GREEN BAY, DEC. 20, 2011

WEEK 16

CHICAGO (7-7) AT GREEN BAY (13-1) Sunday, Dec. 25 ● Ĺambeau Field ● 7:20`p.m. ĆST

PACKERS AND BEARS SET TO SQUARE OFF ON CHRISTMAS

Green Bay returns home after three road games in four weeks to face the division-rival Chicago Bears on Christmas, only the second time in franchise history that the Packers have played on the holiday.

Green Bay's only other Christmas game came in 2005, also against Chicago, a contest the Bears won, 24-17, at Lambeau Field. The Packers and Bears are joined by the Cowboys (2006 and 2010) as the only teams in the league to have two Christmas games over the past six seasons.

- The Packers can clinch home-field advantage throughout the NFC playoffs with a win over the Bears on Sunday or a San Francisco loss. Green Bay is aiming to be the top seed in the conference for the first time since 1996.
- Green Bay's loss at Kansas City this past Sunday marked the first defeat for the Packers in nearly a year, with their last loss coming at New England on Dec. 19, 2010, at Gillette Stadium.
- The loss to the Chiefs snapped the Packers' 19-game winning streak (including playoffs), the longest winning streak in franchise history (12game streak in 1961-62). It is the second-longest winning streak in NFL history, including the postseason, behind only the 2003-04 New England Patriots' 21-game winning streak.
- The Packers will be looking to set the franchise record for the most wins in the regular season this Sunday. They have already matched the 13-win totals posted by the team in 1962, 1996, 1997 and 2007.
- This will be the fourth meeting between the Packers and Bears in 2011, only the sixth time in NFL history that two franchises have met four or more times in a calendar year (see page 3 for more details).
- Green Bay will be looking to become only the second NFL team to beat another club four times in a calendar year (L.A Raiders over Denver, 1994). The Packers beat the Bears in the 2010 season finale at Lambeau Field and the 2010 NFC Championship in Chicago, and also topped Chicago earlier this season in Week 3 at Soldier Field.
- This Sunday will mark game No. 184 in the NFL's oldest rivalry. The Bears hold a 92-85-6 edge in the series, which includes two postseason meetings. Green Bay has won five of the last six meetings between the teams and will be looking to sweep the season series for the second time in the last three seasons (also 2009).

HOME COOKING

The Packers have won 11 straight contests at Lambeau Field and 17 of their last 18 at home. It is the longest regular-season home winning streak by Green Bay since an 11-game streak from 2001-02 and the longest current home winning streak in the NFL.

- Green Bay's 17-1 (.944) home mark since Week 10 of 2009 ranks No. 1 in the NFL over that span, ahead of New England (16-1).
- The Packers are off to their first 6-0 start at home since 2002. That season, Green Bay went on to post a perfect 8-0 mark at Lambeau Field.
- The Packers are one of only three teams in the league that are unbeaten at home this season (Baltimore, 7-0; New Orleans, 6-0).
- Green Bay is averaging a league-best 40.2 points per game at home this season. The Packers' franchise record is 38.0 ppg at home in 1942.

BEARS AT PACKERS - WEEK 16

PUT IT ON THE BOARD

With two games remaining on the schedule, the Packers have already set a franchise record for the most points scored in a season:

| Season  | Points |
|---------|--------|
| 1. 2011 | 480    |
| 2. 2009 | 461    |
| 3. 1996 | 456    |
|         |        |

- ► The Packers are on pace for 549 points this season. That would rank as the No. 3 scoring season in NFL history behind only the 2007 New England Patriots (589) and the 1998 Minnesota Vikings (556).
- Green Bay's point total through 14 games ranks tied for No. 3 among teams since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger:

| Team                          | Points Through 14 Games |
|-------------------------------|-------------------------|
| 1. New England, 2007          | 523                     |
| 2. New Orleans, 2009          | 483                     |
| 3t. Green Bay, 2011           | 480                     |
| 3t. Minnesota, 1998           | 480                     |
| 5t. Washington, 1983; St. Lou | is, 2000 479            |

► Green Bay checks in at No. 1 in the league through Week 15 with an average of 34.3 points per game. The last time the Packers led the league in scoring was 1996 at 28.5 points per game:

| Team    | Points Per Game |
|----------------|-----------------|
| 1. Green Bay   | 34.3            |
| 2. New Orleans | 32.6            |
| 3. New England | 31.2            |
| 4. Detroit     | 28.2            |
| 5. San Diego   | 25.6            |

Green Bay has set a single-season franchise record with 59 TDs this season, with two of the top three totals coming over the past three seasons:

| Season1. 2011 | Touchdowns59 |
|--------------------------|-------------------------|
| 2. 1996                  | 56                      |
| 3. 2009                  | 54                      |

- The Packers have scored on 75 of 155 offensive possessions (52 TDs, 23 FGs), a scoring efficiency of 48.4 percent that ranks No. 2 in the NFL.
- ► The Packers scored at least 24 points in each of the first 13 games this season, a streak that topped an eight-game one (Sept. 22-Nov. 10, 1963) for the longest single-season streak in franchise annals.
- ► The Packers' 49 points in Week 4 vs. Denver were the most since Oct. 9, 2005 (52 vs. New Orleans), and gave Green Bay two 42-point games in the first four contests, a franchise first (since 1921).
- Green Bay's 45 points at San Diego in Week 9 was the second-highest total on the road during Head Coach Mike McCarthy's tenure behind only the 48 posted at Detroit on Sept. 14, 2008.

►With two games remaining this season, the Packers have already recorded a franchise-record five games with 42-plus points:

| Season  | 42-Point Games |  |

|------------------------------------|----------------------------|

| 3. Eight teams                     | 4                          |

- The Packers scored 28-plus points in the first half in Week 14 vs. Oakland for a franchise-record fourth time this season. The other 31 teams in the NFL have combined for 11 first halves with 28-plus points.
- Green Bay has had five games this season with 24-plus points in the first half, the most in franchise history. That topped the previous mark of four 24-plus point first halves in 1983.
- Under McCarthy, Green Bay has a 37-2 mark (.949) in the regular season when it scores 30 or more points.
- ► The Packers have gotten off to some fast starts this season by scoring 248 points in the first half and 115 points in the first quarter.

| 3. Minnesota    | 91                    |  |

STAT OF THE WEEK

- With his 2-yard TD pass to WR Donald Driver at Kansas City on Sunday, QB Aaron Rodgers placed his name atop the franchise record book and joined some select NFL company.
- The touchdown pass to Driver was Rodgers' 40th of the season, which topped the franchise record of 39 TD passes posted by QB Brett Favre in 1996.
- Rodgers became just the fifth quarterback in NFL history to throw 40-plus TD passes in a season, joining Dan Marino (1984, '86), Kurt Warner ('99), Peyton Manning (2004) and Tom Brady (2007).
- With two games remaining on the schedule, Rodgers now sets his sights on the franchise record for most passing yards in a season. Though 14 games, Rodgers has 4,360 passing yards on the season.
- Rodgers needs 99 passing yards to top Lynn Dickey's franchise record of 4,458 yards in 1983. Rodgers fell just 25 yards short of the singleseason record in 2009 with 4,434 yards.

SHARING THE SCORING

When three different Packers scored their first touchdowns of the 2011 season in Week 14 vs. Oakland, it brought Green Bay's total number of players with a TD this season to 19.

- ►With 19 players scoring TDs this season, the Packers set a singleseason franchise record. It topped the previous mark of 18 different players in 2008.
- Green Bay's total is two shy of the single-season NFL record of 21, a number posted by several teams, most recently by New England in 2007.
- ► Six Green Bay players have scored at least five TDs this season, tied for the most of any team in the NFL with New Orleans (six players).
- It marks the second time in franchise history that the Packers have accomplished that feat. The only other season that saw Green Bay have six players each score five-plus TDs was 1984 (also six).
- The Packers check in at No. 1 in the league this season with the 19 different players having scored TDs:

| Team            | Players Scoring TD |
|------------------------|--------------------|
| 1. Green Bay           | 19                 |
| 2. Chicago             | 16                 |
| 3t. Detroit, Tennessee | 14                 |

SUCCESS IN THE DIVISION

Sunday's game will mark the Packers' fifth contest against an NFC North foe this season, with Green Bay already posting road wins at Chicago, Minnesota and Detroit and a home victory over the Vikings.

► The Packers have a 25-9 (.735) regular-season record against NFC North opponents under Head Coach Mike McCarthy, a divisional record that ranks No. 2 in the NFL over that span:

| Team     | W-L Record | Pct. |
|-----------------|------------|------|
| 1. New England  | 26-8-0     | .765 |
| 2. Green Bay    | 25-9-0     | .735 |
| 3. San Diego    | 25-10-0    | .714 |
| 4. Pittsburgh   | 24-11-0    | .686 |
| 5. Indianapolis | 23-11-0    | .676 |

►Green Bay has won 13 of 16 NFC North games at Lambeau Field under McCarthy, which is tied for the No. 2 divisional home mark in the league since 2006:

| W-L Record14-3-013-3-013-3-0 | Pct..824.813813 |
|--|---|
| 13-3-0   | .813                                      |
| 13-4-0   | .765                                      |
|  | 14-3-013-3-013-3-0         |

► The Packers have won at least four contests in their division every season under Head Coach Mike. Green Bay is the only team in the league to post four-plus wins in its division each year from 2006-11, with New England still capable of doing so (3-1 in the AFC East this season).

AS THE WEATHER TURNS

In 2009 and 2010, the Packers' late-season success was instrumental in advancing to the postseason. Since Head Coach Mike McCarthy took over in 2006, the Packers have been one of the best teams in the league down the stretch.

►The Packers have a 17-9 regular-season record in December/January games since 2006, a .654 winning percentage that is tied for No. 6 in the NFL over that span:

| Team      | Dec./Jan. W-L Record | Pct. |
|------------------|----------------------|------|
| 1. San Diego     | 25-2-0               | .926 |
| 2. New England   | 24-3-0               | .889 |
| 3. Philadelphia  | 20-7-0               | .741 |
| 4t. Indianapolis | 18-9-0               | .667 |
| 4t. Pittsburgh   | 18-9-0               | .667 |
| 6t. Green Bay    | 17-9-0               | .654 |
| 6t. Baltimore    | 17-9-0               | .654 |

► That includes an 11-2 record at Lambeau Field in December/January, the No. 3 mark in the league at home since 2006:

| Team             | Dec./Jan. W-L Record (Home) | Pct.  |
|------------------|-----------------------------|-------|
| 1. New England   | 12-0-0                      | 1.000 |
| 2. San Diego     | 12-1-0                      | .923  |
| 3. Green Bay     | 11-2-0                      | .846  |
| 4t. Houston      | 12-3-0                      | .800  |
| 4t. Indianapolis | 12-3-0                      | .800  |

FAMILIAR FOE

No two franchises have met more in NFL history than the Packers and the Bears, and no two teams have seen each other more in 2011 than the two franchises.

- Sunday's meeting will be the fourth time the divisional foes have squared off in 2011, with Green Bay winning all three of the games heading into the Christmas contest this week.
- ► The Packers secured a playoff berth with a 10-3 victory over the Bears at Lambeau Field in the 2010 season finale, and then emerged victorious three weeks later at Soldier Field in the NFC Championship against Chicago. Green Bay also won at Chicago, 27-17, earlier this season in Week 3.
- This will mark the sixth time in NFL history and the first time since 1994 that two teams have met at least four times in a calendar year. Ironically, the Packers and Lions hold the NFL record with five meetings in 1994 (two postseason games).
- ►A look at the previous instances in NFL history of two teams meeting at least four times in a calendar year (according to STATS LLC):

| Teams, Year     | Meetings | Result |
|------------------------|-----------------|---------------|
| Oilers-Chargers, 1961  | 4 (2 post.)     | Oilers, 3-1   |
| Broncos-Seahawks, 1983 | 4 (1 post.)     | Seahawks, 3-1 |
| Raiders-Seahawks, 1984 | 4 (2 post.)     | Split, 2-2    |
| Lions-Packers, 1994    | 5 (2 post.)     | Packers, 3-2  |
| Broncos-Raiders, 1994  | 4 (1 post.)     | Raiders, 4-0  |

BEARS AT PACKERS - WEEK 16

ON ALL CYLINDERS

For the sixth consecutive season, the Packers find themselves in familiar territory as one of the most productive offenses in the league.

Through Week 15, Green Bay ranks No. 4 in the NFL in total offense:

| Yards Per Game456.7426.3400.7397.8 |
|--|
| 397.8393.1  |

- ► The Packers registered at least 390 yards of total offense in the first seven games this season, the first time in franchise history they accomplished that feat in seven straight games at any point in a season.
- Green Bay is the only team in the league to post at least 315 yards of offense in every game this season. Dating back to last season, the Packers have registered 315-plus yards of offense in 20 of their last 22 regular-season games.
- The Packers rank No. 4 in the NFL this season with an average of 298.1 passing yards per game:

| Team   | Passing Yards Per Game         |
|---|--------------------------------|
| 1. New Orleans  | 331.4                          |
| 2. New England  | 318.6                          |
| 3. N.Y. Giants  | 299.0                          |
| <ol> <li>N.Y. Glants</li> <li>Green Bay</li> <li>Detroit</li> </ol> | 299.0298.1282.8 |

Green Bay ranks No. 2 in the NFL in yards per play at 6.43, well above its 5.73-yard average in 2010 that ranked No. 6 in the NFL:

| Team            | Yards Per Play |
|-----------------|-----------------------|
| 1. New Orleans  | 6.52                  |
| 2. Green Bay    | 6.43           |
| 3. New England  | 6.40                  |
| 4. Dallas       | 6.13                  |
| 5. Philadelphia | 6.12                  |

► The Packers are on pace for 6,365 total yards this season. A look at the top team marks in franchise history (two of the top four have come during Head Coach Mike McCarthy's tenure):

| Season | Total Yards |
|---------------|-------------|
| 1. 2004       | 6,357       |
| 2. 1983       | 6,172       |
| 3. 2009       | 6,065       |
| 4. 2007       | 5,931       |
| 5. 2003       | 5,798       |
|               |             |

- ► In each of the previous five seasons under McCarthy, the offensive play-caller, the Packers have finished in the top 10 in total offense. New Orleans is the only other team to accomplish the feat over that span.
- ▶ Wth an average of 358.1 yards per game, Green Bay checked in at No. 9 in the team offensive rankings in 2010.

- That included the No. 5 passing offense at 257.8 yards per contest, following up an average of 261.3 net passing yards per game in 2009. It was the first time in franchise history that the Packers had averaged 250.0 net passing yards in back-to-back seasons.

THE PACKERS-BEARS SERIES

- ► No two teams have met on the gridiron more than the Packers and Bears. Sunday they face off for the 184th time.
- Last season, the teams squared off in the postseason for just the second time in the history of the series. With a berth in Super Bowl XLV on the line, the Packers emerged victorious, 21-14, at Soldier Field.
- ►The Packers' 37-3 win on Nov. 16, 2008, marked the largest margin of victory in the series since Green Bay's 40-3 win on Dec. 11, 1994. Chicago's win in December of that year was just the second OT game in series history and first since Sept. 7, 1980, when Packers K Chester Marcol returned his own blocked FG for the winning score.

► The last time Green Bay led the overall series? On the heels of its three straight NFL championships, 1932, when the Packers led 11-10-5. Two months after Babe Ruth allegedly called his shot at Wrigley Field in the 1932 World Series, the Bears stole from Green Bay a fourth straight title (which at the time was determined by league standings). Chicago barely finished atop the league standings, which unlike today did not count ties. Had the league counted ties in standings, the Packers would have won. The next year, 1933, the NFL began determining its champion with postseason games.

SPREAD THE WEALTH

- Rodgers posted a regular-season career-high 408 passing yards in Green Bay's 49-23 win over Denver in Week 4. He became the first QB in team history to record two 400-yard passing games, and now has two of the top four single-game marks in franchise annals.

ON A RATING ROLL

QB Aaron Rodgers was the first NFL quarterback to start a season with 11 straight 110-rating games since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970. No other QB has done it in more than five games to begin a season.

- Rodgers' 11 consecutive 110-rating games was also a single-season NFL record, topping 49ers QB Steve Young's mark of seven straight in 1994.
- ► No quarterback in team history has posted more than five straight 110-rating games in a season, and Rodgers' 11 games with a 110-plus rating is a single-season team record, topping the previous mark of eight by Brett Favre in 2007.
- Rodgers posted a 100-plus passer rating in each of the first 12 games, a streak that topped the NFL single-season mark of nine set by Colts QB Peyton Manning in 2004.
- Rodgers is the first NFL quarterback to record a stretch of four (or more) straight 110-rating games in three straight seasons since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970. No other NFL signal-caller over the past 42 seasons has ever posted four straight 110-rating games in back-to-back seasons, let alone three straight like Rodgers has registered.
- Including the postseason, Rodgers has recorded a 110-plus passer rating in 19 of his last 25 starts.
- With a 140.3 rating in Week 10 vs. Minnesota, Rodgers became just the second QB in NFL history to post three consecutive 140-plus rating games (min. 15 attempts) in a season. Rams QB Kurt Warner (1999) is the only other signal-caller to accomplish the feat.
- ► By posting at least six games with a 110-plus passer rating in each of the last three seasons, Rodgers joins Young (1992-94) as the only quarterbacks since the 1970 merger with at least six 110-rating games in three consecutive seasons.
- ► A look at where Rodgers' ranks in league single-season annals for 110plus passer rating games and 100-plus rating games:

His 28 games with a 100-plus passer rating in his first 50 starts set an NFL record among quarterbacks whose careers began since 1970, topping the previous mark of 27 held by Dallas QB Tony Romo.
- Rodgers reached 1,250 completions, 15,000 passing yards and 100 passing TDs in 58 career starts, tied for the fewest starts to reach all three marks among quarterbacks who began their careers in the Super Bowl era (since 1966):

BEARS AT PACKERS - WEEK 16

DOWN THE MIDDLE

K Mason Crosby placed his name atop the franchise record book in Week 7 when he connected on a 39-yard field goal in the second quarter at Minnesota.

With the field goal, Crosby broke Chris Jacke's franchise record for the most consecutive field goals made in the regular season. Dating back to Week 13 last season, Crosby made 23 consecutive FGs before his 29-yard attempt in Week 12 vs. Tampa Bay hit the right upright:

| Kicker                   | Consecutive FGs Made |
|--------------------------|----------------------|
| 1. Mason Crosby, 2010-11 | 23                   |
| 2. Chris Jacke, 1993     | 17                   |
| 3. Chris Jacke, 1989-90  | 15                   |

- It wasn't the only franchise mark that Crosby set in Week 7 at Minnesota. He drilled a 58-yard field goal in the third quarter, the longest field goal in team history.
- Crosby has connected on 23-of-26 field-goal attempts this season, an 88.5 percentage that is tied for No. 8 in the NFL.
- ► That topped the previous franchise mark of 56 yards he set at Philadelphia in 2010 and earlier this season in Atlanta in Week 5. The 58-yarder was also the longest ever by a Minnesota opponent.
- ► Crosby is the only kicker in the NFL with three field goals of 56 or more yards since 2010.
- ► Crosby joins Ryan Longwell (eight seasons) as the only players in franchise history to post five 100-point seasons.
- Crosby ranks No. 4 among kickers this season with 126 points and No. 5 in the league with 43 touchbacks.
- ►Crosby now has 635 career points, the most in NFL history by a player in his first five seasons, breaking the record held by K Chip Lohmiller (625, 1988-92).

FINDING FINLEY

Through the first four games last season, TE Jermichael Finley appeared poised to set franchise records for receptions and receiving yards by a tight end before he sustained a season-ending knee injury.

►In 2011, a healthy Finley has picked up where he left off last season, ranking No. 3 on the team with 45 receptions for a career-high 683 yards (15.2 avg.) and six TDs. With the six TDs, Finley has topped his career high (five in 2009) and is tied for No. 4 among NFL tight ends this season:

| Tight End                        | TD Catches |
|----------------------------------|-------------------|
| 1. Rob Gronkowski, NE            | 15                |
| 2. Jimmy Graham, NO              | 9                 |
| 3. Tony Gonzalez, ATL            | 7                 |
| 4t. Jermichael Finley, GB | 6          |
| 4t. Four players                 | 6                 |

- Three of those scores came at Chicago in Week 3 as Finley became just the second tight end in franchise history to catch three TD passes in a game. He joined Keith Jackson, who accomplished the feat on Sept. 1, 1996, at Tampa Bay.
- ► Finley was also the first NFL tight end to post a three-TD game since Gronkowski did so in Week 10 last season. Finley is the only TE with a three-TD game this season.

By hitting the 600-yard receiving mark this season, Finley became just the second tight end in franchise history (Paul Coffman) to post two 600-yard seasons in his career. Finley's yardage total this season ranks No. 4 among tight ends in franchise history:

| Tight End           | Receiving Yards |
|----------------------------|------------------------|
| 1. Paul Coffman, 1983      | 814                    |
| 2. Paul Coffman, 1979      | 711                    |
| 3. Paul Coffman, 1981      | 687                    |
| 4. Jermichael Finley, 2011 | 683                    |

Finley ranks No. 8 among tight ends with the 683 receiving yards and his 15.2-yard average is good for No. 3 in the NFL (min. 30 receptions):

| Tight End                | Rec. Avg. |

| 1. Jake Ballard, NYG     | 15.9      |
| 2. Rob Gronkowski, NE    | 15.2      |

BEARS AT PACKERS - WEEK 16

PRODUCTION APLENTY INSIDE THE 20

Green Bay had one of the most efficient red-zone offenses in the league in 2010, and the Packers are on their way to another solid ranking this season.

►Through Week 15, the Packers rank No. 3 in the NFL in red-zone efficiency:

| Team    | Red-Zone TD Efficiency |
|----------------|------------------------|
| 1. N.Y. Jets   | 68.1                   |
| 2. New England | 63.5                   |
| 3. Green Bay   | 62.7                   |
| 4. Tennessee   | 62.5                   |

► In their last seven games, the Packers have scored TDs on 21-of-31 trips to the red zone (67.7 percent).

Green Bay has scored points on 55 of its 59 red-zone trips this season:

| Team         | Red-Zone Scoring Efficiency |
|---------------------|-----------------------------|
| 1. Detroit          | 93.6                        |
| 2. Green Bay | 93.2                 |
| 3. San Francisco    | 91 7                        |
| 4. Atlanta          | 90.2                        |

- ► In 2010, Green Bay ranked No. 6 in the league with a touchdown efficiency of 60.4 percent in the red zone. That was the Packers' best conversion rate since finishing No. 2 in the NFL at 65.4 percent in 2003.
- It marked the third straight top-10 finish in the category for the Packers, as they checked in at No. 9 in 2009 (54.8) and No. 6 in 2008 (60.4).
- Of the Packers' four best TD-efficiency marks in the red zone since 1995, two have come under Head Coach Mike McCarthy:

| Season | Red-Zone TD Efficiency |
|---------------|------------------------|
| 1. 1995       | 66.7 (40-60)           |
| 2. 2004       | 65.4 (34-52)           |
| 3t. 2010      | 60.4 (32-53)           |
| 3t. 2008      | 60.4 (29-48)           |

► Green Bay was the only team in the NFC and one of three teams in the NFL (Indianapolis and Tennessee) to finish in the top 10 in red-zone efficiency each year from 2008-10.

OUTSIDE THE ZONE

In addition to their red-zone success, the Packers have also displayed a high level of production outside that area.

Through Week 15, the Packers are tied for No. 4 in the league in scoring outside the red zone:

| Team    | Points Outside Red Zone |
|----------------|-------------------------|
| 1. New Orleans | 125                     |
| 2. Dallas      | 123                     |
| 3. San Diego   | 120                     |
| 4t. Green Bay  | 119                     |
| 4t. Denver     | 119                     |

► In 2010, the Packers were tied for No. 14 in the league with 100 points outside the red zone on the season. Green Bay's best mark since 1995 came in 2007, when the team scored 150 points outside the red zone.

Green Bay is tied for the league lead in touchdowns outside the red zone this season:

DYNAMIC DEBUT

Rookie WR Randall Cobb made a splash in his pro debut vs. New Orleans with a 108-yard kickoff return for a TD that matched the NFL record, and he has continued to be a threat on both kickoffs and punts. Through Week 15, Cobb checks among the league leaders in both categories:

| Player         | Kickoff Return Avg. |
|-----------------------|---------------------|
| 1. Joe McKnight, NYJ  | 32.3                |
| 2. Ted Ginn Jr., SF   | 28.1                |
| 3. Antonio Brown, PIT | 27.6                |
| 4. Randall Cobb, GB   | 27.5                |

| Player            | Punt Return Avg. |
|--------------------------|------------------|
| 1. Devin Hester, CHI     | 18.5             |
| 2. Patrick Peterson, ARI | 15.9             |
| 3. Javier Arenas, KC     | 13.2             |
| 4. Ted Ginn Jr., SF      | 12.3             |
| 5. Davone Bess, MIA      | 11.9             |
| 6. Randall Cobb, GB      | 11.5             |

- Cobb posted an 80-yard punt return for a TD vs. Minnesota in Week 10, becoming the first rookie in team history to post a punt return for a TD and a kickoff return for a TD in the same season. He also became the first player in team history and the first NFL rookie since the merger to register a 100-yard kickoff return and an 80-yard punt return in the same season.
- ►Cobb added a 55-yard kickoff return in the third quarter against the Vikings to become the first Packer since Travis Williams (at Pittsburgh, Nov. 2, 1969) to post an 80-yard PR and a 55-yard KR in the same game.
- Cobb is tied for No. 3 in the league this season in total kick return TDs:

|                  | Total Kick Return TDs   |
|------------------|---|
| ck Peterson, ARI | 4 (4 PR, 0 KR)  |
| n Hester, CHI    | 3 (2 PR, 1 KR)  |
| idall Cobb, GB   | 2 (1 PR, 1 KR)  |

| (                | ck Peterson, ARIn Hester, CHIndall Cobb, GBGinn Jr., SF |

- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Cobb became just the second NFL player to register a touchdown reception and a kickoff return for a score in his pro debut, joining Detroit's Bill Bowman (9-yard reception, 100-yard kickoff return, vs. Chicago on Sept. 26, 1954).
- Cobb also joins Williams and Robert Brooks as the only players in franchise history to register a receiving touchdown, a punt return for a TD and a kickoff return for a score in the same season.
- With a 55-yard punt return vs. Tampa Bay in Week 11, Cobb became the first Packer since Billy Grimes in 1950 to record a punt return of 55-plus yards in back-to-back games.

THE PRODUCTION CONTINUES

CB Charles Woodson enjoyed the finest season of his career in 2009, his first year in the 3-4 scheme, and has continued to make his presence felt ever since.

Through Week 15, Woodson is tied for No. 1 in the NFL with seven interceptions.

| Player           | Interceptions |
|-------------------------|---------------|
| 1t. Charles Woodson, GB | 7             |
| 1t. Kyle Arrington, NE  | 7             |
| 1t. Eric Weddle, SD     | 7             |
| 4t. Three players       | 6             |

- ► This is Woodson's fourth season with seven-plus INTs as a Packer. He joins Bobby Dillon as the only players in franchise history to accomplish that feat and is the only NFL player to have four seven-plus INT seasons since 2006.
- ► In the Week 7 win at Minnesota, he intercepted QB Christian Ponder two times on the afternoon, Woodson's sixth multi-INT game in a Green Bay uniform.

| 4t. LeRoy Butler, 1990-2001   | 6                                    |

► In the Week 4 win over Denver, Woodson picked off QB Kyle Orton and returned the interception 30 yards for a TD, his 11th career INT return for a TD to move into a tie for the No. 2 spot in NFL history:

| Player1. Rod Woodson, 1987-2003 | Interception TDs12 |
|--|------------------------|
| 2t. Charles Woodson, 1998-2011             | 11                     |
| 2t. Darren Sharper, 1997-2010              | 11                     |

► The INT for a score against Denver gave Woodson 12 defensive scores for his career, which ties him for No. 3 in NFL annals:

| Player1t. Rod Woodson, 1987-2003 | Defensive TDs13 (12 INT, 1 FR) |
|---|------------------------------------|
| 1t. Darren Sharper, 1997-2010               | 13 (11 INT, 2 FR)                  |
| 3t. Charles Woodson, 1998-2011              | 12 (11 INT, 1 FR)                  |
| 3t. Aeneas Williams, 1991-2004              | 12 (9 INT, 3 FR)                   |

- ► Woodson has now returned an INT for a touchdown in six straight seasons (2006-11), becoming the first player in NFL history to do so. No other NFL player has accomplished the feat in more than four consecutive seasons.
- ► Woodson's nine interceptions for TDs since 2006 rank No. 1 in the league over that span, more than double the total of the nine players tied for the No. 2 spot with four each.
- ► Woodson's nine interception TDs over the past six seasons (2006-11) are tied for the most by a player over a six-year period in NFL history, matching the mark of Houston Oilers safety Ken Houston, who actually recorded nine INT touchdowns over a five-year period (1967-71).

- ►With his first INT for a TD coming in his rookie season of 1998, the time from Woodson's first INT TD to his most recent spans 14 seasons (1998-2011). That ranks tied for No. 3 in NFL history behind only Rod Woodson (1987-2002) and Deion Sanders (1990-2004), according to the Elias Sports Bureau.
- ►His INT return for a score against the Broncos was his ninth career with the Packers, further extending his franchise record. Adderley ranks No. 2 in team annals (seven, 1961-69)
- It was also Woodson's 10th defensive TD (nine INTs, one fumble return) in a Green Bay uniform, which further extended his franchise mark.
- He led the Packers with a career-high five forced fumbles in 2010. He was the only defensive back in the NFL to register four forced fumbles each season in 2009 and 2010.
- ► Woodson is the only Packers defensive back since 1994 to record four forced fumbles in a season, and he has done it twice.
- ► Woodson achieved the highest individual honor bestowed upon a defensive player, taking home The Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year award in 2009. He also was named an AP first-team All-Pro.
- Woodson's INT return for a TD in Week 4 last season against the Lions was the third straight year that he had returned an INT for a TD against Detroit. He became the first player in NFL history to return an interception for a TD in three consecutive seasons against the same team.
- ►Woodson has registered two sacks in 2011, his fourth straight season with two-plus sacks. He is the first defensive back in franchise history (since 1982) to accomplish that feat.
- In 2009, Woodson became the fourth player in NFL history since sacks became an official statistic to record at least nine interceptions and two sacks in a single season.
- There's no doubt Woodson's career has undergone a revitalization since coming to Green Bay. He now has 54 career interceptions, which is second among active NFL players. Of his interceptions, 37 have come in 92 games with Green Bay. In 106 games with the Raiders, he had 17.
- ► A look at where Woodson ranks in several categories since 2008:

NOT IN A GIVING MOOD

giveaways:

- ►With a sack of QB Jon Kitna in the second quarter in Week 9 last season against Dallas, Matthews became the first Packer since the stat became official in 1982 to register a double-digit sack total in each of his first two seasons in the NFL.
- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Matthews became the first NFL player since sacks became an official statistic in 1982 to register double-digit sacks and a defensive TD in each of his first two seasons in the NFL.
- With two sacks of Falcons QB Matt Ryan in the Divisional contest last season, Matthews became the first player in team history (since 1982) to post at least one sack in each of his first three career postseason games. With 4.5 career sacks in the postseason, Matthews already ranks No. 2 in team playoff annals behind only DE Reggie White (eight).
- Matthews' 3.5 sacks last postseason were the most in franchise history (since 1982) in a single postseason.
- Matthews has posted two or more sacks in a game six times in his career. Five of those two-sack games came in Matthews' first 18 games in a Packers uniform, breaking White's franchise mark of four in his first 18 games with Green Bay (1993-94).

- ► In 2009, Matthews set a Packers rookie record with 10 sacks on his way to earning Pro Bowl honors, the first Green Bay rookie to be named to the all-star game since Hall of Fame WR James Lofton in 1978.
- ► With two games remaining in his third season, Matthews is tied for No. 1 in team history (since 1982) for the most sacks by a Packer in his first three seasons in the NFL:

OUT OF THE BREAK

For the second straight season, the Packers have been one of the most productive teams in the league in the third quarter of games.

In 14 contests this season, the Packers have outscored their opponents 129-44 in the third quarter, an 85-point differential that ranks No. 1 in the league:

| Team1. Green Bay2t. New England2t. Seattle | Third-Quarter Scoring Differential           +85 (129-44)           +60 (110-50)           +60 (83-23) |
|---|--|
| 4. Miami  | +58 (91-33)  |
| 5. San Francisco  | +47 (84-37)  |

- ► In 2010, Green Bay finished No. 2 in the NFL in third-quarter scoring differential at plus-74, outscoring its opponents 110-36. That trailed only San Diego, who posted a 76-point margin (107-31) in the third quarter.
- ►The Packers have been efficient on their opening drives in the second half, scoring six touchdowns and two field goals this season:

| Team            | Points On First Poss. of 2nd Half |
|-----------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1. San Diego    | 55                                |
| 2. Green Bay    | 48                                |
| 3. Houston      | 44                                |
| 4t. Carolina    | 42                                |
| 4t. New England | 42                                |

- The Packers have won the coin toss and deferred seven times this season. In those seven games, Green Bay has scored a TD on the opening possession of the second half four times (at Carolina, at Minnesota, vs. Minnesota, at Detroit) and scored once on a field goal (at San Diego).
- Green Bay tied for No. 7 in the NFL in 2010 with 37 points on the opening possession of the second half, which topped the Packers' mark of 20 points in 2009 (No. 20 in the NFL).
- ► The high mark under Head Coach Mike McCarthy came in 2007, when Green Bay tied for No. 3 in the league with 50 points on opening second-half drives.

STARTING AND CLOSING

Green Bay has been efficient starting games this season as well, scoring 52 points on game-opening drives. That total ranks No. 1 in the NFL and more than doubles the Packers' 23-point output in 2010:

| Team             | Points On First Possession |
|-------------------------|----------------------------|
| 1. Green Bay            | 52                         |
| 2. Pittsburgh           | 45                         |
| 3t. Houston, New Englan | d 44                       |

- ► Green Bay's 52-point total is the best posted by the Packers since STATS LLC began recording the statistic in 1995.
- ► The Packers have posted 51 points in the final two minutes of the first half this season. That easily tops Green Bay's season total of 31 points in 2010 and is the best by the team since 64 points in 2002:

| Team     | Points In Final Two Min./1st Half |
|-----------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1. Oakland      | 56                                |
| 2. Green Bay    | 51                                |
| 3. Philadelphia | 47                                |

TRAMON TAKES IT AWAY

After getting off to a slow start when it comes to interceptions early this season, CB Tramon Williams has made his presence in the second half.

- Williams posted an INT in three straight games (Weeks 9-11), only the second time in his career that he had accomplished that feat. That included a regular-season career-high two INTs vs. Tampa Bay in Week 11.
- His four INTs over that span was a career-high for a three-game stretch.
- ► Williams is the only undrafted player in the league to record at least four INTs in each of the past four seasons (2008-11).
- ►In Green Bay's Week 9 win at San Diego, Williams posted the first TD of his career in the regular season on a 43-yard INT return for a score.
- ► Williams led the team in INTs last season with a career-high six picks, and added three more during the 2010 postseason.
- Including playoffs, Williams ranks No. 1 in the NFL in both interceptions and interception return yards since 2010:

| Player                 | Interceptions    |
|--------------------------------------|------------------|
| 1. Tramon Williams, GB               | 13               |

MASTERFUL PERFORMANCES

P Tim Masthay hasn't had many opportunities to punt the ball this season, but he has made the most of his chances of late.

- ►At Kansas City on Sunday, Masthay posted career highs (min. four attempts) in gross average (53.4) and net average (46.2). He boomed a career-long 71-yard punt, the longest by a Packer since Jon Ryan's 72-yarder vs. Detroit on Dec. 30, 2007. The gross average ranks No. 4 in team annals and the net average checks in at No. 3 (since 1976).
- ► In Week 13 at the N.Y. Giants, Masthay placed four punts inside the 20-yard line, the second straight week he had done so. He earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for the performance against New York, the second straight season he won the award after an outing at MetLife Stadium (Week 8 at N.Y. Jets in 2010).
- Masthay became the first Green Bay punter to post four punts inside the 20-yard line in consecutive games since the statistic began to be recorded in 1976.
- In Week 7 at Minnesota, Masthay only punted three times, but he registered a gross average of 59.3 and a net average of 55.3.
- ►His 59.3-yard gross average was the best by a Green Bay punter with three or more attempts since Don Chandler registered a 59.7-yard average on three punts vs. San Francisco on Oct. 10, 1965.
- Masthay's 55.3-yard net average at Minnesota in Week 7 was the best by a Packers punter with three or more attempts since the NFL began tracking net punting average in 1976. It also the third best by an NFL punter in a game (min. three attempts) since 1976.
- ► Over the past 10 games, Masthay has posted a gross average of 48.2 yards and a net average of 41.8. He has placed half of his punts (17-of-34) inside the 20-yard line over that span.
- ► The Packers have punted just 47 times in 14 games this season. The franchise record for the fewest punts by Green Bay since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978 was 62 punts in 2007.
- ► Masthay has a gross punting average of 45.8 this season. The best mark in franchise history is a 45.0-yard average by Craig Hentrich (1997).

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

Green Bay went 7-1 on the road this season, with the seven road wins setting a single-season franchise record.

- The Packers have been able to stay above the .500 mark on the road during McCarthy's tenure, a notable achievement in the National Football League.
- Since 2006, McCarthy's first season as the head coach in Green Bay, only 11 of 32 NFL teams have regular-season road records above .500.

299 AND COUNTING

Another packed house at Lambeau Field against the Raiders in Week 14 brought the stadium's consecutive sellouts streak to 299 games (283 regular season, 16 playoffs).

- ▶ The Week 7 crowd in 2010 of 71,107 vs. Minnesota was the third-largest regular-season crowd in Lambeau Field history.
- The league's longest-tenured stadium, Lambeau Field is hosting its 55th season of football this year. A total of 566,362 fans made their way through the turnstiles in the eight home contests in 2010.
- Across American professional sports, only Boston's Fenway Park (1912) and Chicago's Wrigley Field (1914) have longer tenures.

THE LAMBEAU ADVANTAGE

The crown jewel of the National Football League, Lambeau Field has long been known as one of the tougher venues to play in, particularly during the harsh Wisconsin winter.

- ▶ Re-establishing home-field advantage after a 4-4 mark in 2008 was one of the goals of 2009, and with the Packers finishing 6-2 at home, they accomplished that goal. Green Bay followed that up with a 7-1 mark at Lambeau Field in 2010.
- Head Coach Mike McCarthy stated consistently upon his arrival in Green Bay that one of the team's goals would be to reclaim the mystique of playing at Lambeau Field. Mission accomplished. The team is 32-8 (.800) at home over the past 40 regular-season games, good for No. 2 in the NFL over that span behind only New England (35-4, .897).
- Since Ron Wolf and Mike Holmgren began the revitalization of the franchise in 1992, Green Bay owns the best home record in the NFL. A look at the top regular-season home W-L records since the '92 season:

HOME COOKING

The Packers' win over Dallas at Lambeau in November 2009 was the first step to a 7-1 finish and a playoff berth for Green Bay.

Since that Week 10 victory over the Cowboys in '09, the Packers have been the best team in the league at home. Green Bay's lone defeat since then came to Miami last season in Week 6 when the Packers fell to the Dolphins in overtime.

| Team                | W-L record | Pct.  |

IN THE FREE-AGENCY ERA

Talk of unrestricted free agency in the early '90s led many to forecast tough times for the small-town Green Bay Packers.

- However, Green Bay has remained among the most successful teams since the advent of free agency in 1993. The Packers have won 10 or more games 10 times since '93 and captured seven division crowns.
- ► A look at the most successful teams in the free-agency era:

| Team     | W-L since '93 | Pct. | Playoff berths |
|-----------------|----------------------|------|----------------|

A GLANCE AT THE SCHEDULE

The Green Bay Packers began the 2011 season at home against the New Orleans Saints. The matchup of the last two Super Bowl winners marked the first time in franchise history that the Packers opened their season on a Thursday night.

- ► The Packers went on the road in Week 2 to take on Carolina, the first of back-to-back road games for Green Bay. It was the second straight season that Green Bay played two contests away from Lambeau Field in the first three weeks.
- ► For the second straight season, the Packers visited Soldier Field in Week 3 to take on the Chicago Bears, a rematch of the 2010 NFC Championship Game.
- Green Bay faced another 2010 playoff foe in Week 5 when it traveled to Atlanta for a Sunday night contest against the Falcons on NBC. It was the Packers' third game against an NFC South opponent in the first five weeks.

Then, after a fumbled kickoff return by Randall Coob, Newton directed the first of threw fines drives to take the 1-3-0 Fload. | missions.His first came late in the second quarter by throwing to Smith in double coverage, with Woodson diving in front of Smith near the sideline forthe interception. | nterception came when he tried to throw against pressure from Matthews, with Woodson jumping in front of Smith for a secondd.
