NEW ORLEANS (0-0) AT GREEN BAY (0-0)

Thursday, Sept. 8 • Lambeau Field • 7:30 p.m. CDT

PACKERS HOST SAINTS TO KICK OFF 2011 NFL SEASON

Green Bay kicks off its 93rd season in team history – and 91st as a member of the National Football League – by hosting New Orleans on Thursday evening in a nationally televised contest, just the third Thursday night game in Lambeau Field annals.

▶ The game will be a matchup of the last two Super Bowl winners, the first time since 2000 and the seventh time ever that the two most recent world champions will meet in Week 1. In 2000, the St. Louis Rams, who won Super Bowl XXXIV, hosted the Denver Broncos, who won Super Bowl XXXIII, on Monday Night Football in the season opener.

▶ It will mark the third time in the past four seasons that the Packers have opened the season with a nationally televised prime-time contest at home, and the first time in franchise history that Green Bay kicked off a season on a Thursday. In 2008, Green Bay hosted Minnesota on Monday Night Football, while in 2009, the Packers played host to Chicago in a Sunday night contest.

▶ Green Bay is 5-0 all-time in prime-time season openers (four on Monday night, one on Sunday night).

▶ This will be only the second time in team history that the Packers have opened the season against the Saints. Green Bay traveled to New Orleans for the 1977 season opener and emerged victorious, 24-20.

▶ The Saints will be making only their fourth trip to Lambeau Field in franchise history (the teams played seven times in Milwaukee from 1968-85), with the most recent visit coming in 2006. This will be the fourth time overall in the past seven seasons that the teams have met.

▶ Green Bay and New Orleans are the only two teams in the league to finish in the top 10 in total offense each of the past five seasons.

▶ Thursday's game is also a matchup of the two most successful teams in the NFC since 2006. Including the postseason, the Packers rank No. 2 in the conference in winning percentage at .609 (53-34), trailing only New Orleans (.616, 53-33) over that span.

WITH THE CALL

NBC Sports will broadcast the NFL-opening contest to a national audience. Play-by-play man Al Michaels joins color commentator Cris Collinsworth in the booth with Michele Tafoya reporting from the sidelines.

▶ Fans also can check out the action online, where the broadcast will be streamed on NBCSports.com and NFL.com.

▶ Milwaukee's WTMJ (620 AM), airing Green Bay games since 1929, heads up the 52-station Packers Radio Network, with Wayne Larrivee (play-by-play) and two-time Packers Pro Bowler Larry McCarren (color) calling the action. The duo enters its 13th season of broadcasts together across the Packers Radio Network, which covers 43 markets in five states.

▶ Westwood One radio will air the game across the country. Kevin Harlan (play-by-play) and Boomer Esiason (analyst) will call the action, with Mark Malone on the sidelines. Jim Gray hosts pregame and halftime shows.

▶ For out-of-town listeners, the broadcast is available on Sirius Satellite Radio as part of the network's NFL Sunday Drive.

STARTING STRONG

For the fifth time in six years under Head Coach Mike McCarthy, Green Bay will start its season in front of the home crowd at Lambeau Field.

▶ The Packers have won four straight season openers overall (2007-10), the first time since 1996-1999 that the team emerged victorious in four consecutive opening games. The last time Green Bay won five straight season openers was in 1980-84.

▶ Green Bay is the lone NFC team to win its season opener each of the past four years, joining New England and Pittsburgh as the only teams in the league to accomplish the feat over that span.

▶ McCarthy is the first Packers head coach to win four consecutive season openers since Bart Starr did so from 1980-83.

▶ Home openers have become near habit for the Packers, as 31 of 42 regular-season openers since the AFL-NFL merger (1970) have been in front of a home crowd.

▶ Since McCarthy took over in 2006, the Packers have an 11-6 (.647) mark in the month of September. That winning percentage is tied for No. 5 in the NFL over that span.

Green Bay has played two Thursday evening contests under Head Coach Mike McCarthy, a 37-27 loss to Dallas on Nov. 29, 2007, at Texas Stadium, and a 9-7 win over Minnesota on Dec. 21, 2006, at Lambeau Field.

PACKERS VS. SAINTS - WEEK 1

A LOOK AT THE 53

General Manager Ted Thompson and Green Bay's football-operations staff finalized the opening-day roster on Saturday.

- ▶ It's a balanced roster for Green Bay, which holds 24 offensive players, 26 defensive players and three specialists.
- ▶ The breakdown by position is fairly consistent with last year's opening-day roster. The position groups that are different this season compared to last year are running back (two in 2010, three in 2011), fullback (three in 2010, one in 2011), tight end (four in 2010, five in 2011), offensive line (10 in 2010, eight in 2011) and linebacker (eight in 2010, 10 in 2011).
- ▶ Of the 53 players on Green Bay's roster, 34 of them (64.2 percent) were drafted by the Packers, and 41 of them (77.4 percent) played in a game for the Packers in 2010.
- ▶ Seven of the team's draft picks from 2011 made the 53-man roster. For the second straight season, three non-drafted free agents (S M.D. Jennings, LB Jamari Lattimore and LB Vic So'oto) also made the final roster.
- ▶ The 10 rookies on the team are the only ones yet to play in an NFL regular-season game.
- ▶ More than half the players (27) on Green Bay's roster entered the league as a sixth-round or seventh-round pick or as an undrafted player.
- ▶ Of the 53 players on the roster, 47 of them (88.7 percent) are 28 years old or younger.

AT THE HELM

Having led Green Bay to the playoffs in three of his five seasons as head coach, Mike McCarthy joined Vince Lombardi and Mike Holmgren as the only coaches to guide the Packers to the Super Bowl.

- ▶ McCarthy led the Packers to a Super Bowl win in his fifth season in Green Bay, the same point that Holmgren led the Packers for the first time to the NFL title game in 1996.
- ▶ McCarthy joined Pittsburgh's Bill Cowher (2005) as the only Super Bowl-winning coaches to lead their respective teams to three road wins as the No. 6 seed in the postseason en route to a world title.

- ▶ The Packers' 21-14 win at Chicago was their second NFC Championship Game appearance in four seasons, the only team in the conference to do so over that span.
- ▶ Including playoffs, McCarthy guided the Packers to a 25-12 mark (.676) over the past two seasons. Green Bay's 25 victories ranked No. 3 in the NFL over that span behind only New Orleans (27) and Indianapolis (26).
- ▶ That included 11 wins on the road, which was tied for No. 3 in the league since 2009.
- ▶ Since taking over as head coach in 2006, McCarthy has a 53-34 overall record (.609), which includes a 5-2 mark (.714) in the postseason.
- ▶ McCarthy's .714 winning percentage in the playoffs is tied for No. 1 among active NFL head coaches, matching the mark of New England's Bill Belichick (15-6) and Pittsburgh's Mike Tomlin (5-2). McCarthy trails only the legendary Vince Lombardi (9-1, .900) for the top postseason winning percentage in franchise annals. With the five postseason wins, McCarthy trails only Lombardi and Holmgren (nine each) for the most in Packers history.
- ▶ The Packers have a 21-9 (.700) regular-season record against NFC North opponents under McCarthy, a divisional record that ranks first among NFC teams over that period and tied for No. 4 in the NFL behind only New England and San Diego (23-7, .767) and Indianapolis (22-8, .733).
- ▶ Green Bay posted a 4-2 record in the NFC North in 2010, the fifth straight season under McCarthy that the Packers won at least four contests in their division. The Packers and New England were the only NFL teams to post four-plus wins in their division each year from 2006-10.

PRODUCTION ON BOTH SIDES OF THE BALL IN 2010

Green Bay was one of four teams in the NFL to have both the offense (No. 9) and defense (No. 5) rank among the league's top 10 in 2010. It was the second straight year the Packers had both units finish in the top 10 with the 2009 team featuring the No. 6 offense and the No. 2 defense, and it marked the first time Green Bay had accomplished that feat since 1997-98.

- ▶ Green Bay's offense ranked among the league's top 10 for the fifth consecutive season and posted its most prolific performance against the Giants in Week 16 when it recorded a season-high 515 yards, the highest total since the Packers registered 548 at Oakland on Dec. 22, 2003.
- ▶ Despite missing the Week 15 contest at New England due to a concussion, QB Aaron Rodgers finished among the top 10 in nearly every significant passing category for the second straight season.
- ▶ Rodgers spread the ball around, with three wide receivers hitting the 50-catch mark for the first time in franchise history. Greg Jennings (76), Donald Driver (51) and James Jones (50) all posted 50 receptions on the season as the Packers were one of only five NFL teams in 2010 to have three WRs with 50-plus receptions.
- ▶ On the other side of the ball, the Packers posted their best scoring-defense mark since the Super Bowl champion team of 1996 (13.1 ppg). Green Bay finished No. 2 in the league by giving up 15.0 points per game, trailing only Pittsburgh (14.5), highlighted by three games where the Packers' opponent did not get into the end zone.
- ▶ The Packers also posted 47 sacks, the most by a Green Bay defense since the 2001 team registered 52. With the 47 sacks, the Packers finished tied for No. 2 in the NFL behind only Pittsburgh (48), the highest ranking in the category in franchise history.
- ▶ Green Bay finished No. 6 in the NFL with 32 takeaways, including 24 interceptions (No. 2). It was the second straight 30-plus takeaway season for the Packers, the first time they had accomplished that feat since 2002-03.

- ▶ These clubs launched their series in 1968, when former Vince Lombardi assistants Phil Bengston (Packers) and Tom Fears (Saints) met in Milwaukee. The Packers, one year after winning Super Bowl II, defeated the second-year Saints, 29-7. Fears, who coached Super Bowl I hero Max McGee with the Packers from 1962-65, was New Orleans' first head coach.

PACKERS VS. SAINTS - WEEK 1

KEEPING THEM OUT

Having finished No. 2 in the league's final overall yardage rankings and No. 7 in points allowed in 2009, the Green Bay defense enjoyed an even more productive year when it came to keeping opponents off the scoreboard in 2010.

- ▶ The Packers ranked No. 2 in the league in scoring defense, allowing the opposition an average of just 15.0 points per game, as they trailed only Pittsburgh (14.5) in the category.
- ▶ During the postseason, Green Bay allowed just 19.0 points per game, No. 1 among playoff teams that played two or more games.
- ▶ Including their 21-14 win at Chicago in the NFC Championship Game, the Packers allowed 17 or fewer points in 11 of 20 games last season.
- ▶ In three of the Packers' playoff wins last season, they held their opponents under their regular-season scoring average. The Eagles (No. 3 at 27.4 ppg) posted just 16 points, the Falcons (No. 5 at 25.9 ppg) scored 21 points, while the Bears registered 14 (No. 21 at 20.9). Pittsburgh posted 25 points in Super Bowl XLV, just a shade above its average of 23.4 ppg during the regular season.
- ▶ Green Bay allowed just 24 TDs last season, the fewest by the Packers since 19 in 1996, and that total was No. 2 in the NFL behind only the Steelers (22).
- ▶ The No. 2 scoring ranking this season was the Packers' best mark since they finished No. 1 in the league in that category during the 1996 Super Bowl season (13.1 per game).
- ▶ In the final nine regular-season games, the Packers gave up 11.6 points per contest, including five games where they held their opponents to seven points or less. In Week 15, they allowed a season-high 31 points against a New England team that finished No. 1 in the NFL in scoring offense at 32.4 per game, but 14 of those points came courtesy of an INT return for a TD as well as a long kickoff return that put New England at Green Bay's 4-yard line.
- ▶ Green Bay finished No. 5 in the NFL in overall defense, allowing an average of 309.1 yards per game, and No. 5 in the league in passing defense at 194.2 yards per game.
- ▶ With the No. 5 ranking this season and a No. 2 ranking in 2009, the Packers finished in the top five in overall defense in consecutive seasons for the first time since 1968-69.
- ▶ In four playoff contests, the Packers allowed 308.5 yards per game, including just 194 total yards to Atlanta in the Divisional contest. That was the fewest yards allowed by Green Bay in a playoff game since Dec. 31, 1994, vs. Detroit (171 yards).
- ▶ After leading the NFL in run defense for the first time in 2009 by allowing a franchise-record 83.3 yards per game, the Packers weren't quite as productive against the run as they finished No. 18 in the league with 114.9 yards allowed per game last season.
- ▶ Green Bay allowed just six rushing TDs all year, which ranked No. 3 in the NFL. The Packers' 11 rushing TDs given up over the past two seasons were the fewest in a two-year span in team history.
- ▶ The Packers gave up just 83.8 yards per game on the ground in the postseason, and limited Falcons Pro Bowl RB Michael Turner to only 39 yards on 10 carries in the Divisional win on Jan. 15, a yardage total that matched his season low.
- ▶ Until Vikings RB Adrian Peterson rushed for 131 yards in Week 7, Green Bay's defense hadn't allowed a running back to rush for 100 yards for 19 straight games. Peterson and Turner (Week 12, 2010) are the only backs to eclipse 100 yards vs. Green Bay since Week 3 of 2009.
- ▶ The 19-game streak was the second longest in team history since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger, trailing only a 24-game game stretch from Sept. 20, 1970-Nov. 22, 1971.
- ▶ The defense limited the Eagles to a season-low 82 yards on 21 carries

- (3.9 avg.) in the Wild Card victory. Philadelphia was the only team in the league this season to average at least 4 yards per carry in all 16 games.
- ▶ Under defensive coordinator Dom Capers, the Packers thrived in their new 3-4 scheme in 2009, finishing No. 1 against the run and No. 5 against the pass. The previous top ranking in franchise history in run defense came in 1972, when the team finished No. 2.
 - ▶ Green Bay allowed an average of 284.4 total yards per game in '09, second behind the N.Y. Jets (252.3) and ahead of No. 3 Baltimore (300.5).

PACKERS VS. SAINTS - WEEK 1

UNDER PRESSURE

The Packers matched their season high with six sacks in the regular-season finale against Chicago, a fitting end to a 2010 campaign that saw them have their most productive year in the category since 2001.

- ▶ With 47 sacks as a team, Green Bay was tied for No. 2 in the NFL behind only Pittsburgh (48), and the Packers finished No. 1 in the league in sack yardage with 333.
- ▶ The Packers' No. 2 finish in the league was the best mark in franchise history since sacks began to be recorded as a team stat in 1963. The previous high ranking in sacks for Green Bay was No. 3, a spot held before on three occasions (1965, 1966, 2001).
- ▶ The team had 15 different players record at least a half-sack on the season, the most by the Packers since sacks became an official individual statistic in 1982 (excluding the 1987 season when replacement players contributed to a total of 17). Green Bay's total of 15 players was tied for No. 3 in the the NFL last season behind only San Diego (18) and New England (16).
- ▶ Green Bay's six-sack performance in Week 17 against the Bears was the Packers' sixth game with four-plus sacks on the season. That was the most by a Green Bay team since the 2006 team also posted six four-sack games. The Packers went 5-1 in those four-sack games in 2010.
- ▶ Since Dom Capers took over as defensive coordinator in 2009, the Packers have registered 84 sacks as a team in the regular season. That ranks tied for No. 2 in the NFL over that span behind only Pittsburgh (95) and is the best two-year total by Green Bay since it registered 95 from 2001-02.

MAKING THEM PAY AFTER TAKING IT AWAY

After tying for the league lead in points off of takeaways in 2009, the Packers continued that productivity once again last season.

- ▶ Green Bay finished No. 5 in the NFL with 111 points off of takeaways last season, the Packers' third straight top-5 ranking in the category. The Packers are the only team in the NFL to finish in the top 5 in points off of takeaways in each of the last three seasons.
- ▶ The Packers have been especially productive at Lambeau Field, having scored points off a turnover in 16 of their last 18 home games.
- ▶ Green Bay posted a plus-10 turnover ratio on the season (No. 4 in NFL).
- ▶ Of the Packers' 32 takeaways last season, 15 of them were converted into touchdowns. That 46.9 TD percentage ranked No. 4 in the NFL, and Green Bay's 15 TDs off of takeaways were tied for No. 2 in the league behind New England (18).
- ▶ Green Bay averaged 3.47 points off of turnovers in 2010, good for No. 8 in the league.
- ▶ The Packers have posted at least three INTs for TDs in each of the last three seasons. That is the first time in franchise history that Green Bay has accomplished that feat. The Packers have posted at least three INTs for TDs in four of five seasons under Head Coach Mike McCarthy.
- ▶ The Packers had 11 different players post an interception in 2010, the most since they registered the same number in 2002.
- ▶ In Green Bay's 48-21 win at Atlanta in the Divisional contest, the defense posted four takeaways, the most by the Packers in a postseason game since they recorded the same number vs. New England in Super Bowl XXXI.
- ▶ Green Bay led playoff teams with 48 points off of turnovers in the post-season. Of the Packers' 11 takeaways, six of them (54.5 percent) were converted into touchdowns.
- ▶ Those 48 points off of takeaways were the most by an NFL team in a single postseason since Dallas posted the same number in the 1992 playoffs.

- ▶ Green Bay posted 30 INTs and 10 fumble recoveries in 2009, which it turned into 141 points. The 40 takeaways led the NFL, and the 141 points scored off those takeaways tied New Orleans for most in the NFL.
- ▶ The 30 interceptions led the league and was the team's highest single-season total since 1981, when it also had 30.
- ▶ During McCarthy's tenure, the Packers have a 36-6 (.857) regular-season record when they come out ahead in the game in turnover ratio, and a 6-20 (.231) record when they lose the takeaway battle. Under McCarthy, Green Bay is 20-3 (.870) when its turnover margin is plus-2 or better.
- ▶ The Packers rank No. 2 in the NFL with a plus-45 turnover ratio since 2006 behind only New England (plus-59).

Turnover Margin	GB Record Since 2006
minus-3 or worse	0-2 (.000)
minus-2	1-7 (.125)
minus-1	5-11 (.313)
even	6-6 (.500)
plus-1	16-3 (.842)
plus-2	9-1 (.900)
plus-3 or more	11-2 (.846)

GETTING WHAT YOU EMPHASIZE

Green Bay's defense was at its best in 2010 when it was placed in adverse situations and forced to respond.

- ▶ The Packers turned the ball over 22 times on the season, and the defense showed significant improvement from 2009 in not allowing those giveaways to be converted into touchdowns.
- ▶ Opponents scored just 39 points (six field goals, three TDs) following the 22 takeaways in 2010, an average of 1.77 points per giveaway. That average ranked No. 4 in the NFL, and the Packers' three TDs off of giveaways were tied for No. 2 in the NFL.
- ▶ The Packers' average of 1.77 points off of giveaways was the best mark by Green Bay since 1.70 in 2000. The defense allowed five TDs on 33 giveaways that season.
- ▶ Green Bay had not given up a touchdown all season off a turnover until the Falcons drove for a score following QB Aaron Rodgers' fumble in Week 12 at Atlanta.
- ▶ The defense didn't get a chance to keep the Patriots out of the end zone after QB Matt Flynn's third-quarter interception at New England in Week 15, as CB Kyle Arrington returned it 36 yards for a touchdown.
- ▶ According to STATS LLC, the three TDs allowed were the fewest given up by Green Bay since the statistic began to be recorded in 1995.
- ▶ Although the Packers led the league in 2009 with 16 giveaways, a franchise record for fewest in a season, opponents were able to convert those turnovers into 70 points. The average of 4.38 points allowed per giveaway was the highest in the NFL.
- ▶ Another aspect of the defense that the Packers made strides last season was limiting opponents when they got inside the 20-yard line, an area of emphasis after some struggles in 2009.
- ▶ In 2009, the Packers ranked No. 28 in the league in red-zone defense, allowing opponents to score touchdowns on 60.9 percent of trips inside the 20.
- ▶ The Packers jumped 16 places in the league rankings in 2010, finishing No. 12 in the NFL in red-zone defense. Green Bay allowed its opponents to get into the end zone just 48.4 percent of the time (15 TDs on 31 opportunities) after penetrating the 20-yard line in 2010.
- ▶ Green Bay gave up an average of 4.45 points per opponent red-zone trip in 2010, which ranked No. 12 in the NFL. The Packers ranked No. 21 in the league (4.72) in the category in 2009.

PACKERS VS. SAINTS - WEEK 1

FINDING HIS WAY TO THE QUARTERBACK

Despite sitting out Green Bay's Week 6 matchup last season vs. Miami due to a hamstring injury, the first time he missed a game in his career, LB Clay Matthews finished No. 2 in the NFC and No. 4 in the NFL with 13.5 sacks in 2010.

- ▶ Matthews was named to his second straight Pro Bowl last season and was named NFL Defensive MVP by Pro Football Weekly/PFWA. He also earned NFC Defensive Player of the Year recognition from Sporting News and the Committee of 101.
- ▶ He received first-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press, the first Packer LB to earn that recognition since Tim Harris in 1989. Matthews finished second to only Pittsburgh S Troy Polamalu in the AP Defensive Player of the Year voting.
- ▶ With a sack of QB Jon Kitna in the second quarter in Week 9 against Dallas, Matthews became the first Packer since the stat became official in 1982 to register a double-digit sack total in each of his first two seasons in the NFL.
- ▶ Matthews also posted his first career interception in Week 9, and returned the pick 62 yards for a TD on his way to earning NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the third time in his career. It was the second TD of his career, and both of his scores have come in prime-time games. Matthews returned a fumble 42 yards for a TD in 2009 at Minnesota (Week 4) on Monday Night Football.
- ▶ According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Matthews became the first NFL player since sacks became an official statistic in 1982 to register double-digit sacks and a defensive TD in each of his first two seasons in the NFL.
- ▶ With three sacks against the Buffalo Bills in Week 2, Matthews became the first Packer to post three sacks in back-to-back games since it became an official league statistic in 1982.
- ▶ The performance vs. Buffalo came a week after Matthews registered a career-high three sacks in the Packers' 27-20 season-opening victory at Philadelphia.
- ▶ Matthews was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for Week 2, and he also won the award last season for his two-sack outing vs. Baltimore in Week 13 on MNF.
- ▶ Matthews' six sacks in the first two games were the most ever by a Packer to start a season.
- ▶ Matthews' six sacks over a two-game span rank second in team history behind only Bryce Paup, who recorded 6.5 sacks in Weeks 3-4 in 1991. Paup posted 4.5 sacks vs. Tampa Bay on Sept. 15, and then followed that up with two more the next week at Miami on Sept. 22.
- ▶ His 33 sack yards vs. Buffalo were the most by a Packer since DE Reggie White's 35 on two sacks vs. Minnesota on Oct. 22, 1995. Matthews ranked No. 2 in the league with 93.5 sack yards on the season, trailing only Dallas LB DeMarcus Ware (110.5).
- ▶ Matthews forced two fumbles in 2010, including a strip of RB Brandon Jacobs that halted a Giants' drive with New York trailing 31-17 in the third quarter in Week 16.
- ▶ With two sacks of Falcons QB Matt Ryan in the Divisional contest, Matthews became the first player in team history (since 1982) to post at least one sack in each of his first three career postseason games. With 4.5 career sacks in the postseason, Matthews already ranks No. 2 in team playoff annals behind only DE Reggie White (eight).
- ▶ Matthews' 3.5 sacks last postseason were the most in franchise history (since 1982) in a single postseason.
- ▶ In 31 career regular-season games played, Matthews has posted two or more sacks in a game five times. All five of those two-sack games came in Matthews' first 18 games in a Packers uniform, breaking White's franchise mark of four in his first 18 games with Green Bay (1993-94).
- ▶ Matthews' 17 sacks in his first 20 games were the most ever by any NFL player to start a career. It topped the previous mark of 16.5 set by San Diego's Leslie O'Neal (1986, 1988) and the N.Y. Jets' John Abraham (2000-01).

- ▶ In 2009, Matthews set a Packers rookie record with 10 sacks on his way to earning Pro Bowl honors, the first Green Bay rookie to be named to the all-star game since Hall of Fame WR James Lofton in 1978.
- ▶ Here is a look at some of Matthews' numbers since entering the league in 2009:

Green Bay had its most productive season defending the pass under Head Coach Mike McCarthy in 2010, finishing near the top of the league in several categories.

- ▶ The Packers allowed their opponents just 194.2 passing yards per game, which topped Green Bay's best mark under McCarthy. It was ahead of the 201.1 passing yards per game allowed in 2009, and was the best since 2005 (167.5).

PACKERS VS. SAINTS - WEEK 1

TAKEAWAY TRIO

Leading the way when it comes to interceptions the past few seasons for Green Bay has been the defensive-back trio of CBs Charles Woodson and Tramon Williams and S Nick Collins.

- ▶ Woodson is No. 3 among all NFL players since 2008 with 18 interceptions behind only Eagles CB Asante Samuel and Ravens S Ed Reed (20 each), with Collins tied for the No. 4 position with 17 over that span. Williams is tied for No. 6 in the league with 15 INTs since 2008.
- ▶ The Green Bay threesome's combined totals of 50 INTs and 1,094 INT return yards rank No. 1 in the NFL among teammate trios.
- ▶ Collins ranks No. 2 among all NFL players (Reed, 558) with 439 interception return yards since '08, and Woodson inched closer with his 48-yard INT return for a TD vs. Detroit in Week 4. He sits in the No. 3 spot in the league, checking in with 396 INT return yards over the past three seasons. Williams ranks No. 8 with 259 return yards since '08.
- ▶ Collins has some work to do if he hopes to keep up with Woodson's pace of return TDs. Woodson leads the league since 2008 with six INT returns for touchdowns, with Collins tied for the No. 5 spot with three scores.
- ▶ The Packers ranked No. 2 in the NFL with 24 interceptions last season, and Green Bay's 54 interceptions over the past two seasons are the most in franchise history over a two-year period since the Packers recorded the same number from 1966-67.
- ▶ Woodson, Collins and Williams have helped put the Packers at or near the top of the leaderboard in all four interception categories since 2008:

THE PRODUCTION CONTINUES

CB Charles Woodson enjoyed the finest season of his career in 2009, his first year in the 3-4 scheme, and made his presence felt once again in 2010.

- ▶ Woodson finished No. 3 on the team with a career-high 105 tackles (79 solo) last season, easily eclipsing his previous career best of 81 tackles set in 2009.
- ▶ He led the Packers with a career-high five forced fumbles in 2010, his second straight season with four-plus. He is the only defensive back in the NFL to register four forced fumbles each of the past two seasons.
- ▶ Woodson is the only Packers defensive back since 1994 to record four forced fumbles in a season, and he has done it twice. His five forced fumbles in 2010 were the most by a Packer defender since LB/DE Keith McKenzie posted five in 1999.

- ▶ He was named to his seventh Pro Bowl in 2010, his third straight in a Green Bay uniform.
- ▶ Woodson achieved the highest individual honor bestowed upon a defensive player, taking home The Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year award in 2009. He also was named an AP first-team All-Pro.
- ▶ His 48-yard interception return for a touchdown in the third quarter against Detroit last season in Week 4 was his eighth career with the Packers, which set a franchise record. He had been tied with Hall of Fame CB Herb Adderley (seven, 1961-69) for the team mark.
- ▶ It was also Woodson's ninth defensive TD (eight INTs, one fumble return) in a Green Bay uniform, which further extended his franchise record.
- ▶ The touchdown gave Woodson 10 interception returns for touchdowns in his career (two with Oakland), which moved him up in the NFL record books as he became just the third player in league history to post 10 career interception returns for touchdowns. He now trails only Rod Woodson (12) and Darren Sharper (11).
- ▶ Woodson has returned an INT for a touchdown in five straight seasons, all five of his years in Green Bay (2006-10), becoming the first player in NFL history to do so in five consecutive seasons.
- ▶ The score in Week 4 was also the third straight year that Woodson has returned an INT for a TD against Detroit. He became the first player in NFL history to return an interception for a TD in three consecutive seasons against the same team.
- ▶ Woodson registered two sacks in 2010, his third straight season with two-plus sacks. He became only the second defensive back in franchise history to accomplish that feat, joining S LeRoy Butler (1996-98).
- ▶ In 2009, Woodson became the fourth player in NFL history since sacks became an official statistic to record at least nine interceptions and two sacks in a single season. Woodson also led the Packers with four forced fumbles.
- ▶ There's no doubt Woodson's career has undergone a revitalization since coming to Green Bay. He now has 47 career interceptions, which is tied for third among active NFL players. Of his interceptions, 30 have come in 78 games with Green Bay. In 106 games with the Raiders, he had 17.

PACKERS VS. SAINTS - WEEK 1

TAKING HIS PLACE AMONG THE GAME'S BEST

With 35 passing attempts at Atlanta last season in Week 12, QB Aaron Rodgers surpassed the 1,500-attempt plateau for his career, the benchmark to qualify for career passer rating in the NFL record book.

- ▶ Rodgers has completed 1,038-of-1,611 passes (64.4 percent) in his career for 12,723 yards and 87 touchdowns with 32 interceptions for a 98.4 passer rating in the regular season.
- ▶ That rating ranks No. 1 in NFL history, ahead of San Diego QB Philip Rivers, who has a 97.2 career rating.
- ▶ Four of the top five rated passers in NFL history are active quarterbacks, with Steve Young (96.8), Tony Romo (95.5) and Tom Brady (95.2) rounding out the top five.
- ▶ With a passer rating of 101.2 in 2010, Rodgers became the first quarterback in franchise history to record a 100-plus passer rating in back-to-back seasons (103.2 in 2009).
- ▶ Rodgers joined Rivers as the only NFL signal-callers to register a 100-plus rating in each of the past two seasons, and Rodgers' combined rating of 102.3 in 2009-10 ranked No. 3 in the league behind Brady (103.1) and Rivers (103.0).
- ▶ Having missed the Week 15 game at New England and half of the previous game at Detroit due to a concussion, Rodgers fell 78 yards shy of his third straight 4,000-yard season.
- ▶ With 3,922 passing yards last season, Rodgers brought his total in three seasons as a starter to 12,394. That ranked No. 2 in NFL history behind only Kurt Warner (12,612, 1999-2001) for the most passing yards by a QB in his first three seasons as a starter.
- ▶ Rodgers completed 312-of-475 passes on the season, a 65.7 completion percentage that ranked No. 2 in team history behind only Brett Favre's 66.5 mark in 2007.
- ▶ Rodgers has thrown just 31 interceptions in his three seasons as a starter, a 2.0 interception percentage that leads the league over that span among quarterbacks with 40 or more starts.
- ▶ Rodgers also ranks No. 1 in NFL history (min. 1,500 attempts) in career interception percentage at 2.0, ahead of Neil O'Donnell (2.1) and Brady (2.2).
- ▶ Rodgers finished in the top 10 in nearly every major passing category again in 2010, despite missing the Week 15 contest at New England. He finished No. 3 in passer rating (101.2), No. 7 in yards (3,922), tied for No. 6 in TDs (28), and No. 2 in 25-yard passes (40).
- ▶ Rodgers threw four TD passes at Minnesota in Week 11, his regular-season career high. His passer rating of 141.3 (22-of-31, 301 yards), was the second-best single-game mark in his career behind only a 155.4 rating at Cleveland on Oct. 25, 2009.
- ▶ Rodgers joined Eagles QB Michael Vick (at Washington, Nov. 15) and Brady (at Detroit, Nov. 25, vs. N.Y. Jets, Dec. 6) as the only QBs to post a 140-plus passer rating, 300 yards passing and four passing TDs in a game in 2010.
- ▶ He matched that career-best TD total with four against the Giants in Week 16, and his 404 yards passing were a regular-season career best. It was the 10th game in which he had three-or-more TD passes and no INTs, the most by an NFL quarterback within three seasons of his first NFL start. It topped Warner's mark of nine from 1999-2001.
- ▶ In 2009, Rodgers threw for 4,434 yards as he became the first QB in NFL history to throw for more than 4,000 yards in each of his first two seasons as a starter.
- ▶ In 2009, Rodgers joined Young (San Francisco, 1998) as the only quarterbacks in NFL history to throw for 4,000 yards and 30 TDs and rush for 300 yards and five TDs in the same season.
- ▶ In 47 regular-season career starts, Rodgers has eclipsed the century mark in passer rating 25 times and recorded 14 games of 300-plus yards. He posted his 20th career 100-plus passer rating game in just his 36th career start, which ranks third among NFL QBs since 1970 behind only Warner (33) and Romo (34).
- ▶ Rodgers threw 70 TD passes in his first 40 career starts, a Packers franchise record.

THIRD DOWN IS THE CHARM

No quarterback has been more efficient than Rodgers on third down since 2009, and after a slow start in 2010, he picked up his play in that area.

- ▶ Over the final seven games in 2010 (missed Week 15 at New England), Rodgers was No. 2 in the NFL with a 133.7 passer rating on third down, trailing only Brady (136.3) over that span.
- ▶ That came on the heels of a 65.7 passer rating for Rodgers on third down in the first eight games as he connected on just 38-of-73 passes (52.1 percent) for five TDs with five INTs, and an average of 6.22 yards per attempt.
- ▶ In '09, Rodgers ranked No. 1 in the NFL in passer rating on third down at 133.5. No other quarterback in the league threw for as many yards (1,710) or touchdowns (14) on third down as Rodgers, and his passer rating was the best in the NFL since Kurt Warner's 137.3 rating in 1999 with St. Louis.

PACKERS VS. SAINTS - WEEK 1

JENNINGS CLOSES WITH A FLURRY

After getting off to a slower start in 2010, Greg Jennings was one of the most productive receivers in the NFL over the final 11 games on his way to earning Pro Bowl recognition for the first time in his career.

▶ Having posted 14 receptions for 183 yards (13.0 avg.) and three TDs in the opening five contests, Jennings registered 1,082 yards and nine TDs on 62 receptions (17.5 avg.) in the final 11 games, an average of 98.4 receiving yards per contest. A look at where Jennings ranked in the NFL over the last 11 weeks of the 2010 season:

Player	Receiving Yards
1. Greg Jennings, GB	1,082
2. Mike Wallace, PIT	1,046
3. Dwayne Bowe, KC	1,010

Player	Receiving Yards Per Game
1. Greg Jennings, GB	98.4
2. Andre Johnson, HOU	96.2
3. Mike Wallace, PIT	87.2

Player	Receiving TDs
1. Dwayne Bowe, KC	14
2. Greg Jennings, GB	9
3. Seven players	8

- ▶ Jennings finished the season tied for No. 2 in the NFL with 12 TD receptions, which matched his career high set in 2007. He checked in at No. 4 in the league and No. 2 in the NFC with 1,265 receiving yards.
- ▶ He registered 122 yards on six receptions, including a 57-yard TD catch vs. the 49ers in Week 13. It was his third straight 100-yard game, only the second time in his career (Weeks 2-4, 2008) he has accomplished that feat.
- ▶ Jennings posted a career-high three TD receptions in Green Bay's 31-3 win at Minnesota in Week 11, becoming the first Packer since WR Javon Walker (Sept. 26, 2004) to record three TD catches in a game.
- ▶ He caught seven passes for 152 yards in the game, with the yardage total the second-best single-game mark of his five-year career behind only a 167-yard outing at Detroit on Sept. 14, 2008. The performance at Minnesota earned him NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors for the first time in his career.
- ▶ Jennings became just the third Packer in team history to post seven catches/150 yards receiving/three receiving TDs in the same game, joining Walker (Sept. 26, 2004) and WR Antonio Freeman (Dec. 20, 1998).
- ▶ He was one of only three NFL players in 2010 (Tennessee's Kenny Britt, Oct. 24; Kansas City's Dwayne Bowe, Nov. 28) to post seven catches/150 receiving yards/three TD catches in a game.
- ▶ The Minnesota game in Week 11 was Jennings' fifth straight with six or more receptions as he became the first Packer since WR Sterling Sharpe in 1993 to post six or more catches in five straight games.
- ▶ With his 1-yard TD catch at New England in Week 15, Jennings became just the fourth player in team history (Sharpe, Freeman, Billy Howton) to catch at least 12 TD passes in a season twice in a Packers uniform.
- ▶ Jennings' 86-yard score against Miami in Week 6 marked a career long for both him and QB Aaron Rodgers, and it was the longest reception by a Green Bay player since WR Robert Brooks hauled in a 99-yard TD from QB Brett Favre at Chicago on Sept. 11, 1995, on Monday Night Football. WR Donald Driver had a 90-yard TD grab in the 2007 NFC Championship Game on Jan. 20, 2008.
- ▶ Jennings' 86-yard reception was the longest play from scrimmage by a Packer since RB Ahman Green's 90-yard TD run vs. Dallas on Oct. 24, 2004.
- ▶ It was the fourth 80-yard reception of Jennings' career, moving him into the No. 1 spot in the franchise record books ahead of Driver (3).

- ▶ Among NFL players with 70-plus receptions in 2010, Jennings ranked No. 2 in the NFL in receiving average at 16.6 yards per catch, trailing only Denver's Brandon Lloyd (18.8).
- ▶ When it comes to scoring passes, Jennings has an eye-popping average during his career. Of his 40 career touchdown catches in the regular season, 16 (40.0 percent) have been at least 40 yards in length. He has a staggering average of 31.5 yards per TD catch, which ranks No. 1 among current players with at least 30 career touchdown catches.

PACKERS VS. SAINTS - WEEK 1

COOL UNDER FIRE

Rodgers was one of the most effective passers in the league in 2009 against the blitz, and that strong play continued last season.

- ▶ According to STATS, Rodgers ranked No. 1 in the league last season (min. 100 attempts) with a 104.5 passer rating against the blitz, completing 111-of-167 attempts (66.5 percent) for 1,503 yards and 11 touchdowns with five interceptions.
- ▶ Last season, Rodgers ranked No. 2 in the NFL with a 112.7 rating, just a shade below Saints QB Drew Brees' 112.9 mark. Rodgers threw for 1,699 yards and 11 TDs with three INTs on 125-of-180 passing (69.4 percent).
- ▶ Over the past two seasons, Rodgers ranks No. 1 in the league (min. 200 attempts) with a 108.7 passer rating vs. the blitz.

MAKING PLAYS ANOTHER WAY

While Rodgers continued to rank among the league's top passers again in 2010, it wasn't the only aspect of his game on display.

- ▶ Rodgers posted a career-high 356 rushing yards on 64 attempts (5.6 avg.) in 2010, despite missing one contest due to injury. He went over the 300-yard mark for the season in the Week 14 contest at Detroit to become the first Packers quarterback since Tobin Rote (1954-56) to record back-to-back 300-yard rushing seasons.
- ▶ Rodgers posted his fourth rushing TD of the season at Atlanta in Week 12, making him just the second QB in franchise annals to record four-plus rushing TDs in three straight seasons (Rote, 1954-56).
- ▶ His 51 rushing yards on 12 carries against the Falcons in Week 12 was just a yard shy of his career high, a 52-yard outing vs. Minnesota last season (Nov. 1, 2009). He was one of only seven quarterbacks to post 50 rushing yards in a game in 2010.
- ▶ Rodgers became the first NFL quarterback to post four-plus rushing TDs in three consecutive seasons since Minnesota's Daunte Culpepper (2000-03) accomplished that feat in four straight seasons.
- ▶ Since 2009, Rodgers ranks No. 2 among QBs in rushing yards (672), No. 2 in rushing TDs (nine), and No. 1 in 10-yard runs (30).
- ▶ Of his 122 rushing attempts since 2009, nearly a quarter (30) have been for 10 or more yards. He posted a 10-yard run in 11 of 15 starts in 2010, and in 22 of his last 31 contests.
- ▶ In 2009, Rodgers finished No. 2 among all NFL quarterbacks (David Garrard, 323) with 316 rushing yards, the most by a Green Bay QB since Don Majkowski posted 358 yards on the ground in 1989.
- ▶ Rodgers also led all NFL signal-callers with five rushing touchdowns in '09, the most by a Packers QB since Majkowski's five in '89.
- ▶ A look at where Rodgers ranked among NFL quarterbacks in 2010:

PACKERS VS. SAINTS - WEEK 1

NOT IN A GIVING MOOD

- In 2009, the Packers set a franchise mark with a league-low 16 giveaways, and while the team had 22 (No. 10 in the NFL) in 2010, it also did something that even the record-setting one could not.
- ▶ In five games from Oct. 31-Dec. 5, Green Bay turned the ball over just one time. That came at Atlanta in Week 12 when QB Aaron Rodgers fumbled at the goal line in the second quarter.
 - ▶ According to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the first time in franchise history that the Packers turned the ball over just one time over a five-game span in a single season.
 - ▶ In the Week 13 win over San Francisco, Rodgers did not throw an INT for the fifth straight game, his career high. The last Packers QB to not be picked off in five straight starts in a season was Bart Starr in 1966.
 - ▶ Rodgers was intercepted in Week 14 at Detroit when a deep pass down the middle went off the hands of WR Greg Jennings and into S Amari Spivey's. That snapped a streak of 181 attempts without an interception for Rodgers, good for No. 2 in franchise history. It put him behind only Bart Starr (294 in 1964-65) for the franchise record. Starr's mark ranks No. 3 in NFL history.
 - ▶ The 22 giveaways on the season brought the Packers' three-year total (2008-10) to just 59 turnovers. That is the fewest over a three-year span by the Packers since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978, besting the previous mark of 67 from 1994-96.
 - ▶ If the Packers don't commit a turnover, they're almost guaranteed to win. They have now won 44 of 48 games (.917) playing turnover-free football since a loss at Dallas, Nov. 18, 1996. Green Bay's only losses in such games during that stretch came three times against Minnesota, twice in Minneapolis (2005, '08) and once at home (2009), and in Week 15 last year at Pittsburgh.
 - ▶ Green Bay is 20-3 (.870) in the regular season under Head Coach Mike McCarthy when it doesn't commit a turnover.
 - ▶ Including playoffs, the Packers have won 48 of their last 52 games when they don't turn the ball over.

Giveaways in game	GB Record Since 2006
None	20-3 (.870)
One	12-8 (.600)
Two	11-11 (.500)
Three-plus	5-10 (.333)

SOLID DEBUT

- In 2010, Tim Masthay posted one of the finest seasons by a Green Bay punter in recent memory in his first NFL season, highlighted by a very productive stretch to end the year.
- ▶ Over the final nine games, Masthay ranked No. 3 in the NFL in net average (39.9), No. 9 in gross average (44.2), and tied for No. 4 in punts inside the 20 (20) over that span.
 - ▶ He recorded a 50.3-yard gross average on his eight punts against the Lions at Ford Field in Week 14, as well as a season-high net average of 43.4 (min. three attempts).
 - ▶ According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Masthay became the first punter in franchise history to post a 50-yard average in a game with eight or more attempts.
 - ▶ He posted four punts of 50-plus yards on the afternoon, including a career-long 62-yard kick in the first quarter.
 - ▶ Masthay became the first Packers punter to register four 50-yard punts in the same game since Jon Ryan did so on Nov. 12, 2006, at the Metrodome against the Vikings.
 - ▶ Masthay earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for his - performance at the N.Y. Jets in Week 8 as he became just the second punter in franchise history to win the honor (Craig Hentrich, Week 11, 1994).

- ▶ With five punts placed inside the 20 against the Jets, Masthay tied a single-game franchise record (stat kept since 1976), tying David Beverly, who accomplished the feat on Oct. 8, 1978, against Chicago. He registered a 41.5-yard net average on eight punts.
 - ▶ In three Lambeau Field games in Dec./Jan., Masthay recorded a 36.8-yard net average and a 42.3 gross.
 - ▶ Facing Bears Pro Bowl returner Devin Hester in Week 17, who finished the season with the best mark in NFL history (min. 30 attempts) at 17.1 yards per punt return, Masthay placed four of eight punts inside the 20 and recorded a 36.6-yard net average. Hester only had two punt returns on the afternoon for a total of 35 yards.
 - ▶ Masthay became the first Packers punter (since 1976) to place four-plus punts inside the 20 in two games in the same season.
 - ▶ In the NFC Championship Game at Chicago, Masthay tied the franchise playoff record (since 1976) with five punts inside the 20, matching Craig Hentrich's mark set at San Francisco on Jan. 11, 1998, in the NFC title game.
 - ▶ Masthay boomed a 65-yard kick late in the third quarter against the Bears, the longest punt in the postseason in franchise history. Boyd Dowler previously held the mark with a 64-yard kick vs. the New York Giants on Dec. 31, 1961.
 - ▶ A look at where Masthay's 2010 season stacked up against other Green Bay punters since 1976:

PACKERS VS. SAINTS - WEEK 1

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

Green Bay went 3-5 on the road last season, but in Head Coach Mike McCarthy's five seasons in Green Bay, the Packers finished above .500 away from home in three of those years.

- ▶ The Packers have been able to stay above the .500 mark on the road during McCarthy's tenure, a notable achievement in the National Football League.
- ▶ Green Bay got off to a good start last year with a win at Philadelphia in the season opener. It was the fifth straight season under McCarthy that the Packers have won their first road game of the year.
- ▶ Since 2006, McCarthy's first season as the head coach in Green Bay, only 12 of 32 NFL teams have regular-season road records over .500.

293 AND COUNTING

Another packed house at Lambeau Field against the Bears in the 2010 regular-season finale brought the stadium's consecutive sellouts streak to 293 games (277 regular season, 16 playoffs).

- ▶ The Week 7 crowd of 71,107 vs. Minnesota was the third-largest regular-season crowd in Lambeau Field history.
- ▶ The league's longest-tenured stadium, Lambeau Field is hosting its 54th season of football this year. A total of 565,666 fans made their way through the turnstiles in the eight home contests in 2009.
- ▶ Across American professional sports, only Boston's Fenway Park (1912) and Chicago's Wrigley Field (1914) have longer tenures.

THE LAMBEAU ADVANTAGE

The crown jewel of the National Football League, Lambeau Field has long been known as one of the tougher venues to play in, particularly during the harsh Wisconsin winter.

- ▶ Re-establishing home-field advantage after a 4-4 mark in 2008 was one of the goals of 2009, and with the Packers finishing 6-2 at home, they accomplished that goal. Green Bay followed that up with a 7-1 mark at Lambeau Field in 2010.
- ▶ Head Coach Mike McCarthy stated consistently upon his arrival in Green Bay that one of the team's goals would be to reclaim the mystique of playing at Lambeau Field. Mission accomplished. The team is 26-8 (.765) over the past 34 regular-season games, the best regular-season home mark in the NFC over that span.
- ▶ Since Ron Wolf and Mike Holmgren began the revitalization of the franchise in 1992, Green Bay owns the best home record in the NFL. A look at the top regular-season home W-L records since the '92 season:

Team	W-L record	Pct.
Green Bay	114-38-0	.750

Denver	106-46-0	.697
Minnesota	104-48-0	.684
New England	104-48-0	.684

HOME COOKING

The Packers' win over Dallas at Lambeau in November 2009 was the first step to a 7-1 finish and a playoff berth for Green Bay.

- ▶ Since that Week 10 victory over the Cowboys last year, the Packers have been one of the best teams in the league at home. Green Bay's lone defeat since then came to Miami last season in Week 6 when the Packers fell to the Dolphins in overtime.

Team	W-L record	Pct.

IN THE FREE-AGENCY ERA

Talk of unrestricted free agency in the early '90s led many to forecast tough times for the small-town Green Bay Packers.

- ▶ However, Green Bay has remained among the most successful teams since the advent of free agency in 1993. The Packers have won 10 or more games 10 times since '93 and captured seven division crowns.
- ▶ A look at the most successful teams in the free-agency era:

A LOOK AT THE SCHEDULE

The Green Bay Packers will begin the 2011 season at home against the New Orleans Saints. The matchup of the last two Super Bowl winners will mark the first time in franchise history that the Packers will open the season on a Thursday night.

- ▶ The Packers will head out on the road in Week 2 to take on Carolina, the first of back-to-back road games for Green Bay. It is the second straight season that Green Bay has played two contests away from Lambeau Field in the first three weeks.
- ▶ For the second straight season, the Packers will visit Soldier Field in Week 3 to take on the Chicago Bears, a rematch of the 2010 NFC Championship Game.
- ▶ Green Bay will face another 2010 playoff foe in Week 5 when it travels to Atlanta for a Sunday night contest against the Falcons on NBC. It will be the Packers' third game against an NFC South opponent in the first five weeks.
- ▶ The Packers will host Minnesota in Week 10 on ESPN's Monday Night Football. 2011 marks the 19th consecutive season the Packers have appeared on MNF, the NFL's longest streak (Denver, 20).
- ▶ For the third time in Head Coach Mike McCarthy's tenure, the Packers will travel to Detroit for a Thanksgiving Day matchup. Green Bay won the previous two Thanksgiving meetings (2007, 2009) under McCarthy.
- ▶ With the MNF game against Minnesota and the Thanksgiving game at Detroit, the Packers will have three games in an 11-day span. Green Bay has some recent experience with a stretch similar to that, having won three contests in 12 days in 2009 (Nov. 15-26).
- ▶ Both of the Packers' December road games will be played outdoors in potential cold-weather conditions with visits to the N.Y. Giants (Week 13) and the Kansas City Chiefs (Week 15).

- In 2010, also became the first Green Bay QB to post back-to-back passer ratings of 100-plus in a season, with 103.2 in 2009 and 101.2 this year...Those marks only trail Bart Starr's 105.0 from 1966 in the franchise record books.
