PACKERS RETURN TO LAMBEAU TO FACE THE BROWNS

The Green Bay Packers will take on the Browns this Friday in the preseason home opener at Lambeau Field.

►While the Packers and Browns have only met 18 times in the regular season, with Green Bay holding a 11-7 advantage, Friday will mark the 25th time the two teams have met during the preseason, with Cleveland winning 14 of the previous 24 games.

- ► The 25 games against the Browns will match Pittsburgh and Washington for the second-most games against an opponent in the preseason, trailing only the 30 games Green Bay has played against the N.Y. Giants.
- ►The last overall meeting between the two clubs was during the 2013 regular season, a 31-13 Packers victory at Lambeau Field. They last met during the preseason in 2012, a 35-10 Browns win in Green Bay.
- ►The Packers will stay in Green Bay for their next game, facing the Oakland Raiders in the Bishop's Charities Game on Thursday, Aug. 18, at 7 p.m.

MIDWEST SHRINE GAME

One of the NFL's longest team traditions, the Upper Midwest Shrine Game kicks off its 67th installment Friday night. It will be sixth time the Packers have faced the Browns (1983, 1987, 2009, 2010, 2012) in the game.

- Each season, the Packers donate a percentage of the gate to the Shriners' Hospitals for Children. The Shriners' facilities provide specialized medical services, helping children with birth defects and other injuries, at absolutely no cost. To date, the series has raised more than $3.5 million for the Midwest Shrine's burn centers and hospitals for crippled children.
- ► The series has called three separate stadiums home: Milwaukee's State Fair Park (1950-51), Milwaukee County Stadium (1952-82, 1984-94) and Lambeau Field (1983, 1995-present).
- In his first season leading the Packers, Vince Lombardi made an agreement with George Halas to play in the Shrine game annually. Green Bay and Chicago played each preseason at County Stadium from 1959-73.
- ► The Packers annually designate the Shrine game as the first 'Gold package' game for season-ticket holders primarily from the Milwaukee area. The team created the three-game package after moving all of its home games to Green Bay in 1995. Also in the 'Gold package' this season are the contests against the New York Giants (Oct. 9) and the Indianapolis Colts (Nov. 6).

MEET THE DRAFT PICKS

Training-camp storylines always hover around new players and just how they figure into the depth chart. The Packers added to an already deep and talented roster with a seven-man draft class.

- ▶ DT Kenny Clark, joined teammate DE Datone Jones (No. 26 overall, 2013) as the only UCLA defensive linemen to be selected in the first round of the draft since DT Manu Tuiasosopo in 1979 (No. 18 overall, Seattle). He was a team co-captain in 2015 and recorded career highs in tackles (75), sacks (six) and tackles for a loss (11), which earned him third-team All-America honors from The Associated Press and first-team All-Pacific-12 recognition from the coaches and media. Clark played in all 39 games in his three seasons at UCLA with 29 starts, finishing with 164 tackles (96 solo), seven sacks and 20.5 tackles for a loss.
- ► The Packers selected T Jason Spriggs out of Indiana University in the second round. He joined T Rodger Saffold (St. Louis Rams, 2010, second round) and G Andrew Greene (Miami Dolphins, 1995, second round) as the only Indiana offensive linemen selected in the first two rounds of the draft since 1990. Spriggs was named first-team All-America by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) and Phil Steele's College Football as a senior. He also received the Hoosiers' Chris Dal Sasso Award (outstanding lineman) and was the first Outland Trophy semifinalist in school history. Spriggs played in 48 games over four seasons with 47 starts at left tackle for the Hoosiers.

- Green Bay drafted LB Kyler Fackrell with its third-round selection, the first Utah State player to be picked by the Packers since DB Ed Berry in 1986 (seventh round). Fackrell was named first-team All-Mountain West as a senior in 2015 after ranking first in the nation with five fumble recoveries and posting a school-record 12 quarterback hurries. He ranked second on the Aggies with 82 tackles last season, including a team-high 15 tackles for a loss, along with four sacks and two forced fumbles. Fackrell became one of just 15 players in school history to earn first-team or second-team all-conference recognition three times during his career (2012-13, '15).
- ▶ With the first of two fourth-round picks, the Packers selected LB Blake Martinez out of Stanford. He finished collegiate career with 257 tackles (137 solo), 13.5 tackles for a loss, 6.5 sacks, five interceptions and five forced fumbles in 51 games played. Martinez started all 27 games played in his final two seasons, leading the team in tackles as a junior (102) and senior (141). He led the Pacific-12 and ranked seventh nationally in tackles as a senior, averaging a conference-best 10.1 tackles per game. Martinez's 141 tackles were 84 more than the No. 2 tackler on the team. In 2015, he was named third-team All-America by The Associated Press, second-team All-America by USA Today and Phil Steele's College Football, and first-team All-Pac-12 by AP and Phil Steele's College Football.
- ► Green Bay's second selection of the fourth round was DE Dean Lowry, the first defensive end from Northwestern to be picked since DE Corey Wootton was drafted by the Chicago Bears in 2010 (fourth round, No. 109 overall). He earned second-team All-Big Ten honors as a senior in 2015 after posting 46 tackles (27 solo), including 13.5 tackles for a loss (second on the team), three sacks, an interception, a fumble recovery and seven passes defensed. Lowry set a school single-game record and tied the sixth-best mark in conference history with six tackles for a loss in Northwestern's win at Nebraska last season.
- ► The Packers drafted WR Trevor Davis out of California-Berkeley in the fifth round, joining QB Aaron Rodgers (2005), LB Desmond Bishop (2007) and TE Richard Rodgers (2014) as the fourth player from Cal selected by General Manager Ted Thompson. He began his collegiate career at the University of Hawai'i (2011-12) before transferring to Cal (2013-15) where he totaled 2,300 all-purpose yards, registering 1,071 yards receiving and seven touchdown catches on 64 receptions (16.7 avg.), 1,110 yards on 45 kick returns (24.7 avg.) including two for touchdowns, and 115 yards on 14 punt returns (8.2 avg.). As a junior, he earned first-team All-Pac-12 honors at kick returner from Phil Steele's College Football and second-team recognition from CollegeSportsMadness.com after ranking No. 2 nationally and leading the Pac-12 by averaging 32.6 yards per kickoff return, a school record.
- ▶ With its final selection of the 2016 NFL Draft, Green Bay chose T Kyle Murphy out of Stanford in the sixth round. He played 54 games with 34 starts in four years and was part of a Stanford class that made a bowl appearance all four years and won three Pacific-12 titles (2012, 2013, 2015). Murphy was named third-team All-America by Phil Steele's College Football as a senior after serving as a team captain and starting all 14 games at left tackle. He was a member of an offensive line that finished in the top three among Pac-12 teams in sacks allowed in all four of his seasons.

PACKERS VS. BROWNS - PRESEASON WEEK 1

ST. NORBERT AND THE PACKERS

Continuing a tradition started under Packers coach Scooter McLean in 1958, the Green Bay Packers are calling St. Norbert College home for a 59th consecutive training camp. The relationship between the private college in De Pere, Wis., and the Green Bay Packers marks the longest continual use of any training-camp facility by an NFL team.

- Players take up residence in Victor McCormick Hall, a 60-room coed dormitory used to house 225 students during the academic year.
- ► St. Norbert, founded in 1898 by Abbot Bernard Pennings, borders the Fox River and enrolls around 2,000 students.
- ► The Packers use their own practice and team-meeting facilities at Lambeau Field during training camp, with the college serving as housing headquarters.
- Players return to St. Norbert via cars and vans every evening.
- ► The 6.62-mile commute is estimated at 11 minutes each way.

A LOOK AT THE SCHEDULE

The Green Bay Packers' 96th NFL regular-season schedule is headlined by five prime-time games (subject to flexible scheduling).

- Green Bay's schedule includes five games against 2015 playoff teams. Three of those contests (Minnesota, Houston, Seattle) will be at Lambeau Field, while two (Minnesota, Washington) will come on the road.
- The Packers kick off their season on the road for the fourth consecutive year, the longest streak in team history, opening with two road games for the first time since 1924. Green Bay will travel to Jacksonville, playing on the road against an AFC team in Week 1 for the first time since facing the New England Patriots in 1985.
- Green Bay will face division opponents in Weeks 2-3, beginning with a trip to Minnesota to face the Vikings in a prime-time game and returning to Lambeau Field for the home opener against the Detroit Lions.
- ►For the second time in four years, the Packers will have their bye in Week 4.
- Green Bay returns to action with three consecutive home games against NFC teams over a 12-day span. In Week 5, the Packers play on Sunday night against the New York Giants. It will be the Giants' first regular-season game at Lambeau Field since 2010. The following week, Green Bay will play the Dallas Cowboys for the fourth consecutive season (including playoffs) and for the second straight year at home in the regular season. The Packers have won five straight games against the Cowboys during the regular and postseason. Green Bay finishes the homestand playing the Chicago Bears on a Thursday night for the second consecutive season (11th straight year in primetime).
- ► Four of the Packers' next five games will be on the road, including three road games in a row for the first time since 2012.
- ► After a trip to play the Atlanta Falcons in Week 8, Green Bay will face the Indianapolis Colts at home for the first time since 2008. Five of the last seven matchups between Green Bay and Indianapolis have been decided by seven or fewer points. The Packers make just their third regular-season visit to Tennessee to play the Titans in Week 10. Green Bay is looking for their first victory at the Titans since they moved to Tennessee in 1997

- Green Bay will play two prime-time road games in a row, first traveling to play against the Washington Redskins on a Sunday night in Week 11 and then going to Philadelphia to face the Eagles on Monday Night Football in Week 12. It marks the 24th consecutive season (1993-2016) that Green Bay is appearing on MNF.
- Green Bay will play its first game at home in almost a month when it faces the Houston Texans in Week 13 for just the second time ever at home.
- Week 14 brings a familiar matchup as the Packers welcome the Seattle Seahawks to Lambeau Field for the second consecutive year. Including the postseason, Green Bay and Seattle will meet for the fifth time in five years.
- ►For the first time since 2006, the Packers will finish the regular season with three straight games against NFC North opponents.
- ►In Week 15, Green Bay will travel to Chicago to play the Bears. The Packers have won four consecutive games against the Bears in December, three of which were played in Chicago.
- ►Green Bay returns home to play the Vikings in Week 16 on Christmas Eve, playing on a Saturday for the first time since 1997. The Packers last played on Christmas Eve in 2004, a 34-31 victory at Minnesota. Including playoffs, Green Bay has a 8-2-1 mark (.773) against the Vikings at Lambeau Field under McCarthy.
- The Packers will finish the regular season in Detroit for the first time since 1993. Green Bay has won seven of 10 games at Ford Field under McCarthy. It will be only the third time the Packers have played at the Lions during the regular season in the month of January (1983, 1994).

ADJUSTMENTS TO THE STAFF

In addition to making changes to the roster this past offseason, the Packers also made a few changes to the coaching staff, including bringing in some new faces.

- Brian Angelichio (an-juh-LEEK-o), who is in his fifth season as an assistant coach in the NFL, joined the staff as tight ends coach. He spent the previous two seasons in the same position for the Cleveland Browns, where he helped Gary Barnidge lead the team with career highs in receptions (79), receiving yards (1,043) and receiving touchdowns (nine). Angelichio joined the Browns after spending two seasons (2012-13) as the tight ends coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

Green Bay went 7-1 away from Lambeau Field in 2011, with the seven road wins setting a single-season franchise record.

- ► The Packers have been able to stay above the .500 mark on the road during Head Coach Mike McCarthy's tenure, a notable achievement in the National Football League.
- Since 2006, McCarthy's first season as the head coach in Green Bay, only nine of 32 NFL teams have regular-season road records above .500.

317 AND COUNTING

Another packed house at Lambeau Field against the Vikings in Week 17 brought the stadium's consecutive-sellouts streak to 317 regular-season games (not including replacement games).

- The league's longest-tenured stadium, Lambeau Field is hosting its 59th season of football in 2015. Including the playoffs, a total of 704,818 fans made their way through the turnstiles for the nine games last season. For the victory over Dallas in the Divisional round, Packers fans set a new Lambeau Field paid attendance record (79,704).
- Across American professional sports, only Boston's Fenway Park (1912) and Chicago's Wrigley Field (1914) have longer tenures.

THE LAMBEAU ADVANTAGE

The crown jewel of the National Football League, Lambeau Field has long been known as one of the tougher venues to play in, particularly during the harsh Wisconsin winter.

- ► Re-establishing home-field advantage after a 4-4 mark in 2008 was one of the goals of 2009, and with the Packers finishing 6-2 at home, they accomplished that goal. Green Bay followed that up with a 7-1 mark at Lambeau Field in 2010, a perfect 8-0 record in 2011, the first undefeated home mark since 2002, and a 7-1 mark in 2012. The Packers were one of two teams to finish undefeated at home during the 2014 regular season (Denver).
- Head Coach Mike McCarthy stated consistently upon his arrival in Green Bay that one of the team's goals would be to reclaim the mystique of playing at Lambeau Field. Mission accomplished. The team is 59-20-1 (.744) at home in the regular season since 2006, No. 2 in the NFL.
- Since Ron Wolf and Mike Holmgren began the revitalization of the franchise in 1992, Green Bay owns the best home record in the NFL. A look at the top regular-season home W-L records since the '92 season:

IN THE FREE-AGENCY ERA

Talk of unrestricted free agency in the early '90s led many to forecast tough times for the small-town Green Bay Packers.

- However, Green Bay has remained among the most successful teams since the advent of free agency in 1993. The Packers have won 10 or more games 15 times since '93 and captured 10 division crowns.
