PACKERS AND LIONS TO SQUARE OFF IN PRIME-TIME CONTEST

The Packers stay home to host the Detroit Lions on Sunday evening in a nationally televised contest, the first prime-time meeting between the division rivals since a Sunday night game at Lambeau Field in 2005.

- ▶ Green Bay has won six of its last seven games entering Sunday's contest, which is tied for the second-best record in the league since Week 6 behind only Denver (7-0).
- ▶ The Packers have won six of their last eight games played on Sunday night. Green Bay is 19-6 all-time in Sunday night contests, a .760 winning percentage that ranks No. 1 in the NFL.
- ▶ This is the second in a stretch of three straight NFC North games for Green Bay, the first time the Packers have had three consecutive divisional contests on the schedule since 2006 (Weeks 15-17). Three of Green Bay's final four remaining games are against divisional foes.
- ▶ With their 23-14 win over the Vikings on Sunday at Lambeau Field, the Packers extended their franchise-record divisional winning streak to 10 games (previous mark was eight games). It is the longest current divisional winning streak in the NFL, one ahead of New England's nine-game winning streak against AFC East foes.
- ▶ The Packers have won eight straight NFC North games at home, the longest streak by the team since a 10-game streak from 2000-02.
- ▶ Green Bay is currently tied with Chicago (8-4) for first place in the NFC North, two games ahead of Minnesota (6-6). The Packers beat the Bears in Week 2, and the teams square off again at Chicago in Week 15.
- ▶ No other NFL teams have played every year since 1932, when the Packers and the Lions, then known as the Portsmouth (Ohio) Spartans, began their yearly home-and-home series.
- ▶ The rivalry actually kicked off in 1930 at City Stadium in Green Bay, a 47-13 Packers win. Some two seasons later, the clubs began a yearly series. This Sunday marks meeting No. 166 in the all-time series.
- ▶ Now rivals in the NFC North, the Packers own a 92-65-7 (.585) advantage over the Lions in the regular season and have won both playoff games.
- ▶ Green Bay has a 12-1 mark (.923) against the Lions under Head Coach Mike McCarthy. Overall, the Packers have won 13 of the last 14 and 21 of the last 24 in the series.
- ▶ The Packers have won 21 straight games against the Lions in the state of Wisconsin (including a 1994 playoff game). The streak started with Green Bay's win over the Lions at County Stadium in Milwaukee on Dec. 6, 1992.
- ▶ Green Bay's 20-game regular-season home winning streak against Detroit is the longest in NFL history, ahead of Washington's 18-game home winning streak against the Lions (1939-present) and Pittsburgh's 16-game streak versus the Cleveland Browns (1970-85).
- ▶ The Packers have won 18 of their last 19 regular-season games (.947) at Lambeau Field and 24 of their last 26 (.923) at home.
- ▶ Green Bay has won 25 of its last 30 regular-season games overall (.833), the best record in the league over that span.

STAT OF THE WEEK

► S Morgan Burnett matched his career high on Sunday when he posted two interceptions in the Packers' 23-14 victory over the Minnesota Vikings at Lambeau Field.

► What made Burnett's two interceptions of QB Christian Ponder even more significant was that both came with the Vikings deep in Green Bay territory.

► According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Burnett became the first Packer to record two interceptions in a game where both plays started from the Green Bay 25-yard line or in since CB Doug Evans did so vs. Minnesota on Oct. 22, 1995.

► Both of Burnett's interceptions came in the third quarter as he became the sixth player in the NFL to record two INTs in a quarter this season. One of those six is teammate CB Casey Hayward (fourth quarter, at Houston), as the Packers are the only team in the league this season to have two different players register two interceptions in a quarter.

► With the two INTs on Sunday, four of Burnett's six career interceptions have come against NFC North foes.

308 AND COUNTING

- ▶ The league's longest-tenured stadium, Lambeau Field is hosting its 56th season of football in 2012. A total of 636,177 fans made their way through the turnstiles for the nine home contests last season.

The crown jewel of the National Football League, Lambeau Field has long been known as one of the tougher venues to play in, particularly during the harsh Wisconsin winter.

- ▶ Re-establishing home-field advantage after a 4-4 mark in 2008 was one of the goals of 2009, and with the Packers finishing 6-2 at home, they accomplished that goal. Green Bay followed that up with a 7-1 mark at Lambeau Field in 2010 and a perfect 8-0 record in 2011, the first undefeated home mark since 2002.
- ▶ Head Coach Mike McCarthy stated consistently upon his arrival in Green Bay that one of the team's goals would be to reclaim the mystique of playing at Lambeau Field. Mission accomplished. The team is 39-9 (.813) at home over the past 48 regular-season games.

Talk of unrestricted free agency in the early '90s led many to forecast tough times for the small-town Green Bay Packers.

A LOOK AT THE SCHEDULE

The Green Bay Packers' 92nd NFL regular-season schedule is headlined by five prime-time games (three against 2011 playoff teams).

- ▶ The five prime-time games (subject to flexible scheduling) would be a franchise record, topping the previous mark of four contests on several occasions, most recently in 2010 and 2011. Since 2009, the Packers are 9-3 (.750) in prime-time contests.
- ▶ For the sixth time in seven seasons under Head Coach Mike McCarthy, the Packers opened the season at home, this year against San Francisco in a matchup of the top two teams in the NFC in 2011.
- ▶ The Packers stayed at home on a short week to host Chicago in a Thursday night contest, Green Bay's third-ever game on NFL Network and its first since it traveled to Dallas in Week 13 of 2007. It was the seventh straight season that the Packers and the Bears squared off in prime time.
- ▶ Green Bay visited Seattle for its first road contest of the season, one that began a stretch of four road games in five weeks. It was the Packers' lone game of the season on ESPN's Monday Night Football. 2012 marked the 20th consecutive season (1993-2012) that Green Bay has appeared on MNF, the NFL's second-longest streak (Denver, 21).
- ▶ The Packers hosted New Orleans in Week 4 in a matchup of the two highest-scoring teams in the league in 2011. Both teams have finished in the top 10 in total offense every season since 2006, the only teams in the NFL to accomplish the feat over that span.
- ▶ Starting with a trip to Indianapolis in Week 5, Green Bay played on the road for three straight games (also at Houston and St. Louis), the first time the Packers had three consecutive road games since the 1998 season (Weeks 10-12). All three contests were indoors, the first time Green Bay had played three straight indoors in team history.
- ▶ Green Bay returned for back-to-back games at Lambeau Field (Jacksonville and Arizona) before its Week 10 bye. The Packers came out of their open week with back-to-back road contests against a pair of 2011 playoff teams (Detroit and N.Y. Giants), the second straight season they have played those teams on the road in consecutive weeks.
- ▶ Under McCarthy, the team has won six of seven games immediately after the bye week and 13 of its last 17 after the week off dating back further.
- ▶ Overall, the Packers are 40-21 (.656) after the bye under McCarthy, and since 2000, the team is 76-41 (.650) following the week off.
- ▶ The Packers wrap up the regular season with three of five games in December in front of the home crowd, including divisional matchups against Minnesota and Detroit at Lambeau Field in Weeks 13-14.
- ▶ Four of Green Bay's final five games and five of its last seven will come against NFC North foes, capped off with the season finale at Minnesota.
- ▶ It is the sixth time in seven seasons under McCarthy that the Packers have finished the regular season with a divisional matchup (5-0 in season finales vs. the NFC North since 2006).
- ▶ The Packers will play five games indoors (Indianapolis, Houston, St. Louis, Detroit, Minnesota), which is the most in a season in franchise history (four games in 1987, 1992, 1996, 2004, 2009).
- ▶ Fourteen games are slated for Sunday this season, including each of the final 13 contests, with one Thursday night game and one Monday night contest. Nine games are scheduled for noon (CT) starts with two games currently slated for 3:25 p.m. (CT).
- ▶ The Packers have six games on the schedule against 2011 playoff teams, beginning right away in Week 1 vs. San Francisco. The other matchups come against New Orleans (Week 4), Houston (Week 6), Detroit (Weeks 11 and 14) and the N.Y. Giants (Week 12).

GREEN BAY, Wis. — The Green Bay Packers rattled and robbed Jay Cutler while Aaron Rodgers and Co. sputtered at times against the stout Chicago Bears defense.

So with all those stars on the field for the NFL's most storied rivalry, the biggest play of the day was a gutsy call for a perfectly executed fake field goal in Green Bay's 23-10 victory at Lambeau Field on Thursday.

With the Packers facing a 4th and 26 from the Chicago 27 and lined up for a field goal late in the second quarter, punter Tim Masthay flipped the ball to backup tight end Tom Crabtree, who streaked into the end zone.

The Packers' defense did the rest. Cutler threw four interceptions, including a pair to Tramon Williams. Facing a fierce pass rush all night, Cutler was sacked seven times, including 3.5 for Clay Matthews. New Bears wide receiver Brandon Marshall was held to two catches for 24 yards.

It was an impressive rebound for the Packers from an unsettling season-opening loss to San Francisco. Thursday's game was a huge step backward for the Bears, who were filled with confidence after steamrolling Indianapolis in their opener.

Rodgers finished the game 22 of 32 for 219 yards with a touchdown and an interception. The touchdown went to Donald Driver, who barely played in the loss to San Francisco. Cutler threw a late touchdown to Kellen Davis, cutting the lead to 23-10 with 6:49 remaining. But the Bears couldn't mount a comeback as Matthews and the Packers kept turning up the heat.

Bears running back Matt Forte provided much of what little offense the Bears could muster before leaving the game in the third quarter. He appeared to twist his right ankle while being tackled by Charles Woodson.

Marshall missed a huge opportunity early in the third, when Cutler found him streaking wide open in the end zone -- but the wide receiver couldn't haul it in, and the Bears had to settle for a 45-yard field goal by Robbie Gould that cut the lead to 13-3.

SEATTLE — M.D. Jennings was convinced he had the ball pinned to his chest the entire time and would be awarded an interception to cap Green Bay's comeback victory.

A crew of replacement officials had other views — the ones that counted. The result is a bizarre ending that gave the Seattle Seahawks a 14-12 victory Monday night that capped a tough weekend for the replacement refs. Russell Wilson threw a disputed 24-yard touchdown pass to Golden Tate on the final play of the game, a game that finally ended 10 minutes later when both teams were brought back on the field for the extra point.

Wilson scrambled from the pocket and threw to the corner of the end zone as the clock expired. Tate shoved Green Bay's Sam Shields out of the way, then wrestled with Jennings for possession. It was ruled on the field as a touchdown and after a lengthy review, referee Wayne Elliott came out from under the hood and announced "the ruling on the field stands" and CenturyLink Field erupted in celebration.

The Packers shook off a disastrous first half when Aaron Rodgers was sacked eight times and completely controlled possession in the final 30 minutes. Green Bay ran 41 offensive plays in the second half, got field goals of 29 and 40 yards from Mason Crosby and Cedric Benson's 1-yard TD run with 8:44 left to take a 12-7 lead.

Rodgers finished 26 of 39 for 223 yards and no turnovers. Rodgers converted three third-down conversions on the Packers' touchdown drive to take the lead. He hit Jeremiahae Finley for 14 yards on third-and-10 at the start of the drive deep in the Packers end. He followed with a third-and-10 completion to James Jones for 13 yards, getting rid of the ball before the blitz arrived.

Green Bay appeared to take the lead on an 11-yard TD pass to Greg Jennings, but he stepped out before reaching the end zone and was short of the first down. On third down, Rodgers rolled out and attempted to run, but was stopped short by inches. McCarthy challenged the spot and the call was reversed on the challenge with Rodgers given the first down. Benson then plowed in on the next play to give the Packers their first lead with 8:44 left. Seattle (2-1) won its second straight, while Green Bay (1-2) and saw its streak of wins in six straight road openers snapped.

GREEN BAY 28, NEW ORLEANS 27

GREEN BAY, Wis. — Garrett Hartley missed a field goal in a wild ending at Lambeau Field, where the New Orleans Saints (0-4) blew a fourth-quarter lead and lost to the Green Bay Packers 28-27 on Sunday.

Aaron Rodgers threw a go-ahead touchdown to Jordy Nelson in the fourth quarter.

Soon after, Packers fans were howling about what appeared to be yet another bad call — this time by the regular officials, not the replacements.

Darren Sproles appeared to fumble the ensuing kickoff but officials ruled that he was down by contact. Replays showed that the ball clearly came out but the Packers were out of replay challenges, leaving Packers fans screaming at the officials for the second week in a row.

Drew Brees then led the Saints into field goal range, and Hartley hit a 43-yard attempt — but the Saints were called for holding, forcing Hartley to line up a 53-yarder. The Packers then were called for encroachment, leaving Hartley to try a 48-yarder and he missed it wide left.

Rodgers threw for 319 yards with four touchdowns and an interception for the Packers (2-2).

With the Packers leading 21-14 in the third quarter, fans — and head coach Mike McCarthy — were on the officials again when McCarthy charged a catch by Jimmy Graham but it wasn't overturned.

The Packers committed a personal foul on a Saints field goal attempt later in the drive, giving New Orleans first-and-goal on the 1. But the defense held, forcing a 20-yard field goal by Hartley to cut the lead to 21-17 with 9:41 left in the third quarter.

Rodgers marched the Packers down the field again but needed attention from the team's training staff after a face mask by New Orleans' Malcolm Jenkins. Rodgers came out of the game for one play and backup quarterback Graham Harrell came in — then tripped and fumbled as he tried to hand it off, allowing the Saints to get the ball back in the middle of a scrum.

Brees then found Joseph Morgan wide open behind the defense, and Morgan shed tackling attempts from the Packers' Sam Shields and Tramon Williams on his way to an 80-yard touchdown and a 24-21 lead with 3:49 left in the third quarter.

Things then got even worse for the Packers, as Rodgers then threw an interception to Patrick Robinson on a deep throw intended for Nelson. Brees then completed a pair of third-and-long situations, and the Saints drove for a 27-yard field goal by Hartley to take a 27-21 lead with 13:04 remaining.

With the Packers trailing by 6, Rodgers threw an 11-yard strike to Nelson as the Saints' Corey White tried to wrap his arms around the ball at the same time as Nelson — briefly re-creating a scene eerily similar to the controversial game-ender in Seattle on Monday. This time, though, Nelson clearly came away with the ball and spiked it emphatically.

HOUSTON — Aaron Rodgers and the Green Bay Packers finally put it all together. The reigning MVP set a career high and tied a franchise record with six touchdown passes and the Packers played their best game so far this season, beating previously unbeaten Houston 42-24 on Sunday night.

Jordy Nelson caught three touchdown passes and James Jones had two, including a beautiful, diving one-hander, in the fourth quarter for the Packers (3-3). Tom Crabtree had the other, a 48-yarder that Rodgers threw just before taking a hit from Texans' outside linebacker Brooks Reed. Rodgers completed 24 of 37 passes for 338 yards. He tied Matt Flynn's franchise record for TD passes in a game, set in last year's regular-season finale against Detroit with Rodgers resting on the sideline in advance of the playoffs.

Arian Foster scored two touchdowns, but ran for only 29 yards for the Texans (5-1). Houston defensive end J.J. Watt sacked Rodgers, and fired up the fans by mimicking Rodgers' "championship belt" pose after the play. Watt came into the game with 7½ sacks, just behind Green Bay's Clay Matthews, who led the league with eight.

That didn't faze Rodgers, who eluded a rush from Connor Barwin and completed a 24-yard pass to Randall Cobb, who had seven catches for 102 yards. Jones made a diving, fingertip catch in the end zone just before the end of the first quarter for a 14-0 lead.

Foster finished a five-minute drive with a short touchdown run, but the Packers had a quick answer. Rodgers found Nelson with a 21-yard touchdown to cap a smooth drive that took less than four minutes.

Reg Jennings, who sat out again with a groin injury. Rodgers completed 15 of 21 passes for 187 yards and was only sacked once in the first half. He connected with six receivers, and didn't miss down to cap a smooth drive that took less than four minutes.

Trailing 28-10, Texans rookie receiver Keshawn Martin made two first-down catches late in the third quarter and Foster scored again. Cobb returned the ensuing kickoff to the Packers' 43, and Rodgers went back to work. On third down, he scrambled to his right and threw to Crabtree, who was wide open and waltzed into the end zone to give the Packers a 35-17 lead.

Sam Shields intercepted Schaub and fans started filing for the exits, with more than 14 minutes remaining.

ST. LOUIS — Aaron Rodgers never worried about topping himself. A second straight turnover-free performance on the road witnessed by thousands of cheesheads was perfectly satisfying.

The Green Bay Packers' quarterback threw for 342 yards and three touchdowns in a 30-20 victory over the St. Louis Rams on Sunday. A week earlier, the numbers were a lot gaudier when he tied the franchise record with six touchdown passes and no picks.

Rodgers set a couple firsts anyway, reaching 150 touchdown passes with the fewest interceptions in NFL history. Rodgers has thrown 42 interceptions, beating the record set by Dan Marino with 150 TDs and 69 picks.

He hit 81.1 percent of his passes, going 30 for 37 to set a single-game franchise record with a minimum of 35 attempts. The Packers were a season-best 9-for-15 on third-down conversions.

Randall Cobb caught two touchdown passes and Jordy Nelson had eight receptions for a season-best 122 yards and a TD for the Packers (4-3), who handed the Rams (3-4) their first home loss. Rodgers was sacked three times in the first half, but got the ball out a lot quicker the rest of the way and was 30 for 37 for 342 yards.

The Packers' depleted defense clamped down on Sam Bradford, too, allowing 342 yards, but limiting the damage. Rookie Casey Hayward made his first start in place of injured Sam Shields and intercepted his fourth pass in three games.

The Packers, who were 15-1 last season, are above .500 for the first time after alternating losses and wins the first six weeks. A week earlier, they ended the Texans' unbeaten start.

After dominating in time of possession in the first half, holding the ball for more than 18 minutes, the Rams ran just seven plays in the third quarter and were held to minus-7 yards while the Packers had 129 yards and 11:39 in time of possession.

Nelson wrapped up his second straight 100-yard game early in the third quarter, often picking on rookie cornerback Janoris Jenkins. Cobb threw a nice fake on Jenkins in the end zone on a 5-yard catch that put the Packers up 17-6 midway through the third, capping a 12-play, 80-yard drive to open the half that lasted nearly seven minutes.

GREEN BAY, Wis.— The Green Bay Packers had a powerful incentive to beat the Arizona Cardinals.

Packers coach Mike McCarthy gave his banged-up team the whole week off after the Packers beat Arizona 31-17 Sunday. Less than a minute after Arizona kicked a 20-yard field goal to pare what had been a 17-point lead to a touchdown, Tom Crabtree chugged 72 yards for a late third-quarter score that sealed the victory.

Green Bay (6-3) takes a four-game winning streak into the bye, which it desperately needs. Greg Jennings, Charles Woodson and Cedric Benson headline a laundry list of injured Packers, and three more got hurt against Arizona. Clay Matthews tweaked his hamstring, Bryan Bulaga hurt his hip and Jordy Nelson, who missed last week's game and much of practice this week with a bad hamstring, injured his ankle.

The Packers are second in the NFC North behind Chicago, with five of their last seven games against division opponents. Criticized all year for their anemic efforts on the ground, the Packers broke free for 176 yards, their most since gaining 202 against Cleveland on Oct. 25, 2009. Four players — Aaron Rodgers, Randall Cobb, James Starks and Alex Green — had 25-plus yards rushing, the first time that's happened since 2003.

All that running must have left them tired, however, because the Packers came out sluggish in the second half. They failed to pick up a first down on any of their first four drives, and got only a 33-yard field goal from Mason Crosby despite getting the ball at their own 48, Arizona's 17 and midfield.

The Cardinals caught a break when LaRod Stephens-Hawling was tripped up behind the line of scrimmage only to land on a Packer instead of the ground. He got up and kept going for a 5-yard gain, and the ruling was upheld on review because officials said only his wrist had hit the ground. On the next play, Larry Fitzgerald shook off tackles by Tramon Williams, M.D. Jennings and Dezman Moses for a 31-yard touchdown that cut Green Bay's lead to 24-14.

With Matthews in the locker room with a hamstring injury, John Skelton went 7 of 9 as he moved the Cardinals 74 yards to the Green Bay 2. But Stephens-Hawling was stuffed on third-and-1, forcing Arizona to settle for a 20-yard field goal that cut the lead to 24-17.

Two plays later Crabtree caught the ball at the Green Bay 45 and rumbled up field, glancing over his shoulder to make sure Paris Lenon and William Gay weren't going to catch him.

They didn't — barely — and Crabtree tumbled into the end zone.

DETROIT (AP) — M.D. Jennings caught the deflected pass, and there was no doubt about this interception.

Then it was simply a matter of how far he could return it.

Jennings went 72 yards to the end zone in the third quarter, and Packers went on to beat the Detroit Lions 24-20 Sunday, moving a step closer to solidifying their playoff chances in the NFC.

It was Jennings who had both hands on the ball in the end zone at the end of a game at Seattle earlier this season, but replacement officials ruled simultaneous possession by him and receiver Golden Tate, giving the Seahawks the winning touchdown.

Green Bay (7-3) has won six of seven since then, including five in a row. The Lions took back the lead after Jennings' touchdown, but they couldn't hold on. Aaron Rodgers threw two touchdown passes on the day, including a 22-yarder to Randall Cobb with 1:55 left that gave the Packers a 21-20 lead.

Mason Crosby added a 39-yard field goal with 19 seconds to go after missing two kicks earlier in the game.

Detroit (4-6) has dropped two in a row and remains in last place in the NFC North. The Packers moved to a half-game behind first-place Chicago in the division. The Bears play at San Francisco on Monday night.

Calvin Johnson caught five passes for 143 yards and a touchdown for the Lions, but nobody else emerged as a consistent receiving threat. Matthew Stafford went 17 of 39 for 266 yards with two interceptions. His pass in the third quarter toward Tony Scheffler was high and behind the tight end, deflecting off his hands before being picked off by Jennings and returned for a touchdown.

Rodgers was 19 of 27 for 236 yards with two TDs, the first of which was a 20-yard connection with wide-open Jermichael Finley early in the second quarter to give Green Bay its first lead at 7-3. He also threw an interception.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — The Packers' five-game winning streak came to an end as Eli Manning threw three touchdowns and the Giants routed Green Bay 38-10 in a nationally televised game Sunday night.

Coming on the heels of last season's loss in the playoffs, it was the Packers' second straight lopsided loss to New York (7-4) and this one seemed worse than the 37-20 setback. It also left them a game behind Chicago (8-3) in the NFC North.

The Giants dominated in all phases on a night that Manning set a franchise record with his 200th career touchdown pass. The 38 points were the most given up by Green Bay this season and it came in a game in which Aaron Rodgers was sacked five times and hit at least as many times.

The Packers were missing such key starters as linebacker Clay Matthews, defensive back Charles Woodson and receiver Greg Jennings, and it showed.

New York struck early with a brilliantly conceived screen pass to Ahmad Bradshaw off a fake reverse to Victor Cruz. Bradshaw sped down the field before being caught at the Green Bay 2, a 59-yard pickup that led to Andre Brown's scoring run.

Brown later broke his leg; Giants head coach Tom Coughlin did not say which leg after the game.

Green Bay didn't flinch, with Jordy Nelson getting behind Corey Webster in single coverage down the right sideline for a 61-yard TD reception from Rodgers.

The scoring flurry went back in the Giants' favor -- and pretty much stayed there -- when Manning hit Rueben Randle in the back of the end zone for a 16-yard TD. It was the first score for the rookie and Manning's first touchdown throw in four games, and he set it up with, of all things, a scramble in which he laid his shoulder into Packers cornerback Tramon Williams for a 13-yard gain.

Webster's interception led to Lawrence Tynes' 43-yard field goal late in the first quarter for a 17-7 lead, and the Giants weren't nearly done. Manning's 9-yard connection with Cruz tied him for the club record with 199 career TD passes, and after Osi Umenyiora's strip-sack of Rodgers was recovered by Jason Pierre-Paul at the Green Bay 23, Bradshaw scored from the 13.

GREEN BAY, Wis. — If any more Green Bay receivers go down, the Packers could always use Morgan Burnett.

With Minnesota rolling behind Adrian Peterson, the Green Bay safety picked off Christian Ponder twice in the red zone in the second half. Mason Crosby converted the miscues into a pair of field goals. James Starks gave Green Bay its first touchdown on the ground in almost two months and the Packers overcame Peterson's monster day for a 23-14 win.

The victory was Green Bay's 10th straight over an NFC North opponent and gave the Packers (8-4) a share of the division lead after Chicago lost to Seattle in overtime. The Packers and Bears play at Soldier Field on Dec. 16.

Peterson finished with 210 yards rushing, the most he's had since blowing out his ACL and MCL last December. That included a career-long 82-yard touchdown that gave Minnesota a 14-10 lead at halftime.

The Packers didn't panic despite injuries to Jordy Nelson (hamstring) and T.J. Lang (ankle) leaving the offense scrambling and Peterson almost single-handedly wiping out Green Bay's early 10-0 lead. He put the Vikings in great position to pad that lead, ripping off a 48-yarder on the first play of the second half that gave Minnesota the ball at the Green Bay 12.

But two plays later, Ponder got flushed out of the pocket. Rather than take the sack or run out of bounds, he heaved the ball into the end zone — and right into Burnett's hands.

Aaron Rodgers overthrew Jarrett Boykin in the end zone on third-and-7 from the 29, and the Packers looked as if they were going to go for it. But after a Minnesota timeout, Mike McCarthy sent out Crosby, who had missed six of his last 11, including one from 53 yards, just before the half.

This one was good, however, the kick going through the uprights for a 47-yard field goal.

Rodgers was picked off on a trick play, but the Packers defense bailed him out, stuffing Peterson for no gain on third-and-1. A tipped Chris Klumewant gave the Packers the ball at their own 49 and, four plays later, Starks booted 22 yards for the score and Green Bay's first lead since the second quarter.

It was Green Bay's first rushing touchdown since Oct. 7.

The Packers ground out an 11-minute drive before Crosby sealed the win with his third field goal of the day, a 31-yarder. Rodgers made three big third-down conversions to keep the drive alive, running for one and finding Greg Jennings (8 yards) and Randall Cobb (33 yards) on the others.
