WEEK 2

GREEN BAY (1-0) at NEW YORK GIANTS (0-1)

Sunday, Sept. 16 • Giants Stadium • 12 p.m. CDT

PACKERS HEAD EAST TO TAKE ON GIANTS

The Packers kick off the road portion of their 2007 schedule Sunday as they take on the New York Giants. The Giants – not the Packers – were awarded the NFC's final playoff bid last season after four tiebreakers and mere percentage points.

- Green Bay enters the contest 1-0 after a 16-13 victory Sunday over Philadelphia. The Giants fell to the Cowboys, 45-35, on Sunday night. After defeating former Green Bay assistant Andy Reid in Week 1, the team again will face a former Packers assistant coach in Tom Coughlin.
- One of the most impressive accomplishments of Mike McCarthy's first year as head coach was the way his club performed on the road. The Packers finished 5-3 away from home last season, recording the most road wins in franchise history for a coach in his first season.
- The Packers last played at Giants Stadium in 2002. The game was originally scheduled for a Week 2 showdown but was postponed until January because of the Sept. 11 attacks. Today marks the sixth anniversary of that fateful day.
- A win for the Packers would mark the club's best start since 2001, when the team began the season with three consecutive victories.

THE IMPORTANCE OF A QUICK START

There's no secret that early success increases an NFL team's chance to earn a playoff berth.

- Maintaining the confidence and momentum built during the four-game win streak to close 2006 has been a major focus of the offseason program for Head Coach Mike McCarthy and his team.
- Only defending Super Bowl champion Indianapolis (six wins) has a longer winning streak than the Packers, winners of five straight.
- With the victory over the Eagles Sunday, the Packers won their first opener in three years and their opening game at Lambeau Field for the first time in the past five seasons.
- "It's the first step in getting off to a fast start," McCarthy said of the 16-13 victory. "We're 1-0. It's definitely the starting point of our season. We have a lot of work to do, there's no doubt about that, but it's an excellent team win."
- Slow starts have plagued the Packers the past three seasons, only one of which resulted in a postseason appearance (2004). That season, the team started 1-4 but won nine of its last 11 games.
- In 2005, injuries contributed to a 1-7 start while a 1-4 start in 2006 proved too much to overcome.
- A look at how important fast starts have become to eventual playoff success, compiled from 1990-2006:

Record through 4 games	% of teams in playoffs
0-4	1.8%
1-3	15.8%
2-2	35.6%
3-1	65.2%
4-0	83.7%

FAVRE, ELWAY STAND ALONE

Brett Favre and John Elway – opponents in Super Bowl XXXII – stand tied on the all-time quarterback wins list at 148. Favre can set a new NFL standard with a victory Sunday.

- Favre also will start his 239th consecutive game (259 including playoff games) under center for the Packers Sunday, another NFL record among quarterbacks.

WITH THE CALL

FOX Sports enters its 14th season as an NFL network television partner and will air the contest to a regional audience. Play-by-play man Joe Buck joins color commentator Troy Aikman in the broadcast booth with Pam Oliver serving as the sideline reporter.

- Milwaukee's WTMJ (620 AM), airing Green Bay games since 1929, heads up the 56-station Packers Radio Network, with Wayne Larivee (play-by-play) and two-time Packers Pro Bowler Larry McCarren (color) calling the action. The network covers 47 markets in six states.
- For out-of-town listeners, the broadcast is available to NFL Field Pass subscribers on www.packers.com as well as on Sirius Satellite Radio as part of the network's NFL Sunday Drive.

THIS WEEK AT LAMBEAU

YOUTH WILL BE SERVED AT GIANTS STADIUM

Following roster moves made last week, the Green Bay Packers open a second-straight season as the youngest team in the NFL.

- ▶ Since taking over general manager duties in 2005, Ted Thompson has vowed to build the team's foundation through the draft. Of the 53 active roster players, 21 have been drafted by Thompson.
- ▶ Sunday will be a matchup of two of the league's youngest teams in the Packers and Giants. Of the five youngest teams in the league, only the Giants did not record a victory in Week 1.

Team	Average Age
Green Bay	26 years, 89 days
Indianapolis	26 years, 91 days
N.Y. Giants	26 years, 190 days
Dallas	26 years, 197 days
Carolina	26 years, 252 days

HARRIS INJURES ELBOW, RETURNS

The Packers lost one of their key defensive veterans for a short stretch on Sunday when starting cornerback Al Harris hyperextended his right elbow while blocking on a Charles Woodson punt return in the first quarter.

- ▶ Harris went to the locker room to have the elbow examined and missed the Eagles' 13-play drive for a field goal for their first points. He returned with his right elbow heavily taped during Philadelphia's next possession and played the rest of the game.
- ▶ "He toughed it out," McCarthy said Monday. "It was a pretty significant injury. When it happened, (trainer) Pepper (Burruss) felt that he was done, and then the next thing you know he has his arm taped up and he went back in. From what they told me, he really gutted it out."
- ▶ McCarthy said that he was pretty confident Harris would be able to play Sunday against the Giants.

The special teams huddle

OFFENSE FAILS TO GET IN RHYTHM VS. EAGLES

Green Bay produced just 10 first downs and 215 total net yards Sunday against Philadelphia, with the running game producing just 46 yards.

- ▶ The unit was missing two key contributors in wide receiver Greg Jennings and running back Vernand Morency. Jennings sustained a hamstring injury in practice leading up to the game, while Morency has been out since the beginning of training camp with a knee injury but did return to practice last week.
- ▶ Head Coach Mike McCarthy said Monday he was hopeful both would be able to play Sunday at Giants Stadium, though both will be watched closely this week in practice.
- ▶ McCarthy did address the offensive struggles during his Monday press conference: "Number one, I need to look at the volume of offense we took into that game. We took in a little more than you normally do. There are a number of different personnel groups we took into the game if needed. But I think in hindsight I thought we did too much. Fundamentally we need to clean up a lot of things. We just had a bunch of common mistakes, and that was the most frustrating thing for myself watching the film this morning. We really didn't execute very good in the run-blocking unit. You can talk about the stretch on the front side, the cutting on the back side, the course of the back. All fundamental things we need to improve on because we weren't in sync. The blocking angles were not in tune with the course of the back. The pass protection, I thought we did a good job picking things up, making the proper calls. But we just flat-out lost some one-on-one situations that occurred and resulted in quarterback hits and sacks. Pass perimeter, the route-running needs to be better. Quarterback decisions need to be better. So we have a lot of things we need to clean up on offense."

QUITE THE DEBUT FOR CROSBY

According to Elias Sports Bureau, rookie kicker Mason Crosby on Sunday became the first player in NFL history to kick a 50-plus yard field goal and a game-winning field goal in the final minute of his first NFL game.

- ▶ What a whirlwind couple of days it's been for Crosby. First, he found out last Saturday, Sept. 1, that he had won the kicking job after what had been perhaps the most intense positional battle in training camp. Monday he celebrated his 23rd birthday, and by Sunday the rookie was lining up for his first-ever professional game.
- ▶ Crosby was 3-for-3 on field goals Sunday. He hit a 53-yarder, one yard shy of the team record, in the first quarter, a 37-yarder in the third quarter, and a 42-yarder with 2 seconds left to break a 13-all tie and give the Packers the three-point win.
- ▶ To top it all off, Crosby received the game ball in the locker room following the game. On Monday, teammates also were quick to notice – and congratulate – the kicker on the hit he made on kickoff coverage on the final play of the game.
- ▶ The former Colorado Buffalo and sixth-round pick came to Green Bay with a host of collegiate records. His personal best came in 2005, when he connected on a 58-yard field goal at Miami.
- ▶ The strong-legged specialist established a total of 31 game, season and career records at Colorado, including points scored (307), field goals made (66) and attempted (88), extra points made (109) and attempted (117), field goal percentage (75.0) and longest field goal made (60 yards).
- ▶ A native of Georgetown, Texas, Crosby was able to share the moment with his father, who was watching in the stands.

MORE OF MCCARTHY – EXCERPTS FROM MONDAY

- ▶ "I really like the confidence level of our football team. I think anytime you have success, but there are small failures you need to fix, I think that's healthy. I think that's a healthy environment because obviously everybody is going to push harder when you do have success, but you still clearly can identify with the common errors that were made that we need to improve on. This football team will improve. That's something that's evident the way we're built. People want to talk about the youth of our football team, but I think it really helps the fact that this is the starting point and we really need to keep pushing forward to improve."
- ▶ "The bottom line is to win games. But I'll just tell you this, I'm not OK with the way we played yesterday on offense. It may sting more than normal. I don't want to ever tarnish a victory because the offense didn't play well. We're going to win them any way we can, and if it's with a great defense, which I think we have, that's OK. But we're also working to have a great offense, too."

THE PACKERS-GIANTS SERIES

Calvin Coolidge was in the White House when the teams launched their series in 1928.

- ▶ Two of the most venerable franchises in professional football history, the teams have combined for 18 championships. Green Bay (12 titles) ranks No. 1 among all NFL franchises, while the Giants (6) rank third.
- ▶ With both teams finishing 8-8 in 2006, it took four tiebreakers and percentage points to give the Giants – and not the Packers – the NFC's second Wild Card berth last winter.
- ▶ Brooklyn-born Vince Lombardi, formerly an offensive assistant with the Giants before accepting the head coach and general manager position in Green Bay in 1959, led the Packers over the Giants twice in the NFL championship.
- ▶ Fierce rivals in the early decades of the NFL, the two teams have played only five times in the past 20 seasons.

NOTABLE CONNECTIONS

In Green Bay, Giants Head Coach Tom Coughlin was wide receivers coach for two seasons (1986-87) under Forrest Gregg...Giants secondary coach/cornerbacks Peter Giunta spent five seasons on the Kansas City staff (2001-05) with Packers defensive ends coach Carl Hairston...Current Green Bay wide receivers coach Jimmy Robinson spent six seasons (1998-2003) in the same position with the Giants; a number of Giants receivers, including Amani Toomer, set franchise standards that still stand...Robinson also spent four seasons (1976-79) as a wide receiver for the Giants...Offensive quality control coach Ty Knott served under Coughlin in Jacksonville in 2002 as offensive assistant/quarterbacks coach...Packers running back Ryan Grant was acquired from the Giants in a trade on Sept. 1...Packers cornerback Frank Walker spent four seasons with the Giants (2003-06) before signing as an unrestricted free agent with Green Bay...Safety Charlie Peprah was the Giants' fifth-round pick in 2006 and claimed on waivers by Green Bay before the start of the '06 season...Giants guard Grey Ruegamer played three seasons in Green Bay (2003-05)...Giants defensive end Justin Tuck played collegiately at Notre Dame with Packers wide receiver Carlyle Holiday and running back Ryan Grant...Packers cornerback Will Blackmon and Giants linebacker Mathias Kiwanuka were all-conference performers as teammates at Boston College; the duo also spent time there with Giants guard Chris Sneer.

INDIVIDUALLY VS. NEW YORK GIANTS

Quarterback Brett Favre is 3-2 in five career starts against the Giants and 2-1 in starts at New York...In the five contests, Favre has completed 89-of-150 attempts for 1,112 yards and seven touchdowns; the most memorable came in 2004, when Favre completed a touchdown pass just three plays after suffering a concussion...Defensive end Kabeer Gbaja-Biamila recorded 1½ career sacks against the Giants...Formerly a division foe with the Eagles, cornerback Al Harris has made 18 career tackles against the Giants...Cornerback Charles Woodson has 11 career tackles in two games against the Giants, both while he was in Oakland.

LAST MEETING, REGULAR SEASON

Oct. 3, 2004, at Lambeau Field; Giants won, 14-7.

- ▶ The Packers and Giants battled to a scoreless first half, the first at Lambeau in nearly 25 years, before the Giants scored 14 unanswered points to close the contest.
- ▶ Brett Favre sustained a concussion in the third quarter when defensive lineman William Joseph knocked him to the ground. Favre's backup Doug Pederson took over the next two plays before Favre waved him back off the field. Favre re-entered the game without medical clearance and threw a 28-yard touchdown pass on fourth down. Doctors did not allow Favre to return.
- ▶ Giants running back Tiki Barber scored on a 52-yard run just one minute later to tie the score. Barber finished with 182 rushing yards.
- ▶ Quarterback Kurt Warner hit tight end Jeremy Shockey with a 4-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter to put the Giants ahead for good.

LAST MEETING, AT GIANTS STADIUM

Jan. 6, 2002; Packers won 34-25.

- ▶ The contest was originally scheduled for Sept. 16, but was postponed until January because of the Sept. 11 attacks.
- ▶ Green Bay clinched a home playoff game with a victory and pushed its regular-season record to 12-4.
- ▶ Favre threw for 315 yards and two touchdowns and Ahman Green rushed for 101 yards and two scores as the Packers held off a late rally.
- ▶ The Packers took a 14-0 lead on their first seven snaps, as Favre hit Bill Schroeder for a 28-yard touchdown and Ahman Green capitalized on a Giants' turnover with a 25-yard run to the end zone.
- ▶ Two more second-half scores – again coming on the arm of Favre and feet of Green – ended the scoring for Green Bay.

PACKERS VS. EAGLES - W, 16-13*"SPECIAL" TEAMS

Green Bay's special teams unit accounted for all 16 points Sunday, sparking the team to victory.

- ▶ An area of emphasis all offseason, the unit got things going early, as cornerback Jarrett Bush delivered a crushing hit on Eagles return man Greg Lewis. The muffed punt bounced back 20 yards into the end zone as players from both sides attempted to corral the loose ball. Emerging from the pile was linebacker Tracy White, who was credited with his first career NFL touchdown. Both White (No. 1) and Bush (No. 3) were among the team leaders in special teams tackles in 2006.
- ▶ Rookie kicker Mason Crosby – the winner of a training camp competition over incumbent Dave Rayner – connected on a 53-yard field goal in his first-ever attempt. It marked the longest opening day field goal by a Packer since Chris Jacke hit a 53-yard field goal on Sept. 9, 1990 (vs. Los Angeles Rams, W, 36-24).
- ▶ The Packers recovered the ball on yet another muffed punt, this time in the waning moments of the fourth quarter in a 13-13 tie. Once again it was Bush first on the scene, jumping on the loose football and returning possession to Green Bay.
- ▶ Crosby wasn't done just yet. After hitting a 37-yard attempt in the third quarter, he trotted out to the field with just 6 seconds remaining and calmly nailed the game-winner from 42 yards.
- ▶ It was a day of records for Crosby. According to Elias Sports Bureau, the Colorado product became the first NFL kicker to kick a 50-plus yard field goal and a game-winning field goal in the final minute of his first NFL game.
- ▶ In addition to the big plays on punt coverage, kickoff coverage was an area of strength as well. The Packers limited the Eagles to just 81 yards on four returns, a stingy 20.3-yards-per-return average.
- ▶ "I'm very happy with the special teams and what a great start for a rookie kicker," Head Coach Mike McCarthy said following the game. "I can't be more happy for Mason and our special teams units. It's nice to see particularly the younger guys that played here last year really step up. We talked about being vastly improved in that area and today was the first step in that."

BARNETT, DEFENSE HOLD MCNABB IN CHECK

Burned by Donovan McNabb and Brian Westbrook to the tune of five straight Philadelphia victories in the series, the Packers' defense got a strong effort from middle linebacker Nick Barnett to earn a season-opening win.

- ▶ Previously hurt by McNabb's playmaking ability once out of the pocket, Green Bay's defensive line contained McNabb to just 9 yards rushing, 184 yards passing and a 60.7 quarterback rating.
- ▶ Leading the charge was Barnett, who recorded 14 tackles – including one stop for loss – and intercepted a McNabb pass in the first quarter.
- ▶ There were only two new starters on the defensive side of the ball, and both had impressive debuts Sunday.
- ▶ Defensive tackle Johnny Jolly was a disruptive force along the line all day. In addition to his containment of McNabb, Jolly batted down three balls at the line of scrimmage. On Philadelphia's final offensive possession, Jolly broke through the line to disrupt Corell Buckhalter, who was brought down by Barnett for a 4-yard loss on first down, pushing the Eagles out of field goal range.
- ▶ Strong safety Atari Bigby made 10 tackles (eight solo) in his first professional start, showing good range and the ability to play the run.

ROOKIES THROWN INTO THE FIRE

Thanks to some injuries, and of course rapid progression, three rookies started on offense for the Packers Sunday.

- ▶ With Vernand Morency inactive, rookie second-round pick Brandon Jackson got the start at halfback. Jackson became the first rookie running back to start on opening day since John Brockington (Sept. 19, 1971, vs. New York Giants).
- ▶ Korey Hall became the first Packers rookie to start at fullback since William Henderson started the final regular season game in 1995 (Dec. 24, vs. Pittsburgh). He also was the first Packers rookie to start on opening day at fullback since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. Hall played linebacker last season at Boise State.
- ▶ Wide receiver James Jones was the first Packers rookie to start on opening day at wide receiver since Charles Lee in 2000 (Sept. 3, vs. New York Jets) when the Packers opened the game with three receivers. Wide receiver Robert Brooks also got the start on opening day as a rookie (Sept. 6, 1992, vs. Minnesota) when the Packers opened the game with three wide receivers. Both Lee and Brooks made their debuts as the team's No. 3 wideout. Sterling Sharpe (Sept. 4, 1988, vs. Los Angeles Rams) and James Lofton (Sept. 3, 1978, at Detroit) were the only Packers rookies to start on opening day as one of two receivers since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. Though the Packers opened with three receivers Sunday, Jones was listed as the No. 2 – the first rookie to be listed at No. 2 since Sharpe.

Nick Barnett stares down McNabb

COACH SAYS

Following the season-opening victory, McCarthy addressed the strong play of his defensive and special teams units, as well as the struggles of the offense.

- ▶ "Our guys played with tremendous energy. Their commitment to what we're doing and how we're doing it is the thing I'm very pleased with. You're seeing a young team coming together. It's an excellent win to build off of."
- ▶ "I just love the way we play on defense. If we were going to go down, we're going to go down swinging. They (the secondary) were in their face all day."
- ▶ "We have some work to do (on offense). I've said it before when you don't really commit to the run game it's hard to be critical of it. We came into this game, throwing the ball was our mindset and running it to win was our game plan. We didn't get that part done."

- ▶ "What impressed me most about Crosby was he was the same way today as he's been all training camp. Everyone here has watched the kicking competition throughout training camp. It was a kicking clinic going on against those two (Crosby and Dave Rayner) and he's never blinked. I thought his mental toughness was something that was evident through that time and he showed it today."

OTHER POSTGAME NOTES

In his 15th career start on opening day, Favre improved his record to 10-5 in season openers.

- ▶ Wide receiver Donald Driver recorded a catch for the 81st straight game.
- ▶ The Packers won their opening game of the season at Lambeau Field for the first time in five seasons. They had not won their home opener since a 37-34 overtime victory over the Falcons on Sept. 8, 2002.
- ▶ Inactive Sunday were G Allen Barbre, DT Justin Harrell, WR Greg Jennings, T Tony Moll, DE Michael Montgomery, RB Vernand Morency, DT Daniel Muir and S Aaron Rouse.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

FINAL 53 LOADED ON DEFENSIVE LINE, SECONDARY

After a competitive training camp, Green Bay trimmed its roster to the mandatory 53 active players Saturday.

- ▶ The theme on offense was 2's. Among the 53 were two quarterbacks, two fullbacks and two tight ends. Under center, the team will go with Favre and third-year pro Aaron Rodgers, who impressed this preseason. Wide receiver Carlyle Holiday, who played quarterback at Notre Dame, will serve as the No. 3 signal caller.
- ▶ Donald Lee and Bubba Franks, two veterans of the system, will serve as the tight ends. Their experience is contrasted by the fullback position, where rookie Korey Hall and second-year player John Kuhn fill out the backfield. Hall played linebacker at Boise State and made his first career start against Philadelphia. Kuhn was claimed on waivers 11 days ago and is still learning the system.
- ▶ No position is as deep as defensive line, a unit Head Coach Mike McCarthy feels is among the most talented in the league. It may be the deepest in the league too, as coaches have 11 players from which to choose their gameday rotation. Pro Bowl defensive end Aaron Kampman highlights the group, while the emerging Cullen Jenkins had a strong preseason.
- ▶ 10 players were kept in the secondary, including six cornerbacks. Three starters return to the unit, including the cornerback duo of Charles Woodson and Al Harris.
- ▶ A breakdown of the roster shows 26 defensive players, 24 offensive players and three specialists.

BACKFIELD PICTURE CLOUDED BY INJURIES

No position was hit harder by injuries in training camp than the running back position, where the team is looking to a number of players to replace the departed Ahman Green.

- ▶ Vernand Morency – who had been sidelined since the opening day of training camp with a knee injury – returned to practice on Clarke Hinkle Field last week but was inactive in the opener. The third-year pro is the only running back on the depth chart that was with the Packers last season, and his one-cut ability fits the team's zone blocking scheme. Coaches are hopeful Morency will make his 2007 debut this week.
- ▶ Brandon Jackson earned the start against Philadelphia, the first rookie to do so on opening day since 1971. The second-round pick from Nebraska should split carries with Morency once the veteran is cleared to play by the medical staff.
- ▶ Third-down back Noah Herron was lost for the season after a knee injury at Tennessee in the final preseason game. Rookie seventh-round pick DeShawn Wynn, who helped the Florida Gators to a national championship last fall, made his professional debut against the Eagles and had one of the day's highlights by taking a Favre shovel pass 18 yards on third down. He will compete with the newly acquired Ryan Grant, for whom the Packers traded an undisclosed draft pick on Sept. 1. The Notre Dame product had a strong preseason with the New York Giants and may make his professional debut against his former club.

SAME FACES, NEW PLACES

Four coaches have new titles this season, though all four were with the team during the 2006 season. Former offensive coordinator Jeff Jagodzinski left to become the head coach at Boston College in January, leaving a major opening on the staff.

- ▶ McCarthy tabbed Joe Philbin as offensive coordinator. Entering his fifth season with the Packers, Philbin most recently served as offensive line coach in 2006 where he implemented a new zone-blocking scheme and successfully integrated three rookie starters.
- ▶ Winston Moss was promoted to assistant head coach/linebackers after serving as linebackers coach in 2006. As the assistant head coach, the 41-year-old Moss will be McCarthy's right-hand man with regard to administrative duties and team dynamics. Moss will continue to coach the linebackers as well.

- ▶ Promoted to offensive line coach, James Campen moves up from his position as assistant offensive line coach in McCarthy's first season at the helm. The center for Brett Favre's first career start in 1992, Campen begins his fourth season on the Packers staff.
- ▶ Jerry Fontenot will serve as assistant offensive line coach in 2007. A 16-year NFL veteran (1989-2004), Fontenot joined the Packers as a coaching intern last summer and remained with the team throughout the 2006 season as an offensive assistant.

MOVIN' ON UP

A number of players soared up the depth chart thanks in part to a strong training camp practices and standout performances in preseason games.

- ▶ Chief among them was strong safety Atari Bigby, who earned his first career start against Philadelphia. The second-year Central Florida product spent time with the Dolphins and Jets in 2005 before joining the Packers' practice squad. He joined the practice squad again in 2006 but was signed to the active roster for the final eight games. Bigby has good range and big-play ability, as evidenced with his two-sack, forced fumble performance against Seattle in the preseason.
- ▶ On the offensive side of the ball, third-round pick James Jones turned heads from the first rookie minicamp. The strong, physical receiver put up big numbers this preseason, tying for the NFL lead in receptions (21) and finishing third in yardage (233) to go along with two touchdowns.
- ▶ Also on offense, rookie fullback Korey Hall made a quicker-than-expected transition to the pro game. Hall played linebacker at Boise State but quickly grasped his new responsibilities. He also is a key member of the Packers' special teams units.
- ▶ Lastly, defensive tackle Johnny Jolly emerged from a deep group of defensive tackles to earn the starting nod alongside Ryan Pickett. Though a rotation including Corey Williams, Colin Cole, Justin Harrell and Daniel Muir probably will be used, Jolly, a sixth-round draft pick in 2006, continually impressed coaches in practice with his ability to rush the passer and be an important cog in run defense.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

TRAVELING LIGHT IN 2007

NFL teams will cover 566,650 miles this season — about 75,000 more miles than a round trip flight from the earth to the moon.

- ▶ No team will cover more mileage than the St. Louis Rams (34,352), while the N.Y. Jets will travel the fewest (9,186).
- ▶ In the preseason and regular season, Green Bay will fly a total of 10,738 miles, over 6,000 miles less than the team traveled in 2006.
- ▶ A closer look at who is racking up those frequent flyer miles:

Team	Miles traveled
1) St. Louis	34,352
2) Seattle	33,586
3) Miami	29,724
4) San Diego	28,398
29) Green Bay	10,738
30) Philadelphia	10,119
31) Buffalo	9,972
32) N.Y. Jets	9,186

'07 SCHEDULE AT A GLANCE

Three prime-time contests, including a Sunday night rematch with the Chicago Bears at Lambeau Field, highlight the Green Bay Packers' 87th NFL regular-season schedule.

- ▶ The '07 slate includes six playoff teams (Chicago, Philadelphia, San Diego, Dallas, N.Y. Giants and Kansas City) from 2006.
- ▶ Of those six opponents who qualified for the playoffs, three come in the first three tilts of the year — two at Lambeau Field (Eagles, Chargers) and one on the road (Giants). What's more, four of the first five games, including the Oct. 7 rematch with the Bears, are against playoff foes.
- ▶ Green Bay will play three prime-time contests, barring any changes via the league's flexible scheduling options. Two of those three — at Denver Oct. 29 (ESPN) and at Dallas Nov. 29 (NFL Network) — are on the road. The third is the Oct. 7 Bears game (NBC).
- ▶ The Packers also welcome the Chargers to Lambeau Field for the first time since 1996 (only the Bengals have waited longer to play in Green Bay, since 1995) and make their first trip to Kansas City since 1996. The only other active city in which the Packers have waited longer to visit during the regular season is Cleveland (1995).

CONFIDENT MCCARTHY HEADS INTO SECOND SEASON

Now in his second year at the helm, McCarthy heads into 2007 with a much more confident team than a year ago. His system is firmly in place as he looks to join the likes of Vince Lombardi, Dan Devine, Mike Holmgren and Mike Sherman as the fifth head coach in franchise history to lead the team to the postseason in his second season.

- ▶ "I think there are so many positive aspects of our football team that we're able to build on," McCarthy said at the conclusion of the preseason. "The only thing you have to compare it to is last year, so we're clearly further ahead."
- ▶ As for the strength of his team? "Our defense is clearly the catalyst of our football team," said McCarthy. "They've been the most consistent part of our football team, and I think it will clearly carry over to special teams once we set those groups and the core players are playing all the time."
- ▶ The No. 1 defense was strong — if not dominant — throughout the preseason and into the opener, showing the communication problems in the secondary that plagued the unit in '06 were behind them.
- ▶ Questions surrounded the offense and its lack of playmakers in the off-season, but as the one calling the plays, McCarthy has seen enough to establish a method of attack. "I'm very comfortable with the building of the offense, playing whatever way we need to play to score points."

LAST THOUGHTS ON 2006

Despite winning their final four games to conclude Mike McCarthy's first season as Head Coach with a .500 record (8-8), Green Bay narrowly missed clinching one of the NFC's six playoff berths and finished No. 7 in the conference standings.

- ▶ Four NFC teams — the Giants, Packers, Rams and Panthers — finished 8-8. Four tiebreakers and mere percentage points were needed to dub the New York Giants, not Green Bay, as the NFC's final playoff seed.
- ▶ The last time the Packers swept its final four contests and didn't make the playoffs? It happened in 2000. One year later, Green Bay finished 12-4 and advanced to the Divisional playoffs.
- ▶ The Packers were 5-1 in the NFC North, which tied Chicago, Philadelphia, San Diego, Baltimore and Carolina for the best division record in the NFL.
- ▶ In the final league rankings, the Packers finished ninth on offense (23rd in rushing, eighth in passing). Green Bay finished 12th on defense (13th against the run and 17th against the pass).
- ▶ On defense, Bob Sanders' unit over the season's final 10 weeks improved from 32nd in total yards allowed to finish 12th. Instrumental during the club's four-game winning streak to end the year, the defense allowed only 562 total yards over the last three games.
- ▶ On offense, only the New Orleans Saints (2,212) had more yards after the catch than the Packers (2,161) in the NFL.
- ▶ With coaches constantly stressing ball security in practice, the Packers concluded the season with a zero margin in turnover ratio, a marked improvement from minus-24 the year before. The zero margin was the team's best total since it also finished even at the end of 2003.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

The Packers will host a season-long celebration commemorating the 50th anniversary of Lambeau Field. The crown jewel of the National Football League remains the most historic stadium in football.

- Dedicated as City Stadium Sept. 29, 1957, with a 21-17 victory over the archrival Chicago Bears, the team renamed the facility Lambeau Field in 1965 following the death of E.L. 'Curly' Lambeau, the Packers' founder and first coach. It is the NFL's longest-tenured facility.
- To mark the occasion, an anniversary logo was created and will be featured on the team's home uniforms, Gameday program, the media guide and the Packers Yearbook.
- Lambeau Field also will feature the special logo in the north end zone.
- Renowned 3-D pop artist Charles Fazzino was commissioned by the Packers to create an art piece celebrating the 50th anniversary. Fazzino, the official artist of the Super Bowl and Major League Baseball's All-Star Game, spent nine months on the project. The piece is available in a limited edition 3-D format, as well as on T-shirts, helmets and assorted items in the Packers Pro Shop.
- Packers ticket holders will enjoy images of Lambeau Field through the years on their tickets as well.

PUNT BLOCKS

Jon Ryan was 13 years old the last time the Packers had a punt blocked. It happened Sept. 10, 1995, at Chicago, when the Bears' Anthony Marshall got to Craig Hentrich. Only one other team has a longer active stretch of punts without a block:

Q&A WITH MIKE MCCARTHY

How much harder were some of those final roster decisions this year than your first season?

I felt it was a lot harder this year. This year's football team was a lot harder team to make. We had a number of players, whether it was injury, the timing of their injuries, ... we had a couple young players who played very well who got caught in a numbers situation. It was a lot tougher this year to cut this football team. Good problems. You never have enough good football players, and that's really the situation you want to be in year in and year out.

You kept 11 defensive linemen and 10 defensive backs on the roster.

That's 40 percent of your players at two position groups. Why so many players there, and what difference will that make?

Ted Thompson and I clearly stated throughout the offseason and training camp that we would keep the best 53 players. I'm of the opinion if you do not do that, you will be on this cycle where the bottom half of your roster does not get totally upgraded. By keeping the best 53 players, it gives us the opportunity to create continuity and depth in some areas as we continue to improve the others.

The competition at running back didn't play out as expected in training camp, due to several injuries. With all the injuries and inexperience, can this running game be productive enough to complement Brett Favre?

I'm very comfortable that we'll do whatever it takes to win football games. Running the football is an important part of a successful offense. I'm confident we'll get that done.

Your team is the youngest in the NFL this season. Second-youngest is the defending champion Indianapolis Colts. What do you make of that?

That's the makeup of our football team. We're in the second year of our program. We've been able to acquire a number of players through the draft, and that directly reflects the youth we have on our team. But the most important thing is the amount of talent we've been able to amass on our football team, and we'll take their abilities, be specific to what they can do, and put them in position to be successful. Every team has a different makeup, and that's the makeup of our football team. (With the Colts) I think it's really the product of the salary cap and everything that's going on throughout the NFL. They're the Super Bowl champions, they lost a number of veterans off of that Super Bowl team, and they've replaced them through the draft. I think that's why they're in that position. Our position of being younger was a different path. I think our football teams are structured differently.

Getting off to a fast start has been talked about a lot, yet a Packers team hasn't won two of its first three games since 2002. Can this team change that trend, and how?

We definitely are taking the approach to change it. It's very important to win games at home, and two out of our first three are at home, so that is an opportunity we need to take advantage of. Playing in your home environment, in front of a tremendous crowd, are all things that give you the ability to play downhill. Now, the things that happen in the beginning of the season traditionally in the NFL are factors in a football game we need to be sure to overcome. The opponent is going to have unscouted looks, we need to be prepared for that. Ball security is usually an issue in earlier games in the season. Officiating is a lot tighter earlier in the season. So there are some tendencies of the way early-season games go, and we've educated our players on that. A lot of them are just emphasizing fundamentals of the football game, and we need to just come out and play a smart, tough, fundamentally sound football game.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

You're facing four 2006 playoff teams in the season's first five weeks. Do you look at that as a daunting task or an opportunity to make an early statement in 2007?

It's an opportunity to line up against some very good football teams that have had success in the recent past. So I think we will answer some questions about our team and where we are. But every week is a challenge in the NFL, and we will approach every week the same and make sure we are ready for our opponent and give our players a chance to win the game. Being aggressive in our approach, being fundamentally sound in our approach, to make sure at the end of the day that those players had a chance to win that football game.

It's often said players make the biggest jump from their first year to their second in the NFL. Does that mean the improvement of your second-year starters - A.J. Hawk, Greg Jennings, Daryn Colledge and Jason Spitz - will be the biggest key to improving on last year's 8-8 record?

Individual improvement in the offseason was one thing we had the most of. You could see it throughout the spring. It was very evident in my view during training camp, and it ultimately needs to factor in the outcome of winning football games. We've had a number of young players that have improved, whether they're going into their second or third year. It's the continuity you're striving for, the consistency you're striving for, that helps good football teams come together as fast as possible. That will be the key to us winning early in the season.

The Chicago Bears have set the standard in recent years for defensive play in the NFC North Division, and the NFC as a whole. Can the 2007 Green Bay defense approach that level, in your opinion?

We have the physical ability to, we have the mind-set and confidence to at this point. We need to do it day in and day out, week in and week out on Sundays, and those things will take care of themselves. The way our defense played at the end of the season last year, and they've picked up where they left off and showed their ability to be a big-time defense in preseason. But all the games are for real now. They'll definitely be a catalyst for our success.

Last year, players like Aaron Kampman and Cullen Jenkins emerged as significant forces on defense. Who might be the next defensive player to truly step into the spotlight?

We have a couple guys who can step into that role. I think our inside players - Ryan Pickett doesn't get enough credit for the level of player he is. I think Johnny Jolly is a young and up-and-coming player going into his second year who I think will definitely impact our defense. Corey Williams did a lot of good things last year, particularly in pass rush, and has shown a lot of flexibility this year playing both defensive end and defensive tackle. I think he's a guy we'll talk a lot about. With the linebacker group, Brady Poppinga is much improved from last year, and A.J. Hawk. Nick Barnett is at the level in his career that when we do have the winning season he'll be a lot more recognized. Our corners speak for themselves. They're veterans that have been in there and played at a high level in the past, and we expect them to play at that level too. And I think we have two young, exciting safeties that could really grow into impact players. We have a lot of depth at the corner position, a lot of depth at the D-line position, so it's a defense that's really set up for a big year.

With Brett Favre's career winding down, do you feel a sense of urgency to get him one final shot at a playoff run?

We all have the sense of urgency to get in the playoffs, so to answer the question, yes. We'll do everything we can possible to win week in and week out, starting with the Philadelphia Eagles.

ONLY TWO VIKINGS REMAIN

Only about half the NFL teams publish consecutive starts in their records section, partly because early press-box statisticians did not universally and consistently document starting lineups.

- ▶ Here are the longest starting streaks on record, as published in team media guides (* — active streak):
