PRESEASON WEEK 4

KANSAS CITY (0-3) AT GREEN BAY (2-1)

Thursday, Sept. 1 • Lambeau Field • 7 p.m. CDT

PACKERS HOST CHIEFS IN PRESEASON FINALE

Green Bay welcomes Kansas City to Lambeau Field to close out the pre-season slate with a game against the Chiefs on Thursday night. It will be the first time since 2008 that the Packers have played at home in their preseason finale.

- ▶ This will be the second straight season that the teams have squared off in the final preseason contest. Last year, Green Bay traveled to Arrowhead Stadium to take on the Chiefs on Sept. 2, a contest Kansas City won, 17-13.
- ▶ The teams have met 12 times before in the preseason, with the Chiefs holding a 6-5-1 advantage. The last time the Packers hosted Kansas City at Lambeau Field during the preseason was on Aug. 8, 1992, a 21-14 Green Bay victory.
- ▶ For Head Coach Mike McCarthy, it is a matchup against the team where his NFL coaching career started. McCarthy spent six seasons on the Chiefs' staff (1993-98), the first two as an offensive assistant/quality control coach and the final four as the quarterbacks coach. Thursday night will be the third time McCarthy has coached against Kansas City since taking over as head coach of Green Bay in 2006, with the other one in addition to last year's preseason contest coming in a regular-season game on Nov. 4, 2007, a 33-22 Packers win over the Chiefs at Arrowhead Stadium.
- ▶ Ironically, McCarthy's very first game as an NFL coach was a pre-season contest between the Chiefs and the Packers on Aug. 7, 1993, at Milwaukee County Stadium. Kansas City won, 29-21.
- ▶ The Packers and Chiefs will meet during the regular season in Week 15 at Arrowhead Stadium, the latest in a season that Green Bay has ever paid a visit to Kansas City. The last time the teams met in both the pre-season and regular season was in 2003.

BISHOP'S CHARITIES GAME

Thursday night marks another Green Bay preseason tradition: the Bishop's Charities Game. It was first played in 1961 after Vince Lombardi was approached by the Diocese of Green Bay about playing a charitable contest in Green Bay (the Shrine contest was a fixture in Milwaukee).

- ▶ The series enjoys its 51st contest this year and has raised more than $3.5 million.
- ▶ For more than 30 years, the church handled much of the game's business-related tasks, including game program and advertising sales, using a network of volunteers covering 14 Northeastern Wisconsin counties. The Packers assumed many of those tasks in 1994.
- ▶ The Packers are 26-23-1 all-time in the series. They will be playing Kansas City for the fourth time in the series, with the other meetings coming in 1978, 1979 and 1992.
- ▶ Green Bay has won two straight games in the series, including a 59-24 victory over Indianapolis in 2010. Prior to that, the Packers had lost six consecutive Bishop's Charities contests. That six-game losing streak (2003-08) came on the heels of a 12-game winning streak (1991-2002) in the series.

WITH THE CALL

The Green Bay Packers Broadcast Partners will air the game over a 10-station network throughout the state of Wisconsin, Upper Michigan, northeastern Minnesota, and the Quad Cities in Iowa, with CBS network production, personnel and the latest network-quality technology.

- ▶ The top-notch broadcast team includes CBS's Kevin Harlan (play-by-play) alongside fellow CBS broadcaster Rich Gannon (analyst).
- ▶ WTMJ's Jessie Garcia serves as the sideline reporter and WFRV's Larry McCarren joins the crew for pre-game segments. In addition to WFRV-TV (Green Bay) and WTMJ-TV (Milwaukee), the games are televised over WKOW/ABC, Madison, Wis.; WAOW/ABC, Wausau/Rhineland, Wis.; WXOW/ABC, La Crosse, Wis.; WQOW/ABC, Eau Claire; WYOW/ABC, Eagle River, Wis.; WJMN/CBS, Marquette, Mich.; and KQDS-TV/FOX, Duluth, Minn.; KLJB-TV/FOX and KGCW/CW, Quad Cities in Iowa.
- ▶ Milwaukee's WTMJ (620 AM), airing Green Bay games since 1929, heads up the 52-station Packers Radio Network, with Wayne Larrivee (play-by-play) and two-time Packers Pro Bowler Larry McCarren (color) calling the action. The duo enters its 13th season of broadcasts together across the Packers Radio Network, which covers 43 markets in five states.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

PACKERS TOP COLTS IN INDIANAPOLIS

Green Bay scored 11 points in the final 35 seconds to come away with a 24-21 victory over the Indianapolis Colts at Lucas Oil Stadium on Friday night.

► QB Aaron Rodgers and the first-team offense saw their most extended action of the preseason by playing the entire first half, with Rodgers connecting on 19-of-23 passes for 204 yards and a TD (118.1 rating). The offense worked out of the no-huddle for much of the half as Rodgers completed passes to six different receivers, with WR Jordy Nelson (5-65), RB James Starks (5-38) and TE Jermichael Finley (4-41-TD) leading the way. Green Bay controlled the clock for 17:15 in the opening half.

► Rodgers led the offense on a 10-play, 81-yard drive in the first quarter that was capped off with an 18-yard TD pass over the middle to Finley. Rodgers completed 7-of-8 passes on the series for 76 yards.

► The Packers trailed, 21-13, with less than four minutes remaining, when No. 3 QB Graham Harrell led Green Bay on an 11-play, 73-yard drive that was capped off with an 11-yard TD pass to TE Ryan Taylor with 45 seconds left. Harrell found Taylor on the two-point conversion to even the game at 21. All three of Taylor's catches (for 24 yards) came on the game-tying drive.

► K Mason Crosby's onside kick on the ensuing play was recovered by S M.D. Jennings at the Green Bay 47. Harrell completed a 12-yard pass to WR Tori Gurley and an 8-yarder to TE D.J. Williams to put the Packers into field goal range, and Crosby's 50-yarder split the uprights as time expired to give Green Bay the win.

► The defense recorded a preseason-high four sacks on the evening, with LBs Jamari Lattimore, Clay Matthews, D.J. Smith and Vic So'oto each registering one.

► P Tim Masthay delivered another strong effort with a 49.1-yard average and a 43.4-yard net average on seven punts, placing two of them inside the 20 with a long of 60.

► The injuries reported by Head Coach Mike McCarthy following the game were TE Jermichael Finley (ankle) and WR Jordy Nelson (knee).

MIKE MCCARTHY - POST-GAME EXCERPTS

► (on the play of the offensive line in the first half)

"I thought there was a lot of production offensively. I thought the offensive line was a big part of that. The sacks were the negative. The no-huddle that we performed after the first series on, I think it was what you were looking for. There were a number of different reasons that we did that, but the one true negative was point production and the sacks. That is something that we'll take a close look at. I was pleased with the overall contest this evening just from the targets and objectives that we were trying to hit. The goal was to play our first group the first half; we obviously accomplished that. Then play our younger players as much as possible throughout the second half, and we accomplished that. It wasn't pretty. There were some rough moments offensively in the second half, but just the way they finished the game, I think that tells you about our young guys. They are getting better and they stepped up when they needed to."

► (on the decision to go for the two-point conversion and pulling out the win)

"It was a two-minute drive, we had plenty of timeouts left. Graham did a very good job and to go for two points, I understand the mindset of kicking the extra point and going home a little healthier, but that is a terrible message to send to your team, in my opinion. I think just the way our team reacted on the sideline tells you about what we came here to do. We came here to win (the game). Preseason games are tough. You do try to manage the injury report as you do go through the football game, but it was important for us to give our players a chance to be successful.

Ultimately that is the job of the coach. The players did an excellent job on the two-point and the onside kick. We had a lot of ambition to end the game without going into overtime so that was part of our thinking."

► (on the no-huddle offense)

"Really, the no-huddle is a regular part of our offense. How many times you used it last year compared to how much you practice, anytime you make a commitment like we have to a certain situation, yeah, it's definitely a consideration. I'm not really interested in talking about the mechanics of our no-huddle and how much we are going to use it. Those are really game-plan decisions and scheme design on how we operate or what we are going to change. There are some things that we learned tonight that we'll adjust in our no-huddle package, but frankly the decision to go no-huddle in the first half really came about in a conversation during halftime of the Arizona game last week. You worry about your first-team players having enough work. Really didn't tell the players they were going to go no-huddle the whole first half, but conditioning is a part of it. I wanted to max out the first 30 minutes with our No. 1 offense, get as many plays as possible because I knew I would be playing our young guys in the second half. Those aren't normal thought processes that you have during a game week. Aaron is doing a great job. Like I said, a lot of production with the no-huddle. It will be a part of what we do."

THE PACKERS-CHIEFS SERIES

- ▶ The first meeting between the two clubs was undoubtedly the most memorable game in the series. In January 1967, NFL champion Green Bay met AFL champion Kansas City in the first-ever Super Bowl, won by the Packers, 35-10.
- ▶ Kansas City has had the upper hand in the series ever since. In fact, the Chiefs have the third-highest winning percentage against the Packers (6-2-1, .722) among all NFL teams. Only the Dolphins (10-3, .769) and Jets (8-3, .728) have better records vs. Green Bay.
- ▶ When the Packers traveled to Kansas City in 2007, it was their first trip to that city since 1996, and they broke a five-game losing streak to the Chiefs by winning 33-22.
- ▶ Green Bay's only other victory in the regular-season series came in 1987, a 23-3 win in Kansas City.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

LOTS OF FAMILIAR FACES

General Manager Ted Thompson continued his philosophy of building through the draft in the 2011 offseason, so much of the Packers' core remains intact once again.

- ▶ Eight Packers earned Pro Bowl recognition in 2010, the most by a Green Bay team since it featured nine in 1967, and all eight of those players return for the 2011 campaign.
- ▶ Green Bay welcomes the return of 21 of 22 players that started against Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XLV.
- ▶ The Packers battled their way through several season-ending injuries in 2010, finishing the season with 15 players on injured reserve. The group returning from injuries includes fifth-year RB Ryan Grant, a 1,200-yard rusher in both 2008 and 2009, fourth-year TE Jermichael Finley, the team's leading receiver through four games last season, third-year LB Brad Jones, who started five games in 2010, second-year S Morgan Burnett, the starting strong safety for the first four contests last season, and second-year DE Mike Neal, who was limited to just two games as a rookie in 2010 but figures to compete for increased time this season.
- ▶ The continuity extends to the coaching staff, where almost the entire group returns for 2011 with a few changes in duties.
- ▶ Edgar Bennett, who tutored the running backs for the past six seasons, moves into the role of wide receivers coach in 2011, while Jerry Fontenot, the assistant offensive line coach for the past four seasons, takes over the running backs.
- ▶ John Rushing, the offensive quality control coach in 2009-10, will now serve as assistant wide receivers/special teams. Joel Hilgenberg, who worked with the Packers last year during the spring and summer as a coaching intern, will serve as the offensive quality control coach. Hilgenberg enjoyed a 10-year playing career (1984-93) as an offensive lineman with the New Orleans Saints.

MEET THE DRAFT PICKS

Training-camp storylines always hover around new players and just how they figure into the depth chart. This summer, all eyes will be on the 10 draft picks added to the club this past April, Green Bay's largest draft class since an 11-player one in 2007. With no offseason work at Lambeau Field due to the lockout, training camp is the 2011 class' first on-field action as Packers.

- ▶ T Derek Sherrod, the first Mississippi State offensive lineman to be selected in the first round of the NFL Draft, was a first-team All-America selection by CBSSports.com and Rivals.com in 2010 and earned first-team All-SEC honors. He helped the Bulldogs rank second in the SEC in rushing in 2010 and first in '09. Sherrod joined new linemate Bryan Bulaga (2010) as only the second offensive tackle to be selected in the first round by Green Bay in the past 14 drafts.
- ▶ The Packers stayed in the SEC in Round 2 by selecting versatile Kentucky WR Randall Cobb in the second round. He earned first-team All-America recognition from The Associated Press, ESPN.com and SportsIllustrated.com as a junior in 2010 as an all-purpose player. Cobb set the SEC single-season record for all-purpose yards with 2,396 in 2010, topping the previous mark of 2,310 yards by Arkansas RB Darren McFadden (2007). He was the only player in FBS to rank first or second on the team in receiving, rushing and passing.

- ▶ RB Alex Green, the Packers' third-round choice, rushed for 1,199 yards and 18 TDs in 2010, ranking second in University of Hawaii history for rushing yards in a single season and tying the school mark for rushing TDs. His average of 8.2 yards per carry in 2010 ranked No. 1 in NCAA Division I-A among players with 100 or more carries. Green spent his first two seasons at Butte Community College in Oroville, Calif., the same junior college that produced QB Aaron Rodgers.
- ▶ In the fourth round, the Packers drafted CB Davon House, who earned first-team All-Western Athletic Conference honors as a junior and senior at New Mexico State. He finished his career ranked first in school history in INT return yardage with 319 and tied for sixth with 11 INTs. House was named to the Jim Thorpe Award watch list and was an honorable mention All-America selection by The NFL Draft Report in 2010.
- ▶ Green Bay selected TE D.J. Williams out of the University of Arkansas in the fifth round. In 2010, he became the first Razorback to win the John Mackey Award, an honor given to the nation's top tight end. Williams also received the 2010 Disney Spirit Award, which is given to the most inspirational figure in college football. He finished his Arkansas career with 152 receptions, the second-highest total in school history and the most by a non-wide receiver.
- ▶ With the first of three choices in the sixth round, the Packers picked G Caleb Schlauderaff. He earned second-team All-America honors from Walter Camp and SportsIllustrated.com and was named first-team All-Mountain West at Utah in 2010. A four-year starter, he was part of a Utes squad in 2008 that finished No. 2 in the AP's final poll, the only team in the country to post a perfect record (13-0).
- ▶ Green Bay also drafted LB D.J. Smith out of Appalachian State in the sixth round. He was one of only two players in school history to record 500 tackles in his career, joining three-time NFL Pro Bowler Dexter Coakley. Smith finished his career at ASU as the NCAA Division I FCS active leader in tackles with 525.
- ▶ The Packers added another linebacker in the sixth round with the selection of Ricky Elmore from the University of Arizona. He finished his collegiate career with 25½ sacks, second in school history behind only Tedy Bruschi (52, 1992-95). Elmore led the Pac-10 in sacks in 2010 with 11, giving him 21½ over his final two seasons for the Wildcats.
- ▶ With the first of two picks in the seventh round, Green Bay drafted TE Ryan Taylor from the University of North Carolina. He set a single-season school record for receptions by a tight end with 36 in 2010, and established career highs for receptions and yards in each of his final three college games. Taylor was also a key contributor on special teams, serving as a two-year captain for that unit during his Tar Heel career.
- ▶ The Packers also drafted DE Lawrence Guy out of Arizona State in the seventh round. An early entry into the draft, he earned honorable mention All-Pac-10 recognition each of his three seasons with the Sun Devils and was part of units that led the conference and finished in the top 20 nationally in run defense in 2009 and 2010.

PACKERS TEAM NOTES

A LOOK AT THE SCHEDULE

The Green Bay Packers' 91st NFL regular-season schedule – headlined by four prime-time games as well as a nationally televised Thanksgiving contest – was released in mid-April by the National Football League.

- ▶ Green Bay will begin the 2011 season at home against the New Orleans Saints in a Thursday night contest on Sept. 8. The matchup of the last two Super Bowl winners will mark the first time in franchise history that the Packers will open the season on a Thursday night. It will also be just the third Thursday night game in Lambeau Field history.
- ▶ The Packers will head out on the road in Week 2 to take on Carolina, the first of back-to-back road games for Green Bay. It is the second straight season that Green Bay has played two contests away from Lambeau Field in the first three weeks.
- ▶ For the second straight season, the Packers will visit Soldier Field in Week 3 to take on the Chicago Bears, a rematch of the 2010 NFC Championship Game.
- ▶ Green Bay will face another 2010 playoff foe in Week 5 when it travels to Atlanta for a Sunday night contest against the Falcons on NBC. It will be the Packers' third game against an NFC South opponent in the first five weeks.
- ▶ The Packers will host Minnesota in Week 10 on ESPN's Monday Night Football. 2011 marks the 19th consecutive season the Packers have appeared on MNF, the NFC's longest streak (Denver, 20).
- ▶ For the third time in Head Coach Mike McCarthy's tenure, the Packers will travel to Detroit for a Thanksgiving Day matchup. Green Bay won the previous two Thanksgiving meetings (2007, 2009) under McCarthy.
- ▶ With the MNF game against Minnesota and the Thanksgiving game at Detroit, the Packers will have three games in an 11-day span. Green Bay has some recent experience with a stretch similar to that, having won three contests in 12 days in 2009 (Nov. 15-26).
- ▶ Both of the Packers' December road games will be played outdoors in potential cold-weather conditions with visits to the N.Y. Giants (Week 13) and the Kansas City Chiefs (Week 15).
- ▶ Green Bay finishes the regular season with back-to-back home contests (Chicago, Detroit) for the second straight season. The only other time the Packers have finished with two home games in consecutive seasons was 1922-23.
- ▶ For just the second time in franchise annals, the Packers will play on Christmas. Green Bay will host Chicago in prime time on NBC. The only other Christmas game in Packers history also came against the Bears (2005) at Lambeau Field.
- ▶ The Packers will be the first NFL team to play on Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Day in the same season, with all three games coming against divisional foes.
- ▶ Green Bay closes against an NFC North opponent for the fifth time in the past six seasons, this time against Detroit.

2011 SCHEDULE NUGGETS

Green Bay's bye week arrives in Week 8, the second time the Packers have had their bye that week under McCarthy (2008).

- ▶ Under McCarthy, the team has won four of five games immediately after the bye week and 11 of its last 15 after the week off dating back further.
- ▶ Overall, the Packers are 30-19 (.612) after the bye under McCarthy, and since 2000, the team is 61-36 (.629) following the week off.

The Packers play all three of the other teams in 2011, hosting New Orleans (No. 6/No. 4) in Week 1 and traveling to take on San Diego (No. 1/No. 1) in Week 9 and the N.Y. Giants (No. 5/No. 7) in Week 13.

Consistently ranking as one of the most popular franchises in professional sports, the Green Bay Packers always attract a fair amount of national attention when it comes time to create the NFL regular-season schedule.

- ▶ In addition to the Thursday night season opener vs. New Orleans on NBC, the Packers will also appear on NBC for Sunday night games in Week 5 at Atlanta and in Week 16 vs. Chicago on Christmas. POSITION-BY-POSITION

BY THE NUMBERS

Nothing attracts more attention during training camp, both from fans and media, than positional battles. Here's a look at the Packers' current roster. Just a quick note – the first number is the number of players at that position currently on the roster, while the second is the number at the position during Week 1 last season.

Quarterback – 3 (2)

- ▶ Aaron Rodgers has emerged as one of top players in the league at his position, with a career passer rating (98.4) that ranks No. 1 in NFL history. He posted 12,394 passing yards from 2008-10, which ranks No. 2 in league history behind only Kurt Warner (12,612, 1999-2001) for the most passing yards by a QB in his first three seasons as a starter.
- ▶ Behind Rodgers is fourth-year signal caller Matt Flynn, who saw his most extensive game action in 2010. He has served as the No. 2 quarterback in each of his first three NFL seasons and got his first start as a pro last season in Week 15 at New England when Rodgers was sidelined with a concussion.
- ▶ Also at the position is first-year player Graham Harrell, who spent time on the practice squad and as the third QB in 2010. He set numerous NCAA records including career TD passes and completions while at Texas Tech (2005-08).

Running back – 5 (3)

- ▶ Ryan Grant, one of only three players in team annals to post back-to-back 1,200-yard seasons (2008-09), returns to action after missing all but one game in 2010 due to an ankle injury sustained at Philadelphia in Week 1.
- ▶ Behind Grant is second-year pro James Starks, who was limited to just four games in the regular season but made a splash in the playoffs with a team-high 315 yards, the third most ever by an NFL rookie in a single postseason.
- ▶ Rookie Alex Green was selected in the third round out of the University of Hawaii. His average of 8.2 yards per carry in 2010 ranked No. 1 in NCAA Division I-A among players with 100 or more carries, and his 1,199 yards on the season were good for No. 2 in school annals.
- ▶ Second-year man Dimitri Nance saw some action as a rookie, posting 95 yards on 36 carries (2.6 avg.). The running back group also includes non-drafted rookie Brandon Saine, who finished his career at Ohio State with 1,408 rushing yards and 17 TDs.

Fullback – 3 (3)

- ▶ Last year the team kept three fullbacks, with two of those players, John Kuhn and Quinn Johnson, returning in 2011.
- ▶ With injuries at running back, Kuhn took on more of a role as a ball-carrier and responded by setting or matching his career high in every major offensive category.
- ▶ Johnson saw action in 11 games as a rookie in 2010, and at 263 pounds, brings a physical presence to the position.
- ▶ The only other fullback on the roster is non-drafted free agent Jon Hoese from the University of Minnesota.

Wide receiver – 11 (5)

- ▶ Veterans Donald Driver and Greg Jennings, who both earned Pro Bowl recognition in 2010, form a dangerous 1-2 combination on the outside. Jennings has topped the 1,000-yard mark each of the last three seasons, while Driver has topped the mark in six of the last seven seasons.

- ▶ Fifth-year wideout James Jones, who recently re-signed with the team as an unrestricted free agent, posted career-highs in catches (50) and receiving yards (679) as he joined Jennings and Driver to comprise the first trio of 50-catch receivers in team history. Fourth-year man Jordy Nelson had a career year as well, posting personal bests in catches (45) and receiving yards (582) in 2010.
- ▶ Green Bay added versatile WR Randall Cobb in the second round of the 2011 NFL Draft. Cobb was a first-team All-America selection by The Associated Press as an all-purpose player in 2010 at Kentucky and will likely factor in as a return man in addition to wide receiver.
- ▶ First-year man Chastin West will look to compete for a roster spot after spending the 2010 season on the practice squad, as will several other young players. That group includes first-year WR Antonio Robinson and non-drafted rookies Diondre Borel, Tori Gurley, Shaky Smithson and Kerry Taylor.

Tight end – 5 (4)

- ▶ An already deep tight end group welcomed the addition of two more players through the draft.
- ▶ Fourth-year TE Jermichael Finley posted one of the most productive stretches by a Packers TE with a team-high 301 receiving yards on 21 catches in the first four games, but his season was cut short when he sustained a knee injury at Washington on the opening series in Week 5.
- ▶ Second-year man Andrew Quarless saw increased time after Finley's injury, and posted 21 catches for 238 yards (11.3 avg.) and a TD in his debut campaign.
- ▶ Second-year TE Tom Crabtree appeared in all 16 contests in 2010, contributing primarily as a blocker and on special teams.
- ▶ The Packers added 2010 John Mackey Award winner D.J. Williams of Arkansas through the draft, as well as seventh-round selection Ryan Taylor out of the University of North Carolina.

Offensive line – 14 (10)

- ▶ Four of five starters return from a year ago on a line that started the same five players the final 16 games of the season (including playoffs).
- ▶ Veteran LT Chad Clifton, who earned his second career Pro Bowl selection in 2010, returns for his 12th season. Second-year RT Bryan Bulaga, the Packers' first-round pick in 2010, started the final 12 games and all four postseason contests as a rookie.
- ▶ Eighth-year C Scott Wells brings a consistent presence to the middle of the line, while RG Josh Sitton emerged as one of the top guards in the league in 2010 in his third season, earning recognition as a Pro Bowl alternate.
- ▶ Many eyes will be focused on the competition at left guard with starter Daryn Colledge departing in free agency. Third-year man T.J. Lang, who provided depth at guard and tackle in 2010 after starting three games at tackle as a rookie in 2009, has emerged as the leading candidate. Rookie Derek Sherrod, Green Bay's first-round pick in 2011, was a three-year starter at LT at Mississippi State also has been in the mix at LG.
- ▶ Also expected to compete along the inside are second-year pros Nick McDonald and Evan Dietrich-Smith and rookie G Caleb Schlauderaff, a sixth-round pick in 2011. G/T Marshall Newhouse, a fifth-round pick in 2010, will also be battling for a roster spot.
- ▶ The group also includes first-year G Adrian Battles, first-year T Chris Campbell, rookie T/G Ray Dominguez, and rookie C Sampson Genus.

POSITION-BY-POSITION

Defensive end – 6 (5)

- ▶ The defensive end group will be led by veteran Ryan Pickett, who appeared in 14 games with 12 starts in 2010 and posted 53 tackles (27 solo) and a sack.
- ▶ With the departure of veteran end Cullen Jenkins in free agency, the right defensive end position is expected to feature a competition between a trio of young players in second-year pros Mike Neal and C.J. Wilson and third-year man Jarius Wynn.
- ▶ Neal, Green Bay' second-round selection in 2010, was limited to two games during his rookie campaign due to a shoulder injury, but did show flashes of his potential in brief action.
- ▶ Wilson, another member of the 2010 draft class (seventh round), saw significant time during his debut campaign due to injuries along the line. He appeared in 15 games with two starts and registered 21 tackles (12 solo) and a sack.
- ▶ After being released in the final roster cutdown last season, Wynn re-signed with the team heading into Week 2 because of injuries and went on to appear in nine contests on the season.
- ▶ The Packers added another defensive end late in this year's draft by selecting Lawrence Guy out of Arizona State in the seventh round. Non-drafted rookie Eli Joseph rounds out the position group for Green Bay.

Nose tackle – 4 (1)

- ▶ Third-year man B.J. Raji was the lone nose tackle on the roster in 2010 and he responded in a major way by starting all 16 contests and posting 66 tackles (36 solo). His 6½ sacks were the most by an NFL nose tackle since Minnesota's Ken Clarke registered seven in 1990, and Raji was selected as a Pro Bowl alternate.
- ▶ Seventh-year veteran Howard Green was acquired by the Packers off waivers midway through the season in 2010 and ended up playing a prominent role on the line as he worked primarily at end. Solid against the run, Green appeared in nine contests with three starts and posted 17 tackles (four solo).
- ▶ Jay Ross, who spent time on the practice squad in 2010, and non-drafted free agent Chris Donaldson round out the position group.

Linebacker – 14 (8)

- ▶ This position was also hit hard by injuries in 2010, but several players took advantage of the opportunities that were presented to them.
- ▶ On the inside, sixth-year LB A.J. Hawk continued to serve as a steady presence on the defense, but took on more of an every-down role in 2010. He led the team with 134 tackles (97 solo), and his career-high three interceptions tied for the league lead among linebackers.
- ▶ At the other inside spot, fifth-year LB Desmond Bishop moved into a starting role for the first time in his career after contributing primarily on special teams in his first three seasons in the league. Bishop trailed only Hawk in tackles with 121 (82 solo), while his 10 passes defended were the most by a Green Bay LB since John Anderson registered 15 in 1981.
- ▶ Second-year man Robert Francois and rookie D.J. Smith, a sixth-round choice this spring, are expected to compete for a roster spot on the inside, as will second-year man K.C. Asiodu, first-year LB Cardia Jackson and non-drafted rookie Elijah Joseph.
- ▶ On the outside, third-year LB Clay Matthews looks to follow up his first two years that saw him become the first Packer to earn Pro Bowl recognition in each of his first two seasons since RB John Brockington (1971-72). He led the team with 13½ sacks, No. 2 in the NFC and No. 4 in the NFL.
- ▶ At the ROLB spot opposite Matthews, three players that started games there in 2010 return. Second-year man Frank Zombo played in 13 games with eight starts as a non-drafted rookie and recorded four sacks, while fourth-year LB Erik Walden played in nine games with two starts and posted three sacks. Third-year pro Brad Jones was limited to just six games with five starts last season due to a shoulder injury, but is expected to compete once again for the starting spot while also potentially providing some depth on the inside.

- ▶ The Packers added LB Ricky Elmore from the University of Arizona in the sixth round of the draft, and he will be joined by non-drafted rookies Jamari Lattimore and Vic So'oto in competing for a spot on the outside.

Cornerback – 8 (6)

- ▶ Veteran Charles Woodson earned his seventh career Pro Bowl bid in 2010, registering career highs in tackles (105) and forced fumbles (five) while adding two interceptions and two sacks.
- ▶ In his first season as a full-time starter, fifth-year man Tramon Williams posted the finest all-arounds season of his career with career highs in tackles (63), interceptions (six) and passes defended (23).
- ▶ Sam Shields won the nickel job as a non-drafted rookie free agent in 2010, and the second-year man appears poised to maintain that role once again this season.
- ▶ Sixth-year pro Jarrett Bush remains one of the team's best special teams players and provides experience at the position, while fourth-year man Pat Lee saw his most significant action as a pro in his third season.
- ▶ Green Bay added another player to the mix with the selection of CB Davon House out of New Mexico State in the fourth round. Filling out the position group are first-year CB Josh Gordy and non-drafted rookie Brandian Ross.

Safety – 7 (4)

- ▶ Securing three straight Pro Bowl berths has solidified FS Nick Collins' status as one of the game's best at his position. Opposite Collins, however, will be where most of the focus is in the back end.
- ▶ Second-year man Morgan Burnett, who started the opening four games at SS in his debut campaign, will be looking to return to his starting role after sustaining a season-ending knee injury last year in Week 4.
- ▶ But Burnett could see competition from sixth-year pro Charlie Peprah, who stepped into Burnett's starting spot and posted the finest season of his career with 64 tackles (50 solo), two interceptions and seven passes defended.
- ▶ Third-year man Brandon Underwood, who played CB his first two seasons, has made the shift to safety, and non-drafted rookies Anthony Bratton and M.D. Jennings join first-year S Anthony Levine to round out the group.

Specialists – 3 (3)

- ▶ Though no specialist job in the NFL could ever be deemed secure, K Mason Crosby, LS Brett Goode and P Tim Masthay are the only players at their respective positions on the roster. Solid performances in camp and in preseason action should earn each a roster spot.
- ▶ Masthay earned his spot last season with a strong showing in training camp, and went on to post a 37.6-yard net average during the regular season to match the best mark since 1976 (Jon Ryan, 2007).
- ▶ Crosby, whose 509 points are the second most in NFL history by a player in his first four seasons, re-signed with the team recently as an unrestricted free agent. Goode has handled the long-snapping duties each of the past three seasons.

COACH LOCATIONS

- ▶ Coaches' Box: Dom Capers (defensive coordinator), Joel Hilgenberg (offensive quality control), Scott McCurley (defensive quality control), Joe Philbin (offensive coordinator), John Rushing (asst. wide receivers/special teams) and Joe Whitt Jr. (secondary - cornerbacks).
- ▶ Sideline: Edgar Bennett (wide receivers), James Campen (offensive line), Tom Clements (quarterbacks), Mike Eayrs (research and development), Jerry Fontenot (running backs), Kevin Greene (outside linebackers), Ben McAdoo (tight ends), Chad Morton (special teams assistant), Winston Moss (inside linebackers/asst. head coach), Darren Perry (secondary - safeties), Shawn Slocum (special teams coordinator) and Mike Trgovac (defensive line).

WR Greg Jennings, 5-11, 198, 6th Year, Western Michigan

- ▶ Served as reserve at tackle and guard in his second season while also seeing limited action on defense as an emergency lineman in short-yardage situations.

- ▶ Began his college career as a defensive lineman, but converted to the offensive line as a sophomore and started 36 straight games (10 at RT, 26 at LT) over his final three years.

PACKERS PROJECTED STARTERS - DEFENSE

LDE Ryan Pickett, 6-2, 340, 11th Year, Ohio State

- ▶ Has played in 148 of a possible 160 regular-season games during his 10-year career, missing just seven contests due to injury.
- ▶ Unselfishly made the transition to left defensive end after serving as the starting nose tackle in 2009, the first year of defensive coordinator Dom Capers' 3-4 scheme. Played in 14 games with 12 starts last season, finishing with 53 tackles (27 solo), a sack, a fumble recovery and a pass defended.
- ▶ Key component of Packers' No. 1-ranked rushing defense in 2009 (franchise-record 83.3 yards allowed per game), the first time in team history that Green Bay led the league in that category.

NT B.J. Raji, 6-2, 337, 3rd Year, Boston College

- ▶ Led all NFL nose tackles with 6½ sacks in 2010, the most recorded by a nose tackle since Minnesota's Ken Clarke posted seven in 1990 (according to STATS LLC).
- ▶ Was the only Green Bay defensive lineman to open every game in 2010, with his career-high 66 tackles (36 solo) pacing the line.
- ▶ Selected as a Pro Bowl alternate and was named to USA Today's All-Joe Team, which honors unheralded players in the league.
- ▶ Added 12 tackles, a sack, two passes defended and an interception in the postseason, highlighted by an 18-yard INT return for a score at Chicago in the NFC Championship Game that put Green Bay up 21-7 in the eventual 21-14 victory.

RDE Mike Neal, 6-3, 294, 2nd Year, Purdue

- ▶ Limited to just two games as a rookie due to injuries, but recorded his first forced fumble and first sack as a pro.
- ▶ Earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors from the media as a senior when he finished second on the team with 5½ sacks and third with 11½ tackles for loss.
- ▶ Posted several team weightlifting records at Purdue, including a 510-pound bench press and a 615-pound squat.

LOLB Clay Matthews, 6-3, 255, 3rd Year, Southern California

- ▶ Became the first Packer since RB John Brockington (1971-72) to earn Pro Bowl recognition in each of his first two seasons in the NFL.
- ▶ Named first-team All-Pro by The Associated Press in 2010, the first Green Bay LB to earn that honor since Tim Harris in 1989. Finished second to Pittsburgh safety Troy Polamalu in the AP's Defensive Player of the Year voting.
- ▶ Is the only Packer (since 1982) to record a double-digit sack total in each of his first two seasons in the league.
- ▶ Was named NFL Defensive MVP by Pro Football Weekly, and also earned NFL Defensive Player of the Year recognition from Sporting News and NFC Defensive Player of the Year honors from the Committee of 101 in 2010.

BLB A.J. Hawk, 6-1, 247, 6th Year, Ohio State

- ▶ Has either led the team or finished second in tackles in each of his five seasons.
- ▶ Hasn't missed a game in his career, playing in all 80 contests with 77 starts. The only two non-starts came in both Minnesota games in '09 and the season opener in 2010 at Philadelphia when Packers opened in nickel defense.
- ▶ Tied for No. 1 among NFL linebackers in 2010 with a career-high three interceptions, and is tied for No. 1 with five interceptions over the past two seasons. Earned first career Pro Bowl selection in 2010.
- ▶ Has posted 626 tackles (444 solo), nine sacks, eight interceptions, 29 passes defended, two forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries during his career.

MLB Desmond Bishop, 6-2, 238, 5th Year, California

- ▶ Started the final 12 games of the season and finished second on the team with 121 tackles (82 solo), three sacks and an interception, all career highs.

- ▶ Led the linebackers with a career-high 10 passes defended in 2010, the most by a Green Bay LB since John Anderson registered 15 in 1981.
- ▶ Paced the team with a career-high 22 special teams tackles in 2009, and his 50 tackles on special teams from 2007-10 were tied for the team lead (Jarrett Bush) over that span.

ROLB Erik Walden, 6-2, 250, 4th Year, Middle Tennessee St.

- ▶ Signed by the Packers as a free agent on Oct. 27, 2010, went on to appear in nine games with two starts along with another three starts in the postseason.
- ▶ Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for his Week 17 performance vs. Chicago when he recorded a career-high three sacks and a career-best 16 tackles.
