PACKERS AT BROWNS - WEEK 14

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

Green Bay went 7-1 away from Lambeau Field in 2011, with the seven road wins setting a single-season franchise record.

- ▶ The Packers have been able to stay above the .500 mark on the road during Head Coach Mike McCarthy's tenure, a notable achievement in the National Football League.
- ▶ Since 2006, McCarthy's first season as the head coach in Green Bay, only eight of 32 NFL teams have regular-season road records above .500.

333 AND COUNTING

Another packed house at Lambeau Field against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in Week 13 brought the stadium's consecutive-sellouts streak to 333 regular-season games (not including replacement games).

- ▶ The league's longest-tenured stadium, Lambeau Field is hosting its 61st season of football in 2017. For the victory over Dallas in the Divisional round of the 2014 playoffs, Packers fans set a new Lambeau Field paid-attendance record (79,704).
- ▶ Across American professional sports, only Boston's Fenway Park (1912) and Chicago's Wrigley Field (1914) have longer tenures.

THE LAMBEAU ADVANTAGE

The crown jewel of the National Football League, Lambeau Field has long been known as one of the tougher venues to play in, particularly during the harsh Wisconsin winter.

- ▶ Re-establishing home-field advantage after a 4-4 mark in 2008 was one of the goals of 2009, and with the Packers finishing 6-2 at home, they accomplished that goal. Green Bay followed that up with a 7-1 mark at Lambeau Field in 2010, a perfect 8-0 record in 2011, the first undefeated home mark since 2002, and a 7-1 mark in 2012. The Packers were one of two teams to finish undefeated at home during the 2014 regular season (Denver).
- ▶ Head Coach Mike McCarthy stated consistently upon his arrival in Green Bay that one of the team's goals would be to reclaim the mystique of playing at Lambeau Field. Mission accomplished. The team is 69-25-1 (.732) at home in the regular season since 2006, No. 3 in the NFL.
- ▶ Since Ron Wolf and Mike Holmgren began the revitalization of the franchise in 1992, Green Bay owns the best home record in the NFL. A look at the top regular-season home W-L records since the '92 season:

Team	W-L Record	Pct.

2. Pittsburgh	148-56-1	.724
3. New England	149-57-0	.723

HOT AT HOME

Since the start of 2009, the Packers have been one of the best teams in the league at home during the regular season:

Team	W-L Record	Pct.
1. New England	61-9-0	.871
2. Green Bay	55-15-1	.782
3. Baltimore	52-18-0	.743
4. Seattle	51-19-0	.729
5. Pittsburgh	50-19-0	.725

IN THE FREE-AGENCY ERA

Talk of unrestricted free agency in the early '90s led many to forecast tough times for the small-town Green Bay Packers.

- ▶ However, Green Bay has remained among the most successful teams since the advent of free agency in 1993. The Packers have won 10 or more games 15 times since '93 and captured 10 division crowns.
- ▶ A look at the most successful teams in the free-agency era:

Tie Game

Green Bay 26, Minnesota 26, Nov. 24, 2013

GREEN BAY 35, CHICAGO 14

Lambeau Field, Thursday, Sept. 28, 2017. Attendance: 78,362. Time: 3:52. Weather: 66° F, Humidity: 62 percent, Wind: SW 5 mph GAME 4

GREEN BAY, Wis. — The Green Bay Packers keep finding ways to win despite more key injuries. The Chicago Bears never recovered from a miserable start by quarterback Mike Glennon. Aaron Rodgers threw four touchdown passes, and the injury-riddled Packers converted three turnovers into scores in an eventful 35-14 victory over the Chicago Bears on Thursday night. Rodgers connected with Davante Adams and Randall Cobb on short touchdown passes to help build a 21-0 lead in the second quarter of a game delayed 45 minutes by lightning between the first two quarters. The Packers overpowered the Bears down the stretch to slog out a win as intermittent rain fell at Lambeau Field.

The Packers (3-1) lost two more key players to injuries. Adams left the field on a stretcher after getting hit in the head during a tackle by Danny Tretan in the third quarter. Running back Ty Montgomery was knocked out in the first quarter with a chest injury. The Bears (2-4) were held scoreless by the Packers, who accounted for four turnovers. He tumbled on his first snap on a strip sack by Clay Matthews. Rodgers hit Cobb for a 2-yard touchdown pass three plays later for a 7-0 lead. Glennon fumbled on his next series, too, but the Packers couldn't score on that drive. It was only a matter of time because the mistakes kept mounting.

Glennon threw his second interception with 2:54 left in the third quarter. Six plays later, receiver Jordy Nelson caught his second touchdown pass, an 8-yarder from Rodgers, to make it a 28-point lead. Rodgers was 18 of 26 for 173 yards. He picked apart the Bears (1-3) on short, quick passes, a game plan in part necessitated by a patchwork offensive line. The Packers played without starting backup David Bakhtiar and Bryan Bulaga, and their three backup tackles are already on injured reserve. The injury to Adams cast a pall over the third quarter. The game was delayed for about five minutes while medical personnel tended to the receiver, who gave a thumbs-up signal as he was wheeled off the field. The Packers said Adams was conscious and taken to a hospital for evaluation for possible head and neck injuries, and that he had feeling in all of his extremities.

Both the Packers and Bears were coming off overtime wins Sunday. Glennon finished 21 of 33 for 216 yards and one touchdown. The Packers are 95-94-6 against the Bears, their first lead in the series since 1933. It's the oldest rivalry in football, dating to 1923. Matthews' sack on Glennon in the first quarter was the 75th of his career, breaking the franchise record (since 1982) held by Kabeer Gbaja-Tamie. The Packers took Aaron Jones, a third-round draft pick, had a team-high 49 yards on 13 carries and a 2-yard touchdown run in the second quarter. He was the only active running back left on the roster with Montgomery and backup Jamaal Williams (knee) both knocked out of the game.

GREEN BAY 35, DALLAS 31

A/T & T Stadium, Sunday, Oct 8, 2017. Attendance: 93,329. Time: 3:07. Weather: Indors.

GAME 5

DALLAS (AP) — Aaron Rodgers had more magic in store for the Dallas Cowboys, who can't seem to find the mojo that carried them a year ago.

Rodgers threw a 12-yard touchdown pass to Davante Adams with 11 seconds remaining. Rodgers capped a 75-yard drive in just 1:02, lifting the Packers over Dallas 35-31 on Sunday in another thriller nine months after their divisional playoff win on the same field.

Adams had been in the concussion protocol but was active 10 days after leaving the field on a stretcher on a helmet-to-helmet hit that resulted in a suspension for Chicago linebacker Danny Trevathan. He had seven catches for 66 yards and two touchdowns.

Dak Prescott, who had touchdown passes on Dallas' first three drives, put the Cowboys in front on an 11-yard touchdown run with 1:13 remaining to cap a 17-play drive that lasted almost nine minutes.

But another defensive lockdown, just like a year ago in the postseason, left Dallas (2-3) already with the same number of losses from the magical rookie season when Prescott and running back Ezekiel Elliott led the Cowboys to the No. 1 seed in the NFC.

The Packers (4-1) had gone ahead earlier on Damarious Randall's 21-yard interception return for a touchdown, the third of five lead changes in the fourth quarter. Green Bay rallied from 15 points down in the first half after letting a 21-3 lead get away in last season's playoff win.

Aaron Jones became the first Green Bay running back with 100 yards in his first start as a rookie since Santonio Gado in 2005. He had 19 carries for 125 yards and a touchdown. He replaced Ty Montgomery, out after an injury to his ribs in the win over the Bears.

Elliott ended a three-game drought without 100 yards, matching the longest from his rookie season, finishing with 116 yards on 29 carries. Rodgers was 19 of 29 for 221 yards and three touchdowns, and set up the winning score with an 18-yard scramble. After an incomplection to Adams working against rookie Jordan Lewis, Rodgers went there again. Adams made the grab as Lewis turned too late.

Prescott looked the part of Rodgers, scrambling to set up big completions and running 21 yards himself on one play to help the Cowboys build a 21-6 lead.

He was 25 of 36 for 251 yards and three first-half touchdowns, two to Cole Beesley and one to Dez Bryant, who joined Hall of Farmer Bob Hayes as the only Dallas receivers with at least 70 TD grabs.

DE David Irving returned from a four-game suspension for Dallas with two sacks. He had a sack and three forced fumbles with a recovery in last year's 30-16 win in Green Bay during the regular season.

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Aaron Rodgers and the Green Bay Packers arrived at the Super Bowl site for this season with a realistic goal of returning to Minnesota in four months for a crack at another championship. Their chance of returning in February took an awfully big hit when Rodgers broke his collarbone.

Harrison Smith led Minnesota's defense in a win over the Packers after Rodgers left the field on a cart, taking a big piece of Green Bay's title aspirations with him and paving the way for a 23-10 victory by the Vikings on Sunday at U.S. Bank Stadium that transformed the trajectory of the NFC North race.

The Packers said Rodgers could be done for the season after he fell on his throwing shoulder after being taken down by Anthony Barr during an interception on the second drive for the Packers. Backup Brett Hundley, who completed 18 of 33 passes for 157 yards and his first career touchdown to Davante Adams, threw three interceptions. Barr, who later left with a concussion, was not penalized for the hit on Rodgers. Smith had 1½ sacks on safety blitzes, a diving interception and two pass breakups, helping the Vikings (4-2) limit the injury-depleted Packers to a season-low 227 yards. The Packers had five first downs and 102 yards over the first three quarters.

Vikings backup Case Keenum made his fourth start and finished for the fifth time in place of Sam Bradford, who's been waylaid by wear and tear in his twice-repaired left knee. Keenum went 24 for 38 for 239 yards without top wide receiver Stefan Diggs, who was out with a groin injury, he threw 13 times to Adam Thielen, completing nine for 97 yards, and had one interception and zero sacks.

McCahy said he was concerned about his defense entering the game, with three starters, cornerback Davon Diggins and Kevin King and strong safety Morgan Burnett, ruled out with injuries. Then another cornerback, Quentin Rollins, hurt his ankle and didn't return.

The Packers had Ty Montgomery back at tailback after missing the previous game because of broken ribs, but he was limited to 28 yards on 10 carries. Aaron Jones gained 41 yards on 13 attempts. Montgomery made a juggling catch at the goal line that was ultimately ruled incomplete by replay-review reversal, forcing a short field goal instead and keeping the Vikings in front 14-10 right before halftime.

For the first time in six games this season, the Packers had their entire starting offensive line intact. That lasted about half the game. Right tackle Bryan Bulaga was removed because of a concussion, and left tackle David Bakhtiar's hamstring flared up again after he missed the previous four games with the injury. Left guard Lane Taylor also departed with injuries to his ankle and knee.

NEW ORLEANS 26, GREEN BAY 17

GREEN BAY: Wis - Drew Brees threw for a touchdown and ran for another. Mark Ingram rushed for a score and the New Orleans Saints overcame several mistakes to beat the Green Bay Packers 26-17 on Sunday.

Will Lutz kicked two second-half field goals, including a 44-yarder, to put New Orleans up for good 19-17 with 10:26 left in the game. Brees' 1-yard sneak gave the Saints a two-score lead with 4:55 left.

The sloppy Saints were fortunate to get their fourth straight victory. The Packers lost their first game with Brett Hundley starting at quarterback for injured star Aaron Rodgers.

New Orleans' defense gave up a 46-yard touchdown run to rookie Aaron Jones on the opening drive. Brees was picked off twice in the first quarter. Lutz had a blocked extra point and New Orleans (4-2) was penalized seven times for 80 yards.

But the Saints pulled away late at overcast Lambeau Field, scoring on all four of their second-half drives.

After holding the Packers (4-3) to a three-and-out inside the 20, New Orleans drove 55 yards in eight plays to seal the game with Brees' sneak over the goal line.

Brees finished 27 of 38 for 331 yards with a touchdown. Ingram ran for 105 yards on 22 carries.

Trailing late, the Packers couldn't muster big plays without Rodgers. He's out indefinitely with a broken right collarbone.

Instead, Mike McCarthy turned to a running game that initially threw off the Saints.

Jones had 131 yards on 17 carries. Hundley showed toughness in running for a 14-yard score to give Green Bay a 14-7 lead with 8:37 left in the second quarter.

But the Packers managed just a 46-yard field goal from Mason Crosby in the second half, which gave them a brief 17-16 lead.

The Saints took over from there, and the Packers couldn't keep up through the air.

Hundley finished 12 of 25 for 87 yards. He was intercepted by safety Kenny Vaccaro on a deep ball down the middle of the field with 4:20 left, ending the Packers' comeback bid.

Besides Brees, two picks, the Saints' rough first quarter also included a punt fumbled by Ted Ginn Jr. at his 20. But New Orleans got a break and retained possession when the Packers' Josh Jones was whistled for fair-catch interference.

For the Saints, Ginn had 141 yards on seven catches, while fellow receiver Michael Thomas finished with 82 yards on seven receptions.

For the Packers, their playmakers at receiver were shut down with Hundley running the offense. Tight end Marcellus Bennett was the leading receiver with 17 yards on two catches.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — The Baltimore Ravens' defense forced five turnovers. The offense finished off a shutout of the Green Bay Packers with 10 fourth-quarter points.

Baltimore (5-5) got its third shutout of the season in blanking the Packers 23-0 on Sunday. The Ravens last accomplished the feat when the Ray Lewis-led defense had four shutouts for the Super Bowl-winning team in 2001, the last NFL team to have three wins over New England in 2003.

Terrell Suggs, Matthew Judon and Willie Henry each had two sacks apiece against Green Bay.

The Packers' streak of eight straight possession appearances looks to be in jeopardy with the offense struggling without injured quarterback Aaron Rodgers.

Backup Brett Hundley was 21 of 36 for 239 yards. But he threw interceptions on the Packers' first two series. On the third drive, backup running back Devante Adams fumbled on his first carry of the season.

The Packers (5-5) have lost four of their past five games.

The Packers were shut out for the first time since Nov. 19, 2006, when then-starter Brett Favre left with an injury in the first half of a 35-0 loss to New England. Rodgers, then in his second year in the league, finished off that loss in relief.

Devante Adams was one of the Packers' few bright spots after torching the Ravens' strong secondary for 126 yards on eight catches. The Packers actually outgained the Ravens, 265-219. But turnovers sapped any momentum.

Ravens quarterback Joe Flacco will cherish the memories of winning a game at venerable Lambeau Field. He threw for 183 yards, going 22 of 28 with an interception, and a pretty 21-yard touchdown pass to Mike Wallace in the third quarter.

Packers linebacker Clay Matthews suffered a groin injury midway through the first quarter. He returned for one play on the next defensive series, then watched the rest of the first half from the sideline. Matthews did have a sack before getting hurt, his first sack since Week 4, to give him 3 1/2 for the season. Another starter, defensive lineman Kenny Clark, was carried off the field in the fourth quarter with an ankle injury.

GAME 11

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Brett Hundley wanted this one for his teammates. The embattled Green Bay quarterback, filling in for the injured Aaron Rodgers, enjoyed a breakout performance in the national spotlight, but Pittsburgh Steelers quarterback Ben Roethlisberger and wide receiver Antonio Brown ruined Hundley's moment.

Roethlisberger and Brown guided the Steelers to a four-play, 55-yard drive in 17 seconds, leading to Chris Boswell's 53-yard field goal as time expired that gave the Steelers a 31-28 victory over the Packers on Sunday night.

Hundley ended 17 of 26 for 245 yards with three touchdown passes and zero interceptions. A week earlier, Hundley threw three interceptions without a touchdown in a 23-0 loss against Baltimore, the Packers' first home shutout defeat in 11 years.

Sunday's start showed growth as Hundley tossed two TDs in the first quarter alone. He had two touchdown passes and seven interceptions in his previous five games since Rodgers broke his collarbone.

Dante Adams caught five passes for 82 yards and a touchdown, while Jamaal Williams and Randall Cobb also hauled in scores.

Hundley found Cobb for a 39-yard touchdown, Williams for a 54-yard screen pass in the first quarter and Adams for a 55-yard touchdown on the sixth play of the second half. Hundley also matched the Packers on a game-tying drive in the fourth quarter, needing 12 plays to go 77 yards for the touchdown. He connected with Adams for an 8-yard pickup on fourth-and-six from the Pittsburgh 12, which led to Williams' second touchdown of the game to even the score with 2:02 to play.

Hundley also picked apart a Steelers defense that has allowed six touchdowns of at least 39 yards in the last three weeks and six scores of 50-plus yards this season, most in the NFL.

Green Bay, which hasn't won in Pittsburgh since 1970, has now lost five of six, including the last two. The Packers, who defeated Pittsburgh almost seven years ago in Super Bowl XLV, were two games below .500 last season before reeling off eight straight wins to reach the NFC Championship game.

Hundley and the Packers are faced with a similar situation this season, now at 5-6 overall.

Pittsburgh (9-2) won its sixth straight with Roethlisberger who threw for 351 yards with four touchdowns and two interceptions. Brown finished with 10 receptions for 169 yards and two touchdowns. Le'Veon Bell ran for 95 yards and added another 88 yards receiving but also had a fumble that stalled a drive early in the fourth quarter. The Steelers outgained Green Bay, 462-307, and had the ball for nearly 34 minutes.

GAME 12

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Dean Lowry estimates that he could run a 40-yard dash in 4.8 seconds. Watching him tumble down the field on a 62-yard fumble return for a touchdown might have felt like an eternity to fans at Lambeau Field.

Lowry's score highlighted a solid effort for the Packers' defense, and Green Bay's offense relied on the running game to beat the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, 26-20, in overtime on Sunday. The game ended on the opening possession of overtime with Aaron Jones' 20-yard scoring run on his only carry.

Lowry scratched the ball out of the air following a strip-sack of Jameis Winston by Kenny Clark. Seconds later, the 6-foot-6, 296-pound lineman was making a lambeau leap.

The Packers (9-6) got seven sacks along with a deflected punt by Kyle Fackrell and kept their playoff hopes alive. They still trail NFC North-leading Minnesota by four games, but there is renewed optimism with the possibility of quarterback Aaron Rodgers returning from a collarbone injury in a couple weeks.

Green Bay spoiled the return of Winston to the Buccaneers (4-8), whose playoff hopes are just about done.

The Packers had just 84 yards passing but wore down the Buccaneers on the ground. Rodgers' replacement, Brett Hundley, had runs of 18 and 7 yards on the game-winning drive in overtime. If Green Bay can keep turning the ball effectively, it may be able to stay in the playoff race until Rodgers returns to spice up the offense.

Hundley finished 13 of 22 for 84 yards, adding seven carries for 66 yards. Jamaal Williams ran for 113 yards and a touchdown on 21 carries. Winston finished 21 of 32 for 270 yards and two touchdowns, including an 11-yard scoring pass to tight end Cameron Brate for a 20-17 lead with 6:02 left. But Winston had defenders in his face all day. Peyton Barber rushed for 102 yards on 23 carries.

The Buccaneers had one shot in regulation after Mason Crosby kicked a 22-yard field goal to tie the game at 20 with 2:01 left. But Winston's 20-yard pass to Charles Sims was negated by an illegal-block penalty on Evan Smith that pushed the offense back to first-and-20 from its own 10. Tampa punted three plays later and never got the ball back.

The Packers believe they need to win their last four games to have a shot at the postseason. They face the winless Cleveland Browns next week, and with a win, Rodgers could return to a 7-6 team the following week at Carolina. Rodgers returned to practice on Saturday for the first time since getting hurt on Oct. 15 at Minnesota.
