FOURTH PRESEASON GAME

GREEN BAY (2-1) at KANSAS CITY (0-3)

Thursday, Sept. 2 • New Arrowhead Stadium • 7 p.m. CDT

PACKERS TRAVEL TO KANSAS CITY FOR PRESEASON FINALE

Green Bay heads to Kansas City to close out the preseason slate with a game against the Chiefs on Thursday night. It is the third time in the past four years that the Packers have wrapped up their preseason schedule away from Lambeau Field.

► Thursday night's game in Kansas City will be just the second contest at the New Arrowhead Stadium, which features state-of-the-art video and sound systems among several other new amenities. The stadium, which was renovated over a three-year period, opened on Friday night when the Chiefs lost to the Philadelphia Eagles, 20-17.

► For Head Coach Mike McCarthy, the trip to Kansas City is a return to where his NFL coaching career started. McCarthy spent six seasons on the Chiefs' staff (1993-98), the first two as an offensive assistant/quality control coach and the final four as the quarterbacks coach. Thursday night will be just the second time McCarthy has coached in Kansas City since taking over as head coach of Green Bay in 2006, with the other game coming on Nov. 4, 2007, a 33-22 Packers win over the Chiefs at Arrowhead Stadium.

► Ironically, McCarthy's very first game as an NFL coach was a pre-season contest between the Chiefs and the Packers on Aug. 7, 1993, at Milwaukee County Stadium. Kansas City won, 29-21.

► The teams have squared off 11 times before in the preseason, with the series deadlocked at 5-5-1. The last preseason meeting between the teams came on Aug. 4, 2003, in Canton, Ohio, in the annual Hall of Fame game. The Chiefs won, 9-0, in a contest that was called with 5:49 left in the third quarter due to severe rain and lightning.

► The Packers beat the defending AFC champion Indianapolis Colts, 59-24, on Thursday night at Lambeau Field in a nationally televised contest. QB Aaron Rodgers led the No. 1 offense on three touchdown drives in just a half of work, completing 21-of-29 passes for 195 yards and three TDs. TE Jermichael Finley paced the offense with six receptions for 85 yards, including a 15-yard TD grab, and Rodgers added TD passes to WRs Donald Driver and James Jones. FB Korey Hall recovered a muffed punt in the end zone for a TD in the second quarter, and WR Jason Chery added a 75-yard punt return for a score in the fourth quarter.

► The 59 points scored were the most by a Green Bay team in the pre-season since the Packers posted a 75-0 shutout over the Cedar Rapids (Iowa) Crush on Sept. 5, 1938, in Ironwood, Mich. It was also the most points scored by Green Bay against an NFL opponent in any game (pre-season, regular season or postseason), topping the mark set on Oct. 7, 1945, in a 57-21 win over Detroit.

► Green Bay's 59-point total was the most by any team in a pre-season game since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970.

► Of the Packers' three highest point totals in the preseason since 1979, all of them have come during McCarthy's head-coaching tenure. In 2009, Green Bay won at Arizona, 44-37, and in 2007, the Packers topped Seattle, 48-13.

WITH THE CALL

The Green Bay Packers Broadcast Partners will air the game over a 10-station network throughout the state of Wisconsin, Upper Michigan, Northeastern Minnesota, and the Quad Cities in Iowa, with CBS network production, personnel and the latest network-quality technology.

► The top-notch broadcast team includes CBS's Kevin Harlan (play-by-play) alongside fellow CBS broadcaster Rich Gannon (analyst).

► WTMJ's Jessie Garcia serves as the sideline reporter and WFRV's Larry McCarren joins the crew for pre-game segments. In addition to WFRV-TV (Green Bay) and WTMJ-TV (Milwaukee), the games are televised over WKOW/ABC, Madison, Wis.; WAOW/ABC, Wausau/Rhineland, Wis.; WXOW/ABC, La Crosse, Wis.; WQOW/ABC, Eau Claire; WYOW/ABC, Eagle River, Wis.; WJMN/CBS, Marquette, Mich.; and KQDS-TV/FOX, Duluth, Minn.; and KGCW/CW, Quad Cities in Iowa.

► Milwaukee's WTMJ (620 AM), airing Green Bay games since 1929, heads up the 53-station Packers Radio Network, with Wayne Larrivee (play-by-play) and two-time Packers Pro Bowler Larry McCarren (color) calling the action. The duo enters its 12th season of broadcasts together across the Packers Radio Network, which covers 43 markets in five states.

THIS WEEK IN PACKERS NEWS

OFFENSE ON A ROLL

Last year during the preseason, Green Bay's No. 1 offense put together a string of impressive performances that it carried over into the regular season. Three games into this preseason, the offense appears to be building momentum once again.

- ▶ In a little more than four quarters of work this preseason, the No. 1 offense has scored seven touchdowns, with all seven of those drives 70 or more yards in length.
- ▶ The first offensive unit has put together several long scoring drives, but it hasn't taken them much time to find the end zone. Of the seven touchdown drives, four of them have been three minutes or less. Green Bay's No. 1 offense has an average drive time of just 3:41 on their seven touchdowns.
- ▶ Leading the way has been QB Aaron Rodgers, who ranks No. 1 in the NFL during the preseason with a 141.2 passer rating. Rodgers has completed 41-of-53 passes (77.4 percent) for 470 yards and a league-leading six TDs with no INTs.
- ▶ Rodgers' performance in the first three contests mirrors what he did during the 2009 preseason, when he posted a 147.9 passer rating on 29-of-41 passing (70.7 percent) for 465 yards and six TDs with no INTs. The No. 1 offense scored nine TDs and a FG on 13 possessions during the '09 preseason.
- ▶ Over the last two preseasons, Rodgers has connected on 70-of-94 attempts (74.5 percent) for 935 yards, 12 TDs and no INTs for a 145.2 passer rating.
- ▶ Rodgers' favorite target thus far in the preseason has been third-year TE Jermichael Finley, who leads the team and is tied for second in the NFL with 12 receptions for 163 yards (13.6 avg.) and two TDs. Finley caught six passes for 85 yards (14.2 avg.) and a TD in just a half of work against Indianapolis on Thursday night.
- ▶ Credit must be given to the Packers' offensive line, as it has yet to allow a sack of Rodgers through the first three preseason games. The No. 1 line didn't yield a single sack in the 2009 preseason on Rodgers' 41 attempts.
- ▶ Green Bay's offense as a whole has been productive this preseason, ranking second in the league at 397.0 yards per game with an average of 272.7 yards passing per contest, also second in the NFL. The Packers lead the league with 84 first downs and 110 points in the preseason.

LOOKING FOR CONTINUITY

While the offense can credit some of its preseason success to the stability in the starting lineup each week, it has been a different story for Green Bay's defense thus far this preseason.

- ▶ Of the 11 starters on the season-opening depth chart, only six have played in each of the preseason games. Add in veteran CB Al Harris and S Atari Bigby, who have spent training camp on the physically unable to perform list as they work their way back from injuries, and it makes for a tough evaluation of where last year's No. 2-ranked defense is at.
- ▶ "Defensively, we haven't played the game with everybody on the field yet so the continuity is probably not where we'd like it to be right now," Head Coach Mike McCarthy said following the Indianapolis game. "And that's something that we're probably going to have to establish in our practice structure leading up to the Philadelphia game."
- ▶ "The injuries have kind of kept us from getting the continuity that you would like. It's a challenge that you face at some point almost every season, so I think that's where we stand defensively right now."
- ▶ One area that has remained a constant from last year is the Packers' stout run defense, with Green Bay allowing their opponents an average of just 80.3 yards per game on the ground in the preseason.

- ▶ The defense has held each opponent to under 100 yards rushing, and has allowed only one running back to post a 15-plus yard run this preseason. That came on the opening play from scrimmage in the Indianapolis game when RB Joseph Addai broke off a 49-yard gain, but after that, the No. 1 defense allowed just 10 yards on eight carries the rest of the half.

YOUTH IS SERVED

One bright spot to all of the injuries on the defensive side of the ball during camp has been the opportunities they have provided for some younger players on the roster, highlighted by a pair of non-drafted rookies.

- ▶ OLB Frank Zombo, who is making the transition to the position after playing defensive end at Central Michigan, leads the team with 15 tackles and two sacks during the preseason.
- ▶ With Pro Bowl OLB Clay Matthews and second-year man Brad Jones both nursing injuries, Zombo started at ROLB against the Colts on Thursday night and made the most of his reps.

On Indianapolis' opening drive of the second half with the Colts' No. 1 offense still in the game, Zombo spun away from the block of RT Ryan Diem to register a sack/forced fumble of Pro Bowl QB Peyton Manning from behind.

First-year LB Robert Francois scooped up the fumble and returned it 35 yards down to the Colts' 2 to set up a Matt Flynn TD pass to FB John Kuhn on the next play.

Zombo finished the game with a team-high nine tackles (five solo).

CB Sam Shields, a non-drafted free agent out of Miami who made the transition from WR to CB as a senior, leads the team with two interceptions and five passes defended during the preseason. The two INTs tie Shields for No. 2 in the league.

- ▶ Shields has posted an interception in back-to-back games, including a pick late in the fourth quarter at Seattle on a pass from QB Charlie Whitehurst that deflected off TE Anthony McCoy to seal the Packers' 27-24 victory.
- ▶ With veteran CB Al Harris' status uncertain for the regular-season opener, Shields has entered the competition at nickel back with second-year CB Brandon Underwood and third-year man Pat Lee. Shields got some reps with the No. 1 defense in the first half on Thursday night against Indianapolis, and finished with a team-high three passes defended. He made an athletic play to post another interception late in the fourth quarter, reaching high to come up with a QB Curtis Painter pass near the sideline.
- ▶ Another one-time non-drafted free agent made an impact against Indianapolis, with first-year WR Jason Chery scoring on a 75-yard punt return in the fourth quarter. Chery, who entered the league with Carolina in 2009 after going undrafted out of Louisiana-Lafayette, signed with the Packers during the first week of training camp. He became the first Packer to return a punt for a touchdown in a preseason game since Desmond Howard posted a 77-yarder for a score vs. Pittsburgh on Aug. 11, 1996.

THE PACKERS-CHIEFS SERIES

- ▶ The first meeting between the two clubs was undoubtedly the most memorable game in the series. In January 1967, NFL champion Green Bay met AFL champion Kansas City in the first-ever Super Bowl, won by the Packers, 35-10.
- ▶ Kansas City has had the upper hand in the series ever since. In fact, the Chiefs have the third-highest winning percentage against the Packers (6-2-1, .722) among all NFL teams. Only the Jets (8-2, .800) and Dolphins (9-3, .750) have better records vs. Green Bay.
- ▶ When the Packers traveled to Kansas City in 2007, it was their first trip to that city since 1996, and they broke a five-game losing streak to the Chiefs by winning 33-22.
- ▶ Green Bay's only other victory in the regular-season series came in 1987, a 23-3 win in Kansas City.

- ▶ The Packers trailed 22-16 in the fourth quarter when Brett Favre hit Greg Jennings for a 60-yard TD with 3:05 left. It was Jennings' second TD of the game on just three receptions (for 85 yards).
- ▶ Mason Crosby's fourth FG of the game and Charles Woodson's INT return for a TD, with 59 seconds left, finished off the scoring.
- ▶ Kansas City TE Tony Gonzalez had 10 catches for 109 yards, including a 17-yard TD with 5:18 left that put the Chiefs ahead.
- ▶ The Packers outgained the Chiefs by a wide margin, 432-234, as Jennings, WR Donald Driver (5-99) and TE Donald Lee (4-78) accounted for most of Favre's 360 passing yards.

LAST MEETING, PRESEASON

Aug. 4, 2003, in Canton, Ohio; Chiefs won, 9-0

- ▶ In the annual Hall of Fame game, severe rain and lightning led to the contest being called with 5:49 left in the third quarter. The Packers and Chiefs were the participants in the game because former Green Bay WR James Lofton and former Kansas City head coach Hank Stram were being inducted into the Hall of Fame.
- ▶ The Packers managed just five first downs and 125 yards of offense. Kansas City kicked a field goal in each of the first three quarters.
- ▶ Green Bay's defense recorded four sacks, including three by LB Marcus Wilkins. Kansas City's defense intercepted Packers QB Craig Nall twice.

PRESEASON GAME NO. 3 - PACKERS 59, COLTS 24

ALL THREE PHASES CONTRIBUTE IN WIN

Green Bay got two touchdowns from its special-teams units, three take-aways from the defense, and another stellar performance from quarterback Aaron Rodgers and the No. 1 offense in the Packers' 59-24 win over the defending AFC champion Indianapolis Colts on Thursday night at Lambeau Field.

- ▶ Facing the most potent offense it will see this preseason, Green Bay's defense got off to a slow start as running back Joseph Addai bounced a run out down the sideline for a 49-yard gain on the Colts' very first play from scrimmage. Before the defense could regain its bearings, Pro Bowl quarterback Peyton Manning lined his offense up quickly without a huddle, and found wide receiver Pierre Garcon in the corner of the end zone for an 18-yard touchdown.
- ▶ "We had our gap control at the beginning of that play, and then we got a little overzealous and he bounced back out," said linebacker Nick Barnett of a defense that allowed just 10 yards on eight carries the rest of the half. "All we did was clean it up and execute our responsibilities. We're a good run defense if we do what we are supposed to, and we started to do what we are supposed to after that."

- ▶ The Packers' offense answered right back, courtesy of a five-play, 70-yard TD drive, with the biggest gain coming on a 48-yard pass interference penalty on cornerback Kelvin Hayden as he covered wideout James Jones down the right sideline. After the penalty put the ball at the Indianapolis 6, Rodgers hooked up with wide receiver Donald Driver (five catches for 35 yards) on a nice back-shoulder throw that the veteran wideout hauled in with his right hand.
- ▶ After Green Bay's offense went three-and-out and saw another drive end when Rodgers was stopped for no gain on a sneak up the middle on fourth-and-1 at the Colts' 22, Manning quickly led the Colts down the field, moving 78 yards on six plays in just over two minutes. The savvy veteran, who finished with 214 yards and two TDs on 15-of-26 passing, found Garcon over the middle for a 24-yard pickup against rookie corner Sam Shields, and then scrambled up in the pocket to complete a short pass to Addai that picked up 33 yards. Two plays later, wide receiver Reggie Wayne got inside cornerback Tramon Williams for a 10-yard score and a 17-7 Colts lead.
- ▶ The Packers' offense responded with another efficient drive, this time going 76 yards on 10 plays as Rodgers completed passes to five different players. Rodgers found tight end Jermichael Finley over the middle for 15 yards and picked up 11 yards on a well-executed screen to Brandon Jackson, before capping the drive off with a 15-yard TD pass to Finley in the corner of the end zone. Rodgers absorbed a big hit on the throw as Finley got behind linebacker Philip Wheeler for the score to trim the Colts' lead to 17-14.
- ▶ With just over 3:30 remaining, a Packers drive stalled at the Green Bay 47, but returner Brandon James muffed a hanging punt from Tim Masthay at the Indianapolis 8. The ball caromed into the end zone, where fullback Corey Hall recovered for a touchdown and a 21-17 lead.
- ▶ The Packers appeared poised to add to their lead just a few plays later after rookie safety Morgan Burnett jumped a pass in the flat to Garcon at the Colts' 29, and returned the pick 11 yards down to the 18. After Rodgers found Driver for 10 yards on first down, Green Bay gave the ball right back when linebacker Clint Session forced a Jackson fumble at the Indianapolis 6, which defensive tackle Fili Moala recovered. It was the second fumble of the night for the backfield, with Ryan Grant's earlier in the second quarter recovered by center Scott Wells.
- ▶ Manning found Wayne down the left sideline for a 36-yard gain on first down, but then the Colts offense stalled as cornerback Charles Woodson made a nice tackle on a bubble screen to Wayne on third down to force an Indianapolis punt. On the eight possessions for the Indianapolis' first offensive unit, Green Bay's defense allowed 17 points.

- ▶ The Packers offense took over at its own 22, but Rodgers went to work right away as he spread the ball around once again, completing passes to four different receivers. Finley, who led the offense with six receptions for 85 yards in a half of work, carried the bulk of the load, with the most crucial play being a 25-yard catch over the middle to the Indianapolis 29 that Rodgers placed perfectly between safeties Antoine Bethea and Melvin Bullitt.
- ▶ With seven seconds left and no timeouts, Rodgers completed another back-shoulder throw for a TD, this time to Jones (four catches for 30 yards) to put the Packers up 28-17 at the break. It was a strong finish to a half that, despite the 28 points, left Rodgers feeling unsatisfied.
- ▶ "I just didn't like our rhythm tonight," Rodgers said. "A lot of times a penalty like the pass interference we had is good for your team, but it kind of throws off your rhythm a little bit because we only gained 22 yards on the first drive and scored a touchdown. After that, we kind of just sputtered a little bit but the defense did a nice job of getting us the ball back and the two-minute drill was big for us confidence-wise, just to kind of put a stamp on the first half."

▶ Rodgers finished the night with 195 yards and three TDs on 21-of-29 passing for a 124.9 passer rating. Through three preseason contests, he has completed 41-of-53 passes (77.4 percent) for 470 yards, six touchdowns, and no interceptions for a 141.2 rating. The No. 1 line has yet to allow a sack of Rodgers, and the first unit has now posted five 70-plus-yard touchdown drives over the last two

- preseason games in just three quarters of work.
- ▶ "It starts up front; we haven't been sacked in the preseason," Rodgers said. "You've got to give those guys a lot of credit when I have that kind of time against a tough front four with [Dwight] Freeney and [Robert] Mathis pretty much playing the entire time we were in there. You've got to be real happy about that."
- ▶ "We look at the 21 we scored on offense, and to be honest with you, I think we left some points out there with the turnover that we had and with going three-and-out, which is uncharacteristic of what we've done this preseason. But I like what we did, I like the progress we've made."
- ▶ The No. 1 offense called it a night after the half of work, with the Colts leaving their first offensive group in for one more series in the second half. On third down at the Colts' 37 on Indianapolis' opening drive, rookie linebacker Frank Zombo posted a sack/forced fumble of Manning, and first-year linebacker Robert Francois scooped up the ball and returned it down to the Indianapolis 2 to set up a Matt Flynn TD pass to fullback John Kuhn, one of two touchdown passes on the night for Flynn.
- ▶ No. 3 quarterback Graham Harrell led the offense on a long scoring drive of his own, a 13-play, 90-yarder midway through the fourth quarter, and first-year wide receiver Jason Chery put the finishing touches on the victory with a 75-yard punt return for a touchdown late in the fourth quarter.

GAME NOTES

- ▶ Sitting out for the Packers were receiver Brett Swain (knee), linebackers Clay Matthews (hamstring) and Brad Jones (shoulder), offensive line-men Bryan Bulaga (hip flexor) and Allen Barbre (back), defensive end Cullen Jenkins (calf), receiver Greg Jennings (back), and the three PUP players – safety Atari Bigby (ankle), cornerback Al Harris (knee) and running back James Starks (hamstring).

2010 TRAINING CAMP

LOTS OF FAMILIAR FACES

General Manager Ted Thompson continued his philosophy of building through the draft in the 2010 offseason, so much of the Packers' core remains intact.

- ▶ Thompson moved to keep that core together this offseason, re-signing veterans Chad Clifton, Nick Collins, Ryan Pickett and Mark Tauscher to contract extensions.
- ▶ Clifton and Tauscher have been mainstays on the offensive line since 2000, while Collins and Pickett were two integral parts of the new 3-4 defense in 2009.
- ▶ The return of those four players means 20 of 22 starters return from a team that made its second postseason berth in three seasons.
- ▶ Leaving in free agency was Aaron Kampman, one of the most productive pass rushers in team history. Having made the switch to outside linebacker last summer, Kampman tore his ACL on Nov. 22, which put rookie Brad Jones into the lineup.
- ▶ Jones went on to start eight games including playoffs, so some may view him as a 21st returning starter.
- ▶ The team will be without defensive end Johnny Jolly, who was suspended indefinitely by the NFL for violating the NFL Policy and Program for Substances of Abuse. Jolly's suspension began immediately in July and will continue through at least the 2010 season. He will be eligible to apply for reinstatement following Super Bowl XLV.
- ▶ That continuity extends to the coaching staff, where the same group returns for 2010. There are some slight changes however, as Chad Morton will serve as special teams assistant while Curtis Fuller serves as coaching administrator.
- ▶ Also, Mark Lovat, beginning his 12th season with the Packers, takes over as strength and conditioning coordinator. Dave Redding and Thadeus Jackson will serve as assistants in the weight room.

MEET THE DRAFT PICKS

Training camp storylines always hover around new players and just how they figure into the depth chart. This summer, eyes will be on the seven new draft picks added to the club this past April.

- ▶ First-round pick Bryan Bulaga, the Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year in 2009, is viewed as the potential heir to veteran Chad Clifton as Aaron Rodgers' blind-side protector and has also seen time at left guard. He started 23 games at left tackle over his final two seasons and was an early-entry candidate into the 2010 NFL Draft.
- ▶ The Packers stayed in the Big Ten in Round 2 by selecting Purdue defensive tackle Mike Neal. A four-year letterman and two-year starter, he played in 46 career games (23 starts) and earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors from the media as a senior. Neal will make the shift to defensive end in the Packers' 3-4 scheme.
- ▶ Third-round choice Morgan Burnett was another early-entry candidate and displayed his playmaking skills at safety in his three seasons at Georgia Tech. In 40 career games, including 28 starts, Burnett intercepted 14 passes, tied for second most in school history. He was elected team captain as a junior and led the team in interceptions each of his three seasons.
- ▶ In the fifth round the Packers again went back to the Big Ten and drafted Penn State tight end Andrew Quarless. He appeared in 49 career games, including 29 starts, and finished his career as the Nittany Lions' all-time leader in receptions by a tight end (87) and second in receiving yards by a tight end (1,146).
- ▶ Also in the fifth round the Packers drafted offensive lineman Marshall Newhouse from Texas Christian. He was a three-year starter at left tackle and appeared in 52 career games, including 38 starts. A first-team All-Mountain West Conference selection as a senior, Newhouse has seen action at tackle and guard on the left side.
- ▶ Running back James Starks came to Green Bay in the sixth round. Starks became the University at Buffalo's all-time leading rusher in just three seasons and holds school records for rushing touchdowns (34) and points scored (222). He missed all of 2009 with a shoulder injury and has been sidelined during camp thus far with a hamstring injury.
- ▶ The Packers selected C.J. Wilson from East Carolina in the seventh round. A three-year starter at defensive end, he tallied 192 tackles, including 45½ for loss, and 27 sacks. He earned first-team All-Conference USA honors each of his final two seasons.
- ▶ In addition to the seven draft picks, one must also pay close attention to the non-drafted free agents, as at least one seems to make the team each year. Members of the Packers who entered the NFL via the free-agent route include S Atari Bigby, RB Ryan Grant, TE Spencer Havner, DE Cullen Jenkins and CB Tramon Williams.

REST AND RECOVERY

In today's NFL, training camp is no longer a time to get in shape and learn new wrinkles in the playbook.

- ▶ Most of the roster was back for the offseason program, which began on March 15 and ran through the mandatory, three-day minicamp at the end of June. Beginning with dedicated workout sessions under the close watch of the strength and conditioning staff, activities returned to the playing field later in the spring during OTAs.
- ▶ With that offseason work in mind, Head Coach Mike McCarthy scheduled his camp with three Wednesdays off to help the players recuperate from the grind of training camp.
- ▶ Much like the regular season, players have not practiced the day after preseason games or after the Family Night scrimmage. The Packers also received three Wednesdays off during camp.
- ▶ On those Wednesdays the team gathered in the morning for weight lifting, film review and team meetings before having the afternoon and evening off. Each off day was followed by two practices in one day, including the final "two-a-day" of training camp on Aug. 19.

2010 TRAINING CAMP

A LOOK AT THE SCHEDULE

The Green Bay Packers' 90th NFL regular-season schedule – headlined by six nationally televised games – was released in late April.

- ▶ Though the 2010 opponents have been known since the end of last season, the arrival of the complete NFL schedule is a day circled on the calendar of all football fans.
- ▶ Green Bay will open the 2010 slate on the road at Philadelphia before kicking off the home schedule with the Buffalo Bills in Week 2.
- ▶ Its first prime-time appearance – against the rival Bears in Chicago on Monday Night Football – will come in Week 3. The NFL's oldest rivalry will be on display in prime time for a fifth straight season, with this first meeting of the year marking game No. 180 in the all-time series.
- ▶ 2010 marks the 18th consecutive season the Packers have appeared on Monday Night Football, the NFC's longest streak.
- ▶ Three games are slated for Sunday night on NBC, including home games against the Minnesota Vikings (Week 7) and Dallas Cowboys (Week 9). In Week 15, the Packers are scheduled to take on the Patriots on Sunday night in Foxborough, though the game is subject to the NFL's flex scheduling.
- ▶ The Packers will get their first look at the new stadium in New Jersey in Week 8 against the Jets, where they may experience some cool fall temperatures. While games at Lambeau Field later in the season always provide a home-field advantage for the Packers, the 2010 schedule is nearly void of cold-weather road games. After the Jets, three consecutive road contests will be played in domes (Minnesota, Atlanta, Detroit).
- ▶ That's good news for a Green Bay offense that seems to thrive in domes. Including playoffs, the Packers played in a dome five times last season, exceeding 400 total net yards in four of those games.
- ▶ A number of games on the Packers' 2010 schedule – namely those on national TV – are beginning to have a familiar feel. In addition to taking on the Bears for a fifth consecutive year in prime time, Green Bay will take on Minnesota in prime time for a third straight season. The Packers and Cowboys will meet on national TV for the fourth straight season.
- ▶ The schedule concludes with two home games for the first time since 2005. One of the NFL's best teams in regular-season games played in December and January, Green Bay may need to call upon that previous success for what could prove to be two very important contests surrounding the Christmas and New Year's holidays. Games against the Giants (Week 16) and Bears (Week 17) could determine not only the NFC North Division crown but conference playoff seeding.

2010 SCHEDULE NUGGETS

Green Bay's bye week comes in Week 10, the latest possible week for NFL teams. It marks the latest time in which the Packers have had a bye in franchise history, besting the Week 9 bye in 2004. The Packers will play nine games before the bye and seven after the open date.

- ▶ Three of four games before the bye come at Lambeau Field, while four of five games after the bye are road contests.
- ▶ Immediately following the bye comes an important division game against Minnesota, the first of three straight road games played in domes. Under McCarthy, the team has won three of four games after the bye week and 10 of its last 14 after the bye dating back further.
- ▶ Green Bay has always been a successful team after the bye and 2009 was no different, as the team compiled a 9-3 (.750) mark after the bye week. Since 2000, the team is 61-36 (.629) overall after the bye.
- ▶ Fifteen games are slated for Sunday, the most since 1993 (also 15).
- ▶ Seven of the final eight games are against NFC opponents.
- ▶ The Packers have six games on the schedule against 2009 playoff teams, beginning right away in Week 1 at Philadelphia. Beginning in Week 7 vs. Minnesota, Green Bay has a stretch of four straight games against playoff teams from a year ago. The team will travel east to take on the Jets in Week 8 and host the Cowboys in Week 9 before the bye. The stretch concludes in Minnesota in Week 11.
- ▶ The NFL's oldest rivalry will see a first in 2010. For the first time in series history, Green Bay will host Chicago in the regular-season finale, set to be game No. 181 between the Packers and Bears.

THE LAMBEAU ADVANTAGE

The crown jewel of the National Football League, Lambeau Field has long been known as one of the tougher venues to play in, particularly during the harsh Wisconsin winter.

- ▶ Re-establishing home-field advantage after a 4-4 mark in 2008 was one of the goals of 2009, and with the Packers finishing at 6-2 at home, they accomplished that goal.
- ▶ Head Coach Mike McCarthy stated consistently upon his arrival in Green Bay that one of the team's goals would be to reclaim the mystique of playing at Lambeau Field. Mission accomplished. The team is 19-7 at home since 2007, a marked improvement over the prior three seasons (10-14 combined).
- ▶ Since Ron Wolf and Mike Holmgren began the revitalization of the franchise in 1992, Green Bay owns the best home record in the NFL. A look at the top home W-L records since the '92 season:

Team	W-L record	Pct.
Green Bay	107-37-0	.743
Pittsburgh	104-39-1	.726
Denver	103-41-0	.715
Minnesota	100-44-0	.694
Dallas	97-47-0	.674

285 AND COUNTING

Another packed house at Lambeau Field against the Seahawks in the regular-season home finale brought the stadium's consecutive sellouts streak to 285 games (269 regular season, 16 playoffs).

- ▶ The league's longest-tenured stadium, Lambeau Field will host its 54th season of football this year. A total of 565,666 fans made their way through the turnstiles in the eight home contests in 2009.
- ▶ Across American professional sports, only Boston's Fenway Park (1912) and Chicago's Wrigley Field (1914) have longer tenures.

POSITION-BY-POSITION

BY THE NUMBERS

Nothing attracts more attention during training camp, both from fans and media, than positional battles. Here's a look at the Packers' current roster. Just a quick note – the first number is the number of players at that position currently on the roster, while the second is the number at the position during Week 1 last season.

Quarterback – 3 (2)

► In his first two years under center in Green Bay, Aaron Rodgers proved he was tough, durable and accurate. Now, after throwing for 4,434 yards and 30 touchdowns, he is considered among the game's best young players regardless of position. Still only 26 years old, the sky is the limit for Rodgers in his sixth NFL season.

► Behind Rodgers is third-year signal caller Matt Flynn, who saw his most extensive game action in 2009. Flynn has served as the No. 2 quarterback in each of his first two NFL seasons and will look to impress in preseason action after an injury kept him out of most game action last summer.

► Also at the position is first-year player Graham Harrell, who set numerous NCAA records including career TD passes and completions while at Texas Tech (2005-08).

Running back – 5 (3)

► Ryan Grant, one of only three players in team annals to post back-to-back 1,200-yard seasons, again serves as the lead back. He established career highs in rushing yards, rushing TDs and receiving yards in '09.

► Behind Grant is fourth-year pro Brandon Jackson. A capable backup, Jackson excelled on third down last season both in the screen game and in pass protection.

► The team has traditionally kept three running backs, so the trio of Kregg Lumpkin, Quinn Porter and James Starks will be a group to watch in August. Lumpkin made the 53-man roster in 2008 and spent last season on the practice squad.

► Starks and Porter serve as the newcomers to the group. A sixth-round draft pick in April, Starks became the University at Buffalo's all-time leader in rushing yards, rushing TDs and points scored in just three seasons. He missed all of 2009 due to a shoulder injury and has been sidelined during camp thus far due to a hamstring injury. Porter, a non-drafted free agent from Stillman College (Tuscaloosa, Ala.), could also get a chance to impress on punt and kickoff return.

Fullback – 3 (3)

► Last year the team kept three fullbacks, and all three return in 2010. Certainly this will be among the positions most watched when it comes down to the 53-man roster cutdown.

► Both Korey Hall and John Kuhn have extensive experience over the past three seasons. While both have made contributions on offense, they have served as standouts on the special teams coverage units.

► Quinn Johnson saw action in nine games as a rookie in 2009, and at 263 pounds, can bring a physical presence to the position.

► Special teams may be the ultimate factor at fullback. If each of the three can prove to be among the most indispensable on the cover and return units, it's clear the team is comfortable with keeping three on the roster.

Wide receiver – 9 (5)

► Veterans Donald Driver and Greg Jennings form a dangerous 1-2 combination on the outside. Jennings has topped the 1,000-yard mark each of the last two seasons, while Driver has topped the mark for six straight years and seven of the last eight.

► James Jones and Jordy Nelson both enjoyed solid campaigns in 2009 and help form great depth at the position. With so many multi-wideout formations, and an offense that puts up prolific numbers through the air, both players will have ample opportunities to produce.

► Brett Swain showed terrific skills on special teams before a knee injury ended his '09 season, and Patrick Williams spent four weeks on the active roster to end the year. Jason Chery, Charles Dillon and Chastin West will all look to make their mark in their first training camp in Green Bay.

Tight end – 5 (3)

► Tight end serves as one of the deepest positions on the team, which has to please Head Coach Mike McCarthy, who often uses multiple tight end sets in the offensive scheme.

► Jermichael Finley won't sneak up on anyone this season as he has emerged as one of the bright young talents at his position. Blessed with rare size and speed, he is coming off a breakout season in 2009, including a franchise playoff-record 159 yards receiving in the Wild Card playoff.

► Veteran Donald Lee has recorded at least 35 receptions for three straight seasons and is a reliable target for Rodgers. Few 2009 storylines were better than the emergence of Spencer Havner, a converted linebacker and special-teams ace who caught four touchdowns.

► Andrew Quarless, a fifth-round draft choice this past April from Penn State, brings another big-bodied athlete to the group, while Tom Crabtree returns after finishing the year on the team's practice squad.

Offensive line – 14 (9)

► All five starters from a year ago return, but that doesn't mean there won't be competition along the line.

► Veterans Chad Clifton and Mark Tauscher both re-signed this off-season. The duo has held down the tackle spots since 2000. First-round pick Bryan Bulaga will get to learn from Clifton at left tackle while also seeing time at left guard. Second-year man T.J. Lang will get a look at right tackle as well as inside. Breno Giacomini also will be in the mix at right tackle.

► Many eyes will be focused on the battle inside, where a number of players with starting experience are in competition. Josh Sitton is an emerging player at right guard, where he started all 16 games in 2009. Jason Spitz returns from a back injury that sidelined him for nearly all of 2009 and could compete with veterans Daryn Colledge (left guard) and Scott Wells (center) for a spot in the lineup.

► Also competing along the inside are fourth-year man Allen Barbre, second-year pro Evan Dietrich-Smith and fifth-round draft choice Marshall Newhouse. Rookie free agents Chris Campbell (tackle) and Nick McDonald (guard) will also look to compete for a roster spot.

POSITION-BY-POSITION

Defensive end – 7 (4)

- ▶ One of the more intriguing position groups in training camp, the defensive end group will be led by veterans Cullen Jenkins and Ryan Pickett. Jenkins started all 16 games last season in the new defense, finished second on the club with 4.5 sacks, and provided stellar run support that helped the Packers finish No. 1 against the run. Pickett, a nose tackle last year, made the switch to end this offseason. No matter where he has played, be it a 4-3 defensive tackle or 3-4 nose, Pickett has excelled as a space eater and run stopper. Given his experience at the nose position last year, he can also play inside if needed.
- ▶ Justin Harrell and Jarius Wynn have a chance to be in the rotation. Wynn saw action in 11 games as a rookie in 2009, while Harrell missed all of last season with a back injury. Also, Ronald Talley, who spent last year on the practice squad, will be in the mix.
- ▶ Two players who have the chance to make an early impact at end are rookie draft picks Mike Neal (second round) and C.J. Wilson (seventh round). Neal was a two-year starter at defensive tackle for Purdue, while Wilson earned first-team all-conference accolades his final two seasons at East Carolina. How quickly each grasps a new position and the playbook will determine his ability to make an early impact.

Nose tackle – 2 (2)

- ▶ The Packers kept only first-round pick B.J. Raji and Pickett last season, so those trying to figure out where the Packers go with the 53-man roster will be paying close attention to this position.
- ▶ Raji enters camp as the starter after flashing as a rookie a year ago. While injuries slowed his performance out of the gate, he became a solid contributor along the line toward the end of the season, showing his potential in both run and pass defense. Most of his first season was spent at either end position or as a down lineman in the nickel package, but he was repped extensively at the nose this offseason.
- ▶ Anthony Toribio has spent time on the team's practice squad each of the last two seasons and is familiar with the scheme.

Linebacker – 12 (9)

- ▶ This position undergoes far less transition than it did one year ago. Last season, the team kept nine linebackers, five of whom played outside and four of whom were in the middle.
- ▶ All four of those inside linebackers return and make up what could be argued is the deepest position on the team. Nick Barnett, Desmond Bishop, Brandon Chillar and A.J. Hawk all saw significant playing time in both base and sub packages. Barnett and Hawk served as the two in base, while defensive coordinator Dom Capers came up with packages such as 'Big Okie' and 'Psycho' to get Bishop and Chillar on the field.
- ▶ On the outside, the team will depend upon a couple of second-year pros in Brad Jones and Clay Matthews, and Chillar has also seen time on the outside in the opening weeks of camp. Matthews surpassed expectations in collecting his first Pro Bowl appearance and a double-digit sack season, but the emergence of Jones should not be overlooked. Forced into the lineup because of injuries, he collected four sacks over the final five regular-season games and remained a contributor on special teams.
- ▶ Rookie free agent Alex Joseph (Temple) and first-year players Robert Francois and Maurice Simpkins will look to make their mark at one of the inside linebacker spots, while a group led by veteran Brady Poppinga will compete for time at outside linebacker.
- ▶ Second-year man Cyril Obiozor spent the entire season with the club last year, first on the practice squad and then on the active roster for the final five regular-season games and an appearance in the playoffs. Non-drafted free agent Frank Zombo (Central Michigan) also has an opportunity to make an impression on the outside.

Cornerback – 8 (6)

- ▶ All Charles Woodson did last season was have one of the most dominating seasons ever at his position, justly taking home NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors to become the first cornerback to do so since Deion Sanders in 1994.
- ▶ Used a number of different ways by Capers because of his intelligence and innate abilities, the Packers will look for Woodson to continue to cause havoc all over the field.
- ▶ Woodson's partner at the position, Al Harris, is coming off ACL surgery after suffering the injury Nov. 22. Though he has been held out of drills to this point in camp, it would be unwise to count out Harris, a player who overcame long odds before ascending to a Pro Bowl level.
- ▶ Tramon Williams has continued to get better, and the fourth-year pro will be counted on heavily as Harris returns to action. He has ample experience, with 48 games and 20 starts already under his belt.
- ▶ Pat Lee and Brandon Underwood are two players who will be watched closely during camp. Lee, a second-round pick in 2008, has been limited to five games in two seasons after dealing with injuries, while Underwood played in 11 games last season as a rookie. Both could work their way into the nickel and dime defense with a good camp.
- ▶ Jarrett Bush remains one of the team's best special teams players and saw extended action from scrimmage last season. Young players D.J. Clark and Sam Shields also will get an opportunity in their first training camp in Green Bay.

Safety – 7 (4)

- ▶ Securing back-to-back Pro Bowl berths has solidified Nick Collins' status as one of the game's best at his position. Opposite Collins, however, will be where most of the focus is in the back end.
- ▶ Atari Bigby notched 11 starts in '09, but has been sidelined during training camp due to an ankle injury that required surgery on Aug. 6. Bigby's absence has given the coaches a look at third-round pick Morgan Burnett, an early-entry candidate who led Georgia Tech in interceptions each of his three seasons.
- ▶ Adding to the intrigue at the position are candidates such as Will Blackmon, the team's primary return man who is making the switch from corner and is coming off ACL surgery, and Derrick Martin, one of the club's finest special teams players. Veteran Charlie Peprah and rookie free agent Anthony Levine will be in contention for a backup spot as well.

Specialists – 4 (3)

- ▶ Though no specialist job in the NFL could ever be deemed secure, kicker Mason Crosby and long snapper Brett Goode are the only players at their respective positions on the roster. Solid performances in camp and in preseason action should earn each a roster spot.
- ▶ The team knows it will have a new punter in 2010, as Chris Bryan and Tim Masthay are competing this month for those duties. Masthay spent last summer with the Indianapolis Colts, while Bryan, a former Australian rules football player, is seeing his first game action.

COACH LOCATIONS

- ▶ Coaches' Box: Dom Capers (defensive coordinator), Jerry Fontenot (asst. offensive line), Scott McCurley (defensive quality control), Curtis Fuller (administrator), Joe Philbin (offensive coordinator), John Rushing (offensive quality control), and Joe Whitt Jr. (secondary - cornerbacks).

PACKERS STARTERS - OFFENSE

WR Greg Jennings, 5-11, 198, 5th Year, Western Michigan

- ▶ One of just five receivers in team history to post back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons.
- ▶ Leads the NFL with 21 catches of 40-plus yards over the past three seasons, and his career 34.2-yard average per TD reception is tops among active players.
- ▶ Has caught a pass in 58 of 59 games played for the Packers (61 of 62 including playoffs).

LT Chad Clifton, 6-5, 320, 11th Year, Tennessee

- ▶ Has blocked for five of the top eight single-season rushers in team history, and has helped pave the way for a 1,000-yard rusher in eight of his 10 seasons in Green Bay.
- ▶ Has started 106 of 112 games (112 of 118 including playoffs) at LT since returning to the field in 2003 from the serious pelvic injury that ended his '02 season.
- ▶ As an unrestricted free agent, re-signed with the team in early March for an 11th season in which he could play in his 150th regular-season game with Green Bay, a mark reached by only 18 others in team history.

LG Daryn Colledge, 6-4, 308, 5th Year, Boise State

- ▶ Has shown his durability by never missing a game in the NFL or in college, a combined total of 116 games (119 including playoffs).
- ▶ Played 97.4 percent of the offensive snaps in 2009, second on the team for any player on either side of the ball behind fellow G Josh Sitton. In 2008, joined Jason Spitz as the only offensive players to play every snap.
- ▶ Named Packers' 2009 Walter Payton Man of the Year, the only league award that recognizes player off-the-field community service as well as playing excellence.

C Scott Wells, 6-2, 300, 7th Year, Tennessee

- ▶ Began 2009 season as backup at center but reclaimed starting role early due to injury reshuffling and didn't relinquish it.
- ▶ Has played in 79 games with 68 starts during his first six seasons in Green Bay, with 56 starts at center the past four seasons.
- ▶ A key blocker in Ryan Grant's back-to-back 1,200-yard rushing seasons, making Grant only the third running back in team history to accomplish that feat.

RG Josh Sitton, 6-3, 318, 3rd Year, Central Florida

- ▶ Was the only Packers offensive lineman to open every game at one position in 2009. Also played all 1,093 snaps on offense, the only player on either side of the ball to not miss a snap with his unit.
- ▶ Known best for his run blocking, was a key cog in Ryan Grant's career-best 1,253-yard season in 2009, the sixth-best single-season rushing total in franchise annals.
- ▶ Was slated to start at RG as a rookie in 2008 if not for a preseason knee injury. Went on to play in 11 games with two starts.

RT Mark Tauscher, 6-3, 320, 11th Year, Wisconsin

- ▶ Was out of football for the first half of the 2009 season after the second season-ending knee injury of his career came in the final month of '08, but re-signed Oct. 12 and went on to start eight games in '09.
- ▶ Helped solidify the line during the second half of the year, as the offense allowed only 10 sacks over the final seven games after allowing 41 in the first nine.
- ▶ Originally a seventh-round selection by the Packers in 2000, has gone on to play in 130 games with 128 starts during his career.

TE Jermichael Finley, 6-5, 247, 3rd Year, Texas

- ▶ Posted second-most catches in a single season by a Green Bay tight end (55) and fifth-most yards (676) despite missing three games with a knee injury.
- ▶ Finished season with Green Bay playoff-record 159 receiving yards in NFC Wild Card loss at Arizona, the second-most productive game by a TE in NFL postseason history behind San Diego's Kellen Winslow (166 yards, Jan. 2, 1982, vs. Miami).
- ▶ Upon returning from knee injury in Week 11, ranked third in the league among tight ends with 37 receptions, trailing only Dallas' Jason Witten (45) and Atlanta's Tony Gonzalez (39).

- ▶ Extended two team records in 2009 with his seventh 1,000-yard season and sixth straight. Indianapolis' Reggie Wayne is the only player in the NFL to have a 1,000-yard season each of the last six years (2004-09).
- ▶ Enters 2010 with a streak of 127 games with at least one reception (133 including postseason), the longest streak in franchise history.

- ▶ Became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw for 4,000 yards in each of his first two seasons as a starter.

RB Ryan Grant, 6-1, 222, 4th Year, Notre Dame

- ▶ Has topped 1,200 rushing yards in each of the last two seasons, only the third Green Bay back to do so in consecutive years (Ahman Green, 2001-03; Jim Taylor, 1961-62) and one of only four RBs in the NFL to do so in 2008-09 (Adrian Peterson, Thomas Jones, Chris Johnson).
- ▶ Since taking over as the feature back in Week 8 at Denver in 2007, has rushed for 3,385 yards, the second most in the NFL over that span behind only Peterson (3,814).

- ▶ Converted from linebacker to fullback upon arriving in Green Bay as a sixth-round pick in 2007, playing in 36 games with 20 starts over his first three seasons.
- ▶ Helped clear the way for RB Ryan Grant to post back-to-back 1,200-yard seasons, making Grant just the third back in team annals to accomplish the feat.
- ▶ Has posted 37 special teams tackles from 2007-09, third most on the team over that span.

2009 OFFENSE - TEAM NOTES

- ▶ Posted franchise-record 461 points, topping the mark of 456 set by the 1996 Super Bowl champion Packers.

- ▶ Had six different players (Driver, Jennings, J. Jones, Nelson, Finley, Havner) post 45-yard receptions, which matched the franchise record set in 1951 and 1983.

NT B.J. Raji, 6-2, 337, 2nd Year, Boston College

- ▶ Named to the Pro Football Weekly/PFWA All-Rookie team, the first Packers defensive lineman to be selected since DE Vonnie Holliday in 1998.

LOLB Clay Matthews, 6-3, 255, 2nd Year, Southern California

- ▶ Set a Packers rookie record with 10 sacks in 2009 on his way to earning Pro Bowl honors, the first Green Bay rookie to be named to the all-star game since WR James Lofton in 1978.

- ▶ One of only 10 NFL linebackers to record at least 85 tackles, two interceptions and a sack in 2009.

MLB Nick Barnett, 6-2, 236, 8th Year, Oregon State

- ▶ Ranks third in franchise annals (stat kept since 1975) with 986 career tackles, trailing only John Anderson (1,020) and Johnnie Gray (1,001).
- ▶ In 2009, led the team in tackles (122) for the fifth time in his career, a franchise record.
- ▶ Has surpassed the 120-tackle total in every season besides 2008, when he missed the final seven games with a torn ACL.

ROLB Brad Jones, 6-3, 242, 2nd Year, Colorado

- ▶ Became only the fifth Packer (since 1982) to record four sacks as a rookie.
- ▶ Was one of only six NFL rookies in 2009 to post four or more sacks, and was joined in that group by teammate Clay Matthews.

LCB Charles Woodson, 6-1, 202, 13th Year, Michigan

- ▶ Named NFL Defensive Player of the Year by The Associated Press last season, becoming only the second Packer to win the award (DE Reggie White, 1998) and the oldest defensive back to earn the honor.

SS Morgan Burnett, 6-1, 209, Rookie, Georgia Tech

- ▶ Has worked with the No. 1 defense throughout camp with incumbent starting SS Atari Bigby sidelined with an ankle injury that required surgery on Aug. 6.
- ▶ Could become only the second Packers rookie safety since Chuck Cecil in 1988 to start a regular-season opener (Nick Collins in 2005 was the other).
- ▶ A third-round pick that the Packers moved up 15 spots to select, Burnett intercepted 14 passes in just three seasons at Georgia Tech, two shy of the school's career record.

FS Nick Collins, 5-11, 207, 6th Year, Bethune-Cookman
