GREEN BAY, NOV. 30, 2010

WEEK 13

SAN FRANCISCO (4-7) AT GREEN BAY (7-4) Sunday, Dec. 5 • Lambeau Field • Noon CST

GREEN BAY RETURNS HOME TO HOST 49ERS IN NFC MATCHUP

The Packers return home to play at Lambeau Field for the first time in nearly a month when they host the San Francisco 49ers on Sunday.

- ▶ The Packers' last home contest was on Nov. 7 against Dallas, a 45-7 Green Bay win in a nationally televised Sunday night game.
- ▶ Green Bay had its bye the next week before going on the road for back-to-back contests in Minnesota and Atlanta. The Packers split those games, and now sit in second place in the NFC North behind Chicago (8-3).
- ▶ The Packers are one of four NFC teams with a 7-4 mark, joined by Philadelphia, the N.Y. Giants and Tampa Bay. Atlanta leads the conference at 9-2 with the Bears checking in second.
- ▶ This Sunday's game against San Francisco will be the first of five NFC games in the final six contests for Green Bay, with a matchup at New England in Week 15 the lone interconference game left on the schedule.
- ▶ This is the second straight season that Green Bay and San Francisco have met at Lambeau Field. Since the series began back in 1950, the Packers and 49ers have never squared off in Green Bay in the regular season in back-to-back years. They did meet in Milwaukee in consecutive years on several occasions.
- ▶ Frequent foes in the 1990s and early part of the decade, the Packers and 49ers have met three times in Head Coach Mike McCarthy's five-year tenure. The rivalry took to new heights when the teams met four straight years (1995-98) in the postseason.
- ▶ Including playoffs, the Packers have won seven consecutive games over the 49ers in Green Bay. In the overall series, the Packers have won seven straight, and 12 of the last 13, including a 4-1 mark in postseason action.
- ▶ McCarthy's last stop as an NFL assistant came in San Francisco, where he served as offensive coordinator in 2005. QB Aaron Rodgers, a Chico, Calif., native, will be playing against the team he grew up rooting for.
- ▶ Packers fans will certainly recognize a familiar face on the opposing sideline. 49ers coach Mike Singletary was a Hall of Fame middle linebacker for the rival Bears for 12 seasons (1981-92). Chicago was 15-7 against Green Bay during Singletary's playing days.

WITH THE CALL

FOX Sports, now in its 17th season as an NFL network television partner, will broadcast the game to a regional audience.

- ▶ Play-by-play man Thom Brennaman and color analyst Brian Billick will have the call from the broadcast booth with Charissa Thompson reporting from the sidelines.
- ▶ Milwaukee's WTMJ (620 AM), airing Green Bay games since 1929, heads up the 53-station Packers Radio Network, with Wayne Larrivee (play-by-play) and two-time Packers Pro Bowler Larry McCarren (color) calling the action. The duo enters its 12th season of broadcasts together across the Packers Radio Network, which covers 43 markets in five states.
- ▶ Sports USA Radio will broadcast the game with Tom McCarthy (play-by-play), Tony Graziani (analyst) and Rich Herrera (sideline reporter).
- ▶ For out-of-town listeners, the broadcast is available to NFL Field Pass subscribers on www.packers.com as well as on Sirius Satellite Radio (channel 123 WTMJ feed) as part of the network's NFL Sunday Drive.
- ▶ DIRECTV subscribers can watch the game in HD on channel 710.

THIRD JERSEY REFLECTS TEAM'S RICH HISTORY

On Sunday, the Packers will be wearing a third jersey that is a re-creation of the team's uniform from 1929, the year of Green Bay's first world championship when the team finished 12-0-1 under Curly Lambeau.

- ▶ The NFL championship was awarded by league standing until 1933, and the Packers edged out the N.Y. Giants (13-1-1, .929) for the title in 1929. Green Bay beat the Giants, 20-6, in New York that season. The Packers outscored their opponents 198-22 and registered eight shutouts in '29.
- ▶ That year actually marked the first of three consecutive titles, as the Packers recorded a 34-5-2 cumulative record in official league games from 1929-31. The Packers have won 12 world championships in all.
- ▶ The jersey is navy blue with the number on the front inside a gold circle. The circle and number are enlarged a bit from their 1929 size to comply with NFL regulations regarding jersey numbers. An enlarged number is also on the back, with a nameplate above the number, another modification that wasn't present in 1929.
- ▶ The helmet is a solid brown color without a logo to best simulate the leather helmets worn during the era, and the pants are a tan color.
- ▶ The last time the Packers wore a third jersey was in 2003 at Detroit on Thanksgiving Day. See page 4 for a closer look at the previous third-jersey games in franchise annals.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

DEFENSE GETTING IT DONE

After finishing No. 2 in the league's final overall rankings and No. 7 in points allowed in 2009, the defense is enjoying an even more productive season when it comes to keeping opponents off the scoreboard.

- ▶ The Packers rank No. 1 in the league in scoring defense, allowing the opposition an average of just 15.1 points per game, an improvement over last season's mark of 18.6 per contest. Green Bay currently ranks No. 12 in the NFL in overall defense, allowing an average of 320.7 yards per game through Week 12.
- ▶ The last time Green Bay led the league in scoring defense this late in a season was when it finished No. 1 in the league in that category at the end of the 1996 Super Bowl season (13.1 per game).
- ▶ The defense has limited opposing signal-callers to a passer rating of just 70.0, which ranks No. 2 in the NFL behind only Chicago (69.3). The 70.0 rating is just a shade above what the defense allowed in 2009 when it finished No. 4 in the league rankings in that category with a 68.8 rating by opposing QBs.
- ▶ The Packers have recorded 15 interceptions, which is tied for No. 4 in the league, and opposing quarterbacks have completed 58.1 percent of their passes (No. 7). Green Bay has given up only 10 TD passes, which ranks No. 3 in the NFL.
- ▶ After leading the NFL in run defense for the first time in 2009 by allowing a franchise-record 83.3 yards per game, the Packers haven't been as stingy against the run thus far this season, ranking No. 18 in the league (112.5 yards per game).
- ▶ In the last four games, the Packers have allowed their opponents to rush for 92.0 yards per game and one rushing TD. Green Bay has given up just five rushing TDs all year, which is tied for No. 5 in the NFL.
- ▶ In the win over Dallas in Week 9, the Packers limited the Cowboys to just 39 rushing yards on 14 carries (2.8 avg.). That was the fewest yards given up by a Green Bay defense since Detroit was limited to 33 yards on the ground on Oct. 17, 2004.
- ▶ At the N.Y. Jets in Week 8, the defense registered the first road shutout by the Packers since 1991 against an offense that entered the game ranked No. 2 in the league in rushing offense at 159.2 yards per game.
- ▶ Facing LaDainian Tomlinson and Shonn Greene, the Packers limited the tandem to just 76 yards on 22 carries (3.5 avg.), their lowest combined effort of the season.
- ▶ Until Vikings RB Adrian Peterson rushed for 131 yards in Week 7, Green Bay's defense hadn't allowed a running back to rush for 100 yards for 19 straight games. Peterson and Falcons RB Michael Turner (Week 12 this season) are the only backs to eclipse 100 yards since Week 3 of 2009.
- ▶ The 19-game streak was the second longest in in team history since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger, trailing only a 24-game game stretch from Sept. 20, 1970-Nov. 22, 1971.
- ▶ Under defensive coordinator Dom Capers, the Packers thrived in their new 3-4 scheme in 2009, finishing No. 1 against the run and No. 5 against the pass. The previous top ranking in franchise history in run defense came in 1972, when the team finished No. 2.
- ▶ Green Bay allowed an average of 284.4 total yards per game in '09, second behind the N.Y. Jets (252.3) and ahead of No. 3 Baltimore (300.5).
- ▶ A look at some of Green Bay's defensive numbers since Capers took over as coordinator in 2009:

Team	Rushing Yds. Allowed Per Game
1. Pittsburgh	79.3
2. Minnesota	89.4
3. N.Y. Jets	93.6
4. Green Bay	95.2

Team	Rushing TDs Allowed

2t. Minnesota	11

PRODUCTION APLENTY INSIDE THE 20

Green Bay has had one of the more efficient red-zone offenses in the league over the past two seasons, finishing in the top 10 in the NFL in 2008 and 2009.

- ▶ Through Week 12, the Packers have had another productive season in that area, scoring touchdowns on 22 of 34 trips inside the opponent's 20. That 64.7 percent touchdown rate ranks tied for No. 3 in the NFL, and the 22 TDs rank tied for No. 6.
- ▶ Green Bay's 172 points in the red zone this season (22 touchdowns, six field goals) rank No. 11 in the league. Its average of 5.06 points per red-zone trip ranks No. 5 in the NFL.
- ▶ The Packers' production has come in not many opportunities, as they rank tied for No. 18 in the league with the 34 red-zone possessions. That is behind their pace from last season, when Green Bay finished No. 6 in the league with 62 red-zone drives.
- ▶ The highest red-zone conversion mark under Head Coach Mike McCarthy came in 2008, when the Packers ranked No. 6 in the NFL with a 60.4 percent touchdown rate. The last time Green Bay finished in the top five in the category came in 2003, when the Packers finished No. 2 in the NFL with a 65.4 conversion rate.
- ▶ Some of Green Bay's success in the red zone has to be credited to the play of QB Aaron Rodgers, who has been one of the more efficient signal-callers in the league inside the 20 since taking over as the starter in 2008.
- ▶ In Week 7 against Minnesota, Rodgers threw a red-zone interception for the first time in 39 career starts to that point. Since 2008, he has registered a 107.7 rating on 121-of-196 passing (61.7 percent) for 784 yards and 50 touchdowns with one interception in the red zone.
- ▶ According to STATS, Rodgers has connected on 36-of-54 passes (66.7 percent) for 246 yards and 14 TDs with one INT in the red zone in 2010 for a 108.5 passer rating.

STAT OF THE WEEK

- ▶ With 35 passing attempts at Atlanta this past Sunday, QB Aaron Rodgers surpassed the 1,500-attempt plateau for his career, the benchmark to qualify for career passer rating in the NFL.
- ▶ Rodgers has completed 966-of-1,505 passes (64.2 percent) in his career for 11,746 yards and 79 touchdowns with 30 interceptions for a 97.3 passer rating.
- ▶ That rating ranks second in NFL history behind only San Diego QB Philip Rivers, who also has a 97.3 career rating. Rivers' rating is 97.34 compared to a 97.28 mark for Rodgers.
- ▶ Four of the top five rated passers in NFL history are active quarterbacks. Rounding out the top five are Steve Young (96.8), Tony Romo (95.5) and Peyton Manning (94.9).
- ▶ Rodgers also ranks No. 1 in NFL history (min. 1,500 attempts) in interception percentage at 2.0, ahead of Neil O'Donnell (2.1) and Donovan McNabb (2.2).
- ▶ Rodgers enters Sunday's game with 147 consecutive passing attempts without an interception, the third-best mark of his career behind streaks of 159 and 157. Rodgers' current streak of 147 ranks third among active streaks behind only New England's Tom Brady (199) and Atlanta's Matt Ryan (165).

Green Bay's 27-17 triumph in the 1995 NFC Divisional playoff was considered the breakthrough victory that established the Packers as an elite team for the next several years. The Packers also won the next two postseason meetings, a 35-14 home victory in the 1996 NFC Divisional playoff en route to the Super Bowl XXXI title, and a 23-10 win at San Francisco in the 1997 NFC Championship game.

- ▶ 49ers WR Michael Crabtree caught a 38-yard TD pass from QB Alex Smith, but Packers RB Ryan Grant (21 carries, 129 yards) responded with a 1-yard TD run following an INT by S Nick Collins to make it 30-10 early in the fourth quarter.
- ▶ San Francisco's Josh Morgan returned a kickoff 76 yards to jump-start a 49ers comeback. Smith's 24-yard TD pass to TE Vernon Davis and 10-yard TD toss to RB Frank Gore pulled San Francisco within 30-24 with just under 6 minutes left.

FEWER FLAGS ON THE FIELD

One area of emphasis for the Packers this season was reducing the number of penalties, and that focus has paid dividends.

- ▶ Through Week 12, Green Bay ranks tied for No. 9 in the league with 61 accepted penalties (5.5 per game), a pace that would make for a dramatic improvement from 2009. The Packers check in at No. 6 in penalty yardage with 481 yards, an average of 43.7 yards per game.
- ▶ The Packers led the league in penalties last season with 118 (7.4 per game) while ranking second in penalty yardage with 1,057 (66.1 per game), the third straight year that they finished among the top five most-penalized teams.
- ▶ With just one penalty for 5 yards in Week 11 at Minnesota, it was the sixth game this season, and the fourth straight, that Green Bay had been called for three or fewer penalties in a game, the best single-season mark since six games in 1974.
- ▶ The eight penalties over those four games was the fewest by the Packers over a four-game span since they had eight from Nov. 19-Dec. 9, 1967.
- ▶ The performance at Minnesota was especially notable. The one penalty at the Metrodome was the fewest in 28 games at the stadium, and the last time a team posted just one penalty at Minnesota was San Diego on Nov. 28, 1999. The last time the Packers were only penalized once in a game came at Chicago on Dec. 23, 2007.
- ▶ The six games nearly match the number of combined games with three or fewer penalties in the first four seasons under Head Coach Mike McCarthy, and Green Bay didn't do it once last season. The Packers are 6-0 this season when they are penalized three or fewer times in a game.
- ▶ Green Bay recorded two games with three or fewer penalties in 2008, two in '07 to end the regular season, and three in '06.
- ▶ Since the Packers were flagged a franchise-record 18 times for 152 yards in the loss at Chicago in Week 3, they've committed just 35 penalties for 265 yards over their last eight games, an average of 4.4 penalties for 33.1 yards per game.
- ▶ Green Bay was flagged for eight penalties for 66 yards at Atlanta on Sunday, but will look to get back on track at home this Sunday. In the past two games at Lambeau Field, the Packers have been whistled for just four total penalties.
- ▶ The Packers got off to a good start this season with just two penalties at Philadelphia in Week 1, the fewest by Green Bay in an opening-day contest since Sept. 7, 1986, vs. Houston at Lambeau Field, when they were also called for two penalties.

TURNING BACK THE CLOCK

When the Packers take the field on Sunday in their third jerseys (pictured above), it will be the seventh time in franchise history that the team has worn throwback jerseys and only the second time ever at Lambeau Field.

- ▶ The last time the Packers wore a third jersey was in 2003 at Detroit on Thanksgiving Day. In that contest, the team paid tribute to the 1967 team with a re-creation of the uniforms from that season.
- ▶ Green Bay also wore an alternate jersey on Thanksgiving Day at Detroit in 2001, sporting a look from 1939.
- ▶ In 1994, the team wore 1937 uniforms in four contests as part of the NFL's 75th anniversary season.
- ▶ Here is a look at the six other games for which the Packers sported a third jersey:

Opponent/Date	Result
at Philadelphia, Sept. 18, 1994	L, 13-7
vs. Tampa Bay, Sept. 25, 1994	W, 30-3
at New England, Oct. 2, 1994	L, 17-16
at Chicago, Oct. 31, 1994	W, 33-6
at Detroit, Nov. 22, 2001	W, 29-27
at Detroit, Nov. 27, 2003	L, 22-14

MAKING THEM PAY WITH TAKEAWAYS

After tying for the league lead in points off of takeaways last season, the Packers are once again sitting atop the NFL rankings in 2010.

- ▶ Green Bay leads the NFL with 87 points off of takeaways, 12 points ahead of No. 2 Pittsburgh. The Packers are tied for No. 6 in the NFL with a plus-7 turnover ratio, and have a plus-8 mark in just the last four games. Starting with the second half of the Week 7 Minnesota contest, the Packers have a plus-11 margin over that span.
- ▶ Of the Packers' 21 takeaways this season, 12 of them have been converted into touchdowns. That 57.1 TD percentage ranks No. 2 in the NFL behind only Buffalo (8-12, 66.7), and Green Bay's 12 TDs off of takeaways lead the NFL.
- ▶ Green Bay has averaged 4.14 points off of takeaways this season, good for No. 3 in the league behind Buffalo (5.33) and Kansas City (4.33).
- ▶ The Packers are tied with three other teams for the No. 4 spot in interceptions (15), and the Packers are tied with Tampa Bay, San Diego and New England for the NFL lead in INTs for TDs (three).
- ▶ With LB Clay Matthews' INT for a TD in Week 9 vs. Dallas, the Packers have now posted at least three INTs for TDs in each of the last three seasons. That is the first time in franchise history that Green Bay has accomplished that feat. The Packers have posted at least three INTs for TDs in four of five seasons under Head Coach Mike McCarthy.
- ▶ Scoring points off of turnovers has become a trend for the Packers at Lambeau Field, as they have a current streak of 15 straight games at home with points scored that were set up by a takeaway. That home streak ranks first in the NFL.
- ▶ The Packers have had 10 different players post an interception this season, which is tied with Atlanta for No. 1 in the NFL, and that number is the most by the Packers in a season since 11 in 2002.
- ▶ Green Bay posted 30 INTs and 10 fumble recoveries in 2009, which it turned into 141 points. The 40 takeaways led the NFL, and the 141 points scored off those takeaways tied New Orleans for most in the NFL.
- ▶ The 30 interceptions led the league and was the team's highest single-season total since 1981, when it also had 30.
- ▶ Last season Green Bay surpassed its 2008 total of 124 points off takeaways, which led the NFL. It also eclipsed its '08 total in interceptions (22) and fumble recoveries (six) while at the same time protecting the ball at a better clip. Green Bay's 16 giveaways was the lowest total in the NFL in 2009.
- ▶ If the Packers don't commit a turnover, like they didn't at Minnesota in Week 11 for the third straight week, they're almost guaranteed to win. They have now won 43 of 47 games (.915) playing turnover-free football, since a loss at Dallas, Nov. 18, 1996. Green Bay's only losses in such games during that stretch came three times against Minnesota, twice in Minneapolis (2005, '08) and once at home (2009), and in Week 15 last year at Pittsburgh. Green Bay hasn't turned the ball over in the last 14 quarters of play.
- ▶ Including playoffs, the Packers have won 45 of their last 49 games when they don't turn the ball over. Under McCarthy, Green Bay is 19-3 (.864) when its turnover margin is plus-2 or better.
- ▶ During McCarthy's tenure, the Packers have a 34-6 (.850) record when they come out ahead in the game in turnover ratio, and a 6-18 (.250) record when they lose the takeaway battle. The Packers rank tied for No. 2 in the NFL with a plus-42 turnover ratio since 2006 behind only San Diego (plus-43).
- ▶ This Sunday, the Packers will face a San Francisco team that has done a much better job of taking care of the ball of late. In their last six games (4-2), the 49ers have turned the ball over just four times, including three contests with no giveaways. In the first five games of the season (all losses), the 49ers turned the ball over 15 times.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

CLAY FINDS A WAY

Despite sitting out Green Bay's Week 6 matchup vs. Miami due to a hamstring injury, the first time he missed a game in his career, LB Clay Matthews leads the NFL with 11.5 sacks this season.

- ▶ Matthews was named to the Midseason All-Pro Teams of Pro Football Weekly and Sports Illustrated, and was selected by the Dallas Morning News as the Midseason Defensive Player of the Year in the NFL.
- ▶ With a sack of QB Jon Kitna in the second quarter in Week 9 against Dallas, Matthews became the first Packer since the stat became official in 1982 to register a double-digit sack total in each of his first two seasons in the NFL.
- ▶ Matthews also posted his first career interception in Week 9, and returned the pick 62 yards for a TD on his way to earning NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the third time in his career. It was the second TD of his career, and both of his scores have come in prime-time games. Matthews returned a fumble 42 yards for a TD last season in Week 4 at Minnesota on Monday Night Football.

▶ According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Matthews is the first NFL player since sacks became an official statistic in 1982 to register double-digit sacks and a defensive TD in each of his first two seasons in the NFL.

▶ With three sacks against the Buffalo Bills in Week 2, Matthews became the first Packer to post three sacks in back-to-back games since it became an official league statistic in 1982.

▶ The performance vs. Buffalo came a week after Matthews registered a career-high three sacks in the Packers' 27-20 season-opening victory at Philadelphia.

▶ Matthews was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for Week 2, and he also won the award last season for his two-sack outing vs. Baltimore in Week 13 on MNF.

▶ Matthews' six sacks in the first two games of the season were the most ever by a Packer to start a year.

▶ His 33 sack yards vs. Buffalo were the most by a Packer since DE Reggie White's 35 on two sacks vs. Minnesota on Oct. 22, 1995. Matthews ranks No. 2 in the league with 68.5 sack yards on the season (Pittsburgh LB James Harrison, 69). Aaron Kampman (108 in 2006) holds the single-season franchise record for sack yardage.

▶ Matthews' six sacks over a two-game span rank second in team history behind only Bryce Paup, who recorded 6.5 sacks in Weeks 3-4 in 1991. Paup posted 4.5 sacks vs. Tampa Bay on Sept. 15, and then followed that up with two more the next week at Miami on Sept. 22.

▶ In 26 career games played, Matthews has posted two or more sacks in a game five times. Those five set a franchise record for the most two-sack games over the first 18 games in a Packers uniform, breaking White's mark of four in his first 18 games with Green Bay (1993-94).

▶ Matthews' 21.5 sacks since 2009 rank tied for No. 2 in the NFL behind only Minnesota DE Jared Allen (22).

▶ Matthews' 17 sacks in his first 20 games were the most ever by any NFL player to start a career. It topped the previous mark of 16.5 set by San Diego's Leslie O'Neal (1986, 1988) and the N.Y. Jets' John Abraham (2000-01).

▶ In 2009, Matthews set a Packers rookie record with 10 sacks on his way to earning Pro Bowl honors, the first Green Bay rookie to be named to the all-star game since Hall of Fame WR James Lofton in 1978.

UNDER PRESSURE

After recording six sacks in Week 1 at Philadelphia, the most by any NFL team on opening weekend, the Packers have followed that debut up with 25 more sacks in the next 10 games.

▶ Green Bay's 31 sacks as a team through Week 12 are tied for No. 5 in the NFL behind only San Diego (33) and Oakland, Pittsburgh and Tennessee (32 each). The Packers rank No. 6 in sack yardage with 207, and have had 12 different players record a sack this season.

▶ The only time Green Bay was shut out in the sack column this season was in Week 6 against Miami, a game LB Clay Matthews missed due to injury. The Packers have failed to register a sack only two times in the past 19 regular-season games.

- ▶ The Packers' 21 sacks in the first five games this year were the most in a five-game span in Head Coach Mike McCarthy's five seasons.
- ▶ Green Bay recorded five sacks at Washington in Week 5, the Packers' second five-sack game this season. Green Bay is one of only three teams in the league (Detroit, Tennessee) to post two five-sack games in 2010.
- ▶ Of the team's 31 sacks, 11.5 have come courtesy of Matthews, who leads the NFL in that category. DE Cullen Jenkins, who ranks second on the team with five sacks, posted a sack in each of the first four games and in Week 12.
- ▶ The Packers are ahead of their sack pace from last season, when Green Bay's 31st sack didn't come until Week 15 at Pittsburgh.
- ▶ Green Bay has posted four or more sacks in a game four times this season, which already eclipses the 2009 total of three. The Packers recorded 37 sacks last season, which was tied for No. 11 in the league.
- ▶ The Packers' best league ranking in sacks was No. 3, a spot they held on three occasions (1965, 1966, 2001).

FIGHTING THROUGH ADVERSITY

Every team in the league has to battle injuries at some point, but the Packers had to deal with a season's worth of significant ones in just the first half of the season.

▶ From the season-opening depth chart, the Packers have lost six starters for the remainder of the season due to injuries, three on each side of the ball.

▶ RB Ryan Grant, coming off back-to-back 1,200-yard seasons, sustained a season-ending ankle injury in Week 1 at Philadelphia. TE Jermichael Finley, whose 301 yards receiving in the first four games was the best start ever to a season by a Green Bay tight end, was lost for the year after suffering a knee injury on the second play from scrimmage at Washington in Week 5.

T Mark Tauscher, who sustained a shoulder injury in Week 4 vs. Detroit, was placed on injured reserve on Nov. 12.

▶ Rookie S Morgan Burnett, who became only the second Packers rookie safety to start a season opener since 1988, sustained a season-ending knee injury against Detroit in Week 4. In the same game, LB Nick Barnett, the No. 2 tackler in franchise history, suffered a wrist injury that brought an end to his season. LB Brad Jones saw his season come to an end after sustaining a shoulder injury in Week 7 vs. Minnesota.

▶ The Packers currently have 13 players on injured reserve, and eight of those players started at least one game this season. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, no other team in the league has more than three players on injured reserve that started a game in 2010.

▶ Here is a look at the starters and key reserves that have missed games due to injury and/or have been placed on injured reserve this season:

MIKE McCARTHY TRANSCRIPT

EXCERPTS FROM THE COACH – MONDAY, NOV. 29

OK, I'll start with the injuries. Brandon Chillar re-injured his shoulder. He will be out this week. Spencer Havner had a hamstring strain. He will also be out this week. Dimitri Nance suffered a concussion. He will go through the normal process there throughout the week. Greg Jennings had a foot strain. I anticipate he will miss some practice time. And Patrick Lee had an ankle sprain. He will be challenged to be back this week. With that I'll take your questions.

► (What is the timeline for Nance?)

He'll go through the normal process. They have a history on every player. Go through that and it will be headed up by Dr. John Gray. We'll go day by day. I'm sure I'll be giving you updates Wednesday, Thursday and Friday as we move through the week.

► (Is Starks ready to come up?)

Well, he'd better be. He may have an opportunity this week.

► (What are your thoughts on the running game going forward, as far as how effective it has been or could be?)

We got into a game really throwing the football. Our situational run wasn't what it needed to be. But as far as the offense as a whole, I thought it was as productive of a performance as we've had this year in the passing game. Really the issues, the first third-and-1 down there on the goal line and the two quarterback sneaks are both plays you want to see go in the end zone. Our sub run game was productive, particularly in our no-huddle. We really never got to our two-back offense because of the success that we were having with our multiple-wide receiver sets. We'll go through it every week. Our opponent really dictates how we run the ball.

► (How did the second-down one get blown up?)

It was a good check by Aaron, and I fully expect us to execute that play versus that particular defense, especially in the transition that their defensive line was in. It was a good check by Aaron. Poor execution.

► (In terms of your philosophy, do you like quarterback sneaks?)

You never want to expose your quarterback to unnecessary hits, but it's like any play you have in your offense. There's a design, there's technique involved, and when it's not done right, usually negative things happen, and it was evident on both of those sneaks.

► (Heading into December, do you have to be better running the ball?)

I clearly understand where you're going with this. But we played in a dome, played on a very fast track, different surface than I played there in the beginning, and had favorable matchups outside in our opinion. It was extremely productive. December, playing outside, all those factors ... our opponent really determines how we play each game offensively.

► (What did you think of the tackling on a couple of those third downs?)

The two big third downs were negative plays for us on defense. The one checkdown where we didn't tackle, and really the third and I think it was 16 that led to the fourth-and-3 where we missed the tackles. If you have a longer down-and-distance there on fourth down they probably don't attempt the fourth down. We need to tackle better. It's like anything. I'm a big believer in you get what you emphasize. You gentlemen are at practice every day. We do tackling drills three days a week. That's something we installed back in the spring. No different than our ball-security drills. We expect and demand to take care of the football, take the football away, and we expect to tackle as a football team, both defensively and throughout the special teams, well week in and week out. We did not do that to the level that we've been doing it here over the last month.

► (What was the sequence in not challenging the Gonzalez fourth-down catch?)

Anytime you have a play you're looking to challenge, really it's based on information. There was really no information that would have led me to challenge that play. Really, if you want to break it down even further, you look at significant information and you have blind information. There was no significant information which would come from a replay. There was really no blind information. Their offense didn't hurry up. I saw the play. It looked like Tony had both his hands under the ball. Watching the coaches' film this morning, you can't tell that it's a catch or no catch. But my understanding was a play or two later, whatever the timing was, when it finally did come in the box, that there was movement on the catch, and that's really off of a TV angle, a totally different angle that we did not have access to. There was really no information for me to consider challenging that play. And frankly, each week, you evaluate your officiating crew. Pete Morelli's crew is among the lowest at turning over challenges. So those are all types of things, whether you play the high side or low side as far as taking an attempt at a blind challenge situation, which that clearly would have been in that case.

► (Would you ever consider using a timeout to get that information?)

I think I already answered the question. There was no information at all to tell me even to consider taking a timeout. Their sideline, they didn't hurry up and get on the ball. Charlie Peprah was in coverage so he was making a break on it. There was really no information to make me believe that was not a catch.

► (Overall, do you like how the replay system is set up?)

I think the camera angles are phenomenal, particularly when you play in a national TV game where there are more cameras available. Every stadium is different, particularly on the road. It's part of our game. I think it does fall into the category of home-field advantage sometimes. Yeah, I'm pleased with it.

► (Have you had issues before with replays being delayed on the road?)

It's part of the game. We're not going to do down that road. Like I said, I think it is all part of home-field advantage. Sometimes it may seem quicker than others. I have never stopped and tried to time it. There is a process that we have on why we challenge and when we challenge, and we adhere to that process.

► (Rodgers has been criticized for not winning close games, but was that 90-yard drive one of the better drives he has had?)

I have never seen a quarterback, in my time here, play to that level in the passing game. I'll make that statement clearly here. I thought his performance, as far as handling their pressure vs. empty sets, handling their three-man rush. He had the delay of game there that backed us up and he bought as much time as he possibly could on the three-man rush for the fourth-down call. I thought he played at an extremely high level in the passing game. The quarterback sneak, the fumble, to me that's as much on the execution of the line as it is on the ball-carrier. It's adversity, and it takes all three phases. Our offense needed to go the distance of the field. We tried to manage the clock the best we could. He got the seven points and then we come back and have the kickoff come right back at us out to the 50. We obviously didn't handle the adversity on special teams there at that particular point, but I thought that was an outstanding performance by Aaron Rodgers yesterday.

► (How did that kickoff return break down?)

They went with a middle return. Really didn't get any penetration from the backside. The safety shot it so the ball didn't bounce when they went with the middle return. The coverage element, as far as not getting the penetration, was the first breakdown. It was obviously a poor tackling technique with the high tackle. There they are, they're out there on the 50-yard line.

► (When you look back to some of the close losses, is there a common thread?)

Every game is different. Every challenge is different. We fully anticipated a 60-minute game. We talked about it as a football team all week. I thought they did a better job in the trenches than we did. We played to our strengths offensively, and really we didn't put enough points on the board too and our defense let them in the end zone one too many times and special teams didn't handle the adversity. It really came down to probably one play in any one of those areas and the outcome is probably different. I don't think there is a common thread. It's a road game, a tough environment, very loud. Louder than I recall in my past games down there. I thought we handled the crowd noise exceptionally just as a whole as far as our tempo in and out of the huddle. I thought our defense handled their personnel groups and the communication challenges as good as we possibly could in that environment. I think they had 10 personnel groupings in the first 18 plays. There were a lot of challenges going on there that we did very well (in), but the outcome obviously was not what you wanted. You have to keep building off the positives. I thought we had an edge to our play here the last three weeks or so and our edge wasn't as sharp as it needed to be in Atlanta.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

PROTECTION THE KEY

Green Bay's offensive line didn't allow a single sack of QB Aaron Rodgers against Minnesota in Week 7, the third time this year that the sixth-year QB was not sacked in a game.

- ▶ Prior to Rodgers being sacked in the second quarter vs. Detroit in Week 4, the offensive line had not allowed a sack in 11 straight quarters, the longest streak for the team since 2007.
- ▶ Over the past 14 regular-season games, Rodgers has been sacked either once or not at all in eight of those contests, including this past Sunday at Atlanta when the line allowed just one sack.
- ▶ In his three years as the starting quarterback, there have been 16 games where the line has given up either one sack or no sacks of Rodgers. The Packers have a 12-4 (.750) mark in those contests.
- ▶ The effect that protection has is evident in Rodgers' numbers in those games, as he has completed 372-of-530 passes (70.2 percent) for 4,390 yards and 32 TDs with just seven INTs for a 109.7 passer rating.
- ▶ The Packers have allowed 21 sacks this season (No. 12 in the NFL), much improved from 2009 when they gave up 50 sacks of Rodgers on the season, 41 in the first nine contests.
- ▶ When Rodgers has been sacked four or more times in a game during his career, the Packers are 4-9 (.308).
- ▶ Injuries and performance issues affected the offensive line in the first half of 2009. Once the line regained some continuity down the stretch, it allowed just 10 sacks of Rodgers over the final seven games.
- ▶ Green Bay has had stability along the line in 2010, with four linemen, LT Chad Clifton, LG Daryn Colledge, C Scott Wells, and RG Josh Sitton starting every game, and rookie RT Bryan Bulaga opening the last seven at RT with veteran Mark Tauscher sidelined due to injury. Tauscher was placed on injured reserve (shoulder) on Nov. 12.

WORKING THEIR WAY BACK UP

Green Bay's offense hasn't enjoyed quite the same level of success as it did last season on third down, but has improved its play in that area of late.

- ▶ Entering the Week 9 contest vs. Dallas ranked No. 26 in the league with a 35.1 conversion rate on third down this season, the offense was successful on 10-of-15 third-down opportunities against the Cowboys, including 7-of-8 in the first half.
- ▶ That percentage of 66.7 was the best single-game performance by a Green Bay offense since the Packers were successful on 71.4 percent of their third-down opportunities (10-of-14) vs. Cleveland on Sept. 18, 2005.
- ▶ The Packers followed that up with an 8-of-15 outing (53.3 percent) on third down in Week 11 at Minnesota, the first time this season Green Bay topped the 50-percent conversion mark in two straight games.
- ▶ Green Bay was just 4-of-11 on third down this past Sunday against Atlanta, but the Packers have moved up 13 spots in the league rankings since Week 9, checking in at No. 13 with a 40.7 conversion rate.
- ▶ The Packers were one of the best teams in the league on third down in 2009, as they converted at a 47.0 percent clip. That led the NFC and ranked No. 3 in the NFL.
- ▶ QB Aaron Rodgers' play on third down was a big factor in Green Bay's success as he ranked No. 1 in the NFL in passer rating on third down at 133.5. No other quarterback in the league threw for as many yards (1,710) or touchdowns (14) on third down as Rodgers, and his passer rating was the best in the NFL since Kurt Warner's 137.3 rating in 1999 with St. Louis.

SPREADING IT AROUND

With back-to-back 1,200-yard rusher Ryan Grant lost for the season after sustaining an ankle injury in Week 1 at Philadelphia, the Packers have turned to a couple of backs to carry the load for the offense.

- ▶ Brandon Jackson, who excelled in his role as a third-down back in 2009, leads the team with a career-high 514 rushing yards on 132 carries this season (3.9 avg.). He also has posted a career-high 755 yards from scrimmage.
- ▶ Jackson recorded a career-high 115 yards on 10 carries (11.5 avg.) at Washington in Week 5, highlighted by a career-long 71-yard run on his first carry of the game.
- ▶ Jackson registered one of the finest all-around performances of his career vs. Minnesota in Week 7, recording 104 yards from scrimmage (58 rushing, 46 receiving). His 36-yard pickup on a first-quarter screen pass was his career-long reception.

- ▶ Jackson also has 32 receptions for 241 yards (8.0 avg.) this season, career highs in both categories.
- ▶ Jackson is the first Packers RB since Ahman Green in 2006 to register 500 rushing yards and 200 receiving yards in the same season.
- ▶ Against Dallas in Week 9, Jackson posted a rushing TD and a receiving TD, only the second time in his career that he scored on both in a game (vs. Seattle, Dec. 27, 2009).
- ▶ The Packers rushed for 157 yards as a team at Washington in Week 5 on just 17 carries (9.2 avg.). It was the first time in team history that the Packers rushed for 150 yards in a regular-season game on fewer than 20 carries.
- ▶ The Packers' rushing average of 9.2 yards per carry against the Redskins was the best single-game performance (min. 15 attempts) in a regular-season game in team history.
- ▶ John Kuhn, primarily at fullback during his first three seasons in Green Bay, has been given more opportunities to carry the ball at RB. Against Detroit in Week 4, Kuhn posted 34 of his 39 rushing yards on the final series, as the Packers ran out the final 6:32 in the 28-26 win. He has 175 rushing yards on 49 carries (3.6 avg.) this season.
- ▶ Kuhn recorded career highs in both carries (13) and rushing yards (50) against the Cowboys, highlighted by a 17-yard run in the second quarter to convert a third down.
- ▶ Rookie RB Dimitri Nance saw the most significant action of his career at Minnesota in Week 11, posting 37 yards on 12 carries (3.1 avg.).
- ▶ The Packers have posted 31 runs of 10-plus yards this season, which is tied for No. 16 in the league. Last season Green Bay finished No. 23 in the NFL with 42 runs of 10 yards or more.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

Green Bay finished 5-3 on the road in 2009, the third time in four seasons it had finished above .500 under Head Coach Mike McCarthy.

- ▶ The Packers have been able to stay above the .500 mark on the road during McCarthy's tenure, a notable achievement in the National Football League.
- ▶ Green Bay got off to a good start this year with a win at Philadelphia in the season opener. It was the fifth straight season under McCarthy that the Packers have won their first road game of the year. The Packers are 3-3 away from Lambeau Field this season, with two of their next three contests coming on the road.
- ▶ Since 2006, McCarthy's first season as the head coach in Green Bay, only 12 of 32 NFL teams have regular-season road records over .500.

290 AND COUNTING

Another packed house at Lambeau Field against the Cowboys in Week 9 brought the stadium's consecutive sellouts streak to 290 games (274 regular season, 16 playoffs).

- ▶ The Week 7 crowd of 71,107 vs. Minnesota was the third-largest regular-season crowd in Lambeau Field history.
- ▶ The league's longest-tenured stadium, Lambeau Field is hosting its 54th season of football this year. A total of 565,666 fans made their way through the turnstiles in the eight home contests in 2009.
- ▶ Across American professional sports, only Boston's Fenway Park (1912) and Chicago's Wrigley Field (1914) have longer tenures.

THE LAMBEAU ADVANTAGE

The crown jewel of the National Football League, Lambeau Field has long been known as one of the tougher venues to play in, particularly during the harsh Wisconsin winter.

- ▶ Re-establishing home-field advantage after a 4-4 mark in 2008 was one of the goals of 2009, and with the Packers finishing 6-2 at home, they accomplished that goal.
- ▶ Head Coach Mike McCarthy stated consistently upon his arrival in Green Bay that one of the team's goals would be to reclaim the mystique of playing at Lambeau Field. Mission accomplished. The team is 24-9 at home since 2007 including playoffs, a marked improvement over the prior three seasons (10-14 combined), including a 4-1 mark this season.
- ▶ Since Ron Wolf and Mike Holmgren began the revitalization of the franchise in 1992, Green Bay owns the best home record in the NFL. A look at the top regular-season home W-L records since the '92 season:

Team	W-L record	Pct.
Green Bay	111-38-0	.745
Pittsburgh	107-41-1	.721
Denver	105-45-0	.700
Minnesota	103-46-0	.691
New England	101-48-0	.678
Baltimore (since '96)	78-38-1	.671

HOME COOKING

The Packers' win over Dallas at Lambeau last November was the first step to a 7-1 finish and a playoff berth for Green Bay.

- ▶ Since that Week 10 victory over the Cowboys, the Packers have been one of the best teams in the league at home. Green Bay's lone defeat over that span came to Miami this season in Week 6 when the Packers fell to the Dolphins in overtime.

Team	W	L	T	Pct.
New England	8	0	0	1.000
Green Bay	8	1	0	.889
Baltimore	8	1	0	.889
San Diego	8	1	0	.889

IN THE FREE-AGENCY ERA

Talk of unrestricted free agency in the early '90s led many to forecast tough times for the small-town Green Bay Packers.

- ▶ However, Green Bay has remained among the most successful teams since the advent of free agency in 1993. The Packers have won 10 or more games 10 times since '93 and captured seven division crowns.
- ▶ A look at the most successful teams in the free-agency era:

Team	W-L since '93	Pct.	Playoff berths
New England	180-103-0	.636	11
Pittsburgh	177-105-1	.627	11
Green Bay	176-107-0	.622	12

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

TAKING HIS PLACE AMONG THE GAME'S BEST

Through Week 12, QB Aaron Rodgers once again finds himself among the league leaders in several passing categories.

- ▶ Rodgers ranks No. 5 with 2,945 yards, tied for No. 7 with 20 TD passes, and No. 3 in passes of 25-plus yards with 28.
- ▶ In the Week 12 loss at Atlanta, Rodgers didn't throw an interception for the fourth straight game, only the second time in his career that he has done so in four consecutive starts (Week 14-17, 2009).
- ▶ Rodgers' last interception came on the final play of the first half vs. Minnesota in Week 7. His streak of 147 passes without an INT ranks No. 3 among active NFL streaks and No. 3 in his career behind streaks of 159 and 157 passes.
- ▶ Rodgers threw four TD passes at Minnesota in Week 11, his regular-season career high. His passer rating of 141.3 (22-of-31, 301 yards), was the second-best single game mark in his career behind only his 155.4 rating at Cleveland on Oct. 25, 2009.
- ▶ Rodgers joins Eagles QB Michael Vick (at Washington, Nov. 15) and Patriots QB Tom Brady (at Detroit, Nov. 25) as the only QBs to post a 140-plus passer rating, 300 yards passing and four passing TDs in a game this season.
- ▶ The performance at Minnesota was the eighth game in which he had three-or-more TD passes and no INTs. Only two other players in history have accumulated as many games of that type within three seasons of their first NFL start, Tom Brady with eight from 2001-03 and Kurt Warner with nine from 1999-2001.
- ▶ Last season, Rodgers threw for 4,434 yards as he became the first QB in NFL history to throw for more than 4,000 yards in each of his first two seasons as a starter.
- ▶ Rodgers joined Steve Young (San Francisco, 1998) as the only quarterbacks in NFL history to throw for 4,000 yards and 30 TDs and rush for 300 yards and five TDs in the same season.
- ▶ In 43 career starts, Rodgers has eclipsed the century mark in passer rating 23 times and recorded 13 games of 300-plus yards. He posted his 20th career 100-plus passer rating game in just his 36th career start, which ranks third among NFL QBs since 1970 behind only Warner (33) and Tony Romo (34).
- ▶ Rodgers threw 70 TD passes in his first 40 career starts, a Packers franchise record.
- ▶ Rodgers has started 43 straight games, which is tied for No. 5 among active NFL quarterbacks.
- ▶ Rodgers ranks No. 2 in NFL history in career passer rating (97.28) behind only Chargers QB Philip Rivers (97.34).
- ▶ Here is a look at where Rodgers ranks among NFL quarterbacks since he took over as the starter in 2008:

TRAMON'S TALENTS

CB Tramon Williams etched his name into the team's record books with a pair of big plays in Week 5 at Washington, and he has delivered impactful performances throughout the season.

- ▶ With a 52-yard punt return in the second quarter and a 64-yard interception return in the fourth quarter, Williams became the first player in franchise history to post a 50-yard punt return and a 60-yard interception return in the same game.
- ▶ Showing just how rare the feat is, no player in team annals has ever posted both of those returns in the same season.
- ▶ Williams became just the third NFL player since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970 to accomplish the feat in a game, joining Dallas' Deion Sanders (Sept. 21, 1998) and the late Darrent Williams of the Denver Broncos (Nov. 13, 2005).

▶ Explosive plays are nothing new to the fourth-year CB who went undrafted out of Louisiana Tech in 2006. Williams recorded a 94-yard punt return for a score vs. Carolina on Nov. 18, 2007, as well as a 67-yard kickoff return vs. Chicago that season (Oct. 7). Last season, he posted his career-long INT return with a 67-yarder vs. Chicago (Sept. 13).

▶ Williams is only the third NFL player whose career began since the 1970 merger to post a 90-yard punt return and interception and kickoff returns of 65 yards in a career, joining Adam Jones and Lemar Parrish.

▶ Williams leads the team with four interceptions this season, with all of them coming in the past seven games. He posted a key second-quarter INT of Vikings QB Brett Favre in Week 11, and leads the team with 16 passes defended.

▶ Williams has now posted four or more interceptions in each of the past three seasons. He is the only undrafted player in the NFL to accomplish that feat each of the last three seasons (2008-10).

- ▶ At the N.Y. Jets in Week 8, Williams recorded an interception, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery, the first time in his career he posted all three in the same game. It was the second straight season a Green Bay CB had accomplished that feat, with Charles Woodson registering all three last season at Detroit in Week 12.
- ▶ Williams was selected to the Midseason All-Pro team by the Dallas Morning News' Rick Gosselin.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

THE INTERCEPTORS

Leading the way when it comes to takeaways for Green Bay has been the defensive-back tandem of CB Charles Woodson and S Nick Collins.

- ▶ Woodson ranks No. 2 among all NFL players since 2008 with 18 interceptions behind only Eagles CB Asante Samuel (20), with Collins tied for the No. 6 position with 14 over that span.
- ▶ Collins ranks No. 2 among all NFL players (Baltimore S Ed Reed, 458) with 408 interception return yards since '08, and Woodson inched closer with his 48-yard INT return for a TD vs. Detroit in Week 4. He sits in the No. 3 spot in the league, checking in with 396 INT return yards over the past three seasons.
- ▶ Collins has some work to do if he hopes to keep up with Woodson's pace of return TDs. Woodson leads the league since 2008 with six INT returns for touchdowns, with Collins tied for the No. 3 spot with three scores.
- ▶ The Packers rank tied for No. 4 in the NFL with four other teams with 15 interceptions this season. Green Bay is tied for No. 2 in the league with five INT returns of 20-plus yards.
- ▶ Woodson and Collins have helped put the Packers at the top of the leaderboard in all three interception categories since 2008:

Team	Interceptions
1. Green Bay	67
2. Philadelphia	59
3. Baltimore	58

Team	INT return yardage

YOUTH IS SERVED

Whenever injuries occur, it is a chance for other players on the roster to show what they are capable of in an expanded role. For Green Bay this season, many of those opportunities have gone to younger players.

- ▶ Six Green Bay rookies have started a game in 2010, which is tied for third most in the league this season behind only Tampa Bay (eight) and Kansas City (seven). The last time the Packers had that many rookies start at least one game in a season came in 2007 (also six).
- ▶ T Bryan Bulaga, the team's first-round pick out of Iowa who worked at LT and LG all preseason, has started each of the past seven games at RT in place of injured veteran Mark Tauscher, who was placed on IR.
- ▶ LB Frank Zombo, a non-drafted free agent from Central Michigan, has played in every game with six starts. He leads all Green Bay rookies with 56 tackles (38 solo) and a forced fumble. His three sacks rank tied for No. 4 among NFL rookies.
- ▶ TE Andrew Quarless started his first career game vs. Detroit in Week 4 and has factored more prominently in the offense with starting TE Jermichael Finley (knee) lost for the season. Quarless posted 51 yards receiving at Washington in Week 5 to become the first Packers rookie TE to register a 50-yard game since Bubba Franks in 2000. Quarless scored his first NFL TD on a 9-yard reception in the Week 7 win vs. Minnesota. He has 139 receiving yards on 11 catches this season.
- ▶ DE C.J. Wilson, a seventh-round selection from East Carolina, started for the first time in his career in Week 6 vs. Miami in place of an injured Ryan Pickett, and posted four tackles. He has seen more significant time over the past six games, recording 20 tackles (12 solo) on the season. Wilson registered his first career sack in Week 9 against Dallas, bringing down QB Jon Kitna on the final play of the game.
- ▶ S Morgan Burnett, a third-round pick out of Georgia Tech, became only the second Packers rookie safety to start on opening day since 1988. He opened the first four games, posting 15 tackles and an interception, before sustaining a season-ending knee injury in Week 4.

- ▶ Burnett was joined in the starting lineup in Week 1 by nickel CB Sam Shields, a non-drafted rookie out of Miami. It was the first time since the 1970 merger that the Packers started two rookie DBs on opening day. Shields has 16 tackles, five passes defended and an interception in nine games played with four starts as the Packers' nickel corner.

STILL GETTING THE JOB DONE

In 2009, CB Charles Woodson enjoyed the finest season of his career, his first year in the 3-4 scheme, and has continued his impactful ways in 2010.

- ▶ Woodson ranks tied for second on the team with two interceptions this season and has been productive again in tackles as he ranks No. 3 on the team with 76 stops (61 solo). Last season he recorded a career-high 81 tackles (63 solo).
- ▶ Woodson leads the Packers with four forced fumbles this season, his second straight season with four. He is the only defensive back in the NFL to register four forced fumbles each of the past two seasons.
- ▶ Woodson is the only Packers defensive back since 1994 to record four forced fumbles in a season, and he has done it twice.
- ▶ Woodson achieved the highest individual honor bestowed upon a defensive player, taking home The Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year award last season. He also was named an AP first-team All-Pro.
- ▶ His 48-yard interception return for a touchdown in the third quarter against Detroit this season in Week 4 was his eighth career with the Packers, which set a franchise record. He had been tied with Hall of Fame CB Herb Adderley (seven, 1961-69) for the team mark.
- ▶ It was also Woodson's ninth defensive TD (eight INTs, one fumble return) in a Green Bay uniform, which further extended his franchise record.
- ▶ The touchdown gave Woodson 10 interception returns for touchdowns in his career (two with Oakland), which moved him up in the NFL record books as he became just the third player in league history to post 10 career interception returns for touchdowns. He now trails only Rod Woodson (12) and Darren Sharper (11).
- ▶ Woodson has returned an INT for a touchdown in five straight seasons, all five of his years in Green Bay (2006-10), becoming the first player in NFL history to do so in five consecutive seasons.
- ▶ The score in Week 4 was also the third straight year that Woodson has returned an INT for a TD against Detroit. He is the first player in NFL history to return an interception for a TD in three consecutive seasons against the same team.
- ▶ In 2009, Woodson became the fourth player in NFL history since sacks became an official statistic to record at least nine interceptions and two sacks in a single season. Woodson also led the Packers with four forced fumbles.
- ▶ His four forced fumbles tied for second among NFL defensive backs in 2009, and his six sacks since 2008 rank tied for No. 2 among NFL defensive backs.
- ▶ There's no doubt Woodson's career has undergone a revitalization since coming to Green Bay. He now has 47 career interceptions, which is tied for third among active NFL players. Of his interceptions, 30 have come in 73 games with Green Bay. In 106 games with the Raiders, he had 17.
- ▶ A look at where Woodson ranks among NFL players in interceptions since 2008:

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

BISHOP AND HAWK MAKING PRESENCE FELT

With injuries to MLB Nick Barnett and nickel LB Brandon Chillar, BLB A.J. Hawk and MLB Desmond Bishop have stepped into the role of every-down linebackers, and the tandem has taken advantage of the opportunities.

- ▶ Hawk leads the team with 94 tackles (67 solo) through 11 games, including a season-high 16 stops in Week 6 vs. Miami and a team-high 13 tackles in Week 7 against Minnesota.
- ▶ The 29 tackles in those two games rank second in Hawk's career for the most tackles over a two-game span, trailing only a combined 33 tackles during his rookie campaign of 2006 (Nov. 27-Dec. 3).
- ▶ Hawk is also tied for second on the team with two interceptions, which matches his career high set in 2006 and 2009. With the two INTs, Hawk ranks tied for No. 2 among NFL linebackers in that category this season.
- ▶ He is the only linebacker in the league to intercept two passes in each of the past two seasons, and Hawk's four interceptions since Week 13 of 2009 lead all NFL linebackers over that span.
- ▶ Hawk has been one of the most reliable Packers defenders since coming to Green Bay in the 2006 NFL Draft. He hasn't missed a game in his career, playing in all 75 contests with 72 starts. The only non-starts came in both Minnesota games in 2009 and the 2010 opener at Philadelphia when the team opened in nickel.
- ▶ Prior to this season, most of Bishop's playing time came on special teams, a role he excelled in from 2007-09 as he led the team over that span with 49 tackles.
- ▶ Ever since Barnett went down with a season-ending wrist injury in Week 4 vs. Detroit, Bishop has moved into the starting lineup and made his presence felt.
- ▶ In seven starts, Bishop has registered 78 tackles, which is nearly triple his best season total of 27 tackles in 2008. His 79 tackles on the season (53 solo) rank No. 2 on the team, and he leads Green Bay's LBs with a career-best six passes defended. Bishop has also posted a career-high two sacks.
- ▶ In the Week 7 win vs. Minnesota, Bishop made one of the game's key plays when he picked off QB Brett Favre in the third quarter and returned the interception 32 yards for a touchdown. It was the first INT and TD of the fourth-year linebacker's career, and the first INT return for a TD by a Packers LB since Barnett posted a 95-yarder vs. New Orleans on Oct. 9, 2005.
- ▶ With Hawk adding an INT of his own against the Vikings, the duo became the first Packers LB tandem to each post an INT in the same game since Barnett and Brady Poppinga posted picks at Miami on Oct. 22, 2006.

BALANCED PASSING ATTACK FOR PACK

On Sunday at Atlanta, the Packers utilized more five-wide receiver sets than they have at any point this season.

- ▶ Wide receivers Greg Jennings, James Jones and Jordy Nelson each posted five receptions against the Falcons, the first time three Packers WRs each registered five receptions in the same game since Donald Driver, Jones and Jennings did so at Detroit on Nov. 22, 2007.
- ▶ With Jennings (119), Nelson (61), Jones (44) and No. 5 wideout Brett Swain (40) all hitting the 40-yard mark, it was the first time since 2004 that the Packers had four 40-yard receivers in a game. Driver was a part of that foursome, joining Antonio Chatman, Robert Ferguson and Javon Walker in the game against Jacksonville on Dec. 19, 2004.
- ▶ Jennings leads the team with 51 receptions with Jones checking in No. 2 at 35 catches, but Driver and Nelson (34 each) can put the group in the record books this Sunday against San Francisco.
- ▶ Whenever Driver and Nelson each record a catch, it will be the first time in franchise history that the Packers had four different wide receivers each post 35-plus catches in the same season.

JENNINGS FLASHES HOT HANDS

After getting off to a slower start this season, Greg Jennings has been one of the most productive receivers in the NFL over the past six games.

- ▶ Since he posted 14 receptions for 183 yards (13.0 avg.) and three TDs in the opening five contests, Jennings has recorded 37 catches for 639 yards (17.3 avg.) and six TDs in the past six games. He ranks No. 2 in the NFC and No. 7 in the NFL with 822 receiving yards on the season.
- ▶ Starting with Week 6 vs. Miami, Jennings has averaged 106.5 yards per game, No. 1 in the NFL over that span. He is one of only three receivers (Dwayne Bowe, 104.7; Roddy White, 100.5) to average 100 yards receiving a game over that period.
- ▶ Jennings registered a career-high three TD receptions in Green Bay's 31-3 win at Minnesota in Week 11, becoming the first Packer since WR Javon Walker (Sept. 26, 2004) to record three TD catches in a game.
- ▶ Jennings caught seven passes for 152 yards, with the yardage total the second-best single-game mark of his five-year career behind only a 167-yard outing at Detroit on Sept. 14, 2008. The performance in Week 11 earned him NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors for the first time in his career.
- ▶ Jennings became just the third Packer in team history to post seven catches/150 yards receiving/three receiving TDs in the same game, joining Walker (Sept. 26, 2004) and WR Antonio Freeman (Dec. 20, 1998).
- ▶ He is one of only two NFL players this season (Tennessee's Kenny Britt, Oct. 24) to post seven catches/150 receiving yards/three TD catches in a game.
- ▶ The Minnesota game in Week 11 was Jennings' fifth straight with six or more receptions as he became the first Packer since WR Sterling Sharpe in 1993 to post six or more catches in five straight games.
- ▶ With the three TD receptions at Minnesota in Week 11, Jennings has nine TD catches on the season, which ranks tied for third in the NFL.
- ▶ It is the third time in Jennings' five-year career that he has recorded nine or more TD catches (12 in 2007, nine in 2008) in a season. He joins Freeman, Sharpe and Don Hutson as the only Packers to have three nine-TD catch seasons.

- ▶ Jennings' 86-yard score against Miami in Week 6 marked a career long for both him and QB Aaron Rodgers, and it was the longest reception by a Green Bay player since WR Robert Brooks hauled in a 99-yard TD from QB Brett Favre at Chicago on Sept. 11, 1995, on Monday Night Football. WR Donald Driver had a 90-yard TD grab in the 2007 NFC Championship Game on Jan. 20, 2008.
- ▶ Jennings' 86-yard reception is the sixth-longest play from scrimmage in the NFL this season and the longest by a Packer since RB Ahman Green's 90-yard TD run vs. Dallas on Oct. 24, 2004.
- ▶ It was the fourth 80-yard reception of Jennings' career, moving him into the No. 1 spot in the franchise record books ahead of teammate Donald Driver (3). Jennings and Buffalo WR Lee Evans are tied for the NFL lead in 80-yard catches in a career among active NFL players.
- ▶ Among NFL players with 40-plus receptions this season, Jennings ranks No. 3 in the NFL in receiving average at 16.1 yards per catch.
- ▶ When it comes to scoring passes, Jennings has an eye-popping average during his career. Of his 37 career touchdown catches, 15 (40.5 percent) have been at least 40 yards in length. He has a staggering average of 32.5 yards per TD catch, which ranks No. 2 among current players with at least 20 career touchdown catches.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

TIGHTENING UP

Green Bay's defense has been at its best this season when it has been placed in adverse situations and forced to respond.

- ▶ The Packers have turned the ball over 14 times in the first 11 games, but the defense has shown significant improvement from last season in not allowing those giveaways to be converted into touchdowns.
- ▶ Opponents have scored just 25 points (six field goals, one TD) following the 14 takeaways this season, an average of 1.79 points per giveaway. That average ranks No. 5 in the NFL. The Packers had not given up a touchdown all season until the Falcons got into the end zone following QB Aaron Rodgers' fumble on Sunday in Atlanta.
- ▶ Although the Packers led the league in 2009 with 16 giveaways, a franchise record for fewest in a season, opponents were able to convert those turnovers into 70 points. That average of 4.38 points allowed per giveaway was the highest in the NFL.
- ▶ Another aspect of the defense that the Packers have made strides in this season is limiting opponents when they get inside the 20-yard line, an area of emphasis this offseason after some struggles last season.
- ▶ In 2009, the Packers ranked No. 28 in the league in red-zone defense, allowing opponents to score touchdowns on 60.9 percent of trips inside the 20. Green Bay gave up an average of 4.72 points per red-zone trip by its opponents, which ranked No. 21 in the league.
- ▶ Through Week 12, the Packers rank tied for No. 15 in the NFL in red-zone defense, allowing their opponents to get into the end zone 50.0 percent of the time (12 TDs on 24 opportunities). Green Bay's opponents have come away with a TD or a field goal 83.3 percent of the time, which ranks tied for No. 13 in the NFL. The Packers are giving up an average of 4.50 points per opponent red-zone trip, which ranks No. 14 in the NFL.
- ▶ The best red-zone performance by the defense during Head Coach Mike McCarthy's tenure came in 2007, when the Packers ranked No. 8 in the league by allowing opponents to score a TD on 48.8 percent of trips inside the 20.

VERSATILITY ON DISPLAY

When QB Aaron Rodgers led the team with 51 rushing yards this past Sunday in Atlanta, it was just another example of his ability to make plays with his feet.

- ▶ His yardage total on 12 carries against the Falcons was just a yard shy of his career high, a 52-yard outing vs. Minnesota last season (Nov. 1, 2009). He became just the fifth quarterback to post 50 rushing yards in a game this season.
- ▶ With 245 yards on 49 attempts (5.0 avg.) this season, Rodgers ranks No. 3 among NFL QBs in rushing yards.
- ▶ Rodgers posted his fourth rushing TD of the season on Sunday in Atlanta, making him just the second QB in franchise annals to record four-plus rushing TDs in three straight seasons (Tobin Rote, 1954-56). His four TDs this year rank second among NFL quarterbacks behind only Eagles QB Michael Vick (5).
- ▶ Rodgers is the first NFL quarterback to post four-plus rushing TDs in three consecutive seasons since Minnesota's Daunte Culpepper (2000-03) posted that number in four straight seasons.
- ▶ Since 2009, Rodgers ranks No. 1 among QBs in rushing yards (561), rushing TDs (nine) and 10-yard runs (25).

- ▶ Of his 107 rushing attempts since 2009, nearly a quarter (25) have been for 10 or more yards. He has posted a 10-yard run in eight of 11 games this season, and in 19 of his last 27 contests.
- ▶ In 2009, Rodgers finished second among all NFL quarterbacks (David Garrard, 323) with 316 rushing yards, the most by a Green Bay QB since Don Majkowski posted 358 yards on the ground in 1989.
- ▶ Rodgers also led all NFL signal-callers with five rushing touchdowns in '09, the most by a Packers QB since Majkowski's five in '89.

POINT PRODUCTION

After outscoring their opponents a combined 102-30 over the past four games, the Packers find themselves atop the NFL's scoring differential column.

- ▶ The Packers have outscored their opponents 269-166 this season, and that 103-point differential is the largest in the NFL through Week 12. Green Bay ranks No. 4 in the NFL among teams with five or more wins with an average margin of victory of 16.43.
- ▶ Last season the Packers ranked No. 3 in the league with an average margin of victory of 18.27, their highest mark since a 21.31 mark in their Super Bowl season of 1996.
- ▶ In 2009, Green Bay ranked No. 2 in the league in scoring differential, with a 164-point advantage over its opponents (461-297). That was second in the league to only the Super Bowl champion New Orleans Saints' 169-point differential (510-341).
- ▶ The Packers have been particularly productive starting each half this season. They have outscored their opponents 57-23 in the first quarter, and that 34-point margin in the opening quarter ranks tied for No. 3 in the league.
- ▶ Green Bay has been equally productive to open the second half, outscoring its opponents 73-23 in the third quarter. That margin of 50 points ranks No. 2 in the NFL behind only San Diego (56).
- ▶ The Packers rank No. 1 in the league in scoring defense, allowing opponents an average of just 15.1 points per game. The last time Green Bay held its opponents to an average of under 16 points a game in a season came in the '96 campaign when the Packers led the league in scoring defense at 13.1 points per game.
- ▶ Green Bay ranks No. 8 in scoring with an average of 24.5 points per game.
- ▶ The Packers are one of only four teams in the league ranked in the top 10 in both scoring offense and defense (Atlanta, N.Y. Jets, New Orleans).

WEEK 12 GAME REVIEW - FALCONS 20, PACKERS 17

PACKERS COME UP SHORT IN ATLANTA

The Packers and Falcons looked like they could be headed to overtime on Sunday after quarterback Aaron Rodgers led the offense on a 90-yard touchdown drive late in the game, but a big kickoff return and a penalty set Atlanta up for the win.

- ▶ Matt Bryant's 47-yard field goal with nine seconds remaining gave the NFC-leading Falcons (9-2) the 20-17 victory over Green Bay at the Georgia Dome in front of 68,204, snapping the Packers' four-game winning streak and extending Atlanta's winning streak to five.
- ▶ The loss dropped Green Bay to 7-4 on the season and moved them into second place in the NFC North behind the Bears (8-3) after Chicago beat Philadelphia on Sunday. All four of the Packers' losses this season have been by three points.
- ▶ "I think we had an opportunity (today) and we let it slip away, and I think we'll look back and regret that," guard Daryn Colledge said. "It's another three-point loss. That's four losses by a total of 12 points and that hurts because that is a lot of games that could have swung in the other direction.
- ▶ "But we're going to re-group. We've got a tough San Francisco team coming in (next Sunday). We'll evaluate this tape and move on."
- ▶ Atlanta got on the board first on Sunday, with quarterback Matt Ryan leading the Falcons down the field behind a 12-yard completion to fullback Jason Snelling on third down and a 14-yard pass to wide receiver Roddy White. After moving the ball to Green Bay's 20, guard Harvey Dahl was flagged for an unnecessary-roughness penalty after a play, pushing Atlanta into a third-and-20 at the Green Bay 34. The Falcons were forced to settle for a 38-yard Bryant field goal and an early 3-0 lead.
- ▶ After three-and-outs by both Green Bay and Atlanta, the Packers offense didn't take long to move down the field. Rodgers found wide receiver Greg Jennings (119 yards on five receptions) near the left sideline on the first play, and he spun inside to avoid cornerback Dominique Franks and pick up 30 yards. A face-mask penalty on Falcons defensive tackle Corey Peters on the next play and a 17-yard completion from Rodgers to wide receiver Donald Driver put the ball at the Atlanta 24.
- ▶ Rodgers picked up a first down with an 11-yard scamper, and followed that up two plays later with a 5-yard run down to the Atlanta 4 to set up third-and-1. Rodgers handed off to running back Dimitri Nance on third down, but the rookie was stuffed on the run off left guard for no gain as the Packers settled for a field goal of their own, a 22-yarder from Mason Crosby to even the score.
- ▶ After Green Bay's defense forced its second straight three-and-out, the offense found its way into Atlanta territory again through a big pass and a penalty. Rodgers connected with wide receiver Brett Swain on a slant on first down, and Swain did a nice job to get yards after the catch for a career-long 31-yard gain. Swain was hit late on the play by safety William Moore, tacking on an extra 15 yards.
- ▶ Rodgers then found wide receiver James Jones four times in a five-play span for 26 total yards to put the ball at the Atlanta 2. After initially lining up in shotgun on second-and-goal from the 2, Rodgers came under center and kept the ball for a 1-yard pickup. The Packers kept the ball in the signal-caller's hands on the next play, but a hit by linebacker Curtis Lofton forced a Rodgers fumble on the sneak, and fellow linebacker Mike Peterson recovered the ball in the end zone for a touchback.
- ▶ The defense seemed positioned to force a punt on the ensuing series after a Cullen Jenkins sack and an incomplete pass by Ryan set up a third-and-19 at the Atlanta 48. But Ryan's short dump-off pass to fullback Ovie Mughelli picked up 16 yards as cornerback Charles Woodson and safety Charlie Peprah both missed open-field tackles, putting the Falcons in position to go for it on fourth-and-3 at the 36.
- ▶ Ryan (24-of-28 for 198 yards) rolled to his right on fourth down with pressure coming, and found tight end Tony Gonzalez for a 6-yard completion with Peprah covering him. Replays indicated that Gonzalez may not have controlled the ball as he went to the ground, but Head Coach Mike McCarthy said after the game that the communication from the coaches upstairs came late because of the replays made available to them.

- ▶ Two plays later the veteran Gonzalez made a leaping reception over the middle for 21 yards down to the 5, and Ryan found him wide open on third-and-goal for a 4-yard touchdown and a 10-3 lead with just 12 seconds remaining in the half.
- ▶ Green Bay evened the score in the third quarter, largely behind a pair of big completions by Rodgers. The first big gain was a 34-yarder to Jennings on a flea-flicker, with Jennings fumbling at the end of the play and fullback Korey Hall recovering. Then on third-and-1 at the Atlanta 29, Rodgers lofted a pass to wide receiver Jordy Nelson, who made a leaping grab over cornerback Brent Grimes at the Atlanta 1. Rodgers kept it on a draw on the next play, making a nice effort to avoid a leg tackle and get into the end zone.
- ▶ Atlanta responded with a methodical drive, eating up nearly eight minutes as they drove 80 yards in 14 plays. Ryan converted a pair of third downs with completions to Snelling and White, and running back Michael Turner (110 yards on 23 carries) posted his long run of the afternoon, a 26-yarder down to the Green Bay 12. Turner became just the second running back since Week 3 of 2009 to register 100 yards on the ground against the Packers.
- ▶ The defense did come up with stops on three consecutive plays at the 1-yard line, with Peprah stopping Snelling for no gain on first down and linebacker A.J. Hawk stuffing Turner for no yardage on second down. Peprah made another big play on third down, keeping Gonzalez out of the end zone on a completion in the flat. The Falcons elected to go for it on fourth down, with Turner bouncing out easily around left end for the score.
- ▶ The Packers were unable to convert a fourth-and-1 of their own on the next series, as Driver made a diving attempt on a pass over the middle near the Atlanta 30. Green Bay's defense came up with a stop on the next series though, and Rodgers and the offense had six minutes to work with as they looked to tie the game.
- ▶ Rodgers (26-of-35, 344 yards), working out of the no-huddle on the drive, connected with rookie tight end Andrew Quarless twice, for 11 and 19 yards respectively, and found Jennings near the right sideline for a 15-yard pickup to Atlanta's 30. On fourth-and-1 a few plays later, Rodgers avoided pressure to complete a backhanded flip over the middle to Jones, who took it 18 yards down to the Atlanta 3.
- ▶ The offense found itself facing a do-or-die situation again, this time looking at fourth-and-goal from the 10. Working out of a five-wide receiver formation, Rodgers had plenty of time in the pocket to survey the end zone before finding Nelson in the back left corner for a 10-yard touchdown with 56 seconds left.
- ▶ But on the ensuing kickoff, returner Eric Weems found a seam up the middle to take Crosby's kick from 4 yards deep in the end zone out to the Atlanta 36. Adding insult to injury was linebacker Matt Wilhelm being flagged for a face-mask penalty on the tackle, and those 15 additional yards put the ball in Green Bay territory.
- ▶ "I had good hang time and I think I got it 4 yards deep or something like that, but he just brought it back out at us," Crosby said. "They did a good job kind of sealing off our left side and he found a seam there. This guy has been pretty dangerous.
- ▶ "We weren't able to keep him in and then we got the face mask. If we can get him down where we got him down, it's one thing, but to add on 15 yards and they are at the 50, that makes it tough."
- ▶ Ryan found White (five catches for 49 yards) for 9 yards on first down, and then completed three short passes for a total of just 11 yards on the next three to put the ball at the 29. His pass to White went incomplete on third down, but Bryant came on and drilled a 47-yarder to give Atlanta the 20-17 victory.
- ▶ "At 7-4, we still have a lot of football in front of us, but we need to get this next one, because now we're into December football," McCarthy said. "There are no redo's or 'Hey, we can get 'em next week.' We've been playing good football, and we did a lot of positive things today, a lot of positive play from a number of different players.
- ▶ "You have to play big at the adverse times in the game. We talk about adversity play calls on offense, we talk about playing adversity defense – and actually, we've been playing outstanding adversity defense throughout the year – and the big play on special teams definitely hurt us there at the end."

A LOOK AT THE SCHEDULE

The Green Bay Packers' 90th NFL regular-season schedule – headlined by six nationally televised games – was released in late April.

- ▶ Green Bay opened the 2010 slate on the road at Philadelphia before kicking off the home schedule with the Buffalo Bills in Week 2.
- ▶ Its first prime-time appearance – against the rival Bears in Chicago on Monday Night Football – came in Week 3. The NFL's oldest rivalry was on display in prime time for a fifth straight season, with this first meeting of the year marking game No. 180 in the all-time series.
- ▶ 2010 marks the 18th consecutive season the Packers have appeared on Monday Night Football, the NFC's longest streak.
- ▶ Three games are slated for Sunday night on NBC, including home games in Week 7 against the Minnesota Vikings and a Week 9 contest vs. the Dallas Cowboys. It was the first time in team history that the Packers played back-to-back Sunday night games at home. In Week 15, the Packers are scheduled to take on the Patriots on Sunday night in Foxborough, though the game is subject to the NFL's flex scheduling.
- ▶ The Packers got their first look at the new stadium in New Jersey in Week 8 against the Jets, where they experienced some cool fall temperatures. While games at Lambeau Field later in the season always provide a home-field advantage for the Packers, the 2010 schedule is nearly void of cold-weather road games. Green Bay is in the midst of three road contests that will be played in domes (Minnesota, Atlanta, Detroit).
- ▶ That's good news for a Green Bay offense that seems to thrive in domes. Including playoffs, the Packers played in a dome five times last season, exceeding 400 total net yards in four of those games.
- ▶ A number of games on the Packers' 2010 schedule – namely those on national TV – are beginning to have a familiar feel. In addition to taking on the Bears for a fifth consecutive year in prime time, Green Bay took on Minnesota in prime time for a third straight season. The Packers and Cowboys met on national TV for the fourth straight season.
- ▶ The schedule concludes with two home games for the first time since 2005. One of the NFL's best teams in regular-season games played in December and January, Green Bay may need to call upon that previous success for what could prove to be two very important contests surrounding the Christmas and New Year's holidays. Games against the Giants (Week 16) and Bears (Week 17) could determine not only the NFC North Division crown but conference playoff seeding.

2010 SCHEDULE NUGGETS

Green Bay's bye week came in Week 10, the latest possible week for NFL teams. It marked the latest time in which the Packers have had a bye in franchise history, besting the Week 9 bye in 2004. The Packers played nine games before the bye and will have seven after the open date.

- ▶ Three of four games before the bye came at Lambeau Field, while four of five games after the bye are road contests.
- ▶ Immediately following the bye came an important division game in Week 11 at Minnesota, the first of three straight road games played in domes. Under McCarthy, the team has now won four of five games immediately after the bye week and 11 of its last 15 after the bye dating back further.
- ▶ Green Bay has always been a successful team after the bye and 2009 was no different, as the team compiled a 9-3 (.750) mark after the bye week. Since 2000, the team is 63-37 (.630) overall after the bye.
- ▶ Fifteen games are slated for Sunday, the most since 1993 (also 15).
- ▶ Seven of the final eight games are against NFC opponents.
- ▶ The Packers have six games on the schedule against 2009 playoff teams, including Week 1 at Philadelphia. Beginning in Week 7 vs. Minnesota, Green Bay played a stretch of four straight games against playoff teams from a year ago. The team traveled east to take on the Jets in Week 8 and hosted the Cowboys in Week 9 before the bye. The stretch concluded in Week 11 at Minnesota.
- ▶ The NFL's oldest rivalry will see a first in 2010. For the first time in series history, Green Bay will host Chicago in the regular-season finale, set to be game No. 181 between the Packers and Bears.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Michael Vick took off his baseball cap and dusted off that old Superman cape. Filling in for an injured Kevin Kolb, Vick was dynamic. He couldn't lead the Philadelphia Eagles to a win against Green Bay, but his dazzling performance may create a quarterback controversy just one game into the post-Donovan McNabb era.

Aaron Rodgers threw a pair of touchdown passes, Mason Crosby kicked a team-record 56-yard field goal and the Packers beat Philadelphia 27-20 on Sunday.

The score was almost an afterthought because Kolb struggled and Vick was so impressive in his first extended action during meaningful minutes in nearly four years. With Kolb sidelined by a concussion, Vick threw for 175 yards, ran for 103 and resembled the guy who went to three Pro Bowls in six seasons with Atlanta.

Still, Andy Reid said it's Kolb's job when he's healthy.

Vick's last NFL start came on Dec. 31, 2006, in Philadelphia. He missed the next two seasons while serving an 18-month sentence in federal prison for his role in a dogfighting operation. Vick signed a two-year contract with the Eagles last summer, and saw limited action mostly in a variation of the wildcat formation.

He finally got his chance, and made the most of it.

The Packers (1-0) were a popular preseason pick to reach the Super Bowl, and they began their quest for a 13th NFL title with a tough win in a hostile environment.

After a slow start, the Packers got going late in the second quarter and scored on three straight possessions.

Ryan Grant ran 13, 8 and 18 yards to spark an 86-yard drive. Greg Jennings kept it going with a leaping, one-handed catch for a 16-yard gain on third-and-9. Rodgers then tossed a 6-yard TD pass to Donald Driver to give the Packers a 10-3 lead.

Kolb was injured in the second quarter when he was tackled from behind by Clay Matthews. The team originally said he had a jaw injury and he returned for a series, completing two short passes.

Middle linebacker Stewart Bradley also came back in after he staggered off the field following a collision with teammate Ernie Sims before he sat out the second half.

GREEN BAY 34, BUFFALO 7

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Sept. 19, 2010. Attendance: 70,741. Time: 2:52. Weather: 58° F, Humidity: 51 percent, Wind: Variable 4 mph. GAME 2

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—Aaron Rodgers already shouldered plenty of pressure with the Green Bay Packers before losing starting running back Ryan Grant to a season-ending ankle injury last week.

Rodgers is even picking up the slack in the running game, too. Rodgers ran for a touchdown and threw for two more scores and didn't commit a turnover in Green Bay's 34-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on Sunday.

While Rodgers scrambled for 20 of Green Bay's 91 yards rushing, the rest of the running game was quiet. Starter Brandon Jackson gained 29 yards on 11 carries with one score and fullback John Kuhn added 36 yards on nine attempts.

The quarterback certainly has a lot more options by air and the Packers (2-0) appear ready to rely on that until they can figure out how to mount a significant attack again without Grant, their back-to-back 1,200-yard runner.

Jermichael Finley and Donald Driver caught four passes each, while Greg Jennings and James Jones added three more receptions apiece. Buffalo (0-2) had 186 total yards, 20 more than in last week's loss to the Dolphins.

Packers linebacker Clay Matthews sacked Trent Edwards three times to give him six this season and Green Bay forced two interceptions. Edwards finished 11 of 18 for 102 yards for a passer rating that was a 37, more than two points lower than if all 18 of his passes fell incomplete.

Marshawn Lynch and Fred Jackson didn't run the ball well. Rookie C.J. Spiller was sharp on special teams, but not a factor on offense. The Bills' top playmaking receiver—Lee Evans—didn't catch a pass and was only targeted one time, when he drew a pass interference call for an offense that just kept spluttering.

Buffalo didn't gain a yard in the first quarter and only looked in rhythm momentarily when Jackson scored on a 3-yard run to cap an 80-yard drive early in the second quarter to cut Green Bay's lead to 13-7.

In the second half, Edwards was picked off by Brandon Chillar in Bills' territory after receiver Steve Johnson couldn't haul in the ball. Rodgers then threw a touchdown pass to Driver on third-and-goal from the 7 and scored again late in the third quarter with a 9-yard scramble that had his teammates laughing when he had a hard time leaping into the stands to celebrate with fans.

Rodgers capped his day by hitting Jones with a 30-yard TD pass to make it 34-7.

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Bears were going nowhere and hearing it from the crowd. Good thing the Green Bay Packers were intent on giving this one away.

This one certainly wasn't pretty, even if the Bears remained unbeaten and established themselves as NFC contenders. Robbie Gould kicked a 19-yard field goal with 4 seconds left after Brian Urlacher forced a fumble in the closing minutes, and Chicago took advantage of a Green Bay team-record 18 penalties to beat the Packers 20-17 on Monday night.

Packers receiver James Jones lost a fumble on a hit by Urlacher before Green Bay's Morgan Burnett was called for pass interference on Earl Bennett, setting up the winning kick.

Jay Cutler threw for 221 yards for the Bears, (3-0), who kept insisting they were contenders through a sloppy preseason and less-than-inspiring opening win over Detroit. Since then, they turned heads with a win at Dallas last week and opened some more eyes against Green Bay—with lots of help from the Packers.

Urlacher jarred the ball out of Jones' hands after he caught a pass from Aaron Rodgers near midfield. Tim Jennings recovered, giving Chicago the ball on the Packers 46 with 2:18 remaining.

Soon after, another penalty cost the Packers (2-1) in a big way. On second down at the 33, Cutler tried to hit Bennett deep along the right sideline and Burnett basically hammered him, wiping out an interception by Nick Collins and putting the ball at the 9. Three plays later, Chicago walked away with a wild win and the only undefeated record in the NFC.

Devin Hester delivered his first touchdown return in three years when he ran back a punt 62 yards in the fourth quarter, giving the Bears a short-lived 14-10 lead.

Rodgers threw for 316 yards and a touchdown and scored on a 3-yard run that gave the Packers 17-14 lead in the fourth quarter. Jermichael Finley had nine catches for 115 yards, but the sloppiness simply caught up with the Packers in the end.

Cutler completed 16 of 27 passes with a touchdown and an interception. Johnny Knox had four catches for 94 yards. Chicago held its longtime rival to 63 yards rushing, but the Bears had only 77, turning it into an air game for much of the night.

Hester had just put the Bears ahead in the opening seconds of the fourth quarter when the Packers responded with a 72-yard touchdown drive. A roughing-the-passer penalty on Henry Melton gave them a first down at the 3. Rodgers, who cramped up a few plays earlier, rolled to his right and lunged into the end zone, making it 17-14.

Then the Packers basically gave it away. Frank Zombo got called for a helmet-on-helmet hit against Cutler on the next drive that erased an interception by Nick Barnett. On second down, Collins got called for a late hit on Matt Forte after a 15-yard reception, putting the ball on the Packers 29.

Gould made a 25-yard field goal to tie it at 17 with 3:59 left.

Green Bay Packers										Chicago Bears
RUSHING	ATT	YDS	AVG	LG	TD

So when the offense went scoreless in the second half and the Packers barely held on for a 28-26 victory over Detroit on Sunday, Rodgers saw his team not playing to its main strength.

Rodgers chose his words deliberately but diplomatically, making his point without directly challenging his coaches.

It was another sign that the Packers remain unsatisfied with what they've shown the rest of the NFL so far this season. Despite their 3-1 start, they're a team with Super Bowl aspirations that has yet to prove it can play like one of the league's elite for a full game.

Rodgers threw for 161 yards and three touchdowns. But he also threw a pair of interceptions for the Packers, who were coming off a sloppy performance in a loss at Chicago on Monday night.

If Sunday's game didn't feel like a satisfying win for Green Bay, it also didn't feel like anything approaching a moral victory for Detroit (0-4). It was the franchise's 20th straight loss to the Packers in Wisconsin, a streak that began in 1992 and includes a playoff loss.

The Lions showed that they're more dangerous than they have been in the recent past, but it still wasn't enough to win.

The Packers appeared ready to rout the Lions when Charles Woodson returned an interception 48 yards for a touchdown and a 28-14 lead early in the third quarter.

But the Packers' offense went silent in the second half while the Lions rallied for four straight Jason Hanson field goals to cut the lead to two points. Had the Lions been able to finish any of those drives with a touchdown instead of a field goal, they might be celebrating a victory.

A last drive by the Packers ran out the final 6:32 of the clock as Green Bay rediscovered its running game at the best possible moment. Detroit again was without injured quarterback Matthew Stafford, but backup Shaun Hill looked poised under center. He threw for 331 yards and two touchdowns to Calvin Johnson, helping to make the game close despite the Lions committing 13 penalties.

WASHINGTON 16, GREEN BAY 13 (OT)

FedExField, Sunday, Oct. 10, 2010. Attendance: 87,760. Time: 3:35. Weather: 72° F, Humidity: 46 percent. Wind: calm. GAME 5

LANDOVER, Md. (AP)—There are plenty of places to point when trying to figure out why the Washington Redskins are 3-2.

There's stability provided by new quarterback Donovan McNabb. There's the turnover-producing and suddenly points-stringy defense, led by safety LaRon Landry. There's also been help from injuries to opponents' key players.

In the home locker room after Washington's 16-13 overtime victory over the Green Bay Packers on Sunday, the Redskins uniformly pointed to one significant explanation for their success so far in 2010: coach Mike Shanahan.

For the fourth time in five weeks, Washington's game came down to the final play. On Sunday, it was Graham Gano's 33-yard field goal 6:54 into the extra period that made the difference, set up by Landry's diving interception of Aaron Rodgers at Green Bay's 39-yard line.

Rodgers sustained a concussion, the Packers said after the game, and it appeared to happen on that last play for their offense. The Redskins trailed 13-3 entering the fourth quarter. They were outgained 209 yards to 24 in the first quarter. Seven of their first eight possessions ended in punts. Even once they made it 13-all on Gano's 45-yard kick with 1:07 left in regulation, the Redskins had to weather a Packers drive that ended with Mason Crosby hitting the left upright from 53 yards with 1 second left.

Under Shanahan's predecessor as head coach—Jim Zorn—and with McNabb's predecessor at starting quarterback—Jason Campbell—the Redskins went 4-12 last season.

Two of Washington's games this season have gone to overtime—including a 30-27 loss to Houston in Week 2—and two ended on passes thrown into the end zone by the opponent on the last play of regulation—including a 17-12 victory at Philadelphia last weekend.

The Packers (3-2), meanwhile, are dealing with a long list of injuries. By game's end, linebacker Clay Matthews was on the sideline, wearing a green Packers wool cap instead of a helmet, ice strapped to his injured left hamstring. Tight end Jeremiah Finley was leaning on a pair of metal crutches, keeping weight off his hurt knee.

Green Bay also had tight end Donald Lee (shoulder), defensive lineman Ryan Pickett (ankle), and safety Derrick Martin (knee) leave. The Packers stumbled on one big sequence early: Already ahead 7-0 early in the second quarter, they had second-and-goal at Washington's 1 and came away with nothing. Rodgers' fourth-down pass to tight end Andrew Quarless was broken up in the end zone.

Later, Washington's defense—a 3-4 scheme that ranks last in the NFL in yards allowed—was stuffing the Packers repeatedly. Green Bay's last seven possessions resulted in four punts, two missed field goals and Rodgers' interception.

MIAMI 23, GREEN BAY 20 (OT)

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Oct. 17, 2010. Attendance: 70,815. Time: 3:14. Weather: 57° F. Humidity: 45 percent. Wind: W 11 mph. GAME 6

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—The Miami Dolphins have found a key to being effective: pound the ball, keep every game close and play as far away from Sun Life Stadium as possible.

There's no South Beach-like distractions in Green Bay, and the blue collar style the Dolphins play fits this colder climate than Florida's tropical temperatures.

With wins in Minnesota and Buffalo, Miami rules the Rust Belt.

The Dolphins are 3-0 on the road this season, and 0-2 at home. Miami needed to grind out another game using three field goals—including the 44-yard game winner—by Dan Carpenter and a perfect TD screen by developing quarterback Chad Henne to topple what had been considered one of the NFL's elite teams before injuries set in.

Green Bay (3-3) is a mess now after consecutive overtime losses.

The Packers can take solace in being just a game back in the NFC North chase despite injuries to eight starters, including five on defense. There's also the Lambeau Field showdown looming with Brett Favre and the Minnesota Vikings on Sunday night.

Henne's nifty 22-yard TD pass to Anthony Fasano gave Miami a 20-13 lead with 5:20 left, and Fasano ran untouched to the end zone with Long bowling over the last would-be tackler as Henne laid flat on his back.

Rodgers, who was sacked five times including three by Cameron Wake, tied it with a 1-yard TD on fourth-and-goal with 13 seconds to go, but the Dolphins had one more answer in overtime.

After the teams' exchanged punts with the Dolphins getting the better end of that deal and taking over at their own 48, Miami went to Ricky Williams and Ronnie Brown, who pounded the ball down to the Packers 26 before Carpenter hit the game winner on third down.

With so many injuries, Green Bay failed to get much pressure on Henne. Linebacker Clay Matthews, who has 8 1/2 sacks, was out with a left hamstring injury and Nick Barnett (wrist) went on the injured reserve on Friday.

Henne, with all the time he needed, finished 23 of 39 for 231 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Top receiver Brandon Marshall made 10 catches for 127 yards and just missed a 25-yard TD grab late in the first half. He said the win was all the more impressive because he believed the Dolphins left 21 points on the field.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. (AP)—It appeared Rex Ryan might have been on to something with all that Super Bowl talk. The New York Jets came in tied for the NFL's best record, had a five-game winning streak and were fresh off a bye week. Mason Crosby kicked three field goals for Green Bay, and that was all the Packers needed as they held the Jets off the scoreboard for a 9-0 victory Sunday.

Sure, it's only one game, but for a team with dreams of a championship parade, this was a stunner. Not so much that the Jets (5-2) lost to a good, but banged-up Packers (5-3) team. It was the way it went down that was disturbing. Mark Sanchez and the Jets' offense couldn't get much of anything going with some costly misfires and drops on a windy day, along with a couple of questionable calls by officials. Nick Folk missed a field goal, and punter Steve Weatherford failed to convert a fake on fourth-and-18 early in the game on a call overturned by a video replay.

Seven penalties and three turnovers didn't help the Jets, who were shut out for the first time since a 10-0 loss to Chicago on Nov. 19, 2006, at home. The Jets had a nice drive end in the fourth quarter when Dustin Keller caught a pass, rolled and then had the ball grabbed out of his hands by Charles Woodson. The Packers comeback jogged into the end zone while several players on both teams looked around bewildered. Woodson was ruled down by contact at the Packers' 43.

Replays showed it likely should not have been an interception, but New York was out of challenges after using both in the first half. The Packers capitalized on the turnover as Crosby gave them a 6-0 lead with a 41-yard field goal with 6:36 remaining. The Jets had another promising drive short-circuited in the second quarter when Tramon Williams ripped the ball out of Jerricho Cotchery's hands for an interception while the two were on the ground. The play was challenged by Ryan, but upheld by replay review.

Even with all that, New York still had a chance to win in the closing minutes. After turning the ball over on downs, the Jets held the Packers to a three-and-out and tried to finally get into the end zone trailing 6-0 with less than 4 minutes left.

Following a 5-yard run by LaDainian Tomlinson, Cotchery couldn't hold onto a long pass from Sanchez, who was sacked on the next play by Clay Matthews. Sanchez then threw incomplete to Braylon Edwards, and the Packers took over.

Crosby sealed it with a 40-yard field goal with 27 seconds left. Rodgers, whom coach Mike McCarthy said sprained an ankle during the game, finished 15-of-34 for 170 yards. Sanchez was 16-of-38 for 256 yards and two interceptions and had at least four passes dropped by receivers. Despite missing several starters and losing wide receiver Donald Driver, who reaggravated a quadriceps injury in the first half, the Packers hung in against the Jets' tough defense.

GREEN BAY 45, DALLAS 7

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Nov. 7, 2010. Attendance: 70,913. Time: 2:57. Weather: 43° F. Humidity: 62 percent. Wind: S 3 mph. GAME 9

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—Every time it seemed as though the Dallas Cowboys hit their low point, Aaron Rodgers and the Green Bay Packers knocked them down another notch.

Rodgers threw for 289 yards and three touchdowns. Brandon Jackson scored twice and Green Bay routed the free-falling Cowboys 45-7 on Sunday night.

It was a new nadir in a lost season for the Cowboys (1-7), who came into 2010 with Super Bowl aspirations. And it's sure to kick off a new round of speculation about the future of coach Wade Phillips, despite recent statements from team owner Jerry Jones that a midseason firing was unlikely.

Jones caught eight passes for 123 yards and a touchdown for the Packers (6-3), who have won three straight.

Packers coach Mike McCarthy said he expected his team to play well—but even he was surprised at the lopsided result.

Green Bay's Clay Matthews added a final dose of embarrassment in the fourth quarter, picking off a pass from Jon Kitna and running it back 62 yards for a touchdown.

Dallas fell behind 28-0 late in the second quarter, giving up three long touchdown drives before fumbling away a kickoff that was returned for a TD by Nick Collins.

Return man Bryan McCann appeared to be down before he gave the ball away—but the Cowboys didn't have any timeouts left, so they weren't able to challenge the call.

It was just another misstep in a colossal downward spiral for the Cowboys.

Meanwhile, the Packers continued to show how a team with Super Bowl expectations is supposed to handle a disappointing start to the season. It was an impressive performance by Rodgers, who hadn't been playing up to his own high standards earlier this year.

Green Bay has won three in a row after opening 3-3, including an emotional Sunday night home win over Brett Favre and the Vikings followed by a 9-0 road shutout of the New York Jets last week. Beating the talented but troubled Cowboys gives the Packers another boost of momentum heading into their bye week.

About the only serious mistake for the Packers was a personal foul penalty on Collins, flagged for a helmet-to-helmet hit on Cowboys receiver Roy Williams in the third quarter.

Longtime Packers receiver Donald Driver sat out with a quadriceps injury, but Jones and Greg Jennings were able to pick up the slack in the passing game. Jennings had seven catches for 80 yards and a touchdown.

GREEN BAY 31, MINNESOTA 3

HHH Metrodome, Sunday, Nov. 21, 2010. Attendance: 64,120. Time: 2:48. Weather: Indoors. GAME 10

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Brett Favre looked ready for retirement, with six likely meaningless games now left for Minnesota in the epilogue of his 20-year career.

Arnon Rodgers and Green Bay's swarming defense sure made it clear who's in charge of this Packers-Vikings rivalry right now. Rodgers went 22 for 31 for 301 yards, with three of his four touchdown passes going to Greg Jennings. He beat Favre for the second time this season and sent Green Bay to a 31-3 victory over melting-down Minnesota on Sunday.

The Packers (7-3) emerged fresh from their bye week and kept pace in the NFC North race with the Chicago Bears (7-3), ruining any realistic hope the Vikings (3-7) had left for another shot at the Super Bowl.

Instead, this "100th meeting between these border-state rivals, likely the last for the 41-year-old Favre, was marked by costly turnovers, untimely penalties and even some sideline shouting by the frustrated Vikings.

Owner Zigi Wilf walked sternly out of a silent locker room without commenting. The Vikings also lost starting right guard Anthony Herrera to a season-ending knee injury. Childress said he didn't think the Vikings quit, but some players wondered aloud whether everyone's effort was there about the future of head coach Brad Childress.

As for Favre's future? He insisted he's committed to the team and the rest of the season, despite failing to directly answer questions about whether he wants to finish it and vaguely saying he planned to "re-evaluate" the situation on Monday.

Tramon Williams intercepted Favre to stop a long Vikings drive, and Rodgers took the Packers the other way for a touchdown to James Jones in the final minute of the first half to give the visitors a 17-3 lead.

Favre and close friend Darrell Bevell, the offensive coordinator, were seen on TV snapping at each other on the sideline after the interception. Favre said he and Bevell were "fine" and said he'd have made the same throw again, crediting Williams—who's having a Pro Bowl-caliber season—for an exceptional play.

The "Go Pack Go!" cry from the Wisconsin transplants and travelers grew louder as the game went on, with Vikings fans getting in a few "Fire Childress!" chants for good measure.

With 10 players and five starters lost for the season on injured reserve, plus a stiff second-half schedule featuring a trip to NFC-leading Atlanta next week, McCarthy and the Packers have plenty of work in front of them.

But the steam and swagger they regained in their 28-24 win over the Vikings on Oct. 24 is making them look more like the Super Bowl contender they were purported to be this summer.

ATLANTA 20, GREEN BAY 17

Georgia Dome, Sunday, Nov. 28, 2010. Attendance: 68,204. Time: 2:47. Weather: Indoors. GAME 11

ATLANTA (AP) — Don't even mention a third straight winning season to the Atlanta Falcons.

Their goals are so much bigger than that. The Falcons stayed atop the NFC when Matt Bryant kicked a 47-yard field goal with 9 seconds remaining Sunday for a 20-17 victory over the Green Bay Packers, one of the teams trying to chase down Atlanta in the conference standings.

Make no mistake. The Falcons (9-2) were very much aware of the possible ramifications this game might have beyond the regular season. The Falcons have won five in a row for their longest streak since the 1998 season, when the team reached its only Super Bowl. Also assumed is a third consecutive winning record—not too shabby, considering the franchise had never even had two in a row before this run.

Yet that's just an afterthought for these guys, who have won six straight games decided by a touchdown or less after losing the opener to Pittsburgh in overtime.

Bryant had to make his winning kick twice.

The Packers called a timeout just before he knocked his first attempt right down the middle. No problem. The 35-year-old had already made two game-winning kicks this season, and No. 3 had plenty of distance as it hooked slightly but stayed several feet inside the left upright. He do-over capped a game between playoff contenders that lived up to all the hype: a bruising defensive struggle filled with huge fourth-down plays and one very important kickoff return by Eric Weems.

After Aaron Rodgers threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to Jordy Nelson with 56 seconds remaining to tie the game for Green Bay (7-4), Weems broke loose up the middle and was dragged down by Matt Wilhelm with a flagrant facemask tackle. The Falcons took over at the Green Bay 49, Matt Ryan completed four straight short passes and Bryant made the winning kick.

The Falcons weren't concerned after Green Bay scored, especially with Ryan at quarterback. He completed 24-of-28 for 198 yards, including a 4-yarder to Tony Gonzalez for Atlanta's first TD.

Green Bay thought it had forced overtime when Rodgers directed a 16-play, 90-yard drive for the tying score. He improvised two huge plays on fourth down, beginning with a scrambling, backhanded flip of a pass to James Jones for an 18-yard gain on fourth-and-1 at the 21.

Once a key reserve at LB and perennial special teams standout, moved into the starting lineup after Nick Barnett's wrist injury and immediately became one of the linchpins of a stout defense...Has started the last seven games and posted a combined 79 tackles – already a career-high total for a season – two sacks and an INT with a TD return...Has eight starts in his career, and in six games has recorded double-digit tackle totals, including 12 in 2008 in his first career start, along with over 10 in his first four starts of 2010...Recorded 51 special teams stops since 2007, including a team-high 22 in 2009...Was also a regular in various sub packages over the previous two seasons, including the five-LB 'Psycho' personnel group used effectively by defensive coordinator Dom Capers...Aggressive hitter, and filling holes against the run also considered among his strengths.

▶vs. Miami (10/17): Started at Mack LB...Recorded a career-high 16 stops (seven solo), a QB hit and a pass defended...In the second quarter, snuffed a screen pass to RB Ricky Williams for a 1-yard loss at the Miami 27 on second down, then combined with LB Brady Poppinga on the next play to tackle WR Davone Bess after a 7-yard gain to force a punt...With 1:34 remaining in the third quarter, was part of the defensive swarm that helped push back RB Ronnie Brown on fourth-and-1 at the Green Bay 27...In the fourth quarter, lunged to break up a pass to WR Davone Bess on third-and-2 at the Green Bay 43, forcing a punt in what appeared to be one of the biggest defensive plays of the game. ▶vs. Minnesota (10/24): Started at Mack LB and posted 11 tackles (six solo) and an INT with a 32-yard return for a TD, the first of his career...The INT came in the third quarter, catching a pass that was thrown into his chest by QB Brett Favre and taking it to the end zone to give Green Bay a 28-17 lead. INT for a TD was the reward after staying with Moss, his coverage assignment, despite Favre's pump fake...The INT came two snaps after an Aaron Rodgers to WR Greg Jennings TD pass that was set up by an INT by LB A.J. Hawk...Bishop also put a hit on Moss on the final play of the game to help break up the pass, a high heave by Favre with the Packers holding onto a 28-24 lead.

Top RB duo of LaDainian Tomlinson and Shonn Greene combined for 76 yards on 22 carries, with a long of 8...Ended the contest with an exclamation point, putting a huge hit near the sidelines on WR Jerricho Cotchery on the second-to-last play.

▶vs. Dallas (11/7): Had four tackles, a sack, a QB hit and a forced fumble... Put a big hit on Felix Jones in the second quarter on a quick draw out of the shotgun, dropping the RB for a 2-yard loss...Sacked QB Jon Kitna for a 9-yard loss in the third quarter, causing a fumble that was recovered by Jones. An incompletion on the next play forced a punt, and the Packers would march 80 yards for a FG on the ensuing drive.
