WEEK 16

PITTSBURGH (6-8) AT GREEN BAY (7-6-1)
Sunday, Dec. 22 • Lambeau Field • 3:25 p.m. CST

PACKERS TO HOST STEELERS IN REGULAR-SEASON HOME FINALE

Green Bay will take on the Pittsburgh Steelers this Sunday at Lambeau Field in the regular-season home finale, Pittsburgh's first visit to Green Bay since 2005 and only its fourth visit to Lambeau Field in the last 30 seasons.

- ▶ The Packers are currently second in the NFC North after improving to 7-6-1 on the season with a 37-36 win at Dallas on Sunday, their first win there since 1989. Green Bay trails the Chicago Bears (8-6) in the NFC North race, but the Packers can win the division with a victory this Sunday vs. Pittsburgh and a win at Chicago in Week 17.
- ▶ Green Bay overcame a 23-point halftime deficit (26-3) in the win over the Cowboys on Sunday, matching the biggest comeback in team history (down 23 vs. Los Angeles Rams, Sept. 12, 1982, won 35-23).
- ▶ The Packers have won their home finale every season under Head Coach Mike McCarthy (2006-12) and in each of their last eight (since 2005). Dating back to 1992, Green Bay is 20-1 in home finales (.952), No. 1 in the NFL over that span (see page 2 for more).
- ▶ This will be just the third visit for the Steelers to Lambeau Field in the month of December, with the last visit in that month a memorable one for Green Bay. The Packers topped Pittsburgh on Christmas Eve in 1995 in the season finale, a win that clinched the NFC Central title for Green Bay.
- ▶ The Packers hold a 19-14 edge in the all-time series with the Steelers (including Super Bowl XLV), but Pittsburgh has won seven of the last 10 meetings. The teams first played on Oct. 15, 1933, in Green Bay, and the Packers won the first nine games between the clubs.
- ▶ This will be the first matchup between the clubs since the Packers defeated the Steelers, 31-25, in Super Bowl XLV at Cowboys Stadium on Feb. 6, 2011. The last regular-season meeting came at Pittsburgh in 2009 when the Steelers topped the Packers, 37-36, in Week 15. It was the highest-scoring game in the series with the 73 combined points.
- ▶ The Packers and Steelers have won 19 world championships between them, with Green Bay's 13 titles more than any other team in NFL history. Pittsburgh's six world titles are the most by an AFC team.
- ▶ Since the advent of free agency in 1993, Green Bay owns the second-best regular-season winning percentage in the league (.636) behind only New England (.659), with Pittsburgh checking in at No. 3 (.621).
- ▶ At 30-18 (.625), Green Bay owns the league's second-best all-time postseason winning percentage behind only Baltimore (14-7, .667). Checking in right behind the Packers at No. 3 is Pittsburgh, with a 33-21 mark (.611) in the playoffs.
- ▶ The Packers enter Sunday's game having won 13 consecutive regular-season games at Lambeau Field that were played Dec. 1 or later, the longest current home winning streak in the NFL.
- ▶ Since 2009, the Packers have a 17-5 (.773) overall regular-season record in December/January, which ranks No. 2 in the NFL over that span behind only New England (19-4, .826).

COMEBACK PACK

Trailing 26-3 at halftime to the Cowboys on Sunday at AT&T Stadium, the Packers mounted a comeback that matched the franchise record for the most points overcome to win a game.

► By overcoming the 23-point halftime deficit to win, Green Bay tied the franchise record set on Sept. 12, 1982, at County Stadium in Milwaukee. In that contest, the Packers trailed the Los Angeles Rams, 23-0, at halftime before scoring 35 unanswered points in the 35-23 win to open the season.

► For the Packers, it was the second straight week that they won a game by one point, having defeated Atlanta by a 22-21 score in Week 14. It marked the first time since 1989 that Green Bay had posted one-point wins in back-to-back weeks (20-19 victory vs. Minnesota on Nov. 26, 17-16 win at Tampa Bay on Dec. 3, 1989).

► The Packers scored TDs on each of their first five possessions in the second half, the second time they have done so in the last 16 games. Green Bay scored TDs on five straight series to start the second half vs. Tennessee last season in Week 16 in its 55-7 win.

STAT OF THE WEEK

- This Sunday's game vs. Pittsburgh will be Green Bay's final home contest of the regular season, the second straight season that the Packers' finale at Lambeau Field has come in Week 16. It will mark the first time since 2001-02 that Green Bay has closed its season out away from home in consecutive years (at N.Y. Giants in '01, at N.Y. Jets in '02).
- The Packers have won their final home game of the season each year under Head Coach Mike McCarthy (2006-12). Green Bay also won its last game at Lambeau in 2005, giving them an eight-game winning streak in home finales, the second-longest current winning streak in the NFL behind only Baltimore (10 straight home finales).
- Over the past 21 seasons (1992-2012), the Packers have won their final home game in every year but one (2004). Green Bay's 20-1 record (.952) in home finales over that span ranks No. 1 in the NFL.

318 AND COUNTING

Another packed house at Lambeau Field against the Falcons in Week 14 brought the stadium's consecutive-sellouts streak to 318 games (300 regular season, 18 playoffs).

- ▶ The league's longest-tenured stadium, Lambeau Field is hosting its 57th season of football in 2013. A total of 635,610 fans made their way through the turnstiles for the nine home contests in 2012.
- ▶ Across American professional sports, only Boston's Fenway Park (1912) and Chicago's Wrigley Field (1914) have longer tenures.

THE LAMBEAU ADVANTAGE

The crown jewel of the National Football League, Lambeau Field has long been known as one of the tougher venues to play in, particularly during the harsh Wisconsin winter.

- ▶ Re-establishing home-field advantage after a 4-4 mark in 2008 was one of the goals of 2009, and with the Packers finishing 6-2 at home, they accomplished that goal. Green Bay followed that up with a 7-1 mark at Lambeau Field in 2010, a perfect 8-0 record in 2011, the first undefeated home mark since 2002, and a 7-1 mark last season.
- ▶ Head Coach Mike McCarthy stated consistently upon his arrival in Green Bay that one of the team's goals would be to reclaim the mystique of playing at Lambeau Field. Mission accomplished. The team is 46-11-1 (.802) at home over its past 58 regular-season games.
- ▶ Since Ron Wolf and Mike Holmgren began the revitalization of the franchise in 1992, Green Bay owns the best home record in the NFL. A look at the top regular-season home W-L records since the '92 season:

Team	W-L Record	Pct.
1. Green Bay	133-41-1	.763
2. Pittsburgh	125-49-1	.717
3. New England	124-51-0	.709
4. Baltimore (since '96)	100-42-1	.703
5. Denver	123-53-0	.699

HOT AT HOME

The Packers' win over Dallas at Lambeau in Week 10 of 2009 was the first step to a 7-1 finish and a playoff berth for Green Bay.

- ▶ Since that win, the Packers have been one of the best teams in the league at home:

Team	W-L Record	Pct.
1. New England	31-3-0	.912
3. Baltimore	30-5-0	.857

IN THE FREE-AGENCY ERA

Talk of unrestricted free agency in the early '90s led many to forecast tough times for the small-town Green Bay Packers.

- ▶ However, Green Bay has remained among the most successful teams since the advent of free agency in 1993. The Packers have won 10 or more games 13 times since '93 and captured nine division crowns.
- ▶ A look at the most successful teams in the free-agency era:

Team	W-L Since '93	Pct.	Playoff Berths
1. New England	220-114-0	.659	14
2. Green Bay	212-121-1	.636	15

A LOOK AT THE SCHEDULE

The Green Bay Packers' 93rd NFL regular-season schedule is headlined by two prime-time games and a Thanksgiving contest at Detroit.

- ▶ Green Bay's schedule includes seven games against 2012 playoff teams, with three of those contests (Atlanta, Minnesota, Washington) at Lambeau Field and four on the road (Baltimore, Cincinnati, Minnesota, San Francisco). The Packers will travel to play both of the teams that played in Super Bowl XLVII (Baltimore and San Francisco).
- ▶ The Packers have two prime-time contests at home (vs. Chicago on Monday Night Football in Week 9 and vs. Atlanta on Sunday night in Week 14) and two on the road (Sunday night contests at Minnesota in Week 8 and at the N.Y. Giants in Week 11). Green Bay plays at Detroit on Thanksgiving in a nationally televised contest.
- ▶ The Packers' bye was in Week 4, the earliest their open date has come on the schedule since they had a Week 4 bye in 1999.
- ▶ For the first time since entering the National Football League in 1921, Green Bay does not have back-to-back road games on its schedule.
- ▶ The Packers have 14 games on Sunday, including seven straight to start the season, one Monday night game and the Thursday game on Thanksgiving.
- ▶ For just the second time in eight seasons under Head Coach Mike McCarthy (also 2010), the Packers opened the season on the road, this year against San Francisco on Sunday, Sept. 8. Green Bay opened its season against the 49ers for the second straight year and at San Francisco for the first time in franchise history.
- ▶ In Week 2, the Packers opened their home slate against the Redskins for the first time since 1933, when they hosted the Boston Redskins in the season opener.
- ▶ Green Bay headed into its Week 4 bye with a road contest at Cincinnati in Week 3, and then hosted Detroit in Week 5, the third time in the past five seasons that the Lions have visited Lambeau Field in October.
- ▶ The Packers traveled to Baltimore in Week 6 to take on the Ravens, the second straight season that Green Bay had visited the defending Super Bowl champions (N.Y. Giants in 2012).
- ▶ Green Bay's Week 8 trip to Minnesota for a Sunday night contest kicked off a stretch of two prime-time games in three weeks for the Packers.
- ▶ In Week 9, the Packers hosted the Bears in a Monday night game, the 21st consecutive season that Green Bay has appeared on Monday Night Football (1993-2013). It marks the eighth straight season (2006-13) that the division rivals have squared off in a prime-time contest.
- ▶ Green Bay stayed home on a short week to host the Eagles in Week 10 before traveling to New York for the third straight season to play the Giants.
- ▶ The Packers visited Detroit on Thanksgiving (Week 13) for the fourth time in seven seasons (2007, 2009, 2011) and then returned home for a Week 14 contest against Atlanta in Week 14.
- ▶ The Packers' lone NFC North contest in the final month of the season comes in Week 17 at Chicago, the second time under McCarthy (also 2006) that Green Bay has closed out the regular season at Soldier Field. The Packers visited Dallas in Week 15 and host Pittsburgh in the home finale in Week 16.

SAN FRANCISCO 34, GREEN BAY 28

GAME 1

SAN FRANCISCO — The Green Bay Packers found a way to keep Colin Kaepernick in the pocket and stop all those read-options runs that hurt them in the playoffs.

They just had no answer for his arm. Or his newest receiver.

Kaepernick threw for a career-high 412 yards and three touchdowns to outduel Aaron Rodgers, and the San Francisco 49ers held off the Packers 34-28 on Sunday in the season opener for both teams.

Rodgers threw for 333 yards and three touchdowns with one interception. Jordy Nelson caught seven passes for 130 yards, and Randall Cobb had seven for 108 yards.

The Packers lost to the 49ers for the third time in a year -- and eight months after that 45-31 defeat in a playoff game at Candlestick Park. Anquan Boldin caught 13 passes for 208 yards and a touchdown in his 49ers debut after coming over in a trade from the Super Bowl champion Baltimore Ravens in the offseason.

Tight end Vernon Davis had six catches for 98 yards and two touchdowns. And San Francisco finished with 494 yards of total offense. Frank Gore scored a go-ahead, 1-yard touchdown with 5:47 remaining as the 49ers made it three straight against Rodgers and Co., including a win at Green Bay to open last season.

Kaepernick led his team 80 yards on five plays to take the lead. The 49ers answered after Packers rookie Eddie Lacy put Green Bay ahead on a 2-yard run with 8:26 left.

The Packers tied the game at 21 in the third quarter when Rodgers connected with Jordy Nelson for an 8-yard touchdown pass. Davis made a pretty, reaching 37-yard catch on San Francisco's ensuing drive. Matthews sacked Kaepernick for a 6-yard loss and the Niners settled for a 27-yard field goal by Phil Dawson, who hooked a 48-yard attempt wide left earlier.

Rodgers rallied the Packers for a 76-yard drive that Lacy capped with a 2-yard TD run before Kaepernick and the 49ers came back one last time.

GREEN BAY 38, WASHINGTON 20

GREEN BAY, Wis. - Aaron Rodgers led the Green Bay Packers' offense to a record-setting day. Rodgers was 34 for 42 for a career-high 480 yards and four touchdowns, wide receiver James Jones had a career-best 178 yards and James Starks ran for 132 yards and a score in a 38-20 win over the Washington Redskins.

According to the Packers, it was the first time in NFL history that any team had a 450-yard passer and 125-yard rusher in the same game and Rodgers' 480 yards passing tied a franchise record set by former teammate Matt Flynn on Jan. 1, 2012, against the Lions. Sunday was also the first time that the Packers had a 400-yard passer and 100-yard rusher in the same game.

The Packers started sluggish, allowing three sacks of Rodgers in the first 9 minutes, then responded with touchdowns on three straight drives. Rodgers began the torrid stretch by hitting Randall Cobb for a 35-yard score late in the first quarter and then connected with Jordy Nelson on a 14-yard strike early in the second period to give the Packers a 17-0 lead.

The Packers defense forced a quick punt on Washington's next possession and Rodgers once again marched the Packers' offense down the field, capping the 90-yard drive with a 3-yard strike to Jermaine Elieley.

Washington's offense struggled to get on track throughout the remainder of the half, as Redskins quarterback Robert Griffin III threw an interception deep in Green Bay territory, and the Packers headed to the locker room with a 24-0 lead. By the time the team hit the tunnel, Rodgers had already racked up 335 yards passing and three touchdowns, both career highs for a single half.

Rodgers and the offense continued their assault in the second half, as Nelson hauled in his second score of the day, a 15-yard reception from Rodgers, and Starks dashed 32 yards for his first touchdown of the season.

Griffin, in the second game of his much-anticipated return from right knee surgery, looked OK but didn't resemble the quarterback who confounded defenses last year.

CINCINNATI — Green Bay went out and let one get away on Sunday. Terence Newman returned a fumble 58 yards for a touchdown with 3 minutes, 47 seconds left, rallying the Cincinnati Bengals to a 34-30 victory.

Each team gave it away four times. Each team returned a fumble for a touchdown — M.D. Jennings ran one back for Green Bay. The Bengals blew a 14-point lead, and the Packers let a 16-point lead get away in the second half. Green Bay scored 30 consecutive points and lost.

The second-half comeback completed an exhilarating week at Paul Brown Stadium for the Bengals, who beat AFC North rival Pittsburgh 20-10 on Monday night with an impressive defensive game.

The defenses made the difference again against Aaron Rodgers and Green Bay's high-powered but injury-depleted offense. Rodgers was 26 of 43 for 244 yards, with a touchdown, but was sacked four times and threw two interceptions.

Green Bay lost tight end Jeremiahae Finley to a concussion and ran out of running backs. Eddie Lacy was inactive with a concussion, James Starks hurt a knee in the first half, and rookie Johnathan Franklin ran for 103 yards and a touchdown before limping off at the start of the final series.

The Bengals were missing cornerback Dre Kirkpatrick, sidelined with a hamstring injury, but got plenty of pressure on Rodgers and made the deciding turnover.

Trying to put the game away, Green Bay went for it on fourth-and-1 at the Cincinnati 30-yard line. Franklin was stripped of the ball, Reggie Nelson picked it up and started to run, but fumbled and Newman scooped it up and went the rest of the way.

Cincinnati scored two touchdowns within a 12-second span in the first quarter, aided by a fumble on a kickoff, but wound up having to play catch-up as its offense bogged down.

Andy Dalton was 20 of 28 for 235 yards with two touchdowns, an interception and a fumble.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — James Jones' 83-yard touchdown reception late in the third quarter was just the big-play spark the Packers needed to live on an offense that otherwise settled for field goals in a 22-9 win Sunday over the undermanned Detroit Lions.

Mason Crosby kicked a franchise-tying five field goals, while the defense contained Reggie Bush and took advantage of an offense playing without star receiver Calvin Johnson, who had missed a couple days of practice during the week with a knee injury.

Jones had a step on his man down the left sideline, and Aaron Rodgers delivered a perfectly timed throw. With another defensive back closing in around the 15, Jones turned right about 45 degrees to get into the end zone for a 16-3 lead with 3:12 left in the third quarter. Jones, who finished with four catches for 127 yards, barely missed another long score after his foot grazed the sideline in the end zone late in the fourth quarter.

Rodgers was 20 for 30 for 274 yards, and Eddie Lacy ran for 99 yards on 23 carries in his return from a Week 2 concussion, as the Packers (2-2) extended their winning streak in Wisconsin over the Lions (3-2) to 23.

Randi Cobb set up Crosby's 31-yard field goal in the third quarter with a 67-yard dash into Lions territory after lining up in the backfield. Crosby also was good from 26 and 52 yards in the first half and added makes from 42 and 45 in the fourth quarter.

The defense set the pace for Green Bay before the offense caught up, as the Packers recorded five sacks, all from their linebackers, including one from Clay Matthews before he left with a thumb injury.

Bush was held to 44 yards on 13 carries and four catches for 25 yards. The Packers' improved run defense mostly contained the dangerous Bush on first-down runs, leaving the Lions with long second- and third-down situations.

Matthew Stafford finished 25 for 40 for 262 yards and the Lions' only touchdown came late when Stafford found Kris Durham for a 13-yard score.

BALTIMORE — Aaron Rodgers threw a 64-yard touchdown pass to Jordy Nelson. Eddie Lacy ran for 120 yards and Mason Crosby kicked four field goals as the Green Bay Packers beat the Baltimore Ravens 19-17 on Sunday.

Rodgers went 17 for 32 for 315 yards with one touchdown and one interception. He played most of the game without two of his top three receivers — James Jones hurt his left knee on a first-quarter play, and Randall Cobb left for good after being struck on the tackle by Matt Elam in the second quarter.

Rodgers' 64-yarder to Nelson gave Green Bay a 16-3 lead late in the third quarter. After the Ravens closed to 19-17 on an 18-yard touchdown catch by Dallas Clark with 2:04 remaining, Rodgers clinched the victory with a 52-yard completion to Jeremichael Finley on a third-and-3.

Despite playing without injured linebackers Clay Matthews and Brad Jones, the Packers limited Baltimore to 47 yards rushing and registered five sacks, including three by A.J. Hawk.

Green Bay went up 9-0 in the third quarter when Crosby kicked a 50-yard field goal to cap a drive that featured a 43-yard pass play from Rodgers to Jarrett Boykin.

Baltimore answered with its first score, a 23-yard field goal by Justin Tucker following a 59-yard completion from Joe Flacco to rookie Marlon Brown.

Harassed and hurried for much of the afternoon, Rodgers finally came up with a signature moment. Off of a play-fake, Rodgers rolled right and lofted a perfect spiral to Nelson, who had gotten behind Lardarius Webb.

Down 16-3, the Ravens began playing with a sense of urgency. Flacco directed a 10-play, 80-yard drive that ended with an 11-yard touchdown pass to Jacoby Jones with 11:52 remaining.

Jones, who missed the previous four weeks with a knee injury, finished with two catches for 42 yards and had a 35-yard kickoff return. Looking to enhance Green Bay's 16-10 lead, Rodgers and the Packers held onto the ball for just over 7½ minutes before Crosby kicked a 31-yard field goal with 4:17 remaining.

Flacco went 20 for 34 for 342 yards and got no help from the running game — Ray Rice finished with 34 yards on 14 carries and was stuffed three straight times inside the 5 during the second quarter.

GREEN BAY 31, CLEVELAND 13

GREEN BAY, Wis. -- Aaron Rodgers shuffled around the field to make plays. He jokingly needed a young receiver about his first Lambeau leap. And perhaps even most importantly, he was one of the calming influences this week on a Packers team beset with injuries.

Rodgers threw for 260 yards and three touchdown passes, Eddie Lacy ran for another score, and the defense came up clutch in a grinding, 31-13 win Sunday over the Cleveland Browns.

Rodgers finished 25 for 36 in methodically carving up Cleveland (3-4) despite already being without two of his top targets in injured receivers James Jones and Randall Cobb.

Then tight end Jermeleai Finley left on a stretcher with about 10 minutes to go with a neck injury after a hit by Browns safety Tashaun Gipson on a 10-yard gain. The team later said Finley had movement and feeling in his extremities.

The Packers pressed on during a rainy night. Coach Mike McCarthy praised Rodgers and the team's other veterans with helping young players called upon to fill the holes at receiver and linebacker.

They came through, starting with receiver Jarrett Boykin. Making his first start with Jones and Cobb out, Boykin finished with eight catches for 103 yards and his first career touchdown.

Green Bay (4-2) won his third straight and took over first place in the NFC North. Lacy finished with 82 yards, while Finley had a 10-yard touchdown catch in the first quarter before leaving with the injury.

The defense took care of the rest against a struggling Brandon Weeden, recording three sacks of the Browns quarterback in spite of being without starting outside linebackers Clay Matthews and Nick Perry.

Still the Browns had hope late. Cleveland thought it caught a huge break after recovering an onside kick, only for the play to be erased by an onside penalty.

The Packers got the ball back, and Rodgers found Boykin for the touchdown. The second-year pro out of Virginia Tech had two Browns closing in before leaping at about the 10 to stretch the ball out over the goal line and bring the lead back to 18.

MINNEAPOLIS — Aaron Rodgers has the Green Bay Packers rolling, even without three of his best receivers. There's a powerful running game on his side now, as if Rodgers needed any more help.

Ignoring the injuries around him, Rodgers picked apart what's left of Minnesota's depleted defense by throwing two first-half touchdown passes to Jordy Nelson and guiding the Packers to a 44-31 victory Sunday night.

Missing Randall Cobb, James Jones and Jermaine Kearse, Rodgers finished 24 for 29 for 285 yards to help the Packers (5-2) stay in first place in the NFC North.

Christian Ponder's encore went poorly for the Vikings (1-6), who sent out a different starting quarterback for the third straight week. Adrian Peterson gained a quiet 60 yards on 13 carries. Greg Jennings had just one catch against his old team and the Vikings offense counted only three plays in the third quarter as the Packers pulled away in their final game at the Metrodome, now known as Mall of America Field.

Ponder didn't turn the ball over, but he was again out of sorts under pressure in the pocket all night. He finished 14 for 21 for 145 yards against a defense missing three starting linemen to injury and added a late touchdown run.

The Vikings beat the Packers 37-34 last December to make the playoffs. But they needed 199 yards rushing from Peterson and the best game of Ponder's career to do it, because Rodgers has rarely found resistance from this defense in purple. In his last eight games against the Vikings, Rodgers has 22 touchdowns and only three interceptions while completing roughly three-quarters of his passes. The Packers have won seven of those.

Micha Hyde had a punt return for a touchdown for the Packers, who never punted and held the ball for more than two-thirds of the game to counter-act Cordarrelle Patterson's opening 109-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. The Packers have won 15 of their last 16 games against NFC North teams.

The Packers scored on their first two possessions, running a total of 31 plays for 160 yards that drained 15 minutes and 48 seconds off the clock. Eddie Lacy finished with 94 yards and a touchdown and James Starks ran for 57 yards and a score.

The way Lacy has been pounding the ball, as the leading NFL rookie rusher, Rodgers hasn't had to come up with as many clutch throws with his top targets missing. Lacy and Starks took turns trampling an exhausted Vikings defense, with each guy contributing a touchdown on the ground and the Packers reaching a season-high 182 yards rushing.

The Packers converted 13 third downs and two fourth downs. The only time they had the ball and didn't score was the kneel-down at the end of the game.

CHICAGO 27, GREEN BAY 20

Lambeau Field, Monday, Nov. 4, 2013. Attendance: 78,122. Time: 3:01. Weather: 49° F, Humidity: 77 percent. Wind: S 14 mph. GAME 8

GREEN BAY, Wis. — Josh McCown, playing in place of the injured Jay Cutler, threw for two touchdowns Monday night as the Bears won 27-20 and ended a six-game skid to their NFC North rivals. The loss snapped Green Bay's four-game winning streak, but the far larger concern is the health of Aaron Rodgers, who hurt his left (non-throwing) shoulder when he was sacked on the first series by Shea McClellin.

Rodgers took a few warm-up throws with backup Seneca Wallace but, after being examined by medical staff, ran into the Green Bay locker room. He wasn't seen again until midway through the third quarter, when he came back onto the field in suits.

Alston Jeffery had five catches for 60 yards, including a 6-yard grab for the go-ahead touchdown at the end of the third quarter. Brandon Marshall, largely shut down in two games against Green Bay last year, had seven catches for 107 yards and a score. Matt Forte ran for 125 yards and a TD, and also had 54 yards receiving for the Bears, who pulled into a three-way tie for first in the NFC North with Green Bay and Detroit. All are 5-3.

The loss spoiled another big night by Green Bay rookie Eddie Lacy, who ran for 150 yards and a touchdown. With the 2011 NFL MVP almost as durable as predecessor Brett Favre -- Rodgers hasn't missed a game due to injury since Dec. 19, 2010 -- the backup quarterback has been little more than an afterthought in Green Bay.

But as the Bears know all too well, insurance policies are worth every penny when you need them. After a series of forgettable backups under Lovie Smith -- Caleb Hanie or Jonathan Quinn, anyone? -- the Bears signed McCown when Cutler was hurt two years ago. He played well enough then to stick around, and his familiarity with his receivers and coach Marc Trestman's system was evident. McCown may not have been dazzling, going 22 for 41 for 272 yards. But he mixed his passes effectively to Marshall, Jeffery and Forte, and Forte ran roughshod on the Green Bay defense.

Wallace hadn't played a game since the 2011 season finale, and the rust was evident. He was intercepted on his very first series by Julius Peppers and was sacked twice, once by Peppers and once by McClellin. The Packers had a second-and-goal from the Bears 5 late in the third quarter and were forced to settle for Mason Crosby's 23-yard field goal after Wallace overthrew James Jones and Andrew Quarless. Green Bay would get no further than the Bears' 39 the rest of the game.

GAME 10

NY GIANTS 27, GREEN BAY 13 MetLife Stadium, Sunday, Nov. 17, 2013. Attendance: 79,114. Time: 2:45. Weather: 59° F, Humidity: 100 percent, Wind: SE 2 mph

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. -- The New York Giants are not only back in the playoff hunt with a four-game winning streak, they are calling the plays that get them those wins.

That is exactly what Jason Pierre-Paul did against the Green Bay Packers on Sunday. With the Giants clinging to a 20-13 lead early in the fourth quarter and the Packers about to start a series at their own 30, Pierre-Paul said in the huddle he was going to pick a pass and score. Pierre-Paul had not seen the Packers' formation and he had not been listening to coach Mike McCarthy talk to Scott Tolzien on the sideline. He just knew, and he was right.

Pierre-Paul scored on a spectacular, leaping 24-yard fourth-quarter interception return and the resurgent Giants won 27-13 over the slumping and injury-riddled Packers (5-5).

Elf Manning threw a 26-yard touchdown pass to Rueben Randle, and Brandon Jacobs added a 1-yard run as the Giants handed the Packers their third straight loss, their longest skid since a five-game losing streak near the end of 2008.

The Giants are heading the other way. Their winning streak follows a 0-5 start and it improbably has moved them within 1½ games of first-place Philadelphia (6-5) in the weak NFC East. They are a game behind second-place and idle Dallas (5-5), which will play in New York next Sunday.

The Packers, who got a 4-yard TD run by Eddie Lacy and two field goals by Mason Crosby, including a 57-yarder, fell a game behind Chicago and Detroit in the NFC North.

The Giants never trailed, but they had not put the Packers away until the interception by Pierre-Paul.

New York had the better of the play in the first half, holding the ball for almost 20 minutes. The Giants jumped to a 10-0 lead on Manning's touchdown to Rueben Randle and Josh Brown's 40-yard field goal.

The touchdown reception was Randle's sixth in the last six games, and he set it up with a 32-yard punt return.

A 30-yard pass to Victor Cruz, who had eight catches for 110 yards, and a 5-yard run by Jacobs on a fourth-and-1 at the Packers 36 set up the field goal.

Tolzien threw passes of 25 yards to Jordy Nelson and 45 to James Jones on consecutive plays to set up a 24-yard field goal by Crosby on the next series.

Taking over at the Green Bay 37 with no timeouts, Tolzien hit on two passes, setting up Crosby for a 57-yard field goal on the final play. It was a yard shy of his Packers record and it was the longest kick ever made against the Giants.

Manning finished 25 of 35 for 279 yards and an interception, while Tolzien finished his first NFL start 24 of 34 for 339 yards and three interceptions.

GREEN BAY, Wis. — The Packers' losing streak without Aaron Rodgers is over, though the frustration continues in Thietown. Backup quarterback Matt Flynn threw for 218 yards and helped spark a rally from a 16-point deficit early in the fourth quarter to the Minnesota Vikings. But the teams could only muster field goals in overtime and had to settle for a 26-26 draw Sunday.

For a while, the match was full of heart-racing drama. Mason Crosby hit from 20 yards at 10:28 of the extra period and Blair Walsh connected from 35 with 3:54 left.

Greg Jennings, playing his first game at Lambeau Field as a member of the Vikings (2-8-1), dropped a third-down pass with 2:11 left. The Packers (5-5-1) also stumbled on their next possession. One last chance for the Vikings went nowhere with 1 second left, and the teams walked off with the first tie in the NFL since the Rams and 49ers ended 24-24 on Nov. 11, 2012.

The Packers are in unfamiliar territory with so much instability at quarterback. It's been that way since Rodgers — perhaps the most irreplaceable player in the NFL — hurt his left collarbone on the first series of a 27-20 loss to the Bears on Nov. 4 that started the winless string.

Flynn, Rodgers' former backup who was re-signed last week, replaced Scott Tolzien and finished 21 of 36 for 218 yards and a touchdown. He nearly led Green Bay back from a 23-7 deficit early in the fourth quarter to a win.

Flynn caught a break in overtime after a third-down sack was called off by a holding penalty on Vikings safety Robert Blanton. He followed with three long completions, including a 34-yarder to the leaping Jarrett Boykin to the 7.

Two runs by Eddie Lacy (110 yards on 25 carries) got the Packers to the 2, but Flynn misfired on third down to set up Crosby's kick.

Adrian Peterson had 146 yards and a score on 32 carries. He and Toby Gerhart (91 yards on eight carries) dented the Packers' worn defense in overtime, but could not get in the end zone. The Vikings settled for Walsh's kick.

That was it for the scoring. The fans bundled up in parkas and knit caps to brave temperatures in the upper teens had to settle for a draw.

Some positives for the Packers: a maintained defense stopped two late fourth-quarter drives; Lacy's running; Flynn's play in relief. And the tie being less damaging than a loss would have been in the division race, as things looked bleak for them early in the fourth quarter after Walsh's 29-yard field gave Minnesota 23-7 lead.

DETROIT — Matthew Stafford and Reggie Bush did their part to keep the Aaron Rodgers-less Green Bay Packers in the game. Stafford turned the ball over a few times and Bush did one. Instead of crumbling and losing confidence, both players bounced back and helped the Detroit Lions put together a dominant performance after an awful start.

Stafford threw three touchdown passes, including one to Calvin Johnson, Bush had 182 yards of offense and scored, and Detroit scored 37 straight points to rout Green Bay 40-10 on Thursday.

Early on, it looked as if the Lions were going to find another way to waste chances to win a game and take control of the NFC North. The Lions (7-5) had lost their last two games, five consecutive against Green Bay and a franchise-record nine straight in their annual showcase on Thanksgiving.

The Packers (9-6-1) have a five-game winless streak for the first time since 2008.

Bush responded from fumbling deep in Green Bay territory to score a 1-yard TD run that gave Detroit a 17-10 lead late in the first half. He finished with 117 yards rushing and 65 yards receiving. Bush's backup, Joique Bell, ran for a career-high 94 yards and a score.

The Packers, painfully, are finding out how valuable Rodgers is for the franchise. Rodgers has missed four-plus games since fracturing his left collarbone. Green Bay has tied one and lost four without him.

Matt Flynn became the fourth starting quarterback for Green Bay this year and was sacked seven times, once by Muhammad Suh for a safety.

Flynn, who finished 10 of 20 for 139 yards with an interception and two fumbles, didn't fare as well as he did in his last start for Green Bay against the same opponent.

In the last game of the 2011 regular season, while Rodgers rested for the playoffs, Flynn threw for 480 yards and six TDs in a 45-41 win over Detroit.

The Packers have been leaning on rookie running back Eddie Lacy lately, but he was limited to 16 yards on 10 carries against one of the NFL's best defenses against the run.

Detroit was balanced on offense. Johnson had six receptions for 101 yards and a 20-yard TD to put the Lions up 24-10 early in the third quarter. He has 4,944 yards receiving in two-plus seasons, breaking Jerry Rice's NFL record for yards receiving in a three-year stretch. Rice had 4,850 yards receiving from 1993 to 1995.

Stafford was 22 of 35 for 330 yards with two interceptions and a fumble that was returned by Morgan Burnett to put the Packers up 10-3 early in the second quarter.

After that, Detroit did whatever it wanted on both sides of the ball. And if the Lions didn't start the game so poorly, the score could've been even more lopsided. Detroit gained 561 yards and gave up just 126.

Green Bay didn't have more than 100 yards of offense until Flynn threw a 56-yard pass to James Jones with a little more than a minute left.

GREEN BAY 22, ATLANTA 21

GREEN BAY, Wis. — Trailing by double digits at halftime on a bone-chilling afternoon at Lambeau Field, Coach Mike McCarthy went into the locker room wondering how much energy his players had with the team's playoff prospects in jeopardy.
 Green Bay responded with its most complete performance in weeks, Matt Flynn threw for 258 yards and a mangled defense forced a key fourth-quarter turnover in a 22-21 victory over the Atlanta Falcons (3-10) on Sunday that ended a five-game winless stretch.

It came down to defense in the final few minutes of a nail-biting fourth quarter.
 Mike Neal's sack forced Matt Ryan to fumble and defensive lineman Johnny Jolly scooped up the loose ball. Four plays later, Flynn found Andrew Quarless for a 2-yard touchdown pass that gave the Packers (6-6-1) a 22-21 lead with about 12 minutes left.

Quarless' TD completed a comeback on an 11-play halftime deficit and whipped the bundled-up fans into a frigid frenzy.
 It was 9 degrees when the game started, with a wind chill of minus-1. The stadium looked as if it was encased in a snow globe at times with much of the game played while light, powdery snowflakes gently fell to the worn turf.

Atlanta kicker Matt Bryant missed a 52-yard field goal attempt into the wind with 6:42 left. The Falcons (3-10) got to the 33 with 2 minutes left, but Tony Gonzalez dropped a short pass from Ryan under tight coverage by Jarrett Bush.
 Flynn finished 24 for 32 with an interception in his second start for Rodgers, who has been out since fracturing his left collarbone during a 27-20 loss to the Bears on Nov. 4.

It's been a struggle ever since for Green Bay, which fell from first place in the NFC North to fighting to stay in the playoff chase.
 It didn't look so good for Green Bay after linebacker Sean Weatherspoon's 71-yard interception return with 23 seconds remaining in the second quarter gave the Falcons a 21-10 lead and prompted some fans to voice their displeasure.
 A pass from Flynn appeared to carom off linebacker Paul Worrilow's shoe and chest and into the hands of Weatherspoon. He slowly trudged his way back up the field past Packers players who thought the ball touched the ground.

Packers offensive lineman T.J. Lang whiffed on a tackle around the 22-yard line. From there, the 6-foot-2, 244-pound Weatherspoon got a slow-motion escort into the end zone.
 Ryan finished 20 of 35 for 206 yards with two touchdowns and an interception, while Steven Jackson had 71 yards rushing on 15 carries.

ARLINGTON, Texas — If this was Matt Flynn's best start in place of Aaron Rodgers, it was quite a memorable one. Flynn threw four touchdown passes in the second half. Eddie Lacy had the winning score on a 1-yard plunge after an interception by Tony Romo on Sunday, and the Green Bay Packers matched the biggest comeback in franchise history in a 37-36 win over the Dallas Cowboys.

Romo tossed two interceptions in the final 3 minutes, the first one giving Green Bay a chance for the go-ahead score with the Cowboys in position to run out the clock with a 36-31 lead.

Lacy scored with 1:31 to go for Green Bay's first lead of the game and after the Packers trailed 26-3 at halftime.

Playing on the same field where Rodgers was the MVP when they won the 2011 Super Bowl, the Packers matched the 1992 team in a September game. The Packers (7-6-1) kept their play on the edge alive with Rodgers possibly returning next week. He was close to medical clearance, but missed his sixth straight game with a broken collarbone. He was wearing a cast on Green Bay's sideline.

The locker room simply shaking his head at them after finishing with 153 yards and a touchdown before the game ended and refusing to talk to reporters in Dallas led to a 36-31. Bryant made a running first down after a catch just before the 2-minute warning that looked as if it would help Dallas hold off a huge Green Bay rally. But Romo threw a touchdown pass to Miles Austin after escaping a sack and Sam Shields intercepted the ball at midfield.

The Packers steadily moved downfield before the plunge by Lacy, who had a 17-yard rushing TD. Linebacker Williams made a diving grab that was initially called incomplete. When the video review overturned on review, with Dallas clinging to a 29-24 lead. He cradled a deflected pass in his arms and had a weaving run on the inside of the Dallas 10, but replayed showed the nose of the ball hitting the turf.

The Cowboys went on to score when Bryant made a leaping grab over M.D. Jennings and got two feet down in the back of the end zone for a 36-24 lead.

Flynn answered with his fourth straight scoring drive to get the Packers back within five. A Dallas defense that gave up eight straight scoring drives to Chicago in a loss last week let the Packers get touchdowns on five straight drives after halftime.

Romo threw for 358 yards and two touchdowns, but couldn't avoid two more critical mistakes in a career at least partially defined by them.
