GREEN BAY, DEC. 21, 2010

WEEK 16

N.Y. GIANTS (9-5) AT GREEN BAY (8-6) Sunday, Dec. 26 ● Lambeau Field ● 3:15 p.m. CST

GREEN BAY HOSTS N.Y. GIANTS IN NFC SHOWDOWN

The Packers return home after back-to-back road games to host the N.Y. Giants on Sunday at Lambeau Field in a matchup that has major playoff implications in the NFC.

Green Bay will be back on its home field after playing four of its past five contests on the road. The Packers have won nine of their last 10 regular-season games at Lambeau Field, and their 9-1 mark over that span ranks No. 2 in the NFL behind only New England (10-0)

► It is the first meeting between the Packers and Giants since they squared off in Green Bay in the 2007 NFC Championship, a game New York won, 23-20, in overtime on Jan. 20, 2008, in the third-coldest game in NFL championship game history (minus-1 temperature at game time with minus-23 wind chill).

▶ This will be only the third regular-season trip to Lambeau Field for the Giants in the past 25 years. New York last played at Green Bay during the regular season on Oct. 3, 2004, a 14-7 Giants win. Prior to that, its only other visit since 1985 came on Sept. 17, 1995, when the Packers won 14-6

► Two of the most venerable franchises in professional football history, the teams have combined for 19 championships. Green Bay (12 titles) ranks No. 1 among all NFL franchises, while the Giants (seven) rank third

► The Packers and Giants have squared off in five NFL championship games, with Green Bay winning four of those contests. New York won the 1938 title at the Polo Grounds in New York, but the Packers defeated the Giants in the championship game in 1939, 1944, 1961 and 1962.

► The Packers hold a 29-23-2 edge in the all-time series, which includes a 4-2 record in the postseason. The teams first met in 1928 in New York.

► Green Bay closes out the regular season next Sunday when it hosts the division-rival Chicago Bears in a noon (CST) contest. It is the first time in Head Coach Mike McCarthy's tenure that the Packers have finished a season with back-to-back home games. The last time Green Bay concluded a season with consecutive home contests was 2005.

WITH THE CALL

FOX Sports, now in its 17th season as an NFL network television partner, will broadcast the game to the majority of the country.

Play-by-play man Joe Buck and color analyst Troy
 Aikman will have the call from the broadcast booth with Pam Oliver reporting from the sidelines.

► Milwaukee's WTMJ (620 AM), airing Green Bay games since 1929, heads up the 53-station Packers Radio Network, with Wayne Larrivee (play-by-play) and two-time Packers Pro Bowler Larry McCarren (color) calling the action. The duo enters its 12th season of broadcasts together across the Packers Radio Network, which covers 43 markets in five states.

► Westwood One radio will air the game across the country. Kevin Kugler (play-by-play) and Mark Malone (analyst) will call the action, and Scott Graham hosts pregame and halftime shows.

► For out-of-town listeners, the broadcast is available on Sirius Satellite Radio (channel 123 WTMJ feed) as part of the network's NFL Sunday Drive.

▶ DIRECTV subscribers can watch the game in HD on channel 715.

A PATH TO THE POSTSEASON

The Packers stand at 8-6 following a 31-27 defeat at New England this past Sunday night, but with two games left on their schedule, they remain in position for a playoff bid with wins in their final two contests.

►If Green Bay wins its remaining games against the Giants this Sunday and the Bears next Sunday, the Packers would finish at 10-6, and could potentially be tied with the N.Y. Giants, Tampa Bay and/or New Orleans.

The tiebreaker would come down to strength of victory since the conference records for those teams would all be 8-4, and the Packers currently sit atop that category among those teams.

▶The combined record of the teams the Packers have beaten this year is 48-64 (.429), which is ahead of the N.Y. Giants (50-76, .397), New Orleans (51-89, .364) and Tampa Bay (32-80, .286).

►The Chicago Bears clinched the NFC North title on Monday night with a win at Minnesota. Even if Chicago were to lose its final two games, including at Green Bay in Week 17, the Bears win the tiebreaker over the Packers based on divisional record.

►There will be plenty on the line this Sunday at Lambeau Field for the Giants as well, who can clinch a playoff berth with a win.

DEFENSE KEEPING THEM OUT

Having finished No. 2 in the league's final overall rankings and No. 7 in points allowed in 2009, the Green Bay defense is enjoying an even more productive season when it comes to keeping opponents off the scoreboard.

The Packers rank tied with Pittsburgh for No. 1 in the league in scoring defense, allowing the opposition an average of just 15.7 points per game, an improvement over last season's mark of 18.6 per contest.

▶Green Bay has allowed just 22 touchdowns, No. 2 in the league behind only the Steelers (21)

▶The last time Green Bay led the league in scoring defense this late in a season was when it finished No. 1 in the league in that category at the end of the 1996 Super Bowl season (13.1 per game).

▶In the last seven games, the Packers have given up 10.6 points per game. This past Sunday they allowed a season-high 31 points against a New England team that ranks No. 1 in the NFL in scoring offense at 31.9 per game, but 14 of those points came from an INT for a TD and long kickoff return that put New England at Green Bay's 4-yard line.

Screen Bay currently ranks No. 7 in the NFL in overall defense, allowing an average of 309.4 yards per game through Week 15, and No. 3 in the league in passing defense at 192.4 yards per game.

►After leading the NFL in run defense for the first time in 2009 by allowing a franchise-record 83.3 yards per game, the Packers haven't been as productive against the run thus far this season as they are tied for No. 19 in the league with 117.0 yards allowed per game.

► Green Bay has given up just six rushing TDs all year, which is tied for No. 4 in the NFL. The Giants enter Sunday's game with 16 rushing TDs on the season, which is tied for No. 4 in the league.

▶In the win over Dallas in Week 9, the Packers limited the Cowboys to just 39 rushing yards on 14 carries (2.8 avg.). That was the fewest yards given up by a Green Bay defense since the Packers limited the Lions to 33 yards on the ground on Oct. 17, 2004, at Detroit.

► At the N.Y. Jets in Week 8, the defense registered the first road shutout by the Packers since 1991 against an offense that entered the game ranked No. 2 in the league in rushing offense at 159.2 yards per game.

- ▶ Facing LaDainian Tomlinson and Shonn Greene, the Packers limited the tandem to just 76 yards on 22 carries (3.5 avg.), their lowest combined effort of the season to that point.
- ► Until Vikings RB Adrian Peterson rushed for 131 yards in Week 7, Green Bay's defense hadn't allowed a running back to rush for 100 yards for 19 straight games. Peterson and Falcons RB Michael Turner (Week 12 this season) are the only backs to eclipse 100 yards since Week 3 of 2009.

►The 19-game streak was the second longest in team history since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger, trailing only a 24-game game stretch from Sept.

20, 1970-Nov. 22, 1971.

►Green Bay will be put to the test this Sunday by a New York team that ranks No. 5 in the league in rushing at 144.9 yards per game.

The Giants feature one of the top running-back tandems in the league in Ahmad Bradshaw and Brandon Jacobs. Bradshaw ranks No. 6 in the NFL with 1,182 rushing yards on 249 carries (4.7 avg.), while Jacobs has posted 727 yards on 126 attempts (5.8 avg.). Both backs have recorded eight rushing TDs, and the Giants rank No. 2 in the NFL with 21 runs of 20-plus vards this season.

►Under defensive coordinator Dom Capers, the Packers thrived in their new 3-4 scheme in 2009, finishing No. 1 against the run and No. 5 against the pass. The previous top ranking in franchise history in run defense came in 1972, when the team finished No. 2.

▶Green Bay allowed an average of 284.4 total yards per game in '09, second behind the N.Y. Jets (252.3) and ahead of No. 3 Baltimore (300.5).

▶Here is a look at some of Green Bay's defensive numbers since Caper's took over as coordinator in 2009:

Team	Rushing TDs Allowed
1. Green Bay	11
2. Pittsburgh	12
3t. Baltimore, Minnesota	13

Team	Opponent Passer Rating
1. N.Y. Jets	69.2
2. Green Bay	69.5
3. New Orleans	73.8

Team	Interceptions
1t. Green Bay	49
1t. Philadelphia	49
3t. Carolina, New England	39

STINGY AGAINST THE PASS

Green Bay's pass defense this season has been more productive than at any other point in Head Coach Mike McCarthy's tenure, but the Packers will face another stiff challenge on Sunday from the Giants.

- ►Through Week 15, the Packers rank No. 3 in the league in pass defense, allowing their opponents just 192.4 yards per game through the air. That is on pace for the best mark under McCarthy, ahead of the 201.1 passing yards per game allowed in 2009.
- ►Since Washington QB Donovan McNabb passed for 357 yards against Green Bay in Week 5, the Packers have allowed opposing QBs to pass for just 181.3 yards per contest, No. 2 in the NFL over that span behind only San Diego (176.2).
- ►The defense has limited opposing signal-callers to a passer rating of just 70.3 this season, which ranks No. 1 in the NFL. That rating is a shade above what the defense allowed in 2009 when it finished No. 4 in the league rankings in that category with a 68.8 rating by opposing QBs.
- ►The Packers have recorded 18 interceptions, which is tied for No. 4 in the league, and opposing quarterbacks have completed 56.7 percent of their passes (No. 5).
- Green Bay has given up only 14 TD passes this season, which ranks tied for No. 4 in the NFL, after allowing 29 TDs through the air in 2009.
- ▶On Sunday night at New England, the defense limited Patriots QB Tom Brady to just 163 yards through the air on 15-of-24 passing. Entering the game, Brady had eclipsed the 300-yard mark in four of the previous five games, averaging 314.4 yards per contest over that span.
- ►The Giants enter Sunday's contest ranked No. 12 in the NFL in passing offense at 239.0 yards per game, and they have been one of the more explosive teams through the air this season with 50 passes of 20-plus yards (No. 6). The Packers have given up 37 completions of 20-plus yards, good for No. 9 in the league.

STAT OF THE WEEK

- ►Third-vear QB Matt Flynn made his first career NFL start in one of the toughest environments in the league on Sunday night in place of an injured Aaron Rodgers.
- ► Facing the 11-2 New England Patriots, who entered the game with a league-high 15-game winning streak at Gillette Stadium, Flynn completed 24-of-37 passes for 251 yards and three touchdowns with one interception for a 100.2 passer rating in Green Bay's 31-27 loss.
- ►According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Flynn's 100.2 passer rating was the highest by an NFL quarterback making his first career start against a team with a 10-2 record or better since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

Flynn also became the first Packers QB to throw three touchdown passes in his first career start since Anthony Dilweg threw for three TDs vs. the Los Angeles Rams on Sept. 9, 1990, at Lambeau Field.

- ►Flynn's first touchdown pass of the game, which was also the first of his career, was a 66-yard completion to WR James Jones in the second quarter. That is the longest TD pass by an NFL quarterback in his first start since the Eagles' Kevin Kolb threw a 71-yard TD pass last season in Week 2 vs. New Orleans.
- Sunday was the first time the Packers started a QB other than Aaron Rodgers or Brett Favre since Sept. 20, 1992, when Don Majkowski go the opening nod against Cincinnati at Lambeau Field.

LAST MEETING

2007 NFC Championship Game, Jan. 20, 2008, at Lambeau Field; Giants won, 23-20 OT

- ►With temperatures of minus-3 and wind chills of minus-24, the Giants advanced to the Super Bowl when K Lawrence Tynes made a 47-yard FG just 2 minutes, 35 seconds into OT.
- ►Tynes missed two potential game-winning FGs in the fourth quarter, from 43 and 36 yards, the latter on the final play of regulation.
- ►The Packers won the OT coin flip, but QB Brett Favre was intercepted by CB Corey Webster on the first series, setting up Tynes' third try to win the game.
- ▶The Packers led 17-13 in the third quarter on the strength of TD passes of 90 yards to WR Donald Driver (5 rec., 141 yards) and 12 yards to TE Donald Lee.
- ► Giants WR Plaxico Burress had 11 catches for 151 yards and RBs Brandon Jacobs and Ahmad Bradshaw combined for 130 rushing yards, with Bradshaw adding a 4-yard TD run late in the third quarter.

Sept. 16, 2007, at the Meadowlands; Packers won, 35-13

- ▶ Brett Favre became the winningest QB in NFL history with his 149th win, surpassing Hall of Famer John Elway, as the Packers put on a dominant display in the fourth quarter.
- ► Leading 14-13 in the fourth quarter, the Packers marched 80 yards in 10 plays, with a 3-yard TD pass to Lee capping it off.
- ► Green Bay forced a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and recovered the ball in Giants territory. The offense needed just five plays to cover the distance, as Favre found Driver in the back of the end zone.
- ► A late 38-yard TD run by RB DeShawn Wynn capped the scoring.

TAKING HIS PLACE AMONG THE GAME'S BEST

With 35 passing attempts at Atlanta in Week 13, Aaron Rodgers surpassed the 1,500-attempt plateau for his career, the benchmark to qualify for career passer rating in the NFL.

▶Rodgers has completed 994-of-1,546 passes (64.3 percent) in his career for 12,090 yards and 82 touchdowns with 31 interceptions for a 97.6 passer rating

►That rating ranks No. 2 in NFL history, behind only San Diego QB Philip Rivers, who has a 97.8 career rating.

► Four of the top five rated passers in NFL history are active quarterbacks, with Steve Young (96.8), Tony Romo (95.5) and Tom Brady (94.9) rounding out the top five.

▶Rodgers also ranks No. 1 in NFL history (min. 1,500 attempts) in interception percentage at 2.0, ahead of Neil O'Donnell (2.1) and Donovan McNabb (2.2).

▶Rodgers threw four TD passes at Minnesota in Week 11, his regularseason career high. His passer rating of 141.3 (22-of-31, 301 yards), was the second-best single game mark in his career behind only his 155.4

rating at Cleveland on Oct. 25, 2009.

Rodgers joins Eagles QB Michael Vick (at Washington, Nov. 15) and Patriots QB Tom Brady (at Detroit, Nov. 25, vs. N.Y. Jets, Dec. 6) as the only QBs to post a 140-plus passer rating, 300 yards passing and four passing TDs in a game this season.

► His performance vs. San Francisco in Week 13 was the ninth game in which he had three-ormore TD passes and no INTs. Only one other player in history has accumulated as many games of that type within three seasons of his first NFL start, Kurt Warner with nine from 1999-2001.

►Last season, Rodgers threw for 4,434 yards as he became the first QB in NFL history to throw for more than 4,000 yards in each of his first two seasons as a starter.

► Rodgers joined Young (San Francisco, 1998) as the only quarterbacks in NFL history to throw for 4,000 yards and 30 TDs and rush for 300 yards and five TDs in the same season.

▶In 45 career starts. Rodgers has eclipsed the century mark in passer rating 24 times and recorded 13 games of 300-plus yards. He posted his 20th career 100-plus passer rating game in just his 36th career start, which ranks third among NFL QBs since 1970 behind only Warner (33) and Romo (34)

▶Rodgers threw 70 TD passes in his first 40 career starts, a Packers franchise record.

▶ Rodgers had started 45 straight games, which was tied for No. 4 among active NFL quarterbacks, before missing this past Sunday's game at New England due to a concussion sustained at Detroit in Week 14.

► Here is a look at where Rodgers ranks among NFL guarterbacks since he took over as the starter in 2008:

Player 1. Drew Brees, NO 2. Peyton Manning, IND 3. Philip Rivers, SD 4. Aaron Rodgers, GB	Passing Yards 13,579 12,759 12,404 11,761
Player 1. Drew Brees, NO 2. Philip Rivers, SD 3. Peyton Manning, IND 4. Aaron Rodgers, GB	Passing TDs 99 91 88 81
Player 1. Michael Vick, PHI 2. Philip Rivers, SD 3. Tom Brady, NE 4. Drew Brees, NO 5. Aaron Rodgers, GB	Passer Rating 105.2 103.2 102.1 99.3 98.5

NOT IN A GIVING MOOD

Last season the Packers set a franchise mark with a league-low 16 giveaways, but this year's Green Bay team accomplished something that even the record-setting one in 2009 could not.

In the five games from Oct. 31-Dec. 5, Green Bay had turned the ball over just one time. That came at Atlanta in Week 12 when QB Aaron Rodgers fumbled at the goal line in the second quarter.

According to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the first time in franchise history that the Packers turned the ball over just one time over a five-game span in a season.

►In the Week 13 win over San Francisco, Rodgers did not throw an interception for the fifth straight game, his career high. The last Packers QB to not be picked off in five straight starts in a season was Bart Starr in

►Rodgers was intercepted in Week 14 at Detroit when a deep pass down the middle went off WR Greg Jennings' hands and into S Amari Spievey's. That snapped a streak of 181 attempts without an interception for Rodgers, good for No. 2 in franchise history. It put him behind only Bart Starr (294 in 1964-65) for the franchise record. Starr's mark ranks No. 2 in NFL history.

►The performance against the 49ers was the Packers' fifth zero-turnover game this season, and Green Bay is 5-0 in those contests.

▶If the Packers don't commit a turnover, they're almost guaranteed to win. They have now won 44 of 48 games (.917) playing turnover-free football since a loss at Dallas, Nov. 18, 1996. Green Bay's only losses in such games during that stretch came three times against Minnesota, twice in Minneapolis (2005, '08) and once at home (2009), and in Week 15 last year at Pittsburgh.

► Green Bay is 20-3 (.870) under Head Coach Mike McCarthy when it doesn't commit a turnover.

►Including playoffs, the Packers have won 46 of their last 50 games when they don't turn the ball

POINT PRODUCTION

After outscoring their opponents a combined 166-74 over the past six games, the Packers find themselves near the top of the NFL's scoring differential column.

►The Packers have outscored their opponents 333-220 this season, and that 113-point differential ranks No. 1 in the NFC and No. 3 in the NFL behind only New England (143) and San Diego (128).

Among teams with seven or more wins. Green Bay ranks No. 3 in the NFL with an average margin of victory of 16.63.

▶On the flip side, the Packers' average margin of defeat in their six losses is the lowest in the league at 3.33. Green Bay's six defeats this season have been by a combined 20 points.

►Last season, the Packers ranked No. 3 in the league with an average margin of victory of 18.27, their highest mark since a 21.31 mark in their Super Bowl season of 1996.

▶In 2009, Green Bay ranked No. 2 in the league in scoring differential, with a 164-point advantage over its opponents (461-297). That was second in the league to only the Super Bowl champion New Orleans Saints' 169point differential (510-341)

►The Packers have been productive in the first half this season. They have outscored their opponents 173-108, and that 65-point margin in the opening half ranks No. 5 in the league.

►Green Bay has been even more prolific opening the second half as it has outscored its opponents 97-33 in the third quarter. That differential of 64 points ranks No. 2 in the NFL behind only San Diego (66).

►The Packers are tied with Pittsburgh for the NFL lead the league in scoring defense at 15.7 points per game and rank tied for No. 10 in scoring offense with an average of 23.8 points per game.

Green Bay is one of four teams in the league ranked in the top 10 in both scoring offense and defense, joining San Diego, Atlanta and New

►The Giants enter Sunday's game ranked No. 6 in the NFL in scoring offense (25.7) and No. 13 in scoring defense (20.6). Prior to their 38-31 loss to Philadelphia this past Sunday, the Giants had allowed just 10 points in their previous two games.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

FEWER FLAGS ON THE FIELD

One area of emphasis for the Packers this season was reducing the number of penalties, and that focus has paid dividends.

- ▶Through Week 15, Green Bay ranks No. 5 in the league with 71 accepted penalties (5.1 per game), a pace that would make for a dramatic improvement from 2009. The Packers check in at No. 2 in penalty yardage with 556, an average of 39.7 yards per game.
- ▶If the Packers continue the penalty pace they are on, it would be their best mark since 2001, when they finished with 80 penalties (No. 8 in the NFL).
- ►The Packers were the most-penalized team in the NFL last season with 118 (7.4 per game) while ranking second in penalty yardage with 1,057 (66.1 per game), the third straight year that they finished among the top five most-penalized teams.

- ►With just two penalties for 15 yards this past Sunday at New England, it was the eighth time this season that Green Bay had been called for three or fewer penalties in a game, the best single-season mark since nine contests in 1967.
- ▶Green Bay's eight penalties over a four-game span earlier this season (Oct. 24-Nov. 21) were the fewest by the Packers since they had eight from Nov. 19-Dec. 9, 1967.
- ▶The performance at Minnesota in Week 11 was especially notable. The one penalty at the Metrodome was the fewest by Grenen Bay in 28 games at the stadium, and the last time a team posted just one penalty at Minnesota was San Diego on Nov. 28, 1999. The last time the Packers were only penalized once in a game came at Chicago on Dec. 23, 2007.

- ►The eight games this season tops the number of combined games with three or fewer penalties in the first four seasons under Head Coach Mike McCarthy, and Green Bay didn't do it once last season. The Packers are 6-2 this season when they are penalized three or fewer times in a game.
- ► Green Bay recorded two games with three or fewer penalties in 2008, two in '07 to end the regular season, and three in '06.
- ►In Week 13 against San Francisco, the Packers didn't commit a defensive penalty for the first time in a game this season, and the defense wasn't flagged again on Sunday night at New England.
- ► Since the Packers were flagged a franchise-record 18 times for 152 yards in the loss at Chicago in Week 3, they've committed just 45 penalties for 340 yards over their last 11 games, an average of 4.1 penalties for 30.9 yards per game.
- ▶The Packers got off to a good start this season with just two penalties at Philadelphia in Week 1, the fewest by Green Bay in an opening-day contest since Sept. 7, 1986, vs. Houston at Lambeau Field, when they were also called for two penalties.

MAKING THEM PAY WITH TAKEAWAYS

After tying for the league lead in points off of takeaways in 2009, the Packers have been productive in that area again this season.

- ► Green Bay ranks No. 7 in the NFL with 87 points off of takeaways, with Sunday's opponent, the N.Y. Giants, a few spots ahead of them at No. 4 with 97 points off of turnovers.
- ►The Packers are tied for No. 7 in the NFL with a plus-5 turnover ratio, but have been minus-3 over the past two games, both losses.
- ▶Of the Packers' 24 takeaways this season, 12 of them have been converted into touchdowns. That 50.0 TD percentage ranks tied for No. 1 in the NFL with Dallas (13-26), and Green Bay's 12 TDs off of takeaways are tied for No. 4 in the NFL.
- ► Green Bay has averaged 3.63 points off of takeaways this season, good for No. 9 in the league.

- ►The Packers are tied for No. 5 in the league with 18 interceptions and are tied for No. 2 in INTs for TDs (three).
- ►With LB Clay Matthews' INT for a TD in Week 9 vs. Dallas, the Packers have now posted at least three INTs for TDs in each of the last three seasons. That is the first time in franchise history that Green Bay has accomplished that feat. The Packers have posted at least three INTs for TDs in four of five seasons under Head Coach Mike McCarthy.
- Scoring points off of turnovers has become a trend for the Packers at Lambeau Field. They didn't score a point off a takeaway vs. San Francisco in Week 13, which snapped a streak of 15 straight games at home with points scored that were set up by a turnover.
- ►The Packers have had 11 different players post an interception this sea-
  - ► Green Bay posted 30 INTs and 10 fumble recoveries in 2009, which it turned into 141 points. The 40 takeaways led the NFL, and the 141 points scored off those takeaways tied New Orleans for most in the NFL.
  - ►The 30 interceptions led the league and was the team's highest single-season total since 1981, when it also had 30.
  - ▶ Last season Green Bay surpassed its 2008 total of 124 points off takeaways, which led the NFL. It also eclipsed its '08 total in interceptions (22) and fumble recoveries (six) while at the same time protecting the ball at a better clip. Green Bay's 16 giveaways was the lowest total in the NFL in 2009.
  - ▶ During McCarthy's tenure, the Packers have a 35-6 (.854) record when they come out ahead in the game in turnover ratio, and a 6-20 (.231) record when they lose the takeaway battle. Under McCarthy, Green Bay is 19-3 (.864) when its turnover margin is plus-2 or better.

► The Packers rank No. 3 in the NFL with a plus-40 turnover ratio since 2006 behind only New England (plus-50) and San Diego (plus-43).

Green Bay has had one of the more efficient red-zone offenses in the league over the past two seasons, finishing in the top 10 in the NFL in 2008 and 2009, and with two games left the Packers are in position to finish in the top 10 once again in the category.

- ▶Through Week 15, the Packers have scored touchdowns on 26 of 45 trips inside the opponent's 20. That 57.8 percent touchdown rate ranks tied for No. 10 in the NFL, and the 26 TDs also rank tied for No. 10.
- ► Green Bay's 212 points in the red zone this season (26 touchdowns, 10 field goals) rank tied for No. 12 in the league, and its average of 4.71 points per red-zone trip ranks No. 13 in the NFL.
- ▶The Packers' production has come in fewer opportunities than 2009, as they rank tied for No. 12 in the league with the 45 red-zone possessions. That is behind their pace from last season, when Green Bay finished No. 6 in the league with 62 red-zone drives.
- ▶The highest red-zone conversion mark under Head Coach Mike McCarthy came in 2008, when the Packers ranked No. 6 in the NFL with a 60.4 percent touchdown rate. The last time Green Bay finished in the top five in the category came in 2003, when the Packers finished No. 2 in the NFL with a 65.4 conversion rate.
- ►Some of Green Bay's success in the red zone has to be credited to the play of QB Aaron Rodgers, who has been one of the more efficient signal-callers in the league inside the 20 since taking over as the starter in 2008.
- ▶In Week 7 against Minnesota, Rodgers threw a red-zone interception for the only time in his 45 career starts to date. Since 2008, he has registered a 107.4 rating on 126-of-204 passing (61.8 percent) for 797 yards and 51 touchdowns with one interception in the red zone.
- ► According to STATS, Rodgers has connected on 41-of-62 passes (66.1 percent) for 259 yards and 15 TDs with one INT in the red zone in 2010 for a 107.5 passer rating.

CLAY FINDS A WAY

Despite sitting out Green Bay's Week 6 matchup vs. Miami due to a hamstring injury, the first time he missed a game in his career, LB Clay Matthews ranks No. 2 in the NFL with 12.5 sacks this season behind Miami's Cameron Wake (14.0).

► Matthews was named to the Midseason All-Pro Teams of Pro Football Weekly and Sports Illustrated, and was selected by the Dallas Morning News as the Midseason Defensive Player of the Year in the NFL.

►With a sack of QB Jon Kitna in the second quarter in Week 9 against Dallas, Matthews became the first Packer since the stat became official in 1982 to register a double-digit sack total in each of his first two seasons in the NFL.

► Matthews also posted his first career interception in Week 9, and returned the pick 62 yards for a TD on his way to earning NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the third time in his career. It was the second TD of his career, and both of his scores have come in prime-time games. Matthews returned a fumble 42 yards for a TD last season in Week 4 at Minnesota on Monday Night Football.

► According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Matthews is the first NFL player since sacks became an official statistic in 1982 to register double-digit sacks and a defensive TD in each of his first two seasons in the NFL.

►With three sacks against the Buffalo Bills in Week 2, Matthews became the first Packer to post three sacks in back-to-back games since it became an official league statistic in 1982.

►The performance vs. Buffalo came a week after Matthews registered a career-high three sacks in the Packers' 27-20 season-opening victory at Philadelphia.

► Matthews was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for Week 2, and he also won the award last season for his two-sack outing vs. Baltimore in Week 13 on MNF.

► Matthews' six sacks in the first two games of the season were the most ever by a Packer to start a year.

► His 33 sack yards vs. Buffalo were the most by a Packer since DE Reggie White's 35 on two sacks vs. Minnesota on Oct. 22, 1995. Matthews ranks No. 2 in the league with 87.5 sack yards on the season behind only Wake (89.5). DE Aaron Kampman (108 in 2006) holds the single-season franchise record for sack yardage.

► Matthews' six sacks over a two-game span rank second in team history behind only Bryce Paup, who recorded 6.5 sacks in Weeks 3-4 in 1991. Paup posted 4.5 sacks vs. Tampa Bay on Sept. 15, and then followed that up with two more the next week at Miami on Sept. 22.

▶In 28 career games played, Matthews has posted two or more sacks in a game five times. All five of those two-sack games came in Matthews' first 18 games in a Packers uniform, breaking White's franchise mark of four in his first 18 games with Green Bay (1993-94).

► Matthews' 22.5 sacks since 2009 rank tied for No. 2 in the NFL behind only Minnesota DE Jared Allen (24).

► Matthews' 17 sacks in his first 20 games were the most ever by any NFL player to start a career. It topped the previous mark of 16.5 set by San Diego's Leslie O'Neal (1986, 1988) and the N.Y. Jets' John Abraham (2000-01).

▶ In 2009, Matthews set a Packers rookie record with 10 sacks on his way to earning Pro Bowl honors, the first Green Bay rookie to be named to the all-star game since Hall of Fame WR James Lofton in 1978.

UNDER PRESSURE

After recording six sacks in Week 1 at Philadelphia, the most by any NFL team on opening weekend, the Packers have followed that debut up with 34 more sacks in the next 13 games.

► Green Bay's 40 sacks as a team through Week 15 rank tied for No. 3 in the NFL behind only San Diego (44) and the N.Y. Giants (42). The Packers rank No. 2 in sack yardage with 277 behind only the Giants (290) and have had 13 different players record a sack this season.

▶The only time Green Bay was shut out in the sack column this season was in Week 6 against Miami, a game LB Clay Matthews missed due to injury. The Packers have failed to register a sack only two times in the past 21 regular-season games.

▶The Packers' 21 sacks in the first five games this year were the most in a five-game span in Head Coach Mike McCarthy's five seasons.

► Green Bay recorded four sacks vs. San Francisco in Week 13, the Packers' fifth game with four-plus sacks. That is the most by a Green Bay team since the 2006 team posted six four-sack games.

▶Of the team's 40 sacks, 12.5 have come courtesy of Matthews, who ranks No. 2 in the NFL in that category. DE Cullen Jenkins ranks second on the team with a career-high seven sacks, despite missing three contests with a calf injury, and NT B.J. Raji checks in third with a career-high 5.5.

►The Packers' sack total through Week 15 eclipses their final tally in 2009, when they ranked No. 11 in the league with 37 on the season.

►The Packers' best league ranking in sacks was No. 3, a spot they held on three occasions (1965, 1966, 2001).

FIGHTING THROUGH ADVERSITY

Every team in the league has to battle injuries at some point, but the Packers had to deal with a season's worth of significant ones in just the first half of the season.

► From the season-opening depth chart, the Packers have lost six starters for the remainder of the season due to injuries, three on each side of the ball.

▶RB Ryan Grant, coming off back-to-back 1,200-yard seasons, sustained a season-ending ankle injury in Week 1 at Philadelphia. TE Jermichael Finley, whose 301 yards receiving in the first four games was the best start ever to a season by a Green Bay tight end, was lost for the year after suffering a knee injury on the second play from scrimmage at Washington in Week 5. T Mark Tauscher. who sustained a shoulder injury in Week 4 vs. Detroit, was placed on injured reserve on Nov. 12.

▶Rookie S Morgan Burnett, who became only the second Packers rookie safety to start a season opener since 1988, sustained a season-ending knee injury against Detroit in Week 4. In the same game, LB Nick Barnett, the No. 2 tackler in franchise history, suffered a wrist injury that brought an end to his season. LB Brad Jones saw his season come to an end after sustaining a shoulder injury in Week 7 vs. Minnesota.

►The Packers currently have 14 players on injured reserve, and eight of those players started at least one game this season.

MIKE McCARTHY TRANSCRIPT

EXCERPTS FROM THE COACH - MONDAY, DEC. 20

▶(What is the plan for Rodgers this week?)

Well, I don't have all the information for Aaron. Just as I stated last night after the game, I'll have an update for you Wednesday. We're still going through our medical process now with all of our players.

► (I'm sure you've looked at the final seconds of the game on film. How much of that would have been alleviated with a veteran quarterback, and how much of it was a chaotic situation where it wouldn't matter if the quarterback is making his first start or his 50th?)

I didn't find anything chaotic about the final seconds of the game. I thought that it was a very standard operation. Really, what threw the drive out of whack was the sack. The sack is a negative play as we all know. At that particular time, it's hard to overcome. The third-down call in the time frame that it was made, you're waiting on the spot of the ball, the identification from the officials whether it's fourth down, or if it's first down. If it's first down, you clock the play. If it's fourth down, you go with the play that we had called. I thought that Matt did fine with the operation of the third-down to the fourth-down play. They went with a three-man rush, Matt tried to extend the play which you like to do there, and he was sacked.

► (Can you ask for a measurement or can they refuse a measurement?)

I'll be honest with you, that's a great question. But that clock's running. We're either clocking it or we're going to the fourth-down play, which is my thought process there. I don't think it was close enough, just watching the video, to question whether it was ... because we could have been in a different situation if we had spent time trying to do that.

► (Should the ball have been spotted faster?)

I don't know. I didn't see anything out of the ordinary. Once he signaled fourth down, we went with the three-by-one formation, and the play was called. Matt did a good job of getting the protection set. He clearly identified what the coverage was. They had a three-man rush, he tried to extend the play, and we did not get that done.

► (Were you happy with the tempo getting in and out of the huddle on that drive?)

Absolutely. You've got a couple things going on. There's a difference in the 2-minute drill when you're trying to score seven points as opposed to three points. We all understand that. But you are cognizant of what's going on on their sideline. We were trying to take as much time off the clock. It was evident the way we effectively ran the ball earlier in the drive. It didn't come down to one play, but the sack play was a big play that we had to overcome. Matt did a good job with the two completions on second and third down. The intent was to get down there and take the thing all the way ... we never felt like we were pressed for time, especially with our timeout situation.

► (How do you handle two close losses like this? Do you get angry or do you sweep it under the rug since you still can get in the playoffs?)

Well, you get angry, and you don't sweep anything under the rug. It's important to identify and acknowledge everything you do as a football team. We're concerned about two things, and that's winning football games, and our performance level. There was a lot of positive aspects of the game last night that would lead to a very high performance level, and there's some things that we need to do a better job in, particularly in critical points in the game. The Patriots made two big plays that equated to 14 points. We had some opportunities defensively for takeaways, we didn't make those plays. Offensively, we had some opportunities in the red zone that we kicked field goals and didn't get touchdowns. And special teams, I thought the special teams did a good job except for the kickoff cover was very poor. There's no way around it. The leverage on the kick, the high tackle on Connolly, on a 300-plus-pound man going down the sideline, you don't high tackle a player in that situation. There were some big plays, like I said, they made two big plays that equated to 14 points. We had some opportunities to make big plays and we just didn't make enough of them. But there's a lot of positive performance on the video, and we'll take that forward.

► (Was the run game one of those positive things and what did you do better?)

I thought our backs ran extremely hard. I thought the run-blocking was better. There were some spots I didn't like, there were some spots I really liked. But I thought Brandon Jackson and John Kuhn ran with a different level. They broke a lot of tackles. I thought John Kuhn played his best game as a Packer, in my opinion. We definitely had a lot more productivity out of the run game and obviously that is the way you like to play in a game, especially with the type of offense the Patriots have. The time of possession and the converting of the third downs, that was all part of the plan going into the game. That was something we were able to accomplish.

► (What is the outlook for Cullen Jenkins and Frank Zombo?)
Cullen, I haven't talked to Dr. McKenzie today but after the conversation Friday on Cullen Jenkins, I would say Chicago is the hope. Frank Zombo, he has more of a chance this week. He is progressing so we are going to give him the opportunity. I would say Cullen for Chicago and we'll see what happens, how Frank goes through the week.

► (What is your assessment of the offensive line's performance in the running game?)

It was much better than it has been. They improved. I thought some of the second-level blocking was much better and I thought some individual performances need to improve. But as a group, I thought we improved.

► (Can you talk about all of the close losses?)

You practice it all of the time. Actually our quarterbacks, we spend an extraordinary amount of time on two-minute drills and no-huddle drills. I think it is evident, just the efficiency and the way they operate those drills. Now, the last two weeks we haven't been able to finish them as far as finish the drives. But as far the mechanics, keeping yourself in clean plays, managing the clock, there is a lot of time that goes into that. The quarterbacks do a lot of two-minute drills in the quarterback schools before practice, if you witness us at training camp. They are down there before every practice working some type of two-minute drill or some different types of situations. We take every situation that we have been in in prior years that is unique to any type of football game. The fourth-and-1, the play to get the ball thrown into the end zone, that is something that is regularly practiced throughout training camp and so forth. You just prepare as much as you can, and that's why I go back to the performance part of the game last night. There are a lot of positives. We didn't win the game, and that's the bottom line. Our standard of play is high. We just have to get it higher to win these types of games.

► (Do you think Matt Flynn proved something to people that weren't familiar with him?)

I think for the people that don't know Matt Flynn, I think they got to look inside and see what type of person and what kind of player he is. To have your first start in the NFL against Tom Brady at New England, the level that they are playing at right now, Sunday Night Football, it doesn't get much bigger than that. We all knew what Matt is all about, the people that see him every day, but I think the rest of the country got to take a look at what he is capable of doing.

PROTECTION THE KEY

The Packers have cut down on the number of sacks they have allowed this season, and the effect that has had on QB Aaron Rodgers' production has been evident.

- ▶ Over his past 16 regular-season starts, Rodgers has been sacked either once or not at all in eight of those contests, including the Week 12 contest at Atlanta when the line allowed just one sack.
- ▶ In his three seasons as the starting quarterback, there have been 16 games where the line has given up either one sack or no sacks of Rodgers. The Packers have a 12-4 (.750) mark in those contests.
- ► Rodgers has been very efficient in those games, completing 372-of-530 passes (70.2 percent) for 4,390 yards and 32 TDs with just seven INTs for a 109.7 passer rating.
- ►There have been three games this season where the line hasn't given up a single sack of Rodgers.
- ▶ Prior to Rodgers being sacked in the second quarter vs. Detroit in Week 4, the offensive line had not allowed a sack in 11 straight quarters, the longest streak for the team since 2007.
- ► The Packers have allowed 39 sacks this season, which ranks No. 19 in the NFL, but it is an improvement from 2009 when they gave up 50 sacks of Rodgers on the season, 41 in the first nine contests.
- ► Green Bay has taken a step back in the sack category of late, allowing 13 sacks over the past three games. Prior to that, the Packers had given up just seven sacks in the previous five games.
- ▶ The task won't get any easier this week against a Giants team that ranks No. 2 in the NFL with 42 sacks. New York is the only team in the league to have two double-digit sack players, with DEs Osi Umenyiora and Justin Tuck each posting 10 this season.
- ► When Rodgers has been sacked four or more times in a game during his career, the Packers are 5-9 (.357).
- ▶ Injuries and performance issues affected the offensive line in the first half of 2009. Once the line regained some continuity down the stretch, it allowed just 10 sacks of Rodgers over the final seven games.
- ► Green Bay has had stability along the line in 2010, with four linemen, LT Chad Clifton, LG Daryn Colledge, C Scott Wells, and RG Josh Sitton starting every game, and rookie RT Bryan Bulaga opening the last 10 at RT with veteran Mark Tauscher sidelined due to injury. Tauscher was placed on injured reserve (shoulder) on Nov. 12.

SPREADING IT AROUND

With back-to-back 1,200-yard rusher Ryan Grant lost for the season after sustaining an ankle injury in Week 1 at Philadelphia, the Packers have turned to several backs to help carry the load for the offense.

- ▶Brandon Jackson, who excelled in his role as a third-down back in 2009, leads the team with a career-high 645 rushing yards on 165 carries this season (3.9 avg.). He also has posted a career-high 961 yards from scrimmage.
- ► Jackson posted 99 yards on 22 carries at New England this past Sunday night, his second-highest yardage total of the season.
- ► He recorded a career-high 115 yards on 10 carries (11.5 avg.) at Washington in Week 5, highlighted by a career-long 71-yard run on his first carry of the game.
- ▶ Jackson also has 40 receptions for 313 yards (8.0 avg.) this season, career highs in both categories, including a career-best 37-yard pickup on a screen against the 49ers in Week 13. His 40 catches are the most by a Green Bay running back since Ahman Green posted 46 catches in 2006.
- ► Jackson is the first Packers RB since Green in 2006 to register 600 rushing yards and 300 receiving yards in the same season.
- Against Dallas in Week 9, Jackson posted a rushing TD and a receiving TD, only the second time in his career that he scored on both in a game (vs. Seattle, Dec. 27, 2009).
- ▶The Packers rushed for 157 yards as a team at Washington in Week 5 on just 17 carries (9.2 avg.). It was the first time in team history that

- the Packers rushed for 150 yards in a regular-season game on fewer than 20 carries.
- ► The Packers' rushing average of 9.2 yards per carry against the Redskins was the best single-game performance (min. 15 attempts) in a regular-season game in team history.

►Kuhn recorded career highs in both carries (13) and rushing yards (50) against the Cowboys in Week 9, highlighted by a 17-yard run in the second quarter to convert a third down.

▶ Rookie RB Dimitri Nance saw the most significant action of his career at Minnesota in Week 11, posting 37 yards on 12 carries (3.1 avg.), and he has 63 yards on 27 attempts for the season (2.3 avg.).

▶ Fellow rookie RB James Starks made his NFL debut in Week 13, registering 73 yards on 18 carries (4.1 avg.) vs. San Francisco.

►The Packers have posted 39 runs of 10-plus yards this season, which ranks No. 18 in the league. Last season Green Bay finished No. 23 in the NFL with 42 runs of 10 yards or more.

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

Green Bay finished 3-5 on the road this season, but in Head Coach Mike McCarthy's five seasons in Green Bay, the Packers have finished above .500 away from home in three of those years.

- ►The Packers have been able to stay above the .500 mark on the road during McCarthy's tenure, a notable achievement in the National Football League.
- ► Green Bay got off to a good start this year with a win at Philadelphia in the season opener. It was the fifth straight season under McCarthy that the Packers have won their first road game of the year.
- ►Since 2006, McCarthy's first season as the head coach in Green Bay, only 12 of 32 NFL teams have regular-season road records over .500.

291 AND COUNTING

Another packed house at Lambeau Field against the 49ers in Week 13 brought the stadium's consecutive sellouts streak to 291 games (275 regular season, 16 playoffs).

- ►The Week 7 crowd of 71,107 vs. Minnesota was the third-largest regular-season crowd in Lambeau Field history.
- ▶The league's longest-tenured stadium, Lambeau Field is hosting its 54th season of football this year. A total of 565,666 fans made their way through the turnstiles in the eight home contests in 2009.
- ► Across American professional sports, only Boston's Fenway Park (1912) and Chicago's Wrigley Field (1914) have longer tenures.

THE LAMBEAU ADVANTAGE

The crown jewel of the National Football League, Lambeau Field has long been known as one of the tougher venues to play in, particularly during the harsh Wisconsin winter.

- ► Re-establishing home-field advantage after a 4-4 mark in 2008 was one of the goals of 2009, and with the Packers finishing 6-2 at home, they accomplished that goal.
- ► Head Coach Mike McCarthy stated consistently upon his arrival in Green Bay that one of the team's goals would be to reclaim the mystique of playing at Lambeau Field. Mission accomplished. The team is 24-8 (.750) since 2007, the best regular-season home mark in the NFC over that span.
- ► Since Ron Wolf and Mike Holmgren began the revitalization of the franchise in 1992, Green Bay owns the best home record in the NFL. A look at the top regular-season home W-L records since the '92 season:

HOME COOKING

The Packers' win over Dallas at Lambeau last November was the first step to a 7-1 finish and a playoff berth for Green Bay.

Since that Week 10 victory over the Cowboys last year, the Packers have been one of the best teams in the league at home. Green Bay's lone defeat since then came to Miami this season in Week 6 when the Packers fell to the Dolphins in overtime.

IN THE FREE-AGENCY ERA

Talk of unrestricted free agency in the early '90s led many to forecast tough times for the small-town Green Bay Packers.

- ► However, Green Bay has remained among the most successful teams since the advent of free agency in 1993. The Packers have won 10 or more games 10 times since '93 and captured seven division crowns.

JENNINGS FLASHES HOT HANDS

After getting off to a slower start this season, Greg Jennings has been one of the most productive receivers in the NFL over the past nine games.

- ► Since he posted 14 receptions for 183 yards (13.0 avg.) and three TDs in the opening five contests, Jennings ranks No. 2 in the NFL with 843 yards on 51 receptions (16.5 avg.) since Week 6, trailing only Houston's Andre Johnson (866 yards on 62 catches).
- ► Starting with the game against Miami, Jennings has averaged 93.7 yards per game, No. 2 in the NFL over that span behind only Johnson's 96.2-yard average.
- ▶ Jennings ranks tied for No. 2 in the NFL with 12 TD receptions, which matches his career high set in 2007. He checks in at No. 7 in the league with 1.026 receiving vards.
- ► He registered 122 yards on six receptions, including a 57-yard TD catch vs. the 49ers in Week 13. It was his third straight 100-yard game, only the second time in his career (Weeks 2-4, 2008) he has accomplished
- ▶ Jennings registered a career-high three TD receptions in Green Bay's 31-3 win at Minnesota in Week 11, becoming the first Packer since WR Javon Walker (Sept. 26, 2004) to record three TD catches in a game.
- ► He caught seven passes for 152 yards in the game, with the yardage total the second-best single-game mark of his five-year career behind only a 167-yard outing at Detroit on Sept. 14, 2008. The performance in Week 11 earned him NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors for the first time in his career.
- ▶Jennings became just the third Packer in team history to post seven catches/150 yards receiving/three receiving TDs in the same game, joining Walker (Sept. 26, 2004) and WR Antonio Freeman (Dec. 20, 1998).
- ► He is one of only two NFL players this season (Tennessee's Kenny Britt. Oct. 24) to post seven catches/150 receiving yards/three TD catches in
- ► The Minnesota game in Week 11 was Jennings' fifth straight with six or more receptions as he became the first Packer since WR Sterling Sharpe in 1993 to post six or more catches in five straight games.
- ►With his 1-yard TD catch at New England this past Sunday night, Jennings became just the fourth player in team history (Sharpe, Freeman, Billy Howton) to catch at least 12 TD passes in a season twice in a Packers uniform.
- ▶ Jennings' 86-yard score against Miami in Week 6 marked a career long for both him and QB Aaron Rodgers, and it was the longest reception by a Green Bay player since WR Robert Brooks hauled in a 99-yard TD from QB Brett Favre at Chicago on Sept. 11, 1995, on Monday Night Football. WR Donald Driver had a 90-yard TD grab in the 2007 NFC Championship Game on Jan. 20, 2008.
- ▶ Jennings' 86-yard reception was the longest play from scrimmage by a Packer since RB Ahman Green's 90-yard TD run vs. Dallas on Oct. 24, 2004.
- ▶It was the fourth 80-yard reception of Jennings' career, moving him into the No. 1 spot in the franchise record books ahead of teammate Donald Driver (3). Jennings and Buffalo WR Lee Evans are tied for the NFL lead in 80-yard catches in a career among active NFL players.
- ► Among NFL players with 60-plus receptions this season, Jennings ranks No. 2 in the NFL in receiving average at 15.8 yards per catch, trailing only Denver's Brandon Lloyd (18.9).
- ► When it comes to scoring passes, Jennings has an eye-popping average during his career. Of his 40 career touchdown catches, 16 (40.0 percent) have been at least 40 yards in length. He has a staggering average of 31.5 yards per TD catch, which ranks No. 2 among current players with at least 20 career touchdown catches.

TRAMON'S TALENTS

CB Tramon Williams etched his name into the team's record books with a pair of big plays in Week 5 at Washington, and he has delivered impactful performances throughout the season.

- ►With a 52-yard punt return in the second quarter and a 64-yard interception return in the fourth quarter, Williams became the first player in franchise history to post a 50-yard punt return and a 60-yard interception return in the same game.
- Showing just how rare the feat is, no player in team annals has ever posted both of those returns in the same season.
- ▶ Williams became just the third NFL player since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970 to accomplish the feat in a game, joining Dallas' Deion Sanders (Sept. 21, 1998) and the late Darrent Williams of the Denver Broncos (Nov. 13, 2005).
- Explosive plays are nothing new to the fourth-year CB who went undrafted out of Louisiana Tech in 2006. Williams recorded a 94-yard punt return for a score vs. Carolina on Nov. 18, 2007, as well as a 67-yard kickoff return vs. Chicago that season (Oct. 7). Last season, he posted his career-long INT return with a 67-yarder vs. Chicago (Sept. 13).
- ►Williams is only the third NFL player whose career began since the 1970 merger to post a 90-yard punt return and interception and kickoff returns of 65 yards in a career, joining Adam Jones and Lemar Parrish.
- ►Williams posted his fifth interception of the season in Week 14 against the Lions, which ties his career high set in 2008. Facing Lions WR Calvin Johnson for much of the afternoon at Detroit, he didn't allow a catch when he was matched up with Johnson. The standout receiver finished the game with one reception, which matched his season low, for 44 vards.
- ►All of Williams' interceptions have come in the last 10 games, and his five interceptions since Week 5 rank tied for No. 3 in the NFL.
- ► Williams has now posted four or more interceptions in each of the past three seasons. He is the only undrafted player in the NFL to accomplish that feat each of the last three seasons (2008-10).
- ► At the N.Y. Jets in Week 8. Williams recorded an interception, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery, the first time in his career he posted all three in the same game. It was the second straight season a Green Bay CB had accomplished that feat, with Charles Woodson registering all three last season at Detroit in Week 12.
- ►Williams was selected to the Midseason All-Pro team by the Dallas Morning News' Rick Gosselin.

THE INTERCEPTORS

Leading the way when it comes to takeaways the past few seasons for Green Bay has been the defensive-back tandem of CB Charles Woodson and S Nick Collins.

- ►Woodson ranks No. 2 among all NFL players since 2008 with 18 interceptions behind only Eagles CB Asante Samuel (20), with Collins tied for the No. 5 position with 15 over that span.
- ► Collins ranks No. 2 among all NFL players (Baltimore S Ed Reed, 458) with 415 interception return yards since '08, and Woodson inched closer with his 48-yard INT return for a TD vs. Detroit in Week 4. He sits in the No. 3 spot in the league, checking in with 396 INT return yards over the past three seasons.
- Collins has some work to do if he hopes to keep up with Woodson's pace of return TDs. Woodson leads the league since 2008 with six INT returns for touchdowns, with Collins tied for the No. 3 spot with three scores.
- ▶The Packers rank tied for No. 5 in the NFL with 18 interceptions this season, and Green Bay is tied for No. 9 in the league with five INT returns of 20-plus yards.
- ► Woodson and Collins have helped put the Packers at the top of the leaderboard in all three interception categories since 2008:

YOUTH IS SERVED

Whenever injuries occur, it is a chance for other players on the roster to show what they are capable of in an expanded role. For Green Bay this season, many of those opportunities have gone to younger players.

- ►Six Green Bay rookies have started a game in 2010, the most since the Packers had that many rookies start at least one game in 2007.
- ▶ T Bryan Bulaga, the team's first-round pick out of lowa who worked at LT and LG all preseason, has started each of the past 10 games at RT in place of injured veteran Mark Tauscher, who was placed on IR.
- ▶LB Frank Zombo, a non-drafted free agent from Central Michigan, has played in every game but one with eight starts. He is tied for No. 5 on the team and leads all Green Bay rookies with 67 tackles (44 solo) and a forced fumble. His four sacks rank tied for No. 3 among NFL rookies.
- TE Andrew Quarless started his first career game vs. Detroit in Week 4 and has factored more prominently in the offense with starting TE Jermichael Finley (knee) lost for the season. Quarless' 62 vards receiving in Week 14 at Detroit were the most by a Packers rookie TE since Ron Kramer recorded 68 yards at Detroit on Nov. 27, 1958. Quarless has 217 receiving yards on 19 catches (11.4 avg.) this season.
- ▶RB James Starks made his pro debut vs. the 49ers in Week 13 after spending the first nine games of the season on the PUP list with a hamstring injury, and rushed for 73 yards on 18 carries (4.1 avg.). That yardage total was the most by a rookie Packers RB in his first game since Ralph Earhart posted 78 yards in his debut at Boston on Sept. 17, 1948.
- ▶DE C.J. Wilson, a seventh-round selection from East Carolina, started for the first time in his career in Week 6 vs. Miami in place of an injured Ryan Pickett, and posted four tackles. He has seen some time over the past nine games, recording 21 tackles (12 solo) on the season.

Wilson registered his first career sack in Week 9 against Dallas, bringing down QB Jon Kitna on the final play of the game.

- S Morgan Burnett, a third-round pick out of Georgia Tech, became only the second Packers rookie safety to start on opening day since 1988. He opened the first four games, posting 15 tackles and an interception, before sustaining a season-ending knee injury in Week 4.
- ▶Burnett was joined in the starting lineup in Week 1 by nickel CB Sam Shields, a non-drafted rookie out of Miami. It was the first time since the 1970 merger that the Packers started two rookie DBs on opening day. Shields has 25 tackles, seven passes defensed and an interception in 12 games played with five starts as the Packers' nickel corner.

STILL GETTING THE JOB DONE

In 2009, CB Charles Woodson enjoyed the finest season of his career, his first year in the 3-4 scheme, and has continued his impactful ways in 2010.

- ► Woodson ranks tied for second on the team with two interceptions this season and has been productive again in tackles as he ranks No. 3 on the team with 89 stops (69 solo). That tops his previous career best of 81 stops last season.
- ►Woodson leads the Packers with four forced fumbles this season, his second straight season with four. He is the only defensive back in the NFL to register four forced fumbles each of the past two seasons.
- ► Woodson is the only Packers defensive back since 1994 to record four forced fumbles in a season, and he has done it twice.
- ►Woodson achieved the highest individual honor bestowed upon a defensive player, taking home The Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year award last season. He also was named an AP first-team All-Pro.
- ► His 48-yard interception return for a touchdown in the third quarter against Detroit this season in Week 4 was his eighth career with the Packers, which set a franchise record. He had been tied with Hall of Fame CB Herb Adderley (seven, 1961-69) for the team mark.
- ▶It was also Woodson's ninth defensive TD (eight INTs, one fumble return) in a Green Bay uniform, which further extended his franchise record.
- ►The touchdown gave Woodson 10 interception returns for touchdowns in his career (two with Oakland), which moved him up in the NFL record books as he became just the third player in league history to post 10 career interception returns for touchdowns. He now trails only Rod Woodson (12) and Darren Sharper (11).
- ► Woodson has returned an INT for a touchdown in five straight seasons, all five of his years in Green Bay (2006-10), becoming the first player in NFL history to do so in five consecutive seasons.
- ►The score in Week 4 was also the third straight year that Woodson has returned an INT for a TD against Detroit. He is the first player in NFL history to return an interception for a TD in three consecutive seasons against the same team.
- ▶In 2009, Woodson became the fourth player in NFL history since sacks became an official statistic to record at least nine interceptions and two sacks in a single season. Woodson also led the Packers with four forced fumbles.
- ► His four forced fumbles ranked tied for second among NFL defensive backs in 2009, and his six sacks since 2008 rank tied for No. 2 among NFL defensive backs.
- ►There's no doubt Woodson's career has undergone a revitalization since coming to Green Bay. He now has 47 career interceptions, which is tied for third among active NFL players. Of his interceptions, 30 have come in 76 games with Green Bay. In 106 games with the Raiders, he had 17.

BISHOP AND HAWK MAKING PRESENCE FELT

With injuries to MLB Nick Barnett and nickel LB Brandon Chillar, BLB A.J. Hawk and MLB Desmond Bishop have stepped into the role of every-down linebackers, and the tandem has taken advantage of the opportunities.

► Hawk leads the team with 114 tackles (82 solo) through 14 games, including five double-digit tackle games, and is tied for the lead among Packers linebackers with seven passes defensed.

► His 29 combined tackles in Weeks 6-7 rank second in Hawk's career for the most tackles over a two-game span, trailing only a combined 33 tackles during his rookie campaign of 2006 (Weeks 12-13).

► Hawk is also tied for second on the team with two interceptions, which matches his career high set in 2006 and 2009. With the two INTs, Hawk ranks tied for No. 2 among NFL linebackers in that category this season.

► He is the only linebacker in the league to intercept two passes in each of the past two seasons, and Hawk's four interceptions since Week 13 of 2009 lead all NFL linebackers over that span.

► Hawk has been one of the most reliable Packers defenders since coming to Green Bay in the 2006 NFL Draft. He hasn't missed a game in his career, playing in all 78 contests with 75 starts. The only non-starts came in both Minnesota games in 2009 and the 2010 opener at Philadelphia when the team opened in nickel.

▶ Prior to this season, most of Bishop's playing time came on special teams, a role he excelled in from 2007-09 as he led the team over that span with 49 tackles.

►Ever since Barnett went down with a seasonending wrist injury in Week 4 vs. Detroit, Bishop has moved into the starting lineup and made an impact.

▶ In 10 starts, Bishop has registered 104 tackles, dwarfing his previous season-high total of 27 tackles in 2008. His 105 tackles on the season (72 solo) rank No. 2 on the team, and he is tied for the lead among Green Bay's LBs with a career-best seven passes defensed. Bishop has also posted a career-high three sacks and a team-high six double-digit tackle games.

►In the Week 7 win vs. Minnesota, Bishop made one of the game's key plays when he picked off QB Brett Favre in the third quarter and returned the interception 32 yards for a touchdown. It was the first INT and TD of the fourth-year linebacker's career, and the first INT return for a TD by a Packers LB since Barnett posted a 95-yarder vs. New Orleans on Oct. 9, 2005.

► With Hawk adding an INT of his own against the Vikings, the duo became the first Packers LB tandem to each post an INT in the same game since Barnett and Brady Poppinga posted picks at Miami on Oct. 22, 2006.

BALANCED PASSING ATTACK FOR PACK

The Packers pride themselves on having one of the deeper wide-receiver corps in the NFL, and that has been on display again this season.

▶With WRs Donald Driver and Jordy Nelson each posting their respective 35th catches of the season in the Week 13 win over San Francisco, the Packers now have four wide receivers (Greg Jennings and James Jones) with 35-plus catches on the season.

▶It is the first time in franchise history that the Packers have boasted four wide receivers with 35 catches each in the same season.

▶ Jennings, Jones and Nelson each posted five receptions against the Falcons in Week 12, the first time three Packers WRs each registered five receptions in the same game since Driver, Jones and Jennings did so at Detroit on Nov. 22, 2007.

►With Jennings (119), Nelson (61), Jones (44) and No. 5 wideout Brett Swain (40) all hitting the 40-yard mark at Atlanta, it was the first time since 2004 that the Packers had four 40-yard receivers in a game. Driver was a part of that foursome, joining Antonio Chatman, Robert Ferguson and Javon Walker in the game against Jacksonville on Dec. 19, 2004.

▶ Jennings leads the team with 65 receptions with Jones (45) and Driver (43) coming in next. Nelson has a career-high 39 receptions for 419 yards, while RB Brandon Jackson has 40 catches.

▶ The last time the Packers had five players, regardless of position, with at least 35 catches in one season was 1997 (WRs Antonio Freeman and Robert Brooks, RBs Dorsey Levens and William Henderson, and TE Mark Chmura).

►If Nelson posts one more reception, it would be the first time since 1980 that the Packers had five players each post 40 receptions (WRs James Lofton and Aundra Thompson, RB Eddie Lee Ivery, FB Gerry Ellis and TE Paul Coffman) in the same season.

CLIFFY GETS TO 150

When T Chad Clifton lined up as the starting left tackle in Week 7 vs. Minnesota, he became just the 19th player in Packers history to appear in 150 career games in a Green Bay uniform.

► Clifton is only the sixth offensive lineman in franchise annals to hit the 150-game mark, joining Forrest Gregg (187), Larry McCarren (162), Ron Hallstrom (162), Ken Ruettgers (156) and Frank Winters (156).

▶ By appearing in the game at New England this past Sunday, Clifton moved into sole possession of the No. 4 spot among offensive linemen by playing in his 157th career game.

▶ Against the division-rival Vikings in Week 7, Clifton posted one of his finer performances in recent memory, limiting Pro Bowl DE Jared Allen to just one tackle and no sacks.

▶In Week 9, Clifton was matched up for much of the evening with Pro

Bowl LB DeMarcus Ware, who came into the game tied for No. 2 in the league with eight sacks. Clifton limited him to just two tackles and no sacks as the line allowed just one sack of Rodgers on the night.

COOL UNDER FIRE

QB Aaron Rodgers was one of the most effective passers in the league in 2009 against the blitz, and that strong play has continued this season.

► According to STATS, Rodgers ranks No. 1 in the league this season (min. 100 attempts) with a 109.5 passer rating against the blitz through Week 14 (the stat is updated on Wednesdays), completing 95-of-141 attempts (67.4 percent) for 1,256 yards and 11 touchdowns with four interceptions.

▶ Last season, Rodgers ranked No. 2 in the NFL with a 112.7 rating, just a shade below Saints QB Drew Brees' 112.9 mark. Rodgers threw for 1,699 yards and 11 TDs with three INTs on 125-of-180 passing (69.4 percent).

▶ Over the past two seasons, Rodgers ranks No. 1 in the league (min. 200 attempts) with a 111.3 passer rating vs. the blitz.

► That is a marked improvement over Rodgers' numbers as a first-year starter in 2008 when he posted an 85.0 rating against the blitz.

COMING ON DOWN THE STRETCH

Punting indoors at Detroit in Week 14 for the third and final time this season, P Tim Masthay made the most of the opportunity.

► According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Masthay became the first punter in franchise history to post a 50-yard average in a game with eight or more attempts.

► Masthay recorded a 50.3-yard gross average on his eight punts against the Lions, as well as a season-high net average of 43.4 (min. three attempts).

► He posted four punts of 50-plus yards on the afternoon, including a career-long 62-vard kick in the first guarter.

► Masthay became the first Packers punter to register four 50-yard punts in the same game since Jon Ryan did so on Nov. 12, 2006, at the Metrodome against the Vikings.

► He has placed 20 punts inside the 20 this season, the most by a Packers punter since Josh Bidwell recorded 26 punts inside the 20 in 2002.

Masthay has been especially productive over his past seven games, ranking No. 4 in the NFL in net average (40.8), No. 7 in gross average (44.8), and tied for No. 5 in punts inside the 20 (15) over that span.

▶ Masthay earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for his performance at the N.Y. Jets in Week 8 as he became just the second punter in franchise history to win the honor (Craig Hentrich, Week 11, 1994).

► With five punts dropped inside the 20 against the Jets, Masthay tied a single-game franchise record (stat kept since 1976), tying David Beverly, who accomplished the feat on Oct. 8, 1978, against Chicago. He registered a 41.5-yard net average on eight punts.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

TIGHTENING UP

Green Bay's defense has been at its best this season when it has been placed in adverse situations and forced to respond.

- The Packers have turned the ball over 19 times this season, but the defense has shown significant improvement from last season in not allowing those giveaways to be converted into touchdowns.
- ▶ Opponents have scored just 32 points (six field goals, two TDs) following the 19 takeaways this season, an average of 1.68 points per giveaway. That average ranks No. 4 in the NFL, and the Packers are one of only three teams to have allowed two TDs or less off a giveaway this season (Kansas City, Baltimore).
- ► Green Bay had not given up a touchdown all season until the Falcons drove for a score following QB Aaron Rodgers' fumble in Week 12 at Atlanta.
- ►The defense didn't get a chance to keep the Patriots out of the end zone after QB Matt Flynn's third-quarter interception this past Sunday, as CB Kyle Arrington returned it 36 vards for a touchdown.
- ► According to STATS, the Packers' best average on points off of giveaways since 1995 was 1.70 in 2000. Green Bay allowed five TDs after giveaways that season.
- ▶ Although the Packers led the league in 2009 with 16 giveaways, a franchise record for fewest in a season, opponents were able to convert those turnovers into 70 points. That average of 4.38 points allowed per giveaway was the highest in the NFL.
- ► Another aspect of the defense that the Packers have made strides in this season
  - is limiting opponents when they get inside the 20-yard line, an area of emphasis this season after some struggles in 2009.
- ▶In 2009, the Packers ranked No. 28 in the league in red-zone defense, allowing opponents to score touchdowns on 60.9 percent of trips inside the 20. Green Bay gave up an average of 4.72 points per red-zone trip by its opponents, which ranked No. 21 in the league.
- ▶ Through Week 15, the Packers rank No. 15 in the NFL in red-zone defense, allowing their opponents to get into the end zone 51.7 percent of the time (15 TDs on 29 opportunities).
- ► Green Bay is giving up an average of 4.66 points per opponent red-zone trip, which ranks No. 17 in the NFL.
- ► This week the Packers will be facing a Giants offense that ranks No. 12 in the NFL in the red zone at a 57.7 TD percentage.
- ▶The best red-zone perfomance by the defense during Head Coach MikeMcCarthy's tenure came in 2007, when the Packers ranked No. 8 in the league by allowing opponents to score a TD on 48.8 percent of trips inside the 20.

MAKING PLAYS ANOTHER WAY

While QB Aaron Rodgers has continued to rank among the league's top passers again in 2010, another aspect of his game has been on display this season.

- ► Rodgers ranks No. 3 among NFL QBs this season despite missing one game with 309 rushing yards on 55 attempts (5.6 avg.), trailing only Philadelphia's Michael Vick (613) and Tampa Bay's Josh Freeman (330).
- ▶ Rodgers is tied for No. 2 among QBs in both rushing TDs (four) and ranks tied for No. 2 in 10-yard runs (14).
- ► He has picked up 100 yards on 14 third-down carries this season (7.1 avg.), with six of them going for first downs (42.9 percent).
- ▶ Rodgers went over the 300-yard mark for the season in the Week 14 contest at Detroit to become the first Packers quarterback since Tobin Rote (1954-56) to record back-to-back 300-yard rushing seasons.
- ▶ Rodgers posted his fourth rushing TD of the season at Atlanta in Week 12, making him just the second QB in franchise annals to record fourplus rushing TDs in three straight seasons (Rote, 1954-56).
- ► His 51 rushing yards on 12 carries against the Falcons in Week 12 was :

- just a yard shy of his career high, a 52-yard outing vs. Minnesota last season (Nov. 1, 2009). He is one of only five quarterbacks to post 50 rushing yards in a game this season.
- ► Rodgers is the first NFL quarterback to post four-plus rushing TDs in three consecutive seasons since Minnesota's Daunte Culpepper (2000-03) posted that number in four straight seasons.
- ► Since 2009, Rodgers ranks No. 2 among QBs in rushing yards (625), tied for No. 2 in rushing TDs (nine), and No. 1 in 10-yard runs (28).
- ▶Of his 113 rushing attempts since 2009, nearly a quarter (28) have been for 10 or more yards. He has posted a 10-yard run in 10 of 13 games this season, and in 21 of his last 29 contests.
- ►In 2009, Rodgers finished second among all NFL quarterbacks (David Garrard, 323) with 316 rushing yards, the most by a Green Bay QB since Don Majkowski posted 358 yards on the ground in 1989.

► Rodgers also led all NFL signal-callers with five rushing touchdowns in '09, the most by a Packers QB since Majkowski's five in '89.

FINDING A RHYTHM

No quarterback was more efficient than Aaron Rodgers on third down last season, and after a slow start in 2010, he has picked up his play in that area.

- ▶Over his past five games played (sat out this past Sunday due to concussion), Rodgers has registered a 146.5 passer rating on third down, No. 1 in the NFL over that span.
- ► He has completed 27-of-37 passes (73.0 percent) for 391 yards and five TDs with no INTs.
- That came on the heels of a 65.7 passer rating for Rodgers on third down in the first eight games, as he connected on just 38-of-73 passes (52.1 percent) for five TDs with five INTs, and an average of 6.22 yards per attempt.

- Since Week 9, Rodgers has seen his yards per attempt on third down jump up to 10.57, good for No. 1 in the NFL over that span.
- ▶Rodgers is No. 2 in the NFL behind only Patriots QB Tom Brady (seven) for the most 25-yard passes on third down since Week 9 with six, despite playing in only five games to Brady's seven. Rodgers connected on just two 25-yard passes on third down in the opening eight contests.
- ▶ Last season, Rodgers ranked No. 1 in the NFL in passer rating on third down at 133.5. No other quarterback in the league threw for as many yards (1,710) or touchdowns (14) on third down as Rodgers, and his passer rating was the best in the NFL since Kurt Warner's 137.3 rating in 1999 with St. Louis.
- ▶Rodgers' favorite target has been WR Greg Jennings, who ranks tied for No. 3 in the NFL since Week 9 with 217 receiving yards on nine catches (24.1 avg.) on third down. He is tied for the league lead over that span with three TD catches on third down.

WEEK 15 GAME REVIEW - PATRIOTS 31, PACKERS 27

VALIANT EFFORT FALLS SHORT

It would have been a win for the ages, but instead it was just another close loss, the type that has become all too familiar for the 2010 Packers.

- ▶Led by backup quarterback Matt Flynn, the Packers fought valiantly on the road in prime time Sunday night against a New England Patriots team thought by many to be on their way to a fourth Super Bowl title this decade. But a potential game-winning drive came up 15 yards short, ending in harried desperation as the Packers fell, 31-27, in front of 68.756 at Gillette Stadium.
- ▶ Despite needing Flynn to make his first NFL start for Aaron Rodgers, who was out with a concussion, the Packers didn't act like underdogs all week, and they didn't play like it either. They grabbed the lead in the game three different times, held the ball for more than 40 minutes, and made the Patriots look nothing like the invincible outfit that had lambasted the Jets and Bears by a combined 81-10 the past two weeks.

- ▶ But none of it, including a gutsy effort from Flynn, was enough. Instead the Packers lost their second straight to drop to 8-6, with all six losses this season coming by four points or less.
- ►"I thought our team fought extremely hard," said Head Coach Mike McCarthy, who claimed during the week his team was "nobody's underdog," and reiterated that again Sunday after the game.
- ► "They are definitely warriors, I'm proud of them for that, but we came up short tonight. And that's the bottom line."
- ► The only silver lining is that because the Giants and Buccaneers both lost earlier Sunday, the Packers still control their own playoff fate. Two wins over the Giants and Bears to close out the season will get the Packers into the playoffs at 10-6.

- ►The Packers came up short primarily because of three major lapses at critical moments.
- ▶ First, leading 17-7 late in the second quarter after Flynn (24-of-37, 251 yards, 3 TDs, 1 INT, 100.2 rating) had thrown a 66-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver James Jones and a 1-yarder to wide receiver Greg Jennings, the Packers allowed New England lineman Dan Connolly to pick up a squibbed kickoff and rumble 71 yards down the far sideline, all the way to the Green Bay 4. It set up an easy scoring drive for New England quarterback Tom Brady, who hit tight end Aaron Hernandez with a 2-yard TD pass on third-and-goal to get within 17-14 at intermission.
- ▶Then, getting the ball to start the second half, Flynn's first throw of the third quarter turned into disaster. On third down, Jones got bumped off his slant route and Flynn's pass went right into the hands of cornerback Kyle Arrington, who broke several tackles in returning the interception 36 yards for a score.
- ► Suddenly, the Patriots had wiped out the 10-point deficit to take a 21-17 lead, and the all-world Brady (15-of-24, 163 yards, 2 TD, 110.2 rating) had only passed for a handful of yards in the process.
- ► "They made big plays in the game that were probably the difference," McCarthy said. "You can't make those kind of mistakes on the road."
- ►You also can't fail to capitalize on golden opportunities, and that was the third lapse at the start of the fourth quarter.
- ► Having taken a 24-21 lead on a 6-yard TD pass to fullback John Kuhn, the Packers got a three-and-out and then put together another solid drive to add to the lead. But with first-and-goal on the 2, Kuhn was stopped twice in a row at the 1 on a fullback dive, and when Flynn threw the ball away under pressure on third down, the Packers settled for a field goal to make it 27-21 and never pushed the lead back to two scores.

- ► McCarthy said he didn't regret the decision not to go for it on fourth-andgoal at the 1 with nearly 14 minutes still on the clock, but unfortunately the Packers' defense started to spring leaks right after that.
- ▶On their next two drives, the Patriots (12-2) marched 53 yards for a field goal and 63 yards for a touchdown, a 10-yard pass to Hernandez for his second TD of the game. It gave the Patriots a 31-27 lead with 7:14 left, and the Packers had to ask their young, gritty quarterback for one more score.
- ▶They almost got it. Twice in the final seven minutes, the Packers drove into New England territory. The first time they ended up punting on fourth-and-7 from the 40. But after the defense got a three-and-out with New England backed up inside its own 20, Flynn got one more shot with 4:22 left.
- ►With the help of a reprieve when Brandon Meriweather's interception was nullified by a hands-to-the-face penalty on pass rusher Tully Banta-Cain, Flynn picked up three first downs and had the Packers on the New England 24 with a minute left.

- ►An 8-yard sack by unblocked linebacker Dane Fletcher forced the Packers to use their last timeout, though, and that would prove critical. Two plays later, Flynn hit wide receiver Donald Driver over the middle for 10 yards to the 15, but he was a yard short of the first down and the clock was ticking under 20 seconds.
- ▶ There was some momentary confusion as to whether Driver had picked up the first down. If he had, Flynn was going to spike the ball to stop the clock. But when he hadn't, it was fourth down, and the offense was in scramble mode.
- ▶ "I thought I got the first down," Driver said. "When I caught the ball, I went forward, and I didn't think it was a good spot on their part. I jumped up, and I thought it was already a first, and I was thinking Matt was going to clock it. I looked around and Matt was saying we have to run a play.
- ► "You look at the clock with 15 seconds left, you've still got an opportunity to win. If you get the first down, you're able to clock it and you still have two chances at end zone."
- ▶ Instead, by the time Flynn got everyone lined up to run a play, the clock had run down so far it was the last snap the Packers would get. Flynn tried to scramble to buy time, but he was sacked from behind by Banta-Cain to end the game and the Packers' hopes for what would have been a monumental win.
- ► "You can see that they're only rushing three and they're dropping everyone into the end zone and that's one of those things that usually there isn't going to be anybody open, right off the bat," said Flynn, who added he never saw Banta-Cain closing from behind and ended up fumbling the ball, though that hardly mattered. "You just have to try to work people with your eyes, try to work the defenders with your eyes and try to get them going one way and get someone else out the backdoor, but it didn't happen."
- ► What can still happen, fortunately, is a playoff berth, and the Packers will get two games at home now to try to earn that. If they can, perhaps they can truly move on from all these close losses, including Sunday night's.
- "We're ready to play next week and get this one out of our mind," defensive end Ryan Pickett said. "This was a tough loss for us.
- ■"We knew we could come in and beat this team. We felt we matched up with them. We didn't believe the hype coming into the game that we didn't have a chance. We knew we could beat them and we just fell short. If we play the rest of the season like that, things will fall our way. Just play with the energy and intensity we played with today."

CONTROLLING THE CLOCK

The Packers led the NFL in 2009 in time of possession, and the team is coming off of its finest effort of the season in that area.

- ►In Sunday's 31-27 loss at New England, the Packers controlled the clock for 40:48, their best mark since a 41:39 effort vs. San Francisco last season in Week 11.
- ▶It was also the most time of possession any opponent has registered against New England since the Steelers held the ball for 42:58 at Pittsburgh on Oct. 31, 2004.
- ▶The Packers currently rank No. 8 in the NFL with a time-of-possession average of 31:23. All seven teams that rank ahead of Green Bay in the category have records above .500 this season.
- ► Sitting atop the category is Sunday's opponent, as the Giants rank No. 1 in the league at 33:14. New York has won the time-of-possession battle in 11 of 14 games this season and has an 8-3 record in those contests.
- ►The Packers' league-leading average of 33:03 last season was the team's best mark since 1977, the year the Elias Sports Bureau began keeping the statistic.
- ▶Green Bay leads the NFL this season with 28 drives of five-plus minutes, an improvement over last season's mark of 22 (tied for No. 14).
- ►The Packers also check in tied for No. 4 with 28 10-play drives, a jump up from 2009 when they finished No. 22 in the NFL with 23 drives of 10-plus plays.

KEEPING THE CHAINS MOVING

Green Bay's offense hasn't enjoyed quite the same level of success as it did last season on third down but has significantly improved its play in that area of late.

- ▶ Entering the Week 9 contest vs. Dallas ranked No. 26 in the league with a 35.1 conversion rate on third down this season, the offense was successful on 10-of-15 third-down opportunities against the Cowboys, including 7-of-8 in the first half.
- ► That percentage of 66.7 was the best single-game performance by a Green Bay offense since the Packers were successful on 71.4 percent of their third-down opportunities (10-of-14) vs. Cleveland on Sept. 18, 2005.
- ►The Packers followed that up with an 8-of-15 outing (53.3 percent) on third down in Week 11 at Minnesota, the first time this season Green Bay topped the 50-percent conversion mark in two straight games.
- ►After a 4-of-12 performance in the Week 12 loss at Atlanta, the Packers bounced back with a 9-of-15 outing (60.0 percent) in the win over San Francisco the following Sunday.
- ►The Packers bounced back from a 3-of-15 (20.0 percent) performance in Week 14 against the Lions with a 11-for-19 effort (57.9 percent) effort on Sunday night at New England.
- Green Bay has moved up 20 spots in the league rankings since Week 9, currently checking in at No. 6 with a 42.5 conversion rate.
   The Packers will be taking on a N.Y. Giants team that is ranked No. 1 in
- The Packers will be taking on a N.Y. Giants team that is ranked No. 1 in the league in third-down defense (31.1). Jacksonville (10-of-16 in Week 12) is the only team to convert at 50.0 percent or better on third down against the Giants this season.

OUT OF THE BREAK

The opening drive of either half can help set the tone, and the Packers have been productive on both sides of the ball coming out of halftime.

- ▶The Packers rank tied for No. 6 in the NFL with 34 points on their first possession of the second half, which tops their mark of 20 points on opening second-half drives last season (No. 20).
- ▶The high mark under Mike McCarthy came in 2007, when Green Bay tied for No. 3 in the league with 50 points on opening second-half drives.
- ▶The Packers did not score a touchdown on the first drive of the second half all of 2008, part of a 34-game span without a TD on the first possesion after halftime that started late in 2007 and ran all the way until Week 16 vs. Seattle last season.
- ▶Green Bay's defense has done its part as well to start the second half, allowing just six points in 14 games this season. That ranks tied for No. 1 in the NFL with Cleveland. The defense has also posted three interceptions on the opening drive of the second half, which ranks tied for No. 2 in the NFL behind only Atlanta (four).
- ▶The Giants' offense has been one of the best in the league coming out of the break as they check in at No. 3 in the NFL this season with 41 points on the opening drive of the second half.

GREEN BAY 27, PHILADELPHIA 20

Filling in for an injured Kevin Kolb, Vick was dynamic. He couldn't lead the Philadelphia Eagles to a win against Green Bay, but his dazzling per-PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Michael Vick took off his baseball cap and dusted off that old Superman cape. formance may create a quarterback controversy just one game into the post-Donovan McNabb era.

Aaron Rodgers threw a pair of touchdown passes, Mason Crosby kicked a team-record 56-yard field goal and the Packers beat Philadelphia 27-20

The score was almost an afterthought because Kolb struggled and Vick was so impressive in his first extended action during meaningful minutes in nearly four years. With Kolb sidelined by a concussion, Vick threw for 175 yards, ran for 103 and resembled the guy who went to three Pro Bowls in six seasons with Atlanta.

Still, Andy Reid said it's Kolb's job when he's healthy.
Vick's last NFL start came on Dec, 31, 2006, in Philadelphia. He missed the next two seasons while serving an 18-month sentence in federal prison for his role in a dogfighting operation. Vick signed a two-year contract with the Eagles last summer, and saw limited action mostly in a variation of the wildcat formation.

He finally got his chance, and made the most of it.

The Packers (1-0) were a popular preseason pick to reach the Super Bowl, and they began their quest for a 13th NFL title with a tough win in a hostile environment.

After a slow start, the Packers got going late in the second quarter and scored on three straight possessions.
Ryan Grant ran 13, 8 and 18 yards to spark an 86-yard drive. Greg Jennings kept it going with a leaping, one-handed catch for a 16-yard gain on third-and-9. Rodgers then tossed a 6-yard TD pass to Donald Driver to give the Packers a 10-3 lead.

Kolb was injured in the second quarter when he was tackled from behind by Clay Matthews. The team originally said he had a jaw injury and he returned for a series, completing two short passes. Middle linebacker Stewart Bradley also came back in after he staggered off the field following a collision with teammate Emie Sims before he sat

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—Aaron Rodgers already shouldered plenty of pressure with the Green Bay Packers before losing starting running back Ryan Grant to a season-ending ankle injury last week.

GREEN BAY 34, BUFFALO 7

Rodgers is even picking up the slack in the running game, too.

Rodgers ran for a touchdown and threw for two more scores and didn't commit a turnover in Green Bay's 34-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on Sunday.

While Rodgers scrambled for 20 of Green Bay's 91 yards rushing, the rest of the running game was quiet. Starter Brandon Jackson gained 29 yards on 11 carries with one score and fullback John Kuhn added 36 yards on nine attempts

The quarterback certainly has a lot more options by air and the Packers (2-0) appear ready to rely on that until they can figure out how to mount a significant running attack again without Grant, their back-to-back 1,200-yard runner.

Jermichael Finley and Donald Driver caught four passes each, while Greg Jennings and James Jones added three more receptions apiece. Buffalo (0-2) had 186 total yards, 20 more than in last week's loss to the Dolphins.

Edwards finished 11 of 18 for 102 yards for a passer rating that was a 37, more than two points lower than if all 18 of his passes fell incomplete. Packers linebacker Clay Matthews sacked Trent Edwards three times to give him six this season and Green Bay forced two interceptions.

Marshawn Lynch and Fred Jackson didn't run the ball well. Rookie C.J. Spiller was sharp on special teams, but not a factor on offense. The Bills' top playmaking receiver—Lee Evans—didn't catch a pass and was only targeted one time, when he drew a pass interference call for an offense that just keeps sputtering.

Buffalo didn't gain a yard in the first quarter and only looked in rhythm momentarily when Jackson scored on a 3-yard run to cap an 80-yard drive early in the second quarter to cut Green Bay's lead to 13-7.

Rodgers then threw a touchdown pass to Driver on third-and-goal from the 7 and scored again late in the third quarter with a 9-yard scramble that had his teammates laughing when he had a hard time leaping into the stands to celebrate with fans. In the second half, Edwards was picked off by Brandon Chillar in Bills' territory after receiver Steve Johnson couldn't haul in the ball.

Rodgers capped his day by hitting Jones with a 30-yard TD pass to make it 34-7.

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Bears were going nowhere and hearing it from the crowd. Good thing the Green Bay Packers were intent on giving

This one certainly wasn't pretty, even if the Bears remained unbeaten and established themselves as NFC contenders. Robbie Gould kicked a 19-yard field goal with 4 seconds left after Brian Urlacher forced a fumble in the closing minutes, and Chicago took advantage of a Green Bay team-record 18 penalties to beat the Packers 20-17 on Monday night.

Packers receiver James Jones lost a fumble on a hit by Urlacher before Green Bay's Morgan Burnett was called for pass interference on Earl

Jay Cutler threw for 221 yards for the Bears (3-0), who kept insisting they were contenders through a sloppy preseason and less-than-inspiring opening win over Detroit. Since then, they turned heads with a win at Dallas last week and opened some more eyes against Green Bay—with lots of Bennett, setting up the winning kick help from the Packers.

Unable jarred the ball out of Jones' hands after he caught a pass from Aaron Rodgers near midfield. Tim Jennings recovered, giving Chicago the ball on the Packers 46 with 2:18 remaining.

Soon after, another penalty cost the Packers (2-1) in a big way.

Soon after, another penalty cost the Packers (2-1) in a big way.

On second down at the 33, Cutler tried to hit Bennett deep along the right sideline and Burnett basically hammered him, wiping out an interception by Nick Collins and putting the ball at the 9. Three plays later, Chrago walked away with a wild win and the only undefeated record in the NPC.

Devin Hester delivered his first touchdown return in three years when he ran back a punt 62 yards in the fourth quarter, giving the Bears a short-lived 14-10 lead.

Rodgers threw for 316 yards and a touchdown and scored on a 3-yard run that gave the Packers 17-14 lead in the fourth quarter. Jermichael Finley had nine catches for 115 yards, but the sloppiness simply caught up with the Packers in the end.

Cutler completed 16 of 27 passes with a touchdown and an interception. Johnny Knox had four catches for 94 yards.

Chicago held its longtime rival to 63 yards rushing, but the Bears had only 77, turning it into an air game for much of the night.

Hester had just put the Bears ahead in the opening seconds of the fourth quarter when the Packers responded with a 72-yard buchdown drive.

A roughing-the-passer penalty on Henry Melton gave them a first down at the 3. Rodgers, who cramped up a few plays earlier, rolled to his right and lunged into the end zone, making it 17-14.

Then the Packers basically gave it away.

Frank Zombo got called for a helmet-on-helmet hit against Cutler on the next drive that erased an interception by Nick Barnett. On second down, Collins got called for a late hit on Matt Forte after a 15-yard reception, putting the ball on the Packers 29, Gould made a 25-yard field goal to tie it at 17 with 3:59 left.

GREEN BAY 28, DETROIT 26

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—As far as Aaron Rodgers is concerned, the Green Bay Packers offense is at its best when using multiple-receiver shotgun formations to spread out opposing defenses.

So when the offense went scoreless in the second half and the Packers barely held on for a 28-26 victory over Detroit on Sunday, Rodgers saw his team not playing to its main strength

It was another sign that the Packers remain unsatisfied with what they've shown the rest of the NFL so far this season. Despite their 3-1 start, Rodgers chose his words deliberately but diplomatically, making his point without directly challenging his coaches.

Rodgers threw for 181 yards and three touchdowns. But he also threw a pair of interceptions for the Packers, who were coming off a sloppy they're a team with Super Bowl aspirations that has yet to prove it can play like one of the league's elite for a full game. performance in a loss at Chicago on Monday night.

If Sunday's game didn't feel like a satisfying win for Green Bay, it also didn't feel like anything approaching a moral victory for Detroit (0-4). It was the franchise's 20th straight loss to the Packers in Wisconsin, a streak that began in 1992 and includes a playoff loss.

The Lions showed that they're more dangerous than they have been in the recent past, but it still wasn't enough to win.

The Packers appeared ready to rout the Lions when Charles Woodson returned an interception 48 yards for a touchdown and a 28-14 lead early in the third quarter.

But the Packers' offense went silent in the second half while the Lions rallied for four straight Jason Hanson field goals to cut the lead to two points. Had the Lions been able to finish any of those drives with a touchdown instead of a field goal, they might be celebrating a victory.

A last drive by the Packers ran out the final 6:32 of the clock as Green Bay rediscovered its running game at the best possible moment.

Detroit again was without injured quarterback Matthew Stafford, but backup Shaun Hill looked poised under center. He threw for 331 yards and two touchdowns to Calvin Johnson, helping to make the game close despite the Lions committing 13 penalties. There's stability provided by new quarterback Donovan McNabb. There's the turnover-producing and suddenly points-stingy defense, led by safety LANDOVER, Md. (AP)—There are plenty of places to point when trying to figure out why the Washington Redskins are 3-2.

In the home locker room after Washington's 16-13 overtime victory over the Green Bay Packers on Sunday, the Redskins uniformly pointed to one -aRon Landry. There's also been help from injuries to opponents' key players.

For the fourth time in five weeks, Washington's game came down to the final play. On Sunday, it was Graham Gano's 33-yard field goal 6:54 into significant explanation for their success so far in 2010: coach Mike Shanahan.

the extra period that made the difference, set up by Landry's diving interception of Aaron Rodgers at Green Bay's 39-yard line. Rodgers sustained a concussion, the Packers said after the game, and it appeared to happen on that last play for their offense.

The Redskins trailed 13-3 entering the fourth quarter. They were outgained 209 yards to 24 in the first quarter. Seven of their first eight possessions ended in punts. Even once they made it 13-all on Gano's 45-yard kick with 1:07 left in regulation, the Redskins had to weather a Packers drive that ended with Mason Crosby hitting the left upright from 53 yards with 1 second left.

Under Shanahan's predecessor as head coach—Jim Zorn—and with McNabb's predecessor at starting quarterback—Jason Campbell—the Redskins went 4-12 last season. Two of Washington's games this season have gone to overtime—including a 30-27 loss to Houston in Week 2—and two ended on passes thrown into the end zone by the opponent on the last play of regulation—including a 17-12 victory at Philadelphia last weekend. The Packers (3-2), meanwhile, are dealing with a long list of injuries.

By game's end, linebacker Clay Matthews was on the sideline, wearing a green Packers wool cap instead of a helmet, ice strapped to his injured

The Packers stumbled on one big sequence early: Already ahead 7-0 early in the second quarter, they had second-and-goal at Washington's 1 and came away with nothing. Rodgers' fourth-down pass to tight end Andrew Quarless was broken up in the end zone.

Later, Washington's defense—a 3-4 scheme that ranks last in the NFL in yards allowed—was stuffing the Packers repeatedly. Green Bay's last seven possessions resulted in four punts, two missed field goals and Rodgers' interception. ### MIAMI 23, GREEN BAY 20 (OT)

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—The Miami Dolphins have found a key to being effective: pound the ball, keep every game close and play as far away from Sun Life Stadium as possible.

There's no South Beach-like distractions in Green Bay, and the blue collar style the Dolphins play fits this colder climate than Florida's tropical

With wins in Minnesolta and Buffalo, Miami rules the Rust Belt. The Dolphins are 3-0 on the road this season, and 0-2 at home. Miami needed to grind out another game using three field goals—including the 44-yard game winner—by Dan Carpenter and a perfect TD screen by developing quarterback Chad Henne to topple what had been considered one of the NFL's elite teams before injuries set in.

Grean Bay (3-3) is a mass now after consecutive overtime losses.

The Packers can take solace in being just a game back in the NFC North chase despite injuries to eight starters, including five on defense. There's also the Lambeau Field showdown looming with Brett Favre and the Minnesota Vikings on Sunday night.

Henne's nifty 22-yand TD pass to Anthrony Fasano gave Miamin a 20-13 lead with 5:20 left, and Fasano ran untouched to the end zone with Long bowling over the last would-be tackler as Henne laid flat on his back.

Rodgers, who was sacked five times including three by Cameron Wake, tied it with a 1-yard TD on fourth-and-goal with 13 seconds to go, but the Dolphins had one more answer in overtime.

After the teams' exchanged punts with the Dolphins getting the better end of that deal and taking over at their own 48. Miami went to Ricky Williams and Ronnie Brown, who pounded the ball down to the Packers 26 before Carpenter hit the game winner on third down. With so many injuries, Green Bay failed to get much pressure on Henne. Linebacker Clay Matthews, who has 8 1/2 sacks, was out with a left hamstring injury and Nick Barnett (wrist) went on the injured reserve on Friday.

Henne, with all the time he needed, finished 23 of 39 for 231 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Top receiver Brandon Marshall made 10 catches for 127 yards and just missed a 25-yard TD grab late in the first half. He said the win was all the more impressive because he believed the Dolphins left 21 points on the field.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—Brett Favre spent what seemed to be an eternity sitting at his locker, head in hands, searching for something before In the waning moments trailing by four, it looked as though Favre would accomplish what he'd done so many times before in a Green Bay Packers approaching the podium. He limped to the microphone, finally beaten by his former team for the first time.

He threw an apparent touchdown pass to Percy Harvin with 48 seconds left, and the 41-year-old quarterback—in his 291st consecutive start uniform by leading an improbable comeback as he limped down the field.

jumped into the arms of backup tight end Jeff Dugan and got a huge hug from Tarvaris Jackson

On fourth-and-15 at the 20, Favre threw incomplete trying to find Randy Moss in the back of the end zone, giving the Packers (4-3) their first win But officials reviewed a would-be Vikings touchdown for the third time in the game, and the call was again reversed by the officiating crew. over Favre in their third try. Green Bay is tied with Chicago for the NFC North lead. Minnesota (2-4) is 1 1/2 games back in third.

Favre, who finished 16 of 29 for 212 yards with a touchdown and three interceptions, hurt his surgically repaired left ankle early in the second half when Brad Jones pulled him down during his first pick. But a more costly one came when Desmond Bishop returned an ill-advised pass 32 yards for a touchdown to give the Packers a 28-17 lead midway through the third quarter while Harvin stood wide open on the other side of the field.

Vikings coach Brad Childress was upset at Favre's turnovers, but even angrier at the officiating crew's overturned call that wiped out what would've been a 17-yard TD catch by Visanthe Shiancoe near the end of the first half. Childress believed Shiancoe had made the catch, even though the ball appeared to touch the ground.

While Minnesota had points taken off the board in the first half, Rodgers also struggled with early mistakes. He was 21 of 34 for 295 yards and two touchdowns, but threw two first-half interceptions in Vikings territory.

His streak of 173 attempts without an interception in the red zone to begin his career ended when Jared Allen jumped in front of a screen. Rodgers rebounded to throw TD passes to rookie Andrew Quarless and Greg Jennings that gave the Packers a 21-17 lead they wouldn't relinquish.

Green Bay Packers

New York Jets

GREEN BAY 9, N.Y. JETS 0

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. (AP)—It appeared Rex Ryan might have been on to something with all that Super Bowl talk.
The New York Jate came in itself of othe NRL's best record, had a five-game winning streak and were fresh off a bye week.
And then came this: one big, ugly dud.
Mason Crosby kicked three field goals for Green Bay, and that was all the Packers needed as they held the Jets off the scoreboard for a 9-0

Sure, it's only one game, but for a team with dreams of a championship parade, this was a stunner. Not so much that the Jets (5-2) lost to a good, but bragged-up Packers (5-3) team, It was the way it went down that was disturbing.

Mark Sanchez and the Jets' offense couldn't get much of anything going with some costly mistires and drops on a windy day, along with a couple of questionable calls by officials. Nick Folk missed a field goal, and punter Steve Weatherford failed to convert a fake on fourth-and-18 early in the game on a call overturned by a video replay. It help the Jets, who were shut out for the first time since a 10-0 loss to Chicago on Nov. 19, 2006, at Seven penalties and three turnovers didn't help the Jets, who were shut out for the first time since a 10-0 loss to Chicago on Nov. 19, 2006, at

The Jats had an itse drive end in the fourth quarter when Dustin Keller caught a pass, rolled and then had the ball grabbed out of his hands by Charles Woodson. The Packers cornerback jogged into the end zone while several players on both teams looked around bewildered. Woodson was ruled down by contact at the Packers 43.

Replays showed it likely should not have been an interception, but New York was out of challenges after using both in the first half.

The Packers capitalized on the tumover as Crosby gave them a 6-0 lead with a 41-yard field goal with 636 remaining.

The Jats had another promising drive short-circuited in the second quarter when Tramon Williams ripped the ball out of Jerricho Cotchery's hands for an interception while the two were on the ground. The play was challenged by Ryan, but upheld by replay review.

Even with all that, New York still had a chance to win in the closing minutes.

After turning the ball over on downs, the Jets held the Packers to a three-and-out and tried to finally get into the end zone trailing 6-0 with less than 4 minutes left.

Following a 5-yard run by LaDainian Tomlinson, Cotchery couldn't hold onto a long pass from Sanchez, who was sacked on the next play by Clay Matthews. Sanchez them threw incomplete to Braynon Edwards, and the Packers took over.
Crosby sealed it with a 40-yard field goal with 27 seconds left.
Rodgers, whom coach Mike McCarthy said sprained an ankle during the game, finished 15-of-34 for 170 yards. Sanchez was 16-of-38 for 256 yards and two interceptions and had at least four passes dropped by receivers.
Despite missing several starters and losing wide receiver Donald Driver, who reaggravated a quadriceps injury in the first half, the Packers hung in against the Jets' tough defense.

GREEN BAY 45, DALLAS 7

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—Every time it seemed as though the Dallas Cowboys hit their low point, Aaron Rodgers and the Green Bay Packers knocked them down another notch

Rodgers threw for 289 yards and three touchdowns, Brandon Jackson scored twice and Green Bay routed the free-falling Cowboys 45-7 on

It was a new nadir in a lost season for the Cowboys (1-7), who came into 2010 with Super Bowl aspirations. And it's sure to kick off a new round of specialision about the future of ocach Wader Phillips, despite recent statements from team owner Jerry Jones that a midseason firing was unlikely. James Jones caught eight passes for 123 yards and a touchdown for the Packers (6-3), who have won three straight. Packers the Packers coach Mike McCarthy said he expected his team to play well—but even he was surprised at the topsided result. Sunday night.

Green Bay's Clay Matthews added a final dose of embarrassment in the fourth quarter, picking off a pass from Jon Kitna and running it back 62 yards for a touchdown. Dallas fell behind 28-0 late in the second quarter, giving up three long touchdown drives before fumbling away a kickoff that was returned for a

TD by Nick Collins.
Return man Bryan McCann appeared to be down before he gave the ball away— but the Cowboys didn't have any timeouts left, so they weren't able to challenge the call.

It was just another misstep in a colossal downward spiral for the Cowboys.

Meanwhile, the Packers continued to show how a team with Super Bendy is supposed to handle a disappointing start to the season. It was an impressive performance by Rodgers, who hadn't been playing up to his own high standards earlier this year. Gleee Bas has won three in a row after opening 3-3, including an emotional Sunday night home win over Brett Favre and the Vikings followed by a 9-0 road shutout of the New York Jets last week. Beating the talented but troubled Cowboys gives the Packers another boost of momentum heading into their bye week.

Roy Williams in the third quarter. Longtime Packers receiver Donald Driver sat out with a quadriceps injury, but Jones and Greg Jennings were able to pick up the slack in the passing game. Jennings had seven catches for 80 yards and a touchdown. About the only serious mistake for the Packers was a personal foul penalty on Collins, flagged for a helmet-to-helmet hit on Cowboys receiver

GREEN BAY 31, MINNESOTA 3

ННН Metrodome, Sunday, Nov. 21, 2010. Attendance: 64,120. Time: 2:48. Weather: Indoors GAME*

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Brett Favre looked ready for retirement, with six likely meaningless games now left for Minnesota in the epilogue of his Aaron Rodgers and Green Bay's swarming defense sure made it clear who's in charge of this Packers-Vikings rivalry right now. Rodgers went 22 for 31 for 301 yards, with three of his four touchdown passes going to Greg Jennings. He beat Favre for the second time this season and sent Green Bay to a 31-3 victory over melting-down Minnesota on Sunday.

The Packers (7-3) emerged fresh from their bye week and kept pace in the NFC North race with the Chicago Bears (7-3), ruining any realistic hope

Instead, this 100th meeting between these border-state rivals, likely the last for the 41-year-old Favre, was marked by costly turnovers, untimely penalties and even some sideline shouting by the frustrated Vikings.

Owner Zygi Wilf walked sternly out of a silent locker room without commenting. The Vikings also lost starting right guard Anthony Herrera to a season-ending knee injury. Childress said he didn't think the Vikings quit, but some players wondered aloud whether everyone's effort was there about the future of head coach Brad Childress.

As for Favre's future?
He insisted he's committed to the team and the rest of the season, despite failing to directly answer questions about whether he wants to finish it and vaguely saying he planned to "re-evaluate" the situation on Monday.
Trannon Williams intercepted Favre to stop a long Vikings drive, and Rodgers took the Packers the other way for a touchdown to James Jones in the final minute of the first half to give the visitors a 17-3 lead.

Favre and close friend Darrell Bevell, the offensive coordinator, were seen on TV snapping at each other on the sideline after the interception. Favre exceptional play.

The "Go Pack Go!" cry from the Wisconsin transplants and travelers grew louder as the game went on, with Vikings fans getting in a few "Fire said he and Bevell were "fine" and said he'd have made the same throw again, crediting Williams—who's having a Pro Bowl-caliber season—for an Childress!" chants for good measure.

next week, McCarthy and the Packers have plenty of work in front of them. But the steam and swagger they regained in their 28-24 win over the Vikings on Oct. 24 is making them look more like the Super Bowl contender With 10 players and five starters lost for the season on injured reserve, plus a stiff second-half schedule featuring a trip to NFC-leading Atlanta they were purported to be this summer.

ATLANTA 20, GREEN BAY 17

ATLANTA (AP) — Don't even mention a third straight winning season to the Atlanta Falcons.

Their goals are so much bigger than that

The Falcons stayed atop the NFC when Matt Bryant kicked a 47-yard field goal with 9 seconds remaining Sunday for a 20-17 victory over the Green

Make no mistake. The Falcons (9-2) were very much aware of the possible ramifications this game might have beyond the regular season. Bay Packers, one of the teams trying to chase down Atlanta in the conference standings.

The Falcons have won five in a row for their longest streak since the 1998 season, when the team reached its only Super Bowl. Also assured is a third consecutive winning record—not too shabby, considering the franchise had never even had two in a row before this run.

Yet that's just an afterthought for these guys, who have won six straight games decided by a touchdown or less after losing the opener to Pittsburgh in overtime.

Bryant had to make his winning kick twice.

The Packers called a timeout just before he knocked his first attempt right down the middle. No problem. The 35-year-old had already made two game-winning kicks this season, and No. 3 had plenty of distance as it hooked slightly but stayed several feet inside the left upright. His do-over capped a game between playoff contenders that lived up to all the hype: a bruising defensive struggle filled with huge fourth-down plays and one very important kickoff return by Eric Weems.

After Aaron Rodgers threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to Jordy Nelson with 56 seconds remaining to tie the game for Green Bay (7-4), Weems broke loose up the middle and was dragged down by Matt Wilhelm with a flagrant facemask tackle. The Falcons took over at the Green Bay 49, Matt Ryan completed four straight short passes and Bryant made the winning kick.

The Falcons weren't concerned after Green Bay scored, especially with Ryan at quarterback. He completed 24-of-28 for 198 yards, including a 4-yarder to Tony Gonzalez for Atlanta's first TD.

Green Bay thought it had forced overtime when Rodgers directed a 16-play, 90-yard drive for the tying score. He improvised two huge plays on ourth down, beginning with a scrambling, backhanded flip of a pass to James Jones for an 18-yard gain on fourth-and-1 at the 21.

GREEN BAY 34, SAN FRANCISCO 16

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—Donald Driver woke up with a case of food poisoning on Sunday morning, blaming it on a bad batch of spicy chicken wings. Then he gave the San Francisco 49ers' defense a play that was difficult to digest.

Driver left a string of befuddled 49ers' defenders in his dust on a rambling 61-yard catch-and-run for a touchdown in the third quarter, providing the most critical play in the Packers' 34-16 victory at Lambeau Field on Sunday.

Greg Jennings also caught six passes for 122 yards and a pair of touchdowns for the Packers (8-4), who picked up a critical victory as they make As Driver and the team celebrated, the crowd counted out all the tackles he broke as the play was replayed on the stadium video screens.

Rodgers was 21-of-30 for 298 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions.

a push for the playoffs.

Vernon Davis had 126 yards receiving and a touchdown for the 49ers (4-8), who came into Sunday's game with playoff hopes despite their disap-

Addressing his increasingly shaky job status, 49ers coach Mike Singletary said simply that he coaches for his job every week. He struggled to find pointing record.

It was a wintry day at Lambeau, with temperatures in the 20s and a stiff, steady 16-mph wind.

positives to take away from Sunday.

The conditions seemed to impede the Packers' passing game early as Rodgers was uncharacteristically off target, missing Driver in the end zone in the first quarter and failing to convert an open third-and-long throw in the second quarter because the ball bounced off a defender's helmet. Packers coach Mike McCarthy said the wind didn't change the way he called the offense on Sunday because of the weather, but Rodgers acknowledged that he didn't account for the wind on the missed throw to Driver.

DETROIT (AP)—The Green Bay Packers looked lost without Aaron Rodgers. The Detroit Lions weren't much better, but they're used to pla without their starting quarterback Drew Stanton threw a 13-yard touchdown pass to Will Heller midway through the fourth quarter, and the Lions held on for a 7-3 win over Green on Sunday after knocking Rodgers out of the game late in the first half. Detroit snapped a 19-game losing streak against NFC North opponents de: an erratic performance from Stanton, who was starting because Matthew Stafford and Shaun Hill were both out with injuries.

This one was certainly ugly at times, especially during a scoreless first half. Rodgers left with a concussion toward the end of the second qua but the Packers (8-5) were already having their problems, having gone the entire first quarter without a first down.

hit on back-to-back plays. He was slow getting up after being hit by Amari Spievey and Landon Johnson at the end of an 18-yard scramble. Green Rodgers hasn't missed a game since taking over as Green Bay's starting quarterback in 2008, but he went to the sideline Sunday shortly after l took a timeout, then Rodgers was sacked on the next play.

Rodgers stayed in for the rest of the drive before being replaced by Matt Flynn.

Even without their standout quarterback, the Packers took a 3-0 lead in the second half and had a chance to extend it when Flynn led a confide building drive deep into Detroit territory. But Flynn made one big mistake, throwing a short pass over the middle that was intercepted by DeA Levy in the end zone.

After withstanding that challenge, the Lions (3-10) still needed points of their own. Stanton—whose passer rating for the game was zero at point in the second half—finally directed a successful drive in the final quarter. The Lions went 80 yards in 12 plays, and Heller scored on a tight screen with 7:55 remaining.

Stanton finished 10-of-22 for 117 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions—for a passer rating of 39.4. Stafford has played only one full g this season because of shoulder problems, leaving Hill and Stanton to run the Detroit offense.

Flynn, pressed into by far his most extensive duty of the season, went 15-of-26 for 177 yards. He did lead the Packers to the Detroit 31 late in fourth quarter, but his long pass on fourth-and-1 fell incomplete.

Detroit finally won a close game after being 0-7 in games decided by eight points or less.

NEW ENGLAND 31, GREEN BAY 27

FOXBOROUGH, Mass. (AP)—Dan Connolly caught the squib kick and buried the ball in his gut, protecting it with both hands to prepare for a hit that never came.

Following his blockers, New England's 313-pound offensive lineman lumbered toward the middle of the field, tucked the ball under his left arm and took off for the left sideline. Packers safety Charlie Peprah, a mere 203 pounds, tried to swat the ball free near the Green Bay 40, but Connolly pushed him away without slowing down. Kicker Mason Crosby was easily sidestepped, and so was safety Atari Bigby as Connolly cut back toward the middle of the field. He was eventually brought down at the 4 after rumbling 71 yards to set up the first of two straight touchdowns that helped the Patriots take the lead and beat the Packers 31-27 on Sunday night.

The Patriots had won consecutive blowouts—a combined score of 81-10 vs. the New York Jets and Chicago Bears—and seemed poised to add another after Packers quarterback Aaron Rodgers was sidelined with his second concussion of the season. But backup Matt Flynn, in his first career start, threw three touchdown passes and had Green Bay driving at the end of the game. On fourth-and-1 from the Patriots 15, Flynn was strip-sacked by linebacker Tully Banta-Cain, and Vince Wilfork fell on the ball with no time left to help New England (12-2) clinch its sixth straight win and match Atlanta for the NFL's best record.

Flynn completed 24-of-37 passes for 251 yards and three touchdowns. He had one interception, which was returned for a 36-yard touchdown by Patriots cornerback Kyle Arrington. Connolly's 71-yard return, which set up Tom Brady's 2-yard touchdown pass to Aaron Hernandez, is believed to be the longest by an offensive lineman in NFL history. Records before 1976 are incomplete, according to STATS LLC, but the run by Connolly topped the 48-yard touchdown return by Atlanta's Mal Snider in 1969 that was thought to have been the longest ever.

Brady completed 15-of-24 passes for 163 yards. He has gone nine games and 292 pass attempts without an interception, the third-longest streak
