Death Is Shock

Death last night came as a severe shock to relatives and friends of Casper Schaden, 1650 Twenty-fourth street. Mr. Schaden was usually in the best of health but shortly after 10:30 last night suffered a heart stroke which proved fatal.

The well known resident went to his death bed in high spirits. He with Mrs. Schaden, daughter Ethel and Hubert Simino spent the day at the Louis Prucha cottage at Goedjen's Grove. The day's outing was an enjoyable one for Mr. Schaden and never during the day did he complain of feeling ill. The party returned from the cottage about 10:30 and Mr. Schaden took part in the joking of the doings of the day. After bidding the family good night he went to his room and retired for the night. He was found dead a few minutes later by his wife.

Mr. Schaden was a devout member of the St. Luke's Catholic church and attended Holy Communion with the St. Joseph's society, of which he is a member, yesterday morning at the seven o'clock mass.

Mr. Schaden was employed at the old pail factory for a number of years and for the past seventeen years was employed at the Aluminum Goods Mfg. Co. plant one. In February 1931 Mr. Schaden suffered an accident which resulted in the amputation of an arm.

Besides his wife he is survived by four daughters, three sisters, three brothers and three grandchildren. The daughters are Mrs. Ed. Kochrosky, Mrs. Louis T. Prucha, and Ethel of this city and Mrs. Pritchard Reardon of Manitowoc. The sisters are Mrs. Joe Vannes and Mrs. John Connelly of Green Bay and Mrs. Mitchell Lotto of Green Valley.
