the film the night after. I did not watch it with him last night, so that must be something he did on his own.

► (Manuel said after the game you guys got 'outcoached.' How do you feel about comments like that from a player?) That's probably something him and I need to talk about. That's nothing positive that can come from coming in here and talking about other people's comments. If that's the way he feels, then we need to have a conversation. I don't converse through the media.

► (How do you feel about Manuel's play at safety so far?) He's been put in some tough spots. But on the positive side of it, he's a very knowledgeable player. I think he's clearly the best communicator back there. It has been an adjustment coming from the scheme he came from to here. But there are some plays we need to get fixed. It's not just always one guy. If it's always one thing, I think we would have fixed it by now. Just in reference, everyone wants to talk about that play. We don't have cover schemes in our coverage design that put guys on an island where the two-way goes. There's other factors involved in that. We just have to keep coaching it, recognizing it, and we have to play it better. And we'll continue to get it fixed. And we're going to continue to see it. You look at the game yesterday, they had 17 attempts in their passing game at us vertically, and they hit on two or three of them. So we have to make sure we're 17-for-17, not 14-for-17, and that's kind of where we are right now, and it's going to keep coming. It will come in bunches until we fix it. That's the way this league works.

► (What is Brett's pain threshold compared to other QBs?) I think his record for starts answers that question. I don't think it really was a pain issue yesterday. I think it was more of a strength issue because he was having a hard time controlling the football. The conversation that we had coming out at halftime is they were throwing it here inside, and he couldn't control the ball very well. I don't think it was a pain issue.

► (How bruising was this entire experience?) The score, you know, 35-nothing, my goodness, at home, that's a poor performance, and as a head coach I take full responsibility. Really for me, it starts with the preparation we had. And that's something we've talked a lot about as a staff since then. Because I was not comfortable with some of the adjustments we made during the course of the week. Without getting into all the specifics, because there were a number of them as far as handling the health of our football team, the way we practiced on Wednesday, decisions we made based on health of individuals, because a number of those things factored in the game. It's not an excuse, because there's a lot of other things we need to do better. But that's the reality of what happened this week. And hey, I thought New England played an excellent football game. They put their players in good position, I thought they out-executed us and so forth. I take responsibility for not having that team ready for that football game. Those are the things I'm focused on. And with that, just like I told the team afterwards, it's reality. That is one loss. The roller coaster is there, you guys are passing out the tickets, and I told them the same thing yesterday, we're not getting on it. We have to get ready for Seattle. Now we will get in there and we will talk about accountability and we'll talk about availability. And we'll talk about coaches teaching and demanding, we'll talk about players preparing and performing. Because that's their job, that's what we're about, that's the way we'll approach it. Yes, we're disappointed. I'm disappointed and we need to learn from it, because this is a negative that this team has encountered at this point in the season. No one ever wants to go through this, especially this late in the season, but this is something that we can learn from, this is something that we can build off of, and I think anytime you encounter situations like that, a lot of good things will come out of it. And that's what we need to accomplish today as a football team.

► (Would you change anything in how you practiced last week?) In hindsight, you can overreact to things like that. I think Wednesday's practice I would change. We're a young football team. A lot of problems we encountered yesterday were technical, they were not schematic. When I left the field yesterday, I thought we had made a number of mental errors. The information we had on the boundary and discussions we had on the boundary there yesterday were not accurate on the film, and that's not good, so we need to get that fixed. But a lot of our things were technical, and that's what happens to football teams at this point in the year. Your pad level gets high because you're not in pads as much. You're trying to find that common ground between protecting your players and the health of your football team because of the grind here in the second half, and also maintaining your fundamentals and things like that. So we just have to get back to the fundamentals. All the things that went wrong yesterday, the good news is they're all fixable, and we'll focus on that.

► (After an emotional victory in Minnesota, was this a letdown?) Well, that's something you need to make sure is not part of it. That's a common thought process that happens to teams. I think it would be convenient to say that happened to us. We have to make sure that is not the case. Once again, I don't think we were ... I hope we weren't fat and happy because we were 4-5 last week. We felt pretty good about ourselves coming out of that win, and rightfully so. That was a big game. To win up there in that environment, that's a tough place to play. But this league is one week at a time. This past week was New England and we did not take care of business, and that starts with me. I need to do a better job.

- ▶ (What was the thinking with regards to Brett in the second half?) Frankly I told the quarterbacks regardless of who's in there, we're going. I could have slowed that game down, could have made the wound not as bad. I've been around that before. I don't believe in it, and that's a product of it. We kept the gas on the pedal. We didn't go very far, but we tried, and I think that's why the game got out of hand quite frankly. I could have prevented some of that. It's probably not fair to Aaron, but that's where we are as a football team. I am not going to line up and try to keep it close. I refuse to do that, right or wrong or indifferent. I know there's spots in the game, there are games where it happens to go that way and you do it. But as a general mindset, that's not my interest right now. When we came out of the locker room, regardless of who the quarterback was, we stayed aggressive in everything we did, we tried to emphasize the pass as the primary attack, and we did not get it done.
- ▶ (Will you be in pads this week?) We were in pads last week. We took the pads off on Wednesday because of the number of guys out. But we'll stick to our (schedule). We'll be in pads Wednesday and (Friday).
- ▶ (Did Favre lobby to get back in the game?) I just told Pepper and those guys to give me an update on how he was doing, and he did not regain his strength.
- ▶ (Will you practice every day this week?) We're going to be off Thursday because of the extra day. Trust me, we'll get our work done.
- ▶ (What do you mean by conversations on the boundary?) Sometimes what happens is, a guy gets kicked in the calf and he says he got kicked but he has a torn Achilles. That's a common practice. It's no different when a guy gets beat on a block and says this is what they're doing to me. You get pictures but they don't always tell the whole story. They only tell one frame of the story. And you're over there correcting and trying to make proper adjustments, then you watch the film the next day and that's not what happened. We need to be better at communication is what it is. That happens unfortunately. And we've been very good about it. We've been very good about it. It's a small part of it, and we need to get it fixed.
- ▶ (As a head coach, do you feel you need to get more involved with the defense?) I'm on the line the whole time they're out on the field. I'm not involved in every single one of their adjustments like I am on offense. You can only do so much. I'm comfortable with our structure.

THE 2006 PACKERS

TO OPEN THE SECOND HALF: The Packers have been able to consistently move the ball on each of their 10 possessions that opened the second half this season. In every contest, they've recorded at least one first down on that drive.

- ▶ Over a longer stretch, the team has avoided the "three-and-out" on its first drive after halftime in 11 consecutive games, and 12 of their last 13.

ROOKIE STARTERS ON THE O-LINE: Tony Moll Nov. 12 at Minnesota played much of the second half in place of an injured Mark Tauscher (groin). Moll, a natural right tackle who has made several starts at guard this year, made his first NFL start at that position for Tauscher Sunday vs. New England.

- ▶ Moll, who like former Patriots tackle Tom Ashworth was a tight end in college, was drafted in the fifth round by the Packers out of Nevada.

TEAM NOTES

- ▶ Including guards Daryn Colledge and Jason Spitz, the Packers have started three rookie offensive linemen for the only two times in their recorded history (vs. New England Nov. 19 and at Miami, Oct. 22, when left tackle Chad Clifton was sick in a 34-24 win).
- ▶ The last NFL team to start three rookies on its offensive line in multiple games was the 2003 N.Y. Giants (twice). In research dating to the 1970 merger, the Packers had never started three in a game before Oct. 22.
- ▶ Already this season, three Packers rookies have started on the offensive line, and four — including Tony Palmer — have played. Palmer took two snaps, including a third-down conversion in short yardage vs. New Orleans Sept. 17.
- ▶ The Packers have not had as many as four rookie offensive linemen play at least one game in one season since 1987, when replacement players filled in for three contests during an NFL players' strike. Green Bay used six rookies on the O-line that year.
- ▶ The last non-strike year they used as many as four rookies on the line was 1984 (Mark Cannon, Gary Hoffman, Tony DeLuca and Boyd Jones).

ROOKIE GUARDS: The Packers gave starting nods to rookie guards Tony Moll and Jason Spitz Sept. 10. According to Elias Sports Bureau, the last NFL team to start a rookie at each guard position in a season opener was the 1996 Cincinnati Bengals, whose first offensive huddle included Ken Blackman and Rod Jones.

- ▶ The last offensive line to feature a pair of rookies in a season opener was the 2004 Chargers — Nick Hardwick (center) and Shane Olivea (tackle).
- ▶ The last three NFL teams to start two rookie guards in a single contest were: the 2004 Colts — six games with Ryan Lilja and Jake Scott; the 2003 Giants — six games with David Diehl and Wayne Lucier; and the 2002 49ers — one game with Eric Heitmann and Kyle Kosier.
- ▶ In Packers history, Sept. 10 was believed to be the first time the Packers started rookies at both guard spots in the same game.
- ▶ The last three times Green Bay started two rookies on the offensive line were: 2000 — 10 games with Chad Clifton and Mark Tauscher (both tackles); 1987 — three strike games with Jim Hobbins (G) and Ed Konopasek (T); and 1985 — one game with Ken Ruettggers (T) and Rich Moran (G).

LONG DRIVES: The Packers now have orchestrated eight touchdown drives of at least 80 yards. Opponents, by comparison, have three.

- ▶ Green Bay's 97-yard drive to close the first half Sunday at Minnesota was its longest since a 98-yard march vs. Tennessee, Oct. 11, 2004.

NET PASSING: The Packers now have reached 300 net passing yards (gross yards minus those lost on sacks) on three occasions this year. Only 11 previous offenses in Packers history have reached the landmark at least three times in a season. The club record is six (three times, in 1983, 1989 and 2004).

TOTAL OFFENSE: Prior to a difficult day vs. New England Nov. 19, the Packers had generated 810 yards of total offense over their previous two games. The last time the team strung together more yards in consecutive outings was the end of the 2004 season (847 at Minnesota and Chicago).

Two years after he co-founded the Packers with Curly Lambeau, George Calhoun began writing a piece called The Dope Sheet, which served as the official press release and game program from 1921-24.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES continued

HALFTIME LEAD IS HUGE: The Packers now are 3-1 this season with a halftime lead.

► With an advantage at intermission, Brett Favre during his streak is 110-24 (.821) and 45-17 (.726) in road games.

DEFENSE ON THE ROAD: On the road, on 17 of opponents' last 25 possessions, the Packers defense has forced either a punt or turnover (15 punts, two takeaways). Three of those 25 drives were ended by the clock.

TURNOVER FREE: Green Bay now is 2-0 this season in games without a giveaway, including Nov. 12 at Minnesota.

► Over a longer stretch, the team has won 23 of its last 24 games playing turnover-free football, since a loss at Minnesota, Dec. 1, 1997. Green Bay's only loss in such games during that stretch was a 23-20 setback at Minnesota, Oct. 23, 2005.

► Including playoffs, the Packers have won 26 of their last 27.

LIMITING TURNOVERS: The Packers in their four wins have a cumulative plus-four turnover ratio. In their six losses, the margin is minus-eight.

► On Nov. 19 vs. New England, the team lost for only the fifth time since 2000 when it committed one turnover or less.

► Still, no other NFL club has a better winning percentage since 2000 when committing one turnover or less:

Pct	Club	W	L	T
.894	Green Bay	42	5	0
.879	Indianapolis	51	7	0
.825	Pittsburgh	47	10	0
.813	Seattle	39	9	0
.807	New England	46	11	0
.797	Denver	47	12	0
.795	Miami	35	9	0
.794	St. Louis	27	7	0
.750	Dallas	30	10	0
.727	Tennessee	40	15	0

DON'T CHALLENGE THE PACKERS: Including twice Nov. 12 at Minnesota and five times overall this year, opponents have been unsuccessful on each of their last 12 challenges.

► The streak began Dec. 19, 2004, when Jacksonville's Jack Del Rio challenged a play in which Darren Sharper — then with Green Bay — returned a Byron Leftwich fumble 15 yards for a touchdown.

► Opponent head coaches in 2005 were 0-for-6 on instant-replay challenges, and are now 1-for-their-last-13 dating to 2004.

► Steve Mariucci — then with Detroit — was the last coach to successfully challenge a call, taking an interception and touchdown away from Sharper, Dec. 12, 2004, at Lambeau Field.

ON PACE FOR: Notable statistical achievements within reach down the stretch:

► With 33 sacks as a team, the Packers are on pace for 53. The franchise record is 52, by the 2001 club.

► Having allowed just 99.6 rushing yards per game, the Packers' defense is on pace to give up only 1,594 yards on the ground, its fewest since 1998, when the team allowed 1,442 (90.1 avg.), fourth in the NFL.

► Donald Driver is on pace for a career-best 93 receptions. Only two Packers have reached that the 100-catch milestone: Sterling Sharpe (112 in 1993 and 108 in 1992) and Robert Brooks (102 in 1995).

► Driver also is on pace for a career-best 1,301 receiving yards. His current career best is 1,221 in 2005. By reaching 1,000, he would become the third Packers player to reach the mark in at least four seasons, joining Sharpe and Hall of Famer James Lofton (both five).

► Brett Favre is on pace for 21 touchdown passes, which would leave him with 417 career and three shy of Dan Marino's NFL record, 420.

► However, Favre also is on pace to throw just 11 interceptions. His fewest during his 15 years as a starter was 13 in 1992, 1995 and '96.

► Ahman Green is on pace for 1,030 rushing yards. He needs to reach 1,105 to break the franchise's career record, held by Hall of Famer Jim Taylor (8,207).

► A.J. Hawk is on pace for 157 tackles, which would be the most by a Packers rookie since Rich Wingo had 166 in 1979.

► Greg Jennings is on pace for 48 catches and 818 yards. Green Bay's respective records among rookies are held by Sharpe (55 in 1988) and Billy Howton (1,231 in 1952). Jennings' catches would be the most by a rookie since Sharpe, while his yards would be the most since Howton.

► Jennings is on pace for five TD catches, which would be the most by a Packers rookie since Lofton had six in 1978. Howton holds the record, 13 in 1952.

► Aaron Kampman is on pace for 16 sacks, which would be tied for the most since Tim Harris established the team record with 19½ in 1989. Reggie White had 16 in his final Packers season, 1998.

► Dave Rayner is on pace for 16 touchbacks. The most by a Packers kicker during the Super Bowl era (since 1966) was Chester Marcol's 28 in 1972. The most since 1990 was Chris Jacke's 15 in 1991.

► Jon Ryan, with a 46.4 gross average, is on pace to eclipse Craig Hentrich's 1997 franchise record, 45.0.

► Charles Woodson is on pace for 19 passes defended. His career best is 21, established during his rookie 1998 campaign with Oakland.

PASS PLAYS PER SACK: By measure of pass plays per sack, the Packers have are among the best in the league on both sides of the ball.

OFFENSE	Plays	Sacks	Plays/Sack
New Orleans	396	11	36.00
Indianapolis	371	12	30.92
Green Bay	398	15	26.53

Green Bay	374	33	11.33
Pittsburgh	352	29	12.14

SACK RATIO: The Packers' defense has 33 sacks this season while the club's offense has allowed just 15.

► Six times this year, the team has racked up at least four sacks.

► Green Bay's plus-20 sack ratio ranks first in the NFL entering Sunday:

Ratio	Club	Sk	Sk Allowed
+19	San Diego	36	17
+18	Green Bay	33	15

MULTIPLE HAT TRICKS: Corey Williams Nov. 5 at Buffalo became the first defensive tackle in team history with three sacks. Coupled with Kampman's three-sack effort vs. New Orleans (Sept. 17), only four times in team annals have more than one player pulled off the sack hat trick (also Reggie White and Bryce Paup in 1993, Kabeer Gbaja-Biamila and Vonnie Holliday in 2002 and Gbaja-Biamila and Kampman in 2005).

NOVEMBER 1 & LATER: This decade, Brett Favre and the Packers have played their best football after the October-November calendar change. Even in 2005, when the club sustained a 4-12 record, three of the team's four wins came in the season's final two months.

► The NFL's best records since 2000, Nov. 1 and later:

Club	W	L	T	Pct
New England	.40	15	0	.727
Philadelphia	.38	17	0	.691
Pittsburgh	.39	17	1	.693
Green Bay	.37	19	0	.661

Indianapolis	.36	21	0	.632
Seattle	.35	21	0	.625
Tennessee	.30	24	0	.556
Tampa Bay	.31	25	0	.554

MULTIPLE 100-YARD RUSHERS: On Oct. 29 vs. Arizona, for the first time since the "Snow Bowl," Dec. 1, 1985, two Packers topped 100 yards rushing. Ahman Green (106) and Vernand Morency (101 yards) became the first pair since Eddie Lee Ivery (109) and Gerry Ellis (101) 21 years ago.

► While Morency sustained a back injury that sidelined him indefinitely, the player who took his place is no stranger to 100-yard games. Noah Herron, with Ahman Green inactive Oct. 8 vs. St. Louis, rushed for 106 yards on 20 carries (5.3 avg.) and one TD.

► So, also for the first time since 1985, the Packers have three players who've enjoyed 100-yard rushing games in the same season.

► While uncommon in Packers annals, three 100-yard rushers isn't that odd across the league. Atlanta also has three players this season and Jacksonville and San Francisco had three last season, when Mike McCarthy was the 49ers' offensive coordinator.

► When the Packers won Super Bowl XXXI, the team had just one 100-yard rushing game during a 13-3 regular season: Edgar Bennett (109) vs. Minnesota, Dec. 22, 1996.

► Multiple Packers players with 100 yards rushing in the same game:

Date	Opp	Players	Att	Yds
12/16/73	at ChiB	John Brockington MacArthur Lane	22 19	142 101
11/23/80	at Min	Eddie Lee Ivery Gerry Ellis	24 15	145 101
12/01/85	TB	Gerry Ellis Eddie Lee Ivery	9 13	101 109
10/29/06	Ari	Ahman Green Vernand Morency	21 11	106 101

► Three or more players with 100-yard rushing games during a single season, Packers history:

Year	Players
1961	Paul Hornung, Tom Moore, Jim Taylor
1979	Steve Atkins, Terdell Middleton, Nate Simpson
1985	Jessie Clark, Gerry Ellis, Eddie Lee Ivery
2006	Ahman Green, Noah Herron, Vernand Morency

STRONG-LEGGED KICKERS: Because they play most of their games in the challenging climate of the Upper Midwest, the Packers are constantly on the lookout for kickers with above-average leg strength. They seem to have found just that in first-year punter Jon Ryan and second-year kicker Dave Rayner.

► Rayner on Oct. 2 at Philadelphia nailed a 54-yard field goal that tied the longest ever kicked by a Packers player. Later that night, he attempted another 54-yarder that had the distance but sailed wide left. Chris Jacke had a 54-yarder on Jan. 2, 1994, at Detroit, and Ryan Longwell had one on Dec. 16, 2001, at Tennessee.

► On Oct. 22 at Miami, Rayner booted a 55-yard field goal. The kick would have been a franchise record but a pre-snap Miami penalty took the points off the board.

► The Michigan State product, who beat out veteran Billy Cundiff in training camp, is used to kicking in the Midwest. His 10 touchbacks this year already are the most in a season by a Packers kicker since Longwell had 11 in 1997.

► Ryan, meanwhile, ranks third in the league with a 46.4 gross average. On the strength of two 66-yard punts, Ryan is on pace to break the 1997 franchise record held by Craig Hentrich (45.0 avg. on 75 punts).

NFL'S YOUNGEST TEAM GETTING YOUNGER: The Packers entered 2006 with the league's youngest roster, in terms of average age and experience. After several moves over the past two months, Green Bay has actually gotten younger.

► Green Bay enters the weekend with a league-high 17 rookies. The number increases to 20 when including the Packers' three "first-year" players (those who've played for other pro teams or been in NFL camps prior to 2006 but had never spent more than six games on a regular-season roster).

► What's more, the Packers have 10 second-year players. That means that of the 53 players on the active roster, 57 percent (or 30 total) have less than three years of NFL experience.

► But in a credit to the coaching staff, and unofficial coach Brett Favre, the team is using its youth as an advantage and remains in the playoff hunt.

TOUGH AFTER THE BYE: If recent history is any indication, the Packers can look forward to better things now that their bye is in the past.

► Counting games immediately following bye weeks, the Packers have won nine of their last 11, including Oct. 22 at Miami.

► In 2003, Green Bay went 7-2 (.778) after the bye. Only three teams posted better marks, including the Super Bowl champion Patriots.

► In 2005, three of the Packers' four wins came after the weekend off.

► Since 2001, Green Bay ranks fourth in the league with a cumulative 33-18 (.647) record after the weekend off.

► A look at the NFL's Top 10 teams, from 2001-06, in cumulative games after the bye:

Club	W	L	T	Pct
New England Patriots	.36	11	0	.766
Pittsburgh Steelers	.49	18	1	.728

ROAD TOUCHDOWN PASSES: With his two touchdown passes at Minnesota Nov. 12, quarterback Brett Favre now has thrown 198 on the road, setting an NFL record. Longtime Miami quarterback Dan Marino had held the record of 197. Marino still holds the overall career touchdown pass record with 420. Favre now is at 409 and needs 12 to break that mark.

► Most touchdown passes in road games, NFL history:

- 198 Brett Favre, 1991-2006
- 197 Dan Marino, 1983-1999
- 169 Fran Tarkenton, 1961-1978
- 140 Joe Montana, 1979-1994
- 135 Warren Moon, 1984-2000
- 127 Drew Bledsoe, 1993-2006
- 124 Johnny Unitas, 1956-1973
- 123 Dave Krieg, 1981-1998
- 121 Vinny Testaverde, 1987-2005
- Peyton Manning, 1998-2006
- 120 John Elway, 1983-1998
- 119 Len Dawson, 1959-1975

INDIVIDUAL NOTES

FAVRE THROWING FEWER INTERCEPTIONS: Brett Favre has just two INTs over his last six games.

► Favre this season is on pace to throw a career-low 11 interceptions.

ONLY TWO VIKINGS REMAIN: Only about half the NFL teams publish consecutive starts in their records section, partly because early press-box statisticians did not universally and consistently document starting line-ups. Even Brett Favre's own team cannot confirm whether his streak is the longest in club history, because lineups were not recorded at every home and road game before 1962. Here are the longest starting streaks on record, as published in team media guides:

- 270 Jim Marshall, Min . . . . .1961-79
  - 240 Mick Tingelhoff, Min . . . . .1962-78
  - 231 *Brett Favre, GB . . . . .1992-2006
  - 229 Bruce Matthews, HouO-Ten . . . . .1987-2001
  - 216 *Will Shields, KC . . . . .1993-2006
  - 210 Jim Otto, Oak . . . . .1960-74
  - 202 Randall McDaniel, Min-TB . . . . .1989-2001
  - 194 Doug Dieken, CleB . . . . .1971-84
- * — active streak

TOP RECEIVING AVERAGE DURING STREAK: Donald Driver's 31.83-yard average per reception Nov. 12 at Minnesota was the highest figure by a Packers receiver during Brett Favre's 230-game starting streak (minimum three receptions, since Sept. 27, 1992). The previous high was 31.00, by Javon Walker at Oakland, Dec. 22, 2003, one day after Favre's father passed away.

► Driver now owns three of the top five marks, all of which have come in road games, during the streak (Elias Sports Bureau):

- 31.83 Donald Driver, Nov. 12, 2006 at Min. (6/191)
- 31.00 Javon Walker, Dec. 22, 2003 at Oak. (4/124)
- 30.25 Donald Driver, Nov. 17, 2002 at Min. (4/121)
- 30.00 Donald Driver, Oct. 7, 2002 at Chi. (4/120)
- 29.75 Bill Schroeder, Oct. 7, 2001 at TB (4/119)

WEARING DOWN OPPONENTS: One of the signatures of the Packers' new zone-blocking scheme is being able to wear down opponents late in the game. One manifestation of that characteristic is Ahman Green's per-carry rushing average in the fourth quarter, which ranks fifth in the NFL on a list littered with players from teams that employ zone schemes. The league's top fourth-quarter ball carriers:

Avg	Player	Att	Yds	Lg	TD
8.4	Michael Vick, Atl	21	177	30	0
8.2	Jerious Norwood, Atl	33	270	78t	1
7.9	Michael Turner, SD	27	212	73	2
6.5	Mike Bell, Den	31	201	48	1
6.4	Ahman Green, GB	35	223	70t	1

LONG GONE: Many wondered whether Ahman Green still had it in him. But the man himself had no doubts and 364 days after he ruptured his quadriceps tendon and saw his 2005 season end, the four-time Pro Bowler delivered a crushing 70-yard touchdown run Oct. 22 at Miami.

► Green's burst was his longest since a 90-yard TD run, Oct. 24, 2004, vs. Dallas. He now has four career of at least 70 yards (also 98t vs. Denver, Dec. 28, 2003; 90t vs. Dallas, Oct. 24, 2004; and 83t vs. Detroit, Sept. 9, 2001).

► He now has nine career carries of at least 60 yards. Across the NFL, no other active player has more (Elias Sports Bureau):

- 9 Ahman Green
- 7 Corey Dillon
- 6 Warrick Dunn
- Fred Taylor
- 5 Jamal Lewis
- Tiki Barber

Green

RB RECEIVING RECORDS: Ahman Green, already the franchise's all-time leader among running backs with 322 career receptions, can take another step this week in his quest to cement his legacy as the top all-around back in Packers history.

► Green needs just 7 receiving yards to erase Gerry Ellis' name in the Packers record book; Ellis compiled 2,514 receiving yards during his Packers career (1980-86), most among Packers backs. Green, who enters with 2,508, would take Ellis' No. 15 spot on the overall all-time receiving yards list.

Most Receptions, Career, Back

- 322 Ahman Green, 2000-06
- 317 William Henderson, 1995-2006
- 271 Dorsey Levens, 1994-2001
- 267 Gerry Ellis, 1980-86
- 242 Edgar Bennett, 1992-96

Most Receiving Yards, Career, Back

- 2,514 Gerry Ellis, 1980-86
- 2,508 Ahman Green, 2000-06
- 2,403 William Henderson, 1995-2006
- 2,079 Dorsey Levens, 1994-2001
- 1,920 Edgar Bennett, 1992-96

GREEN PROTECTING BALL WELL: Ahman Green has not fumbled since Sept. 24 at Detroit. Since that last fumble, the running back has 100 offensive touches (96 carries, four receptions).

AARON KAMPMAN: One of the league's hottest defensive players, Aaron Kampman ranks tied for second in the NFL with 10 sacks.

► From Oct. 2-Nov. 12, he had at least ½ sack in six straight games, one shy of the team record, seven, by Tony Bennett in 1992. The last time a Packers player had at least ½ sack over five straight was Kabeer Gbaja-Biamila in a stretch that covered two seasons, Dec. 24, 2000 — Oct. 7, 2001. The last player with a streak of at least five games during a single season was Reggie White, Nov. 5-Dec. 3, 1995 (five games).

► The fifth-year player, who signed a multi-year extension of the eve of free agency this past March, is only the eighth Packers player to reach double-figures in sacks. The franchise's single-season leaders (1982-2006):

- 19.5 Tim Harris, 1989
- 16.0 Reggie White, 1998
- 14.5 Ezra Johnson, 1983
- 13.5 Tim Harris, 1988
- Tony Bennett, 1992
- Kabeer Gbaja-Biamila, 2001, 2004
- 13.0 Tony Bennett, 1991
- Reggie White, 1993
- 12.0 Reggie White, 1995
- Kabeer Gbaja-Biamila, 2002
- 11.0 Bryce Paup, 1993
- Reggie White, 1997
- 10.5 Sean Jones, 1994
- 10.0 Kabeer Gbaja-Biamila, 2003
- Aaron Kampman, 2006

► The league's leaders in sacks, entering Week 12:

Rank	Player, Team	Sacks
1)	Peppers, Car. (DE)	11.0
2t)	Kampman, G.B. (DE)	10.0
2t)	Little, St.L. (DE)	10.0
4)	Taylor, Mia. (DE)	9.0
5t)	Anderson, Chi. (DE)	8.5
5t)	Merriman, S.D. (LB)	8.5
7t)	Burgess, Oak. (DE)	8.0
7t)	T. Cole, Phi. (DE)	8.0
7t)	Peterson, Sea. (LB)	8.0
7t)	Phillips, S.D. (LB)	8.0
7t)	Schobel, Buf. (DE)	8.0
7t)	Thomas, Bal. (LB)	8.0

WINS DURING THE STREAK: Those who know Brett Favre closely know that of all his accomplishments, the future Hall of Famer probably cares most about his winning percentage and his streak. Favre made his first start at quarterback – and first of a league-record 231 in consecutive fashion – Sept. 27, 1992, vs. Pittsburgh. Favre's 143-88 record since that day is better than any team in the league except Denver:

Team	W	L	T	Pct	Super Bowls	Playoff App.
Green Bay	143	88	0	.619	2	10
Denver	143	88	0	.619	2	8
Pittsburgh	142	88	1	.617	2	10
Kansas City	136	95	0	.589	0	6
San Francisco	133	98	0	.576	1	9
New England	132	100	0	.569	4	8
Minnesota	131	100	0	.567	0	9
Miami	131	101	0	.565	0	8
Indianapolis	130	101	0	.563	0	8
Philadelphia	127	103	1	.552	1	8

CLOSING IN ON MARINO: Brett Favre stands 11 TD passes from matching Dan Marino's NFL-record 420. Most TD passes, NFL history:

- 420 Dan Marino, Mia., 1983-99
- 409 Brett Favre, Atl-GB, 1991-2006
- 342 Fran Tarkenton, Min-NYG, 1961-78
- 300 John Elway, Den., 1983-98
- 291 Warren Moon, Hou-Min-Sea-KC, 1984-2000
- 290 Johnny Unitas, BalC-SD, 1956-73
- 273 Joe Montana, SF-KC, 1979-94
- 269 Vinny Testaverde, TB-CleB-BalR-NYJ-DalC, 1987-2005
- 264 Peyton Manning, Ind, 1998-2006
- 261 Dave Krieg, Sea-KC-Det-Ari-Chi-Ten, 1980-98

SINGLE-STADIUM PASSING YARDS: Brett Favre, who played nine home games at Milwaukee County Stadium from 1992-94, surpassed 25,000 passing yards at Lambeau Field on Oct. 29 vs. Arizona. A list of the most passing yards at a single stadium, all-time (Elias Sports Bureau):

John Elway	Mile High Stadium	27,889
Brett Favre	Lambeau Field	.25,092
Dan Marino	Joe Robbie/Pro Player/Dolphin Stadium	.23,950

ROOKIE RECEIVING RECORDS I: Greg Jennings on Oct. 8 vs. St. Louis posted his second 100-yard effort (also 101 at Detroit, Sept. 24). The rookie has 30 catches for 511 yards and three touchdowns. A closer look at rookie receiving records in Packers history:

Most Receptions, Rookie, Season

55 Sterling Sharpe, 1988	46 James Lofton, 1978
53 Billy Howton, 1952	39 Keith Woodside, 1988 (RB)
48 Gerry Ellis, 1980 (RB)

Most Receiving Yards, Rookie, Season

1,231 Billy Howton, 1952	614 Max McGee, 1954
818 James Lofton, 1978	549 Boyd Dowler, 1959
791 Sterling Sharpe, 1988

Most Receiving Touchdowns, Rookie, Season

13 Billy Howton, 1952	5 Carl Elliott, 1951
9 Max McGee, 1954	Ray Pelfrey, 1951
6 Don Hutson, 1935	4 Boyd Dowler, 1959
James Lofton, 1978	Ed West, 1984 (TE)

ROOKIE RECEIVING RECORDS II: Greg Jennings' 101 yards on Sept. 24 at Detroit marked the most by a Packers rookie since Sterling Sharpe had 137 (on seven catches), Sept. 25, 1988, vs. Chicago at Lambeau Field. Billy Howton holds the team's single-game rookie record, 200 yards (on six catches), Dec. 7, 1952, at the Los Angeles Rams.

► For future reference, Max McGee holds the single-game Packers record for the most receptions by a rookie. McGee had nine, Dec. 12, 1954, at the Los Angeles Rams. Several rookies have caught eight in a game. The last time a rookie caught eight was Nov. 20, 1988, vs. Detroit (in Milwaukee), when both Keith Woodside and Sterling Sharpe reached the mark.

► Three rookies have caught three TD passes in a game, the franchise record: Billy Howton at Detroit (Nov. 27, 1952); Max McGee at Philadelphia (Oct. 30, 1954) and James Lofton vs. New Orleans in Milwaukee (Sept. 10, 1978).

FAVRE HAS 400: A closer look at Favre's milestone touchdown passes:

NFL
No	Game	Date	Opp	Reception	Yds	Result
1	4	09/20/92	Cin (GB)	Sterling Sharpe	5	W, 24-23
50	42	11/06/94	Det (Milw)	Robert Brooks	28	W, 38-30

400	228	09/24/06	at Det	Greg Jennings	75	W, 31-24

- ▶ Dan Marino reached the 400 milestone in his 227th contest.
- ▶ Including Greg Jennings and Noah Herron, who joined the group on Sept. 17, 41 players now have caught a touchdown pass from Favre. His favorite all-time touchdown targets (1992-present):

Antonio Freeman	.57
Sterling Sharpe	.41
Robert Brooks	.32
Donald Driver	.30
Bubba Franks	.26

THE MORE THINGS CHANGE: Washington's Jason Campbell on Nov. 19 became the 199th other quarterback to start an NFL game since Brett Favre launched his streak, Sept. 27, 1992 (Elias Sports Bureau).

- ▶ Favre is the only athlete in North American major league sports to have started every game for the same team since 1992. His streak routinely is mentioned in the same breath with Cal Ripken and Lou Gehrig among the greatest ironman stretches in history.
- ▶ Looking solely at Favre's position, 14 notable quarterbacks switched teams this offseason alone.
- ▶ This season, 16 quarterbacks already have made a starting debut for their respective teams. Included among those 16 are eight — Campbell, San Diego's Philip Rivers, Oakland's Andrew Walter, Arizona's Matt Leinart, Tampa Bay's Bruce Gradkowski, Tennessee's Vince Young, Seattle's Seneca Wallace and Dallas' Tony Romo — who have made their first NFL starts this season.
- ▶ And, while the Packers have started one player at quarterback since Sept. 27, 1992, 22 NFL teams have started at least 10. Most quarterbacks started during Favre's streak:

Arizona/Phoenix (17) — Steve Beuerlein, Jeff Blake, Dave Brown, Stoney Case, Chris Chandler, Boomer Esiason, Kent Graham, Shaun King, Dave Krieg, Matt Leinart, Josh McCown, Jim McMahon, John Navarre, Jake Plummer, Timm Rosenbach, Jay Schroeder, Kurt Warner

Washington (17) — Tony Banks, Mark Brunell, Jason Campbell, Cary Conklin, Gus Frerotte, John Friesz, Rich Gannon, Jeff George, Trent

DONALD DRIVER: Has a reception in 74 straight games, the franchise's second-longest streak behind Sterling Sharpe's 103 (1988-94).

- ▶ Driver Sept. 24 at Detroit surpassed No. 6 Max McGee, the hero of Super Bowl I, on Green Bay's career receiving list. Ahman Green also has ascended from 12th to eighth this year:

WHAT TO LOOK FOR MONDAY & IN COMING WEEKS —

80 DONALD DRIVER:

► Has 30 career TD receptions from Brett Favre. The duo needs two to reach No. 5 (tie) Lynn Dickey-James Lofton and Favre-Robert Brooks (both 32).

► With 22 more catches, would reach 80 and join Sterling Sharpe (4) as one of two Packers ever with as many as three 80-catch seasons. Driver currently has two such seasons.

► With 187 more yards receiving, would reach 1,000 and join Lofton (5) and Sharpe (5) as one of three Packers ever with as many as four overall 1,000-yard seasons. Driver currently has three such seasons.

► Also by reaching 1,000, would join Lofton (3, 1983-85) and Sharpe (3, 1992-94) as one of three Packers ever with three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons.

► Needs two 100-yard games to match No. 6 Billy Howton and Max McGee (17) and five to tie No. 5 Boyd Dowler (19). Driver enters the weekend with 15 career 100-yard receiving games, ranked eighth in Packers annals.

► Needs 13 catches to become only the sixth Packer with 400 career, joining Sharpe, Lofton, Hutson, Dowler and Freeman. Driver enters with 387 career receptions.

► Needs 26 receptions at Lambeau Field to surpass the stadium's all-time leader, Antonio Freeman (213). Driver enters with 188 career catches at Lambeau, having already surpassed No. 2 James Lofton (178) and No. 3 Sterling Sharpe (174) this season.

Driver

- ▶ Has a reception in 74 consecutive games, the franchise's second-longest streak behind Sharpe's 103 (1988-94).

4 BRETT FAVRE: On the NFL's all-time passing list...

- ▶ Is expected to play in his 234th straight game (254 including playoffs). He should start his 232nd consecutive game (252 including playoffs), extending the NFL's record among quarterbacks.

Favre

- ▶ Needs 11 TD passes to match Dan Marino's NFL record, 420. Favre enters with 409.
- ▶ By throwing for four TDs in two games, would match Marino's career mark, 21. Favre has 19 career games of at least four TD passes.
- ▶ Needs 82 completions to surpass No. 1 Dan Marino (4,967). Favre enters with 4,886.
- ▶ Needs 114 completions to become the first in NFL history to reach 5,000.
- ▶ Needs four wins to match No. 2 John Elway (147-93-0, .613) and five to tie No. 1 Dan Marino (148-82-1, .643). Favre enters third on the all-time quarterback wins list (143-88-0, .619).
- ▶ Needs six touchdown passes at Lambeau Field for 200. Favre (194) already holds the single-stadium NFL record, having surpassed John Elway's Mile High Stadium mark (180) in 2005.

Favre also:

- ▶ Needs two 300-yard passing games for 50 career. He has 48 regular-season efforts entering the weekend. Including three 300-yard games in the playoffs, he has 51.
- ▶ Needs six TD passes at Lambeau Field for 200 career.

88 BUBBA FRANKS:

- ▶ Needs two TD receptions at Lambeau Field to tie No. 3 Robert Brooks (17) and five to tie No. 2 Sterling Sharpe (20) on the stadium's all-time list. Franks enters with 15 Lambeau Field TD receptions. Donald Driver has 12.
- ▶ Needs one TD reception to reach 30 career. In team history, only 11 previous players have reached the milestone, including Donald Driver this season.

94 KABEER GBAJA-BIAMILA:

- ▶ On Green Bay's all-time sacks list, needs six to match Reggie White's career record, 68½. Gbaja-Biamila enters with 62½.
- ▶ Needs four games played for 100 career.
- ▶ With 10 sacks in a fifth overall season, would break a tie with White for the franchise record; White also recorded at least 10 sacks four times.

30 AHMAN GREEN: On Green Bay's all-time rushing list...

- ▶ Needs 113 rushing attempts to surpass No. 1 Jim Taylor (1,811). Green enters with 1,699.
- ▶ Could become one of only three players ever to lead the Packers in rushing for six overall seasons, joining Clarke Hinkle (seven) and Jim Taylor (seven). Green has led the team five seasons.

- ▶ Needs 461 rushing yards to surpass No. 1 Jim Taylor (8,207). Green enters with 7,719.
- ▶ Needs 356 rushing yards to reach 1,000 and surpass Jim Taylor's record of five overall 1,000-yard seasons. Green also has five.
- ▶ Needs one reception to surpass No. 8 Paul Coffman (322) on the team's all-time receiving list. Green enters with 322 in a Packers uniform.
- ▶ Needs 7 receiving yards to surpass No. 1 Gerry Ellis (2,514) on the team's all-time offensive backs list. Green enters with 2,508.
- ▶ Needs two overall touchdowns to surpass No. 3 Sterling Sharpe (66). Green enters with 65 in a Packers uniform, having already surpassed No. 4 Paul Hornung (62) this season.
- ▶ Needs seven points to surpass No. 8 Sterling Sharpe (396) and 66 to surpass No. 7 Fred Cone (455). Green enters with 390, having already surpassed No. 10 Clarke Hinkle (379) and No. 9 Ted Fritsch (380) this season.
- ▶ By leading the team in rushing touchdowns for a sixth overall season, would tie No. 1 Clarke Hinkle (six).
- ▶ By leading the team in combined attempts for a sixth overall season, would surpass No. 3 Sterling Sharpe (five). Only Don Hutson (eight) and Jim Taylor (seven) have led the team in more seasons. The category counts all touches, including interceptions, kick returns and fumble recoveries.

31 AL HARRIS:

- ▶ Needs to return one interception for a touchdown to tie No. 5 Charley Brock, Doug Hart and Ken Ellis (all with three) on Green Bay's all-time career list. With a second TD on an interception, would match No. 4 Johnny (Blood) McNally, who returned four. Harris enters with two.

85 GREG JENNINGS:

- ▶ Can become the first Packers rookie with four TD receptions since Ed West (TE) had four in 1984. The last rookie wide receiver with at least four was James Lofton, who had six in 1978.

87 DAVID MARTIN:

- ▶ Needs seven catches, 27 yards and two touchdowns to surpass his respective 2005 career bests.

16 DAVE RAYNER:

- ▶ Enters having converted all 10 of his NFL field-goal attempts under 40 yards, and 14 of his 16 from under 50 yards. From 50-plus, he's 1-for-4, including his rookie 2005 season with Indy (he actually hit a 55-yarder at Miami, Oct. 22, but a penalty nullified the kick).

21 CHARLES WOODSON:

- ▶ Needs three passes defended for 100 career.
- ▶ With 12 passes defended already this season, has his most since 2001 (also 11). Needs 10 more to eclipse his career best, 21 during his 1998 rookie campaign.

LAST WEEK — NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS

PACKERS SUSTAIN 35-0 LOSS: The Green Bay Packers headed into Sunday's game against New England with momentum from winning three of their last four games and optimism for the rest of the season should they be able to even their record at .500.

► But all momentum and optimism, at least temporarily, were squelched by the Patriots in a 35-0 loss in front of 70,753 fans at Lambeau Field that dropped the Packers to 4-6 with another difficult game awaiting Monday night at defending NFC champion Seattle.

NEW ENGLAND .....35
at GREEN BAY .....0

► To make matters worse, the Packers lost quarterback Brett Favre in the second quarter to an elbow injury and his status for next week remains unknown, while backup quarterback Aaron Rodgers finished the game but was seen limping afterward and needed treatment in the training room.

► It all added up to a very rough day in Green Bay, with things turning the opposite direction most thought after a resounding win at Minnesota just one week ago.

► "Last week we took a step forward, and now we took two steps back," said Tony Moll, who made his first start at right tackle in place of an injured Mark Tauscher. "That's how we're feeling right now. We're back in a hole and we have to get out of it."

► Adding to the challenge is a quarterback situation very much uncertain as of Sunday night.

► Favre was off to a poor start, completing just 5 of 15 passes for 73 yards and missing some of the few openings the Patriots gave him, when he was sacked with 1 minute, 41 seconds left in the second quarter. Outside linebacker Tully Banta-Cain grabbed Favre around the legs while inside linebacker Tedy Bruschi hit him in the upper body.

► Favre fell on his elbow and Head Coach Mike McCarthy said he hit a nerve or funny bone. He left the game, spent extra time in the locker room at halftime being evaluated, and then returned to the sideline in the third quarter but did not come back into the game. McCarthy said he couldn't find enough strength in his hand to hold the ball.

► "I asked him if he was all right and he said, 'Not yet,' which I knew with him, when he says something like that, it's usually pretty significant," center Scott Wells said. "He's a guy that even though it hurts, he comes right back in. For him to sit out, he obviously was in significant pain."

► Whether Favre's NFL record 231 consecutive starts at quarterback (251 including playoffs) is in jeopardy heading into the Seattle game will be determined later in the week.

► As his replacement, Rodgers didn't fare much better, completing just 4 of 12 passes for 32 yards, rushing for 11 of the team's total of 43 on the ground, and getting sacked three times, including on his final snap in the fourth quarter.

► In all, the Packers offense was simply shut down, gaining just 120 yards, five first downs, and converting 1 of 13 on third down.

► "It takes all 11 on offense to make plays in order for us to do well," veteran fullback William Henderson said. "Today, there were too many mistakes, mentally, physically, just not holding up to the challenges. We will review film, we will look at it, we will analyze it to the fullest to find out what happened today."

► The defense had its struggles as well, as the three-time Super Bowl champion Patriots and quarterback Tom Brady rebounded from their first two-game losing streak in four years and showed why they still set the standard for proficiency and execution.

► Brady completed 20 of 31 passes for 244 yards and four touchdowns, compiling a sparkling 128.2 quarterback rating while getting sacked just once and throwing no interceptions.

► Brady seemingly converted every play he needed to, hitting tight end Daniel Graham for a 2-yard touchdown on fourth-and-1 in the first quarter, receiver Reche Caldwell when he split the Green Bay safeties for an easy 54-yard score just before halftime, tight end Ben Watson with a perfectly placed throw just inside the end zone boundary for an 8-yard TD in the third quarter, and running back Laurence Maroney on a swing pass in the fourth quarter that the rookie turned into a 19-yard score.

► "They did a good job moving receivers around, attacking the weakness of the defense no matter what coverage you're in," cornerback Al Harris said. "They did a good job sticking with the game plan and finding the open guy. Whether it's a 5-yard pass or a 54-yard pass, he was finding the guys that were open."

► The dominance on both sides led to a nearly 2-to-1 difference in time of possession, with the Patriots holding the ball for 39:10 to 20:50 for the Packers.

► "You make one little mistake, they'll make you pay," linebacker Brady Poppinga said. "That's what they do. They don't do anything special. They just play well, and they're good."

► The kind of good the Packers aspire to be, and they went into Sunday's game looking at the contest as a barometer of where they are in relation to the league's best. The results obviously were disappointing and leave the Packers well aware of how much work lies ahead.

► "It was a measuring stick to me," tight end Bubba Franks said. "The teams we beat, they all have losing records. To come up against a team like this, it was a challenge. That's what we expected, and we didn't answer the challenge. Not today."

► But that's not to say they won't. Several players in the locker room after the game emphasized that no one is going to give up the fight, just like they didn't when they were 1-4, and just like they didn't after the frustrating loss in Buffalo.

► "This was a tough loss for us. I didn't really see this coming. But it happened, it's the reality," defensive end Aaron Kampman said. "We just have to regroup tomorrow. As far as our confidence goes, that's one thing I've always liked about our locker room is we're a resilient group. This will definitely test that and hopefully we'll come out on top."

DRIVER GETS RESPECT, ATTENTION FROM PATRIOTS: Donald Driver certainly had the respect from the New England Patriots as the top receiver for the Packers, if not one of the top receivers in the league.

► Driver said after Sunday's 35-0 loss that he felt like he was triple-teamed, with a cornerback on him plus help from a linebacker underneath and a safety over the top.

► While that may be a bit of an exaggeration, the Patriots certainly paid extra attention to Driver, holding him to a season-low two catches.

NOTEBOOK

► "After the game their defensive coordinator walks over to me and tells me, 'You're a great receiver. We did what we had to do tonight,'" Driver said. "I guess his goal was to put three guys on me and stop me tonight."

► Driver was shut out until two minutes remained in the first half, when he caught a short hitch pass, spun past a few tacklers and worked his way upfield for 38 yards. His only other catch was a diving grab for 4 yards midway through the third quarter.

► "They said they were going to keep me away from the ball," said Driver, who was coming off a career-high 191-yard game at Minnesota last week. "They did the first half, and we tried to come back in the second half and try to make plays happen, and they still had three or four guys on me, so it's hard."

► Driver's struggles epitomized those of the entire offense. Even though he had two catches, he had two of the three pass receptions by Packers wide receivers. The other was by Greg Jennings, with the remaining six completions all short passes to running backs and tight ends.

► "I know Greg and Ruvell (Martin) can step up at any time and make plays," Driver said. "It just didn't happen tonight."

LAST WEEK — NEW ENGLAND continued

BLOWN OPPORTUNITY — If the Packers had one chance to stay in the game early, it was late in the first quarter after the Patriots fumbled a hand-off exchange and A.J. Hawk recovered at the New England 30.

- ▶ But the offense gained just 4 yards in three plays, and Dave Rayner's 44-yard field goal attempt sailed wide right, keeping the score 7-0.
- ▶ Rayner had made eight straight field goals dating back to Oct. 8. He had been 4-for-5 from 40 to 49 yards until that miss.

OTHER INJURIES — Tight end David Martin left the game with a rib injury, but X-rays were negative. Linebacker Nick Barnett hurt his hand toward the end of the game, but there was no additional information.

BRADY AT LAMBEAU FIELD: According to Elias Sports Bureau, Tom Brady became only the third quarterback in NFL history to throw for four-or-more touchdowns in his first career game at Lambeau Field:

5	Dan Marino	Dec. 8, 1985	Mia. 34, GB 24
4	Jeff Garcia	Oct. 15, 2000	GB 31, SF 28
	Tom Brady	Nov. 19, 2006	NE 35, GB 0

OTHER POSTGAME NOTES:

- ▶ Brett Favre did not complete a start due to injury for only the sixth time during his 231-game streak (251 including playoffs).
- ▶ Rob Davis played in his 145th consecutive game and surpassed No. 6 Ryan Longwell (1997-2005) on the team's list of longest games-played streaks.
- ▶ Donald Driver now has a reception in 74 consecutive games to extend the franchise's second-longest streak behind Sterling Sharpe's 103 (1988-94).
- ▶ Bubba Franks played in his 100th NFL game.
- ▶ William Henderson (182) surpassed No. 5 LeRoy Butler (181) on the team's all-time list.
- ▶ Marquand Manuel established his single-season career high in tackles, surpassing the 67 he posted in 2005 with Seattle.

OTHER TEAM NOTES

ROOKIE HEAD COACHES IN ONE DIVISION: The NFC North features three first-time NFL head coaches in 2006: Minnesota's Brad Childress, Detroit's Rod Marinelli and McCarthy.

- ▶ According to Elias Sports Bureau, in the era since the 1970 league merger, this marks the first instance as many as three rookie head coaches have occupied the same division at the start of a season.
- ▶ The last time there were three rookie head coaches in a division at any point in a season was 2000, when Dallas' Dave Campo, Arizona's Dave McGinnis and Washington's Terry Robiskie battled in the NFC East.
- ▶ There are 10 new NFL head coaches, including three in the NFC North — Brad Childress (Minnesota), Rod Marinelli (Detroit) and Mike McCarthy (Green Bay). That trio comprises three of the seven "rookie" head coaches in the league this year — those with no previous NFL head-coaching experience. That is the most rookie head coaches in any one year in 40 years (1966). The other rookies: Gary Kubiak (Houston), Scott Linehan (St. Louis), Eric Mangini (N.Y. Jets) and Sean Payton (New Orleans). The "veteran" new head coaches: Herm Edwards (Kansas City), Dick Jauron (Buffalo) and Art Shell (Oakland).

WHEN FAVRE HITS CENTURY MARK: Elias Sports Bureau, the NFL's official statistician for half a century, never intended for its passer rating to reflect efficiency on a game-by-game basis. The company implemented the system to reflect efficiency over an entire season, or an entire career.

- ▶ Nonetheless, in games when Brett Favre compiles at least a 100.0 rating, the Packers are 72-7 (.911) and 3-0 this year. They're 40-0 at home (1.000) and 32-7 (.821) on the road.

RUSHING TOUCHDOWNS MATTER: The Packers under Mike McCarthy have established their identity as a run-oriented offense. And this year, as in previous seasons, when the team gets into the end zone, they tend to win more than they lose.

- ▶ Since a rash of injuries to their wide receivers forced the Packers into a run-oriented offense early in the 2003 season, the team is 20-10 (.667) when rushing for at least one touchdown. Green Bay has won 17 of its last 23 games with one-or-more rushing TDs.

FIVE IN THE FIRST 75: The Packers this past April used several trades to increase their draft class from seven to 12 overall selections, and wound up with the most draft choices in the NFL.

- ▶ Included in that group of 12 were five Day 1 choices in the fertile ground from selections 1-75 — LB A.J. Hawk (5), G/T Daryn Colledge (47), WR Greg Jennings (52), LB Abdul Hodge (67) and G/C Jason Spitz (75).
- ▶ Since 1993, when the league reduced the draft from 12 rounds to seven, only four previous teams have had as many picks in the first 75 selections:

Team	Year	Choices
San Francisco	2000	LB Julian Peterson (16), CB Ahmed Plummer (24), DE John Engelberger (35), CB Jason Webster (48), QB Giovanni Carmazzi (65)
Tampa Bay	1997	RB Warrick Dunn (12), WR Reidel Anthony (16), T Jerry Wunsch (37), G Frank Middleton (63), CB Ronde Barber (66)
Jacksonville	1995	T Tony Boselli (2), RB James Stewart (19), T Brian DeMarco (40), LB Bryan Schwartz (64), S Chris Hudson (71)
L.A. Rams	1994	T Wayne Gandy (15), WR Isaac Bruce (33), S Toby Wright (49), DE Brad Ottis (56), S Keith Lyle (71)

DEFENSIVE TOUCHDOWNS: Including Sept. 24 at Detroit, where Marquand Manuel returned an interception 29 yards for a score, and Oct. 22 at Miami, where Charles Woodson picked off a pass and took it 23 yards for a TD, the Packers now have won 15 of the last 16 games in which they've scored a defensive touchdown.

30 POINTS: The Packers in 2005 were 2-0 when reaching 30 points and 2-12 in the other contests. This year, they're 3-0 with 30-plus points and 1-6 without.

- ▶ Over a longer stretch, the team has won 11 consecutive games when reaching 30, and 16 of its last 17.
- ▶ Its only loss in that 14-game stretch was Sept. 26, 2004, a 45-31 shootout at Indianapolis.

PACKERS PROBABLE STARTERS

OFFENSE

- WR 80 Donald Driver (6-0, 190, Eighth Year, Alcorn State) — One-time Pro Bowler...Leads NFC in receptions (tied for No. 2 in NFL)...One of just four in team annals with as many as five 50-catch seasons...Has a catch in 74 straight games, the second-longest streak in team history...Former seventh-round pick.
- LT 76 Chad Clifton (6-5, 330, Seventh Year, Tennessee) — Favre's blind-side shield, became ill before the game at Miami (Oct. 22) and ended a 53-game starting streak, tied for second-longest on the team behind Favre.
- LG 73 Daryn Colledge (6-4, 299, Rookie, Boise State) — Began camp as the starting left guard, lost the post after his first preseason game, then regained it in Week 2...Made emergency start at LT Oct. 22 at Miami in place of an ill Chad Clifton.
- C 63 Scott Wells (6-2, 304, Third Year, Tennessee) — Former seventh-round selection replaced starter Mike Flanagan, who departed for Houston as an unrestricted free agent...One of seven centers to deliver the ball to Brett Favre during his starting streak...Tough and unflappable, signed multi-year contract extension Nov. 6.
- LG 72 Jason Spitz (6-4, 313, Rookie, Louisville) — Mature, third-round draft pick, had been entrenched in the starting lineup since camp...Sustained a thigh injury in his NFL debut, vs. Chicago (Sept. 10), and was inactive for two weeks until returning as a reserve at Philadelphia (Oct. 2)...Returned to the starting lineup Oct. 8.
- RT 65 Mark Tauscher (6-4, 315, Seventh Year, Wisconsin) — Pronounced "TAU-sheer"...Snapped a 57-game starting streak Nov. 19 vs. New England (groin)...Along with Clifton, with whom he started as a fellow rookie in 2000, serves as an anchor for the young interior linemen...A local product.
- TE 88 Bubba Franks (6-6, 265, Seventh Year, Miami, Fla.) — Three-time Pro Bowler...Now in his sixth season as Green Bay's full-time starter...Owns the second-most receptions and TD catches by a tight end in Green Bay history, behind Paul Coffman...In 2005, for the first time as an athlete at any level, missed significant playing time due to injury.
- WR 85 Greg Jennings (5-11, 197, Rookie, Western Michigan) — One of two NFL rookies who currently start at wide receiver (New Orleans' Marques Colston), ranks among rookie league leaders in several receiving categories...Injured his ankle at Miami (Oct. 22) and missed the ensuing contest vs. Arizona (Oct. 29).
- QB 4 Brett Favre (6-2, 222, 16th Year, Southern Mississippi) — Three-time NFL MVP, eight-time Pro Bowler...Has started 231 consecutive games (251 including playoffs)...Went without an INT over three straight games (111 passes) for the first time in four years...With 409, stands just 11 TD passes from tying Dan Marino's NFL record...Is on pace to throw 11 INTs, his fewest as a starter.
- RB 30 Ahman Green (6-0, 218, Ninth Year, Nebraska) — Pronounced "ah-MAHN"...Four-time Pro Bowler...Has four 100-yard games in 2006...Needs just 461 yards to surpass the Packers' all-time leading rusher, Hall of Famer Jim Taylor (8,207)...Returned from quadriplegia injury that ended his 2005 season...Hasn't fumbled since Sept. 24 at Detroit (100 offensive touches).
- FB 40 Brandon Miree (6-0, 236, Second Year, Pittsburgh) — Pronounced "my-REE"...Started his NFL debut, at Philadelphia (Oct. 2), after being promoted from the practice squad days earlier...Has valuable experience with Denver in the zone-blocking scheme...Missed last three games with elbow injury.
- K 16 Dave Rayner (6-2, 210, Second Year, Michigan State) — After beating out Billy Cundiff, is only the third Packers kicker since 1989, joining Chris Jacke and Ryan Longwell...Tied a club record with a 54-yarder, at Philadelphia (Oct. 2)...Has 10 touchbacks on kickoffs.

DEFENSE

- LDE 74 Aaron Kampman (6-4, 278, Fifth Year, Iowa) — Tied for second in NFL with 10 sacks...Has at least a share of a sack in eight of 10 games this year...Signed a multi-year extension on the eve of free agency this past March.
- LDT 99 Corey Williams (6-4, 313, Third Year, Arkansas State) — Made his first NFL start, at Philadelphia (Oct. 2), after collecting two sacks the previous week at Detroit (Sept. 24)...Collected a career-best three sacks at Buffalo (Nov. 5), becoming the first DT in team history to do so, after entering the game with no more than three in any single season.
- RDT 79 Ryan Pickett (6-2, 322, Sixth Year, Ohio State) — Recorded a season-high seven tackles at Buffalo (Nov. 5)...Key unrestricted free agent addition from St. Louis, led NFL defensive linemen with 115 tackles in 2005, 10 more than the runner-up, Kampman...Called by Packers coaches the team's most consistent defensive lineman.
- RDE 94 Kabeer Gbaja-Biamila (6-4, 250, Seventh Year, San Diego State) — Pronounced "kah-BEER bah-JAH bee-ah-MILL-ah"...One-time Pro Bowler...Has 23 hurries on the season...Now in fourth full season as starter, stands only six sacks shy of tying Reggie White's franchise record (68½).
- SAM 51 Brady Poppinga (6-3, 245, Second Year, BYU) — Passionate, energetic playmaker, returned to the starting lineup this year after a torn ACL ended his '05 season in his first NFL start last December...Has forced a fumble in each of his last two games, including his sack that set up a TD at Minnesota (Nov. 12).
- MIKE 56 Nick Barnett (6-2, 232, Fourth Year, Oregon State) — The quarterback of the Packers' defense, broke his hand vs. New England (Nov. 19)...Owns two of the top six single-season tackles totals in team history, including a record 194 in 2005 (third in the NFL)...Green Bay's first-round choice in 2003, is the remaining member of Packers' draft class that spring.
- WILL 50 A.J. Hawk (6-1, 246, Rookie, Ohio State) — A favorite of Packers fans since even before the club drafted him, leads the team in tackles and is on pace for the most tackles by a rookie since Rich Wingo had 166 in 1979...Humble by nature, shrugs off comparisons to Brian Urlacher.
- LCB 21 Charles Woodson (6-1, 208, Ninth Year, Michigan) — Four-time Pro Bowler...Green Bay's premier unrestricted free agent acquisition this offseason, became the sixth Heisman winner to play for the Packers, following Bruce Smith, Paul Hornung, Ty Detmer, Desmond Howard and Danny Wuerffel...Had career-long 28-yard punt return, vs. Chicago (Sept. 10)...Returned an INT for his third career TD, at Miami (Oct. 22).
- RCB 31 Al Harris (6-1, 185, Ninth Year, Texas A&M-Kingsville) — The point man in the Packers' secondary, comes off the best year of his career; led the way as the team ranked No. 1 against the pass in 2005...Has 114 career passes defended and hasn't missed a game as an active NFL player (1998-2006; 146 games including playoffs).
- SS 22 Marquand Manuel (6-0, 209, Fifth Year, Florida) — Pronounced "MARR-qwand MAN-you-eil"...Another UFA, played for Seattle en route to Super Bowl XL...Enjoyed a breakout season in '05 after filling the void left by an injured Ken Hamlin in Seattle's secondary...Scored on his first regular-season INT, at Detroit (Sept. 24).
- FS 36 Nick Collins (5-11, 200, Second Year, Bethune-Cookman) — The former second-round draft pick earned the team's Defensive Rookie of the Year honors and NFL All-Rookie recognition in 2005.
- P 9 Jon Ryan (6-0, 202, First Year, Regina, Canada) — Canada native ranks third in the NFL with a 46.4-yard gross average...Has two 66-yard punts...Hoping to solidify a position that has been held by three punters in the past two seasons...Completed a 16-yard pass to Noah Herron in the opener vs. Chicago (Sept. 10).

PACKERS PAST WITH LEE REMMEL

HOLMGREN WAY MARKS ITS ANNIVERSARY AS PACKERS DUEL WITH 'HAWKS

By Lee Remmel
Team Historian

Mike Holmgren's mind, it is safe to assume, will be firmly fixed on the task at hand when he and his Seahawks entertain the Green Bay Packers in Seattle's Qwest Field Monday night.

If it were not for such a significant assignment, one of many in his bid for a second consecutive berth in the Super Bowl, the Seahawks' head coach could be celebrating an "anniversary" of sorts.

Specifically, that would involve remembering the dedication of "Holmgren Way," a street in Ashwaubenon, a bustling village contiguous to Green Bay. The honor was conferred upon him during his seventh and final year as head coach of the Packers.

Originally named Gross Avenue, it was formally renamed Holmgren Way during ceremonies conducted on Nov. 20, 1998.

Poetically, "Holmgren Way" intersects Lombardi Avenue just one block east of Lambeau Field, a historic junction.

Grateful Green Bay/Ashwaubenon residents and Packers fans thus paid public thanks to the monolithic Scandinavian for leading the Green and Gold to back-to-back Super Bowl appearances following the 1996 and 1997 National Football League seasons.

And, of course, for providing the Packers faithful with their third Super Bowl victory...their first in 29 years.

Also for presiding over a 25-game winning streak in Lambeau Field, the second longest such home skein in the annals of professional football.

Time having a habit of flying, it may not seem possible but Holmgren currently is in the eighth and final year of the contract he signed upon arriving in Seattle following the 1998 season — a reportedly $32 million document.

As noted, he left behind a substantial legacy in departing Titledown.

Other than the legendary Vince Lombardi, Holmgren remains the only coach in the team's storied history to lead the Packers to a Super Bowl victory.

Along the way, he escorted Green Bay to seven consecutive winning seasons, six playoff berths, three division titles and two National Football Conference championships.

To be sure, however, the highlight of his tenure was the Packers' 35-21 conquest of the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XXXI at the Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans.

And, appropriately, with the wind chill registering a frigid 0 to 10 degrees below zero during a three-hour tour of the city, an estimated 200,000 enthusiastic fans welcomed the Packers home from the world championship the next day (Jan. 27, 1997).

program hailing the new world champions.

With memories such as these, Holmgren obviously has cause to remember his highly successful stay in Green Bay. And, of course, Holmgren Way.

Conversely, Titledown has good reason to remember the 58-year-old San Franciscan and his contributions.

Beyond such matters, Holmgren has been agreeable to returning to his old "home town" when the need arises — in addition, of course, to when the NFL schedule calls for his Seahawks to engage the Packers.

Most recently, in July of 2005, he was back in Green Bay to induct one of his Super Bowl own, running back Edgar Bennett, into the Packers Hall of Fame.

Monday marks the fourth time Mike Holmgren will face the Packers since he left Green Bay for Seattle. All four meetings, including the 2003 playoffs, have been in Green Bay
