Sunday, Sept. 9 • Lambeau Field • 12 p.m. CDT

PACKERS HOST EAGLES TO OPEN 89TH SEASON

Green Bay kicks off its 89th season in franchise history Sunday – its 87th as a member of the National Football League – by welcoming the Philadelphia Eagles to historic Lambeau Field.

- ▶ The Packers are 47-36-3 (.564) all-time in season openers but have lost three of their last four.
- ▶ Green Bay opens its season at home for the second consecutive season. The Packers have lost their first game at Lambeau Field each of the last four seasons.
- ▶ Sunday marks the beginning of a year-long celebration honoring the 50th anniversary of the opening of Lambeau Field. The NFL's longest-tenured facility, only Boston's Fenway Park (1912) and Chicago's Wrigley Field (1914) have hosted their respective teams for a longer uninterrupted period.
- ▶ The Packers and Eagles have met five times over the past four seasons, including an NFC Divisional Playoff game in 2003, with Philadelphia earning the win in each of the five contests.
- ▶ Coming off an 8-8 season, the Packers narrowly missed the playoffs by virtue of a tiebreaker. Had the percentage points fallen in its favor, Green Bay would have traveled to Philadelphia for the NFC Wild Card Playoffs.

ALL ABOUT MOMENTUM

The momentum of four straight victories to close the 2006 season – coupled with missing the NFC's final playoff berth by mere percentage points – produced record attendance in the offseason program and one of the most competitive training camps to date.

- ▶ Only defending Super Bowl champion Indianapolis (5) enters 2007 with a longer winning streak than the Packers.
- ▶ Of the 22 players who started in the 2006 season finale at Chicago, 19 return to the team in 2007.

YOUTH WILL BE SERVED

The youngest team in the NFL in 2006, the Green Bay Packers remain among the youngest teams in pro football this season.

- ▶ Since taking over general manager duties in 2005, Ted Thompson has vowed to build the team's foundation through the draft. Of the 53 active roster players, 20 have been drafted by Thompson.
- ▶ Only Indianapolis enters 2007 with a younger squad. A look at the five youngest teams in the NFL reveals that youth will be no excuse in 2007 – all five teams finished .500 or better in 2006.

Team	Average Age
Indianapolis	26 yrs, 87 days
Green Bay	26 yrs, 92 days
N.Y. Giants	26 yrs, 193 days
Dallas	26 yrs, 193 days
Jacksonville	26 yrs, 236 days

ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY

65 of the 109 living Medal of Honor recipients arrived Monday in Green Bay for their annual conference.

- ▶ Those who have been honored with the highest military decoration awarded by the United States will participate in a series of activities around the Fox Valley area, culminating in a pregame ceremony on Lambeau Field Sunday.

WITH THE CALL

FOX Sports enters its 14th season as an NFL network television partner and will air the contest to a regional audience. Play-by-play man Kenny Albert joins color commentator Daryl Johnston in the broadcast booth with Tony Siragusa serving as the sideline analyst.

THIS WEEK AT LAMBEAU

LOOK OUT JOHN ELWAY

Quarterback Brett Favre starts at quarterback for the 238th straight time (258 including playoffs).

- Sunday will be Favre's 15th season-opening start in green and gold, and he enters with a 9-5 record in season openers. In those games, he is 300-for-478 passing for 3,289 yards, 24 TDs and 17 INTs.
- Most notably, Favre with a win on Sunday will tie John Elway (148) for the most wins by a quarterback. Favre is currently tied at No. 2 with Dan Marino (147) on the all-time quarterback wins list.
- Sunday, Favre goes against two of his former quarterbacks tutors - Philadelphia's top coaches: Andy Reid and Marty Mornhinweg.

FINAL 53 LOADED ON DEFENSIVE LINE, SECONDARY

After a competitive training camp, Green Bay trimmed its roster to the mandatory 53 active players Saturday.

- The theme on offense was 2's. Among the 53 were two quarterbacks, two fullbacks and two tight ends. Under center, the team will go with Favre and third-year pro Aaron Rodgers, who impressed this preseason. Wide receiver Carlyle Holiday, who played quarterback at Notre Dame, will serve as the No. 3 signal caller.
- Donald Lee and Bubba Franks, two veterans of the system, will serve as the tight ends. Their experience is contrasted by the fullback position, where rookie Korey Hall and second-year player John Kuhn fill out the backfield. Hall played line-backer at Boise State and will make his first career start against Philadelphia. Kuhn was claimed on waivers this past weekend and is still learning the system.
- No position is as deep as defensive line, a unit Head Coach Mike McCarthy feels is among the most talented in the league. It may be the deepest in the league too, as coaches have 11 players from which to choose their gameday rotation. Pro Bowl defensive end Aaron Kampman highlights the group, while the emerging Cullen Jenkins had a strong preseason.
- 10 players were kept in the secondary, including six cornerbacks. Three starters return to the unit, including the cornerback duo of Charles Woodson and Al Harris.
- A breakdown of the roster shows 26 defensive players, 24 offensive players and three specialists.

BACKFIELD PICTURE CLOUDED BY INJURIES

No position was hit harder by injuries in training camp than the running back position, where the team is looking to a number of players to replace the departed Ahman Green.

- Vernand Morency - who had been sidelined since the opening day of training camp with a knee injury - returned to practice on Clarke Hinkle Field this week. The third-year pro is the only running back on the depth chart that was with the Packers last season, and his one-cut ability fits the team's zone blocking scheme. How much he plays against the Eagles will depend largely on how his knee responds this week.
- Brandon Jackson missed the final preseason game at Tennessee for precautionary reasons. The second-round pick from Nebraska sustained a mild concussion in practice prior to the preseason finale but has since returned to practice. All signs point to Jackson making his NFL debut against Philadelphia.
- Third-down back Noah Herron was lost for the season after a knee injury at Tennessee. Rookie seventh-round pick DeShawn Wynn, who helped the Florida Gators to a national championship last fall, made his preseason debut against the Titans. Wynn had previously been sidelined by a quad injury. He will compete with the newly acquired Ryan Grant, for whom the Packers traded an undisclosed draft pick this weekend. The Notre Dame product had a strong preseason with the New York Giants but will have just five practices under his belt before the season opener.

WANTED: A QUICK START

Slow starts have plagued the Packers the past three seasons, only one of which resulted in a postseason appearance (2004). That season, the team started 1-4 but won nine of its last 11 games.

- In 2005, injuries contributed to a 1-7 start while a 1-4 start in 2006 proved too much to overcome.
- Maintaining the confidence and momentum built during the four-game win streak to close 2006 has been a major focus of the offseason program for McCarthy and his team.
- "We have stressed the fast start," McCarthy said. "The way we structured our scheduling gives us I think the best opportunity to start fast, because we're getting our work done and we should be fresh coming out of camp and so forth. We start off at home against Philadelphia, and that's the focus."
- Scheduling was rearranged this summer during training camp to keep the players fresh. On three successive Wednesdays in August, the team was given the afternoon off after morning meetings. The team did not lose out on any reps thanks to a busy spring during the OTAs and mini-camps.
- "The number of things we were able to get done this spring gave us the ability to have those three Wednesdays where we only met and had walk-throughs in the gym at the end," McCarthy said. "It's clearly (based) on the rest and recovery. I feel it will really help our football team particularly at the end of the year. When you see the importance of rest and recovery happen on an individual basis like I've watched it throughout the spring, it's obviously very important for our football team."

Favre enters 2007 with 147 career wins

MCCARTHY CONFIDENT HEADING INTO '07

Now in his second year at the helm, McCarthy heads into 2007 with a much more confident team than a year ago. His system is firmly in place as he looks to join the likes of Vince Lombardi, Dan Devine, Mike Holmgren and Mike Sherman as the fifth head coach in franchise history to lead the team to the postseason in his second season.

- "I think there are so many positive aspects of our football team that we're able to build on," McCarthy said at the conclusion of the preseason. "The only thing you have to compare it to is last year, so we're clearly further ahead."
- As for the strength of his team? "Our defense is clearly the catalyst of our football team," said McCarthy. "They've been the most consistent part of our football team, and I think it will clearly carry over to special teams once we set those groups and the core players are playing all the time."
- The No. 1 defense was strong - if not dominant - throughout the preseason and showed the communication problems in the secondary that plagued the unit in '06 were behind them.
- Questions surrounded the offense and its lack of playmakers in the offseason, but as the one calling the plays, McCarthy saw enough of out his No. 1 unit in the preseason. "I'm very comfortable with the building of the offense, playing whatever way we need to play to score points."

- In the third quarter with the Eagles clinging to a 10-9 lead, Donovan McNabb hit Greg Lewis on touchdown passes of 45 and 30 yards just one minute, 17 seconds apart.
- McNabb's fourth-quarter touchdown run, his second of the game, sealed the victory for Philadelphia.
- Kicker Dave Rayner hit three field goals in the contest, including a 54-yarder that tied a franchise record.

PRESEASON REVIEW - GAMES 1-4

PACKERS DROP FINALE AT TENNESSEE

With offensive and defensive starters playing only a portion of the first quarter, the coaches played their backups for the majority of the contest. The Titans played their starters well into the third quarter and came away with the win, 30-14.

- ▶ The No. 1 offense was rolling early on, as Brett Favre found Noah Herron for a 6-yard touchdown pass. Favre and the starting unit played only two series, while the No. 1 defense saw just one series of action.
- ▶ Two second quarter touchdowns gave the Titans the halftime advantage, but rookie Justin Harrell scooped up a fumble, forced by Larry Birdine on a sack, and ran it in 18 yards for the score. Harrell scored the touchdown in front of family and friends in his native Tennessee.
- ▶ The staff wanted to get a specific look at some personnel and spent most of the second half mixing and matching players on both sides of the ball and special teams. Tennessee used three field goals and a third-quarter punt return for a touchdown to close out the scoring.
- ▶ James Jones led the team in receiving again, while DeShawn Wynn rushed for 54 yards on 21 carries in his debut.

BACKUPS CAN'T HOLD HALFTIME LEAD VS. JACKSONVILLE

With both offensive and defensive starters playing the entire first half, the Packers went into halftime with a 10-0 lead over the Jaguars.

- ▶ Early on the Packers' defense flexed its muscle, stopping Jacksonville three times in Green Bay territory in the first half to pitch a shutout through two quarters. They twice stopped the Jaguars on fourth down.
- ▶ The Packers offense scored on its final two drives of the half. Quarterback Brett Favre directed a 12-play, 76-yard march, completing seven straight passes to seven different receivers.
- ▶ Favre nearly had a touchdown, but his third-and-goal pass to an open James Jones in the end zone was deflected at the line by Reggie Hayward, setting up a 22-yard field goal by Dave Rayner.
- ▶ Quarterback Aaron Rodgers came in on the next drive – providing him valuable game experience with the No. 1 offense – and took the Packers 73 yards for a touchdown.
- ▶ Consecutive completions of 23, 11 and 14 yards to Jones (six catches, 80 yards) preceded a key 11-yard catch-and-run by Brandon Jackson to convert a third-and-10 and put the ball on the 1. Jackson finished the drive on the next play with a 1 yard touchdown plunge.
- ▶ The second half was all Jacksonville as it scored a pair of third-quarter touchdowns. An interception return for a touchdown in the waning moments of the fourth quarter sealed the victory for the Jaguars.

FAVRE, NO. 1 OFFENSE REGAIN FORM AGAINST SEATTLE

Just as the backups had done a week prior, Favre led the No. 1 offense on three successive scoring drives to open up an early lead vs. Seattle.

- ▶ After a three-and-out on their first series, Favre led the offense on a 12-play, 47-yard drive that ended in a 37-yard field goal by rookie Mason Crosby. Favre twice hit tight end Bubba Franks for first downs.
- ▶ Favre and the offense needed just seven yards for their first touchdown of the game, thanks to a long kickoff return by Will Blackmon. Brandon Jackson needed two rushes to cover the distance.
- ▶ Another nice return from Blackmon, this time on a punt, gave Favre a short field to work with once again. A beautifully placed ball between three defenders was good for a 22-yard reception by Donald Driver, followed by a 16-yard touchdown pass to James Jones.
- ▶ Jones' grab was the opening play of the second quarter – the last for the first-team offense – which left with a 17-3 lead.

DEFENSE DOMINATES SEAHAWKS

Building off a strong effort in Pittsburgh, the Packers' defense continues to show signs it may be a dominant force in 2007.

- ▶ The unit collected seven sacks, forced six turnovers and returned two fumbles for scores against the Seahawks.
- ▶ The Packers' No. 1 defense racked up three sacks and two other tackles for loss, along with a touchdown, in just over one quarter of play to give Green Bay a commanding 21-point lead.
- ▶ Defensive end Cullen Jenkins – coming off a two-sack, forced fumble performance in Pittsburgh – made another sack on the opening to drive to force a Seattle punt.
- ▶ A.J. Hawk burst into the backfield and engulfed quarterback Seneca Wallace for another first-quarter sack.
- ▶ In the second quarter, defensive end Kabeer Gbaja-Biamila came off the edge to record his second sack of the preseason, this time forcing a fumble that was returned by linebacker Nick Barnett for a 62-yard score.
- ▶ Later in the quarter, safety Atari Bigby forced another fumble off a sack, this time returned for a touchdown by Tracy White. Bigby proved disruptive all night, collecting another sack before the half as well as a third-down pressure that forced a punt.

BLACKMON SPARKS SPECIAL TEAMS

It's never too early for a player to separate himself from the pack, and it appears that's exactly what cornerback Will Blackmon did as a returner for the Packers special teams units against Seattle.

- ▶ Kickoff return was a point of emphasis all offseason for the Packers, as the team's longest kickoff return in 2006 was 35 yards.
- ▶ Additionally, the Packers would like to utilize Charles Woodson, the punt returner in 2006, primarily on defense.
- ▶ Blackmon took a first-quarter kickoff return 83 yards down the left sideline, side-stepping a number of Seahawks defenders in the process, to set up the Packers' first touchdown.
- ▶ Three minutes later, the second-year pro returned a punt 16 yards to set up another touchdown.
- ▶ The fourth-round draft choice in 2006 also forced a fumble on defense.

DEFENSE DOMINATES IN PITTSBURGH

Despite missing starting cornerbacks Charles Woodson and Al Harris, the No. 1 defense didn't miss a step Saturday, holding Pittsburgh to just one first down in three drives.

- ▶ Defensive end Cullen Jenkins, the recipient of a new contract in the off-season, exploded in the first quarter, collecting two sacks and forced fumble. Later on a third-and-1, Jenkins combined with linebacker A.J. Hawk to stop Najeh Davenport for no gain, forcing a Pittsburgh punt.
- ▶ Kabeer Gbaja-Biamila recorded a sack in the second quarter, while rookies Justin Harrell and Larry Birdine, who each tallied a sack, put constant pressure on the quarterback.

RODGERS RESCUES OFFENSE

Brett Favre and the No. 1 offense never got in a rhythm against Pittsburgh, failing to produce a first down in four drives.

- ▶ Backup quarterback Aaron Rodgers got things moving on offense with three consecutive scoring drives, one to close the first half and then two to open the second half.
- ▶ He finished 18-of-27 passing for 168 yards and one touchdown in one of his most impressive performances in a Green Bay uniform.
- ▶ Just before the half, Rodgers led the team on a 12-play, 75-yard drive that ended in a Dave Rayner field goal. After the defense held Pittsburgh to a three-and-out, Rodgers and the offense continued its solid play in the second half with a 71-yard drive, culminating in a 3-yard touchdown to Carlyle Holiday.
- ▶ Backed up against their own end zone, Rodgers and the offense managed to cross midfield with little resistance, thanks to some big runs from Brandon Jackson and smart play from Rodgers. The Packers capped their scoring with a Mason Crosby 52-yard field goal.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

SAME FACES, NEW PLACES

Four coaches have new titles this season, though all four were with the team during the 2006 season. Former offensive coordinator Jeff Jagodzinski left to become the head coach at Boston College in January, leaving a major opening on the staff.

- McCarthy tabbed Joe Philbin as offensive coordinator. Entering his fifth season with the Packers, Philbin most recently served as offensive line coach in 2006 where he implemented a new zone-blocking scheme and successfully integrated three rookie starters.
- Winston Moss was promoted to assistant head coach/linebackers after serving as linebackers coach in 2006. As the assistant head coach, the 41-year-old Moss will be McCarthy's right-hand man with regard to administrative duties and team dynamics. Moss will continue to coach the linebackers as well.
- Promoted to offensive line coach, James Campen moves up from his position as assistant offensive line coach in McCarthy's first season at the helm. The center for Brett Favre's first career start in 1992, Campen begins his fourth season on the Packers staff.
- Jerry Fontenot will serve as assistant offensive line coach in 2007. A 16-year NFL veteran (1989-2004), Fontenot joined the Packers as a coaching intern last summer and remained with the team throughout the 2006 season as an offensive assistant.

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

The Packers will host a season-long celebration commemorating the 50th anniversary of Lambeau Field. The crown jewel of the National Football League remains the most historic stadium in football.

- Dedicated as City Stadium Sept. 29, 1957, with a 21-17 victory over the archrival Chicago Bears, the team renamed the facility Lambeau Field in 1965 following the death of E.L. 'Curly' Lambeau, the Packers' founder and first coach. It is the NFL's longest-tenured facility.
- To mark the occasion, an anniversary logo was created and will be featured on the team's home uniforms, Gameday program, the media guide and the Packers Yearbook.
- Lambeau Field also will feature the special logo in both end zones.
- Renowned 3-D pop artist Charles Fazzino was commissioned by the Packers to create an art piece celebrating the 50th anniversary. Fazzino, the official artist of the Super Bowl and Major League Baseball's All-Star Game, spent nine months on the project. The piece is available in a limited edition 3-D format, as well as on T-shirts, helmets and assorted items in the Packers Pro Shop.
- Packers ticket holders will enjoy images of Lambeau Field through the years on their tickets as well.

LAST THOUGHTS ON 2006

Despite winning their final four games to conclude Mike McCarthy's first season as Head Coach with a .500 record (8-8), Green Bay narrowly missed clinching one of the NFC's six playoff berths and finished No. 7 in the conference standings.

- Four NFC teams — the Giants, Packers, Rams and Panthers — finished 8-8. Four tiebreakers and mere percentage points were needed to dub the New York Giants, not Green Bay, as the NFC's final playoff seed.

- The last time the Packers swept its final four contests and didn't make the playoffs? It happened in 2000. One year later, Green Bay finished 12-4 and advanced to the Divisional playoffs.
- The Packers were 5-1 in the NFC North, which tied Chicago, Philadelphia, San Diego, Baltimore and Carolina for the best division record in the NFL.
- In the final league rankings, the Packers finished ninth on offense (23rd in rushing, eighth in passing). Green Bay finished 12th on defense (13th against the run and 17th against the pass).
- On defense, Bob Sanders' unit over the season's final 10 weeks improved from 32nd in total yards allowed to finish 12th. Instrumental during the club's four-game winning streak to end the year, the defense allowed only 562 total yards over the last three games.
- On offense, only the New Orleans Saints (2,212) had more yards after the catch than the Packers (2,161) in the NFL.
- With coaches constantly stressing ball security in practice, the Packers concluded the season with a zero margin in turnover ratio, a marked improvement from -24 the year before. The zero margin was the team's best total since it also finished even at the end of 2003.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

MOVIN' ON UP

A number of players soared up the depth chart thanks in part to a strong training camp practices and standout performances in preseason games.

- Chief among them was strong safety Atari Bigby, who will earn his first career start against Philadelphia. The second-year Central Florida product spent time with the Dolphins and Jets in 2005 before joining the Packers' practice squad. He joined the practice squad again in 2006 but was signed to the active roster for the final eight games. Bigby has good range and big-play ability, as evidenced with his two-sack, forced fumble performance against Seattle in the preseason.
- On the offensive side of the ball, third-round pick James Jones turned heads from the first rookie minicamp. The strong, physical receiver put up big numbers this preseason, tying for the NFL lead in receptions (21) and finishing third in yardage (233) to go along with two touchdowns.
- Also on offense, rookie fullback Korey Hall made a quicker-than-expected transition to the pro game. Hall played linebacker at Boise State but quickly grasped his new responsibilities. He will also be a key member of the Packers special teams units.
- Lastly, defensive tackle Johnny Jolly emerged from a deep group of defensive tackles to earn the starting nod alongside Ryan Pickett. Though a rotation including Corey Williams, Colin Cole, Justin Harrell and Daniel Muir will probably be used, Jolly, a sixth-round draft pick in 2006, continually impressed coaches in practice with his ability to rush the passer and be an important cog in run defense.

TRAVELING LIGHT IN 2007

NFL teams will cover 566,650 miles this season – about 75,000 more miles than a round trip flight from the earth to the moon.

- No team will cover more mileage than the St. Louis Rams (34,352), while the N.Y. Jets will travel the fewest (9,186).
- In the preseason and regular season, Green Bay will fly a total of 10,738 miles, among the lowest in the league. In fact, it amounts to over 6,000 miles less than the team traveled in 2006.
- A closer look at who is racking up those frequent flyer miles:

Team	Miles traveled
1) St. Louis	34,352
2) Seattle	33,586
3) Miami	29,724
4) San Diego	28,398
.....	.....
29) Green Bay	10,738
30) Philadelphia	10,119
31) Buffalo	9,972
32) N.Y. Jets	9,186

'07 SCHEDULE AT A GLANCE

Three prime-time contests, including a Sunday night rematch with the Chicago Bears at Lambeau Field, highlight the Green Bay Packers' 87th NFL regular-season schedule.

- The '07 slate includes six playoff teams (Chicago, Philadelphia, San Diego, Dallas, N.Y. Giants and Kansas City) from 2006.
- Of those six opponents who qualified for the playoffs, three come in the first three tilts of the year — two at Lambeau Field (Eagles, Chargers) and one on the road (Giants). What's more, four of the first five games, including the Oct. 7 rematch with the Bears, are against playoff foes.

- Green Bay will play three prime-time contests, barring any changes via the league's flexible scheduling options. Two of those three — at Denver Oct. 29 (ESPN) and at Dallas Nov. 29 (NFL Network) — are on the road. The third is the Oct. 7 Bears game (NBC).
- The Packers also welcome the Chargers to Lambeau Field for the first time since 1996 (only the Bengals have waited longer to play in Green Bay, since 1995) and make their first trip to Kansas City since 1996. The only other active city in which the Packers have waited longer to visit during the regular season is Cleveland (1995).

NEW TUNDRA AT LAMBEAU

The Lambeau Field playing surface, which last December hosted two games in five days, got a makeover in the off-season that brought the latest technology to the hallowed ground which will eliminate future in-season re-sodding.

► In a project that took several months to complete, DD GrassMaster, a natural grass surface reinforced with man-made fibers developed by Desso DLW Sports Systems, was installed on top of a completely new drainage and heating system.

► The new grass surface won't be entirely new for the players, though. It is identical to the surface on the team's Clarke Hinkle Field.

► According to the Packers' field manager, Allen Johnson, the Packers have been following the evolution of the relatively new system for several years, going back to its development on European soccer fields.

- DD GrassMaster's advantage mainly is attributed to the sand-based soil, which allows superior drainage and softer, more consistent footing over the former clay-based field. Because a sand-based root zone has less stability, the system employs the use of millions of strands of polyethylene and polypropylene materials eight inches below the surface with one inch exposed on the top. This gives the field firm footing and eliminates clumps of sod tearing from the surface, especially late in the season.
- The project commenced upon the conclusion of the season and began with removing all current levels of the field. The first layers consist of a clay base with drain tile and irrigation piping. The second level consists of four inches of gravel with 30-plus miles of tubing for the heating system. The third level is made of 12 inches of sand and the top level consists of the sod with its reinforcing fibers.
- Due to the enhanced drainage capabilities, fans at Lambeau will notice no perceptible crown on the field. A slight slope will exist, about a half-degree decline, to assist with water and snow removal when the field is covered with a tarp.
- Also gone with the crown are raised areas behind each upright that assisted many players in their 'Lambeau Leap.' Players have already noticed this preseason that the jump takes considerably more effort, but none have balked at the attempt so far.
- Also included in the project was a new service path encircling the field. Gone was the old cement, replaced with a rubberized surface, similar to the one adjacent to the Hutson Center on the side of Clarke Hinkle Field. The new path still will allow for equipment use, but be safer for players that run far out of bounds.
