NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

N.Y. GIANTS (10-7) AT GREEN BAY (15-1)
Sunday, Jan. 15 • Lambeau Field • 3:30 p.m. CST

PACKERS AND GIANTS TO MEET IN NFC DIVISIONAL CONTEST

The Packers will host their first playoff game at Lambeau Field since the 2007 season when the N.Y. Giants come to town this Sunday for an NFC Divisional playoff contest.

- ▶ It will be the second meeting between the clubs this season, with Green Bay topping New York, 38-35, in Week 13 at MetLife Stadium.
- ▶ This marks the fifth time in franchise history that the Packers have faced the Giants during the regular season and the playoffs in the same season, with the other instances coming in 1938, 1944, 1961 and 2007.
- ▶ Two of the most venerable franchises in professional football history, the Packers and Giants have combined for 20 championships. Green Bay ranks No. 1 among all NFL franchises with 13 titles, while New York checks in at No. 3 with seven championships.
- ▶ Since the advent of free agency in 1993, there has been only one season (1999) that didn't include either the Packers or Giants in the playoffs. Since 2006, Green Bay ranks No. 1 in the NFC in regular-season winning percentage (.656, 63-33), while New York checks in at No. 3 in the conference (.594, 57-39) behind only New Orleans (.646, 62-34).
- ▶ The Packers and Giants squared off in five NFL championship games, with Green Bay winning four of those contests. New York won the 1938 title at the Polo Grounds in New York, but the Packers defeated the Giants in the championship game in 1939, 1944, 1961 and 1962.
- ▶ Green Bay holds a 31-23-2 edge in the all-time series, which includes a 4-2 postseason record. The teams first met in 1928 in New York.
- ▶ Including playoffs, the Packers have won 21 of their last 22 games. That included 19 straight wins from Week 16 last season through Week 14 this season. The 19-game winning streak was the second longest in NFL history, including playoffs, behind only the 21-game winning streak registered by the 2003-04 New England Patriots.
- ▶ For the first time since 1996, Green Bay is the No. 1 seed in the NFC playoffs. Last season, the Packers became only the second No. 6 seed to win a Super Bowl since the NFL went to a 12-team playoff format in 1990.

WITH THE CALL

FOX Sports, now in its 18th season as an NFL network television partner, will broadcast the game to a national audience.

- ▶ Play-by-play man Joe Buck and color analyst Troy Aikman will have the call from the broadcast booth with Pam Oliver reporting from the sidelines.
- ▶ Milwaukee's WTMJ (620 AM), airing Green Bay games since 1929, heads up the 52-station Packers Radio Network, with Wayne Larrivee (play-by-play) and two-time Packers Pro Bowler Larry McCarren (color) calling the action. The duo is in its 13th season of broadcasts together across the Packers Radio Network, which covers 43 markets in five states.
- ▶ Westwood One radio will air the game across the country. Kevin Harlan (play-by-play) and Dan Fouts (analyst) will call the action, with Hub Arkush reporting from the sidelines. Scott Graham hosts pregame and halftime shows.

BACK IN THE POSTSEASON

Green Bay's 27th postseason berth in team history marks the franchise's 14th appearance in the last 19 seasons and the fourth berth in the past five seasons under Head Coach Mike McCarthy.

- ▶ The Packers are the only NFC team to make four playoff appearances in the last five seasons.
- ▶ Green Bay is the lone NFC club to advance to the Divisional round of the playoffs each of the past two seasons.
- ▶ Green Bay's 27 playoff appearances rank tied for No. 3 in NFL history behind only the N.Y. Giants (31) and Dallas (30).
- ▶ The Packers' 14 postseason appearances in the free-agency era (1993-2011) are the most of any team in the NFL.
- ▶ Among teams with three or more playoff games, the Packers own the league's best postseason winning percentage (.644, 29-16), ahead of the team they defeated last season in Super Bowl XLV, the Pittsburgh Steelers (.611, 33-21). Green Bay trails only the Steelers and the Cowboys (33 each) for the most playoff victories in NFL history.
- ▶ Green Bay posted a 6-0 record this season against 2011 playoff teams, with three of the wins coming at home (New Orleans, Week 1; Denver, Week 4; Detroit, Week 17) and three coming away from Lambeau Field (Atlanta, Week 5; Detroit, Week 12; N.Y. Giants, Week 13).
- ▶ Since the NFL went to a 12-team playoff format in 1990, the Packers have had a first-round bye on three other occasions (No. 1 seed in 1996, No. 2 seed in 1997 and 2007). Green Bay is 3-0 in the Divisional round coming off a first-round bye.

POSTSEASON PROFICIENCY

As productive as QB Aaron Rodgers has been during the regular season in his four years as the starter, he has further elevated his play during the playoffs.

- ▶ Rodgers capped off the 2010 postseason with a 304-yard, three-TD effort vs. Pittsburgh that earned him Super Bowl XLV honors. He became just the fourth quarterback in NFL history to throw for 300 yards and three TDs in a Super Bowl, joining Joe Montana, Steve Young and Jake Delhomme.
- ▶ His passer rating of 111.5 in Super Bowl XLV was his fourth game with a 110-plus rating in five postseason starts. That already ties him for third in league history behind only Montana (six in 23 starts) and Brett Favre (five in 24 starts).

Quarterback	Passer Rating

- ▶ With his three-TD passing performance at Atlanta in the NFC Divisional Playoff, Rodgers brought his TD total in his first three playoff games to 10, the most in NFL history. That topped the mark of nine held by Jeff George, Daryle Lamonica and Dan Marino in their first three playoff starts.
- ▶ Rodgers posted a 136.8 rating in the game against the Falcons, the third time he registered a 120-plus rating in three playoff starts. Rodgers became the first quarterback in NFL history to post a 120-plus rating in each of his first three playoff starts. No other QB in league history had posted a 120-plus rating in their first two postseason starts.

THE PRODUCTION CONTINUES

CB Charles Woodson enjoyed the finest season of his career in 2009, his first year in the 3-4 scheme, and has continued to make his presence felt ever since.

Player	Interceptions
1t. Charles Woodson, GB	7
1t. Kyle Arrington, NE	7
1t. Eric Weddle, SD	7

► In the Week 7 win at Minnesota, he intercepted QB Christian Ponder two times on the afternoon, Woodson's sixth multi-INT game in a Green Bay uniform.

Player	Multi-INT Games

2. Don Hutson, 1935-45	8
3. Herb Adderley, 1961-69	7
4t. Charles Woodson, 2006-11	6
4t. LeRoy Butler, 1990-2001	6

2t. Charles Woodson, 1998-2011	11

GIANTS AT PACKERS - NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

Green Bay went 7-1 on the road this season, with the seven road wins setting a single-season franchise record.

- ▶ The Packers have been able to stay above the .500 mark on the road during McCarthy's tenure, a notable achievement in the National Football League.
- ▶ Since 2006, McCarthy's first season as the head coach in Green Bay, only 10 of 32 NFL teams have regular-season road records above .500.

301 AND COUNTING

Another packed house at Lambeau Field against the Lions on Sunday brought the stadium's consecutive sellouts streak to 301 games (285 regular season, 16 playoffs).

- ▶ The Week 7 crowd in 2010 of 71,107 vs. Minnesota was the third-largest regular-season crowd in Lambeau Field history.
- ▶ The league's longest-tenured stadium, Lambeau Field is hosting its 55th season of football this year. A total of 566,362 fans made their way through the turnstiles in the eight home contests in 2010.
- ▶ Across American professional sports, only Boston's Fenway Park (1912) and Chicago's Wrigley Field (1914) have longer tenures.

THE LAMBEAU ADVANTAGE

The crown jewel of the National Football League, Lambeau Field has long been known as one of the tougher venues to play in, particularly during the harsh Wisconsin winter.

- ▶ Re-establishing home-field advantage after a 4-4 mark in 2008 was one of the goals of 2009, and with the Packers finishing 6-2 at home, they accomplished that goal. Green Bay followed that up with a 7-1 mark at Lambeau Field in 2010 and a perfect 8-0 record this season, the first undefeated home mark since 2002.
- ▶ Head Coach Mike McCarthy stated consistently upon his arrival in Green Bay that one of the team's goals would be to reclaim the mystique of playing at Lambeau Field. Mission accomplished. The team is 34-8 (.810) at home over the past 42 regular-season games, good for No. 2 in the NFL over that span behind only New England (38-4, .905).
- ▶ Since Ron Wolf and Mike Holmgren began the revitalization of the franchise in 1992, Green Bay owns the best home record in the NFL. A look at the top regular-season home W-L records since the '92 season:

Team	W-L record	Pct.
1. Green Bay	122-38-0	.763
2. Pittsburgh	116-43-1	.728
3. New England	111-49-0	.694
4. Baltimore (since '96)	88-39-1	.691
5. Denver	109-51-0	.681

HOME COOKING

The Packers' win over Dallas at Lambeau in November 2009 was the first step to a 7-1 finish and a playoff berth for Green Bay.

- ▶ Since that Week 10 victory over the Cowboys in '09, the Packers have been the best team in the league at home. Green Bay's lone defeat since then came to Miami last season in Week 6 when the Packers fell to the Dolphins in overtime.

Team	W-L record	Pct.
1. Green Bay	19-1-0	.950
2. New England	18-1-0	.947
3. Baltimore	18-2-0	.900

IN THE FREE-AGENCY ERA

Talk of unrestricted free agency in the early '90s led many to forecast tough times for the small-town Green Bay Packers.

- ▶ However, Green Bay has remained among the most successful teams since the advent of free agency in 1993. The Packers have won 10 or more games 10 times since '93 and captured seven division crowns.
- ▶ A look at the most successful teams in the free-agency era:

Tie Game

Green Bay 17, Denver 17, Sept. 20, 1987, at Milwaukee

GREEN BAY, Wis. -- A Super Bowl hangover and the NFL lockout weren't about to slow down Aaron Rodgers and the Green Bay Packers. The New Orleans Saints just couldn't keep up. Rodgers came out on top in a memorable opening-night duel with Drew Brees, and the Packers made a goal-line stand on the final play of the game to beat the Saints on 42-34 on Thursday night.

With the Saints on the 1-yard line, Clay Matthews and safety Morgan Burnett led a swarm of Packers defenders who stopped Saints rookie running back Mark Ingram short of the goal line. Rodgers and Brees had big games, but Packers rookie Randall Cobb stole the show. Cobb, a second-round draft pick out of Kentucky, caught a touchdown from Rodgers and ran a kickoff back 108 yards for a score in the third quarter -- tying an NFL record for the longest kickoff return in history.

In the wake of a rules change designed to promote touchbacks, Cobb just decided to run one back from deep in the end zone. Rodgers threw for 312 yards and three touchdowns. Brees threw for 419 yards and three touchdowns, including a late touchdown to Jimmy Graham that cut the lead to 8 with 2:15 left.

After a Green Bay punt, Brees marched the Saints to the Packers 9-yard line and spiked the ball with 3 seconds left. Green Bay's A.J. Hawk was called for pass interference and the ball was placed at the 1. Led by Matthews and Burnett, the Packers defense swarmed Ingram short of the goal line and the game was over.

It was a big night for Donald Driver, who tied James Lofton's Packers franchise mark for career yards receiving with 9,656. The Packers' most impressive scoring play of the night came courtesy of Cobb, who fielded the ball deep in the Packers' end zone in the third quarter but took it out anyway. Cobb spun off a tackling attempt by the Saints' Leigh Torrence, put his right hand down to keep his balance, then rambled to the end zone.

Cobb's 108-yard return tied an NFL record set by New England's Ellis Hobbs in September 2007. It also was the Packers' first kickoff return for a touchdown since Allen Rossum in 2000. Cobb's big return gave the Packers a 35-20 lead, but the game wasn't over. Darren Sproles answered with a long kickoff return of his own, and Brees drove the Saints for a 29-yard touchdown to Devery Henderson.

With a massive stage engulfing a portion of the Lambeau Field parking lot for a pregame concert, Thursday night certainly felt like a big game had come to the NFL's smallest market. Going into the game, Greg Jennings compared it to a "mini Super Bowl." But there wasn't anything small about the Packers' performance, proving once again that they were ready for the bright lights and a tough opponent.

ATLANTA — Aaron Rodgers was down early, but hardly down and out.

In the end, the result was the same. Another win for the Super Bowl champs in Atlanta.

Following up on a blowout of the Falcons in last year's playoffs, Rodgers threw for 396 yards and a pair of touchdowns to rally Green Bay from an early 14-0 hole, keeping the Packers unbeaten with a 25-14 victory Sunday night.

The high-scoring Packers (5-0) were held without a touchdown in the first half by Atlanta (2-3), which was trying to make up for an embarrassing 48-21 loss to Green Bay last January. The Falcons had the Georgia Dome packed when they raced to a 14-0 lead early in the second quarter, scoring on their first two possessions.

After that, the home fans had little to cheer about as Green Bay sealed for three field goals by Mason Crosby, closing on 14-9 before Rodgers got rolling. He connected with James Jones on a 70-yard touchdown that gave Green Bay its first lead late in the third quarter. Then, on the first play of the fourth, Rodgers connected with Greg Jennings on a 29-yard scoring play that stretched the lead to 22-14.

Crosby clinched it for the Packers with his fourth field goal, a 30-yarder with 1:10 remaining after Rodgers guided the Packers on another long drive. With every pass he needed until Green Bay was safely in a single to wrap it up, Rodgers threw for 396 yards and two touchdowns.

Atlanta did not rack 200 total yards until late in the game. Matt Ryan had the tough night against the Packers, throwing for just 167 yards with two more interceptions after turning it over three times in that playoff debacle last January.

Take the Jennings kickoff. Atlanta went 80 yards in 13 plays to grab a 7-0 lead on Ryan's 5-yard touchdown pass to Roddy White. What was more impressive was the kick. The Falcons drove the field.

The Packers were driving for the matching score when Ryan Grant took a shot from Brent Grimes, knocking the ball loose. Vance Walker fell on the huddle at the Atlanta 40, giving it back to Ryan and the Falcons offense.

Ten more plays, and it was 14-9. Ryan completed four straight passes for 45 yards. Turner finished it off by powering over from the 1. The Georgia Dome was in a hush, and the Falcons looked unstoppable.

But the Super Bowl champs were not to just roll over. Crosby connected from 32 and 35 yards to make it 14-6 at halftime, then boomed through a 56-yarder that matched the longest field goal in franchise history. An uneasy feeling settled over the raucous crowd, with good reason. After another three-and-out for an Atlanta offense that suddenly couldn't do anything right, the Packers finally took it to the end zone.

Rodgers completed and fired one deep down the middle to Jones, who got a step on Thomas DeCoud, took the throw without breaking stride and read on 15-14. The Falcons never recovered.

The lead grew on the first play of the fourth quarter. Rodgers threw over the middle to Jennings, who turned on a burst of speed to get around the corner, then stretched out with one hand to get the ball past the pylon.

GREEN BAY, Wis. — The Green Bay Packers' record remains perfect. The fact that their play has been far from flawless remains a constant source of motivation for Aaron Rodgers.

Rodgers threw three touchdowns, including a career-long 93-yarder to Jordy Nelson, and the Packers rolled to a 24-3 victory over the St. Louis Rams on Sunday. With Sunday's loss by NFC North rival Detroit, the Packers (6-0) are the last unbeaten team left in the NFL this season.

Rodgers threw for 310 yards, delivering touchdowns to Nelson, James Jones and Donald Driver.

Sam Bradford was 28 of 44 for 321 yards with an interception for the Rams (0-5), who were coming off their bye week. Rams running back Steven Jackson had 18 carries for 96 yards.

The Packers were wearing blue-and-gold uniforms designed to replicate a 1929 design, but Rodgers' ability to scramble out of trouble and make big plays was anything but a throwback to the days of leather helmets. Rodgers did offer a wholehearted endorsement of the third uniform earlier in the week, saying the pants were among the most comfortable football pants he'd ever worn.

As Rodgers kept rolling, the Packers continued to brush off a fresh batch of injuries.

Green Bay got right tackle Bryan Bulaga back from a knee injury after the 2010 first-round pick missed the previous two games. But the Packers will have to live without veteran left tackle Chad Clifton indefinitely after he injured his hamstring in last Sunday's victory at Atlanta.

Second-year player Marshall Newhouse took over for Clifton, but the Rams couldn't get much pressure on Rodgers -- and when they did, he simply spun away.

The Packers also were banged up at safety. Already missing Pro Bowl safety Nick Collins -- out for the season after sustaining a neck injury in Week 2 -- fellow safety Morgan Burnett had to play Sunday's game with a huge club on his broken right hand.

Green Bay's secondary took another blow in the third quarter when cornerback Sam Shields sustained a head injury after he picked off a Bradford pass in the end zone and was hit hard. McCarthy said Shields was still being evaluated after the game.

Trailing 3-0 and facing a fourth-and-3 play near the end of the first quarter, the Rams went for it and Bradford threw incomplete. The Packers got the ball back and gamed on fourth down as well, going for it on fourth-and-1 at the 50. James Starks burst through the line for a 15-yard gain. Rodgers showed his mastery of play action on the next play, faking a handoff to Starks on the right side, rolling to his left and delivering a perfect pass to Jones in the end zone for a 35-yard touchdown and 10-0 lead.

After a Rams punt pinned the Packers at their own 7, Rodgers got the best of former teammate Al Harris on his big play to Nelson. Rodgers got the veteran cornerback to bite on a fake and then threw a rainbow to the wide-open Nelson for an easy score and a 17-0 lead.

Rodgers put together another drive toward the end of the second quarter, capitalizing on the threat of his running ability to finish it off. On second-and-goal at the 7, Rodgers appeared to make a run for the end zone -- then pulled up and flipped the ball to Driver for a touchdown with 1:51 left before halftime.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. -- Tied with less than a minute to play and 80 yards from the end zone, Aaron Rodgers wasn't going to wait until over time. Rodgers completed passes of 24, 27 and 18 yards in a lightning-quick five-play drive to set up a 31-yard field goal by Mason Crosby on the final play, and the Green Bay Packers remained undefeated and clinched a playoff berth with a 38-35 victory over the New York Giants on Sunday. The defending Super Bowl champions (12-0) won their 18th straight game. Coupled with the Detroit Lions loss to New Orleans Sunday, the Packers captured the NFC North.

Rodgers hit all four of his passes in the 58-second drive that sent the Giants (6-6) to their fourth straight loss, starting with a 24-yard laser to tight end Jeremie Elson just over the hands of rookie linebacker Jacquan Williams. The second one covered 24 yards to Jordy Nelson down the left sideline and winning the game. Rodgers hit all four of his passes in the 58-second drive that sent the Giants (6-6) to their fourth straight loss, starting with a 24-yard laser to tight end Jeremie Elson just over the hands of rookie linebacker Jacquan Williams. The second one covered 24 yards to Jordy Nelson down the left sideline and winning the game.

Green Bay called time out with 3 seconds to go, and then Crosby delivered his winning kick. Rodgers, harassed by the Giants' front four and sacked three times, finished 28 of 46 for 369 yards. He threw touchdown passes of 7 and 13 yards to Donald Driver and 12 to Finley in addition to the one to Jennings. The Giants tied it on a 2-yard touchdown pass from Eli Manning to Hakeem Nicks, and a 2-point conversion run by D.J. Ware on a Manning audible with just under a minute to play.

Manning's touchdowns covered 67-yards to Travis Beckum and 4 and 2 yards to Nicks. Brandon Jacobs scored on a 1-yard run after a rare interception of Rodgers and Lawrence Tyrnes kicked two field goals with a 50-yarder in the fourth quarter getting New York within 28-27. Rodgers hooked up with Driver on a 7-yard TD with 3:34 to go to push the lead to 35-27. However, Manning hit tight end Jake Ballard on two 15-yard passes and connected with Victor Cruz for 22 yards to set up the tying score that New York thought would send the game to OT.

Rodgers had other ideas, though, and the Packers continued their run at trying to match Miami's perfect season in 1972. It's not surprising New York gave them a game. The Giants ended the Denver Broncos' perfect season at 11 games in 1998 and they knocked off the New England Patriots in the Super Bowl in February 2006 when Tom Brady and company were a game from perfection. The New York seemed to be in control until Manning made a mistake on a play-action pass on the first play of the second quarter. With his primary receivers covered, Manning threw a 30-yard pass to Ahmad Bradshaw in front of the Packers bench and Matthews jumped the route and returned it 36 yards for a touchdown. Rodgers had only been intercepted four times all season but linebacker Chase Blackburn, signed Wednesday, picked him off at the Green Bay 21 and returned the ball to the 12. Two plays later, Jacobs played in from the 1 to give New York a 17-14 edge. Blackburn then returned a 40-yard punt and Rodgers atoned for the error on the next series, driving the Packers 80 yards in 11 plays with the biggest play being an 11-yard scramble on a third-and-10 from New York 43. Rodgers capped the march with a 13-yard, third-down touchdown pass to a wide-open Driver on a play in which the Giants secondary blew the coverage.

GREEN BAY, Wis. — With the first five-touchdown passing game of his NFL career, Aaron Rodgers ensured that the Green Bay Packers' playoff road will go through Lambeau Field.

He also made sure the rival Chicago Bears will be spending the playoffs at home.

Rodgers broke a close game wide open by leading three quick scoring drives in the second half, and the Packers beat the Bears 35-21 on Sunday night.

Rodgers threw a pair of touchdown passes to Jordy Nelson, another two to James Jones, and found tight end Jermichael Finley for a score. Rodgers was 21 of 29 for 283 yards and five touchdowns with no interceptions when backup Matt Flynn took over for Rodgers with 7:54 left in the game.

Rodgers surpassed Lynn Dickey's single-season franchise record of 4,458 yards passing with one game left, although it's unclear how much Rodgers will play in the Packers' finale against Detroit.

Third-string running back Kahlil Bell rushed for 121 yards for the Bears, who trailed by only four early in the third quarter. But Rodgers drove the Packers for touchdowns on their next three possessions to put the game out of reach.

Chicago came into a four-game losing streak and beset by injuries. But the Bears were able to stay in the game with solid defense and tough running by Bell, who started because of injuries to Matt Forte and Marion Barber.

The victory was the Packers' fourth over the Bears in 2011. Green Bay also beat Chicago in the 2010 regular-season finale, the NFC Championship game, and at Soldier Field on Sept. 25.

With the Bears trailing 14-3 at halftime, quarterback Josh McCown found Earl Bennett wide open for a 49-yard gain to set up first-and-goal on the 1. Bell tumbled just short of the goal line on the next play but offensive lineman Edwin Williams recovered the ball for a touchdown.

With the Packers nursing a four-point lead, and the Lambeau Field crowd nervously quiet early in the third quarter, Rodgers answered by dropping deep and throwing a rainbow pass to Nelson, who blew through the Chicago secondary and hauled in the ball for a 55-yard touchdown.

Rodgers then showed his running ability on the Packers' next possession, juking his way between Bears linemen Brian Urlacher and Lance Briggs on a scramble. Rodgers finished the drive with a 7-yard touchdown pass to Jones, giving the Packers a commanding 28-10 lead.

Packers safety Charlie Peprah came up with an interception, and Rodgers found Nelson for another score to give Green Bay a 35-10 lead.

McCown finally answered with a 1-yard touchdown pass to tight end Kellen Davis -- then drew the ire of the Lambeau crowd by scrambling for a two-point conversion and spiking the ball over the goalpost with his team trailing 35-18.

2011 BIOGRAPHIES

THROUGH WEEK 17

55 Desmond Bishop, LB, 5th Year, California

2011 Season: Entrenched starter at the 'Mack' ILB position, opened the first 11 games before suffering a calf injury at Detroit in Week 12, then sitting out Weeks 13-15...Was named an alternate to the Pro Bowl in this his first full season as a starter, after leading the team in tackles with 142 stops (109 solo), setting a new career high with five sacks, and also adding two forced fumbles and two passes defended...Led or tied for the team lead in tackles in nine of the 13 games that he appeared in.

►vs. New Orleans Saints (9/8): Placed second on the defense with 11 tackles (all solo) and was also credited with a QB hit...Stopped RB Mark Ingram for no gain on a third-and-1 late in the third quarter...Came in unblocked behind DE Jarius Wynn, meeting Ingram at the line of scrimmage...New Orleans turned the ball over on downs on the ensuing play.

►at Carolina Panthers (9/18): Led the defense with 12 tackles (nine solo) and was credited with his fifth career sack when he touched QB Cam Newton down for a 13-yard loss in the second quarter...Ran a cross blitz with fellow LB A.J. Hawk and came free outside the right tackle...LB Clay Matthews had the initial pressure on Newton, who spun away but went down before being hit by Bishop...Also contributed to a red-zone defense that allowed just two TDs in six trips during the game...Stopped RB Jonathan Stewart after a 3-yard catch to the Green Bay 2-yard line on third down early in the first quarter to force a FG...Game marked the eighth double-digit tackle outing of his career.

►at Chicago Bears (9/25): Led the team in tackles with seven (five solo, one for loss), and helped key a run defense that allowed just 13 net yards on the afternoon...Shot between C and RG to help Matthews drop RB Matt Forté for a loss of a yard early in the first quarter...Solo tackle for loss was credited when he hit Forté in the backfield in a goal-line situation later in the second quarter...On the play, again filled a large hole between C and RG, wrapping up Forté at the Green Bay 4-yard line.

►vs. Denver Broncos (10/2): Led the way with a season-high 13 tackles (11 solo), a sack and a key forced fumble in the Packers' 49-23 defeat of Denver...Forced fumble came in the third quarter deep inside Green Bay territory when he missed a jam at the line on Daniel Fells and was trailing the TE down the seam...Gave up a completion but caught up in time to make the tackle and strip the ball from behind; fumble was recovered by S Morgan Burnett...The offense drove 86 yards in five plays for a TD, extending the lead to 42-17...Second sack of the season came on Denver's next possession when he ran a cross blitz with Hawk and dropped QB Kyle Orton for an 8-yard loss after he'd stepped up in the pocket to avoid Matthews...Also made a successful denial of Denver's two-point conversion attempt late in the fourth quarter...Shot through the line of scrimmage and dropped RB Knowshon Moreno in the backfield to thwart the attempt and keep the score at 49-23.

►at Atlanta Falcons (10/9): Paced the defense in tackles for the fourth consecutive week with nine stops (seven solo, two for loss) and his career-high tying third sack of the season...First tackle for loss came on the Falcons' opening drive when he shot through RG and RT and dropped RB Michael Turner in the backfield for a 2-yard loss...Also stopped Turner twice for no gains at the line of scrimmage...Sack came on a first-and-10 in the fourth quarter with Atlanta driving at the Green Bay 29-yard line... On the play, delayed his rush and then surged past LT Sam Baker, who had collapsed in to help block NT B.J. Raji, and dropped QB Matt Ryan for an 11-yard loss...Forced the Falcons into a second-and-21 and Ryan was intercepted on the next play by S Charlie Peprah.

►vs. St. Louis Rams (10/16): Recorded a career-high 20 tackles (15 solo) for a defense that did not allow a TD for the first time in 2011...Was awarded a defensive game ball after posting the highest tackle total by a Green Bay player since Hawk tallied 20 at Seattle on Nov. 27, 2006...One of his stops came on a third-down play on the first drive of the second half when he corralled physical RB Steven Jackson after a short completion to force a punt...Helped key a red-zone defense that kept the Rams from scoring on three trips inside the 20 en route to a 24-3 Packers win.

►at Minnesota Vikings (10/23): Led the defense with 12 tackles (11 solo, one for loss)...Tackle for loss came on the game's opening drive when he shot through the line to drop RB Adrian Peterson for a 1-yard loss on first-and-goal from the 1-yard line.

►at San Diego Chargers (11/6): Finished with a team-high 10 tackles (six solo, one for loss), his career-high fourth sack, and a pass defended...Credited with a pass defended after running in coverage with TE Antonio Gates down the seam and deflecting a pass that was intercepted by S Charlie Peprah and ultimately returned 40 yards for a TD to give Green Bay its first lead, 14-7...Set a new single-season career high for himself with his 9-yard sack of QB Philip Rivers early in the fourth quarter...On the play, lined up outside of Matthews on the left edge of the defensive front and used an outside rush, ripping through and turning past RT Jeromey Clary to drop Rivers in the backfield for the Packers' second sack of the game.

►vs. Minnesota Vikings (11/14): Led the defense with 12 tackles (eight solo, one for loss), also recording a sack and a pass defended...Fifth sack of the season came late in the third quarter when he blitzed off the left edge outside of Matthews...Sped past RT Phil Loadholt and then barrled through Peterson to nail QB Christian Ponder for an 8-yard loss, forcing a third-and-long on a drive that resulted in a turnover on downs two plays later.

►vs. Tampa Bay Buccaneers (11/20): Tied for the team lead with nine tackles (all solo, two for loss)...First tackle for loss came in the second quarter when he shot through C and RG and combined with DT Howard Green to drop RB LeGarrette Blount for a 3-yard loss...Second TFL came when he fought off a block by FB Erik Lorig and corralled Blount for a 1-yard loss in the third quarter.
