WEEK 11

GREEN BAY (6-3) AT DETROIT (4-5)

Sunday, Nov. 18 • Ford Field • Noon CST

PACKERS HEAD TO DETROIT FOR DIVISIONAL TILT

For the first time since a Week 2 contest vs. Chicago, the Packers will play a game against an NFC North foe when they travel to Detroit this Sunday to take on the Lions at Ford Field, the second straight year the clubs have met in Detroit in November.

- ▶ This is the latest in a season that the Packers' second divisional game has ever arrived (since 1967).
- ▶ Coming off of their Week 10 bye, the Packers will be looking to extend their winning streak to five games. Green Bay is the only team in the league to come out of its bye on a winning streak of four games or more each of the last two seasons (seven-game streak going into bye in 2011).
- ▶ The Packers have won eight straight NFC North games dating back to 2010, which matches the franchise record (see page 2 for more).
- ▶ No other NFL teams have played every year since 1932, when the Packers and the Lions, then known as the Portsmouth (Ohio) Spartans, began their yearly home-and-home series.
- ▶ The rivalry actually kicked off in 1930 at City Stadium in Green Bay, a 47-13 Packers win. Some two seasons later, the clubs began a yearly series. This Sunday marks meeting No. 166 in the all-time series.
- ▶ Now rivals in the NFC North, the Packers own a 91-65-7 (.583) advantage over the Lions in the regular season and have won both playoff games.
- ▶ Green Bay has an 11-1 mark (.917) against the Lions under Head Coach Mike McCarthy. Overall, the Packers have won 20 of the last 23 (.870) in the series.
- ▶ The Packers have a 5-1 record at Ford Field under McCarthy and have outscored the Lions, 180-109, in those games at Detroit. Green Bay is 7-3 all-time at Ford Field.
- ▶ Including playoffs, Green Bay is 12-3 (.800) away from Lambeau Field over its last 15 games. The Packers have won nine of their last 12 (.750) regular-season road contests.
- ▶ The Packers have won 23 of their last 27 regular-season games overall (.852), the best record in the league over that span.

OUT OF THE BYE

The Packers had their bye this past weekend, the second time in three seasons (2010) that the open date for Green Bay arrived in Week 10.

- ▶ Sunday marks the third straight season that the Packers have come out of their bye with a contest away from Lambeau Field. Last season, Green Bay traveled to San Diego and in 2010, the Packers visited Minnesota following their open week.
- ▶ In games immediately following its bye week, Green Bay has won 12 of its last 16 (.750). Under McCarthy, the Packers are 5-1 (.833).
- ▶ Green Bay won its first game after the bye each of the last three seasons, outscoring its opponents 102-41 in those games. That included a 26-0 win vs. Detroit in 2009 and a 31-3 victory at Minnesota in 2010.
- ▶ Since McCarthy took over in 2006, Green Bay has a 38-20 overall record (.655) after the bye. Since 2009, the Packers are 21-7 (.750) after the bye.

WITH THE CALL

FOX Sports, now in its 19th season as an NFL network television partner, will broadcast the game to a regional audience.

- ▶ Play-by-play man Joe Buck and color analyst Troy Aikman will have the call from the broadcast booth with Pam Oliver reporting from the sidelines.
- ▶ Milwaukee's WTMJ (620 AM), airing Green Bay games since 1929, heads up the 53-station Packers Radio Network, with Wayne Larrivee (play-by-play) and two-time Packers Pro Bowler Larry McCarren (color) calling the action. PACKERS AT LIONS – WEEK 11

INSIDE MEN

Sunday's game will be Green Bay's fourth of five indoor games this season, an environment the Packers have had success in during Head Coach Mike McCarthy's tenure.

- ▶ Since McCarthy took over in 2006, the Packers are 17-7 (.708) in dome games (including playoffs). That ranks No. 3 in the NFL among teams with eight or more road/neutral dome games behind only the N.Y. Jets (6-2, .750) and the N.Y. Giants (11-4, .733).
- ▶ McCarthy won his first six dome games as head coach before the Packers fell just short at Minnesota in a 28-27 loss on Nov. 9, 2008.
- ▶ In 19 of the 24 dome contests, the Packers have posted at least 345 yards of total offense (15-4 record in those games).
- ▶ A look at some of Green Bay's offensive averages indoors compared to outdoors since 2006 (including playoffs):

	Outdoors	Indoors
Points	26.0	30.7
Total Net Yards	362.0	383.6
Net Passing Yards	251.1	298.4

- ▶ QB Aaron Rodgers has a 117.0 passer rating in 19 career starts in domes (including postseason), with 5,691 passing yards, 47 TDs and just seven INTs on 434-of-602 passing (68.7 percent). His career 117.0 rating indoors ranks No. 1 in NFL history (min. 200 attempts).
- ▶ Rodgers has posted a passer rating of 110 or better in 15 of his 19 career dome starts. He has eclipsed the 300-yard passing mark in 13 of 19 games and has thrown three or more TD passes in 10 of them.
- ▶ In his last eight dome starts (including playoffs), Rodgers has thrown for 2,623 yards and 25 TDs with just one interception on 201-of-283 passing (71.0 percent) for a 127.9 passer rating. He posted a 100-plus passer rating in all eight of those games, with seven 300-yard games and three-plus TD passes in six of them.

- ▶ But during their current four-game winning streak, the Packers have shown significant improvement in the area of penalties. Since Week 6, Green Bay has been penalized just 13 times for 119 yards, an average of 3.3 penalties and 29.8 penalty yards per game.

307 AND COUNTING

Another packed house at Lambeau Field against the Cardinals in Week 9 brought the stadium's consecutive sellouts streak to 307 games (290 regular season, 17 playoffs).

- ▶ The league's longest-tenured stadium, Lambeau Field is hosting its 56th season of football in 2012. A total of 636,177 fans made their way through the turnstiles for the nine home contests last season.
- ▶ Across American professional sports, only Boston's Fenway Park (1912) and Chicago's Wrigley Field (1914) have longer tenures.

THE LAMBEAU ADVANTAGE

The crown jewel of the National Football League, Lambeau Field has long been known as one of the tougher venues to play in, particularly during the harsh Wisconsin winter.

- ▶ Re-establishing home-field advantage after a 4-4 mark in 2008 was one of the goals of 2009, and with the Packers finishing 6-2 at home, they accomplished that goal. Green Bay followed that up with a 7-1 mark at Lambeau Field in 2010 and a perfect 8-0 record in 2011, the first undefeated home mark since 2002.
- ▶ Head Coach Mike McCarthy stated consistently upon his arrival in Green Bay that one of the team's goals would be to reclaim the mystique of playing at Lambeau Field. Mission accomplished. The team is 38-9 (.809) at home over the past 47 regular-season games.
- ▶ Since Ron Wolf and Mike Holmgren began the revitalization of the franchise in 1992, Green Bay owns the best home record in the NFL. A look at the top regular-season home W-L records since the '92 season:

Team	W-L Record	Pct.
1. Green Bay	126-39-0	.764
2. Pittsburgh	120-43-1	.735

4. New England	114-50-0	.695
5. Denver	112-52-0	.683

HOT AT HOME

The Packers' win over Dallas at Lambeau in Week 10 of 2009 was the first step to a 7-1 finish and a playoff berth for Green Bay.

- ▶ Since that victory, the Packers have been one of the best teams in the league at home. Green Bay's lone defeats since then came to Miami in 2010 in Week 6 and in the 2012 season opener vs. San Francisco:

Team	W-L Record	Pct.
1t. Green Bay	23-2-0	.920

3. New England	21-2-0	.913

IN THE FREE-AGENCY ERA

Talk of unrestricted free agency in the early '90s led many to forecast tough times for the small-town Green Bay Packers.

- ▶ However, Green Bay has remained among the most successful teams since the advent of free agency in 1993. The Packers have won 10 or more games 12 times since '93 and captured eight division crowns.
- ▶ A look at the most successful teams in the free-agency era:

A LOOK AT THE SCHEDULE

The Green Bay Packers' 92nd NFL regular-season schedule is headlined by five prime-time games (three against 2011 playoff teams).

- ▶ The five prime-time games (subject to flexible scheduling) would be a franchise record, topping the previous mark of four contests on several occasions, most recently in 2010 and 2011. Since 2009, the Packers are 9-3 (.750) in prime-time contests.
- ▶ For the sixth time in seven seasons under Head Coach Mike McCarthy, the Packers opened the season at home, this year against San Francisco in a matchup of the top two teams in the NFC in 2011.
- ▶ The Packers stayed at home on a short week to host Chicago in a Thursday night contest, Green Bay's third-ever game on NFL Network and its first since it traveled to Dallas in Week 13 of 2007. It was the seventh straight season that the Packers and the Bears squared off in prime time.
- ▶ Green Bay visited Seattle for its first road contest of the season, one that began a stretch of four road games in five weeks. It was the Packers' lone game of the season on ESPN's Monday Night Football. 2012 marked the 20th consecutive season (1993-2012) that Green Bay has appeared on MNF, the NFL's second-longest streak (Denver, 21).
- ▶ The Packers hosted New Orleans in Week 4 in a matchup of the two highest-scoring teams in the league in 2011. Both teams have finished in the top 10 in total offense every season since 2006, the only teams in the NFL to accomplish the feat over that span.
- ▶ Starting with a trip to Indianapolis in Week 5, Green Bay played on the road for three straight games (also at Houston and St. Louis), the first time the Packers had three consecutive road games since the 1998 season (Weeks 10-12). All three contests were indoors, the first time Green Bay had played three straight indoors in team history.
- ▶ Green Bay returned for back-to-back games at Lambeau Field (Jacksonville and Arizona) before its Week 10 bye. The Packers come out of their open week with back-to-back road contests against a pair of 2011 playoff teams (Detroit and N.Y. Giants), the second straight season they have played those teams on the road in consecutive weeks.
- ▶ Under McCarthy, the team has won five of six games immediately after the bye week and 12 of its last 16 after the week off dating back further.
- ▶ Overall, the Packers are 38-20 (.655) after the bye under McCarthy, and since 2000, the team is 74-40 (.649) following the week off.
- ▶ The Packers wrap up the regular season with three of five games in December in front of the home crowd, including divisional matchups against Minnesota and Detroit at Lambeau Field in Weeks 13-14.
- ▶ Four of Green Bay's final five games and five of its last seven will come against NFC North foes, capped off with the season finale at Minnesota.
- ▶ It is the sixth time in seven seasons under McCarthy that the Packers have finished the regular season with a divisional matchup (5-0 in season finales vs. the NFC North since 2006).
- ▶ The Packers will play five games indoors (Indianapolis, Houston, St. Louis, Detroit, Minnesota), which is the most in a season in franchise history (four games in 1987, 1992, 1996, 2004, 2009).
- ▶ Fourteen games are slated for Sunday this season, including each of the final 13 contests, with one Thursday night game and one Monday night contest. Nine games are scheduled for noon (CT) starts with two games currently slated for 3:25 p.m. (CT).
- ▶ The Packers have six games on the schedule against 2011 playoff teams, beginning right away in Week 1 vs. San Francisco. The other matchups come against New Orleans (Week 4), Houston (Week 6), Detroit (Weeks 11 and 14) and the N.Y. Giants (Week 12).

GREEN BAY, Wis. — With the arrival of Randy Moss and a few other additions in the offseason, quarterback Alex Smith knew the San Francisco 49ers were serious about beating up their passing game. And while the 49ers aren't going to stray completely from the defense and running game-based formula that got them to the NFC Championship game last season, Smith hoped he gave future opponents a few things to think about with his play in Sunday's 30-22 victory over the Green Bay Packers at Lambeau Field.

Smith was 20 of 26 for 211 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions, spreading the ball around to six different receivers — including Moss and fellow offseason addition Mario Manningham.

Smith got Moss involved early on, finding him wide open in the end zone for a 14-yard touchdown in the second quarter. Facing a Packers team that lost only once in the 2011 regular season was a tough opening road test; the 49ers were more than ready.

Things went so well for San Francisco that when David Akers tried a 63-yard field goal at the end of the first half, it bounced off the crossbar and then kept going through the uprights to tie an NFL record.

Still, the most impressive part of Sunday's effort was on defense, where the 49ers smothered quarterback Aaron Rodgers and the Packers offense for three quarters, then made one last stand to stop a late rally to seal the win.

The 49ers took a 16-point lead into the fourth quarter, and the Packers cut the lead to 8. But the defense held firm on a potential game-tying drive in the final minutes.

It was a harsh reality check for the Packers, who came into their opener with hopes that a rebuilt defense and improved running game could help get them back to the Super Bowl after coming up short in the playoffs last season.

Rodgers finished 30 of 44 for 303 yards with two touchdowns and an interception, but the Packers couldn't really move the ball before the fourth quarter.

Rodgers also finished the game as the Packers' leading rusher, with new addition Cedric Benson gaining just 18 yards on nine carries.

GREEN BAY 23, CHICAGO 10

Lambeau Field, Thursday, Sept. 13, 2012. Attendance: 70,543. Time: 3:12. Weather: 60° F. Humidity: 67 percent. Wind: 0 mph

GREEN BAY, Wis. — The Green Bay Packers rattled and robbed Jay Cutler while Aaron Rodgers and Co. spluttered at times against the stout Chicago Bears defense.

So with all those stars on the field for the NFL's most storied rivalry, the biggest play of the day was a gutsy call for a perfectly executed fake field goal in Green Bay's 23-10 victory at Lambeau Field on Thursday.

With the Packers facing a 4th and 26 from the Chicago 27 and lined up for a field goal late in the second quarter, punter Tim Masthay flipped the ball to backup tight end Tom Crabtree, who streaked into the end zone.

The Packers' defense did the rest.

Cutler threw four interceptions, including a pair to Tramon Williams. Facing a fierce pass rush all night, Cutler was sacked seven times, including 3.5 for Clay Matthews. New Bears wide receiver Brandon Marshall was held to two catches for 24 yards.

It was an impressive rebound for the Packers from an unsettling season-opening loss to San Francisco.

Thursday's game was a huge step backward for the Bears, who were filled with confidence after steamrolling Indianapolis in their opener.

Rodgers finished the game 22 of 32 for 219 yards with a touchdown and an interception.

The touchdown went to Donald Driver, who barely played in the loss to San Francisco.

Cutler threw a late touchdown to Kellen Davis, cutting the lead to 23-10 with 6:49 remaining. But the Bears couldn't mount a comeback as Matthews and the Packers kept turning up the heat.

Bears running back Matt Forte provided much of what little offense the Bears could muster before leaving the game in the third quarter. He appeared to twist his right ankle while being tackled by Charles Woodson.

Marshall missed a huge opportunity early in the third, when Cutler found him streaking wide open in the end zone -- but the wide receiver couldn't haul it in, and the Bears had to settle for a 45-yard field goal by Robbie Gould that cut the lead to 13-3.

SEATTLE — M.D. Jennings was convinced he had the ball pinned to his chest the entire time and would be awarded an interception to cap Green Bay's comeback victory.

A crew of replacement officials had other views — the ones that counted.
The result is a bizarre ending that gave the Seattle Seahawks a 14-12 victory Monday night that capped a tough weekend for the replacement refs.
Russell Wilson threw a disputed 24-yard touchdown pass to Golden Tate on the final play of the game, a game that finally ended 10 minutes later when both teams were brought back on the field for the extra point.
Wilson scrambled from the pocket and threw to the corner of the end zone as the clock expired. Tate shoved Green Bay's Sam Shields out of the way, then wrestled with Jennings for possession. It was ruled on the field as a touchdown and after a lengthy review, referee Wayne Elliott came out from under the hood and announced "the ruling on the field stands" and CenturyLink Field erupted in celebration.

The Packers shook off a disastrous first half when Aaron Rodgers was sacked eight times and completely controlled possession in the final 30 minutes. Green Bay ran 41 offensive plays in the second half, got field goals of 29 and 40 yards from Mason Crosby and Cedric Benson's 1-yard TD run with 8:44 left to take a 12-7 lead.

Rodgers finished 26 of 39 for 223 yards and no turnovers.
Rodgers converted three third-down conversions on the Packers' touchdown drive to take the lead. He hit Jermaine Kearse for 14 yards on third-and-10 at the start of the drive deep in the Packers end. He followed with a third-and-10 completion to James Jones for 13 yards, getting rid of the ball before the blitz arrived.

Green Bay appeared to take the lead on an 11-yard TD pass to Greg Jennings, but he stepped out before reaching the end zone and was short of the first down. On third down, Rodgers rolled out and attempted to run, but was stopped short by inches. McCarthy challenged the spot and the call was reversed on the challenge with Rodgers given the first down. Benson then plowed in on the next play to give the Packers their first lead with 8:44 left. Seattle (2-1) won its second straight, while Green Bay (1-2) and saw its streak of wins in six straight road openers snapped.

GREEN BAY 28, NEW ORLEANS 27

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Sept. 30, 2012. Attendance: 70,571. Time: 3:18. Weather: 64° F. Humidity: 58 percent. Wind: E 7 mph

GREEN BAY, Wis. — Garrett Hartley missed a field goal in a wild ending at Lambeau Field, where the New Orleans Saints (0-4) blew a fourth-quarter lead and lost to the Green Bay Packers 28-27 on Sunday.

Aaron Rodgers threw a go-ahead touchdown to Jordy Nelson in the fourth quarter.

Soon after, Packers fans were howling about what appeared to be yet another bad call — this time by the regular officials, not the replacements.

Darren Sproles appeared to fumble the ensuing kickoff but officials ruled that he was down by contact. Replays showed that the ball clearly came out but the Packers were out of replay challenges, leaving Packers fans screaming at the officials for the second week in a row.

Drew Brees then led the Saints into field goal range, and Hartley hit a 43-yard attempt — but the Saints were called for holding, forcing Hartley to line up a 53-yarder. The Packers then were called for encroachment, leaving Hartley to try a 48-yarder and he missed it wide left.

Rodgers threw for 319 yards with four touchdowns and an interception for the Packers (2-2).

With the Packers leading 21-14 in the third quarter, fans — and head coach Mike McCarthy — were on the officials again when McCarthy charged a catch by Jimmy Graham but it wasn't overturned.

The Packers committed a personal foul on a Saints field goal attempt later in the drive, giving New Orleans first-and-goal on the 1. But the defense held, forcing a 20-yard field goal by Hartley to cut the lead to 21-17 with 9:41 left in the third quarter.

Rodgers marched the Packers down the field again but needed attention from the team's training staff after a face mask by New Orleans' Malcolm Jenkins. Rodgers came out of the game for one play and backup quarterback Graham Harrell came in — then tripped and fumbled as he tried to hand it off, allowing the Saints to get the ball back in the middle of a scrum.

Brees then found Joseph Morgan wide open behind the defense, and Morgan shed tackling attempts from the Packers' Sam Shields and Tramon Williams on his way to an 80-yard touchdown and a 24-21 lead with 3:49 left in the third quarter.

Things then got even worse for the Packers, as Rodgers then threw an interception to Patrick Robinson on a deep throw intended for Nelson. Brees then completed a pair of third-and-long situations, and the Saints drove for a 27-yard field goal by Hartley to take a 27-21 lead with 13:04 remaining.

With the Packers trailing by 6, Rodgers threw an 11-yard strike to Nelson as the Saints' Corey White tried to wrap his arms around the ball at the same time as Nelson — briefly re-creating a scene eerily similar to the controversial game-ender in Seattle on Monday. This time, though, Nelson clearly came away with the ball and spiked it emphatically.

INDIANAPOLIS — Mike McCarthy and Aaron Rodgers never saw this one coming.

Green Bay had an 18-point halftime lead and seemed to be in control Sunday afternoon.

Then, suddenly, Andrew Luck, Reggie Wayne and the rest of the emotionally charged Colts turned things around on one of the league's marquee franchises.

Playing for an ailing coach Chuck Pagano, Luck rallied the Colts in the second half, throwing for a career-high 362 yards and a 4-yard TD pass to Wayne with 35 seconds to go, giving Indy a stunning 30-27 victory.

Green Bay (2-3) faces an uphill climb in the NFC North.

They're still struggling to find an offensive rhythm, though it looked as if they might break out of their funk in the first half when Rodgers was 11 of 17 for 122 yards with two touchdown passes to take a 21-3 lead.

But nothing worked in the second half.

Mason Crosby missed a 52-yard field goal in the third quarter and a 51-yarder to the left with 3 seconds left in the game -- a kick that could have forced overtime.

Rodgers finished 21 of 33 for 243 yards with three touchdowns, an interception and a big dose of frustration.

The Colts dominated the second half.

Luck threw an 8-yard TD pass to Dwayne Allen and set up Adam Vinatieri for a 50-yard field goal to make it 21-13 midway through the third quarter. He then ran it in from 3 yards with 18 seconds left to go in the quarter to get the Colts within 21-19.

A few minutes later, Vinatieri hit a 28-yard field goal to give Indy its first lead, 22-21.

But Rodgers got Green Bay's offense back in sync in a hurry.

Alex Green ran 41 yards on the Packers' first play, and Rodgers threw an 8-yard TD pass to James Jones on the next one to give the Packers a 27-20 lead with 4:30 to go.

All the Packers had to do was stop Luck one more time to clinch it.

Luck and Wayne wouldn't allow it.

HOUSTON — Aaron Rodgers and the Green Bay Packers finally put it all together. The reigning MVP set a career high and tied a franchise record with six touchdown passes and the Packers played their best game so far this season, beating previously unbeaten Houston 42-24 on Sunday night.

Jordy Nelson caught three touchdown passes and James Jones had two, including a beautiful, diving one-hander, in the fourth quarter for the Packers (3-3). Tom Crabtree had the other, a 48-yarder that Rodgers threw just before taking a hit from Texans' outside linebacker Brooks Reed. Rodgers completed 24 of 37 passes for 338 yards. He tied Matt Flynn's franchise record for TD passes in a game, set in last year's regular-season finale against Detroit with Rodgers resting on the sideline in advance of the playoffs.

Arian Foster scored two touchdowns, but ran for only 29 yards for the Texans (9-1). Houston defensive end J.J. Watt sacked Rodgers, and fired up the fans by mimicking Rodgers' "championship belt" pose after the play. Watt came into the game with 7½ sacks, just behind Green Bay's Clay Matthews, who led the league with eight.

That didn't faze Rodgers, who eluded a rush from Connor Barwin and completed a 24-yard pass to Randall Cobb, who had seven catches for 102 yards. Jones made a diving, fingertip catch in the end zone just before the end of the first quarter for a 14-0 lead.

Foster finished a five-minute drive with a short touchdown run, but the Packers had a quick answer. Rodgers found Nelson with a 21-yard touchdown to cap a smooth drive that took less than four minutes. Rodgers completed 15 of 21 passes for 187 yards and was only sacked once in the first half. He connected with six receivers, and didn't miss Greg Jennings, who sat out again with a groin injury.

Trailing 28-10, Texans rookie receiver Keshawn Martin made two first-down catches late in the third quarter and Foster scored again. Cobb returned the ensuing kickoff to the Packers' 43, and Rodgers went back to work. On third down, he scrambled to his right and threw to Crabtree, who was wide open and waltzed into the end zone to give the Packers a 35-17 lead.

Sam Shields intercepted Schaub and fans started filing for the exits, with more than 14 minutes remaining. OFFICIALS — Referee: Jerome Boger (23); Umpire: Tony Michalek (115); Head Linesman: Ed Camp (134); Line Judge: Tom Stephan (68); Side Judge: Joe Larrew (73); Field Judge: Dyrri Proleau (109); Back Judge: Tony Stratore (112); Replay Official: Mark Burns
