PRESEASON WEEK 3

GREEN BAY (0-2) AT CINCINNATI (2-0)

Thursday, Aug. 23 • Paul Brown Stadium • 6 p.m. CDT

PACKERS HEAD TO CINCINNATI TO TAKE ON THE BENGALS

The Packers travel to Cincinnati this Thursday night to face the Bengals at Paul Brown Stadium, Green Bay's first visit to Cincinnati in the preseason since 2006.

- ▶ The 2006 meeting came in Mike McCarthy's first season as head coach. This season's road preseason slate (at San Diego, at Cincinnati) is the same as it was in McCarthy's debut campaign.
- ▶ The clubs' last preseason meeting came in 2008, when the teams squared off in the opener at Lambeau Field on Monday Night Football. That contest marked QB Aaron Rodgers' first NFL start (preseason or regular season), a game the Bengals won, 20-17.
- ▶ This will be the 17th preseason meeting overall between the clubs, with the Bengals holding an 11-4-1 advantage in the all-time series. The teams first faced off in the preseason in 1970, the first of 10 straight seasons (1970-79) that the clubs played each other in the preseason. Three of the meetings over that span came in Milwaukee.
- ▶ Thursday will mark the Packers' third game ever at Paul Brown Stadium, which opened in 2000. The prior meetings were the '06 preseason contest and a regular-season visit in 2005.
- ▶ The franchises have met just 11 times in the regular season, with the last game coming in 2009 at Lambeau Field. Over the past 13 seasons (1999-2011), the teams met just twice (2005 and 2009). The Bengals hold a 6-5-0 edge in the all-time regular-season series.
- ▶ Thursday's matchup includes a meeting of head coaches that worked together more than 20 years ago. McCarthy and Bengals head coach Marvin Lewis both coached on the staff at the University of Pittsburgh in 1990-91. This will be the fourth meeting overall between the two head coaches (one regular-season meeting, third preseason game).
- ▶ This will be the final game before the league's first mandatory roster reduction, one that requires teams to get down to 75 players by 3 p.m. (CDT) on Monday, Aug. 27.
- ▶ Green Bay fell to Cleveland, 35-10, in its home preseason opener last Thursday night. The Packers will close out their preseason slate next Thursday night against the Kansas City Chiefs at Lambeau Field. It marks the third straight year that the teams are meeting in the preseason finale.

- ▶ In addition to WTMJ-TV (Milwaukee) and WFRV-TV (Green Bay), the final three preseason games will be televised over WKOW/ABC, Madison, Wis.; WAOW/ABC, Wausau/Rhineland, Wis.; WXOW/ABC, La Crosse, Wis.; WQOW/ABC, Eau Claire, Wis.; WLUC/NBC, Escanaba/Marquette, Mich.; KQDS-TV/FOX, Duluth/Superior, Minn.; KLJB-TV/FOX and KGCW/CW, Davenport, Iowa (Quad Cities); KCWI-TV/CW, Des Moines, Iowa; and KMTV-TV/CBS, Omaha, Neb.
- ▶ In its first season, in conjunction with the Packers TV Network, Telemundo Wisconsin (WYTU-TV in Milwaukee and on Charter Cable elsewhere in Wisconsin) will broadcast the game with Andy Olivares (play-by-play) and Kevin Holden (analyst) calling the action.
- ▶ Milwaukee's WTMJ (620 AM), airing Green Bay games since 1929, heads up the 53-station Packers Radio Network, with Wayne Larrivee (play-by-play) and two-time Packers Pro Bowler Larry McCarren (color) calling the action. The duo enters its 14th season of broadcasts together across the Packers Radio Network, which covers 44 markets in six states.

WITH THE CALL

Flagshipped by Milwaukee's WTMJ-TV and in conjunction with WGBA-TV in Green Bay, the game will be televised over a 14-station network throughout the state of Wisconsin, Upper Michigan, northeastern Minnesota, the Quad Cities and Des Moines in Iowa, and Omaha, Nebraska.

- ▶ The top-notch broadcast team includes CBS's Kevin Harlan (play-by-play) alongside fellow CBS broadcaster Rich Gannon (analyst), with Trenni Kusnierek of WTMJ Radio serving as the sideline reporter.

PACKERS AT BENGALS - PRESEASON WEEK 3

PACKERS FALL TO BROWNS IN HOME PRESEASON OPENER

Green Bay lost to Cleveland, 35-10, in the 63rd installment of the Upper Midwest Shrine Game in front of 68,201 at Lambeau Field last Thursday night.

- ▶ Green Bay's No. 1 defense didn't waste any time making an impact, with DB Charles Woodson stripping RB Montario Hardesty at the end of a 4-yard run on the Browns' first play from scrimmage. Rookie CB Casey Hayward recovered the ball at the Cleveland 23 to set the offense up with prime field position.
- ▶ Three plays later, QB Aaron Rodgers found WR Jordy Nelson in the corner of the end zone on a 20-yard scoring strike to give Green Bay an early 7-0 lead.
- ▶ Rodgers and the rest of the offensive starters played the entire first quarter, but the other two series ended with a WR Randall Cobb fumble after a catch and a failed fourth-down conversion at the Green Bay 45. Rodgers completed 6-of-11 passes for 59 yards and the TD (100.2 rating).
- ▶ No. 2 QB Graham Harrell took over for the rest of the game until the final series, and completed 12-of-24 passes for 100 yards with two INTs. One of the interceptions came on a Hail Mary pass as time expired in the first half.
- ▶ Rookie WR Jarrett Boykin led the team with five catches for 63 yards (12.6 avg.) on the evening. Rookie CB Otis Merrill posted a 60-yard kickoff return with just a little more than a minute to go in the first half.
- ▶ P Tim Masthay had another strong outing, averaging 52.5 yards on four punts with a net average of 45.3 yards.
- ▶ The Packers had 18 players that did not dress on Thursday night. Sitting out against Cleveland were RB Du'ane Bennett (knee), RB Cedric Benson (recently signed), LB Desmond Bishop (hamstring), WR Diondre Borel (groin), G Ray Dominguez (ankle), TE Jermichael Finley (quad), FB Jon Hoese (hamstring), CB Davon House (shoulder), WR Greg Jennings (concussion), DE Johnny Jones (knee), FB John Kuhn (ankle), TE Andrew Quarless (knee), RB Brandon Saine (hamstring), T Derek Sherrod (leg), CB Sam Shields (elbow), WR Shaky Smithson (ankle), James Starks (toe) and LB Frank Zombo (hamstring).

"I felt the things that Graham did very well, I was very pleased with his scramble ability and quarterback runs for first down. That's something that I would not say was part of his game last year or so. I think he's really improved in that part of the pocket awareness. I thought he was put in some tough spots. On the negative side, he missed some throws. We'll take a close look at it and I can promise you that no one will correct or detail the play of the quarterback better than our coaches."

▶ (on the No. 1 offense's turnovers in the first two games)

"Well, you could throw the whole team in there. We're turning the damn ball over too much. I don't care if it's preseason, scrimmage, practice, it's something that needs to stop. There's no excuse for that. For as much as we train taking care of the football and emphasizing it, it's important that the things that you do every single day in your practice structure show up on gameday. So, the offense and special teams, we have to take care of the football."

▶ (if there is concern over the first two preseason games)

"We don't brush anything off. I thought what was concerning was the final score. And that's about as far as it goes. Because the reality of it was that it's a preseason game. You play to win, but you have other objectives, you have other goals. The one main goal is to make sure you hit your target as far as how many reps and particular plays you're able to get in this game. And I felt good about that because we needed a lot of information about our younger players and I felt we were able to do that tonight. So we'll go through a normal Monday, in-season schedule tomorrow. The players will have strength and conditioning responsibility, we'll look at all the tape together, special teams, quarterbacks, and offense and defense. I'll give a final review of the game to finish up in team meetings. The quality might not be quite what we want, but we'll let the film tell us that. But I was pleased with the way the team was repped today."

WHERE THEY'LL BE THURSDAY NIGHT

Coaches often use the preseason as a test to see where players are best utilized. Head Coach Mike McCarthy is on the sidelines, but here's a look at where the rest of the staff will be Thursday:

- ▶ Coaches' Box: Dom Capers (defensive coordinator), Jerry Fontenot (tight ends), Joel Hilgenberg (assistant offensive line), Ben McAdoo (quarterbacks), Scott McCurley (defensive quality control), John Rushing (offensive assistant/special teams) and Joe Whitt (secondary - cornerbacks).
- ▶ Sideline: Edgar Bennett (wide receivers), James Campen (offensive line), Tom Clements (offensive coordinator), Mike Eayrs (research and development), Kevin Greene (outside linebackers), Chad Morton (special teams assistant), Winston Moss (inside linebackers/asst. head coach), Darren Perry (secondary - safeties), Shawn Slocum (special teams coordinator), Mike Trgovac (defensive line) and Alex Van Pelt (running backs).

WHAT IS AHEAD

After enjoying two days off from Ray Nitschke Field following the game on Thursday night vs. Cleveland, the Packers will hit the practice field three times this week, with two of the three sessions (Sunday-Monday) scheduled for 11:15 a.m. and one scheduled for 11 a.m. (Tuesday).

- ▶ The practices on Sunday and Monday are scheduled to be in full pads, though the health of the team heading into Thursday night's contest against the Bengals could determine if those numbers stay the same.
- ▶ Including the Family Night practice, the team will have 18 practices under its belt when it takes the field vs. Cincinnati.
- ▶ Following the Cincinnati contest, the team will take two days off (Aug. 24-25) from the practice field before returning on Sunday, Aug. 26. The Packers will practice Sunday, Monday and Tuesday leading into the preseason finale at Lambeau Field on Thursday night vs. Kansas City. The Aug. 28 practice will be the final session open to the public.

- ▶ Has led the Packers to playoff appearances in four of his six seasons as the helm, and the team's four postseason berths over the past five seasons are the most by an NFC team.
- ▶ His .654 winning percentage (including playoffs) ranks No. 3 among active NFL coaches (min. 50 games) entering the 2012 season.

- ▶ Was named Packers head coach on Jan. 12, 2006, his first head-coaching job after 13 years as an NFL assistant.
- ▶ Became the first Packers coach since Lombardi to lead the team to a championship game in his second season (2007).

MARVIN LEWIS...Is in 10th year as the Bengals' ninth head coach.

- ▶ His Bengals are among only 10 NFL teams to make the playoffs in two or more of the past three seasons.

THE PACKERS-BENGALS SERIES

The two teams have met 11 times in the regular season, with the Bengals holding a 6-5-0 edge.

- ▶ The Bengals have won the last two regular-season meetings (2005 and 2009). Prior to 2005, Green Bay owned a three-game winning streak in the series (24-23 in 1992 and 24-10 in 1995, both in Green Bay, and 13-6 in 1998 at Cincinnati).

▶ Perhaps the most memorable game in the series came in 1992 when Brett Favre, summoned to replace an injured Don Majkowski at quarterback in the first quarter, proceeded to direct the Packers to an electrifying, 24-23 come-from-behind victory, forged when he hit wide receiver Kitrick Taylor with a 35-yard scoring pass as only 13 seconds remained in the game. Chris Jacke's subsequent PAT settled the issue.

▶ The series launched at Lambeau Field in 1971, when the legendary Paul Brown was head coach of the Bengals, a team he had founded three years earlier as a member of the then American Football League. The Packers posted a 20-17 victory in their first meeting, with a Lou Michaels field goal providing the victory margin.

- ▶ Green Bay had 14 different players catch passes on the evening, with WR Donald Driver leading the way with four grabs for 39 yards (9.8 avg.).
- ▶ Bengals QB Carson Palmer connected with TE Ben Utecht on a 14-yard TD pass and RB Chris Perry scored from 6 yards out to help give Cincinnati a 17-10 lead at the half, one it would not relinquish.

PACKERS AT BENGALS - PRESEASON WEEK 3

LOTS OF FAMILIAR FACES

General Manager Ted Thompson continued his philosophy of building through the draft in the 2012 offseason, but also added some veteran players in free agency.

- ▶ Green Bay welcomes the return of 19 of 22 players that started against the N.Y. Giants in the NFC Divisional playoff.
- ▶ Seven Packers earned Pro Bowl recognition in 2011, the largest contingent Green Bay had voted into the all-star game since 1967. Six of those players return in 2012, with C Scott Wells departing to St. Louis in free agency.
- ▶ The Packers filled the void left by Wells through unrestricted free agency when they signed veteran C Jeff Saturday, a five-time Pro Bowler with the Indianapolis Colts.
- ▶ Green Bay also added to its defensive line with the signings of DE Anthony Hargrove (Seattle) and free agents Phillip Merling and Daniel Muir.
- ▶ The continuity extends to the coaching staff, where almost the entire group returns for 2012 with a few changes in duties.
- ▶ Tom Clements, who tutored the quarterbacks for the past six seasons, moves into the role of offensive coordinator in 2012 after Joe Philbin left to become the head coach of the Miami Dolphins.
- ▶ Ben McAdoo, who coached the team's tight ends from 2006-11, will now direct the quarterbacks, while Jerry Fontenot, who tutored the running backs in 2011, will take over as tight ends coach. Alex Van Pelt, a six-year NFL assistant, enters his first season with the club as running backs coach.
- ▶ Two other coaches will have different duties, with Joel Hilgenberg serving as assistant offensive line coach and John Rushing as offensive assistant/special teams.

MEET THE DRAFT PICKS

Training-camp storylines always hover around new players and just how they figure into the depth chart. This past April, the Packers added to an already deep and talented roster with an eight-man draft class.

- ▶ LB Nick Perry, the first Southern California defensive player to be selected in the first round of the NFL Draft since the Packers picked Clay Matthews in 2009, earned first-team All-Pacific-12 recognition as a junior in 2011. His career-high 9½ sacks led the conference and he was one of six finalists for the Hendricks Award, which is given to the nation's top defensive end.
- ▶ The Packers moved up in the second round to select DE Jerel Worthy out of Michigan State, the first of three times that GM Ted Thompson traded up in the 2012 NFL Draft. Worthy was a consensus first-team All-American as a junior in 2011, the first Spartan defensive tackle to earn first-team honors since Ronald Curl in 1971. Worthy was also the school's first All-Big Ten first-team selection since 1989.
- ▶ Green Bay traded up into the second round to draft a second player, CB Casey Hayward from Vanderbilt. Hayward twice earned second-team All-Southeastern Conference honors for the Commodores and tied for No. 3 in the country with a career-high seven INTs as a senior in 2011. He posted 15 INTs at Vanderbilt, tying him for the most in school history with Leonard Coleman (1980-83).
- ▶ In the fourth round, the Packers drafted DT Mike Daniels from Iowa. He earned second-team All-Big Ten honors from the coaches following his senior campaign in 2011 when he posted a career-high 67 tackles and nine sacks. Daniels posted a team-high 24½ tackles for loss and 13 sacks over his final two seasons.
- ▶ Green Bay selected S Jerron McMILLIAN out of Maine with its second selection in the fourth round. He was a first-team All-Colonial Athletic Conference selection in 2011 and earned second-team All-American honors from Phil Steele. McMILLIAN finished second on the team in both tackles (92) and tackles for loss (11½) as a senior.

- ▶ Thompson traded up for the third and final time on draft weekend to select LB Terrell Manning from North Carolina State in the fifth round, the last of six consecutive defenders chosen by the Packers to open the draft. Manning earned second-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors as a junior in 2011, recording a career-high 83 tackles despite missing two games with a knee injury.
- ▶ With the first of two choices in the seventh round, Green Bay selected T Andrew Datko from Florida State. He was a four-year starter at LT for the Seminoles but saw his senior campaign cut short after just four games due to a shoulder injury. Datko was named to the preseason watch list in 2011 for the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award. He allowed just one sack and was penalized only three times in 11 starts as a junior in 2010.
- ▶ The Packers drafted QB B.J. Coleman out of Tennessee-Chattanooga in the seventh round with their eighth and final selection. He finished his career at UTC ranked either first or second in every major statistical passing category despite playing only three seasons there after transferring from Tennessee. Coleman started 29 games in his three seasons at Chattanooga and threw for 6,871 yards and 52 TDs.

BREAKING DOWN THE ROSTER

The Packers' current 90-man roster is composed of 47 offensive players, 40 defensive players and three specialists.

- ▶ Of the 90 players on Green Bay's roster, 38 of them (42.2 percent) were drafted by the Packers.
- ▶ With 31 non-drafted free agents on the roster having started their NFL career with Green Bay, 69 of the 90 players (76.7 percent) began their pro careers with the Packers.
- ▶ Nearly two-thirds of the players (59 of 90, 65.6 percent) on Green Bay's roster entered the league as a sixth-round or seventh-round pick or as an undrafted player. Close to half the players (44, 48.9 percent) on the roster were not drafted.

- ▶ Matthews has registered 29.5 sacks since 2009, which is tied for No. 9 in the league over that span.
- ▶ Matthews' six sacks in 2011 led the team. He has paced the defense in sacks each of his first three seasons (2009-11) in Green Bay.
- ▶ While Matthews didn't rank among the league leaders in sacks last season, he continued to provide consistent pressure on opposing signal-callers.
- ▶ According to STATS LLC, Matthews ranked No. 4 in the league in combined quarterback knockdowns and hurries last season:

Player	QB Knockdowns/Hurries
1. Cameron Wake, MIA	43.5 (26.5/17.0)
2. DeMarcus Ware, DAL	40.5 (29.5/11.0)

5t. Jason Babin, PHI	37.5 (29.0/8.5)
5t. Jason Pierre-Paul, NYG	37.5 (30.5/7.0)

- ▶ When Matthews intercepted Giants QB Eli Manning at New York in Week 13 and returned the pick 38 yards for a score, it marked the third straight season that he had scored a defensive TD.
- ▶ By doing so, Matthews became the first player in franchise history to score a defensive TD (interception or fumble return) in each of his first three seasons in the league.
- ▶ Matthews was one of only two NFL linebackers (Miami LB Kevin Burnett) to record an interception for a score each of the past two seasons.
- ▶ Matthews posted a career-high three interceptions in 2011. It was tied for the most in a season by a Green Bay linebacker since 1984.
- ▶ Matthews was named to his third straight Pro Bowl last season, becoming the first Packer since RB John Brockington (1971-73) to earn Pro Bowl recognition in each of his first three seasons in the league.
- ▶ He received first-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press in 2010, the first Packer LB to earn that recognition since Tim Harris in 1989. Matthews finished second to only Pittsburgh S Troy Polamalu in the AP Defensive Player of the Year voting a season ago.
- ▶ With a sack of QB Jon Kitna in the second quarter in Week 9 of 2010, Matthews became the first Packer since the stat became official in 1982 to register a double-digit sack total in each of his first two seasons in the NFL.
- ▶ According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Matthews became the first NFL player since sacks became an official statistic in 1982 to register double-digit sacks and a defensive TD in each of his first two seasons in the NFL.
- ▶ With two sacks of Falcons QB Matt Ryan in the Divisional contest in 2010, Matthews became the first player in team history (since 1982) to post at least one sack in each of his first three career post-season games. With 4.5 career sacks in the postseason, Matthews already ranks No. 2 in team playoff annals behind only DE Reggie White (eight).
- ▶ Matthews' 3.5 sacks in the 2010 playoffs were the most in franchise history (since 1982) in a single postseason.

- ▶ Matthews has posted two or more sacks in a game six times in his career. Five of those two-sack games came in Matthews' first 18 games in a Packers uniform, breaking White's franchise mark of four in his first 18 games with Green Bay (1993-94).
- ▶ In 2009, Matthews set a Packers rookie record with 10 sacks on his way to earning Pro Bowl honors, the first Green Bay rookie to be named to the all-star game since Hall of Fame WR James Lofton in 1978.
- ▶ Matthews tied the top mark in team history (since 1982) for the most sacks by a Packer in his first three seasons in the NFL:

2t. John Abraham, NYJ	16.5

SHARING THE SCORING

When three different Packers scored their first touchdowns of the 2011 season in Week 14 vs. Oakland, it brought Green Bay's total number of players with a TD on the season to 19.

- ▶ With 19 players scoring TDs last season, the Packers set a single-season franchise record:

Season	Players Scoring TD
1. 2011	19
2. 2008	18
3t. 1931, 1990, 1996, 1998, 2002	15

- ▶ Green Bay's total was two shy of the single-season NFL record of 21, a number posted by several teams, most recently by New England in 2007.
- ▶ Six Green Bay players scored at least six TDs last season, as the Packers were one of only two teams (New Orleans) in the league to accomplish that feat in 2011.
- ▶ It marked the first time in franchise history that the Packers had six players with six or more touchdowns each.
- ▶ The Packers checked in at No. 1 in the league in 2011 with the 19 different players having scored TDs:

PACKERS AT BENGALS - PRESEASON WEEK 3

A LOOK AT THE SCHEDULE

The Green Bay Packers' 92nd NFL regular-season schedule – headlined by five prime-time games (three against 2011 playoff teams) – was released in mid-April by the National Football League.

- ▶ The five prime-time games (subject to flexible scheduling) would be a franchise record, topping the previous mark of four contests on several occasions, most recently in 2010 and 2011. Since 2009, the Packers are 8-3 (.727) in prime-time contests.
- ▶ For the sixth time in seven seasons under Head Coach Mike McCarthy, the Packers will open the season at home, this year against San Francisco on Sunday, Sept. 9, in a matchup of the top two teams in the NFC in 2011. It marks only the second time in franchise history that Green Bay has opened the season against the 49ers (1976).
- ▶ The Packers will then stay at home on a short week to host Chicago in a Thursday night contest, Green Bay's third-ever game on NFL Network and its first since it traveled to Dallas in Week 13 of 2007. This will be the seventh straight season that the Packers and the Bears will square off in prime time.
- ▶ Green Bay will travel to Seattle for its first road contest of the season, one that begins a stretch of four road games in five weeks. It is the Packers' lone game of the season on ESPN's Monday Night Football. 2012 marks the 20th consecutive season (1993-2012) that Green Bay has appeared on MNF, the NFL's second-longest streak (Denver, 21).
- ▶ The Packers will host New Orleans in Week 4 in a matchup of the two highest-scoring teams in the league in 2011. Both teams have finished in the top 10 in total offense every season since 2006, the only teams in the NFL to accomplish the feat over that span.
- ▶ Starting with a trip to Indianapolis in Week 5, Green Bay will play on the road for three straight games (also at Houston and St. Louis), the first time the Packers have had three consecutive road games since the 1998 season (Weeks 10-12). All three contests could be indoors (Indianapolis and Houston have retractable-roof stadiums).
- ▶ Green Bay returns home for back-to-back games at Lambeau Field (Jacksonville and Arizona) before its Week 10 bye. The Packers come out of their open week with back-to-back road contests against a pair of 2011 playoff teams (Detroit and N.Y. Giants), the second straight season they have played those teams on the road in consecutive weeks.
- ▶ Under McCarthy, the team has won five of six games immediately after the bye week and 12 of its last 16 after the week off dating back further.
- ▶ Overall, the Packers are 38-20 (.655) after the bye under McCarthy, and since 2000, the team is 69-37 (.651) following the week off.
- ▶ The Packers wrap up the regular season with three of five games in December in front of the home crowd, including divisional matchups against Minnesota and Detroit at Lambeau Field in Weeks 13-14.
- ▶ Four of Green Bay's final five games and five of its last seven will come against NFC North foes, capped off with the season finale at Minnesota.
- ▶ It is the sixth time in seven seasons under McCarthy that the Packers have finished the regular season with a divisional matchup (5-0 in season finales vs. the NFC North since 2006).
- ▶ The Packers could play up to five games indoors (Indianapolis, Houston, St. Louis, Detroit, Minnesota), which would be the most in a season in franchise history (four games in 1987, 1992, 1996, 2004, 2009).
- ▶ Since 2006, the Packers have a 13-5 mark indoors during the regular season, a .722 winning percentage that ranks No. 1 in the NFL (min. eight games).
- ▶ Fourteen games are slated for Sunday this season, including each of the final 13 contests, with one Thursday night game and one Monday night contest. Nine games are scheduled for noon (CT) starts with two games currently slated for 3:25 p.m. (CT).
- ▶ The Packers have six games on the schedule against 2011 playoff teams, beginning right away in Week 1 vs. San Francisco. The other matchups come against New Orleans (Week 4), Houston (Week 6), Detroit (Weeks 11 and 14) and the N.Y. Giants (Week 12).

STARTING AND CLOSING

Green Bay was efficient starting games in 2011, scoring 59 points on game-opening drives. That total ranked No. 1 in the NFL and more than doubled the Packers' 23-point output in 2010:

Team	Points On First Possession
1. Green Bay	59
2. Houston	58
3. Atlanta	51

- ▶ Green Bay's 59-point total was the best posted by the Packers since STATS LLC began recording the statistic in 1995. It was the best mark in the league since New England registered 71 points on game-opening drives in 2007.
- ▶ The Packers posted 58 points in the final two minutes of the first half last season. That easily topped Green Bay's season total of 31 points in 2010 and was the best by the team since 64 points in 2002:

Team	Points In Final Two Min./1st Half
1. Philadelphia	61
2. Green Bay	58
2. Oakland	56

PACKERS AT BENGALS - PRESEASON WEEK 3

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

Green Bay went 7-1 on the road in 2011, with the seven road wins setting a single-season franchise record.

- ▶ The Packers have been able to stay above the .500 mark on the road during Head Coach Mike McCarthy's tenure, a notable achievement in the National Football League.
- ▶ Since 2006, McCarthy's first season as the head coach in Green Bay, only 10 of 32 NFL teams have regular-season road records above .500.

Team	W-L record	Pct.
1. New England	35-13-0	.729
2. N.Y. Giants	31-17-0	.646
3. New Orleans	30-18-0	.625
4. Philadelphia	29-18-1	.615
5t. Green Bay	28-20-0	.583
5t. Indianapolis	28-20-0	.583
7t. Dallas	27-21-0	.563
7t. Pittsburgh	27-21-0	.563
9. San Diego	26-22-0	.542
10. Tennessee	25-23-0	.521

302 AND COUNTING

Another packed house at Lambeau Field against the Giants in the playoffs last season brought the stadium's consecutive sellouts streak to 302 games (285 regular season, 17 playoffs).

- ▶ The league's longest-tenured stadium, Lambeau Field will be hosting its 56th season of football in 2012. A total of 636,177 fans made their way through the turnstiles for the nine home contests last season.
- ▶ Across American professional sports, only Boston's Fenway Park (1912) and Chicago's Wrigley Field (1914) have longer tenures.

THE LAMBEAU ADVANTAGE

The crown jewel of the National Football League, Lambeau Field has long been known as one of the tougher venues to play in, particularly during the harsh Wisconsin winter.

- ▶ Re-establishing home-field advantage after a 4-4 mark in 2008 was one of the goals of 2009, and with the Packers finishing 6-2 at home, they accomplished that goal. Green Bay followed that up with a 7-1 mark at Lambeau Field in 2010 and a perfect 8-0 record in 2011, the first undefeated home mark since 2002.
- ▶ Head Coach Mike McCarthy stated consistently upon his arrival in Green Bay that one of the team's goals would be to reclaim the mystique of playing at Lambeau Field. Mission accomplished. The team is 34-8 (.810) at home over the past 42 regular-season games, good for No. 2 in the NFL over that span behind only New England (38-4, .905).
- ▶ Since Ron Wolf and Mike Holmgren began the revitalization of the franchise in 1992, Green Bay owns the best home record in the NFL. A look at the top regular-season home W-L records since the '92 season:

Team	W-L record	Pct.
1. Green Bay	122-38-0	.763
2. Pittsburgh	116-43-1	.728
3. New England	111-49-0	.694
4. Baltimore (since '96)	88-39-1	.691
5. Denver	109-51-0	.681

HOME COOKING

The Packers' win over Dallas at Lambeau in November 2009 was the first step to a 7-1 finish and a playoff berth for Green Bay.

- ▶ Since that Week 10 victory over the Cowboys in '09, the Packers have been one of the best two teams in the league at home. Green Bay's lone defeat since then came to Miami in 2010 in Week 6 when the Packers fell to the Dolphins in overtime.

Team	W-L record	Pct.
1t. Green Bay	19-1-0	.950
1t. New England	19-1-0	.950
3. Baltimore	18-2-0	.900

IN THE FREE-AGENCY ERA

Talk of unrestricted free agency in the early '90s led many to forecast tough times for the small-town Green Bay Packers.

- ▶ However, Green Bay has remained among the most successful teams since the advent of free agency in 1993. The Packers have won 10 or more games 10 times since '93 and captured seven division crowns.
- ▶ A look at the most successful teams in the free-agency era:

Team	W-L since '93	Pct.	Playoff berths
1. New England	198-106-0	.651	13
2. Green Bay	194-110-0	.638	14
3. Pittsburgh	193-110-1	.637	13

TRAINING CAMP MEDIA INFORMATION & POLICIES

TED THOMPSON AVAILABILITY

- ▶ During training camp, General Manager Ted Thompson will be available weekly for group interviews in the Media Auditorium approximately once per week. One-on-one interviews with Thompson should be arranged through Jason Wahlers (wahlersj@packers.com).
- ▶ Thompson is scheduled to be available in the Media Auditorium on the following dates: Monday, July 30 - 1 p.m.; Tuesday, Aug. 7 - 1 p.m.; Tuesday, Aug. 14 - 10 a.m.; Tuesday, Aug. 21 - 10 a.m.; Tuesday, Aug. 28 - 10 a.m.

MIKE MCCARTHY PRESS CONFERENCES

- ▶ Head Coach Mike McCarthy previewed training camp in a press conference in the Media Auditorium on Wednesday, July 25, at 10 a.m.
- ▶ For 8:15 a.m. and 7 p.m. practices, McCarthy is scheduled to be available at the Don Hutson Center following practice. When the team shifts to its regular-season schedule (11 or 11:15 a.m. practices), McCarthy will be available in the Media Auditorium.
- ▶ One-on-one interviews with McCarthy should be arranged through Jason Wahlers (wahlersj@packers.com).

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

- ▶ The team's locker room will open once per day for 30 minutes when there is practice. When the team practices at 8:15 a.m. or 7 p.m., the locker room is scheduled to be open from 12:15-12:45 p.m. There will be no player availability following practice at night.
- ▶ When the team practices at 11/11:15 a.m. or at 3:30 p.m. during training camp, the locker room will open for 30 minutes following practice. The team will send out weekly advisories throughout training camp with a more detailed availability schedule.
- ▶ At the conclusion of all games as well as the Family Night practice, the locker room will be opened following the NFL's standard "cooling off" period.
- ▶ Any requests to interview players other than at the aforementioned times should be directed to a member of the Packers' P.R. department.

ASSISTANT COACH INTERVIEWS

- ▶ Assistant coaches will be available – for both print and electronic media, upon request – in-person, on the following days: Aug. 1 (all coaches), Aug. 7 (all coaches), Aug. 14 (all coaches), Aug. 20 (offense and special teams), Aug. 21 (defense), Aug. 27 (offense and special teams), Aug. 28 (defense).
- ▶ Coordinators – Tom Clements (offense), Dom Capers (defense) and Shawn Slocum (special teams) – will continue to serve as primary spokesmen in their respective areas. Position coaches are available for questions on specific players and the position group only. Broader interview topics need to be directed to the respective coordinator.
- ▶ Assistant coaches also are available for interviews on more personal subjects, such as Winston Moss on his NFL playing career.
- ▶ No assistant coach should be contacted directly by telephone (at his desk, home or on his cell phone), or by e-mail. All interviews must be arranged through the P.R. department.
- ▶ Sarah Quick (quicks@packers.com) serves as the primary contact for assistant coaches. In her absence, feel free to contact another member of the Packers' P.R. department.

TRAINING CAMP PRACTICE ACCESS

- ▶ Practices are open in their entirety to credentialed media. However, photography (video and still) may not be allowed for some periods at the direction of the coaching staff.

- ▶ Accredited organizations may distribute online non-game audio and video content, including interviews, press conferences and team practices at NFL venues, acquired as a result of credentialed access ("Game Information") to games or club/league facilities provided that such distribution:
 - ▶ is 90 seconds maximum per day (180 seconds maximum in two-team markets -- 90 seconds per team);
 - ▶ may not be "archived" (i.e., made available for on-demand public access) for more than 24 hours;
 - ▶ appears in an editorial context only (no sponsorship, merchandising or advertising integrated with or around the content);
 - ▶ is not posted live, and is accompanied by links back to NFL.com and to the club website, www.packers.com in this instance.
- ▶ The 90-second limit does not include video/audio material that is comprised entirely of a credentialed media employee providing commentary or analysis ("Talking Head" reporting), including pre- or post-game stand-up material shot on the field or other facility location.
- ▶ While a game is in progress, any forms of accounts of the game must be sufficiently time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., score updates with detail given only in quarterly game updates, fewer than 10 photographs during the game) so that the Accredited Organization's game coverage cannot be used as a substitute for, or otherwise approximate, authorized play-by-play accounts.

BLOGGING/TWITTER POLICY

- ▶ During training camp, "Twitter/blogging" is allowed during practices, but the Packers would ask that members of the media utilizing the technology adhere to a few simple guidelines moving forward. Please note that this policy is for training camp practices only and does change during the regular season.
- ▶ NO entries about specific schemes, personnel groupings or anything that might be related in any way to game planning. If you have ANY questions about this, please ask a member of the Packers' P.R. staff before posting.
- ▶ NO entries regarding "football communications," including specific exchanges between coaches and players that might be overheard. Acknowledgement that the conversation occurred is acceptable, but we ask that the details of the conversation be withheld.
- ▶ NO detailed speculation as to the potential nature or severity of an injury until Coach McCarthy has addressed it following practice. Once again, acknowledging that an injury occurred and providing general details (i.e. 'Right leg...' or 'Left wrist...') is permitted, but anything beyond that would be purely speculative and possibly inaccurate.
- ▶ The team would like to continue to keep training camp practices open to those wishing to utilize blogging and/or Twitter, but such a policy is contingent upon media adhering to the guidelines above. If there are absolutely ANY questions regarding what is or is not acceptable, please contact a member of the Packers' P.R. department.

TRAINING CAMP MEDIA INFORMATION & POLICIES

INJURY FOOTAGE POLICY

- ▶ Again this season, the Packers respectfully ask all photographers (video and still) to follow guidelines related to shooting injured players.
- ▶ Photographers are asked to avoid filming, photographing, printing and/or airing any shots of any injury situation, while the injury occurs, while trainers attend to/treat the injured player, and while the player is leaving the field, either on his own or with aid. This includes minor injuries.
- ▶ The team will allow shots of players after they've been treated. For instance, cameras are allowed to shoot a player on the sideline with ice on his knee, after trainers have left.
- ▶ However, cameras are not allowed to film a player on crutches, either on the field or in the locker room.
- ▶ If outlets choose not to respect this policy — or any other policy — the team will have no choice but to consider limiting access to the field and/or locker room.

- ▶ Filming or relaying information on closed-circuit televisions throughout the building, including the locker room, is strictly prohibited.
- ▶ Shots that require members of the media to be in a kneeling position with cameras on the ground are not permitted for safety reasons.
- ▶ No tripods are allowed during practice.

PRIVATE TEAM COMMUNICATION

- ▶ The Packers ask all media, print and electronic, to refrain from reporting or recording any team communication meant solely for the team.
- ▶ This includes the post-practice team huddle, in which McCarthy addresses his players. It also includes mid-practice and/or post-practice communication between any coach and his players, especially conversations of a reprimanding, negative nature.
- ▶ In general, reporting that the conversation took place is acceptable, just not the details of those conversations. Details are not to be relayed to the public either directly (through first-hand hearing), or indirectly (through interviews, even if the subject answers the question).
- ▶ If media has any question as to whether communication should be kept private, please contact the P.R. department before writing or airing such conversations.

PRACTICE CREDENTIAL INFORMATION

- ▶ Admittance will not be granted without a credential. No guests will be permitted to use media credentials, which are subject to revocation if used in that manner.
- ▶ All preseason practice sessions will be open to members of the media who cover the team on a regular basis, unless otherwise stipulated. All other media (news departments, etc.) must secure a practice-field pass from the public relations department and sign the necessary waiver before attending practice. No exceptions can be made.
- ▶ All media members, including visiting media, are asked to contact the Packers' P.R. department to obtain training camp credentials. Practice-field (season-long photo ID and daily) credentials, required for all practice sessions, are not transferable and will be closely monitored. A liability waiver must be signed before gaining access to Packers' practices.
- ▶ Members of the media are asked to e-mail their requests for practice-field credentials to the public relations department's Sarah Quick (e-mail: quicks@packers.com) at least 24 hours in advance of the day (or days) on which they wish to cover practice.

CELL PHONES

- ▶ The team does not tolerate cell-phone distractions at practice. Please set all phones to off or vibrate. Phone conversations are strongly discouraged but if necessary should be conducted well away from the field.

MISCELLANEOUS

- ▶ Any member of the media who does not have a credential will be asked to obtain one and sign the necessary waiver at the public relations office or practice field before gaining admittance.
- ▶ All items brought to practice (cameras, bags, tripods, equipment, etc.) should be stored against the wall, away from the field, for safety reasons.
- ▶ Food is not allowed during practice. Bottled drinks are allowed, as long as they are stored in a personal bag against the wall, and consumed near the wall.
- ▶ Any equipment not stored should be held at all times; when avoiding oncoming action, it is important that anything in your possession moves as you move.
- ▶ No players or coaches may be actively engaged in conversation or interviewed while practice is in progress.

INJURY INFORMATION

- ▶ All injury information will be issued by Head Coach Mike McCarthy. Please do not address injury questions to another coach or staff member.

NITSCHKE FIELD BOUNDARIES

- ▶ Media will enter the practice facility along Armed Forces Drive, adjacent to the Hutson Center and toward the northwest corner of Nitschke Field. Media must remain behind the cones on the rubberized track in order to maintain their own safety and the safety of the players.

SEASON CREDENTIALS

- ▶ The deadline to apply for 2012 season-long home game credentials was Friday, June 22.
- ▶ Anyone who missed the deadline should submit a request ASAP for consideration to receive credentials on a game-by-game basis. Requests should be made to Sarah Quick, via e-mail (quicks@packers.com).

PUBLIC RELATIONS INTERNS

- ▶ Season-long P.R. intern Brett Brecheisen received his master's degree from Ohio University and his undergraduate degree from Florida State. The Weston, Fla., native interned for the Orange Bowl Committee in 2011 and for Florida State's sports information department from 2007-10. He also worked as an intern for the Orleans Firebirds of the Cape Cod Baseball League in the summers of 2007-08.
- ▶ Summer P.R. intern Caitlin Kass, a Pewaukee, Wis. native, is entering her senior year at the University of Colorado at Boulder. She held internships with the Wisconsin Supreme Court and Pivot Communications in 2012 and Clear Channel in 2010. She also worked as an operations and event coordinator for Maven Productions from 2011-12.
