PACKERS TO HOST TITANS IN REGULAR-SEASON HOME FINALE

The Packers welcome the Tennessee Titans to town for the first time since 2004 in Green Bay's final home contest of the regular season.

- ▶ This will be the 11th meeting between the franchises in the regular season, with the Titans holding a 6-4 edge. It will be the sixth time the clubs have squared off at Lambeau Field.
- ▶ The Packers clinched their second straight NFC North title with a 21-13 win over Chicago at Soldier Field on Sunday. Green Bay is currently the No. 3 seed in the NFC behind Atlanta (12-2) and San Francisco (10-3-1).
- ▶ The Packers have won at least 10 games each of the last four seasons, which ties the franchise record (1929-32, 1995-98, 2001-04). Green Bay and New England are the only teams in the league with 10-plus wins each of the last four seasons (2009-12).
- ▶ Green Bay has won eight of its last nine games entering Sunday's contest, which is the second-best record in the league since Week 6 behind only Denver (9-0).
- ▶ The Packers have won their final home game of the season each year under Head Coach Mike McCarthy (2006-11). Green Bay also won its home finale in 2005, giving them a seven-game winning streak in its final home game of the season, the second-longest current streak in the NFL behind only Baltimore (nine straight home finales).
- ▶ Over the past 20 years (1992-2011), the Packers have won their final home game of the season every year but one (2004).
- ▶ Sunday will be Green Bay's fourth and final game against an AFC South foe this season. The Packers posted wins earlier this season at Houston (Week 6) and vs. Jacksonville (Week 8), with a loss at Indianapolis in Week 5.
- ▶ The Packers enter Sunday's contest having won five of their last seven regular-season games against teams from the AFC.
- ▶ Green Bay has won 19 of its last 20 regular-season games (.950) at Lambeau Field and 25 of its last 27 (.926) at home.
- ▶ The Packers have won 27 of their last 32 regular-season games overall (.844), the best record in the league over that span.

BACK IN THE PLAYOFFS

The Packers have won two straight NFC North titles for the first time since 2002-04, when the team captured three consecutive divisional crowns.

- ▶ This season's NFC North title marks the Packers' 20th division crown in franchise history.
- ▶ With the win on Sunday at Chicago, Green Bay clinched its 28th postseason berth in team history and its 15th appearance in the last 20 seasons.

- ▶ Green Bay currently ranks No. 3 in NFL history with its 28 playoff appearances, trailing only the N.Y. Giants (31) and Dallas Cowboys (30).
- ▶ The Packers' 15 postseason appearances in the free-agency era (since 1993) are the most of any team in the NFL.

TITANS AT PACKERS – WEEK 16

AS THE WEATHER TURNS

In 2009 and 2010, the Packers' late-season success was instrumental in advancing to the postseason. Since Head Coach Mike McCarthy took over in 2006, the Packers have been one of the best teams in the league down the stretch.

- The Packers have a 22-9 regular-season record in December/January games since 2006, a .710 winning percentage that ranks No. 4 in the NFL over that span:

| Team | Dec./Jan. W-L Record | Pct. |
|---------------------|-----------------------------|-------------|
| 1. New England | 28-4 | .875 |
| 2. San Diego | 27-5 | .844 |
| 3. Philadelphia | 23-9 | .719 |
| 4. Green Bay | 22-9 | .710 |
| 5t. Indianapolis | 21-11 | .656 |
| 5t. Pittsburgh | 21-11 | .656 |

- That includes a 15-2 record at Lambeau Field in December/January, the No. 2 mark in the league at home since 2006:

| Team | Dec./Jan. W-L Record (Home) | Pct. |

| 3. Indianapolis | 14-3-0 | .824 |
| 4. San Diego | 13-3-0 | .813 |
| 5. Arizona | 15-4-0 | .789 |

- Green Bay ranks No. 4 in the league in scoring offense in December/January since 2006 with an average of 26.5 points per game.
- The Packers rank No. 5 in the NFL in scoring defense in December/January over that span with an average of 18.4 points allowed per game.
- Green Bay will be looking to post its third straight season with at least seven wins at home. That would mark the second-longest streak in franchise history behind only a span of five straight seasons (1994-98) with seven or more victories at home.
- A look at the most home victories over a three-season span in franchise history:

| Seasons | Home Wins |
|--------------------------------------|------------------|
| 1t. 1995-97 | 23 |
| 1t. 1996-98 | 23 |
| 3. 1994-96 | 22 |

- The defense has done its part as well at home since 2009, generating 76 turnovers at Lambeau Field. With Green Bay's offense posting only 33 giveaways over that span, the Packers have a plus-43 turnover ratio at home, No. 1 in the league since '09.

- That brought Chicago's two-game total to 181 net passing yards versus Green Bay this season. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, that was the Packers' best two-game total posted against the Bears in a single season since Green Bay allowed just 158 net passing yards against Chicago in 1977.
- Green Bay allowed the Bears to register only 358 net yards of offense (177 rushing, 181 passing) in the two games this season, the fewest allowed by the Packers to Chicago in a season since they gave up just 254 yards in 1966 (117 rushing, 137 passing).

TAKE IT AWAY NOW

Since Head Coach Mike McCarthy took over in 2006, Green Bay has been one of the most productive teams in the league when it comes to taking the ball away from its opponents.

- This season, Green Bay has recorded 21 takeaways (tied for No. 18 in the NFL). The Packers have generated 220 takeaways since '06, No. 3 in the league over that span:

| Team | Total Takeaways Since 2006 |
|---------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1. Chicago | 240 |
| 2. New England | 224 |
| 3. Green Bay | 220 |

- Since Dom Capers took over as defensive coordinator in 2009, the Packers have posted at least 32 takeaways each season (2009-11), the only team in the league to accomplish that feat over that span:

| Team | Total Takeaways Since 2009 |
|----------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1. New England | 136 |
| 2t. Green Bay | 131 |
| 2t. Chicago | 131 |

- Green Bay's 110 takeaways from 2009-11 was the best three-year mark by the club since it generated 116 turnovers from 2001-03.
- The Packers have a 54-12 record (.818) when they record at least two takeaways in a game under McCarthy. A look at the Packers' record by the number of takeaways they have in a game since 2006:

| Takeaways In Game | GB Record Since 2006 |
|--------------------------|-----------------------------|
| None | 1-12 (.077) |
| One | 18-13 (.581) |
| Two | 23-7 (.767) |
| Three-plus | 31-5 (.861) |

STINGY STARTS

In 2012, the Packers have been one of the best defenses in the league when it comes to limiting scoring early in games.

- Green Bay did not allow a point on an opening possession until the Giants scored a TD on the first drive in Week 12. The Packers were the last team in the league to give up points on an opening drive in 2012:

| Team | Points Allowed On Opening Poss. |
|----------------------|--|
| 1t. Arizona, Chicago | 10 |
| 3t. Denver, Miami | 13 |
| 5. Green Bay | 14 |

- It was an area Green Bay's defense struggled in last season, as it allowed 45 points on opening drives (No. 30 in the NFL).
- Green Bay has allowed 43 points in the first quarter this season:

| Team | Points Allowed/First Quarter |
|---------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 1. Cincinnati | 35 |

TITANS AT PACKERS – WEEK 16

THE PRODUCTION CONTINUES

DB Charles Woodson will be looking to return to action soon after missing the last seven games due to a broken collarbone suffered at St. Louis in Week 7.

- Woodson is tied for No. 4 in franchise history in interceptions, having posted 38 INTs in six-plus seasons with Green Bay:

| Player | Interceptions |
|-------------------------------------|---------------|
| 1. Bobby Dillon, 1952-59 | 58 |
| 2. Willie Wood, 1960-71 | 48 |
| 3. Herb Adderley, 1961-69 | 39 |
| 4t. Charles Woodson, 2006-12 | 38 |
| 4t. LeRoy Butler, 1990-2001 | 38 |

- Woodson was tied for the NFL lead with seven INTs in 2011, his fourth season with seven-plus INTs as a Packer. He joined Bobby Dillon as the only players in franchise history to accomplish that feat and is the only NFL player to have four seven-plus INT seasons since 2006.
- In the Week 7 win at Minnesota last season, he intercepted QB Christian Ponder two times on the afternoon, Woodson's sixth multi-INT game in a Green Bay uniform.

| Player | Multi-INT Games |
|-------------------------------------|-----------------|
| 1. Bobby Dillon, 1952-59 | 12 |
| 2. Don Hutson, 1935-45 | 8 |
| 3. Herb Adderley, 1961-69 | 7 |
| 4t. Charles Woodson, 2006-12 | 6 |
| 4t. LeRoy Butler, 1990-2001 | 6 |

- In the Week 4 win over Denver in 2011, Woodson picked off QB Kyle Orton and returned the interception 30 yards for a TD, his 11th career INT return for a TD to move into a tie for the No. 2 spot in NFL history:

| Player | Interception TDs |
|---------------------------------------|------------------|
| 1. Rod Woodson, 1987-2003 | 12 |
| 2t. Charles Woodson, 1998-2012 | 11 |
| 2t. Darren Sharper, 1997-2010 | 11 |

- The INT for a score against Denver gave Woodson 12 defensive scores for his career, which ties him for No. 3 in NFL annals:

| Player | Defensive TDs |
|---------------------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1t. Rod Woodson, 1987-2003 | 13 (12 INT, 1 FR) |
| 1t. Darren Sharper, 1997-2010 | 13 (11 INT, 2 FR) |
| 3t. Charles Woodson, 1998-2012 | 12 (11 INT, 1 FR) |
| 3t. Aeneas Williams, 1991-2004 | 12 (9 INT, 3 FR) |

- Woodson has returned an INT for a touchdown in six straight seasons (2006-11), becoming the first player in NFL history to do so. No other NFL player has accomplished the feat in more than four consecutive seasons.
- Woodson's nine interceptions for TDs from 2006-11 ranked No. 1 in the league over that span, more than double the total of the nine players that tied for the No. 2 spot with four each.
- Woodson's nine interception TDs over the past six seasons (2006-11) were tied for the most by a player over a six-year period in NFL history, matching the mark of Houston Oilers safety Ken Houston (1967-72).

- With his first INT for a TD coming in his rookie season of 1998, the time from Woodson's first INT-TD to his most recent spans 14 seasons (1998-2011). That ranks tied for No. 3 in NFL history behind only Rod Woodson (1987-2002) and Deion Sanders (1990-2004), according to the Elias Sports Bureau.
- His INT return for a score against the Broncos was his ninth career with the Packers, further extending his franchise record. Adderley ranks No. 2 in team annals (seven, 1961-69).
- It was also Woodson's 10th defensive TD (nine INTs, one fumble return) in a Green Bay uniform, which further extended his franchise mark.
- He led the Packers with a career-high five forced fumbles in 2010. He was the only defensive back in the NFL to register four or more forced fumbles each season in 2009 and 2010.
- A look at where Woodson ranks in career forced fumbles among active defensive backs (according to STATS LLC):

| Defensive Back | Forced Fumbles |
|-------------------------------|----------------|
| 1. Charles Tillman, CHI | 38 |
| 2. Charles Woodson, GB | 29 |
| 3. Nate Clements, CIN | 23 |

- Woodson achieved the highest individual honor bestowed upon a defensive player, taking home The Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year award in 2009.
- In 2009, Woodson became the fourth player in NFL history since sacks became an official statistic to record at least nine interceptions and two sacks in a single season.
- Woodson registered two sacks in 2011, his fourth straight season with two-plus sacks. He is the first defensive back in franchise history (since 1982) to accomplish that feat. With one more half-sack this season, he would join Rodney Harrison (2000-04) and Adam Archuleta (2001-05) as the only NFL defensive backs to post two-plus sacks in five straight seasons.
- A look at where Woodson ranks in several categories since 2008:

TITANS AT PACKERS – WEEK 16

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

Green Bay went 7-1 away from Lambeau Field in 2011, with the seven road wins setting a single-season franchise record.

- The Packers have been able to stay above the .500 mark on the road during Head Coach Mike McCarthy's tenure, a notable achievement in the National Football League.
- Since 2006, McCarthy's first season as the head coach in Green Bay, only 10 of 32 NFL teams have regular-season road records above .500.

| Team | W-L Record | Pct. |
|----------------------|----------------|-------------|
| 1. New England | 40-15-0 | .727 |
| 2. N.Y. Giants | 34-21-0 | .618 |
| 3t. Green Bay | 32-23-0 | .582 |
| 3t. New Orleans | 32-23-0 | .582 |

| 10. Baltimore | 28-27-0 | .509 |

309 AND COUNTING

Another packed house at Lambeau Field against the Lions in Week 14 brought the stadium's consecutive sellouts streak to 309 games (292 regular season, 17 playoffs).

- The league's longest-tenured stadium, Lambeau Field is hosting its 56th season of football in 2012. A total of 636,177 fans made their way through the turnstiles for the nine home contests last season.
- Across American professional sports, only Boston's Fenway Park (1912) and Chicago's Wrigley Field (1914) have longer tenures.

THE LAMBEAU ADVANTAGE

The crown jewel of the National Football League, Lambeau Field has long been known as one of the tougher venues to play in, particularly during the harsh Wisconsin winter.

- Re-establishing home-field advantage after a 4-4 mark in 2008 was one of the goals of 2009, and with the Packers finishing 6-2 at home, they accomplished that goal. Green Bay followed that up with a 7-1 mark at Lambeau Field in 2010 and a perfect 8-0 record in 2011, the first undefeated home mark since 2002.
- Head Coach Mike McCarthy stated consistently upon his arrival in Green Bay that one of the team's goals would be to reclaim the mystique of playing at Lambeau Field. Mission accomplished. The team is 40-9 (.816) at home over the past 49 regular-season games.
- Since Ron Wolf and Mike Holmgren began the revitalization of the franchise in 1992, Green Bay owns the best home record in the NFL. A look at the top regular-season home W-L records since the '92 season:

| Team | W-L Record | Pct. |
|--------------------------|-----------------|-------------|
| 1. Green Bay | 128-39-0 | .766 |
| 2. Pittsburgh | 120-45-1 | .726 |
| 3. New England | 116-51-0 | .695 |
| 4. Baltimore (since '96) | 93-41-1 | .693 |
| 5. Denver | 114-52-0 | .687 |

HOT AT HOME

The Packers' win over Dallas at Lambeau in Week 10 of 2009 was the first step to a 7-1 finish and a playoff berth for Green Bay.

- Since that victory, the Packers have been one of the best teams in the league at home. Green Bay's lone defeats since then came to Miami in 2010 in Week 6 and in the 2012 season opener vs. San Francisco:

| Team | W-L Record | Pct. |
|---------------------|---------------|-------------|
| 1. Green Bay | 25-2-0 | .926 |
| 2. New England | 23-3-0 | .885 |
| 3. Baltimore | 23-4-0 | .852 |

IN THE FREE-AGENCY ERA

Talk of unrestricted free agency in the early '90s led many to forecast tough times for the small-town Green Bay Packers.

- However, Green Bay has remained among the most successful teams since the advent of free agency in 1993. The Packers have won 10 or more games 12 times since '93 and captured eight division crowns.
- A look at the most successful teams in the free-agency era:

| Team | W-L Since '93 | Pct. | Playoff Berths |
|---------------------|------------------|-------------|----------------|
| 1. New England | 208-110-0 | .654 | 14 |
| 2. Green Bay | 204-114-0 | .642 | 15 |
| 3. Pittsburgh | 200-117-1 | .631 | 13 |
| 4t. Denver | 185-133-0 | .582 | 10 |
| 4t. Indianapolis | 185-133-0 | .582 | 13 |

A LOOK AT THE SCHEDULE

The Green Bay Packers' 92nd NFL regular-season schedule is headlined by five prime-time games (three against 2011 playoff teams).

- The five prime-time games (subject to flexible scheduling) would be a franchise record, topping the previous mark of four contests on several occasions, most recently in 2010 and 2011. Since 2009, the Packers are 9-3 (.750) in prime-time contests.
- For the sixth time in seven seasons under Head Coach Mike McCarthy, the Packers opened the season at home, this year against San Francisco in a matchup of the top two teams in the NFC in 2011.
- The Packers stayed at home on a short week to host Chicago in a Thursday night contest, Green Bay's third-ever game on NFL Network and its first since it traveled to Dallas in Week 13 of 2007. It was the seventh straight season that the Packers and the Bears squared off in prime time.
- Green Bay visited Seattle for its first road contest of the season, one that began a stretch of four road games in five weeks. It was the Packers' lone game of the season on ESPN's Monday Night Football. 2012 marked the 20th consecutive season (1993-2012) that Green Bay has appeared on MNF, the NFL's second-longest streak (Denver, 21).
- The Packers hosted New Orleans in Week 4 in a matchup of the two highest-scoring teams in the league in 2011. Both teams have finished in the top 10 in total offense every season since 2006, the only teams in the NFL to accomplish the feat over that span.
- Starting with a trip to Indianapolis in Week 5, Green Bay played on the road for three straight games (also at Houston and St. Louis), the first time the Packers had three consecutive road games since the 1998 season (Weeks 10-12). All three contests were indoors, the first time Green Bay had played three straight indoors in team history.
- Green Bay returned for back-to-back games at Lambeau Field (Jacksonville and Arizona) before its Week 10 bye. The Packers came out of their open week with back-to-back road contests against a pair of 2011 playoff teams (Detroit and N.Y. Giants), the second straight season they have played those teams on the road in consecutive weeks.
- Under McCarthy, the team has won six of seven games immediately after the bye week and 13 of its last 17 after the week off dating back further.
- Overall, the Packers are 42-21 (.667) after the bye under McCarthy, and since 2000, the team is 78-41 (.655) following the week off.
- The Packers wrap up the regular season with three of five games in December in front of the home crowd, including divisional matchups against Minnesota and Detroit at Lambeau Field in Weeks 13-14.
- Four of Green Bay's final five games and five of its last seven will come against NFC North foes, capped off with the season finale at Minnesota.
- It is the sixth time in seven seasons under McCarthy that the Packers have finished the regular season with a divisional matchup (5-0 in season finales vs. the NFC North since 2006).
- The Packers will play five games indoors (Indianapolis, Houston, St. Louis, Detroit, Minnesota), which is the most in a season in franchise history (four games in 1987, 1992, 1996, 2004, 2009).
- Fourteen games are slated for Sunday this season, including each of the final 13 contests, with one Thursday night game and one Monday night contest. Nine games are scheduled for noon (CT) starts with two games currently slated for 3:25 p.m. (CT).

Tie Game

Green Bay 17, Denver 17, Sept. 20, 1987, at Milwaukee

SAN FRANCISCO 30, GREEN BAY 22

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Sept. 9, 2012.

GAME 1

GREEN BAY, Wis. — With the arrival of Randy Moss and a few other additions in the offseason, quarterback Alex Smith knew the San Francisco 49ers were serious about beating up their passing game.

And while the 49ers aren't going to stray completely from the defense and running game-based formula that got them to the NFC Championship game last season, Smith hoped he gave future opponents a few things to think about with his play in Sunday's 30-22 victory over the Green Bay Packers at Lambeau Field.

Smith was 20 of 26 for 211 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions, spreading the ball around to six different receivers — including Moss and fellow offseason addition Mario Manningham.

Smith got Moss involved early on, finding him wide open in the end zone for a 14-yard touchdown in the second quarter.

Facing a Packers team that lost only once in the 2011 regular season was a tough opening road test; the 49ers were more than ready.

Things went so well for San Francisco that when David Akers tried a 63-yard field goal at the end of the first half, it bounced off the crossbar and then kept going through the uprights to tie an NFL record.

Still, the most impressive part of Sunday's effort was on defense, where the 49ers smothered quarterback Aaron Rodgers and the Packers offense for three quarters, then made one last stand to stop a late rally to seal the win.

The 49ers took a 16-point lead into the fourth quarter, then twice let Rodgers and the Packers cut the lead to 8. But the defense held firm on a potential game-tying drive in the final minutes.

It was a harsh reality check for the Packers, who came into their opener with hopes that a rebuilt defense and improved running game could help get them back to the Super Bowl after coming up short in the playoffs last season.

Rodgers finished 30 of 44 for 303 yards with two touchdowns and an interception, but the Packers couldn't really move the ball before the fourth quarter.

Rodgers also finished the game as the Packers' leading rusher, with new addition Cedric Benson gaining just 18 yards on nine carries.

GREEN BAY, Wis. — The Green Bay Packers rattled and robbed Jay Cutler while Aaron Rodgers and Co. sputtered at times against the stout Chicago Bears defense.

So with all those stars on the field for the NFL's most storied rivalry, the biggest play of the day was a gutsy call for a perfectly executed fake field goal in Green Bay's 23-10 victory at Lambeau Field on Thursday.

With the Packers facing a 4th and 26 from the Chicago 27 and lined up for a field goal late in the second quarter, punter Tim Masthay flipped the ball to backup tight end Tom Crabtree, who streaked into the end zone.

The Packers' defense did the rest.

Cutler threw four interceptions, including a pair to Tramon Williams. Facing a fierce pass rush all night, Cutler was sacked seven times, including 3.5 for Clay Matthews. New Bears wide receiver Brandon Marshall was held to two catches for 24 yards.

It was an impressive rebound for the Packers from an unsettling season-opening loss to San Francisco.

Thursday's game was a huge step backward for the Bears, who were filled with confidence after steamrolling Indianapolis in their opener.

Rodgers finished the game 22 of 32 for 219 yards with a touchdown and an interception.

The touchdown went to Donald Driver, who barely played in the loss to San Francisco.

Cutler threw a late touchdown to Kellen Davis, cutting the lead to 23-10 with 6:49 remaining. But the Bears couldn't mount a comeback as Matthews and the Packers kept turning up the heat.

Bears running back Matt Forte provided much of what little offense the Bears could muster before leaving the game in the third quarter. He appeared to twist his right ankle while being tackled by Charles Woodson.

Marshall missed a huge opportunity early in the third, when Cutler found him streaking wide open in the end zone -- but the wide receiver couldn't haul it in, and the Bears had to settle for a 45-yard field goal by Robbie Gould that cut the lead to 13-3.

SEATTLE — M.D. Jennings was convinced he had the ball pinned to his chest the entire time and would be awarded an interception to cap Green Bay's comeback victory.

A crew of replacement officials had other views — the ones that counted. The result is a bizarre ending that gave the Seattle Seahawks a 14-12 victory Monday night that capped a tough weekend for the replacement refs. Russell Wilson threw a disputed 24-yard touchdown pass to Golden Tate on the final play of the game, a game that finally ended 10 minutes later when both teams were brought back on the field for the extra point.

Wilson scrambled from the pocket and threw to the corner of the end zone as the clock expired. Tate shoved Green Bay's Sam Shields out of the way, then wrestled with Jennings for possession. It was ruled on the field as a touchdown and after a lengthy review, referee Wayne Elliott came out from under the hood and announced "the ruling on the field stands" and CenturyLink Field erupted in celebration.

The Packers shook off a disastrous first half when Aaron Rodgers was sacked eight times and completely controlled possession in the final 30 minutes. Green Bay ran 41 offensive plays in the second half, got field goals of 29 and 40 yards from Mason Crosby and Cedric Benson's 1-yard TD run with 8:44 left to take a 12-7 lead.

Rodgers converted 26 of 39 for 223 yards and no turnovers.

Rodgers converted three third-down conversions on the Packers' touchdown drive to take the lead. He hit Jeremiahae Finley for 14 yards on third-and-10 at the start of the drive deep in the Packers end. He followed with a third-and-10 completion to James Jones for 13 yards, getting rid of the ball before the blitz arrived.

Green Bay appeared to take the lead on an 11-yard TD pass to Greg Jennings, but he stepped out before reaching the end zone and was short of the first down. On third down, Rodgers rolled out and attempted to run, but was stopped short by inches. McCarthy challenged the spot and the call was reversed on the challenge with Rodgers given the first down. Benson then plowed in on the next play to give the Packers their first lead with 8:44 left. Seattle (2-1) won its second straight, while Green Bay (1-2) and saw its streak of wins in six straight road openers snapped.

GAME 4

GREEN BAY, Wis. — Garrett Hartley missed a field goal in a wild ending at Lambeau Field, where the New Orleans Saints (0-4) blew a fourth-quarter lead and lost to the Green Bay Packers 28-27 on Sunday.

Aaron Rodgers threw a go-ahead touchdown to Jordy Nelson in the fourth quarter.

Soon after, Packers fans were howling about what appeared to be yet another bad call — this time by the regular officials, not the replacements. Darren Sproles appeared to fumble the ensuing kickoff but officials ruled that he was down by contact. Replays showed that the ball clearly came out but the Packers were out of replay challenges, leaving Packers fans screaming at the officials for the second week in a row.

Drew Brees then led the Saints into field goal range, and Hartley hit a 43-yard attempt — but the Saints were called for holding, forcing Hartley to line up a 53-yarder. The Packers then were called for encroachment, leaving Hartley to try a 48-yarder and he missed it wide left. Rodgers threw for 319 yards with four touchdowns and an interception for the Packers (2-2).

With the Packers leading 21-14 in the third quarter, fans — and head coach Mike McCarthy — were on the officials again when McCarthy challenged a catch by Jimmy Graham but it wasn't overturned.

The Packers committed a personal foul on a Saints field goal attempt later in the drive, giving New Orleans first-and-goal on the 1. But the defense held, forcing a 20-yard field goal by Hartley to cut the lead to 21-17 with 9:41 left in the third quarter.

Rodgers marched the Packers down the field again but needed attention from the team's training staff after a face mask by New Orleans' Malcolm Jenkins. Rodgers came out of the game for one play and backup quarterback Graham Harrell came in — then tripped and fumbled as he tried to hand it off, allowing the Saints to get the ball back in the middle of a scrum.

Brees then found Joseph Morgan wide open behind the defense, and Morgan shed tackling attempts from the Packers' Sam Shields and Tramont Williams on his way to an 80-yard touchdown and a 24-21 lead with 3:49 left in the third quarter.

Things then got even worse for the Packers, as Rodgers then threw an interception to Patrick Robinson on a deep throw intended for Nelson. Brees then completed a pair of third-and-long situations, and the Saints drove for a 27-yard field goal by Hartley to take a 27-21 lead with 13:04 remaining.

With the Packers trailing by 6, Rodgers threw an 11-yard strike to Nelson as the Saints' Corey White tried to wrap his arms around the ball at the same time as Nelson — briefly re-creating a scene eerily similar to the controversial game-ender in Seattle on Monday. This time, though, Nelson clearly came away with the ball and spiked it emphatically.

INDIANAPOLIS — Mike McCarthy and Aaron Rodgers never saw this one coming. Green Bay had an 18-point halftime lead and seemed to be in control Sunday afternoon. Then, suddenly, Andrew Luck, Reggie Wayne and the rest of the emotionally charged Colts turned things around on one of the league's marquee franchises.

Playing for an ailing coach Chuck Pagano, Luck rallied the Colts in the second half, throwing for a career-high 362 yards and a 4-yard TD pass to Wayne with 35 seconds to go, giving Indy a stunning 30-27 victory.

Green Bay (2-3) faces an uphill climb in the NFC North.

They're still struggling to find an offensive rhythm, though it looked as if they might break out of their funk in the first half when Rodgers was 11 of 17 for 122 yards with two touchdown passes to take a 21-3 lead.

But nothing worked in the second half.

Mason Crosby missed a 52-yard field goal in the third quarter and a 51-yarder to the left with 3 seconds left in the game -- a kick that could have forced overtime.

Rodgers finished 21 of 33 for 243 yards with three touchdowns, an interception and a big dose of frustration.

The Colts dominated the second half.

Luck threw an 8-yard TD pass to Dwayne Allen and set up Adam Vinatieri for a 50-yard field goal to make it 21-13 midway through the third quarter. He then ran it in from 3 yards with 18 seconds left to go in the quarter to get the Colts within 21-19.

A few minutes later, Vinatieri hit a 28-yard field goal to give Indy its first lead, 22-21.

But Rodgers got Green Bay's offense back in sync in a hurry.

Alex Green ran 41 yards on the Packers' first play, and Rodgers threw an 8-yard TD pass to James Jones on the next one to give the Packers a 27-20 lead with 4:30 to go.

All the Packers had to do was stop Luck one more time to clinch it.

Luck and Wayne wouldn't allow it.

GREEN BAY 30, ST. LOUIS 20

Edward Jones Dome, Sunday, Oct. 21, 2012. Attendance: 64,359. Time: 3:02. Weather: Indoors.

GAME 7

ST. LOUIS — Aaron Rodgers never worried about topping himself. A second straight turnover-free performance on the road witnessed by thousands of cheerleaders was perfectly satisfying.

The Green Bay Packers' quarterback threw for 342 yards and three touchdowns in a 30-20 victory over the St. Louis Rams on Sunday. A week earlier, the numbers were a lot gaudier when he tied the franchise record with six touchdown passes and no picks.

Rodgers set a couple firsts anyway, reaching 150 touchdown passes with the fewest interceptions in NFL history. Rodgers has thrown 42 interceptions, beating the record set by Dan Marino with 150 TDs and 69 picks.

He hit 81.1 percent of his passes, going 30 for 37 to set a single-game franchise record with a minimum of 35 attempts. The Packers were a season-best 9-for-15 on third-down conversions.

Randall Cobb caught two touchdown passes and Jordy Nelson had eight receptions for a season-best 122 yards and a TD for the Packers (4-3), who handed the Rams (3-4) their first home loss. Rodgers was sacked three times in the first half, but got the ball out a lot quicker the rest of the way and was 30 for 37 for 342 yards.

The Packers' depleted defense clamped down on Sam Bradford, too, allowing 342 yards, but limiting the damage. Rookie Casey Hayward made his first start in place of injured Sam Shields and intercepted his fourth pass in three games.

The Packers, who were 15-1 last season, are above .500 for the first time after alternating losses and wins the first six weeks. A week earlier, they ended the Texans' unbeaten start.

After dominating in time of possession in the first half, holding the ball for more than 18 minutes, the Rams ran just seven plays in the third quarter and were held to minus-7 yards while the Packers had 129 yards and 11:39 in time of possession.

Nelson wrapped up his second straight 100-yard game early in the third quarter, often picking on rookie cornerback Janoris Jenkins. Cobb threw a nice fake on Jenkins in the end zone on a 5-yard catch that put the Packers up 17-6 midway through the third, capping a 12-play, 80-yard drive to open the half that lasted nearly seven minutes.

GREEN BAY 24, JACKSONVILLE 15

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Oct. 28, 2012.

GAME 8

GREEN BAY, Wis. — After three tough weeks on the road, the Green Bay Packers were finally supposed to have it easy. They were at Lambeau Field, their offense was clicking and, best of all, they had the Jacksonville Jaguars, the NFL's worst team.

So much for that.

Looking flat and out of sync much of the afternoon Sunday, the Packers needed another score from special teams, a 4-yard touchdown pass from Aaron Rodgers to Donald Driver in the fourth quarter and a makeup field goal by Mason Crosby to hold off the Jaguars in a 24-15 win.

It was the third straight win for the Packers (5-3) and their 16th in their last 17 games at Lambeau.

The Packers were without their two best receivers, with Jordy Nelson joining Greg Jennings on the inactive list with a hamstring injury. Charles Woodson also was on the sidelines, with a broken collarbone.

But the Packers are better equipped than most teams to overcome injuries, particularly now that Randall Cobb has emerged to join James Jones as a big-play threat.

Still clinging to a 14-12 lead after Crosby's 32-yard field goal attempt bonked off the upright with less than two minutes left in the third quarter, the Packers finally found their rhythm on a seven-play, 52-yard drive that ended with Rodgers' TD pass to Driver.

The Jaguars marched to the Green Bay 12, only to stall on back-to-back incompletions by Blaine Gabbert. Josh Scobee kicked his third field goal of the day, but then booted the kickoff out of bounds, giving the Packers the ball at their own 40 with less than 7 minutes left.

A quick three-and-out gave the Jaguars the ball back with a chance to make things interesting. After Gabbert's first two passes to Justin Blackmon from midfield fell incomplete, they finally connected on the third try for a 6-yard gain. They went for it on fourth down, but the only player who got near the ball was Green Bay cornerback Tramon Williams.

The Packers padded their lead with 28 seconds left on Crosby's 25-yard field goal, set up by a 38-yard pass interference call on Jaguars cornerback William Middleton four plays earlier.

GAME 9

GREEN BAY, Wis. — The Green Bay Packers had a powerful incentive to beat the Arizona Cardinals.

Packers coach Mike McCarthy gave his banged-up team the whole week off after the Packers beat Arizona 31-17 Sunday. Less than a minute after Arizona kicked a 20-yard field goal to pare what had been a 17-point lead to a touchdown, Tom Crabtree chugged 72 yards for a late third-quarter score that sealed the victory.

Green Bay (6-3) takes a four-game winning streak into the bye, which it desperately needs. Greg Jennings, Charles Woodson and Cedric Benson headline a laundry list of injured Packers, and three more got hurt against Arizona. Clay Matthews tweaked his hamstring, Bryan Bulaga hurt his hip and Jordy Nelson, who missed last week's game and much of practice this week with a bad hamstring, injured his ankle.

The Packers are second in the NFC North behind Chicago, with five of their last seven games against division opponents. On Oct. 25, 2009, four players — Aaron Rodgers, Randall Cobb, James Starks and Alex Green — had 25-plus yards rushing, the first time that's happened since 2003.

All that running must have left them tired, however, because the Packers came out sluggish in the second half. They failed to pick up a first down on any of their first four drives, and got only a 33-yard field goal from Mason Crosby despite getting the ball at their own 48, Arizona's 17 and midfield.

The Cardinals caught a break when LaRod Stephens-Howling was tripped up behind the line of scrimmage only to land on a Packer instead of the ground. He got up and kept going for a 5-yard gain, and the ruling was upheld on review because officials said only his wrist had hit the ground. On the next play, Larry Fitzgerald shook off tackles by Tramon Williams, M.D. Jennings and Dezman Moses for a 31-yard touchdown that cut Green Bay's lead to 24-14.

With Matthews in the locker room with a hamstring injury, John Skelton went 7 of 9 as he moved the Cardinals 74 yards to the Green Bay 2. But Stephens-Howling was stuffed on third-and-1, forcing Arizona to settle for a 20-yard field goal that cut the lead to 24-17.

Two plays later Crabtree caught the ball at the Green Bay 45 and rumbled up field, glancing over his shoulder to make sure Paris Lenon and William Gay weren't going to catch him.

They didn't — barely — and Crabtree tumbled into the end zone.

GREEN BAY 24, DETROIT 20

Ford Field, Sunday, Nov. 18, 2012. Attendance: 63,716. Time: 3:15. Weather: Indoors.

GAME 10

DETROIT (AP) — M.D. Jennings caught the deflected pass, and there was no doubt about this interception.

Then it was simply a matter of how far he could return it.

Jennings went 72 yards to the end zone in the third quarter, and Packers went on to beat the Detroit Lions 24-20 Sunday, moving a step closer to solidifying their playoff chances in the NFC.

It was Jennings who had both hands on the ball in the end zone at the end of a game at Seattle earlier this season, but replacement officials ruled simultaneous possession by him and receiver Golden Tate, giving the Seahawks the winning touchdown.

Green Bay (7-3) has won six of seven since then, including five in a row. The Lions took back the lead after Jennings' touchdown, but they couldn't hold on. Aaron Rodgers threw two touchdown passes on the day, including a 22-yarder to Randall Cobb with 1:55 left that gave the Packers a 21-20 lead.

Mason Crosby added a 39-yard field goal with 19 seconds to go after missing two kicks earlier in the game.

Detroit (4-6) has dropped two in a row and remains in last place in the NFC North. The Packers moved to a half-game behind first-place Chicago in the division. The Bears play at San Francisco on Monday night.

Calvin Johnson caught five passes for 143 yards and a touchdown for the Lions, but nobody else emerged as a consistent receiving threat. Matthew Stafford went 17 of 39 for 266 yards with two interceptions. His pass in the third quarter toward Tony Scheffler was high and behind the tight end, deflecting off his hands before being picked off by Jennings and returned for a touchdown.

Rodgers was 19 of 27 for 236 yards with two TDs, the first of which was a 20-yard connection with wide-open Jermichael Finley early in the second quarter to give Green Bay its first lead at 7-3. He also threw an interception.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — The Packers' five-game winning streak came to an end as Eli Manning threw three touchdowns and the Giants routed Green Bay 38-10 in a nationally televised game Sunday night.

Coming on the heels of last season's loss in the playoffs, it was the Packers' second straight lopsided loss to New York (7-4) and this one seemed worse than the 37-20 setback. It also left them a game behind Chicago (8-3) in the NFC North.

The Giants dominated in all phases on a night that Manning set a franchise record with his 200th career touchdown pass.

The 38 points were the most given up by Green Bay this season and it came in a game in which Aaron Rodgers was sacked five times and hit at least as many times.

The Packers were missing such key starters as linebacker Clay Matthews, defensive back Charles Woodson and receiver Greg Jennings, and it showed.

New York struck early with a brilliantly conceived screen pass to Ahmad Bradshaw off a fake reverse to Victor Cruz. Bradshaw sped down the field before being caught at the Green Bay 2, a 59-yard pickup that led to Andre Brown's scoring run.

Brown later broke his leg; Giants head coach Tom Coughlin did not say which leg after the game.

Green Bay didn't flinch, with Jordy Nelson getting behind Corey Webster in single coverage down the right sideline for a 61-yard TD reception from Rodgers.

The scoring flurry went back in the Giants' favor -- and pretty much stayed there -- when Manning hit Rueben Randle in the back of the end zone for a 16-yard TD. It was the first score for the rookie and Manning's first touchdown throw in four games, and he set it up with, of all things, a scramble in which he laid his shoulder into Packers cornerback Tramon Williams for a 13-yard gain.

Webster's interception led to Lawrence Tynes' 43-yard field goal late in the first quarter for a 17-7 lead, and the Giants weren't nearly done. Manning's 9-yard connection with Cruz tied him for the club record with 199 career TD passes, and after Osi Umenyiora's strip-sack of Rodgers was recovered by Jason Pierre-Paul at the Green Bay 23, Bradshaw scored from the 13.

GAME 12

GREEN BAY, Wis. — If any more Green Bay receivers go down, the Packers could always use Morgan Burnett.

With Minnesota rolling behind Adrian Peterson, the Green Bay safety picked off Christian Ponder twice in the red zone in the second half. Mason Crosby converted the miscues into a pair of field goals. James Starks gave Green Bay its first touchdown on the ground in almost two months and the Packers overcame Peterson's monster day for a 23-14 win.

The victory was Green Bay's 10th straight over an NFC North opponent and gave the Packers (8-4) a share of the division lead after Chicago lost to Seattle in overtime. The Packers and Bears play at Soldier Field on Dec. 16.

Peterson finished with 210 yards rushing, the most he's had since blowing out his ACL and MCL last December. That included a career-long 82-yard touchdown that gave Minnesota a 14-10 lead at halftime.

The Packers didn't panic despite injuries to Jordy Nelson (hamstring) and T.J. Lang (ankle) leaving the offense scrambling and Peterson almost single-handedly wiping out Green Bay's early 10-0 lead. He put the Vikings in great position to pad that lead, ripping off a 48-yarder on the first play of the second half that gave Minnesota the ball at the Green Bay 12.

But two plays later, Ponder got flushed out of the pocket. Rather than take the sack or run out of bounds, he heaved the ball into the end zone — and right into Burnett's hands.

Aaron Rodgers overthrew Jarrett Boykin in the end zone on third-and-7 from the 29, and the Packers looked as if they were going to go for it. But after a Minnesota timeout, Mike McCarthy sent out Crosby, who had missed six of his last 11, including one from 53 yards just before the half. This one was good, however, the kick going through the uprights for a 47-yard field goal.

Rodgers was picked off on a trick play, but the Packers defense bailed him out, stuffing Peterson for no gain on third-and-1. A tipped Chris Kluwe punt gave the Packers the ball at their own 49 and, four plays later, Starks bolted 22 yards for the score and Green Bay's first lead since the second quarter.

It was Green Bay's first rushing touchdown since Oct. 7.

The Packers ground out an 11-minute drive before Crosby sealed the win with his third field goal of the day, a 31-yarder. Rodgers made three big third-down conversions to keep the drive alive, running for one and finding Greg Jennings (8 yards) and Randall Cobb (33 yards) on the others.

GAME 13

GREEN BAY, Wis. — While other teams face complicated playoff scenarios and confusing tiebreakers, the task is quite simple for the Green Bay Packers.

Beat the Bears at Soldier Field next weekend and the NFC North title is theirs.

The Packers opened a one-game lead over Chicago with their 27-20 victory over the Detroit Lions on Sunday night. The Bears had lost at Minnesota a few hours earlier, ceding control of the division to a team that began the year 2-3.

Calvin Johnson had 118 yards receiving to put him over 1,500 for the year, but it wasn't enough to keep the Lions (4-9) from dropping their fifth straight. After touchdowns on their first two drives gave them a 14-0 lead, the Lions crossed midfield six times but could only manage a pair of field goals by Jason Hanson.

The season's first significant storm dumped almost 3.5 inches of snow on Green Bay, making Lambeau Field look like a snow globe for most of the night and the football glisten with moisture. As Matthew Stafford drew his arm back to throw midway through the second quarter and with the Lions up 14-0, the ball slipped out of his hands.

And Packers rookie Mike Daniels was right there to scoop it up, rumbling 43 yards for the score that pulled Green Bay within 14-10. He became Green Bay's first rookie defensive lineman to return a fumble for a TD since 1941.

The Packers forced another turnover on the next drive when Sam Shields picked off Stafford. But they couldn't do anything with the ball, and went into halftime still trailing.

Aaron Rodgers gave the Packers their first lead of the day, scrambling away from Lions defensive end Willie Young and running 27 yards for the score. It was the longest scoring run of Rodgers' career, and also was Green Bay's longest rushing touchdown of the season.

The Lions tied it at 17 on Hanson's 46-yard field goal. But the Packers got another boost from a most unlikely source: their running game.

They used all three of their running backs — Alex Green, recent returnee Ryan Grant and DuJuan Harris — and picked up at least two yards on each play. They had double-digit gains on three carries, including Harris' 14-yard scoring run.

The Lions pulled within a score on Hanson's 34-yard field goal with 7 seconds left. But the inside kick went out of bounds, and the countdown to the Packers-Bears game was on.

GAME 14

CHICAGO — The Green Bay Packers delivered the ultimate comeback to the Chicago Bears on Sunday, a 21-13 victory that gave Green Bay its second straight NFC North title and put a serious dent in Chicago's playoff hopes. Aaron Rodgers connected with James Jones on all three touchdowns, and Clay Matthews continued his dominance of Jay Cutler with two more sacks as the Packers won their sixth straight against their archrivals. The Packers are assured of a home playoff game and, at 10-4, are still in the running for the No. 2 seed in the NFC.

Brandon Marshall scored Chicago's only touchdown, but finished with 56 yards on six catches, his fewest totals in a month. Cutler had another dismal day against the Packers, throwing an interception that led to the game-winning touchdown. He's been picked off 17 times by the Packers, including 10 in his last five games.

The Bears managed only 67 yards the entire second half, and Alshon Jeffery was whistled for offensive pass interference three times — yes, three — in the final 16 minutes of the game.

The Packers piled almost 400 yards on Lance Briggs and his buddies, and turned a 7-0 deficit into a 14-7 lead over the last 4:19 of the second quarter thanks to a pair of Rodgers-to-Jones TDs sandwiched around a Casey Hayward pick.

The Packers made it 21 unanswered points on the first drive of the second half. In another third-and-long situation, Rodgers threw incomplete to Jeremichael Finley.

But Green Bay got a second chance when Chris Conte was called for pass interference. After a delay of game penalty, Rodgers found Jones for a 6-yard score.

It was Jones' first three-touchdown game and the fourth multiple-TD game of his career.

The Bears had chances to get back into it. Green Bay's Mason Crosby missed two more field goals, and Charles Tillman forced a fumble by Ryan Grant that Nick Roach recovered. Chicago got a big break on the next play when Green Bay safety Morgan Burnett hauled Alshon Jeffery down right in front of the end zone — and right in front of an official. The pass interference penalty gave Chicago the ball at the Green Bay 1.

But the Bears could only get a 34-yard field goal by Olindo Mare out of it after the first of Jeffery's pass interference penalties.
