WEEK 6

MIAMI (2-2) AT GREEN BAY (3-2)
Sunday, Oct. 17 • Lambeau Field • Noon CDT

PACKERS RETURN HOME TO HOST DOLPHINS

Green Bay returns home this Sunday to host the Miami Dolphins in the first matchup between the teams at Lambeau Field since 2002.

- ▶ This is only the Dolphins' fifth visit to Green Bay in their team history, with the other meetings taking place in 1975, 1985, 1997 and '02. The teams also met in Milwaukee in 1994.
- ▶ The most recent meeting between the teams was in Miami on Oct. 22, 2006, a 34-24 Packers' win in Mike McCarthy's first season as head coach.
- ▶ The Dolphins hold a 9-3 advantage in the all-time series, but Green Bay has won three of the last four matchups.
- ▶ Sunday's contest starts a stretch of three home games in four weeks for the Packers before they have their bye. Green Bay enters the game with a six-game home winning streak, which matches the longest winning streak at Lambeau (2007-08) during McCarthy's tenure. It is the longest current home streak among NFC teams, and third longest in the NFL behind New England (11) and San Diego (7).
- ▶ McCarthy, who is also the offensive play-caller, will be facing an opposing coach he worked under for the second straight week. Mike Nolan, who was the head coach of San Francisco in 2005 when McCarthy served as the offensive coordinator there, is Miami's defensive coordinator. Last Sunday, Green Bay played at Washington, where Jim Haslett is the defensive coordinator. Haslett was the head coach in New Orleans for each of McCarthy's five seasons there (2000-04) as offensive coordinator.
- ▶ Last Sunday, the Packers lost at Washington in overtime, 16-13, while Miami had its bye. Green Bay will host the division-rival Minnesota Vikings next Sunday at 7:20 p.m. (CDT) in a nationally televised contest, while the Dolphins will return home to host the Pittsburgh Steelers next Sunday at noon (CDT).

THE MEDICAL REPORT

Every team in the league has to deal with injuries at some point in the season, and the Packers have already had to deal with a season's worth in just the opening five weeks.

- ▶ On Sunday at Washington, the Packers were without six players who started on opening day at Philadelphia on Sept. 12. Four of those were on the defensive side of the ball, with S Morgan Burnett (knee/IR), LB Nick Barnett (wrist), nickel LB Brandon Chillar (shoulder), and nickel CB Sam Shields (calf) sidelined against the Redskins. On offense, RB Ryan Grant (ankle/IR) and T Mark Tauscher (shoulder) were out due to injury.
- ▶ As if that wasn't enough, two more starters went down on the opening four plays from scrimmage at Washington. TE Jermichael Finley sustained a knee injury and DE Ryan Pickett suffered a sprained ankle that sidelined both for the remainder of the afternoon.
- ▶ LB Clay Matthews, who leads the NFL in sacks, left the game in the third quarter with a hamstring injury, and QB Aaron Rodgers sustained a concussion on Green Bay's final play on offense in overtime. TE Donald Lee (chest) and S Derrick Martin (knee) also left the game with injuries that could sideline them for some time.
- ▶ The status of most of the injured starters for this Sunday's game against Miami is unclear, although Finley and Barnett will not play against the Dolphins with both scheduled to undergo surgery this week.

WITH THE CALL

The Packers make their second of two appearances this season on CBS. The network will air the contest to a regional audience.

- ▶ Play-by-play man Ian Eagle and color analyst Dan Fouts will have the call from the broadcast booth.
- ▶ In Wisconsin, CBS affiliates around the state, including WFRV (Ch. 5) in Green Bay and WDJT (Ch. 58) in Milwaukee, will carry the contest.
- ▶ Milwaukee's WTMJ (620 AM), airing Green Bay games since 1929, heads up the 53-station Packers Radio Network, with Wayne Larrivee (play-by-play) and two-time Packers Pro Bowler Larry McCarren (color) calling the action. The duo enters its 12th season of broadcasts together across the Packers Radio Network, which covers 43 markets in five states.
- ▶ Sports USA Radio will broadcast the game with Larry Kahn (play-by-play), Ross Tucker (analyst) and Troy West (sideline reporter).
- ▶ For out-of-town listeners, the broadcast is available to NFL Field Pass subscribers on www.packers.com as well as on Sirius Satellite Radio (channel 123 WTMJ feed) as part of the network's NFL Sunday Drive.
- ▶ DIRECTV subscribers can watch the game in HD on channel 704.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

UNDER PRESSURE

After recording six sacks in Week 1 at Philadelphia, the most by any NFL team on opening weekend, the Packers have followed up that performance with 15 more sacks in the next four games.

- ▶ Green Bay's 21 sacks as a team through Week 5 rank No. 2 in the NFL behind only Tennessee (22). The Packers lead the league in sack yardage with 148 yards and have had eight different players record a sack.
- ▶ The Packers' 21 sacks through the first five games are the most by a Green Bay defense to start the season since the 2001 squad registered 21 in the opening five contests. It is tied for the second-best start behind only the 1978 team that posted 23 sacks in the opening five games.
- ▶ The 21 sacks are also the most in a five-game span in Head Coach Mike McCarthy's five seasons.
- ▶ Green Bay recorded five sacks at Washington on Sunday, the Packers' second five-sack game this season to match the Titans for the most in the NFL through Week 5.
- ▶ Of the team's 21 sacks, 8.5 have come courtesy of LB Clay Matthews, who leads the NFL in that category. DE Cullen Jenkins, who ranks second on the team with four sacks and tied for seventh in the NFL, posted a sack in each of the first four games. Green Bay is one of only four teams in the league to have two players with four-plus sacks (N.Y. Giants, San Diego, Tennessee).
- ▶ The Packers' six sacks in Week 1 were the most in a season opener by Green Bay since 2001, when the Packers registered seven sacks against the Lions on Sept. 9 at Lambeau Field. It was also the most in a game under McCarthy, matching the total of six vs. Detroit on Dec. 17, 2006.
- ▶ The Packers are already well ahead of their sack pace from last season, when Green Bay's 21st sack didn't come until Week 11 vs. the 49ers.
- ▶ Green Bay posted four or more sacks in a game three times already this season, which matches its 2009 total. The Packers finished with 37 for the season, which ranked tied for 11th in the league.
- ▶ The Packers' highest sack total under McCarthy came in his first season of 2006 when they recorded 46 sacks, which ranked No. 4 in the NFL.

CLAY FINDS A WAY

With three sacks against the Buffalo Bills in Week 2, second-year LB Clay Matthews became the first Packer to post three sacks in back-to-back games since it became an official league statistic in 1982.

- ▶ The performance vs. Buffalo came a week after Matthews registered a career-high three sacks in the Packers' 27-20 season-opening victory at Philadelphia.
- ▶ Matthews was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for Week 2, the second time in his career he has earned the honor. He also won the award last year for his two-sack outing vs. Baltimore in Week 13 on Monday Night Football.
- ▶ Matthews also became the first NFL player to register consecutive three-sack games since Seattle's Patrick Kerney accomplished the feat (Nov. 18-25, 2007).
- ▶ Matthews' six sacks in the first two games of the season were the most ever by a Packer to start a year.
- ▶ His 33 sack yards vs. Buffalo were the most by a Packer since DE Reggie White's 35 on two sacks vs. Minnesota on Oct. 22, 1995. Matthews leads the league with 53.5 sack yards on the season.
- ▶ His six sacks over a two-game span rank second in team history behind only Bryce Paup, who recorded 6.5 sacks in Weeks 3-4 in 1991. Paup posted 4.5 sacks vs. Tampa Bay on Sept. 15, and then followed that up with two more the next week at Miami on Sept. 22.
- ▶ In just 21 career games played, Matthews has posted two or more sacks in a game five times. That is a franchise record for the most two-sack games over that span to start a Green Bay career, breaking White's mark of four in his first 21 games with the Packers (1993-94).
- ▶ Matthews' 18.5 sacks since 2009 lead the NFL, ahead of Denver's Elvis Dumervil and Dallas' DeMarcus Ware (17 each).
- ▶ In 2009, Matthews set a Packers rookie record with 10 sacks on his way to earning Pro Bowl honors, the first Green Bay rookie to be named to the all-star game since Hall of Fame WR James Lofton in 1978.
- ▶ Matthews' 17 sacks in his first 20 games were the most ever by any NFL player to start a career. It topped the previous mark of 16.5 set by San Diego's Leslie O'Neal (1986, 1988) and the N.Y. Jets' John Abraham (2000-01).

STARTING FAST

The opening drives of a half set the tone for a team, and Green Bay's offense is off to a productive start in that department this season.

- ▶ When QB Aaron Rodgers connected with WR Donald Driver on a 29-yard TD pass on the opening drive of the game vs. Detroit in Week 4, it was the second time in the first four games that the Packers scored a TD on their first drive. Their 17 points this season on the first drives of the game rank tied for No. 2 in the NFL behind only New Orleans' 214 points. Green Bay ranked tied for No. 6 in the NFL in 2009 with 37 points on opening drives.
- ▶ The Packers have also scored two TDs and one field goal on their opening drive of the second half. Those 17 points rank tied for No. 1 in the NFL with Houston, and Green Bay is already on the heels of the 2009 team that scored 20 points all season on opening second-half-drives (No. 20).
- ▶ Green Bay has averaged 56.2 yards on its first possession of the second half this year, and the shortest drive, a 39-yarder vs. Buffalo in Week 2, resulted in a touchdown after LB Brandon Chillar returned an interception to the Bills' 39 to set the offense up with a short field.
- ▶ The Packers did not score a touchdown on the first drive of the second half all of 2008, part of a 34-game span without a TD on the first possession after halftime that started late in 2007 and ran all the way until Week 16 vs. Seattle last season.
- ▶ Green Bay snapped that streak with a 6-yard TD run from RB Brandon Jackson against the Seahawks last season, and have now scored a TD on the opening drive of the second half in four of the past seven regular-season games. They have scored points on the first possession of the second half in five of those seven games.

STAT OF THE WEEK

- ▶ On Sunday at Washington, the Packers posted a season-high 157 rushing yards as a team, Green Bay's finest performance on the ground since it registered 158 yards at Chicago last season in Week 14.
- ▶ What made the Packers' performance even more impressive was that the yardage came on just 17 attempts, a gaudy 9.2 average per carry.
- ▶ According to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the first time in franchise history that the Packers rushed for over 150 yards on fewer than 20 attempts in a regular-season game.
- ▶ The only other time in franchise annals that Green Bay accomplished the feat came on Jan. 16, 1983, when the Packers posted 158 rushing yards on 17 carries (9.3 avg.) in an NFC second-round playoff contest at Dallas.
- ▶ WR James Lofton posted the big run of the day in that contest, a 71-yard run for a touchdown in the fourth quarter. Coincidentally, the Packers' long gain on Sunday against the Redskins was a career-long 71-yard pickup by RB Brandon Jackson on his first carry of the afternoon.
- ▶ It was the 14th run of 70-plus yards in franchise history, and the first since RB DeShawn Wynn scored on a 73-yard run vs. Detroit on Dec. 28, 2008.
- ▶ The Packers' rushing average of 9.2 yards per carry at Washington was the best single-game performance (min. 15 attempts) in a regular-season game in team history.

- ▶ The Packers beat Miami for the first time in 1997, a 23-18 triumph at Lambeau Field, and have now won three of the last four meetings.
- ▶ Since those three initial meetings in the 1970s, all with 20-plus-point margins, only one game has been decided by more than 10 points, the Packers' 24-10 win in 2002.
- ▶ The Dolphins have visited Lambeau Field only four times and at one point went 12 years between visits (1985 to 1997). The teams played in Milwaukee once during that span, in 1994.

- ▶ Trailing 10-6 at halftime, the Packers took the lead for good in the third quarter when CB Charles Woodson intercepted a Joey Harrington pass and returned it 23 yards for a TD. Harrington attempted 62 passes in the game and threw for 414 yards but was picked off three times.
- ▶ WR Donald Driver (10 receptions, 93 yards) added a 34-yard TD reception later in the third, a spectacular diving catch in the end zone that was initially ruled incomplete but overturned by a replay challenge.
- ▶ RB Ahman Green posted a 70-yard TD run in the fourth quarter, the Packers' longest run of the season, on his way to 118 yards on 18 carries.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

TAKEAWAY POINTS KEY FOR PACKERS

In the second year of Dom Capers' 3-4 scheme, the Packers are once again showing their knack for producing takeaways, which they have continued to turn into points this season.

- ▶ The Packers have registered eight takeaways in the first five games, turning five of those turnovers into touchdowns. Green Bay's 35 points off of takeaways so far this season rank No. 5 in the league.
- ▶ Scoring points off of turnovers has become a trend for the Packers at Lambeau Field, as they have a current streak of 12 straight games at home with points scored that were set up by a takeaway. That streak ranks first in the NFL.
- ▶ Green Bay posted 30 interceptions and 10 fumble recoveries in 2009, which it turned into 141 points. The 40 takeaways led the NFL, and the 141 points scored off those 40 takeaways tied New Orleans for most in the league.
- ▶ The 30 interceptions led the league and was the team's highest single-season total since 1981, when it also had 30.
- ▶ Since 2009, 12 players on defense have intercepted a pass. Only Buffalo (13) has had more players record an INT over that span.
- ▶ Last season Green Bay surpassed its 2008 total of 124 points off takeaways, which led the NFL in '08. It also eclipsed its '08 total in interceptions (22) and fumble recoveries (six) while at the same time protecting the ball at a better clip. Green Bay's 16 giveaways was the lowest total in the NFL in 2009.
- ▶ If the Packers don't commit a turnover, like they didn't against Buffalo in Week 2, they're almost guaranteed to win. They have now won 39 of 43 games playing turnover-free football, since a loss at Dallas, Nov. 18, 1996. Green Bay's only losses in such games during that stretch came three times against Minnesota, twice in Minneapolis (2005, '08) and once at home (2009), and in Week 15 last year at Pittsburgh.
- ▶ Including playoffs, the Packers have won 42 of their last 46 games when they don't turn the ball over.

PLENTY OF PRODUCTION INSIDE THE 20

Green Bay has had one of the more efficient red-zone offenses in the league over the past two seasons, finishing in the top 10 in the NFL in 2008 and 2009.

- ▶ Through five games this season, the Packers are off to an even more productive start, having scored touchdowns on 10 of 15 trips inside the opponent's 20. That 66.7 percent touchdown rate ranks tied for No. 4 in the league.
- ▶ Green Bay's 76 points in the red zone this season (10 touchdowns, two field goals) rank tied for No. 5 in the league. The only times the Packers did not score when they got inside the opponent's 20 was at Chicago in Week 3 when Mason Crosby's 37-yard field goal attempt in the third quarter was blocked, in Week 4 when they drove inside Detroit's 20 on the final possession of the game but ran out the clock in the 28-26 win, and this past Sunday at Washington when they didn't convert a fourth-and-goal from the 1 in the second quarter.

▶ The highest red-zone conversion mark under Head Coach Mike McCarthy came in 2008, when the Packers ranked No. 6 in the NFL with a 60.4 percent touchdown rate.

▶ Much of Green Bay's success in the red zone has to be credited to the play of QB Aaron Rodgers, who has been one of the more efficient signal-callers in the league inside the 20 since taking over as the starter in 2008.

▶ According to STATS, Rodgers' passer rating of 122.1 this season in the red zone ranks tied for No. 3 in the league (min. 10 attempts). Rodgers has connected on 17-of-23 passes (73.9 percent) for 104 yards and six TDs with no INTs.

▶ Even more impressive, in 37 career starts with Green Bay, Rodgers has yet to throw a single interception in the red zone, posting a 109.4 rating on 102-of-165 passing (61.8 percent) for 642 yards and 42 touchdowns.

THE INTERCEPTORS

Leading the way when it comes to takeaways for Green Bay has been the defensive-back tandem of CB Charles Woodson and S Nick Collins.

- ▶ No NFL duo has been more prolific since 2008 when it comes to taking the ball away and making plays after the interception.
- ▶ Woodson leads all NFL players since 2008 with 17 interceptions, with Collins checking in at No. 3 with 13 over that span behind only his teammate and Philadelphia CB Asante Samuel (14).
- ▶ Collins leads all NFL players with 405 interception return yards since '08, but Woodson inched closer with his 48-yard INT return for a TD vs. Detroit in Week 4. He has moved into the No. 2 spot in the league, checking in with 396 INT return yards over the past two-plus seasons.
- ▶ Collins has some work to do if he hopes to keep up with Woodson's pace of return TDs. Woodson leads the league since 2008 with six INT returns for touchdowns, with Collins tied for the No. 2 spot with three scores.
- ▶ The DB duo has helped put the Packers at the top of the leaderboard in all three interception categories since 2008.

MAKING PLAYS ANOTHER WAY

When Rodgers scrambled for a key 16-yard pickup to convert a second-and-13 in Week 4 against Detroit on the final drive of the game, it was just another example of his ability to make plays with his feet.

- ▶ With 99 rushing yards on 19 attempts (5.2 avg.) this season, Rodgers ranks third among NFL QBs in rushing yards, behind only Philadelphia's Michael Vick (187) and Tampa Bay's Josh Freeman (112).
- ▶ In 2009, Rodgers finished second among all NFL quarterbacks (David Garrard, 323) with 316 rushing yards, the most by a Green Bay QB since Don Majkowski posted 358 yards on the ground in 1989.
- ▶ Rodgers also led all NFL signal-callers with five rushing touchdowns in '09, the most by a Packers QB since Majkowski's five in '89.
- ▶ It was the second straight year Rodgers had posted four touchdowns in a season, making him just the third QB in franchise annals to accomplish that feat (Tobin Rote, 1954-56; Scott Hunter, 1971-72).
- ▶ With two rushing TDs already this season through five games, Rodgers now has his sights set on becoming the first Packers QB since Rote (1954-56) to rush for three or more TDs in three straight seasons.
- ▶ Of his 77 rushing attempts since 2009, nearly a quarter (19) have been for 10 or more yards.
- ▶ A look at where Rodgers ranks on the ground among QBs since 2009:

Quarterback	Rushing yards
1. David Garrard, JAX	417

EXCERPTS FROM THE COACH – MONDAY, OCT. 11

► Jermichael had said he thought it was a hamstring tendon after the game. It's more of a knee?

It's a knee. He's going to have knee surgery in the morning, yes.

► It's not his ACL though?

I'll have all that information in the morning.

► Will Finley's surgery be season-ending?

I would be surprised if it's season-ending, but anytime you go in for surgery, obviously it's something you have to take the time to evaluate and once Dr. McKenzie does the surgery, we'll have more information on the time frame.

► Are you optimistic Barnett will be able to come back?

Nick's operation is really about exactly, ... when you're dealing with his particular injury, they really won't know until they get in there. That's really the fact of the matter. So we're holding out hope.

► Will you be able to hold spots on the roster for those guys?

Anytime you deal with injuries, particularly this time of year, when you get up into the 6 to 8-week mark, those are tough decisions to make. But every injury is different. The fact that individuals are having surgery, we should have a pretty clear-cut view of exactly, based on the individual, the history of the individual, how the medical staff feels and so forth. I really can't speculate if we're going to hold onto one player as opposed to another.

► Do you think Rodgers' concussion might have been sustained earlier?

The concussion did occur on the last play. That thing was fairly evident, just based on the communication. There was no evidence or even talk of Aaron during the course of the fourth quarter. But he took a helmet-to-helmet blow there on the last play, and if you watch the tape, just the way he reacted and so forth, that's when it did occur.

► What happened that let you know that he had one? Did he say something to Tom Clements?

When he came off to the sideline, however the mechanics of the medical staff, after that series, when our defense went out on the field, I was told Aaron Rodgers just suffered a concussion and was prepared for going with Matt Flynn on the next series.

► He has to see an independent doctor then?

There's a protocol, and he'll go through it just like we've always done, and we'll definitely take the proper time and make sure he's fully recovered.

► Is there a guy in town he can see for that or does he have to travel?

There's a protocol that our medical staff goes through, and yes, there's a doctor that we use.

► Is it possible he could miss the game this week?

Definitely. It's definitely possible. I know at a minimum he'll miss some practice time.

► Will Derrick Martin's be a couple-week thing?

Well, I think it probably will be more than a couple weeks with Derrick. If you watch it on film, you can see it was a pretty significant knee sprain.

► Should a penalty have been called on the Rodgers play if it was helmet-to-helmet?

I'm not going to answer those questions. I don't comment on officiating. He suffered a concussion on the last play.

► Will you send a tape to the league?

We send a tape in every week to the league, and it will have our comments, and they'll send it back to us with their comments. Normal protocol in our business.

► This seems like an extraordinary number of injuries. Do you have to bring it up with the team?

Bring up the injuries? I don't think I need to bring it up. I think the most important thing we need to do is be on top of projection with the medical staff, and frankly that is why we started this press conference so late. The medical meeting was a lot longer today than normal. You really don't have a handle on it until probably mid-Tuesday. Once we get all of the information in today, we'll make some projections because it is important you play particularly your younger players. You want to give them the best opportunity to prepare to play the game, and that's what everybody goes through that goes through injuries. Just looking at yesterday's game, because it changes. It changes the way you call the offense, it really affects the special teams. So we'll just gather as much information and we'll look at our projected inactive list like we do every week and we'll just train the different combinations of the players that are healthy and make sure we have a good plan for Miami.

► Do you think Clay Matthews and Ryan Pickett will be able to play this week?

I can't really tell you. I can't really tell you right now.

► Would you have to move Graham Harrell up from the practice squad?

I don't feel that way today, but that is definitely an option.

► Who would be your emergency quarterback?

I really wouldn't want to get into our third quarterback because I think it would be pretty clear probably on how we would go about that situation, but we do have a third-quarterback plan that we have been operating with for the last two years.

► Last year when there was a problem with drops, you were able to correct it. What did you do?

We just need to catch the ball. We practice on catching the ball every single day. I know our perimeter group takes a lot of pride in their ability to catch the football and perform with yards after the catch, and we definitely did not do that to our standard yesterday. They do the ball drills every single day. Pretty much every position group has post-practice drills, and I'm sure they will emphasize it more this week and we'll spend a little more time on the things we need to correct. That is what coaching is all about; it's about fundamentals, trying to maintain the fundamentals that you feel you are on top of, and trying to improve in the areas you feel like you need to improve on. We need to catch the football better after yesterday's performance.

► You lost the turnover battle again yesterday. What can you do to turn that around?

It's a fundamental, in our view. Fundamentals are blocking, tackling and the football, whether you are trying to take it away or protecting it, and we're not doing that to the standard that we have done it in the past. We'll continue to work on it. We have an emphasis period, it's part of our practice structure and I'm confident that we'll turn that around. But that was two turnovers in the game, the first play and the last play that definitely factored in the outcome of that game.

► Are you concerned that Greg Jennings isn't getting the ball more?

I don't look at it that way. It's one performance yesterday, I'm concerned that we weren't as efficient in the passing game in the opportunities that were made available to us. That's what we'll do today with the players. We'll correct it. We have moved Greg around; he is playing inside and outside and we'll continue to do so. These are actually good issues to have on your football team when you have a number of players that can be productive with the football. It's really the responsibility of the quarterback just to run the offense and throw it to the open guy. We'll continue to make sure that schematically we are creating enough opportunities for Greg and Donald and the rest of the perimeter.

► When you watched the film, did you think you missed a chance to do more on the ground?

I think that is convenient. My responsibility is to create opportunities. They played a lot of coverage in the game. I felt we still had good matchups. We did, like we always do, a number of run-pass options at the line of scrimmage that we probably could have taken advantage of a little more. We were very productive on offense as far as moving the ball down the field. Our biggest issues were third down and dropping the football. I think that definitely would have changed our point total if we had been more productive in those two areas.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

AN EMERGING PLAYMAKER

After returning from a knee injury last season in Week 11 that had forced him to miss the better part of four games, TE Jermichael Finley was one of the more productive players in the league at his position down the stretch. He picked up where he left off in the first four games this season, but now will be forced to miss some time again with another knee injury.

- ▶ Despite missing almost the entire game at Washington, Finley ranks first on the team and fifth among NFL tight ends with 301 yards receiving on 21 receptions (14.3 avg.). He and San Diego's Antonio Gates as the only tight ends in the league to record two 100-yard receiving games this season.
- ▶ Finley's two 100-yard games in 2010 match the franchise single-season record for TEs. He joins Paul Coffman (1979, 1983) and Mark Chmura (1995) as the only TEs to post two 100-yard games in a season.
- ▶ With a team-high 115 receiving yards in Week 3 at Chicago, Finley became only the second TE in franchise history to post back-to-back 100-yard receiving games, joining Coffman (Oct. 21-28, 1979).
- ▶ It was the third 100-yard game of Finley's career in the regular season, which moved him into the No. 2 spot in franchise annals behind Coffman (6). He had been tied with Chmura and Ed West, who each had two career 100-yard games.
- ▶ In the 17 games prior to getting injured in Week 5, Finley had at least 50 yards receiving 10 times. He set a team record for TEs with eight in 2009 despite missing three games.
- ▶ Finley matched a franchise record for tight ends with nine catches at Chicago in Week 3. He also posted that total last season in Week 15 at Pittsburgh, and three other TEs in team annals have caught nine passes in a game.
- ▶ Finley posted three 20-yard receptions at Chicago (20, 26, 28), and has seven on the season. That ranks third in the NFL and second among TEs behind Gates' eight.
- ▶ Finley has excelled on the Monday Night Football stage. In three games on MNF over the past two seasons, he has caught 22 passes for 322 yards (14.6 avg.) and three touchdowns.
- ▶ His average of 25.8 yards per catch (103 yards on four receptions) vs. Buffalo in Week 2 was the second-best single-game performance in team history (min. four receptions) by a tight end. Coffman's 30.5-yard mark on four receptions at Chicago on Dec. 18, 1983, sits atop the record book.
- ▶ In 2009, a season in which he set career highs in every statistical category, Finley's coming-out party came on the team's first appearance of the season on MNF at Minnesota in front of the largest television audience in cable history. That game, he set a regular-season career high and matched a team record for TEs in receiving yards (128), highlighted by his 62-yard catch-and-run TD. The catch marked the longest reception by a Green Bay tight end since Jackie Harris caught a 66-yard scoring pass against Denver on Oct. 10, 1993.
- ▶ If the Week 4 game last season at Minnesota served as a coming-out party, the Wild Card playoff game at Arizona showed Finley's potential to take over a game. His 159 receiving yards set a franchise postseason record and ranked second in NFL postseason history for a tight end.
- ▶ A look at where Finley ranked among NFL tight ends between returning from his injury in Week 11 last season through Week 4 this season:

TRAMON'S TALENTS

CB Tramon Williams etched his name into the team's record books with a pair of big plays on Sunday at Washington.

- ▶ With a 52-yard punt return in the second quarter and a 64-yard interception return in the fourth quarter, Williams became the first player in franchise history to post a 50-yard punt return and a 60-yard interception return in the same game.
- ▶ Showing just how rare the feat is, no player in team annals has ever posted both of those returns in the same season.
- ▶ Williams became just the third NFL player since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970 to accomplish the feat in a game, joining Dallas' Deion Sanders (Sept. 21, 1998) and the late Darrent Williams of the Denver Broncos (Nov. 13, 2005).
- ▶ Explosive plays are nothing new to the fourth-year CB who went undrafted out of Louisiana Tech in 2006. Williams recorded a 94-yard punt return for a score vs. Carolina on Nov. 18, 2007, as well as a 67-yard kickoff return vs. Chicago that season (Oct. 7). Last season he posted his career-long interception return with a 67-yarder vs. Chicago (Sept. 17).
- ▶ Williams is only the third NFL player whose career began since the 1970 merger to post a 90-yard punt return and interception and kickoff returns of 65 yards in a career, joining Adam Jones and Lemar Parrish.
- ▶ He ranks fifth in the NFL this season with an 11.6 average on 11 punt returns after averaging 10.4 yards on 13 returns last season.
- ▶ Williams posted a career-high 22 passes defended in 2009, and is tied for the team lead this season (with S Nick Collins) with seven.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

Green Bay finished 5-3 on the road in 2009, the third time in four seasons it had finished above .500 under Head Coach Mike McCarthy.

- ▶ The Packers have been able to stay above the .500 mark on the road during McCarthy's tenure, a notable achievement in the National Football League.
- ▶ Green Bay got off to a good start this year with a win at Philadelphia in the season opener. It was the fifth straight season under McCarthy that the Packers have won their first road game of the year.
- ▶ Since 2006, McCarthy's first season as the head coach in Green Bay, only 10 of 32 NFL teams have regular-season road records over .500.

287 AND COUNTING

Another packed house at Lambeau Field against the Lions in Week 4 brought the stadium's consecutive sellouts streak to 287 games (271 regular season, 16 playoffs).

- ▶ The 2009 home game against Minnesota saw the largest regular-season crowd in Lambeau Field history (71,213).
- ▶ The league's longest-tenured stadium, Lambeau Field is hosting its 54th season of football this year. A total of 565,666 fans made their way through the turnstiles in the eight home contests in 2009.
- ▶ Across American professional sports, only Boston's Fenway Park (1912) and Chicago's Wrigley Field (1914) have longer tenures.

THE LAMBEAU ADVANTAGE

The crown jewel of the National Football League, Lambeau Field has long been known as one of the tougher venues to play in, particularly during the harsh Wisconsin winter.

- ▶ Re-establishing home-field advantage after a 4-4 mark in 2008 was one of the goals of 2009, and with the Packers finishing at 6-2 at home, they accomplished that goal.
- ▶ Head Coach Mike McCarthy stated consistently upon his arrival in Green Bay that one of the team's goals would be to reclaim the mystique of playing at Lambeau Field. Mission accomplished. The team is 21-7 at home since 2007 including playoffs, a marked improvement over the prior three seasons (10-14 combined).
- ▶ Since Ron Wolf and Mike Holmgren began the revitalization of the franchise in 1992, Green Bay owns the best home record in the NFL. A look at the top regular-season home W-L records since the '92 season:

Team	W-L record	Pct.
Green Bay	109-37-0	.747
Pittsburgh	105-40-1	.723

New England	98-48-0	.671
Dallas	97-49-0	.664

IN THE FREE AGENCY ERA

Talk of unrestricted free agency in the early '90s led many to forecast tough times for the small-town Green Bay Packers.

- ▶ However, Green Bay has remained among the most successful teams since the advent of free agency in 1993. The Packers have won 10 or more games 10 times since '93 and captured seven division crowns.
- ▶ A look at the most successful teams in the free-agency era:

ELITE COMPANY

With a win at Lambeau Field in Week 2 over Buffalo, Head Coach Mike McCarthy became just the second coach in team history to win four consecutive home openers.

- ▶ McCarthy joined the legendary Curly Lambeau as the only coach in franchise annals to win four or more consecutive home openers. Lambeau accomplished the feat three times (1923-27, 1929-32, 1938-41) in his 29-year coaching career in Green Bay.
- ▶ Green Bay is one of only six NFL teams and one of just two (Washington) in the NFC to win its home opener each year from 2007-10. The others are Baltimore, Denver, New England, and Pittsburgh.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

TAKING HIS PLACE AMONG THE GAME'S BEST

Now firmly entrenched in his role as the face of the franchise, QB Aaron Rodgers has gone from solid first-year starter to one of the game's top young signal callers over the past two seasons.

- ▶ Rodgers ranked near the top of the NFL in most passing categories in 2009 and was honored as the NFC Offensive Player of the Month for October, the first such award of his career. He was the youngest of the six quarterbacks named to the Pro Bowl last season.
- ▶ In 2009, he engineered one of the NFL's most potent offenses, ranked No. 6 overall, and avoided costly mistakes, spearheading a team that had a league-low 16 giveaways (15 on offense).
- ▶ His 103.2 passer rating ranked fourth in the NFL. In addition, he was the game's top-ranked passer on third downs (133.5).
- ▶ The fourth-year pro threw for 4,434 yards, fourth most in the league. That total finished just shy of Lynn Dickey's franchise record (4,458, 1983) for passing yards in a single season.
- ▶ In addition to QB rating and passing yards, Rodgers ranked fourth in TD passes (30) and first in interception percentage (1.3).
- ▶ And just for good measure, he ranked second among QBs with 316 rushing yards on 58 carries (5.4 avg.), and added five rushing TDs.
- ▶ Rodgers joined Steve Young (San Francisco, 1998) as the only quarterbacks in NFL history to throw for 4,000 yards and 30 TDs and rush for 300 yards and five TDs in the same season.
- ▶ The Elias Sports Bureau never intended for passer rating to measure the effectiveness of a signal caller in one game, but rather over the course of a group of games or an entire season.
- ▶ In 37 career starts, Rodgers has eclipsed the century mark in passer rating 20 times and recorded 10 games of 300-plus yards. He posted his 20th career 100-plus passer rating game in just his 36th career start, which ranks third among NFL QBs since 1970 behind only Kurt Warner (33) and Tony Romo (34).
- ▶ Through five games this season, Rodgers ranks tied for No. 3 in the league with nine TD passes and tied for No. 9 with 1,233 passing yards.
- ▶ Here is a look at where Rodgers ranks among NFL quarterbacks since he took over as the starter in 2008.

DEEP THREAT

Green Bay remained one of the league's most dangerous teams in yards after the catch in 2009, ranking in the top five for the fourth time in five seasons. Its consistent standing near the top of those rankings is due in large part to WRs Greg Jennings and Donald Driver.

- ▶ Jennings is one of the league's top deep threats, with his 83-yard score against Pittsburgh last season in Week 15 marking a career long for both him and QB Aaron Rodgers.
- ▶ When it comes to scoring passes, Jennings has an eye-popping average during his career. Of his 31 career touchdown catches, 13 (41.9 percent) have been at least 40 yards in length. He has a staggering average of 32.7 yards per TD catch, which ranks third among current players with at least 20 career touchdown catches.

▶ Jennings continued his big-play ways with a 32-yard touchdown catch in the season opener at Philadelphia in Week 1, part of his team-leading 82-yard day on five receptions (16.4 avg.). He is third in the NFL with 26 receptions of 25-plus yards since 2008.

▶ It was the second straight year that Jennings came up with a big scoring grab in the season opener. Last year vs. the division-rival Chicago Bears in Week 1, Jennings scored on a 50-yard TD with just over a minute remaining to give the Packers a 21-15 win.

▶ Week 1 has been good to Jennings over the past three seasons as he has posted 16 receptions for 279 yards (17.4 avg.), including two 50-yard receptions, and two touchdowns.

▶ While Jennings had six catches of 40-plus yards in 2009, Driver wasn't far behind with five. When it comes to the 40-plus yard plays, there is no doubting the Driver-Jennings duo is the most potent deep-threat combo in the NFL.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

ANOTHER FRANCHISE MARK

WR Donald Driver, now in his 12th season, established yet another team mark last year in Week 13. Last season, it seemed as though franchise records fell on a weekly basis for Driver.

- ▶ Driver became the 10th player in franchise history to reach the 50-touchdown plateau. No other NFL franchise has 10 players with 50-plus TDs.
- ▶ Earlier, Driver topped the 50-catch plateau for an eighth straight season (2002-09), a new franchise record.
- ▶ Though he was the oldest player on the active roster at age 34, Driver showed no signs of slowing down in 2009. He led the team in catches (70), ranked second in receiving yards (1,061) and first in touchdown catches (6).
- ▶ Driver also extended his own franchise record by recording a seventh overall season and sixth straight with 1,000 yards. He is one of only two players in the league (Reggie Wayne) to have a 1,000-yard season each of the past six years (2004-09).
- ▶ The most significant record still within Driver's grasp is career receiving yards. James Lofton ranks No. 1 with 9,656 yards. Driver is No. 2 with 9,326. Driver should surpass the mark sometime this season.
- ▶ Against Buffalo in Week 2, Driver scored on a 7-yard TD pass, the 51st receiving TD of his career. That moved him into sole possession of the No. 4 spot in team history, and he currently has 52 career TD grabs.
- ▶ His TD catch in Week 4 vs. Detroit was his 21st at Lambeau Field, moving him into sole possession of the No. 2 spot behind only Antonio Freeman (36). Driver already holds the Lambeau records for receptions (318) and receiving yards (4,412).
- ▶ Driver has been the model of consistency for the Packers, catching at least one pass in 132 consecutive games (138 including playoffs), also a franchise record. That streak ranks third among active NFL players behind only Pittsburgh's Hines Ward (182) and Atlanta's Tony Gonzalez (152).
- ▶ While his reputation is as a slot guy who will make the tough catch over the middle, Driver made his share of big plays in 2009. His five catches of 40-plus yards tied for ninth in the NFL.
- ▶ Driver leads the team this season with 25 receptions in the first five games, and is also tied for the team lead with three TD catches. His nine receptions in Week 3 at Chicago were the most he had hauled in since he caught 10 passes at Detroit on Nov. 22, 2007.
- ▶ Along with TE Jermichael Finley at Chicago, Driver was part of the first Packers tandem since Nov. 21, 2004, to each record nine receptions in a game. In the 16-13 win at Houston nearly six years ago, Driver posted 10 catches and Javon Walker hauled in nine.

PROTECTION THE KEY

Green Bay's offensive line didn't allow a single sack of QB Aaron Rodgers in Week 3 at Chicago, the second straight game that the sixth-year QB was not sacked. The Packers rank tied for No. 11 in the league with nine sacks allowed in five games this season.

- ▶ Prior to Rodgers being sacked in the second quarter vs. Detroit in Week 4, the offensive line had not allowed a sack in 11 straight quarters, the longest streak for the team since 2007.
- ▶ Over the past eight regular-season games, Rodgers has been sacked either once or not at all in four of those contests. Since Week 12 of last season, Green Bay has allowed just 17 sacks, tied for sixth fewest in the NFL over that 11-game span.
- ▶ In his two-plus years as the starting quarterback, there have been 13 games where the line has given up either one sack or no sacks of Rodgers. The Packers have a 10-3 mark in those contests.

- ▶ The effect that protection has is evident in Rodgers' numbers in those games, as he has completed 291-of-427 passes (68.1 percent) for 3,462 yards and 26 TDs with just five INTs for a 108.1 passer rating.
- ▶ When Rodgers has been sacked four or more times in a game during his career, the Packers are 4-8.
- ▶ Injuries and performance issues affected the offensive line in the first half of 2009, as Rodgers was sacked 41 times over the first nine games. Once the line regained some continuity down the stretch, it allowed just 10 sacks of Rodgers over the final seven games, a pace that would have put the Packers in the top five in terms of sacks allowed if kept up over a 16-game season.

SPREAD IT AROUND

With back-to-back 1,200-yard rusher Ryan Grant lost for the season after sustaining an ankle injury in Week 1 at Philadelphia, the Packers have turned to a couple of backs to carry the load.

▶ Brandon Jackson, who excelled in his role as a third-down back in 2009, posted a career-high 115 yards on 10 carries (11.5 avg.) at Washington on Sunday, highlighted by a career-long 71-yard run on his first carry of the game.

▶ Jackson leads the team with 252 yards on 55 carries this season (4.6 avg.).

▶ The Packers rushed for 157 yards as a team on Sunday on just 17 carries (9.2 avg.). It was the first time in team history that the Packers rushed for 150 yards in a regular-season game on fewer than 20 carries.

- ▶ John Kuhn, who worked primarily at fullback during his first three seasons in Green Bay, has been given more opportunities to carry the ball at RB. Against Detroit in Week 4, Kuhn posted 34 of his career-high 39 rushing yards on the final series, as the Packers ran out the final 6:32 in the 28-26 win.
- ▶ Grant, Jackson, Kuhn and QB Aaron Rodgers have all posted runs of 17 yards or more this season, making Green Bay the only team in the NFC to have four players each register a run of that length.
- ▶ Each of the backs registered a 12-yard run in the season opener at Philadelphia, the first time since Dec. 19, 2005, that the Packers had three RBs post an explosive gain. Samkon Gado, Tony Fisher and Noah Herron each rushed for a 12-yard gain at Baltimore in 2005.
- ▶ Green Bay's 17 runs of 10-plus yards rank tied for No. 7 in the NFL. It is ahead of the Packers' pace from last season, when they ranked No. 23 in the league with 42 runs of 10 yards or more.

COACH LOCATIONS

- ▶ Coaches' Box: Dom Capers (defensive coordinator), Jerry Fontenot (asst. offensive line), Scott McCurley (defensive quality control), Curtis Fuller (administrator), Joe Philbin (offensive coordinator), John Rushing (offensive quality control), and Joe Whitt Jr. (secondary - cornerbacks).
- ▶ Sideline: Edgar Bennett (running backs), James Campen (offensive line), Tom Clements (quarterbacks), Mike Eayrs (research and development), Chad Morton (special teams asst.), Kevin Greene (outside linebackers), Ben McAdoo (tight ends), Winston Moss (inside linebackers/asst. head coach), Darren Perry (secondary - safeties), Jimmy Robinson (wide receivers), Shawn Slocum (special teams coordinator) and Mike Trgovac (defensive line).

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

DEFENSE GETTING THE JOB DONE

After finishing No. 2 in the league's final overall defensive rankings in 2009, the unit is off to another strong start this season under second-year defensive coordinator Dom Capers.

- ▶ The Packers rank eighth in the league in points given up, allowing the opposition an average of 17.8 points per game. Green Bay's defense currently ranks No. 13 in the NFL, allowing an average of 317.2 yards per game through the first five games.
- ▶ That includes a No. 15 ranking in the league against the pass, with opponents averaging 212.4 yards through the air in the first five contests. Opposing quarterbacks have a passer rating of 74.7 against Green Bay, and the Packers rank No. 2 in the NFL with 21 sacks.
- ▶ After leading the NFL in run defense for the first time in 2009 as they allowed a franchise-record 83.3 yards per game, the Packers haven't been quite as stingy against the run thus far this season, ranking No. 15 in the league (104.8 yards per game), but that is up nine spots from where they ranked after Week 4.
- ▶ A good chunk of that yardage has come from opposing quarterbacks, with signal-callers accounting for 215 yards on 25 carries (8.6 avg.). Outside of the quarterback, opposing teams have run for 309 yards on 87 carries (3.6 avg.).
- ▶ Green Bay's defense hasn't allowed a running back to rush for 100 yards for 18 straight games, the longest current streak in the NFL. Rams RB Steven Jackson was the last to do it, posting 117 yards on 27 carries last season in Week 3 at St. Louis.
- ▶ That streak is the longest in franchise annals since the Packers didn't allow a RB to post 100 yards in 18 straight games from Oct. 1, 1972-Oct. 21, 1973.
- ▶ Under Capers, the Packers thrived in their new 3-4 scheme in 2009. The team finished the season ranked No. 1 against the run and No. 5 against the pass.
- ▶ The previous top ranking in franchise history in run defense came in 1972, when the team finished No. 2.
- ▶ Green Bay allowed an average of 284.4 total yards per game in '09, second behind the N.Y. Jets (252.3) and ahead of No. 3 Baltimore (300.5).
- ▶ In the first two years of the Mike McCarthy tenure, Green Bay's defense was close to being a top-10 unit, finishing at No. 12 in 2006 and No. 11 in 2007. In 2008, it slipped to No. 20 before making the jump up to No. 2 last year.
- ▶ A look at some of Green Bay's numbers against the run since Dom Capers took over as defensive coordinator in 2009:

Team	Rushing Yds. Allowed Per Game

AS GOOD AS HE'S EVER BEEN

In 2009, CB Charles Woodson enjoyed the finest season of his career, his first year in the 3-4 scheme, and has continued his impactful ways this season.

- ▶ Woodson achieved the highest individual honor bestowed upon a defensive player, taking home The Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year award last season. He also was named an AP first-team All-Pro.
- ▶ His 48-yard interception return for a touchdown in the third quarter against Detroit this season in Week 4 was his eighth career with the Packers, which set a franchise record. He had been tied with Hall of Fame CB Herb Adderley (seven, 1961-69) for the team mark.
- ▶ It was also Woodson's ninth defensive TD (eight INTs, one fumble return) in a Green Bay uniform, which further extended his franchise record.

▶ The touchdown gave Woodson 10 interception returns for touchdowns in his career (two with Oakland), which moved him up in the NFL record books as he became just the third player in league history to post 10 career interception returns for touchdowns. He now trails only Rod Woodson (12) and Darren Sharper (11).

▶ Woodson has now posted an INT return for a touchdown in five straight seasons, all five of his years in Green Bay (2006-10), to become the first player in NFL history to record an INT return for a TD in five consecutive seasons.

▶ The score in Week 4 was also the third straight year that Woodson has registered an INT return for a TD against Detroit. He is the first player in NFL history to post an INT return for a TD in three consecutive seasons against the same team.

▶ In 2009, Woodson became the fourth player in NFL history since sacks became an official statistic to record at least nine interceptions and two sacks in a single season. Woodson also led the Packers with four forced fumbles.

▶ Woodson is off to another fast start in the tackles category this season as he ranks No. 2 on the team with 36 stops (29 solo) in the first five games. Last season he recorded a career-high 81 tackles (63 solo).

▶ His four forced fumbles tied for second among NFL defensive backs in 2009, and he is tied for the league lead this season among defensive backs with two forced fumbles.

▶ There's no doubt Woodson's career has undergone a revitalization since coming to Green Bay. He now has 46 career interceptions, which is tied for third among active NFL players. Of his interceptions, 29 have come in 67 games with Green Bay. In 106 games with the Raiders, he had 17.

▶ No NFL defensive player has been more productive than Woodson when it comes to picking the ball off since 2008:

Player	Interceptions
1. Charles Woodson, GB	17
2. Asante Samuel, PHI	14
3. Nick Collins, GB	13

Player	Interception TDs
1. Charles Woodson, GB	6
2T. Six players	3

Player	Interception Return Yds.

WEEK 5 GAME REVIEW - REDSKINS 16, PACKERS 13 (OT)

PACKERS' LOSS A TOUGH ONE TO SWALLOW

The Packers came into Sunday's game without six of their opening-day starters due to injury, and lost two more in the opening four plays from scrimmage in Washington on Sunday. The offense converted just 2-of-13 third downs on the afternoon. Even with all of that, they were still in position to come away with a win in the closing seconds against the Redskins.

► But it didn't happen. With the game tied at 13, Mason Crosby's 53-yard field goal attempt with one second remaining in the fourth quarter bounced wide left after hitting the left upright, and an Aaron Rodgers interception in overtime helped set up Graham Gano's 33-yard field goal nearly midway through the extra session to give Washington the 16-13 victory in front of a crowd of 87,760 at FedExField.

► The loss was Green Bay's second in three weeks, with both losses having the feeling of games it could have easily won, and dropped the Packers to 3-2 on the season with back-to-back home games against Miami and Minnesota up next.

► "Don't let opportunities slip away," wide receiver Donald Driver said. "It is like in that in life; if you let an opportunity slip away it's hard to come back from it. But one thing we know is we let this one slip away and we've got a bunch of guys in this locker room that believe that. When you have got guys that believe they let one slip away, it's easy to fight back. We know right now that is what we have got to do coming into next week."

► After the Packers' offense and special teams put the defense in some challenging field-position situations last Sunday against Detroit, they did that again on just the second play of the game against Washington. On second down at the Green Bay 16, Rodgers found tight end Donald Lee for a 17-yard gain, but safety LaRon Landry forced a fumble that fellow safety Kareem Moore returned to the Packers' 21.

► But like it did last week against Detroit, the Packers defense held firm, with center Casey Rabach's snap on third down sailing over the head of quarterback Donovan McNabb, who was tackled by linebacker Clay Matthews for a 22-yard loss all the way back to the Washington 44 to force a Redskins punt.

► Taking over at its own 10-yard line, Green Bay's offense struck quickly behind the legs of running back Brandon Jackson. On first down, Jackson took a draw up the middle, made one tackler miss, and then bounced it out down the right sideline for a career-long 71 yard gain all the way to the Washington 19. Five plays later on a third down, Rodgers connected with Lee for a 5-yard score and a 7-0 lead.

► Just two possessions later, the Packers appeared poised to add to their lead, quickly moving the ball down the field again after starting out at their own 14. Rodgers made a nice deep throw into a tight spot to wide receiver James Jones (team-high 65 yards on four catches) down the left sideline for a 35-yard gain, and two plays later found Jones again for an 11-yard pickup to the Washington 9.

► But after Rodgers hooked up on quick pass to wide receiver Jordy Nelson for an 8-yard gain down to the 1, the offense wasn't able to punch the ball in for points on three straight plays. Running back John Kuhn was stopped for no gain up the middle on second down, and then a Rodgers sneak up the middle had the same result. After a timeout, Rodgers was pressured on a pass to tight end Andrew Quarless, and the pass was bounced off the helmet of linebacker Lorenzo Alexander.

► The special teams set up the offense on the next series, with a 52-yard punt return from Tramon Williams giving the offense the ball at the Washington 33, but a Brian Orakpo sack of Rodgers on third down forced Green Bay to settle for a 52-yard field goal from Crosby. Washington would add a field goal of its own just before the half, and the Packers took a 10-3 lead into the break.

► Green Bay quickly moved into scoring position on the first drive of the second half, but it would be the last time on the afternoon that it made it into the red zone. Jackson picked up 12 yards on a dump-off pass and 15 on a run up the middle, and Rodgers connected with Driver for a 34-yard pickup to the Washington 26. But the offense couldn't convert on third-and-2, and Green Bay was forced to settle for the 36-yard Crosby field goal and a 13-3 advantage.

► After the Packers' defense kept McNabb and the Washington offense in check for the first three quarters, allowing the Redskins to convert just on three of their first 11 third-down opportunities on the way to just three points, the veteran signal caller began to find his rhythm in the fourth quarter.

► McNabb and his offense got a boost from special teams, with wide receiver Brandon Banks returning a Tim Masthay punt 30 yards out to the Washington 40. Two plays later, McNabb (26-of-49 for 357 yards) lofted a deep pass down the middle that receiver Anthony

Armstrong made a leaping grab of over safety Charlie Peprah for a touch-down that trimmed Green Bay's lead to 13-10 while also energizing a dormant Washington crowd.

► Washington tied the game at 13 on a 45-yard field Gano field goal with just 1:07 remaining in the contest, and Green Bay took over at its own 21 with just one timeout left. But Rodgers moved the offense down the field in a hurry, completing a pair of passes to Quarless for 9 and 21 yards respectively, with those receptions sandwiching a 14-yard run by Rodgers. After the 21-yard completion to the rookie tight end put the ball at the Redskins' 35, Rodgers rushed up to the line to spike the ball with seven seconds remaining to give Crosby a shot to win it, but the kick that had plenty of distance hit the left upright.

► "To not be able to capitalize there at the end was very disappointing," Crosby said. "Obviously we thought we would get it in overtime and we came in here without the win, which was our ultimate goal. I'm just sick to my stomach about missing that kick.

► "I hit it all the way up the upright. I lined it up and thought I hit it the way I wanted to, but obviously it didn't go in. It just turned left on me and hit the upright."

► The Packers won the toss to start the extra period, but their first drive quickly stalled thanks to a Bryan Bulaga false-start penalty and then a sack of Rodgers by Orakpo on third down, the fourth of the afternoon for the Redskins. McNabb didn't waste any time once he took over, completing a pair of passes to wideout Santana Moss (seven catches for team-high 118 yards) to put the ball in Green Bay territory. But the Packers came through on third down with a sack of their own, with Brady Poppinga coming through untouched for a 9-yard loss that forced a Redskins punt.

► Just two plays later, Green Bay gave the ball back, with Rodgers' throw behind Greg Jennings and into the arms of Landry, who after a replay review was ruled down at the Green Bay 39.

► The Redskins moved into field-goal range courtesy of a pair of penalties, the first a holding call on Poppinga to convert a third-and 1 from the 30 and the second a pass interference call on Charles Woodson on second-and-15. McNabb kept the ball and picked up 7 yards on the next two plays up the middle to set up Gano, whose 33-yard kick split the uprights to give Washington the 16-13 victory.

► "We just let an opportunity slip away," Jones said. "There is no explanation for the way we lost this game. We lost it ourselves.

► "That's always the most frustrating part; as bad as you play, you still have a chance to win the game at the end and you still let the game slip away. It leaves a bad taste in your mouth, but at the same time you've got to put it behind you now. We are 3-2, and we've got to go get better and try and get Miami."

A LOOK AT THE SCHEDULE

The Green Bay Packers' 90th NFL regular-season schedule – headlined by six nationally televised games – was released in late April.

- ▶ Green Bay opened the 2010 slate on the road at Philadelphia before kicking off the home schedule with the Buffalo Bills in Week 2.
- ▶ Its first prime-time appearance – against the rival Bears in Chicago on Monday Night Football – came in Week 3. The NFL's oldest rivalry was on display in prime time for a fifth straight season, with this first meeting of the year marking game No. 180 in the all-time series.
- ▶ 2010 marks the 18th consecutive season the Packers have appeared on Monday Night Football, the NFC's longest streak.
- ▶ Three games are slated for Sunday night on NBC, including home games against the Minnesota Vikings (Week 7) and Dallas Cowboys (Week 9). In Week 15, the Packers are scheduled to take on the Patriots on Sunday night in Foxborough, though the game is subject to the NFL's flex scheduling.
- ▶ The Packers will get their first look at the new stadium in New Jersey in Week 8 against the Jets, where they may experience some cool fall temperatures. While games at Lambeau Field later in the season always provide a home-field advantage for the Packers, the 2010 schedule is nearly void of cold-weather road games. After the Jets, three consecutive road contests will be played in domes (Minnesota, Atlanta, Detroit).
- ▶ That's good news for a Green Bay offense that seems to thrive in domes. Including playoffs, the Packers played in a dome five times last season, exceeding 400 total net yards in four of those games.
- ▶ A number of games on the Packers' 2010 schedule – namely those on national TV – are beginning to have a familiar feel. In addition to taking on the Bears for a fifth consecutive year in prime time, Green Bay will take on Minnesota in prime time for a third straight season. The Packers and Cowboys will meet on national TV for the fourth straight season.
- ▶ The schedule concludes with two home games for the first time since 2005. One of the NFL's best teams in regular-season games played in December and January, Green Bay may need to call upon that previous success for what could prove to be two very important contests surrounding the Christmas and New Year's holidays. Games against the Giants (Week 16) and Bears (Week 17) could determine not only the NFC North Division crown but conference playoff seeding.

2010 SCHEDULE NUGGETS

Green Bay's bye week comes in Week 10, the latest possible week for NFL teams. It marks the latest time in which the Packers have had a bye in franchise history, besting the Week 9 bye in 2004. The Packers will play nine games before the bye and seven after the open date.

- ▶ Three of four games before the bye come at Lambeau Field, while four of five games after the bye are road contests.
- ▶ Immediately following the bye comes an important division game against Minnesota, the first of three straight road games played in domes. Under McCarthy, the team has won three of four games after the bye week and 10 of its last 14 after the bye dating back further.
- ▶ Green Bay has always been a successful team after the bye and 2009 was no different, as the team compiled a 9-3 (.750) mark after the bye week. Since 2000, the team is 61-36 (.629) overall after the bye.
- ▶ Fifteen games are slated for Sunday, the most since 1993 (also 15).
- ▶ Seven of the final eight games are against NFC opponents.
- ▶ The Packers have six games on the schedule against 2009 playoff teams, including Week 1 at Philadelphia. Beginning in Week 7 vs. Minnesota, Green Bay has a stretch of four straight games against playoff teams from a year ago. The team will travel east to take on the Jets in Week 8 and host the Cowboys in Week 9 before the bye. The stretch concludes in Minnesota in Week 11.
- ▶ The NFL's oldest rivalry will see a first in 2010. For the first time in series history, Green Bay will host Chicago in the regular-season finale, set to be game No. 181 between the Packers and Bears.

Tie Game

Green Bay 17, Denver 17, Sept. 20, 1987, at Milwaukee

GREEN BAY 34, BUFFALO 7 Lambeau Field, Sunday, Sept. 19, 2010. Attendance: 70,741. Time: 2:52. Weather: 58° F. Humidity: 51 percent. Wind: Variable 4 mph. GAME 2

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—Aaron Rodgers already shouldered plenty of pressure with the Green Bay Packers before losing starting running back Ryan Grant to a season-ending ankle injury last week.

Rodgers is even picking up the slack in the running game, too. Rodgers ran for a touchdown and threw for two more scores and didn't commit a turnover in Green Bay's 34-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on Sunday.

While Rodgers scrambled for 20 of Green Bay's 91 yards rushing, the rest of the running game was quiet. Starter Brandon Jackson gained 29 yards on 11 carries with one score and fullback John Kuhn added 36 yards on nine attempts.

The quarterback certainly has a lot more options by air and the Packers (2-0) appear ready to rely on that until they can figure out how to mount a significant attack again without Grant, their back-to-back 1,200-yard runner.

Jermichael Finley and Donald Driver caught four passes each, while Greg Jennings and James Jones added three more receptions apiece. Buffalo (0-2) had 186 total yards, 20 more than in last week's loss to the Dolphins.

Packers linebacker Clay Matthews sacked Trent Edwards three times to give him six this season and Green Bay forced two interceptions. Edwards finished 11 of 18 for 102 yards for a passer rating that was a 37, more than two points lower than if all 18 of his passes fell incomplete. Marshawn Lynch and Fred Jackson didn't run the ball well. Rookie C.J. Spiller was sharp on special teams, but not a factor on offense. The Bills' top playmaking receiver—Lee Evans—didn't catch a pass and was only targeted one time, when he drew a pass interference call for an offense that just kept spluttering.

Buffalo didn't gain a yard in the first quarter and only looked in rhythm momentarily when Jackson scored on a 3-yard run to cap an 80-yard drive early in the second quarter to cut Green Bay's lead to 13-7.

In the second half, Edwards was picked off by Brandon Chillar in Bills' territory after receiver Steve Johnson couldn't haul in the ball. Rodgers then threw a touchdown pass to Driver on third-and-goal from the 7 and scored again late in the third quarter with a 9-yard scramble that had his teammates laughing when he had a hard time leaping into the stands to celebrate with fans.

Rodgers capped his day by hitting Jones with a 30-yard TD pass to make it 34-7.

CHICAGO 20, GREEN BAY 17

Soldier Field, Monday, Sept. 27, 2010. Attendance: 62,179. Time: 3:04. Weather: 56° F, Humidity: 75 percent, Wind: E 6 mph GAME 3

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Bears were going nowhere and hearing it from the crowd. Good thing the Green Bay Packers were intent on giving this one away.

This one certainly wasn't pretty, even if the Bears remained unbeaten and established themselves as NFC contenders. Robbie Gould kicked a 19-yard field goal with 4 seconds left after Brian Urlacher forced a fumble in the closing minutes, and Chicago took advantage of a Green Bay team-record 18 penalties to beat the Packers 20-17 on Monday night.

Packers receiver James Jones lost a fumble on a hit by Urlacher before Green Bay's Morgan Burnett was called for pass interference on Earl Bennett, setting up the winning kick.

Jay Cutler threw for 221 yards for the Bears, (3-0), who kept insisting they were contenders through a sloppy preseason and less-than-inspiring opening win over Detroit. Since then, they turned heads with a win at Dallas last week and opened some more eyes against Green Bay—with lots of help from the Packers.

Urlacher jarred the ball out of Jones' hands after he caught a pass from Aaron Rodgers near midfield. Tim Jennings recovered, giving Chicago the ball on the Packers 46 with 2:18 remaining.

Soon after, another penalty cost the Packers (2-1) in a big way.

On second down at the 33, Cutler tried to hit Bennett deep along the right sideline and Burnett basically hammered him, wiping out an interception by Nick Collins and putting the ball at the 9. Three plays later, Chicago walked away with a wild win and the only undefeated record in the NFC.

Devin Hester delivered his first touchdown return in three years when he ran back a punt 62 yards in the fourth quarter, giving the Bears a short-lived 14-10 lead.

Rodgers threw for 316 yards and a touchdown and scored on a 3-yard run that gave the Packers 17-14 lead in the fourth quarter. Jermichael Finley had nine catches for 115 yards, but the sloppiness simply caught up with the Packers in the end.

Cutler completed 16 of 27 passes with a touchdown and an interception. Johnny Knox had four catches for 94 yards.

Chicago held its longtime rival to 63 yards rushing, but the Bears had only 77, turning it into an air game for much of the night.

Hester had just put the Bears ahead in the opening seconds of the fourth quarter when the Packers responded with a 72-yard touchdown drive.

A roughing-the-passer penalty on Henry Melton gave them a first down at the 3. Rodgers, who cramped up a few plays earlier, rolled to his right and lunged into the end zone, making it 17-14.

Then the Packers basically gave it away.

Frank Zombo got called for a helmet-on-helmet hit against Cutler on the next drive that erased an interception by Nick Barnett. On second down, Collins got called for a late hit on Matt Forte after a 15-yard reception, putting the ball on the Packers 29.

Gould made a 25-yard field goal to tie it at 17 with 3:59 left.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—As far as Aaron Rodgers is concerned, the Green Bay Packers offense is at its best when using multiple-receiver shotgun formations to spread out opposing defenses.

So when the offense went scoreless in the second half and the Packers barely held on for a 28-26 victory over Detroit on Sunday, Rodgers saw his team not playing to its main strength.

Rodgers chose his words deliberately but diplomatically, making his point without directly challenging his coaches. It was another sign that the Packers remain unsatisfied with what they've shown the rest of the NFL so far this season. Despite their 3-1 start, they're a team with Super Bowl aspirations that has yet to prove it can play like one of the league's elite for a full game.

Rodgers threw for 161 yards and three touchdowns. But he also threw a pair of interceptions for the Packers, who were coming off a sloppy performance in a loss at Chicago on Monday night.

If Sunday's game didn't feel like a satisfying win for Green Bay, it also didn't feel like anything approaching a moral victory for Detroit (0-4). It was the franchise's 20th straight loss to the Packers in Wisconsin, a streak that began in 1992 and includes a playoff loss.

The Lions showed that they're more dangerous than they have been in the recent past, but it still wasn't enough to win. The Packers appeared ready to rout the Lions when Charles Woodson returned an interception 48 yards for a touchdown and a 28-14 lead early in the third quarter.

But the Packers' offense went silent in the second half while the Lions rallied for four straight. Jason Hanson field goals to cut the lead to two points. Had the Lions been able to finish any of those drives with a touchdown instead of a field goal, they might be celebrating a victory.

A last drive by the Packers ran out the final 6:32 of the clock as Green Bay rediscovered its running game at the best possible moment. Detroit again was without injured quarterback Matthew Stafford, but backup Shaun Hill looked poised under center. He threw for 331 yards and two touchdowns to Calvin Johnson, helping to make the game close despite the Lions committing 13 penalties.

WASHINGTON 16, GREEN BAY 13 (OT)

FedExField, Sunday, Oct. 10, 2010. Attendance: 87,760. Time: 3:35. Weather: 72° F, Humidity: 46 percent, Wind: calm. GAME 5

LANDOVER, Md. (AP)—There are plenty of places to point when trying to figure out why the Washington Redskins are 3-2.

There's stability provided by new quarterback Donovan McNabb. There's the turnover-producing and suddenly points-strifing defense, led by safety LaRon Landry. There's also been help from injuries to opponents' key players.

In the locker room after Washington's 16-13 overtime victory over the Green Bay Packers on Sunday, the Redskins uniformly pointed to one significant explanation for their success so far in 2010: coach Mike Shanahan.

For the fourth time in five weeks, Washington's game came down to the final play. On Sunday, it was Graham Gano's 33-yard field goal 6:54 into the extra period that made the difference, set up by Landry's diving interception of Aaron Rodgers at Green Bay's 39-yard line.

Rodgers sustained a concussion, the Packers said after the game, and it appeared to happen on that last play for their offense. The Redskins trailed 13-3 entering the third quarter. They were outgained 209 yards to 24 in the first quarter. Seven of their first eight possessions ended in punts. Even once they made it 13-all on Gano's 45-yard kick with 1:07 left in regulation, the Redskins had to weather a Packers drive that ended with Mason Crosby hitting the left upright from 53 yards with 1 second left.

Under Shanahan's predecessor, as head coach—Jim Zorn—and with McNabb's predecessor at starting quarterback—Jason Campbell—the Redskins went 4-12 last season. Two of Washington's games this season have gone to overtime—including a 30-27 loss to Houston in Week 2—and two ended on passes thrown into the end zone by the opponent on the last play of regulation—including a 17-12 victory at Philadelphia last weekend.

The Packers (3-2), meanwhile, are dealing with a long list of injuries. By game's end, linebacker Clay Matthews was on the sideline, wearing a green Packers wool cap instead of a helmet, ice strapped to his injured left hamstring. Tight end Jeremiah Finley was leaning on a pair of metal crutches, keeping weight off his hurt knee.

Green Bay also had tight end Donald Lee (shoulder), defensive lineman Ryan Pickett (ankle), and safety Derrick Martin (knee) leave. The Packers stumbled on one big sequence early: Already ahead 7-0 early in the second quarter, they had second-and-goal at Washington's 1 and came away with nothing. Rodgers' fourth-down pass to tight end Andrew Quarless was broken up in the end zone.

Later, Washington's defense—a 3-4 scheme that ranks last in the NFL in yards allowed—was stuffing the Packers repeatedly. Green Bay's last seven possessions resulted in four punts, two missed field goals and Rodgers' interception.
