SAN FRANCISCO (0-0) AT GREEN BAY (0-0)

Sunday, Sept. 9 • Lambeau Field • 3:25 p.m. CDT

PACKERS TO HOST 49ERS IN 2012 SEASON OPENER

Green Bay kicks off its 94th season in team history – and 92nd as a member of the National Football League – by hosting San Francisco at Lambeau Field, a meeting of the top two teams in the NFC in 2011.

- ▶ The Packers were the top seed in the conference last season at 15-1, with the 49ers checking in second at 13-3. Not since 1999 (15-1 Vikings at 14-2 Falcons) have two teams with this many combined wins from the previous season squared off in Week 1.
- ▶ This marks the third straight year that the top two seeds in the NFC from the previous season met in Week 1 the next season (Atlanta at Chicago, 2011; Minnesota at New Orleans, 2010).
- ▶ It will be the first time in franchise history that Green Bay will face a team in Week 1 that won 13 or more games the previous season.
- ▶ This marks the fifth straight year that the Packers' opening game of the season will be either a nationally televised prime-time contest or a late-afternoon tilt seen by the majority of the country.
- ▶ Sunday's game will be a matchup of the highest-scoring offense in the league in 2011 (Green Bay, 35.0 ppg) against the No. 2 scoring defense (San Francisco, 14.3 ppg) from last season.
- ▶ Including playoffs, the Packers have won eight consecutive games over the 49ers in Green Bay. In the overall series, the Packers have also won eight straight, and 13 of the last 14, including a 4-1 mark in postseason action.
- ▶ Frequent foes in the 1990s and 2000s, this will be the fourth meeting (2006, 2009, 2010) between the clubs during Head Coach Mike McCarthy's seven-year tenure. McCarthy's last stop as an NFL assistant came in San Francisco, where he served as offensive coordinator in 2005.
- ▶ This will be only the second time in franchise history that the Packers will face San Francisco in a season opener, with the other meeting (Sept. 12, 1976) also coming at Lambeau Field.

STARTING STRONG

Under Head Coach Mike McCarthy, the Packers have won five straight season openers (2007-11), which matches the franchise record. The only other time that the Packers emerged victorious in five consecutive opening games came from 1980-84.

- ▶ Green Bay is one of only two NFL teams to win its season opener each of the past five years, joining New England as the only clubs in the league to do so over that span.
- ▶ McCarthy is the only head coach in franchise history to win five consecutive season openers.
- ▶ Green Bay has 52 wins on Kickoff Weekend, which ties them with Chicago for the most in league history.
- ▶ For the sixth time in seven years under McCarthy, Green Bay will start its season at Lambeau Field. The only season that saw the Packers start the year on the road over that span was in 2010 at Philadelphia.

- ▶ Home openers have become near habit for the Packers, as 32 of 43 regular-season openers since the AFL-NFL merger (1970) have been in front of a home crowd.
- ▶ The Packers have 49 wins overall in home openers, tied with Detroit and the N.Y. Giants for the second most in NFL annals (Chicago, 63).

WITH THE CALL

FOX Sports, now in its 19th season as an NFL network television partner, will broadcast the game to the majority of the country.

- ▶ Play-by-play man Joe Buck and color analyst Troy Aikman will have the call from the broadcast booth with Pam Oliver reporting from the sidelines.
- ▶ Milwaukee's WTMJ (620 AM), airing Green Bay games since 1929, heads up the 53-station Packers Radio Network, with Wayne Larrivee (play-by-play) and two-time Packers Pro Bowler Larry McCarren (color) calling the action. The duo enters its 14th season of broadcasts together across the Packers Radio Network, which covers 44 markets in six states.
- ▶ Dial Global Sports radio will air the game across the country. Kevin Kugler (play-by-play) and Mark Malone (analyst) will call the action with Scott Graham hosting the pregame and halftime shows.
- ▶ The broadcast is also available on Sirius Satellite Radio (Channel 93, WTMJ feed) as part of the network's NFL Sunday Drive.
- ▶ DIRECTV subscribers can watch the game in HD on Channel 714.

49ERS AT PACKERS - WEEK 1

SEPTEMBER STARTS

- Over the past three seasons, the Packers are tied for the best mark in the league in September:

Team	Sept. Record (2009-11)	Pct.
1t. Green Bay	7-2-0	.778
1t. Baltimore	7-2-0	.778
1t. New Orleans	7-2-0	.778
1t. N.Y. Jets	7-2-0	.778
5t. Four teams	6-3-0	.667

- Since McCarthy took over in 2006, the Packers have a 14-6 (.700) mark in the month of September. That winning percentage ranks No. 3 in the NFL over that span:

Team	Sept. Record (2006-11)	Pct.
1. Baltimore	14-5-0	.737
2. New England	13-5-0	.722
3. Green Bay	14-6-0	.700
4t. Dallas	13-6-0	.684
4t. Indianapolis	13-6-0	.684

HOME COOKING

Last season, the Packers posted a perfect 8-0 mark at Lambeau Field for the first time since 2002. Green Bay joined Baltimore and New Orleans as the only teams with unblemished records at home during the regular season in 2011.

- Green Bay has won 13 straight regular-season contests at Lambeau Field and 19 of its last 20 regular-season games at home. With the 13 consecutive wins, the Packers are tied for the fourth-longest home winning streak in franchise history.

Years	Consecutive Home Games Won
1. 1995-98	25
2. 1929-32	20
3. 1923-26	14
4t. 1961-62	13
4t. 2010-11	13

- The Packers' last regular-season loss at home came in overtime vs. Miami in Week 6 of 2010. Green Bay's 13-game winning streak at Lambeau ranks No. 1 in the league among current home streaks:

Team	Consecutive Home Games Won
1. Green Bay	13
2. Baltimore	10
3. New Orleans	8

- Since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978, the Packers have posted undefeated home records four times (1996, 1997, 2002, 2011).

WHAT TO WATCH FOR ...

When DB Charles Woodson takes the field against the 49ers, the 15th-year pro will be appearing in his 200th regular-season NFL game.

- Among active NFL defensive backs, Woodson ranks No. 2 in games played entering Sunday's contest behind only Tampa Bay's Ronde Barber (225) and ahead of Denver's Champ Bailey (194).
- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Woodson will become the 32nd defensive back in league history to appear in 200 or more games.
- WR Jordy Nelson has caught at least one TD pass in a franchise-record eight straight home games, two shy of the NFL record held by Chris Carter (2000-01) and Bob Hayes (1965-66). In 2011, Nelson became the first NFL player since the league went to a 16-game schedule in 1978 to catch at least one TD pass in all eight home games in a season.
- Nelson has five TD receptions in his last two regular-season games.
- The two quarterbacks expected to start on Sunday were the best in the league in limiting interceptions in 2011. Packers QB Aaron Rodgers ranked No. 2 in the NFL in interception percentage (1.2%, six INTs in 502 attempts), while 49ers QB Alex Smith checked in at No. 1 (1.1%, five INTs in 445 attempts).
- In two career starts against the 49ers, Rodgers has thrown for 642 yards and five TDs with no INTs on 53-of-75 passing (70.7 percent) for a 118.9 passer rating. In a Nov. 22, 2009, start vs. San Francisco, he threw for 274 yards in the first half, his regular-season career-high for a half.
- Rodgers has thrown a TD pass in 29 straight regular-season games at Lambeau Field, a franchise record. It is also the longest current home streak by an NFL quarterback.
- WR Greg Jennings needs one more TD catch to hit the 50-TD reception mark for his career. He would move into sole possession of sixth place for most TD receptions by a Packer (currently tied with WR James Lofton).
- Entering Sunday's contest, Green Bay has won 17 of its last 18 regular-season games.
- The Packers have forced 11 turnovers in their last three regular-season games at Lambeau Field, the most over a three-game stretch at home since they posted the same number in 2010 (Weeks 9, 13, 16).

STAT OF THE WEEK

- This Sunday's matchup between the Packers and 49ers will be a meeting of the most prolific teams in the league in 2011 when it came to turnover differential.
- The Packers finished No. 2 in the league with a plus-24 turnover ratio, highlighted by a franchise-record 14 giveaways and 38 takeaways.
- Green Bay's plus-24 ratio in 2011 is tied for the No. 2 single-season mark in franchise history (also 1941, 1965 and 2009), trailing only the plus-26 differential in 1943.
- San Francisco led the NFL in the turnover differential category last season with a plus-28 mark, also posting 38 takeaways while turning the ball over just 10 times all season (a franchise record).
- With the Packers' plus-24 ratio and the 49ers' plus-28 mark, it marked the first time since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger that two teams each posted turnover ratios of plus-24 or better in the same season, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.
- Green Bay and San Francisco tied for the league lead with 38 takeaways each in 2011. For the Packers, it marked the third straight season with at least 32 takeaways, the only team in the NFL to accomplish that feat from 2009-11.
- The Packers led the NFL with 31 interceptions in 2011, while the 49ers tied for the league lead with 15 opponent fumbles recovered.

- ▶ San Francisco won 13 times in a span of 15 games between 1950-58, while the Packers won 10 of 11 games between 1959-64.
- ▶ In more recent times, the series has been noted for its postseason clashes, including several defining moments in Packers history. Green Bay's 27-17 triumph in the 1995 NFC Divisional playoff was considered the breakthrough victory that established the Packers as an elite team for the next several years. The Packers also won the next two postseason meetings, a 35-14 home victory in the 1996 NFC Divisional playoff en route to the Super Bowl XXXI title, and a 23-10 win at San Francisco in the 1997 NFC Championship game.

- ▶ The two teams met in the playoffs for a fourth straight season in 1998, with the 49ers winning 30-27 on QB Steve Young's last-second TD pass to WR Terrell Owens, marking San Francisco's only win in these teams' last 14 contests.

He boomed a career-long 71-yard punt, the longest by a Packer since Jon Ryan's 72-yarder vs. Detroit on Dec. 30, 2007. The gross average ranks No. 4 in team annals and the net average checks in at No. 3 (since 1976).
- ▶ In Week 13 at the N.Y. Giants, Masthay placed four punts inside the 20-yard line, the second straight week he had done so. - ▶ Green Bay ranked No. 3 in the league in fewest punts last season behind only New Orleans and San Diego (47 punts each).

THE PRODUCTION CONTINUES

DB Charles Woodson enjoyed the finest season of his career in 2009, his first year in the 3-4 scheme, and has continued to make his presence felt ever since.

► In 2011, Woodson tied for the NFL lead with seven interceptions. It marked the second time in three seasons (2009) that he has shared the league lead:

Player	Interceptions
1t. Charles Woodson, GB	7
1t. Kyle Arrington, NE	7
1t. Eric Weddle, SD	7
4t. Four players	6

► It was Woodson's fourth season with seven-plus INTs as a Packer. He joined Bobby Dillon as the only players in franchise history to accomplish that feat and is the only NFL player to have four seven-plus INT seasons since 2006.

► In the Week 7 win at Minnesota, he intercepted QB Christian Ponder two times on the afternoon, Woodson's sixth multi-INT game in a Green Bay uniform.

Player	Multi-INT Games
1. Bobby Dillon, 1952-59	12
2. Don Hutson, 1935-45	8
3. Herb Adderley, 1961-69	7
4t. Charles Woodson, 2006-11	6
4t. LeRoy Butler, 1990-2001	6

► In the Week 4 win over Denver, Woodson picked off QB Kyle Orton and returned the interception 30 yards for a TD, his 11th career INT return for a TD to move into a tie for the No. 2 spot in NFL history:

Player	Interception TDs

2t. Charles Woodson, 1998-2011	11
2t. Darren Sharper, 1997-2010	11

Player	Defensive TDs
1t. Rod Woodson, 1987-2003	13 (12 INT, 1 FR)

► Woodson's nine interceptions for TDs from 2006-11 ranked No. 1 in the league over that span, more than double the total of the nine players that tied for the No. 2 spot with four each.

► Woodson's nine interception TDs over the past six seasons (2006-11) are tied for the most by a player over a six-year period in NFL history, matching the mark of Houston Oilers safety Ken Houston (1967-72).

► With his first INT for a TD coming in his rookie season of 1998, the time from Woodson's first INT-TD to his most recent spans 14 seasons (1998-2011). That ranks tied for No. 3 in NFL history behind only Rod Woodson (1987-2002) and Deion Sanders (1990-2004), according to the Elias Sports Bureau.

► He led the Packers with a career-high five forced fumbles in 2010. He was the only defensive back in the NFL to register four forced fumbles each season in 2009 and 2010.

► Woodson is the only Packers defensive back since 1994 to record four forced fumbles in a season, and he has done it twice.

► Woodson achieved the highest individual honor bestowed upon a defensive player, taking home The Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year award in 2009.

► In 2009, Woodson became the fourth player in NFL history since sacks became an official statistic to record at least nine interceptions and two sacks in a single season.

► There's no doubt Woodson's career has undergone a revitalization since coming to Green Bay. He now has 54 career interceptions, which is second among active NFL players. Of his interceptions, 37 have come in 93 games with Green Bay. In 106 games with the Raiders, he had 17.

- ▶ Matthews was one of only two NFL linebackers (Miami LB Kevin Burnett) to record an interception for a score each of the past two seasons.
- ▶ Matthews posted a career-high three interceptions in 2011. It was tied for the most in a season by a Green Bay linebacker since 1984.
- ▶ Matthews was named to his third straight Pro Bowl last season, becoming the first Packer since RB John Brockington (1971-73) to earn Pro Bowl recognition in each of his first three seasons in the league.
- ▶ He received first-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press in 2010, the first Packer LB to earn that recognition since Tim Harris in 1989. Matthews finished second to only Pittsburgh S Troy Polamalu in the AP Defensive Player of the Year voting a season ago.
- ▶ With a sack of QB Jon Kitna in the second quarter in Week 9 of 2010, Matthews became the first Packer since the stat became official in 1982 to register a double-digit sack total in each of his first two seasons in the NFL.
- ▶ According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Matthews became the first NFL player since sacks became an official statistic in 1982 to register double-digit sacks and a defensive TD in each of his first two seasons in the NFL.
- ▶ With two sacks of Falcons QB Matt Ryan in the Divisional contest in 2010, Matthews became the first player in team history (since 1982) to post at least one sack in each of his first three career post-season games. With 4.5 career sacks in the postseason, Matthews already ranks No. 2 in team playoff annals behind only DE Reggie White (eight).
- ▶ Matthews' 3.5 sacks in the 2010 playoffs were the most in franchise history (since 1982) in a single postseason.

- ▶ Matthews has posted two or more sacks in a game six times in his career. Five of those two-sack games came in Matthews' first 18 games in a Packers uniform, breaking White's franchise mark of four in his first 18 games with Green Bay (1993-94).
- ▶ In 2009, Matthews set a Packers rookie record with 10 sacks on his way to earning Pro Bowl honors, the first Green Bay rookie to be named to the all-star game since Hall of Fame WR James Lofton in 1978.
- ▶ Matthews tied the top mark in team history (since 1982) for the most sacks by a Packer in his first three seasons in the NFL:

49ERS AT PACKERS - WEEK 1

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

Green Bay went 7-1 away from Lambeau Field in 2011, with the seven road wins setting a single-season franchise record.

- ▶ The Packers have been able to stay above the .500 mark on the road during Head Coach Mike McCarthy's tenure, a notable achievement in the National Football League.
- ▶ Since 2006, McCarthy's first season as the head coach in Green Bay, only 10 of 32 NFL teams have regular-season road records above .500.

302 AND COUNTING

Another packed house at Lambeau Field against the Giants in the playoffs last season brought the stadium's consecutive sellouts streak to 302 games (285 regular season, 17 playoffs).

- ▶ The league's longest-tenured stadium, Lambeau Field will be hosting its 56th season of football in 2012. A total of 636,177 fans made their way through the turnstiles for the nine home contests last season.
- ▶ Across American professional sports, only Boston's Fenway Park (1912) and Chicago's Wrigley Field (1914) have longer tenures.

THE LAMBEAU ADVANTAGE

The crown jewel of the National Football League, Lambeau Field has long been known as one of the tougher venues to play in, particularly during the harsh Wisconsin winter.

- ▶ Re-establishing home-field advantage after a 4-4 mark in 2008 was one of the goals of 2009, and with the Packers finishing 6-2 at home, they accomplished that goal. Green Bay followed that up with a 7-1 mark at Lambeau Field in 2010 and a perfect 8-0 record in 2011, the first undefeated home mark since 2002.
- ▶ Head Coach Mike McCarthy stated consistently upon his arrival in Green Bay that one of the team's goals would be to reclaim the mystique of playing at Lambeau Field. Mission accomplished. The team is 34-8 (.810) at home over the past 42 regular-season games, good for No. 2 in the NFL over that span behind only New England (38-4, .905).
- ▶ Since Ron Wolf and Mike Holmgren began the revitalization of the franchise in 1992, Green Bay owns the best home record in the NFL. A look at the top regular-season home W-L records since the '92 season:

Team	W-L record	Pct.
1. Green Bay	122-38-0	.763
2. Pittsburgh	116-43-1	.728

4. Baltimore (since '96)	88-39-1	.691
5. Denver	109-51-0	.681

HOME COOKING

The Packers' win over Dallas at Lambeau in November 2009 was the first step to a 7-1 finish and a playoff berth for Green Bay.

- ▶ Since that Week 10 victory over the Cowboys in '09, the Packers have been one of the best two teams in the league at home. Green Bay's lone defeat since then came to Miami in 2010 in Week 6 when the Packers fell to the Dolphins in overtime.

Team	W-L record	Pct.
1t. Green Bay	19-1-0	.950
1t. New England	19-1-0	.950
3. Baltimore	18-2-0	.900

IN THE FREE-AGENCY ERA

- ▶ However, Green Bay has remained among the most successful teams since the advent of free agency in 1993. The Packers have won 10 or more games 10 times since '93 and captured seven division crowns.
- ▶ A look at the most successful teams in the free-agency era:

A LOOK AT THE SCHEDULE

The Green Bay Packers' 92nd NFL regular-season schedule is headlined by five prime-time games (three against 2011 playoff teams).

- ▶ The five prime-time games (subject to flexible scheduling) would be a franchise record, topping the previous mark of four contests on several occasions, most recently in 2010 and 2011. Since 2009, the Packers are 8-3 (.727) in prime-time contests.
- ▶ For the sixth time in seven seasons under Head Coach Mike McCarthy, the Packers will open the season at home, this year against San Francisco on Sunday, Sept. 9, in a matchup of the top two teams in the NFC in 2011.
- ▶ The Packers will then stay at home on a short week to host Chicago in a Thursday night contest, Green Bay's third-ever game on NFL Network and its first since it traveled to Dallas in Week 13 of 2007. This will be the seventh straight season that the Packers and the Bears will square off in prime time.
- ▶ Green Bay will travel to Seattle for its first road contest of the season, one that begins a stretch of four road games in five weeks. It is the Packers' lone game of the season on ESPN's Monday Night Football. 2012 marks the 20th consecutive season (1993-2012) that Green Bay has appeared on MNF, the NFL's second-longest streak (Denver, 21).
- ▶ The Packers will host New Orleans in Week 4 in a matchup of the two highest-scoring teams in the league in 2011. Both teams have finished in the top 10 in total offense every season since 2006, the only teams in the NFL to accomplish the feat over that span.
- ▶ Starting with a trip to Indianapolis in Week 5, Green Bay will play on the road for three straight games (also at Houston and St. Louis), the first time the Packers have had three consecutive road games since the 1998 season (Weeks 10-12). All three contests could be indoors (Indianapolis and Houston have retractable-roof stadiums).
- ▶ Green Bay returns home for back-to-back games at Lambeau Field (Jacksonville and Arizona) before its Week 10 bye. The Packers come out of their open week with back-to-back road contests against a pair of 2011 playoff teams (Detroit and N.Y. Giants), the second straight season they have played those teams on the road in consecutive weeks.
- ▶ Under McCarthy, the team has won five of six games immediately after the bye week and 12 of its last 16 after the week off dating back further.
- ▶ Overall, the Packers are 38-20 (.655) after the bye under McCarthy, and since 2000, the team is 69-37 (.651) following the week off.
- ▶ The Packers wrap up the regular season with three of five games in December in front of the home crowd, including divisional matchups against Minnesota and Detroit at Lambeau Field in Weeks 13-14.
- ▶ Four of Green Bay's final five games and five of its last seven will come against NFC North foes, capped off with the season finale at Minnesota.
- ▶ It is the sixth time in seven seasons under McCarthy that the Packers have finished the regular season with a divisional matchup (5-0 in season finales vs. the NFC North since 2006).
- ▶ The Packers could play up to five games indoors (Indianapolis, Houston, St. Louis, Detroit, Minnesota), which would be the most in a season in franchise history (four games in 1987, 1992, 1996, 2004, 2009).
- ▶ Since 2006, the Packers have a 13-5 mark indoors during the regular season, a .722 winning percentage that ranks No. 1 in the NFL (min. eight games).
- ▶ Fourteen games are slated for Sunday this season, including each of the final 13 contests, with one Thursday night game and one Monday night contest. Nine games are scheduled for noon (CT) starts with two games currently slated for 3:25 p.m. (CT).
- ▶ The Packers have six games on the schedule against 2011 playoff teams, beginning right away in Week 1 vs. San Francisco. The other matchups come against New Orleans (Week 4), Houston (Week 6), Detroit (Weeks 11 and 14) and the N.Y. Giants (Week 12).

- Showed significant strides throughout the 2012 offseason program and early in training camp where he displayed the skills that made him a dangerous receiving threat in college.
- Battled back and foot injuries during training camp, but started the first two preseason contests and finished with five catches for 40 yards (8.0 avg.).
- Appeared in 13 games as a rookie in 2011, posting two receptions for 13 yards (6.5 avg.) and three tackles on special teams.
- In 2010, became the first Arkansas TE to win the John Mackey Award, an honor given to the nation's top tight end.

38 Tramon Williams, CB, 6th Year, Louisiana Tech

- Former non-drafted free agent and practice-squad player has developed into one of the top players at his position in the league.
- Appears to have regained the form that made him one of the most formidable cover men in the game in 2010 after suffering a shoulder injury in the 2011 season opener that nagged him throughout the season.
- Despite the injury, managed to still start 15 games and post career highs for tackles (65) and passes defended (24) in 2011. Also added four interceptions, including the first TD return of his career in Week 9 at San Diego.
- His 13 INTs and 258 return yards since the start of 2010 (including play-offs) rank No. 1 in the NFL.

98 C.J. Wilson, DE, 3rd Year, East Carolina

- Third-year man who has played in 31 of 32 possible games in his two professional seasons. Opens 2012 as the starter at RDE in the team's base 3-4 defense where he continues to anchor steadily against opposing rushing attacks.
- Played in all 16 games in 2011, once again making two starts and setting a career high with 35 tackles (21 solo).
- A seventh-round draft pick who has appeared in all but one game in his two professional seasons, seeing significant time in the rotation up front and totaling 56 tackles (33 solo) and a sack.

21 Charles Woodson, DB, 15th Year, Michigan

- Polished veteran team leader and game-changing playmaker enters the 2012 season amid a transition to playing safety in the team's base defense, while resuming his slot CB role in the various sub-packages.

- Earned his fourth straight and eight career Pro Bowl bid in 2011, two years after his best individual season in 2009, when he won NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors from The Associated Press.
- Was named a first-team All-Pro for the third time in his career after starting the first 15 games of 2011 before being rested by the coaching staff in the regular-season finale. Finished with 83 tackles (68 solo), tying for the NFL lead with seven interceptions, while also adding 20 passes defended, two sacks, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery.
- Now has 11 career interceptions returned for touchdowns, tied for second on the NFL's all-time list with Darren Sharper (11), behind only Rod Woodson (12). Nine of those are with Green Bay, which constitute a franchise record, as do his 10 defensive touchdowns (one fumble return).

99 Jerel Worthy, DE, Rookie, Michigan State

- Explosive, powerful big man whom the Packers traded up to select in the second round of the 2012 NFL Draft.
- Enjoyed a first training camp that saw him figure prominently in the rotation up front with the starting defensive unit, appearing in all four exhibition games and finishing with seven tackles (three solo).
- A consensus All-American following his junior season at Michigan State, earning first-team honors from The Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp, Sporting News, CBSSports.com, NBCSports.com and Yahoo! Sports.
- Became the first Spartan defensive tackle to earn first-team All-America honors since Ronald Curl in 1971 and the first to be named to the AP first team since Charles "Bubba" Smith in 1966.

58 Frank Zombo, LB, 3rd Year, Central Michigan

- Will open the 2012 season the reserve/physically unable to perform list after missing the entire offseason program and training camp with a hamstring injury suffered in the spring.
- Battled an array of injuries that shelved him for much of 2011, beginning with a fractured shoulder blade during pregame warm-ups of the team's second preseason game. Later fell victim to hamstring and knee injuries that limited him to just five games in his second season.
- Led all Green Bay rookies and finished No. 6 on the team with 67 tackles (45 solo) after starting eight games in 2010. Also posted four sacks, good for No. 4 on the team and his 67 tackles were the most by a Green Bay rookie since LB A.J. Hawk led the team in the category in 2006 (155).
